Ashland, Wis., Nov. 22.—Judge Risjord on Saturday sentenced Ray McDonald, 21, to six years in Waupun prison for burglary. He pleaded guilty last January along with some other local boys to burglarizing the business places of C. N. Cramer, Louis Newquist, F. G. May and Louis Anderson and was placed on probation then broke his pledge and was rearrested.

Flickertail Loses Lawsuit.

Mastings, Minn., Nov. 22.—Ernest Moore, Sr., of Mikkelson, N. D., was unsuccessful in an effort to recover $1,250.70 from E. M. Lillehaugen and Mat Mattimore of Bennedict, N. D., and the J. R. Kirk Commission company of South St. Paul, for cattle belonging to him, which he alleged the defendants had unlawfully dealt it. A jury in Dakota county district court returned a verdict for the defendants.

PUT CREAM IN NOSE AND STOP CATARRH

Tells How To Open Clogged Nostrils and End Head-Colds.

You feel fine in a few moments. Your cold in head or catarrh will be gone. Your clogged nostrils will open. The air passages of your head will clear and you can breathe freely. No more dullness, headache; no hawking, snuffling, mucous discharges or dryness; no struggling for breath at night.

Tell your druggist you want a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm. Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic cream in your nostrils, let it penetrate through every air passage of the head; soothe and heal the swollen, inflamed mucous membrane, and relief comes instantly.

It is just what every cold and catarrh sufferer needs. Don't stay stuffed-up and miserable.—Advertisement.

OUCH! PAIN, PAIN; RUB RHEUMATIC, ACHING JOINTS

Rub pain away with a small trial bottle of old "St. Jacobs Oil."

Rheumatism is "pain" only. Not one case in fifty requires internal treatment. Stop drugging. Rub soothing, penetrating "St. Jacobs Oil" right into your sore, stiff, aching joints and muscles, and relief comes instantly. "St. Jacobs Oil" is a harmless rheumatism cure which never disappoints and cannot burn the skin.

Limber up! Quit complaining! Get a small trial bottle of old, honest "St. Jacobs Oil" at any drug store, and in just a moment you'll be free from rheumatic pain, soreness, stiffness and swelling. Don't suffer! Relief awaits you. "St. Jacobs Oil" has cured millions of rheumatism sufferers in the last half century, and is just as good for sciatica, neuralgia, lumbago, backache, sprains.—Advertisement.

Multiplying Motor Miles

THE number of motor miles traveled by the average American has been increasing steadily for a decade. During 1921 this mileage again will be vastly increased.

It is estimated that 10 million automobiles and trucks will be in operation by the end of 1921. The estimate for 1920 is 7,523,000.

The most intensive use of all kinds of automotive machinery is in the 10 middle Western states served by the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) and the major problem confronting this company is to keep its patrons supplied with all the gasoline and lubricating oils they require.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is acknowledged to be the largest individual producer of gasoline in the world, and its efficient system of distribution makes it possible for the remotest citizen in the 10 states served to get his requirements of petroleum products with a minimum of effort and expense.

Advanced methods of refining, originated in the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) laboratories, have vastly increased the percentage of gasoline recoverable from crude oil.

The Company is striving to increase the yield of gasoline, and every effort is concentrated to the accomplishment of this result without sacrifice of gasoline quality. The efficiency of Red Crown Gasoline is an illustration of what has been accomplished.

The entire petroleum industry is working to multiply the motor miles which shall be available during 1921, and the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is leading in this effort.

Prospectors are seeking to discover new fields to drill. Producers are insisting on maximum output from wells already drilled.

Waste of oil in transportation is practically eliminated, and the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) efficiency in refining has vastly increased the average recovery of motor fuel from the crude available.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is cooperating in every way with the automobile industry and the American motorist to multiply motor miles in 1921.

SOUND LABOR STATESMANSHIP.

Union labor, through its national representatives in conference at Washington, discloses two purposes:

1. To rid its ranks and leadership of the fanatic radicals whose loud talk and absurd plans have given labor much bad advertising, mostly undeserved.

2. To study how to co-operate in increasing production, realizing that national and individual well-being must, in the end, be limited by whatever limitations are placed on production.

To this end labor's representatives have conferred with Herbert Hoover, the world's present greatest social engineer; and that was a mighty good sign.

Quarreling over the fruits of production when there isn't anywhere near enough production to make comfort go around, is poor business, especially when the quarrel paralyzes production, as it invariably does.

It must be clear by now that the world wants no industrial autocracy. It is fatal to have an employer autocracy, with workers at its mercy. It is fatal to have an employe autocracy, with employers and public at its mercy. It is fatal to have a perennial tug-of-war between employers and workers to see which shall have control. Even if details are lacking, it must be clear now to every thinking person that it is in co-operation on a basis of mutuality between wage-payer and wage-earner that the solution of industrial problems must be found.

The attitude disclosed by the representatives of the American Federation of Labor at Washington is industrial statesmanship.

It is forging the deadliest imaginable weapons against those who would destroy unionism, because if it is carried out it would make unionism indispensable to industry.

Labor coming in that spirit is not a thing to fight. It is an institution to be met half way and co-operated with.

WHERE GOOD ROADS ARE APPRECIATED.

Talking of Amendment No. 1, the Eighth congressional district certainly covered itself with glory by its vote on that momentous issue. No other section in the state did anywhere near so well by Amendment No. 1.

The vote in the Eighth district counties was as follows:

County.	For.	Against.
Carlton	3,904	754
Cook	679	5
Itasca	6,211	549
Koochiching	3,188	217
Lake	2,274	189
St. Louis	42,650	5,331
Totals	58,906	7,018

The vote in the whole state was 526,936 for and 199,603 against—a little better than two and a half to one.

The vote in the Eighth district was eight to one. In Cook it was 136 to one, in Carlton five to one, In Itasca eleven to one, in Lake twelve to one, in Koochiching fourteen to one, and in St. Louis eight to one.

Carlton with its five to one did the poorest in the district; but no other county in the state outside the Eighth district did so well as Carlton. The Amendment lost in a number of counties—mainly in the districts where the Nonpartisan league vote was heavy.

A WISE GRAND JURY.

Grand juries, despite their solemn and awful powers, are made up of folks, and so are not always wise. But one grand jury, in Chicago, has said something that is as wise as Solomon.

This is that the responsibility of parents for juvenile delinquencies ought to be exposed by making them pay for all expenses incurred by the state in prosecuting juvenile offenders when the offenses are shown clearly to be due to neglect or improper training of the children.

Whether that plan could be worked out practically, and whether it is the right way to get at what that grand jury had in mind, may be in doubt. Certainly there can be no doubt about this fact, which was uppermost in the minds of the jurors: that in an appallingly large proportion of cases of child delinquency the parents are at fault for their neglect of their children and for the perfectly atrocious training they have given them.

No official or philanthropic citizen who has come in contact with child offenders and has looked into the environment that produced them will have the slightest doubt about that. A few are born bad; but where one is born bad a hundred, if not a thousand, are made bad by parental neglect or by bad training or no training at all.

Why shouldn't such parents, being plainly guilty, be punished in some way? Why isn't that, instead of punishing the victims of their neglect, the quickest and the justest way to reach child delinquency?

It may be answered in behalf of many of such parents that they, in their turn, were left ignorant through the neglect of their own parents; and even that society itself might be brought to the bar for permitting such ignorance to perpetuate itself from generation to generation. That answer may be made, but it is leading the investigation afar and forgetting the erring child whose condition set it going.

Certainly there is wisdom in the thought put forth by this Chicago grand jury, and matter in it deserving thought which may helpfully fruit in constructive action.

> What a chimera, then, is man! What a motley, what a monster, what a chaos, what a subject of contradictions, what a prodigy! A judge of all things, feeble worm of the earth, depository of the truth, cloaca of uncertainty and error, the glory and the shame of the universe!

THE CHILDREN'S HOME.

Tomorrow night comes the Charity Ball, and as usual the Children's Home will profit by its net yield, which is not, as a rule, small.

Those who have embraced this opportunity to contribute to the support of this splendid institution have done well.

But the receipts from the Charity Ball will not run the Children's Home, will not make it possible for this motherly institution to continue its tender care to the forlorn and bereft little ones that come unto it out of the world's misery.

Presently, we hope, Duluth will adopt the Community Welfare Budget idea and with one splendid campaign each year will provide this and other deserving charities and causes with ample funds to let them operate to the fullest possible efficiency.

But in the meantime individual help for individual causes is the only source of sustenance; and there is no cause more deserving than this fine and admirably managed institution, which, like St. James Orphanage, wisely and tenderly cares for the little waifs whom a sad fate has deprived of the home and mother's care that should be the heritage of them all.

Many may not know that there is an associate membership in the Children's Home society, with a fee of only one dollar, which helps considerably toward the support of this institution and could be made to help a great deal more if a great many more people took advantage of it.

If you want to help a little in this way, why not send a dollar to the treasurer of the Children's Home, Mrs. W. B. Brinkman, 2116 East Third street, as your associate membership fee? Nothing hinders if you want to send more, but the dollar helps.

REAL AMERICANIZATION WORK.

Elsewhere in The Herald tonight appears a table showing the progress of educational work for adults in this county, and the county may well take pride in it. Probably there is no other place in the United States that can make such a showing, and that this highly creditable record is possible is due to the intelligent attitude taken by the courts of this section and by the local boards of education. All praise to them!

The courts have done their share by requiring that candidates for citizenship shall show enough knowledge of our institutions to enable them to undertake the responsibilities of citizenship, and the local school boards have responded by providing the necessary educational facilities.

Duluth may be proud of the fact that its night school attendance is almost ten per cent of the enrollment of children in the day schools; yet a number of smaller communities show percentages even larger, and only two show a lower percentage.

These adults who are going to school nights are not all aliens seeking to qualify for citizenship, though the majority of them are; but it is Americanization work just the same, whether those who benefit are natives or aliens, because education is as necessary a foundation for Americanization in one as it is in the other.

The number of women in attendance is particularly pleasant to see—1,474 of them taking English and civic courses, and 2,620 of them in the night schools.

Yet this splendid showing, when one comes to think of it, reveals a great lack. Admirable provision is made in the communities for helping aliens to become good citizens by education; but there is no provision at present in the rural districts, where the need is quite as great if not greater. The Herald sincerely hopes that the county superintendent of schools will give this subject his serious thought and see if he cannot work out a plan to close this gap.

Considerable Job

Los Angeles Times: Looks as if an early task of the League of Nations would be to demobilize Senator Johnson and Herbert Hoover. Quite a job.

Literary Repetitions

From the Portland Oregonian.

It has been said that there were originally only three jokes in the world—some say seven—and that from these has sprung modern humor. So people long ago learned to expect nothing new and to agree with Pliny the Elder, who, before he perished in the Vesuvian eruption of 79 A. D., remarked:

"In comparing various authors with one another, I have discovered that some of the gravest and latest writers have transcribed word for word from former works, without making acknowledgements."

Some of these transcriptions make interesting comparisons.

Longfellow wrote, "Art is long, and time is fleeting." Goethe put the sentiment into German thus:

Ach, Gott! Die Kunst ist lang,
Und Kurz ist unser Leben.

Which Bayard Taylor translated almost literally:

Ah, God, but art is long,
And life, alas, is fleeting.

Chaucer had said, "The lyfe so short, the craft so long to lerne," but Hippocrates long before him had uttered the same thought.

Pope said:

Know thyself; presume not God to scan.
The proper study of mankind is man.

But Chaucer had said: "Full wise is he that can himself even knowe." Cervantes put it, "Make it thy business to know thyself, which is the most difficult thing in the world." Diogenes Laertius said that Thales was the originator of this saying. Plutarch gives it to Plato, and it is found also in slightly variant forms on the tongues of Pythagoras, Chilo, Cleobolus, Bias and Socrates. Juvenal took its origin from the human realm when he says it descended from heaven.

Carlyle wrote of "One life—a little gleam of time between two eternities." Marcus Aurelius had written, "Deem not life a thing of consequence, for look at the yawning void of the future and at the other limitless space, the past." The old Saxon, Bede, likened man in his earthly life to a sparrow flying out of the dark night into the lighted banquet hall for a moment only, and then out again into the black and unknown night.

"No man is a hero to his own valet" is attributed to Madame de Sevigne. Marshal Catinat said that "no man is a hero to his valet de chambre." Montaigne observes that "few men have been admired by their own domestics" and Plutarch says that Antigonus replied modestly to a eulogium, "My servant is not aware of this."

"When the candles are out, all women are fair," said Plutarch. "When all candles be out, all cats be gray," said John Heywood in the sixteenth century, and W. S. Gilbert sang so many years ago:

She'd often passed for forty-five
In the dusk, with a light behind her.

"To err is human; to forgive divine," wrote Pope. Plutarch had put it, "For to err in opinion, though it be not the part of wise men, is at least human."

Tertullian, in the second century, wrote that "He who flees will fight again." Goldsmith puts it:

For he who fights and runs away
May live to fight another day.

"To be prepared for war is one of the most effectual means of preserving peace" is recognized as belonging to George Washington. Horace had said, "In peace as a wise man, he should make suitable preparation for war," while Publius Syrus put it, "We should provide in peace what we need in war."

Do Men Like Women's Extravagance?

Brooklyn Eagle: Xantippe was hurrying out to look at a procession and couldn't find her mantle. Socrates said, "Take mine." Xantippe refused. Then the philosopher exclaimed: "In that case it is plain that you are going out not to see but to be seen." The epigram is immortal. It is recalled by our modern philosopher, Chauncey Mitchell Depew's declaration that "Women wear fine clothes because the men like to see them. You know none of us care to see a woman in homespun."

Age revels in generalizations. Depew is 87. Our guess is that he can nevertheless remember the time that he cared to see a pretty girl in homespun, and never figured how much her dress had cost. Yet between youth and age a great gulf is fixed.

"Girls' clothes," declares the retired statesman in a significant interview, "are today very stylish and extravagant, but they have always dressed up to their means. The responsibility, if responsibility you can call it, is about equally divided between the men and the women. If they do wear silks and other costly things, that helps industry and is a good thing."

The argument might be elaborated. Herbert Spencer says that all altruism requires an equal amount of egoism on which to exert itself. How could fathers and husbands ever develop their altruism, ever acquire to the full the habit of unselfishness and sacrifice, so desirable in fathers and husbands, if daughters and wives were to take a different course? They never could. And since it is more blessed to give than to receive, they have the better end of the game.

Incidentally, Depew is a cynic on the feminine initiative generally. He boldly asserts that nine-tenths of the married women will vote as their husbands tell them. He has to admit that the single women will vote as they please. But perhaps he would hold that their choice depends on parental influences. Even with men politics is often a matter of heredity.

Rippling Rhymes

By WALT MASON.

November Winds

November winds are harshly brawling about my shack, the long night through; and in my bed I hear them squalling around the window and the flue. I hear them hammer at the sashes, I hear them spring the ancient wheeze: "Stoke up your fire, shake down the ashes, or all the hanging plants will freeze!" November's voice is wild and raucous, the genial zest of life it kills, and all night long it seems to mock us, with hints of coming plumbers' bills. By day we hear November shricking, and bear up well beneath our cross, although we know that autumn's sneaking, and winter comes, a total loss. By day we have our toils and troubles to occupy our divers minds; we saw our wood and blow our bubbles, and give small heed to wailing winds. But in the night, with darkness round us, and ghost steps creaking on the stair, the wild winds seem to hunt and hound us, and fill our bosoms with despair. There's nothing speaks more poignant sorrow than bleak November's voice at night; and so we lie and wish the morrow would come and bring its helpful light.

Explaining the "Red" Vote

Despite the heavy vote for Eugene Debs, the prisoner candidate of Atlanta, the election proves to the largest part of the American press that radicalism is dead in America. The great majority of the American newspapers—those which the labor organs call "capitalistic"—account for the increased number of ballots which the Socialist leader received by the woman's duplicating vote and by the choice of those persons who, while they by no means supported Socialism, wished to register their disapproval of Cox and Harding.

After balancing Meyer London's victory in New York with Victor Berger's defeat in Milwaukee, the Philadelphia Bulletin (Ind. Rep.) comes to the conclusion that this "so-called drift to the third party, while not without its interest, cannot be said to be more than an eddy in comparison with the mighty tide which set away from radicalism and toward the port of conservatism in the tremendous pluralities of Harding and Coolidge."

The Fargo Forum (Rep.) mentions the totals to which the vote has risen and remarks, "What of it? Besides the women and those who opposed the ousting of the Socialist assemblymen from the New York legislature there were the people who felt "that both Harding and Cox were machine candidates." "They voted," the Forum concludes, "for a third party and their only choice—heaven help them—was Christensen and Debs."

Many writers feel that the word "protest" explains away any reason for apprehension over the Debs following. The Richmond Times Dispatch (Dem.), for example, considers that parties sponsoring radical movements "figured little in the politics of the last campaign," the Socialists' support even falling below prediction:

"On the whole, therefore," the Times Dispatch concludes, "the minor parties continue to arouse little interest on the part of the American people. And the answer is that they have nothing to offer the voter except the opportunity of protest."

The Brooklyn Eagle (Ind. Dem.) declares that the Socialist vote is not a real party vote, though it concedes that it "is a real protest vote" but not a protest "against the system under which we live so much as against candidates and issues as they are put forth by the older parties in the given election." This year it was a protest against things in general "from the high cost of living to the style of necktie worn by Josephus Daniels." And, the Eagle predicts, that "revolution did not receive a very impressive indorsement."

The Fort Wayne Journal Gazette (Dem.) gives only enough comment to explain "the reason for Meyer London" which it also considers protest, explaining that "his first elections were no doubt personal tributes because of his great defense in the courts of the women garment workers who had been arrested because of strike activities," and he has never been elected on account of a Socialistic leaning of his constituents. The Detroit News (Ind.) sees no protest at all:

> The element of unrest which was to "swing to Debs" did not exist. Making allowance for the voting of women the Socialist movement in this country has made no considerable increase in the past eight years. For those Communist "reds" claim to have remained away from the polls, they must have done so because they did not want to reveal how few they are.

> In an old-fashioned fight between the two great parties there has been an old-fashioned landslide. The Socialist party shows little sign of recovery from the blow it dealt itself during the war, driving out most of its American-born members and its ablest leaders.

After profound apology for quoting such a source, the Indianapolis News (Ind.) cites the remark of former German Ambassador Count von Bernstorff to the effect that "the people of the United States have a strong antipathy for Socialism." This, it declares, was proved by the election and since "the American people have sense enough to know when they are well off" they are "proof against soap-box appeals." Though it was said to be a radical year, the News points out, "the people took the conservative, and as some think, even the reactionary side."

The Spokane Spokesman Review (Ind. Rep.) sees "radicalism in retreat" in the lack of response to Nonpartisan league. The Rochester Democrat and Chronicle (Rep.) rejoices in "the collapse" of Townley's movement since his program will be blocked in the North Dakota legislature.

One voice at least out of this harmonizing chorus is raised in a different key, for the Norfolk Virginia Pilot (Ind. Dem.) declares that the problem of "Socialism in America" has been "brought sharply to the fore" by its "gains" and urges that it be given "hearing on its merits." Its right to voice its sentiments and have them given consideration is not to be measured by its "mere numerical strength," the Pilot believes, and concludes that the recent attempt at "suppression" in the Albany legislature has resulted in making the party "stronger than ever."

The Birth of the Gale

Answers, London: What do you know about the wind?

Wind is but air in motion. But do you know what sets air in motion and produces the gentle zephyr, the moderate wind, and the violent gale? The principal cause is the variation in heat and cold. If the air could be kept at one temperature there would be no wind.

Again, do you know what heats the air? You might hazard that the sun does, but you would be wrong. It is the earth, and the things on it.

Heated air—this you know—expands and rises. Into the vacuum thus created cold air rushes. And there's the wind!

Cold condenses the air and squeezes it. It descends, and into the huge upper vacuums thus made other air rushes. And there's a gale! These air movements, it must be remembered, are on a vast and widespread scale, although it needs but a small first movement of air to, as it were, set the ball rolling. Violent winds may blow for days without cessation—not until, in popular phraseology, "they have blown themselves out," but until a more stable temperature has been produced.

Contributory causes of wind-production are oceans, mountains, clouds, the rotation of the earth, etc. All these affect the temperature of the air, and produce wind.

Finally, draughts are not, as is generally supposed, wind finding an ingress and willy-nilly entering it. Draughts only exist where there is warm air which has rarefied and ascended. Into the vacuum comes the draught.

A Wasted Warning

Los Angeles Times: A bishop was traveling in a mining country and encountered an old Irishman turning a windlass which hauled up dirt out of a well that was being dug. His hat was off, and the sun was pouring down on his unprotected head.

"Don't you know the sun will injure your brain if you expose it like that?" said the bishop.

The Irishman wiped the sweat from his forehead and looked at the clergyman.

"Do you think I'd be doing this all the day if I had any brains?" he said.

Health Talks

By William Brady, M. D.

Puffy Eyelids

A reader requests me to tell her what causes puffiness under the eyes and what to do about it.

Probably the most common cause is matutinal hebetude. That sounds almost as serious as the hypothetical "liver complaint" of the old time almanac quacks. But it isn't at all serious. It is just a sort of morning laziness. Late hours, insufficient cold air to breathe, excesses of eating and drinking and late rising are the usual factors of matutinal hebetude.

Many adults of 30 or older, particularly women, have puffiness of the eyelids not alone in the morning but all the time, as one expression of a state of hypothyroidism or partial myxedema, an impairment of thyroid gland function.

Persons taking arsenic or afflicted with insidious chronic arsenic poisoning from occupational exposures are likely to have puffness of the eyelids or of the whole face early in the day. Some misguided women still trifle with arsenic as a drug, because some ignoramus has told them that it beautifies the complexion, the notion probably having originated from the beautiful ghastly white skin of one dead of arsenic poisoning. Other drug poisons which sometimes cause puffiness of the eyelids are aspirin, the iodides present in numerous alleged "blood purifiers," and bromides.

A sudden puffing of the lids of one or both eyes sometimes occurs in persons who have what is known as angio-neurotic edema or giant hives. In such cases the swelling disappears as suddenly and inexplicably as it comes.

Prolonged crying causes swelling of the eyelids in some persons. Severe fits of coughing, as in whooping cough, will produce puffiness of the eyelids.

In certain cases of chronic nephritis (Bright's disease) there is noticeable puffiness under the eyes mornings. In many cases of established cardio-vascular disease or hardening of the arteries puffiness under the eyes is permanent.

There are the chief causes of puffiness of the eyes and everyone so afflicted is cordially invited to study the list over at his leisure and help himself to any of the causes enumerated, if he finds a good fit.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS.

Manipulation.

For the past year or more I have noticed when I sit working at the typewriter for two or three hours at a stretch I begin to feel a pain right at the top of the spine. I consulted a rub doctor and he told me I would have to take care or I might get locomotor ataxia. I have had about ten treatments from him so far, but I seem to get the pain the same as before if I work long at the typewriter. What should I do? I am 40 years of age and have always before been quite well. (Miss D. L.)

Answer: The "rub doctor" is trying to frighten you. No one ever gets locomotor ataxia from any such cause, and all the rubbing in the world would not prevent locomotor ataxia in any case. You probably suffer from fatigue and bad posture at work. Or just fatigue. Get up and stretch, and if there is room in the hall or somewhere, roll yourself two or three somersaults to take the kinks out of your muscles. Then go back to work—locomotor ataxia all cured.

Tooth Soap.

Some time ago someone asked you for a good tooth paste and you recommended plain soap. I use ——— soap for my teeth and would like to know if it will do any harm. (L. S.)

Answer: The brand is immaterial, provided the soap is not gritty and you do not mind the taste.

Cystitis.

What causes cystitis of the bladder? Is it curable? Would it help to have a series of bladder washes given by a nurse under a physician's directions? (Mrs. N. A. C.)

Answer: Cyst means bladder or sac. Cystitis is inflammation of a bladder. The cause is some bacterial infection. Irrigation of the infected bladder often gives great relief. Most cases of cystitis are curable.

Daily Strength and Cheer.

Compiled by John G. Quinlus, the Sunshine Man, Dayton, Ohio.

There is no stability and settled persistency of righteous purpose possible for you, unless we are made strong because we lay hold of God's strength, and stand firm because we are rooted in Him. Without that hold, we shall be swept away by storms of calamity or gusts of passion. Without that * * * there will not be solidity enough in our character * * * to stand amidst earthquakes and storms, we must be built upon the rock, and build rocklike upon it. Build thy strength upon God.—Alexander Maclaren.

He who continues "steadfast, unmovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord," will find that his "labor is not in vain in the Lord."

A man whose life is pure and high may not open his lips, yet his very silence shall be eloquent for God. Day by day, he is giving strength to one who is wrestling with doubt or temptation; day by day, he is a beacon to those who are tossed on the waves of irresolution and uncertainty; day by day, he is, without knowing it, a stay, a support, an encouragement to many who but for him would lag, or be beaten down in the battle.—F. The "Baker's Dozen"

Detroit News: The "baker's dozen," or thirteen, is generally accepted as proof that in some time, now long past, the bakers were a free-hearted lot who were inclined to see to it that their customers got the best of a bargain. This is true only in part, for while the bakers were anxious that their customers have no cause for complaint, it was not a matter of generosity at all, but a very practical fear that if the customers did have just cause for complaint the bakers would find themselves trussed up in a pillory or pacing a straw-strewn cell in exceedingly unpleasant prisons of ancient England.

King John was a suspicious person, and with this was mingled a professed desire to see that his subjects got a "square deal" in matters so far removed from statehood as their daily bread. The bakers fell under the eye of King John and he became convinced that the craft was not above tampering with the scales, bread being sold by weight. To remove any hope of gain by short weight, he framed a law whereby the short-weight baker was pilloried and his customers given the pleasure of hurling aged fruit and ancient eggs at him to their hearts' content. The pillory punishment was afterward changed to imprisonment by legislative enactment, but the canny bakers had learned their lesson. They gave an added roll to every dozen sold, and thus took no chances of a royal weigher suddenly appearing with scales and a warrant. The extra loaf was known as the "in loaf" or "vantage loaf."

Out Among the Neighbors

Rambling Comment on Northwest Men, Newspapers and Communities.

A rugged figure passed from the life of the Upper Peninsula the other day when James Russell, for nearly forty years editor of the Marquette Mining Journal and later warden of the Marquette prison, died suddenly while on a business trip. As an old associate wrote of him "he was a good fighter, a staunch ally and a shrewd and resourceful opponent, but would never compromise for the sake of policy." The influence of a newspaper man of that type is an enduring monument in any community.

Williams card players are finding it much easier to get a night off now since one of them, returning home late the other night, discovered an incipent fire that in another five minutes might have gained headway enough to have wiped out the main business street. As the Northern Light gratefully admits, "The rummy gang saved the town."

The manager of a Minneapolis taxicab company gave a new excuse for speeding the other day when he told a city council committee that the police and courts were responsible. "The police take the boys for speeding and they are fined $10 or $15 when they should be sent to jail," he said. It is to be hoped the courts will apply the obvious remedy.

According to the "Toad Mountain Tattler" in Sid Huntley's Frazee Press, "Jim Hemp says that about the only thing to be said in favor of the shimmy dance is that it is easy on shoes."

Drivels the Langdon Farmers Press, one of the several score of North Dakota newspapers owned and controlled by Townley's trust: "The far-reaching extent to which the complete domination of American newspapers has been acquired by the money oligarchy would cause the world to pause in amazement were it written down in black and white." The Townley press has been doing little else during the past four years but putting it in "black and white," and the world paused long enough this fall to go to the polls and amaze Mr. Townley and his newspapers with the hardest jolt in their history.

"Everybody is beginning to dream of Thanksgiving turkey," carols the Virginia Enterprise, "but adds, "most of us will have beef or chicken."

"All the bellyachers in the country went to the polls on the second of November," snorts Manford Evans in the Sherburne Advance-Standard, "knowing no more about the League of Nations than they knew about the ten commandments." The suspicions of a lot of Democrats are confirmed.

Editor Lee of the Long Prairie Leader is presenting some good arguments that he hopes will induce the Minnesota legislature to adopt Kansas' industrial court for labor disputes. "If the plan was general throughout the country," he says, "it would prove a great boon to labor and certainly would be of untold benefit to the country."

The announcement of Former Governor John Burke of North Dakota, at present completing eight years of splendid service as treasurer of the United States that, following his term of office, he will live in the East is regretted in the state that has so long been proud to number him as a citizen. John Burke is one of the ablest men the Northwest ever sent to Washington and his permanent removal from this section is a distinct loss.

The editor of the Wakefield Advocate says he would "get down on his knees and thank the Lord if he could make persons realize how much it costs to run a newspaper," and all over the Upper Peninsula is arising a chorus of "Amens."

One Ole Johnson of Minneapolis wants his name changed, which leads the St. Cloud Journal-Press to remark that "Ole evidently has no intention of being a candidate for office."

"We've heard for some time," reports Bess Wilson of the Redwood Gazette, "that a dollar won't buy anything any more. B'gosh, it will still buy a membership in the Red Cross, and there never was a time in all that dollar's history when it would buy anything more worth while than that."

Twenty Years Ago

From The Herald of This Date, 1900

Paul Kruger, former president of the South African republic, landed at Marseilles this morning and was given a great ovation by the French people, who seemed to be prompted by a unanimous desire to welcome the aged Boer statesman. From the moment the barge, with Mr. Kruger sitting in her stern, left the Dutch cruiser Gelderland the storm of cheering broke and never ceased until Mr. Kruger entered his hotel. Even then a vast concourse of people remained in front of the building until Mr. Kruger appeared on the balcony, where he had to remain for some time, uncovered, acknowledging the acclamations of his thousands of admirers, who continued cheering until they were hoarse with shouting. Mr. Kruger in a brief address said the warm reception given him today would do much to soothe the wounds in his heart. The Boers, he added, will never sacrifice their freedom. They will rather be exterminated to the last man.

R. O. Lazier, formerly of this city, now located at Nome, Alaska, passed through Duluth yesterday. His brother, Frank B. Lazier, also a former Duluthian, is publishing the Daily Chronicle at Nome and is said to be doing very well.

Robert Church of this city died recently at Asotin, Wash., the home of his brother, B. C. Church. He had been in the campaign in the Philippines and his health was shattered there. He was only 23 years of age.

Dr. Ernest Drayer of Cloquet died on Nov. 20 at St. Luke's hospital, and his body was taken yesterday to Stillwater, his former home, for burial. Dr. Drayer was about 30 years of age.

Charles H. Hoyt, the playwright, died at his residence at Charlestown, N. H., on Nov. 20 of paresis, from which he had been suffering for several months. He had been confined in a private asylum at Hartford, but was released early in August by order of the court and returned to his home.

Gideon S. Ives of St. Peter, department commander of the G. A. R. of Minnesota, made his first official visit to Duluth last evening, and a camp fire was given in his honor by Willis G. Gorman post and Garfield circle of the Ladies of the G. A. R. Post Commander H. T. Johnson presided.

John C. Wise, Sr., died recently at his home in Mankato. Mr. Wise came to Superior in 1855 and, with Washington Ashton, edited and published the Superior Chronicle, Superior's first newspaper. The office was located on the bank of the Nemadji river. In 1857 Mr. Wise sold his interest to Mr. Ashton and returned to Washington, D. C. Several years later he came back to Minnesota and located at Mankato, where he edited the Review up to the time of his death.

Sir Arthur Sullivan, the musical composer, is dead at London, the result of heart failure. Gilbert & Sullivan were the authors of many popular comic operas.

Your Dollars Won't Be Ashamed to Look This Thanksgiving Stock in the Eye

When a man walks into a clothing store bent on buying his Thanksgiving clothes—he is naturally going to take along his dollars—as well as his sense.

If he happens into a store where the prices are too high his dollars are going to feel ashamed—for even a dollar still has a lot of sense.

When that man is out on the street again we want him to look up and down the signs until he spies ours—and then we want him to make a bee line to this store and notice how differently his appropriation feels—among friends.

There is a wholesome value for every man's Thanksgiving dollar here this week.

"Justice John" Dead.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 22.—John Jeter Crutchfield, whose witticisms delivered as justice of police court here for thirty-two years made his court nationally known as "Justice John's court," died today at the age of 76 years. Numerous short stories and articles were written about "Justice John" and his court was a regular stopping place for tourists.

THE OPEN COURT

Readers of The Herald are invited to make free use of this column to express their ideas about topics of general interest, but discussion of sectarian, religious differences is barred. Letters must be accompanied in every case by the name and address of the writer, though these need not be published. A signed letter is always more effective, however.

All letters must be written on one side of the paper only.

The Herald does not publish original verse. Contributions of this nature that are submitted for the editor's perusal must be accompanied by a stamped and addressed envelope, if their return is desired. Otherwise no manuscript will be returned.

PROBLEMS OF THE FARM.

To the Editor of The Herald:

Please accept my hearty approval of your editorial of Thursday evening under the caption, "Is It Well With the Farmer?"

The only question is that of Townleyism. Why call the farmer organizations of the state Townleyism? That does not help solve the problem. Whether Townley succeeds or whether he does not succeed, whether Townley is eliminated from the contest and somebody else takes his place makes very little difference. He is merely an incident. The principles for which the farmers are contending are there whether Townley or Townleyism or anything else exists. And what are the problems which confront the farmers of the state today? They are these: First, to secure proper markets for their products; to be able to purchase supplies in a free market; to obtain labor or assistance of some kind in harvesting and operating their farms; to obtain credit and capital in order to build up their industrial plants and finally to create a rural social atmosphere which will make farming an enjoyable occupation rather than a drudgery.

Now, when you begin to solve these problems, you will find yourself face to face with the problems which the North Dakota farmers found themselves in trying to solve their problems. If any kind of solution of these problems is to be made, chances are that it will not be very different from the proposal of the farmers' program of North Dakota. The fact of the matter is this: Practically every form of manufactured goods is more or less monopolized. The output is controlled and the prices are controlled by a comparatively few people. But the farmer produces and offers his products for whatever he can get for them in a free market. If we are to have a monopoly price on some commodities, why not on all? If monopoly prices obtain in such articles as coal, meat, flour, bread, clothing, shoes, steel, machinery of all kinds that the farmer has to buy, gasoline and kerosene that the farmer needs for his tractors, and then the farmer must bring his products to a free market, it is very evident that there can be no justice done in the distribution of wealth. Apparently, England and France have recognized the fact that it is the duty of the state to provide food for its people at a minimum price in order that the state may properly prosper. Thus the farmers of the United States, unorganized as they are, must expect to meet the combined financial strength of Great Britain and France in marketing their products, and if this system of purchasing American farm products continues very much longer, the farming industry of our country will be practically ruined. I hesitate to think what will become of our country with the farming industry in such serious condition. Anyone can recognize the difference between a powerful corporation, like the United States Steel corporation, dictating the price of steel to the entire world, and an insignificant farmer who is heavily burdened with debt, trying to compete against the combined financial power of foreign countries and at the same time harassed by grain gamblers at home.

These are not the only problems of American agriculture, however. When one begins to think of the quack grass peril of Southern Minnesota and the invasion of the perennial sow thistle of Northern Minnesota one naturally wonders what will be the condition of farming in Minnesota in the next ten years. Vast territories in the Red River valley and the western part of the state are so infested with these weeds that during the last year the crops were completely choked out and many farms have been abandoned, and the farmers are desperately in need of help.

Instead of trying to keep the farmer from becoming radical, as some unintelligent people express it, it would be more to the point to have the next legislature appropriate at least $15,000,000 to $20,000,000 in order to fight the sow thistle and quack grass in Minnesota. These are only a few of the great problems confronting the farmers, but I cannot here discuss them all. The remedies for them can be found only in proper legislation.

RELATIONS WITH RUSSIA.

To the Editor of The Herald:

Referring to your editorial of Nov. 18, "The One Thing Untried." Surely The Herald has made a remarkable discovery—viz. "Leave Russia Alone."

American liberals (or so-called I. W. Ws, Bolsheviks and Socialists) urged this very course nearly two years ago, but our press and our badly advised government would have none of it.

However, our big business interests (yes right here in Duluth) were not slow to take advantage of every opportunity to trade with the detested Bolsheviks, and to cap it all recent dispatches confirm the reports of a $1,000,000,000 deal entered into between Mr. Vanderlip, our foremost American financier, and the soviet government.

Exclusive rights for a term of sixty years in a territory as large as Texas and California combined, in northeastern Siberia, a country fabulously rich in minerals; for a billion dollars worth of what Russia needs imperatively, that is raw materials and railroad equipment.

International news syndicates are at this moment "bidding their heads off" to close a deal with Lenine and Trotzky to get exclusive Russian official news. At the behest of France our own country was perilously near declaring war on Russia right after Secretary Colby took office.

Do the people get to know the truth of these things? "No" the press and news service is controlled by special and selfish interests.

On the foregoing as well as other important subjects recently editorially commented upon in The Herald, I must congratulate you on your remarkable change of editorial vision since Nov. 2. You are indeed approaching a liberal attitude on the people's vital problems.

BUENA VISTA.
Duluth, Nov. 18.

This correspondent has fallen into a quite general error. The Vanderlip said to be involved with the Russians is not Frank A. Vanderlip, the financier, but Wellington Vanderlip, a California man.—The Editor.

THE TRUCK DRIVERS' CASE.

To the Editor of The Herald:

I have read in the papers from time to time of truck drivers hogging the roads and would like to state my case. Since cold weather set in I have been driving with the cab closed and as a truck does not run as noiselessly as a $12,000 imported limousine there is some noise inside the cab while completely closed. The cab is considerably narrower than the body, therefore it is impossible to use a mirror and a truck driver cannot watch the road behind him constantly, so when a touring car comes up from behind and has a weak, squeaking horn or Klaxon, it is seldom heard by a truck man and usually the driver of a touring car gets mad and starts to curse. I don't approve of being cursed and am strongly tempted to run some of those boys in the ditch. I give them the road when I see or hear them, but can't watch them all. If they have the price to run a car, why not buy "a horn" that can be heard?

Most of my work has been on country roads and I have been called on by motorists a number of times to pull them out of the ditch, which I did cheerfuly.

I want to live and let live and hope this will explain matters some to the motorists who have some reason. In regard to the "natural born road hog" I have no apologies to make.

Hoping to see this in print soon and thanking you for the space.

THE IRISH QUESTION.

To the Editor of The Herald:

I noticed an article in the Open Court of The Herald, signed "Fair Play," in which the writer wants an end put to the Irish-English controversy in the local papers. He undertakes to express the sentiment of the public—because "fair play" is tired of the question he refers to. That isn't any reason why others are.

There isn't anything in the United States Constitution compelling a man or woman to read any article in the papers or periodicals against their will, not even the Bible. So if "Fair Play" wants to live up to what he labels himself, I hope he refrains from infringing on the liberties of others.

The Irish question is a popular one, interesting not alone in the United States, but to a great portion of the world at the present time, to see where some United States officials favor a commission to be sent into Ireland to find out the true facts about conditions on the island. The British ambassador is opposed to this move about on the same grounds "Fair Play" is opposed to the controversy in the Duluth papers, probably for fear the American public might get the facts. But the truth will out. Irish influence in America will see to that. When that occurs the beginning of the end of British rule in Ireland is in sight.

CHRISTMAS TREES.

To the Editor of The Herald:

May I pass on the thought to others that the homes and also stores in Duluth will not indiscriminately indulge in so-called "Christmas trees" this coming season, by going out into the surrounding country and destroying or injuring the fir trees by cutting off the tops or uprooting the small ones for the sake of a few days' enjoyment of such at home? If we will remember, too, that the young children, for whom we get them, will appreciate them far better in later years by seeing them grown tall when they themselves are old enough to go to the woods to see them, and at the same time will not get from grown folks now the thought of destructiveness as regards the care of the trees we all like to see growing every year.

One individual, or one family or one store, can do a lot of good by its own individual example.

"HOME-GROWN" ORPHANS.

To the Editor of The Herald:

In the morning paper of Nov. 17, 1920, and in the first column on the first page appeared an article on "Home Grown Orphans" in which Miss Corabelle Sill, executive secretary of the St. Louis county child welfare board, is quoted as making statements that would seem to criticise our excellent institution known as the Children's home.

Miss Sill is out of town but I am informed that Miss Sill was misquoted and I desire to say as chairman of the county child welfare board that our board does not wish to criticise the Children's home. It has done a good work and I hope will continue to do good work for many years to come.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

This department does not pretend to be infallable. It will endeavor, however, to answer questions sent to it by readers of The Herald to the best of its ability, reserving the right to ignore all that are trifling or of concern only to the questioner, or that ask for advice on legal or medical questions.

To receive attention, every inquiry must bear the name and address of the person asking it. This is not wanted for publication, but as an evidence of good faith.

J. C. R., Duluth: (1) Will you please state in your Question and Answer column, what the state compensation law will pay to an injured working man? (2) Will it take effect from the day he gets hurt, until he commences working again?

Ans.: (1) The payment depends upon the nature of the injury and the wages earned. (2) Usually, but the length of the payments also depends upon the nature of the injury.

E. G. T., Duluth: Could you kindly inform me through your columns when the activities at the Little theater start for the year, or is it not the intention to do anything along that line this year? I have always taken a great deal of interest in this and am wondering if it is to be discontinued.

Ans.: The directors of the organization have not yet decided upon its program for the winter. It is said a meeting is to be held next month, after which there may be a definite announcement.

H. R., Duluth: What is the present German debt, or what was it at the last report?

Ans.: The total German debt was reported in September to be about 285,700,000,000 marks.

Consumer, Duluth: Was the Japanese rice crop for 1920 above or below the average? What percentage?

Ans.: Above. The Japanese rice crop for 1920 is reported at 325,130,000 bushels. This is said to be about a 12 per cent increase over the average for the past seven years.

Interested, Duluth: Please give me the names of several works on bookkeeping.

Ans.: "Practical Bookkeeping," by J. B. Griffth, published by American Technical society, Chicago; "Bookkeeping: A Complete Course," by G. W. Miner, published by Ginn & Co., New York city; "Modern Illustrative Bookkeeping," by E. V. Neal and V. T. Craigan, published by American Book company, Boston.

Ignorant, Duluth: Have seen several references to Aphrodite in theater notes lately. Who was it or was it a person?

Ans.: Aphrodite was a mythological goddess of love, in the widest sense, her attributes being widely different according to the legends of different peoples. One legend tells of her union with the mortal Anchises, to whom she bore Aeneas. She is celebrated through a painting by Apelles, the most celebrated painter of ancient times, whose "Anadyomene," or "Aphrodite Rising from the Sea," was one of his masterpieces. For extended discussion see "Venus" in an encyclopedia.

FOREIGN-BORN RESIDENTS OF DULUTH AND ST. LOUIS COUNTY SHOW SELVES EAGER TO BECOME REAL AMERICANS

Percentage of Attendance at Night Schools, Compared to Day School Enrollment, Amazing; Approximately 14 Per Cent; Virginia Tops List With 35 Per Cent.

That the foreign-born residents of St. Louis county are ambitious to become real Americans, and to learn about the nation's government and the prevailing language, perhaps more generally than in any other section of the United States, is shown in the report of R. K. Doe, United States naturalization examiner for this district. In fact Mr. Doe is authority for the statement that the showing exceeds any other part of the United States, and leads most by a very wide margin.

Not only is the enrollment of foreign-born in night schools in Duluth and St. Louis county large numerically, but the percentage, when compared to the enrollment of children in the day schools, is looked upon with something akin to amazement by those who have thought they were pretty well acquainted with the situation.

Big Percentage Attends.

Taken as a whole in the territory covered by night schools in this district, on the Minnesota side, the enrollment in night schools is approximately 14 per cent of the enrollment in day schools, the numerical totals being: Day, 39,032 and night, 5,325. In certain points in this county the percentage is far more than that, Virginia, for instance, furnishing 35 per cent of its day school enrollment; Nashwauk, 22.6; Buhl, 22.5, and Gilbert, 17 per cent. As large a place as Duluth furnishes only a fraction less than 10 per cent, and that is the lowest in the list.

Following is a table, from Mr. Doe's report, showing in actual figures, day and night school enrollments:

PENNINGTON'S BIRD SHOW IN FULL SWING

Thief River Falls, Minn., Nov. 22.—(Special to The Herald.)—The fourth annual show of the Pennington County Poultry association opened today in the auditorium with more and better exhibits of birds than ever and with promise of being the most successful affair of the kind yet held here.

Some of the finest birds in this section are shown as well as some winners from other points and so much interest is displayed in the affair that other states are even represented while poultrymen of the Northwest are taking more than passing interest.

REGARDLESS of how artistic, how gorgeous the material or how beautiful the color, there is no negligee or robe d'intime which can take the place of the warm comfy bathrobe. The blanket bathrobes in Indian or flower designs are very popular, but they are not quite as pretty and attractive as the padded silk robes. These come in many delicate shades, as well as dark red, purple and navy blue. Some of them are made according to the Japanese style and have embroidery on the loose sleeves and back.

In a downtown shop is shown a padded robe in a plain but attractive style which is just the thing for before and after that cold shower. It is made of rose colored silk quilted in blue and lined with pale blue silk. The sleeves are long and bell shaped and a rose-colored cord ties at the waist.

Honoring Mrs. C. S. Mitchell, who will leave the city in the near future to make her home in Washington, D. C., the Business and Professional Women's club of Duluth entertained at a luncheon of 117 covers at 1 o'clock Saturday in the ball room of the Kitchi Gammi club. A basket of roses centered the table where the honored guest was seated. Guests were served from small tables, each centered with a crystal vase and bud. Short addresses were made by W. I. Prince, Commercial club; A. L. Ahlen, Kiwanis; W. N. Ryerson, Rotary, and C. H. Dunning, Lions' club. The speakers emphasized the value of business and professional women aligning themselves with the civic committees, of studying municipal politics, and of working through the machinery now in operation, rather than through a new machine. Each speaker pledged the support of the club he represented in assisting the business and professional women in carrying out such programs as they may undertake. Invitation for the Business and Professional Women's club to apply for membership in the Commercial club was given by Mr. Prince.

Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Craig, East Superior street, entertained a small company of friends at dinner at the Kitchi Gammi club in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell.

At the hands of the committee on decorations the Armory is undergoing many changes for the Charity ball, the chief social function of the year, given annually, and to take place tomorrow evening. The floor committee consists of Messrs. George A. French, Pentecost Mitchell, Arthur H. Dunning, Fred Wolvin, Simon Clark, Royal D. Alworth, Lewis Castle, William C. Sargent, Ward Ames, Jr., Elmer N. Whyte, Edward C. Congdon, William E. Tracy, A. Miller McDougall, Guy A. Eaton and Whitney Wall, Jr.

Mrs. G. Herbert Jones, president of the board of the Children's home, reminds persons who have received tickets that in case they wish to transfer them to friends they should make a record on the back of the ticket, otherwise persons presenting tickets which were not mailed to them, will receive a bill for same, as each person will be responsible for tickets presented at the door, unless the matter is taken care of in the way suggested. Mrs. Jones announces also that the supply of surplus tickets is exhausted and that all persons who have tickets which they will not use will be conferring a great favor by returning them, that they may be used to supply the demand made by those who have not received tickets. Persons not having invitations are reminded that checks may be presented at the Armory tomorrow night, made payable to the Children's Home society, and with the name and address of the donor recorded on the back.

The bridge and five hundred party Saturday afternoon at the new home of employed girls, 231 Fifth avenue east, which marked the formal opening and housewarming of the home, proved a housewarming in two senses. Aside from its being the first merrymaking affair at the home, it also marked the realizing of a generous sum which will be used in providing fuel to continue housewarming throughout the season. The affair, which was sponsored by Mrs. W. H. Magie and Mrs. E. L. Tuohy, assisted by a committee of women, proved one of the greatest successes of anything of its nature given in several months. Cards were played at sixty tables and many visitors called at the home from 2 to 5 o'clock. Refreshments were served. A color scheme of French gray and white has been carried out in the first floor quarters where the living and dining room with several bedrooms are located. The sleeping quarters on the second and third floors are done entirely in white.

Twelve prizes were given to those whose scores merited awards. Prize winners were Mesdames Whitney Wall, C. S. Mitchell, Green, Burnett, Bird, J. F. McCarthy, Carnies, L. K. Daugherty, Colin Brown, Roy Burke and Miss Millie Fink.

The second in a series of five dances given by Aad patrol for the Blue Lodge Masons will be held Wednesday evening at the Shrine auditorium.

Thanksgiving Cantata Is Admirably Sung

The Thanksgiving cantata, "Festal Song," by Edmund Turner, given at the vesper service yesterday afternoon by St. Paul's Episcopal choir, was largely attended in spite of the disagreeable weather. The composition was admirably rendered. The duet, "O Lord of Heaven," beautifully sung by Miss Elizabeth Richardson and A. R. Burquist, was one of the most effective numbers. George E. Suffel gave an excellent rendition of the baritone solo "Blessed Is the Man." The chorus work showed accuracy and precision, with good attack and careful shading. The quartet number, "The Lord Is My Shepherd," with its soft and delicate passages, gave a wonderful contrast to the majestic finale, "O Praise God."

WEDDINGS AND ENGAGEMENTS

Invitations have been received in the city from Mr. and Mrs. John A. Harrison for the marriage of their daughter, Miss Lucy Fuller and C. J. McBride, to take place Tuesday evening, Nov. 30, at Trinity church, Washington boulevard, St. Louis, Mo. Mr. and Mrs. McBride will be at home at 423 West First street, Marion, Ohio, after Dec. 20. Mr. McBride was formerly of this city and well known in local society circles.

An attractive wedding took place last Wednesday evening, when Miss Olga Johnson became the bride of Carl W. Lindberg, both of Duluth. Rev. Mr. Peterson of Aitkin, Minn., an uncle of the bride, assisted by Rev. C. O. Swan of Duluth, performed the ceremony at 8:30 before an improvised altar of palms and Japanese cherry blossoms.

The maid of honor, Miss Mabel Johnson, a sister of the bride, wore a frock of jade green organdie and carried an arm bouquet of Russel roses. The bridesmaids, Misses Ebba Berg and Victoria Johnson wore attractive organdie frocks in pastel shades and carried arm bouquets of ward roses.

Little Marie Johnson, the flower girl, preceded the bride, carrying a pretty basket of pink roses. Master Lawrence Johnson was the ring bearer. The bridal party also included Arthur Peterson and Raymond Hokanson, as ushers, and Carl Franseen, best man.

Following the ceremony a reception was held for the friends of the pair in the church parlors, where the color scheme was carried out in pink and white. Covers were laid for 200 guests.

SCHOOL LAWS TO BE CONSIDERED BY WOMEN VOTERS

School legislation is to be one of the chief considerations of the state convention of Minnesota League of Women Voters, which will take place in Curtis hotel, Minneapolis, Dec. 7, 8 and 9. Miss Elizabeth Hall, new state chairman of American citizenship for the league, will preside at a special educational session on Dec. 8 in the Curtis hotel ballroom. President L. D. Coffman of the University of Minnesota and E. M. Phillips, state director of vocational training, will speak.

It is the intention of the convention committee to place matters of special community interest in the evening sessions to enable the attendance of men as well as women. At the school legislation meeting, which will be conducted the evening of Dec. 8, E. M. Phillips, chairman of the committee which has reported on the legislative school needs of the state for the state board of education and has drafted an educational bill to be introduced at the next session of the legislature, will present the matter of state aid. The bill will have to do with state aid primarily.

Special provisions of the state aid bill which are slated for discussion are compulsory part time education, providing for the compulsory part time school work of all children between the ages of 14 and 18. Adolescents of this class and age must work or go to school, and if they work some time must be spent in school work. This, it is estimated, will bring back into school jurisdiction some 15,000 children of the state. Other provisions are for dealing with the isolated children of the state. About 1,000 of these children are receiving no education whatever and an additional 4,000 are practically illiterate. Stronger and stricter methods of enforcing school laws in the state also come into the state aid bill provisions, also the improvement of the supervision and grading of rural schools by the appointment of additional supervisors.

President Coffman of the state university will give a general educational talk on "Building for Citizenship." It is expected that a number of county superintendents will also be present to take part in the discussion of rural school problems.

A university exhibit composed of civic problem charts will be furnished by the government research bureau of the University of Minnesota and will be on view with an attendant to explain the charts during the entire convention. Miss Sophia Hall of the government research bureau has the exhibit in charge.

Under Mrs. A. E. Zonne the general committee is meeting at frequent intervals to gather up the many threads necessary to the smooth running of the convention machinery, for it is expected that the event will bring in the largest number of state delegates of any meeting the league has yet put on. More than 200 women from the state outside the Twin Cities will attend the convention.

St. James Orphanage to Have Annual Donation Day

In keeping with the precedent established in former years, Thanksgiving day will be observed again this year at St. James orphanage, with the stocking shower for small boys and girls of the orphanage and a reception for friends and sustaining members of that society, to be held Thursday afternoon from 3 to 6 o'clock. Rt. Rev. John T. McNicholas, bishop of the Catholic diocese of Duluth, will be at the orphanage to receive visitors.

Although the shower has been designated for stockings, anything that will tend to brighten or make happier the lives of the small people at the home will be gratefully received, those in charge of the shower announce.

"It is a wholesome thing for kindly disposed people to keep in mind those little people of the orphanage who have so little of the comforts and joy of a home life or the tender affection of attentive parents, and to do their bit toward making their lot happier and brighter by visiting them Thursday, at the same time to do something in a material way toward contributing to their well-being and comfort," said Mrs. W. H. Magie, this morning.

Stockings may range in size from 1 to 8 years.

Duluthians Among Officers Of Legion Women's Auxiliary

When the American Legion Women's Auxiliary was organized in Minneapolis last Friday at the Curtis hotel, the first organization of its kind in the country, one Duluthian was named on the department executive committee and one on the list of delegates to the first national convention of the auxiliary. Mrs. J. R. McGiffert, with Mrs. A. B. Barron of Cloquet, will represent the Eighth district on the executive committee, and Mrs. C. W. Newton of Duluth and Mesdames W. F. Becker of Cloquet and John Peck of Mountain Iron and Miss Ruth Keller of Virginia were named as the Eighth district delegates to the national convention.

Dr. Helen Hughes Heilscher, Mankato, was elected first president of the auxiliary; Mrs. E. A. Lewis, Long Prairie, was elected first vice president; Mrs. G. B. Goetz, Fairmont, second vice president, and Mrs. O. B. De Laurier, Long Prairie, historian. Mrs. George H. Barber, 2403 Lake place, Minneapolis, was the only Twin Cities woman selected to an official position, she being named as a member of the national executive committee.

An indorsement of the League of Nations was refused on the grounds that the organization should not indorse anything pertaining to politics. The ritual was also carefully revised in order that there might be no offense to any members' religious belief.

Thanksgiving Recital At Trinity Cathedral

A Thanksgiving organ and choir recital of unusual merit and interest was rendered last night at Trinity cathedral. The "Two Harvests," a sacred cantata, by Serviss-Tozer, with Miss Florence Hyland, Miss Madge Buell and Robert H. Drummond as soloists, was sung. Both soloists and chorus gained fine effect, singing with precision and beauty of tone. The cantata was preceded by an organ recitals of five numbers, played by Miss Leona Grieser, organist and director. To Miss Grieser great credit is due for the fine work of the choir.

Meetings

Mesdames W. L. Smithies, Isaac Moore, Lewis, Rowe, Jesse Norton and Sedgwick will entertain the missionary societies of the First Methodist church in the church parlors tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Mrs. J. E. Goodman, delegates to the branch meeting of the Foreign Missionary society held in Mitchell, S. D., and Mrs. A. H. McKee will speak. Mrs. J. P. Fox will sing. Anyone interested may attend.

AT THE THEATERS

TONIGHT'S ATTRACTIONS.

NEW GRAND—Will Morrissey's "Overseas Revue," cast of twenty; other acts.

The Orpheum bill this week is unique in many features, but none more so than because of the fact that the opening and closing acts, of a nature that usually is merely tolerated by the average audience, are the biggest hits, together with which one must mention one other in between, which is not a headliner. Yesterday's audiences, at least, gave them hearty approval, and it is believed that they will go big with the audiences of the rest of the week. The rest of the bill is good.

The opening act consists of the Four American Aces, in a really sensational—not the billboard sensational kind—of casting. Two men on bars high up in the air cast two others about with comparative ease and in a manner that makes the layman gasp at times. The closing act consists of the Three Original Regals, who do what is known as "iron jaw" work; that is, they lift immense weights by their teeth and do it gracefully. The men in both these acts are perfect specimens of manhood and exceedingly good to see.

The other acts which stopped the show yesterday was that of Fred Fenton and Sammy Fields. To describe it is impossible. It was the best piece of nonsense that the Orpheum has presented this year. Perhaps it went so big because it does not tax the mentality. It is froth pure and simple, and yet it is a riot.

Jeanette Hacket and Harry Delmar, accompanied by a bevy of really pretty and shapely girls in "The Dance Shop," offer some dancing that is more than ordinarily good. The setting was artistic and the costumes—what there was of them—were beautiful, but they left little to the imagination. Bare legs and bare backs featured.

Burke and Betty have an act that is a mixture of singing, dancing and instrumental music. Burke and Betty sing well together, the former dances well and Betty gives some good playing on a cornet and a saxophone. She also wears attractive costumes.

Sassy Lillian Gonne and Bert Albert present a very commendable sketch, "On Their Wal to School," in which Lillian is a sprightly little miss wit han overload of pep, and Bert is an acceptable companion. Lillian pleased greatly by her vim, but would please better were her enunciation clearer. Much is lost, perhaps, by that failing.

Edward Marshall, cartoonist, got a generous hand yesterday when he made his drawings, especially of people in the audience. He accompanies his work by a good line of chatter.

Topics of the Day and kinograms also pleased, and the orchestra gave a program that is regarded as exceptionally good.

NEW GRAND—Never has an act created a more sensational success than Will Morrissey's big revue-musical, "The Overseas Revue," which played to thousands of people yesterday. Crowds thronged the lobby and blocked the street afternoon and evening and it looked for a while as if police would be necessary to clear the sidewalk and allow traffic to continue. Manager Chester Sutton admits that Sunday was the biggest day the Grand has had in weeks.

The act is one that delights vaudeville followers, for it is forty-five minutes of music, fun, frolic and girls. There are twenty people in the cast, mostly girls, and the action presents "war" from a "different" angle. You will laugh at the doughboy trying to order his lunch to a pretty French waitress, you will applaud the pretty nurses and Salvation Sal, and the burlesque on the wild Apache dance will stir your sense of humor to the explosive point. The cast of principals, as well as the chorus, has been well selected and includes such players as Blanche Liteil, Billy Welp, Joe Monahan, Mlle. Le Roy, Rene Braham, Earl Corr, Herbert Broske and others.

"The Overseas Revue" is a sample of the war-time turns that are destined to retain popularity. The blood and iron type of play has lost its appeal, but these cheery, jolly turns with the pretty French girls and red-blooded American boys will grow in favor on the stage and screen. Former service men were delighted with the big act yesterday.

The Ferrarros, whirlwind gymnasts, proved capital entertainers in their sensational twists and novelties. Johnny Keane, the boy from Ireland, entertained with Irish songs and stories. Keane makes a good appearance and has a happy style of putting his stuff over. He is one of the former Paulist choristers.

"Buddies" for the Plaza.

The "Buddies" around whom George V. Hobart has woven his delightful comedy, which the Selwyns will offer amusement seekers an opportunity to see Nov. 25 and 26 at the Plaza, Superior, found their way into the heart of New York for twelve consecutive months in the Selwyn theater as few folk in the world of make-believe have ever done. They are such a dear, human group of young American manhood, as one finds them billeted after the armistice in a peasant home in Brittany, that no one is surprised that the sweet maid of France falls in love with one of their number.

Olive Reeves-Smith as the peasant lass who gives such a delightful rendition of many of the interpolating songs that B. C. Hilliam has woven into the fabric of "Buddies;" Joseph Herbert, Jr., as the Prince Kindness, who protects her from the villain, and Denman Maley as "Babe," the bashful hero contribute greatly to the popularity of this wholesome entertainment.

Golden Wedding for Cranes.

William H. Crane, the veteran actor, and Mrs. Crane have just celebrated their golden wedding anniversary at Hotel Hollywood, Los Angeles. Their fifty years of wedded life has been a half century of solid happiness. There were many unique features on the program, one of which was the exhibition of one of Mr. Crane's first pictures, "David Harum."

PHOTOPLAYS

NEW GARRICK—Alla Nazimova in "Madame Peacock."

ZELDA—George Walsh in "From Now On."

STRAND—Norma Talmadge in "The Branded Woman."

NEW ASTOR—Olive Thomas in "Darling Mine."

NEW GARRICK—A program hard to be surpassed made Sunday a delight at the New Garrick theater. During the early afternoon the regular symphony concert provided a pleasant hour while the photoplay feature was the great Russian actress Nazimova in "Madame Peacock," her latest picture play; likewise a play showing her in a dual role demanding the widest possible range of emotional and dramatic talent. Nazimova has always had her exclusive group of admirers in Duluth, but in this picture, she should receive the support and admiration of all picture followers.

So wide is the gap between Madame Peacock and Gloria Cromwell, mother and daughter, that many in the audience failed to grasp the fact that Nazimova was playing the two parts. How could the haughty, up-stage and petted actress whose sole goal was ambition resemble the sweet and charming little ingenue? It is the real accomplishment when an actress can portray two roles of such opposite characteristics.

This story of Rita Weiman, from which the photoplay was made, is remarkable for another feature. It shows how vain, empty and hapless is fame and how royal are the blessings of faith, loyalty and love. But the moral of the lesson is driven home when the proud Madame Peacock is humbled by the superior virtues of the little ingenue and she finds happiness again in the reunion with her husband and child whom she had deserted in quest of false gods—art and fashion. This picture strikes at the very fundamental principles of life and its story is told with telling effect by Nazimova.

The symphony concert was one of the most pleasing and popular of the series. The program was delightfully varied. It opened with the overture, "Orpheus," and included three Oriental sketches and selections from "The Prince of Pilsen." The charming Prince of Pilsen music has lingered long in the memories of those who first heard it years ago, and it will always be recalled with pleasure.

JAMES WATTS

NEW LYRIC—Eugene O'Brien, as an ex-convict, who, accidentially placed in the way of the adventure, impersonates an English nobleman through a series of exciting incidents, features "The Wonderful Chance" topping the bill at the New Lyric. It is an H. H. Van Loan story with pretty Martha Mansfield as leading lady, and it unquestionably provides the star with the best roles of his career. The picture opens with Barlow quitting prison, resolved to "go straight." To save a pal's life, he tackles just one more "job." He gets away with it, but is

SOME THOUGHTS ON CLOTHES.

A friend of mine is much pleased because she managed to choose the three main features of her summer wardrobe so that they are also available for winter.

One was a large blue silk voile dress, perfectly suitable for summer and yet also suitable for afternoon house-wear in the winter. The other was a dark blue silk skirt which she wore with white blouses in the summer and which, with the aid of a velvet overblouse, is to become a suitable costume for the theater or afternoon tea in winter. The third was a dark blue suit which was just heavy enough so that it could be worn spring and fall, on the cool summer days (which are really the only times in summer when one wants a suit), and with her heavy furs on the warmer days of winter. If she wishes to wear it on cooler days she will wear her coat over it.

We Seldom Wear Out Clothes.

It is one of my friend's pet theories, on the subject of clothes, that if you have to plan your wardrobe carefully—to make it cover all occasions (as 99 out of 100 of us do), this selection of clothes that do not have to be put away at the end of a season and not taken out until six months later is one of the best shifts. We seldom wear out our clothes, she says; we give them up because they have gone out of style, and in this way we double the use that we can get out of them in their brief style-life.

Don't you think it is an excellent theory? I do.

Another of her theories is illustrated by the fact that all three of the garments mentioned were dark blue. She thinks that by selecting one, or at the most two or three colors—those most becoming to you—and sticking to them, you save a great deal, since an abrupt change in colors always involves the necessity for other new garments and new accessories to go with the new color scheme.

Of Course You Won't Look So New.

This one-color scheme, I think, is excellent, although it has several drawbacks. One does not have quite the delightful sense of newness in a garment which is just the color of all one's other garments. In the second place, one does not impress others with a sense of newness—and surely clothes are bought quite as much to impress others as for our own enjoyment! However, I think that even when one weighs these drawbacks they hardly outbalance the advantages.

Visualizing one's own daily life and determining thereby what kind of clothes one needs most, is, of course, a preliminary to any really efficient planning of a wardrobe. In doing this one should try to decide what occasions will be most frequent and what count the most in one's mind. For instance, suppose you cannot have both a suit and a new afternoon gown—which will you sacrifice? Are the times when you would wear a suit, or the times you would wear the gown, the most frequent and the most important?

When to Plunge.

To buy inexpensive materials for gowns that are sure to go out of fashion before they are worn out, and to plunge on the things that one can make last, is another of the wise dressers' A-B-C's. A coat in a simple unobtrusive style, a tailored suit, a serge dress that is not too extreme to be worn several seasons and not too much cut-up to make over well, a piece of good lace—these are the sort of things on which the wise dresser spends sums that seem extravagant to her less far-seeing neighbor.

The selection of clothes is supposed to be a feminine frivolity, but if it is a wise selection, it is a fine feminine art, and I have a deep admiration for the woman who contrives an attractive wardrobe on small outlay—providing, of course, she does not devote so much thought to it that she neglects other worth-while things.

RAISIN RECIPES FOR THE DINNER PAIL.

LAST Saturday I wrote an article on the value of the raisin from the standpoint of nutrition, and today I am going to give a few recipes for foods containing raisins which are particularly well adapted to put in the carried lunch.

The woman who fills a lunch basket, box or pail should be familiar with the various kinds of bread so that she need not always put in the same kind. Sweetened breads, breads containing raisins or nuts, and the various kinds of roll or muffin are all appreciated by the man or woman who opens a carried lunch at noontime. Such variety as this helps to keep up one's appetite—and a person with a good appetite is generally a well person. The following recipes are satisfyingly nourishing to a person at hard work:

Raisin Coffee Cake: Cream together ¼ cup of butter or lard and ¾ of a cup of granulated sugar. Add 1 egg which has been well beaten, ½ cup of milk, ¼ teaspoon salt, and 1¾ cups of white flour which have been sifted with 2 level teaspoons of baking powder. Mix well, then spread in a rather deep round pan about eight inches in diameter and well buttered; sprinkle with ½ cup seedless raisins finely chopped, then sprinkle with ½ cup of granulated sugar and dust all over with cinnamon. Dot with 1 tablespoon of butter put on in tiny pieces with a teaspoon and bake from 35 to 40 minutes in a moderate oven. This is as delicious cold as hot. It requires no butter in serving and is rich and nourishing.

Raisin Gingerbread: 2 cups flour, ½ teaspoon soda, 1½ teaspoons ginger, ½ teaspoon salt, 1 cup raisins (not chopped), ¾ cup molasses, ½ cup boiling water, 4 tablespoons melted butter. Mix and sift the flour, soda, ginger and salt; add the raisins. Stir the molasses and the boiling water together and add these to the dry ingredients. Now add the melted butter and beat well. Pour into a greased bread tin and bake for forty minutes in a moderate oven. (This is a fine recipe to use when one has no milk and eggs to spare and yet wishes to bake a delicious cake).

Raisin Graham Muffins: 1 cup flour, 1 tablespoon sugar, 4 teaspoons baking powder, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 cup graham flour, ½ cup raisins, 1 cup milk, 2 tablespoons melted butter and 1 egg. Sift all the dry ingredients together except the graham flour and then stir in the milk, the egg (well beaten) and the melted butter. Pour this batter into well-greased muffin tins and bake 35 minutes in a moderate oven.

Mrs. J. C.—Answer: There is nothing to be done for your mirror except having it re-silvered—and that would cost quite a good deal. Unless the frame is very handsome I would advise you to get a new one rather than have the old one repaired.

All inquiries addressed to Miss Kirkman in care of the "Efficient Housekeeping" department will be answered in these columns in their turn. This requires considerable time, however, owing to the great number received. So if a personal or quicker reply is desired, a stamped and self-addressed envelope must be enclosed with the question.—The Editor.

"TINKER BOB" STORIES

By CARLYSLE H. HOLCOMB

SAMMY UNDER A SPELL.

WHEN Mr. Wolf heard that he had talked to the King of the Forest and never knew it, he was so frightened that he could hardly move. But when he came to himself he decided, once for all, that he would never again plan to do anything to the King of the Forest—for the king was much wiser than he! All of the creatures of the forest decide the same as Mr. Wolf when they have anything to do with the king.

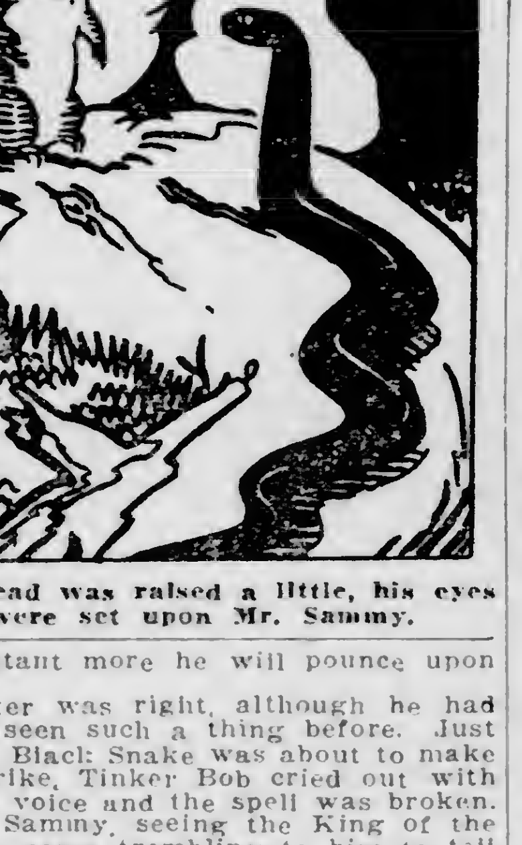
Tinker Bob walked to his palace from the midst of the great forest, thinking all the while of the wonderful time he would have when he would go to the Land of the South with Lady Duck, and the Creature of His Desire. Suddenly there came to his eyes a sight he had never seen before in all the forest. Of course you know that the King of the Forest is a wise fellow and knows most everything, but this was one thing he had never seen before in all his life.

Not far in front of him on a log he saw two creatures of the forest facing each other. "What does all this mean?" he asked himself. It was Mr. Black Snake and Sammy Squirrel. "Surely these forest dwellers are not going to have a fight, for Sammy Squirrel is not that kind of a fellow." Tinker Bob was surprised indeed to see this sight before him, for he felt that he had known both of these creatures well. He stood very still to see what was going to happen.

Mr. Black Snake was as still as the log itself. His head was raised a little, his eyes were set upon Mr. Sammy, and he didn't even wink. Sammy was as motionless as a mountain stone and his eyes were set upon Mr. Black Snake. After a moment of silent watching, Tinker Bob thought that both of these creatures were dead because they were so still.

But this could not be, for Sammy's tail was standing straight up and it would never be so if he was dead. Also Mr. Black Snake's head was not flat on the log and he could not be dead with his dead in the air! It was indeed puzzling to the king. Then just as suddenly as anything could happen, Tinker Bob noticed Mr. Black Snake's body move, but his head was as still as the log.

"I see," said Tinker Bob to himself, "I see it all now. Mr. Black Snake has cast a spell over young Sammy and in an instant more he will pounce upon him."



His head was raised a little, his eyes were set upon Mr. Sammy.

Tinker was right, although he had never seen such a thing before. Just as Mr. Black Snake was about to make his strike, Tinker Bob cried out with a loud voice and the spell was broken. Little Sammy, seeing the King of the Forest, came trembling to him to tell the story of it all. We will hear his story tomorrow.

Eatmor Cranberries
With Pot-Roast
Did you know that Cranberries cooked with pot-roast or other boiled meats make these cheaper cuts more tender and much more delicious?
To prepare a 3 lb. pot-roast:
Brown meat in 3 tablespoons of hot fat. When surface is brown, remove meat from pan and add three cups of water; stir until boiling, then add 2 cups of Cranberry Sauce, made less sweet than usual; replace meat in pan with this gravy sauce and proceed with cooking in ordinary way. When the meat is half cooked, season with salt and pepper.
There is a real difference in Cranberries. Insist on getting "Eatmor" brand.

given what seems to be "the wonderful chance" before he knows he has embarked on a new adventure. What this chance is and what it develops forms the basis of the drama, which any screen-follower should like immensely and over which O'Brien admirers should "go wild." There are the usual added attractions, including an Outing-Chester, "Lovely Maoriland," and the latest Lyric News Events. The New Lyric concert orchestra also has a special musical program. Starting Wednesday, the attraction, featured will be "Best of Luck," an all-star production.

NEW ASTOR—The game of "being glad" will be played at the New Astor for three days, beginning tomorrow, in "Pollyanna" with Mary Pickford in the role of the Glad Girl. Today's showings of "Darling Mine," starring Olive Thomas, and other pictures, will close their engagement to make way for "Pollyanna," generally admitted the best picture that Mary Pickford ever made. The story is taken from "The Glad Books" by Eleanor Porter, and portrays the super-optimism of the inmate of an orphan asylum who is always convinced things might be worse, no matter how bad they get. Finally she is rewarded by coming into the real happiness which she has sought through comparing less happy conditions with what actually surround her. She gives an impersonation of the orphan waif, always mothering others, which places her on a pedestal of artistry, and her very presence on the screen is suggestive of the joy of living. "The Son of Tarzan," fourth story entitled "The Sheik's Revenge," is an added attraction on the program, which will run up to and including Thanksgiving day.

ZELDA—Even the most ardent admirers of George Walsh were surprised, at the opening of "From Now On" at the Zelda theater last night, at the way in which this Fox star met unusual tests of his ability. This is a new type of vehicle for this rollicking hero, and possesses greater dramatic fire than anything he has done heretofore.

"From Now On" gives a marvelous picture of a darkened life of the half-world suddenly aglow with the redeeming love of a girl. The story was written by Frank L. Packard, who was responsible for "The Miracle Man," one of the most successful motion pictures of recent years.

STRAND—"The Branded Woman," which opened at the Strand theater yesterday, again proves the tremendous popularity of Norma Talmadge. This production, from the story "Branded" by Oliver D. Baily, surpasses many previous Norma Talmadge photoplays, in striking scenic grandeur. It presents a great emotional star in a strong role, with a story that strikes a heart chord. Miss Talmadge has splendid support. The cast includes Percy Marmont, George Fawcett, Gaston Glass, Grace Studdiford, Vincent Serrano and many others.

Have You a Screen Face?

F. D. Fox, noted film director, who will make the Duluth picture from the scenario selected in The Herald-New Garrick contest, is anxious to have a splendid cast in the picture play. For that reason he has sent in a call asking all Duluthians interested in acting to write to the Scenario Editor of The Herald giving their name, address and telephone number. When he arrives, he will call up these applicants for a "close-up" to find if they have a "screen face." If the applicant shows well in front of the camera it will be a big asset to his or her success. All desiring to play in the cast should write at once.

Four Favorites for Duluth.

Four of the most popular film stars are assured for Duluth during the next three years. Norma and Constance Talmadge, Charles Ray and Katherine MacDonald have just renewed contracts with the First National Exhibitors' circuit to place exclusively for that corporation. This means that their new pictures will all be shown by the Duluth Theater company. The First National is controlled by Finkelstein & Ruben and their franchise is held here by the Duluth Theater company.

JAPS POOL RIGHTS IN THREE RAILROADS

Tokio, Nov. 21.—Japan has pooled her rights in three railroads in China with the nations making up the consortium which will play a dominant role in the financing of Chinese engagements, says the newspaper Nichi Nichi in discussing the consortium arrangements. These are the Ssinan Shunteh Fu, Kaomi Huchow and Tao Je railroads, and the newspaper questions whether Japan's sacrifice is not too great.

Another newspaper, the Kokoumin Shumbun, complains the consortium reduces Japan to the same level with the United States and England, and Japan gets an internationalized country as a neighbor.

"The principle of Asia for Asiatics," the newspaper concludes, "thus receives a blow."

TAXES CANNOT BE POSTPONED

Installment Due Dec. 15 Must Be Paid, Treasury Declares.

Washington, Nov. 22.—Recent suggestions that payment of the Dec. 15 installment of income and excess profits taxes should be postponed were strongly discouraged last night by the treasury in a statement which declared that "no change should be entertained which would render uncertain the bulk of the government's tax receipts."

Proposals for the amendment of the revenue act of 1918 to permit postponement of the December installment and also for the extension of the "net loss" provisions to the year 1920, have come from various sources, the treasury statement said, adding that "the agitation for these changes can only do harm."

Discussing the government's financial program which it said had been adjusted to the tax payment dates provided by the act, the treasury asserted that the December installment of income and excess profits taxes was not expected to exceed $650,000,000 and further requirements must be financed through issues of treasury certificates of indebtedness.

"It would be impossible to defer the payment of the December installment of taxes without forcing the treasury to offer treasury certificates in prohibitive amounts," the statement said.

Financing Private Business.

"Moreover, to extend the time for the payment of the December installment would simply mean that the treasury would in effect be financing private business, which would provide for itself through ordinary banking channels, if necessary."

Extension of the "net loss" provisions of the act was opposed by the treasury as "equally impossible." The whole financial program of the government requires that the treasury be able to rely upon the collection of these taxes, the statement said, explaining that under the present law the treasury receives in 1920 taxes based on the income and profits of 1919.

"There is no reason in fairness," the statement continued, "why taxpayers who made profits in 1919 and became liable to pay taxes on the basis of those profits, should be permitted to throw upon the government the burden of losses incurred in the conduct of their own businesses in the year 1920. The treasury must of necessity promptly meet the government's bills. If uncertainty is to be introduced now into the tax payments upon which the treasury principally relies, it will clearly be impossible for the government to finance itself."

GOOD SHOWING BY THE PANAMA CANAL

Washington, Nov. 22.—The Panama canal has closed the best year financially in its six years of operation with an excess of $2,387,599 in revenue over the expense of operation and maintenance.

Brig.-Gen. Chester Harding, governor of the Panama canal, has predicted in his annual report to the secretary of war that within a reasonable period of normal world conditions, the canal will earn an actual profit on its cost, which has been $366,650,000 exclusive of expenditures for its military and naval defense. In the meantime, the general added, the canal is performing an important commercial service by stimulating American trade with the west coast of South America and the Orient. More than 25 per cent of the cargo handled through the canal since its opening was in transit between the United States and South America, and 11½ per cent was between the Atlantic coast of the United States and the Orient.

Within the six years of operation, Gen. Harding's report said, there has been a marked increase in traffic through the canal notwithstanding the fact that the World war interfered with the normal development of ocean-going commerce. After the entry of the United States into the war there was a decrease in commercial traffic, due to the diversion of certain lines of ships to transAtlantic service, but this was more than offset by the increase in traffic growing out of the war, chiefly on account of the development of the trade with the Pacific coast of South America.

UNEMPLOYMENT IN MINNESOTA GROWS

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 22.—Unemployment in Minnesota is increasing and a tendency to cut wages in certain industries is apparent according to data compiled in the office of John P. Gardner, state commissioner of labor and industries.

The cut in wages, according to Mr. Gardiner's report, is not general, but there is an indication that these cuts are likely to spread in numerous industries, he declares. The only cut in wages is reported by a logging company operating in the northern part of the state, with headquarters at Duluth. This company has cut the wages of its men from $5 to $20 per month.

Mr. Gardiner received reports from the Minneapolis, St. Paul and Duluth Federal and state employment agencies, in addition to numerous reports from the various industries of the state.

Reports from the three employment agencies show that during July, August, September and October last, the demand for help has fallen off 18.9 per cent as compared with the corresponding months a year ago. In the previous year during the four months there were 37,413 "help wanted" requests registered at the three offices compared with 30,320 registered during the four months of this year.

While there is no slashing reduction of the working forces in any particular industry, it is apparent, according to Mr. Gardiner's reports, that there is a tendency to show that in some lines the cuts will reach 50 per cent. While other industries will be affected by no general cut of the wage earner, there will be a cut in the number of hours of employment, which really means a cut in wages, Mr. Gardiner pointed out.

GEN. MARCH ON THE PEACE-TIME ARMY

Washington, Nov. 22.—Little difficulty in obtaining the 280,000 men necessary to make up the peace-time army authorized by congress is anticipated, Maj.-Gen. March, chief of staff, said in his annual report made public by the war department. The problem of obtaining the 17,717 officers needed for the reorganized army is difficult, however, and was rendered more so, Gen. March said, by the delay in the enactment of legislation governing the reorganization of the army.

"The magnitude of the problem of selecting the additional officers required to complete the permanent complement," said Gen. March, "and the tremendous effect which will inevitably be exercised upon the future efficiency of the entire army by the character and qualifications of the new officers to be selected, is indicated by the fact that the actual strength of the entire army in commissioned officers on April 6, 1917, was but 5,959, of whom about 650 held provisional appointments."

The general added that the problem was further complicated by the resignation of 1,647 regular officers in the fiscal year ending last June 30, the period covered by his report.

Approximately 15,000 applications from former officers and reserve officers for transfer to the regular establishment were received by the war department before the lists were closed, the general continued, and the task of selecting from these applicants, the 10,000 additional officers needed to fill out the army quota is still under way.

To Investigate Death of Student.

Chicago, Nov. 22.—The police today began investigation into the death of D. Harris Cook of Portsmouth, Neb., a university student, who dropped dead early yesterday morning after a fraternity initiation. Officials of the coroner's office said death probably was due to heart disease superinduced by alcoholism.

FRANCE WILL NOT WITHDRAW TROOPS

Paris, Nov. 22.—France will not withdraw any of her troops in Syria or Cilicia for the present, according to a decision reached Saturday when Foreign Minister Leygues, Minister of War Le Fevre and Gen. Gouraud appeared before the commissions of finance and foreign affairs for a discussion of the Near East situation.

M. Leygues, M. Le Fevre and both commissions agreed the withdrawal of troops now would be construed by the Mussulman world as weakness on the part of France and decided to continue occupation despite the heavy financial expenditure.

Kills Wife and Self.

Pine Bluff, Ark., Nov. 22.—Mack Adams, 76, planter of Wabbaseka, Ark., shot and killed his wife yesterday and then committed suicide, according to officers from Pine Bluff, who investigated the two deaths. Adams killed his wife's father, William Bruce, last June. Mrs. Adams, 36, has been separated from her husband since the killing of her father and had filed suit for divorce.

ONLY EXPERIENCED "JACKS" BEING HIRED

Madison, Wis., Nov. 22.—The labor supply in Wisconsin was in excess of the demand for many kinds of work during October, according to a report of the industrial commission based on the experience of eleven employment offices of the state.

The actual number of male applicants was 96 per cent of the demand, while the supply of women applicants was 75 per cent of the demand. This situation was due wholly to the great demand for wood laborers, which has now been met, the commission says.

An excess of labor was shown in all clerical positions and in all semi-skilled lines, as well as in many skilled occupations. At several offices there was an excess of common labor. Inexperienced lumbermen were warned to stay away from lumber towns because only experienced men are being hired.

The reports of the offices show that for the first time in years the supply of women for domestic service practically equals the demand.

Venizelos at Messina.

Messina, Sicily, Nov. 22.—Former Premier Venizelos of Greece and his suite arrived in Messina harbor on board the yacht Narcissus yesterday. Sophocles Venizelos, son of the former premier, was the only one to land. He is on his way to Nice, where he will be married. The yacht is still here and its ultimate destination is not known.

HAVE COLOR IN CHEEKS

Be Better Looking—Take Olive Tablets

If your skin is yellow—complexion pallid—tongue coated—appetite poor—you have a bad taste in your mouth—a lazy, no-good feeling—you should take Olive Tablets.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—a substitute for calomel—were prepared by Dr. Edwards after 17 years of study.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color.

To have a clear, pink skin, bright eyes, no pimples, a feeling of buoyancy like childhood days you must get at the cause.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act on the liver and bowels like calomel—yet have no dangerous after effects.

They start the bile and overcome constipation. Take one or two nightly and note the pleasing results. Millions of boxes are sold annually at 15c and 30c.

EDUCATORS OF FOUR STATES WILL CONFER

St Paul, Minn., Nov. 22.—The citizens' conference on education, as announced by P. T. Claxton, United States commissioner of education, will be held here Tuesday, Nov. 30, according to J. M. McConnell, Minnesota commissioner of education.

The regional conference will include Minnesota, Iowa, North Dakota and South Dakota and will be in session the entire day and evening.

Invitations have been extended to the governors and the chief school officers of the states, members of legislatures, members of state boards of education, county and city superintendents of schools, colleges and normal schools, civic officials and numerous civic and patriotic organizations, including farmer and labor unions.

The United States commissioner of education has designated twelve such regional conferences in the United States.

Although no detailed program has been completed, the general theme of discussion will be made up of eight salient questions. They follow:

Important recent progress in education in the states of the conference group; brief statements of proposed legislative programs; in what does the real crisis in education consist: an adequate supply of competent teachers adequately prepared; the pay of teachers, superintendents and other school officers; the needs of higher education; school revenues, their sources and application; the relation of education to wealth and welfare.

Commissioner Claxton will attend the meeting at St. Paul and is scheduled to make several addresses on educational problems.

Commissioner McConnell was also scheduled to speak.

GOPHER INHERITANCE TAX LAW'S RECEIPTS

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 20.—More than $10,300,000 of state inheritance taxes have been paid into the state treasury since the enactment of the inheritance tax law in Minnesota in 1905, according to a table just compiled by the Minnesota tax commission.

Collections for the fiscal year ended June 30, show a substantial increase over the amount collected the preceding year, according to figures tabulated by the tax commission. The collections for the past year totaled $1,056,687.24 as compared with $683,807.51 collected a year ago.

The six counties contributing the largest amount in total collections for the fiscal year ending June 30:

Hennepin, $335,914.97; Ramsey, $224,059.98; St. Louis, $109,610.97; Olmsted, $64,833.64; Brown, $18,400.54; Washington, $12,263.30.

During 1919 sixteen counties showed no collections on inheritances, while during the past year this number was reduced to eight: Anoka, Carlton, Clearwater, Cook, Koochiching, Mahnomen, Red Lake and Roseau counties were the new contributing counties in the state.

HAS FINE COLLECTION.

Minnesota Historical Society Rich in Gopher Geneological Works.

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 22.—Minnesota has one of the largest geneology and local history collections in the United States, according to R. W. G. Vail, librarian of the Minnesota Historical society, St Paul. The collection is made up of approximately 23,000 volumes and is catalogued in such manner, Mr. Vail said, that it is easily accessible to any laymen desiring information relative to Minnesota on its geneology.

Approximately 8,000 volumes dealing with titles of geneology are listed in this collection, this number being nearly 1,000 greater than that listed with the congressional library, Washington, D. C., according to Mr. Vail.

This collection, Mr. Vail said, is in great demand by former service men, who served in the World war, in tracing their ancestors' activities in past wars of the United States.

Officials of the various patriotic organizations of the state also resort to these volumes for reference in determining the membership of their respective organizations, Mr. Vail said.

The collection as a whole, including the geneology titles and the enormous number of volumes on local history, is possibly the largest west of Chicago, Mr. Vail declared, and is among the six leading collections in the United States.

WISCONSIN SCHOOL HEADS' CONTROVERSY

Madison, Wis., Nov. 22.—The old controversy between the state board of education and State Supt. C. P. Cary has flamed up again as a result of his announcement last week that he favored the abolition of the board and the differences between these two heads of governing agencies of the schools of Wisconsin will be carried to the floor of the legislature when it convenes here. Supt. Cary has declared "there is no place in our educational system for such an organization."

The whole situation will receive an airing before the legislature which is expected to give consideration to both sides it is stated. Alignment of forces is already going on for a hot fight according to officials of both departments.

BADGER INTERCOLLEGIATE PRESS BODIES TO MEET

Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 22.—The Wisconsin Inter-College Press association will meet here Dec. 3 and 4 as guests of Marquette university and Milwaukee-Downer college. Twelve state colleges and universities will be represented: Beloit, Carroll, Campion, Milton, Ripon, Lawrence, Northland, St. Mary's, St. Clara's, Milwaukee-Downer, the University of Wisconsin and Marquette university. Approximately thirty-five delegates will attend the sessions, which will open at Marquette on Friday evening. Officers will be elected Saturday, according to the announcement.

PLAN CAMPING PLACE ON TOP OF MOUNTAIN

Helena, Mont., Nov. 22.—The Helena Commercial club and the forestry service will unite next spring in building a camping ground at the summit of the historic Priest's Pass, west of this city on the top of the Great Divide. The pass is known to multitudes of autoists and is a favorite route in summer.

Ten acres are to be set aside, fireplaces installed and provision made for keeping water. Benches and tables will be built and other conveniences arranged, all free to the tourist.

ASHLAND COMPANY GETS RATE INCREASE

Madison, Wis., Nov. 22.—Rate increases were granted two telephone companies in two decisions of the railway commission handed down today, while hearings were set on four other applications for increase. One other hearing was set on a petition of the Terry Cedar company of Clintonville for a refund from the Chicago Northwestern and the Soo railway companies.

The Southern Telephone company, operating in Ashland county, was authorized to increase its rates from $2.50 a month to a schedule that calls for $3 monthly for single party business phones, $2.50 monthly for single party residence phones; $7.50 quarterly for twelve party rural business phones, and $6 for rural residence phones.

The New Franklin Telephone company, operating in Barron county, was granted increases that amounted to about 12½ per cent. The new schedule allows a charge of $2.25 per month for single party phones; $2 for two-party phones, and $1.75 for four-party phones. Rural party lines pay $1.75 a month.

Hearing Set for Nov. 26.

A hearing was called for Nov. 26 to consider the application of the Oostburg Light, Heat and Power company for authority to increase its rates. The McKinley Telephone company, operating in Barron county, will have its application heard the same day.

The Poynette Telephone company asks for a new schedule of rates that would bring the cost of business phones to $2 per month, residence phones to $1.75 a month and rural phones to $1.50 a month. A hearing will be held Nov. 29. Another hearing on Nov. 29 will be that of the Columbia County Telephone company for a rate schedule of $2 a month for business phones; $1.75 for residence phones and $1.50 for rural phones.

The Terry Cedar company alleges that it was overcharged $517.15 by the Chicago Northwestern and the Soo railroads and petitioned the commission to have this amount refunded. The charge was made on a carload of cedar posts shipped from Bowler, Wis., to Madison. The hearing was set for Nov. 30.

Milwaukee Service Men's Building.

Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 22.—Former service men of this city will have a memorial building which can be used as a clubhouse if plans now being formed are carried out. At a recent meeting of the special committee to consider the proposed project it was voted to recommend the appropriation of $1,000 from the municipal funds in 1920 and $500 from the contingent fund. This money is to be used by a civic committee appointed by the mayor for the preparation of plans.

WISCONSIN BRIEFS

Milwaukee—The jury hearing the second trial of William R. McKowen, former West Allis police justice, charged with bribery, failed to agree after twelve hours of deliberation and was dismissed by Judge George W. Burnell of Oshkosh in municipal court.

Rhinelander—The Boy Scout movement has gained impetus in Oneida county through the appointment of L. Guthrie as scout executive. Mr. Guthrie plans to organize troops in every town in the country.

Antigo—The Langlade county board has placed a tax of one-tenth of one mill per dollar on the taxable property of the county to provide a sinking fund for the erection of a county normal school building.

Hurley—Funeral services have been held here for Angelo Burbindela, 48, a miner living at Gile, who died Friday morning at the Union hospital, following a siege of illness with pneumonia. He had no relatives in this country. The widow and several children, living in Italy, survive him.

Ashland—Rev. W. J. Calfee, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church, has been presented with a medal by the American Jewish relief commission for the work he did in behalf of that association for the relief of the Jews who were in dire straits on account of the war.

Hurley—Four deer hunters of Shiocton, Wis.—Len Van Stratten, Orville Johnson, Henry Van Stratten and M. A. Jacobson—were arraigned in municipal court here, charged with hunting deer out of season and with having vension in their possession. They pleaded not guilty and hearing was set for Dec. 9. The arrests were made by E. M. Weaver, deputy game warden.

Appleton—The Appleton chamber of commerce has arranged a series of six lectures on subjects of particulaar interest to business men, to be given at intervals of one month during the winter. The first two lectures will be given by H. W. Sprague of Milwaukee, field director of the Internal revenue service, who will explain Federal income tax laws. Other lectures will deal with business organization, business system and auditing.

Bayfield—The Bayfield town hall was dedicated Friday with celebration, lasting until evening, as a manual arts building for the public school system.

MINNESOTA BRIEFS

Pine City—On Tueslay evening at 7:30 in the Methodist church the Nygren-Beckman Evangelistic party will open a three weeks' campaign. There will be services every evening at 7:30 with a half hour song service, directed by Mr. Beckman.

Park Rapids—About twenty dairymen in the vicinity of Park Rapids, Osage, Ponsford and Hubbard have agreed to join a cow testing association.

St. Cloud—Workmen are wrecking the old structure on the corner of Eighth avenue and First street south, the property of St. Mary's parish on which it is proposed to erect the new church next spring.

East Grand Forks—Boy Scouts of East Grand Forks are tracing a thief who is said to have stolen 3,000 feet of planks with which they intended to build a cabin.

Bemidji—Mrs. George N. Spaulding left Friday for Duluth for a short visit with relatives and friends before going on to her home at Iron Mountain, Mich. Mrs. Spaulding is a sister of Mrs. M. W. Pierce and has been the guest of the Pierce family for the past month.

Moorhead—Dr. Lotus D. Coffman, president of the University of Minnesota, and Dr. C. A. Prosser, president of Dunwoody institute, will speak here at the meeting of the North Central Minnesota Educational association convention, Dec. 2 and 3, according to announcement by John M. Brendal of Perham, president of the association.

Thief River Falls—There will be meetings of the Pennington County Producers' association at St. Hilaire and Thief Rixer Falls early in the coming month. At present the association is chiefly a potato producers' organization, but in the future will undoubtedly broaden its scope. To date twenty-one car loads of potatoes have been marketed this season through the farm bureau and the producers' organization.

Moorhead—At a meeting of the Clay county board of commissioners, four new state roads were established as follows: No. 10, between Ulen and Felton; No. 11, from Hawley to connect with No. 10; No. 12, from Georgetown to connect with road No. 5 running into Felton; No. 13 runs along the Great Northern right-of-way into Barnesville.

Crookston—The engagement, the wedding to take place on Wednesday, of Miss Selma Reitmeir, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Reitmeir, Lowell township, to Emil Radi, is announced.

International Falls—The local Moose lodge will hold an indoor carnival at the city hall during the week commencing Dec. 6.

Pine River—The high school honor roll for the first six weeks of school follows: Harvey Countryman, Edna Johnson, Hildur Johnson, Bertha Ottarson, Pauline Patton. These students had a grade of 90 or above in three or more studies. Bertha Ottarson's average was the highest, being 94¾.

Warren—The local coal situation shows little improvement. Dealers report no difficulty in securing shipments of soft coal, but find it almost impossible to obtain the popular sizes of hard coal.

DAKOTA BRIEFS

Hurn, S. D.—J. R. Howard, president of the American Farm Bureau federation, has appointed J. C. Holmes of Brookings as the South Dakota member of the national wool committee of the organization.

Grand Forks, N. D.—Henry O'Keefe, Jr., president of the city commission, will represent the city at the hearing upon the petition for increased telephone rates to be held before the state railroad commission at Bismarck on Dec. 2.

Devils Lake, N. D.—Dr. Downess of La Moure, government physician, who has been examining the eyes of Devils Lake school children, discovered three cases of trachoma among children in the schools and three other cases among adults. Most of those affected will be treated at the La Moure hospital, which is conducted by the government.

Velva, N. D.—The Velva Coal Products company, capitalized at $1,000,000, is sinking several shafts for coal in this vicinity and reports the supply of coal to be practically unlimited. A project of erecting an electric line from the mines to this city is being considered, and a large power plant to supply current for such a project is now under consideration.

Grand Forks, N. D.—Miss Alice Barrows of the field staff of the Northern division of the Red Cross addressed two meetings in Grand Forks Sunday, speaking at the Episcopal church in the morning and at the First Presbyterian church at night.

Devils Lake, N. D.—In all probability the Devils Lake Sons of Norway will erect their new building the coming spring, according to announcement made at a meeting this week. It is planned to organize a stock company to finance the project.

Bismarck, N. D.—Lawrence Otto and Peter Kronick, picked up here by Chief of Police Martineson and Officer Randel were taken to Minneapolis to face charges of implication in a series of drug store robberies in that city.

Agricultural College, N. D.—The staff of the 1921 Agassiz, the college year book, is announced. Matthew E. Tindall of St. Cloud, Minn., is editor-in-chief of the book, and E. Vernon Ladd, Fargo, is business manager. The associate editors are Gerald Andrews, Carrington and Bernice Noyes, Cando; assistant business manager, Leonard Sivertson, Carrington; photographs and engravings, Frank Roth, Rochester, Minn.; art, Edith Challey, Lisbon.

PENINSULA BRIEFS

Negaunee—A son was born last week at Hibbing, Minn., to Mr. and Mrs. George Trembath, former well known Negaunee young people. Mrs. Trembath was formerly Miss Alice Hennula.

Escanaba—Employes of the Escanaba police, fire and street departments were given a blanket salary increase of 10 per cent by the city council.

Marquette—Over 300 jars or cans of fruit, jelly, jam and pickles were received last week by the Women's Welfare club in its jam shower for St. Luke's and St. Mary's hospitals. The contributions were equally divided and delivered to the two institutions.

Calumet—Nine out of every ten ex-service men in the Calumet district are in favor of a cash bonus, according to George Steffen, representative of the Stars and Stripes, who has been in Calumet a week sounding the sentiment of veterans here.

Hubbell—Miss Mae Dee, school teacher murdered at Anaconda, Mont., last week by a rejected suitor, who then killed himself, recently visited here. The Dee family was one of the first to settle in Hubbell, the late Martin Dee, grandfather of the deceased having been the first postmaster in the village.

Ironwood—Funeral services were held Saturday for Mrs. Michael Barzenski, pioneer resident, who died Wednesday morning after a short illness, services being held at St. Ambrose church, Rev. Father John Moriarty officiating.

Houghton—Bradley Stoughton, secretary of the American Institute of Mining and Metallurgical Engineers, who was here at the meeting of the institute this summer will be here Monday and Tuesday Nov. 29 and 30 to assist in the formation of a local chapter.

How We Serve Factories and Mines

Julius Andrae & Sons Co. is more than an electrical supply house—perhaps we had better say, Andrae's is a supply house, plus.

As a supply house it matches up pretty close to the ideal—it has large stocks, dependable sources of supply, adequate equipment for handling business, and an eager, loyal organization.

But behind these resources, the Andrae people have something which is too seldom found nowadays, and that is the spirit of service.

Andrae salesmen are not peddlers; they are experts in the service of their customers. They are not order-hounds, they are purchasing counsel to those who need our kind of goods. Every day some factory or mine executive calls in the Andrae representative and says, "Mr. Jones, we want to do so-and-so; what material and equipment do you advise?" And the salesman tells him what he ought to buy—not what we want to sell.

A very large percentage of Andrae orders are received without any price stipulation.

We are proud of the position we hold in the estimation of our customers. We are uncompromising in the maintainance of this position, in the belief that it is the sort of service which first-class business men desire.

Escaped an Operation

There is nothing in the world a woman so much fears as a surgical operation. Often they are necessary, but often not; and many have been avoided by the timely use of that good old-fashioned root and herb remedy Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. If you are suffering from some dread ailment peculiar to your sex, why not profit by the experience of these two women whose letters follow?

These Two Women Saved from Operations.

Cedar Rapids, Ia.—"After the birth of my last child I had such painful spells they would unfit me entirely for my housework. I suffered for months and the doctor said that my trouble was organic ulcers and I would have to have an operation. That was an awful thing to me, with a young baby and four other children, so one day I thought of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and how it had helped me years before and I decided to try it again. I took five bottles of Vegetable Compound and used Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash and since then I have been a well woman, able to take care of my house and family without any trouble or a day's pain. I am ready and thankful to swear by your medicine any time. I am forty-four years old and have not had a day's illness of any kind for three years."—Mrs. H. Koenig, 617 Ellis Blvd, Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

Sandusky, Ohio.—"After the birth of my baby I had organic trouble. My doctor said it was caused by too heavy lifting and I would have to have an operation. I would not consent to an operation and let it go for over a year, having my sister do my work for me as I was not able to walk. One day my aunt came to see me and told me about your medicine—said it cured her of the same thing. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and used Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash and they have cured me. Now I do my own housework, washing and ironing and sewing for my family and also do sewing for other people. I still take a bottle of Vegetable Compound every spring for a tonic. I recommend your medicine to others who have troubles similar to mine and you can use my letter if you wish."—Mrs. Paul Papenfuse, 1325 Stone St., Sandusky, Ohio.

SUPERIORITY OF OHIO CERTAIN

Conference Records Show Champions to Be Deserving of Title.

Chicago, Nov. 22.—The superiority of Ohio State university's football eleven, Western Conference champions this year, over the other teams comprising the "Big Ten" is borne out in an analysis of the offensive and defensive records of the various contestants for the title.

The Buckeyes finished second in the number of points scored in games between conference elevens and were first in holding opponents away from their own goal line. Only three teams—Wisconsin, Michigan and Chicago—crossed the Ohio goal line and no teams crossed it more than once. The team scored fifty-eight points in conference games against twenty for its opponents.

An unusual feature is that Iowa, who finished fifth in the percentage table, was first in scoring with sixty-five points, while Michigan, in sixth place, and Chicago in eighth were close to Ohio's record defensively.

Low Scoring Records.

The tightness of many of the games and the closeness of the race is reflected in the fact that the ten elevens altogether scored only 420 points, or an average of about seven for each team in each game.

Ohio State proved itself the greatest finisher developed in the Western Conference in many years. Four of its five victories were won the final minutes of the game. In each instance the perfect forward passing of Hoge Workman, sophomore quarterback, brought the victory to the Buckeyes with Illinois, Wisconsin, Michigan and Chicago failing before the accuracy of his arm.

Wisconsin produced a powerful eleven, which is shown by the figures, but it lacked consistency.

ZBYSZKO, LEWIS IN ELIMINATION BOUT

New York, Nov. 22.—Wladek Zbyszko and Ed Strangler Lewis, heavyweight wrestlers, meet here today to decide which of them will wrestle for the world's heavyweight championship against Joe Stecher, present champion. The match tonight will be decided by one fall, at catch-catch-can style.

As a preliminary feature tonight Stecher will wrestle Leon O'Donnell, a French wrestler.

GUNBOAT SMITH HIT JACK HARD

By HARRY NEWMAN.

Chicago, Nov. 22.—A group of fight fans were discussing the respective merits of Dempsey and Carpentier the other day, when one of the party remarked: "Can this Dempsey fellow take it? Can he take a wallop on the old trademark and stay in there? Of course, we are all agreed that Jack can send them in," continued the quizzical person, "but can he stand the old gaff and return the compliment?"

"You bet your life he can take it," interposed Jack Kearns. "I'll never forget the night I saw him take it, and I must have lost at least two years' growth on the occasion.

When Jack Took One.

"Jack was a green one at the time," continued Kearns, "but we decided to send him against Gunboat Smith in one of those four-round decision affairs on the coast. The Gunner was at the top of his form and socking with the force of a pile driver.

"For the first two rounds we got by clean, but in the third round Dempsey, a practical novice, was going along wide open, and the Gunner, sizing up the situation, decided to let one go for luck.

"He wound up and let go a high one on the inside. It landed flush on Dempsey's jaw, and as it did I fell off my perch and landed kerflop in a mixture of bottles, towels and swabbing sponges right on the floor. I was afraid to look back, fearing that Jack would be stretched out with the count going on over him.

Dempsey Got Decision.

"When I decided to take a peek, there was Dempsey, to my agreeable surprise, holding Smith in his own corner and whaling the stuffing out of him.

"At the bell we fairly lifted Jack back into his corner, and during the minute's rest I showered advice into his ear, but he didn't appear to understand a word I spoke to him. 'Go get him,' I said. 'You've got the big stiff licked. Go to him now,' and when the bell sounded again for the last round I hustled Jack out to meet the Gunboat.

"The last round was a corker, with Dempsey crowding the old sailer with his short arm punches, toe to toe. At the bell Smith was gasping and the referee decided in favor of Jack.

But Didn't Know It.

"I hastened back to the dressing room with Jack, and as the handlers went through their usual operations he motioned me to his side and, whispering into my ear, asked, 'Who won the fight? How did we make out?'

"Dempsey was virtually out from that time that the Gunner landed the wallop in the third round, but the old fighting instinct kept him going and landed him the winner, just as it does every time that he is stung. You bet your life that Dempsey can take it, and don't you ever make any mistake about it."

"By the way of concluding," said Kearns, "I want to say that Smith told me later that he put everything he had into the punch which he landed on Dempsey, and when he saw the latter plunge back at him after getting it he was satisfied that Dempsey could not be beaten."

AMERICAN MERMAIDS MUST DRESS HIGHER

New Orleans, La., Nov. 22.—Girl swimmers who compete in Amateur Athletic Union contests in future must wear swimming suits that come higher about the neck and must be cut with a due allowance for shrinkage, under a rule adopted at the final session of the annual convention of the union here.

Judge Bartow S. Weeks, chairman of the legislative committee, described the low cut and tight fitting suits worn by American girls in the Olympic games, and said these girls had been criticized by the Europeans.

Under the terms of the new ruling, regulation suits must be worn by both men and women.

What was viewed as a victory for the "insurgent forces" within the A. A. U. was scored in the passage of a resolution calling for an investigation of charges that American athletes at the Olympic games were badly treated, both as to accommodations at Antwerp and transportation.

The resolution was sponsored by Sam Goodman, president of the Pacific Coast association.

The election of Robert S. Weaver of Los Angeles as president and the awarding of the national championship track and field meeting for 1921 to Chicago are being generally approved.

COLLEGES FORM HOCKEY LEAGUE

New York, Nov. 22.—The Intercollegiate Ice Hockey League of America was organized here yesterday with Yale, Harvard, Princeton, Pennsylvania, Dartmouth and Cornell as charter members. Invitations to join the league within fifteen days as charter members will be sent to other leading colleges in the East and Middle West. Six-men teams will play under Canadian intercollegiate rules with a few minor changes.

Australian Knocked Out.

Sydney, N. S. W., Nov. 22.—Jack Green, featherweight champion of Australia, was knocked out yesterday in the fourth round by Eugene Criqui of France.

CHICAGO BOWLERS LEADING TOURNEY

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 22.—Aspirants for honors in the thirteenth annual tournament of the Middle West Bowling association today were shooting for leads held by Chicago crews in the doubles and five men events and a St. Paul contestant in the singles.

The card of 2,795, turned in by the champion, Brucks of Chicago, Saturday night, stood up through yesterday in the face of assaults by six five-man clubs.

Match play in the singles and doubles did not start until yesterday and E. Matek of St. Paul went out in front with 636 in the former, while H. Larsen and J. Wagner of Chicago topped the other pairs with 1,182.

MANY DOGS TO RACE.

Northern Mushers Getting Huskies Ready for Annual Derby.

Winnipeg, Man., Nov. 22.—Northern dog mushers already are busy getting their huskies into shape for the 1921 dog derby, which will be held at The Pas early in March.

Walter Goyne, "The Going Kid" of Ruby, Alaska, and winner of the 1920 dog derby at The Pas, wired from St. Paul, Minn., that he has lost thirteen dogs since June, but has nine good ones left, and would like a race in February.

Goyne says he will race Canadian teams for purses and will run one mile or 200 for $1,500, half to be put up by each driver or his backer.

Indications point to a large number of entries for the 1921 derby. Albert Campbell, winner of the first Pas dog derby, and the Winnipeg-to-St. Paul race in 1918, intends to compete, and is sanguine of success. Albert's brother, Baptiste, who won the second Pas derby, is another intended starter, as are S. Pranteau of The Pas, L. McKay of Grand Rapids and J. Hays of Sturgeon Landing, all veteran racers.

It is suggested that the purse for the next race should be $2,500, as against $1,000 last derby, and the increased stake should attract white and Indian mushers from all parts of Northern Canada.

The derby last March was run over a 100-mile course from The Pas to Sturgeon Landing and back. This year the proposed course is from The Pas to Flin Flon and back, a distance of nearly 200 miles.

Sundt to Lead Badgers.

Chicago, Nov. 22.—Guy Sundt of Stoughton Wis., fullback on the University of Wisconsin 1920 football team, was chosen as captain for the 1921 eleven at a meeting here Saturday night of the Badgers. Sundt is a junior and a three-letter man, having won laurels in track, basket ball and on the gridiron.

HUNTERS FAIL TO SHOOT DEER

Army of Duluth Nimrods Returns Home With But Few Trophies.

Week-end and Sunday big game hunters who left Duluth Saturday in quest of deer were showered with disappointment, for of the better than 700 nimrods who treked forth to the forests only six brought back any vension.

The Duluth & Iron Range "High-Ball" train which reached here late last evening had on three extra coaches, which, together with the regular ones, were filled with hunters and in that army of red-coated-red-capped nimrods there were exactly three deer carcasses to show for the two days' chase. Other passenger trains that tap the cut-over timber country brought home hundreds of hunters who returned empty-handed.

"The deer are far back in the forests, too far for a hunter to travel in a short time, and unless you have a week to spend in the woods there is little use in going out, unless, of course, you enjoy the outing," said a veteran nimrod this morning. "The cannonading of the early days of the season frightened the moose and deer, driving them far back into the woods."

Frank Seaman, M. C. Gebert and Art Von, well known Duluth sportsmen, have returned from the Lake Pokegema country with three nice deer, one a 275-pound buck which was killed by Gebert, and which is on exhibition in the Kelley-Duluth store. "We had an ideal camping place, right on a lake, and experienced no trouble whatever in getting our game out of the woods," said Gebert. "A wagon road passed close to our cabin and a farmer delivered milk and cream to us each morning together with an occasional lemon pie which his wife contributed to the cause. We enjoyed our camp life immensely and would have stayed another week, but we all had to get back to business."

Generally the season has not been as good as in former years, a majority of the hunters attributing the failure to the temperate weather conditions.

BLIZZARD STOPS FOOTBALL GAME

Duluth and Superior Pro Elevens May Contest on Turkey Day.

Just when the Duluth and Superior professional football teams were all set to go into battle at Hislop park in Superior yesterday afternoon in the second of a series of games for the Head of the Lakes championship along came a blizzard with whiskers on it and plastered sleet and slop all over the Badger gridiron, making it urgent that the game be postponed. This was done and the contest will be staged on Thanksgiving day afternoon, providing the weather is favorable.

"We were all set to go but the condition of the field was terrible and we simply had to call things off," said Manager Art Olson of the Superior eleven this morning. "I do want to say a word for the good sportsmanship of Manager Joe Feakes of the team who, even in the face of the storm, had his men ready to take the field and would have come over had we asked.

"Yesterday's disappointment was quite a financial setback to us for it cost the Superior eleven quite a sum of money. We will try and play on Thanksgiving, however."

The managers of the Duluth and Superior teams will hold a conference this afternoon when they will decide about the Turkey day game and if they plan to go through with it to make the necessary arrangements. Whether the contest will be staged in Superior or Duluth will be one of the chief matters to come up at the conference.

EMPLOYED BOYS' LEAGUE FORMING FOR BASKET BALL

An employed boys' basket ball league composed of employed boys under 18 years of age in the different business houses throughout the city, will play in a basket ball tournament beginning the first part of December at the boys' Y. M. C. A. Some of the largest commercial houses in the city, including the Marshall-Wells company, Glass Block, Western Union, North American and others will enter teams to compete for championship in commercial circles of the most popular of indoor sports. All of the teams now entered are very enthusiastic over the plan and great rivalry and keen competition is expected.

Any firm that has not been called upon and wishes to enter a team may get information and have its team properly enrolled by calling Physical Director O. D. Peterson if request is made before tomorrow evening.

A mass meeting of all the teams will be held in the clubrooms of the boys' department tomorrow evening at 7 o'clock, to organize the league and complete arrangements so everything will be in readiness for playing in December.

An award will be given the team winning the commercial league championship.

BALL PLAYERS TO BE BONDED

Club Owners Are to Guard Against Crooked Performers on Diamond.

Minneapolis, Minn., Nov. 22.—State Senator E. J. Westlake, vice president of the Minneapolis baseball club, has announced details of an $8,000,000 bonding plan which he proposed at the recent meeting of the National Association of Professional Baseball leagues in Kansas City, to guard against gambling scandals in baseball.

Believing that anti-gambling legislation will not generally be put on the statute books of the states before the 1921 session opens, Senator Westlake proposed at the Kansas City meeting that each club require its players to furnish a bond against participation in agreements to throw games.

"This does not reflect on the players' integrity any more than it reflects on the integrity of a confidential clerk when he or she provides a secrecy bond, or when a business man provides a bond on taking an important office," said Senator Westlake.

He was asked at Kansas City to work out details and has just sent to all league presidents in all classifications, letters explaining what can be done. He has obtained the co-operation of the National Surety company, which has agreed to act as surety up to the amount of $8,000,000.

Bonds to Be Substantial.

"Players in the Class A leagues should be bonded for $5,000 each," said Senator Westlake; "those in Classes A and B should be bonded for $3,500 each, and those in C and D for $2,000.

"I propose that the following clauses be added paragraph No. 5 of the uniform baseball contract: 'said party of the second part (the player) agrees to sign an application to some surety company, approved by the party of the first part 'the baseball club), for a fidelity bond guaranteeing the integrity of the said party of the second part.'

"The publication of the fact that every player is under a bond guaranteeing his integrity will have not only a tendency to show the public that the owners and promoters of professional baseball are doing everything in their power to keep the sport on a high plane, but will also deter gamblers from offering bribes. The moral effect of the knoweldge that he is under bond would have a tendency to deter the player from accepting a bribe."

The premium on such bonds would amount to only a few dollars for each player and in the case of the AA clubs would amount to not more than $200 for the entire club roster, Senator Westlake said.

Under this plan, the total of all bonds, if every player were included, would be as follows: Class AA, $2,400,000; Class A and B, together, $4,000,000; Class C and D together, $1,920,000.

Senator Westlake was voted a resolution of thanks for his suggestion by the minors in their convention. The plan will be brought up for action at the adjourned session of the national association in February.

STECHER TO MEET CANNUCK GRAPPLER

Chicago, Nov. 22.—Joe Stecher is going to give Chicago wrestling fans several chances to see him perform on the mat. Joe is in town to sign for several contests at the Coliseum, the first of which will come Dec. 8. His opponent will be Jack Taylor, Canadian, providing Jack pins Charlie Cutler in their match at the Haymarket theater tonight.

Stecher came in from the west to make this and other matches. A clash with Stanislaus Zbyszko will likely be the second scrap. Joe will be at the theater tonight to watch his next opponent. Of course, if Cutler wins Charlie will get the chance.

Taylor is a fast and powerful grappler and holds a great record. He met Stecher before and lost only after a long contest. He staved off defeat in a clash with Ad Santell and went far into the morning in his match with Plestina, the latter finally getting a fall. Taylor says he will be a revelation to the Chicago wrestling fans and predicts a great match tonight.

One hundred Gordon Coats with fur collars

We have just received a cargo of overcoats for the car that will go without pushing. They are self-starters.

The speed limit for style. Made of the very best Germania Kersey with quilted linings and Nearseal collars. Green, brown or blue. Sizes 34 to 44.

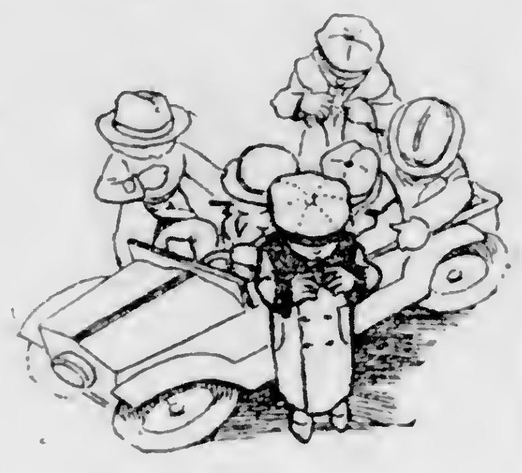
A whole window will be devoted to them today. Look at the exhibition and we'll need no full page to advertise them.



Special Price $46.50

$25 less than this season's price.

THE REASON: Gordon, like all other houses, is unloading the surplus stock to those who can buy in quantities for spot cash and who have the people's confidence and therefore the quick outlet.

Our buyer made an offer to Gordon last Wednesday on the entire lot, but left St. Paul as his offer was emphatically refused. On Thursday we received a wire that they had changed their minds and that the coats were on their way.

This sale starts tomorrow.

MANY FACE POLICE JUDGE

Court Presents Old-Time Appearance; Fourteen Drunks on List.

Police court had the appearance of old times this morning. Fourteen drunks featured the grist. Among these were Tom Iverson, Paul Saari, James Shea, Albert Denby and Jerry Sharlot, each of whom forfeited $20 bail; Victor Hanson, Matt Williams, William Solinski, Tony Mattson and John Gust Hill, who pleaded guilty to having been drunk. They were each fined $20 and costs with an alternative of spending twenty days at the county work farm. Selina Hill pleaded guilty to having been drunk and will be sentenced this afternoon. Elizabeth Bowers entered a plea of not guilty and her trial was set for this afternoon.

Christina Hanson was arrested in a raid by the police on a charge of conducting a blind pig. Attorney Charles Line appeared in police court for the woman and entered plea for her of not guilty. Her trial was set for Nov. 26 at 10 a. m. and her bail set at $200.

Arthur Russell was arrested while carrying a number of cans of fruit in the Northern Pacific railroad yards. He was charged with petty larceny to which he pleaded guilty in police court this morning. The complaint sworn to stated that he had stolen the cans from the railroad company. He was fined $10 and costs with an option of spending ten days at the work farm.

Charles Engberg pleaded not guilty to a charge of being drunk and his trial was set for tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. Abraham Anderson entered a plea of not guilty to such a charge and his trial was set for Dec. 6 at 10 a. m.

Frank Bryant, charged with driving his automobile without proper rear lights, pleaded guilty and was fined $5. Paul Sanskan pleaded guilty to driving his car without proper license plates and was fined $5.

Earl Peterson, charged with parking his auto in a prohibited place, forfeited $5 bail. F. L. Blass, who violated the parking ordinance, pleaded guilty and was fined $3. Robert Marsh and Milford Sherman pleaded guilty to parking in prohibited places and were released on suspended sentences.

THIS WOMAN FOUND RELIEF

Men and women suffering from backache, rheumatic pains, stiff and swollen joints, lameness and soreness, will be glad to read how one woman found relief from kidney and bladder trouble. Mrs. G. To Keep Hair Wavy, Lustrous, Beautiful

The use of the hot curling iron cannot be too strongly condemned. It means death to the hair eventually. Moreover it is entirely unnecessary. The hair can be kept beautifully wavy and curly to any extent and in any form desired by using the simple and harmless silmerine method. Liquid silmerine should be applied to the hair before doing it up, using a clean tooth brush. In about three hours you will find that a very pretty "natural" wave and curliness has resulted, and the effect will last quite a considerable time.

Liquid silmerine is really beneficial and is not sticky nor greasy. Neither does it streak the hair nor stain the scalp. You need get only a few ounces from your druggist. The best way is to divide the front and back hair into from four to six strands and to moisten each strand separately from root to tip.—Advertisement.

WATER POWER IS AMPLE NOW

Late Rains Assure Against Shortage for Electric Power Here.

Duluth and district will not experience any shortage in lighting or electric power facilities during the coming winter, in the opinion of W. N. Ryerson, manager of the Great Northern Power company.

"We have sufficient water in our dam at Thomson to take care of all requirements in Duluth and Superior and the territory covered by our feed wires in the iron range districts," said Mr. Ryerson today.

Although the early autumn rainfall was seriously deficient, enough moisture has fallen since to relieve apprehensions on the score of any shortage coming about under normal conditions from now on, he asserted. He mentioned that the capacity of the Great Northern Power company's plant is now 71,000 horsepower, as compared with 40,000 horsepower ten years ago. Power is now being furnished by the company for the operation of several mines on the Mesabe range in addition to the electric railway up there.

ACCIDENT VICTIM DIES.

Mrs. J. J. Cable Succumbs to Injuries: Funeral on Wednesday.

Mrs. J. J. Cable, aged 50, 326 South Sixteenth avenue east, died yesterday morning at St. Luke's hospital of a fracture of the skull after being unconscious since Tuesday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock. Mrs. Cable was struck by an automobile driven by Edward Johnson, 4707 Jay street, city salesman for the Peyton Paper company, as she was about to cross London road at Fifteenth avenue east, in company with Mrs A. J. Anthony, 1510 Jefferson street.

Besides her husband, Mrs. Cable leaves one son, William Agnew of this city. Both husband and son were out of the city when the accident occurred, but they returned later in the evening and were at her bedside from that time until her death. The funeral will be held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the family residence.

BISHOP BENNETT IS VISITOR IN DULUTH

Bishop Coadjutor Gaylord Granville Bennett, who will take assistant charge of the Duluth diocese of the Episcopal church Jan. 1, is spending the day in Duluth and is a guest of Thomas S. Wood, 1927 East Superior street. Bishop Bennett is rector of the St. Paul's Episcopal church of Minneapolis, and will retain that charge until the first of the year.

Bishop Bennett will return to Minneapolis tomorrow, but will again come to Duluth Nov. 29 to begin a series of missions at the St. Paul's church, starting next Monday evening.

NEW LOW PRICES IN GRAIN MARKET

Chicago, Nov. 22.—Feverish trading and new low record prices gave evidence today that the period of deflation had not yet spent its force in the grain market here.

All cereals showed hesitation at the outset this morning, but rallies were of brief duration and were followed by sudden downward plunges that hurled breadstuffs and feedstuffs alike to the lowest level this season, wheat under any prices since 1917 and corn and oats since 1915. Knowledge that these figures were well under the cost of production failed to stop the abnormal weakness.

More than 5 cents a bushel was slashed from the value of wheat within little more than an hour, December delivery changing hands as low as $1.63¼. Cutting of prices on corn and oats was less spectacular except as being in addition to previous operations of late that had severed corn values nearly in half.

Scarcity of buyers owing to disturbed general business conditions appeared to be the chief depressing factor.

Neither announcement of considerable export business or of a big decrease in the United States visible supply total was sufficient to stop the selling stampede or to induce any adequate demand. As much as 11 cents a bushel loss since Saturday was shown in the market after midday, December touching $1.58. The close was flurried. 2½ cents to 9 cents net lower with December, $1.60@1.60½, and March, $1.55@1.56.

LACK FUNDS FOR MORE "DRY" AGENTS

Minneapolis, Minn., Nov. 22.—Lack of a sufficient appropriation by congress will prevent an increase in the personnel of the force of prohibition enforcement agents under Paul D. Keller in the Northwest district, comprising five states, Jesse G. Steenson, state prohibition officer for Minnesota, said today upon his return from Washington.

Steenson and Keller have been in the national capital conferring with John F. Kramer, national prohibition commissioner, with the hope of getting the appropriation increased so that a larger number of agents could be employed in running down Volstead law violators in the districts.

"Prohibition has more than paid for itself in Minnesota," Mr. Steenson said. "I estimate that by March 1, 1921, the end of the fiscal year, more than $1,000,000 will have been collected in taxes and fines from violators of the Volstead act arrested by Federal prohibition agents here. The amount probably will be twice as much for the entire district of five states. During that period the expenses incurred in the enforcement will not amount much above $250,000, it is estimated by Mr. Keller."

PHONE COMPANIES TO ASK RATE INCREASE

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 22.—Application for an increase in rates will be made by the Tri-state and Northwestern Telpehone companies to the Minnesota railroad and warehouse commission early in December, it was stated here today.

Both companies at present are figuring out just what increase they shall ask and refuse to comment on what their request would be. An investigation started nearly four years ago, it was said, showed increased rates are necessary for proper operation of the companies.

To Finance Foreign Trade.

New York, Nov. 22.—Bankers and business men are urged by the American Bankers' association to consider inauguration by the first of the year of the foreign trade financing corporation under the Edge act for the protection of home industries and proper financing of American foreign trade.

GENTILLY PRIEST IS GIVEN CONGRATULATION

Crookston, Minn., Nov. 22.—Rev. Father Theillon of the Gentilly parish is being congratulated on his accomplishment in completing his fine church edifice, and a number of local people have just returned from a trip made there to extend greetings to him.

In the party were C. E. Kiewel, W. T. Carlisle, W. E. McKenzie, J. J. Padden, C. H. Zealand, P. A. Egeland, M. O'Brien, J. A. Cowley, R. T. Buckler and C. C. Strander, representing civic authorities, the Crookston Association of Public Affairs, and the business men of Crookston in general.

Gentilly, as a farming community, has prospered beyond the ordinary. Its people are among the best farmers of the Red river valley, and the cheese factory there, in the ownership of which the larger part of the surrounding farmers have part, has been one of the dominant factors in the making of their success. The factory where is made the renowned Gentilly cheese, stands as an illustration of the interest and concern of Father Theillon in the every day affairs of his parishioners.

Your nose will harbor cold germs. Do not allow them to waste your vitality. Use at once Mayr's Pine Needle Balm and check them at the beginning. Disregard of common colds is one of the causes for the appalling death rate from flu and pneumonia in the last few years. Colds are infectious and dangerous. Keep a tube of Mayr's Pine Needle Balm in the house and at the first suggestion of a cold apply it to the nose. Catarrh, that embarrassing and troublesome condition, clears up quickly when Mayr's Pine Needle Balm is used. Sold in two sizes—30c and 60c tubes. Free trial by writing Geo. H. Mayr, 219 West Austin avenue, Chicago. Mayr's Pine Needle Balm is for sale by druggists everywhere.

EUCLID LODGE WILL HOLD PAST MASTERS' NIGHT NEXT SATURDAY

JAMES H. MEDLAND,
Who Will Be Master.

JUDGE H. W. LANNERS,
Who Will Be Senior Warden.

Euclid lodge, No. 198, A. F. & A. M., will honor past masters of the lodge at its annual "Past Masters" night next Saturday evening at the West Duluth Masonic temple, 615 North Central avenue. The former executive officers will occupy all of the chairs and conduct work in the third degree on a class of candidates. The ceremonies will be followed by a banquet, at which many of the past masters will speak.

J. H. Medland will preside as master. The other past masters who will occupy the principal chairs are Judge H. W. Lanners, senior warden; Dr. Robert S. Forbes, junior warden; Fred Holloway, senior deacon, and John O. Winton, junior deacon.

E. Joseph Eriksson, master of the lodge, will preside at the banquet. He is in charge of the arrangements for the entertainment.

Euclid lodge was given its charter on Jan. 15, 1891. It now has twenty-five past masters, four of whom have died and many of whom are now living out of the city. Those who have died are D. C. Prescott, Louis S. Neuman, M. M. Clark and L. R. Clark. The other past masters in the order in which they served are M. C. Burnside, George J. Mallory, George H. Wright, Ed Elston, L. A. Barnes, Dr. David Graham, Capt. C. C. Salter, Dr. G. E. Budd, W. J. Darby, J. H. Opperman, E. G. Wallinder, M. J. Murray, M. M. Meldahl, Mason M. Forbes, W. B. Getchell, John O. Winton, J. H. Medland, Judge H. W. Lanners, Dr. Robert S. Forbes, Fred Holloway and Charles A. Comfort.

COAL FAMINE AGAIN FEARED

West Duluth May Not Get Even 70 Per Cent of 1919 Allotment.

West Duluth now is not even certain of obtaining the limited quantity of hard coal promised last month by operators.

"We are told that, at the outside, we could not receive more than 70 per cent of last year's allotment," said L. J. Brotherton of the Western Fuel & Feed company today. "If we were to get all of that, it would not be enough. Now the operators don't know whether they can even furnish the 70 per cent."

More definite information as to the amount of coal West Duluth will get will probably be received within a few days, Mr. Brotherton said. He asserted that to supply the demand, it would be necessary to have at least 10 per cent more coal than was allowed in 1919.

Use of coke and other substitutes for hard coal was recommended by Mr. Brotherton. He declared that otherwise there would be suffering in many West Duluth homes.

L. A. Barnes, president of the West Duluth Commercial club, said that several of the companies had promised aid from their local docks, as well as from the wholesale supplies.

In an effort to get some quick results Commissioner Phillips introduced in the city council meeting this afternoon a resolution calling the attention of Governor Burnquist to the conditions and asking that assistance be given the West Duluth residents in getting the necessary coal. The resolution submitted follows:

"Whereas, a shortage of coal exists in West Duluth, and whereas repeated efforts of residents in that section of the city have not resulted in any relief in the situation, and whereas, said coal shortage is causing considerable hardship and suffering to a great many residents of West Duluth,

"Now, therefore, this council calls upon J. A. A. Burnquist, governor of the state of Minnesota, for assistance in the matter and asks that he give the matter his earnest attention to the end that the residents of West Duluth be enabled to purchase coal in sufficient quantities to heat their homes during the coming winter."

MANY TRYING FOR DENFELD SQUAD

Candidates for the Denfeld high school football team assembled for the first time this afternoon. About thirty-five boys of the senior high school are out for the team. Coach Monat put his charges through a light workout and will start scrimmaging this week with a view to selecting the twenty boys to make up the squad.

The sophomores won the interclass basket ball tournament at Denfeld high school. The "sophs" met and defeated the juniors by an 18-8 score. The sophomores and juniors had previously met and defeated the freshmen and juniors respectively. The freshmen defeated the seniors, 16 to 14, following the game between the sophomores and juniors. The freshman-senior game was a tie, 14-14, at the end of the second period. The freshmen scored a field goal during the extra period which gave them their victory over the upper classmen.

The freshmen made up for their lack of weight and height with their speed and team work. The sophomores did not experience any difficulty in defeating either the seniors or the juniors and thereby winning the interclass championship. The members of the sophomore team were: Bob Curtis, center and captain; Hess, forward; Dwight Swanstrom, forward; Joe Gleason, guard, and B. Erdahl, guard.

GIVES PERMISSION TO USE NAME

Eugene Palmer, Lawrence, Mass., writes: "Foley's Honey and Tar relieved me of a cough from which I had been suffering for weeks. You have my full permission to use my name any time you wish in any advertising matter." This fine old family remedy is in great demand right now for colds, croup and bronchial and grip coughs. Foley's Honey and Tar acts almost instantly, cuts the phlegm, sothes the raw and irritated membrane, clears breathing passages.

DORIC OPENS ON THURSDAY

New West Duluth Theater Ready for Public, Says Mr. Clinton.

Duluth's newest motion picture theater, the Doric, at Fifty-seventh avenue west and Grand, will be opened to the public at 1 p. m. Thanksgiving day.

In erecting this handsome playhouse at West Duluth at a cost of approximately $150,000, it is the aim of Clinton & Meyers to provide the best in motion picture entertainment for the residents of West Duluth, the West end, Riverside, Gary, Morgan Park, New Duluth, Smithville and Fond du Lac. Features produced by Paramount, Famous Players and a few First National pictures will be presented, in addition to special vaudeville shows occasionally.

The Doric theater, the latest in the string of playhouses controlled by Clinton & Meyers, is Duluth's best neighborhood theater, and in announcing the opening for Thursday afternoon, J. B. Clinton made the following statement:

"We hope to serve the residents throughout the western sections of the city with the best and latest releases, so that it will no longer be necessary for them to go all the way downtown to see motion pictures.

"With the Lyceum now being remodeled and two new theaters to be built in the West end and on West Superior street in the spring, the Clinton & Meyers company will have ten theaters in operation in Duluth and Superior by next June," Mr. Clinton said.

The Doric is fireproof, being constructed of brick, and has the latest systems of ventilation throughout the building.

Ralph E. Parker, manager of the Sunbeam theater for the last eight years, will manage the Doric. Webster Johnson, popular Duluth organist, will play the Bartola orchestra organ installed in the new theater. Mr. Johnson is well known to Duluth theatergoers and his assignment to the West Duluth playhouse will be welcomed by residents of the western sections of the city.

The Doric will play continuously every day, with matinees each afternoon. There will be two changes of pictures each week, Sunday and Thursday. For the opening day, Thursday, "A Daughter of Two Worlds," with Norma Talmadge in the title role, is announced as the feature attraction. "Humoresque," the year's wonder picture, is announced for early showing.

Hits Man; Breaks Leg.

Knute Knuteson, 2205 West First street, reported to the West Duluth police Saturday night that he had struck John Wood, aged 21, 3817 West Sixth street, with his automobile going west on Grand avenue between Thirty-eighth and Thirty-ninth avenue. He told the police that Wood had stepped off the curb directly in front of his car so that he was unable to avoid hitting him. Wood was taken to a local hospital where it was determined that his leg had been broken.

CLEMENT GONEAU DULUTH BOOSTER

Clement Goneau, formerly of West Duluth, is the subject of a letter received by The Herald, signed "A Booster From the West." The letter comes from Seattle, Wash., where Mr. Goneau took a position as city salesman after leaving the road. The letter reads:

"It certainly does me good to meet a booster, and I have had that pleasure in meeting one from your city. He is a great booster for Duluth. His name is Clement Goneau of your city. He has been on the road but has left it for a city salesman's job here in Seattle.

"This line of work was new to him, but he has made a great success of it in a remarkably short time. I have never been east of the mountains and am greatly impressed with this young man's boosting qualities."

Stealing Her Coal.

A complaint has been entered by Mrs. Peltcher, 408 North Fifty-eighth avenue west, at the West Duluth police station that her coal bin has been broken into several times and varying amounts of coal stolen.

Solo Rioter Fined.

Hart L. Apland, aged 21, arrested Saturday night on a drunk and disorderly charge, was fined $25 and costs this morning in the West Duluth division of police court. Apland was arrested when he started to cause a disturbance in a cafe on North Central and was thrown out on the street, according to the police report.

TWO WEEKS' SERVICES BY EVANGELIST PETERSON

REV. J. A. PETERSON.

Special services will be held at the Gospel Tabernacle, Sixtieth avenue west and Bristol street, at 7:30 every evening and at 3 p. m. Sundays from Nov. 21 to Dec. 6. Rev. Rueben E. Larson will be in charge. Evangelist J. A. Peterson will speak at all meetings. An invitation is extended to all.

BEHIND RECORD IN RED CROSS ROLL CALL

"With but a few days left in which to renew their memberships in the American Red Cross, the people of West Duluth will have to hurry if they are to equal their splendid records of former years," says W. B. Getchell, who is chairman of the Red Cross membership committee for that section of the city. The Red Cross is not conducting the vigorous house-to-house campaign of other years, but is asking that the people come to the banks and certain other business places and give their dollar in exchange for a 1920 membership button.

"It is as necessary today as it was during the war that we should have a 100 per cent membership to the American Red Cross," members of the committee stated today.

MYSTERIOUS LIQUOR RAID, IS NEWS HERE

Minneapolis, Minn., Nov. 22.—Federal prohibition agents located intoxicating liquors last night in various parts of the residence of Mrs. Mary Olson, Duluth, Clay C. Metz, group chief, reported today.

A jug of alleged moonshine whisky was found in the ice cream freezer, a bottle in an oil stove, another jug was concealed in bed and a second bottle was located among the springs of a lounge, he said.

A warrant will be issued for the arrest of Mr. Olson, Mr. Metz said.

Neither Duluth Federal officers nor police officers know of a raid having been conducted in Duluth as recently as stated in the dispatch from Minneapolis. J. C. H. Engel, deputy clerk of the United States court, that it was usual to bring the offenders before him but that he knew nothing of this case. Chief of Police Warren E. Pugh said the police had no record of such a raid conducted last night.

SCOUR COUNTRY FOR MISSING SOUDANITE

Soudan, Minn., Nov. 22.—(Special to The Herald.)—Search still continues for Walter Stephan, 17, son of Joe Stephan, foreman in a local plant, who became separated from hunting companions in the Mud Creek district about six miles east of Tower the middle of last week. Seventy-five men scoured the country yesterday with not even a clue resulting. In the party were several Indians and some forest rangers. It is being feared that the young man has perished either from exposure or from a bullet wound self-inflicted or a stray bullet. The search will continue a day or so.

NINE CAUGHT IN RAID IN VIRGNIA

Virginia, Minn., Nov. 22.—(Special to The Herald.)—Judge Bliss is out of town today and nine caught in a gambling raid last night will not be arraigned until tomorrow.

The arrests were made when police entered what is called a rooming house at 323 Chestnut street last night, where they say they found a poker game in full swing eight seated about the table and considerable money "in sight." E. F. Cook, alleged to be proprietor of the place, was arrested and the others being taken: John McCormick, J. Johnson, Aaron Harper, Don Edwards, Audrey Lemere, Arvid Hernessmaa, Gust Erickson and Fred Raconi. They furnished bonds.

NEW VIRGINIA CHURCH DEDICATED

ZION ENGLISH LUTHERAN CHURCH.

Virginia, Minn., Nov. 22.—(Special to The Herald.)—With outside pastors assisting in the exercises the new Zion English Lutheran church, Third avenue and Seventh street here was dedicated yesterday under the leadership of the pastor, Rev. Walter Melahan. Rev. Mr. Gade of Gaylord spoke in the morning. Rev. Mr. Smith from Chaska delivered an address at the afternoon services and Rev. Mr. Baumhoefner occupied the pulpit in the evening. There was a splendid musical program rendered at each of the services. Norman Strauss was the organist for the day, playing on the newly installed Estey organ. Mrs. F. McKenzie of Hibbing sang at the afternoon and evening services, Miss Van Buren of Hibbing presiding at the piano. Rev. Walter Sievers, Duluth, played the violin.

Zion English Lutheran church is considered one of the most attractive and artistic churches on the range. E. Berg of Eveleth was the architect and supervised the building operations. The present officers of the congregation are: E. C. Strauss, president; F. W. Brooks, vice president; E. A. Falkenberg, treasurer, and H. E. Pribnow, F. H. Busch, R. G. Falkenberg trustees. Rev. Walter Melahan has been the pastor for the past five years. The congregation has also built a new parsonage.

CARLSON'S IDENTITY IS NOW ESTABLISHED

Hibbing, Minn., Nov. 22.—(Special to The Herald.)—The identity of Edward Carlson, 16, who made a sensational escape from jail here two weeks ago and who was captured last Thursday in Virginia, has been definitely established. He appeared in juvenile court in Virginia Staurday, but his case was continued pending arrival of word from his parents, who reside on a farm about fourteen miles from Fort Francis, Ont.

The boy's real name is Edward Kaftenniek and he left his home after a quarrel with his parents. He ran away to Eveleth, where he was arrested for robbing the Park hotel. After his escape from the juvenile officer he came to Hibbing, where he was again arrested. His escape from the county jail occurred the morning before he was to have been taken to Ranier by Probation Officer Everett in an attempt to establish his identity. At Ranier the boy told the officer he had $300 cached in his uncle's house. This story, however, has been entirely discounted.

Gives Mining Statistics.

Hibbing, Minn., Nov. 22.—(Special to The Herald.)—Statistics of interest to range mining men are contained in the annual report of Ed Smith of Eveleth, inspector of state mines, for the year ending June 30, 1920, now being distributed. Statistics of various kinds and statements of fatal and nonfatal accidents are contained in the report.

BURNTSIDE HUNTER ACCIDENTALLY SHOT

Ely, Minn., Nov. 22.—Al J. Coombe is in Shipman hospital here with a bullet wound sustained a few days ago while hunting with Edwin Toms, Carl Staley and William Kostad on the north arm of Burntside lake when Kolstad accidentally shot him as he was leaning over skinning a deer. The bullet entered the left arm pit, took a downward course just under the skin, emerging at the groin without hitting a vital spot and his recovery is expected. William Kolstad claims he saw the deer at a distance but did not see the man dressing the animal and fired.

Kolstad is distracted over his error. He at once helped his injured companion to the camp with the assistance of the others and a messenger dispatched to Ely for a physician. Dr. O. W. Parker went to the camp and after dressing the injured man brought him to the hospital.

BUHL BREEZES.

Buhl, Minn., Nov. 22.—Many out of town members are expected at the meeting of the local Moose tonight when features in keeping with the Thanksgiving season will be given.

Miss Myrtle Bennett is at the Shaw hospital, where she was taken following a fall in which she suffered internal injuries. An operation was performed Thursday.

A number of new members were received into the congregation of the Lutheran church at the services Sunday afternoon. The services began at 3 o'clock and were conducted in both English and Swedish languages.

The Catholic Ladies' Aid will meet Wednesday afternoon at the library clubrooms at 2:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Heikki Niemi and two sons have returned from a visit with relatives in Finland, where they have been for the past two years.

The special election held last week for the purpose of deciding the question of establishing the village of Buhl as a separate assessment district resulted decisively in favor of the proposed change.

The first venison to arrive, according to available information, was brought in by Peter Petri, who shot his deer about noon of the opening day. He was hunting in the region about Dead Man's lake and secured a nice-sized doe. Greg Murphy, Henry Krueger, M. A. Nichols and Matt Perhai are among those who have reported success. Judge Nichols perhaps brought back the finest looking specimen, a big buck which he shot in the Rainy Lake country.

KAMES IS BOOKED ON MURDER CHARGE

Hibbing, Minn., Nov. 22.—(Special to The Herald.)—John Kames, arrested yesterday charged with killing Chester Evans, Duluth negro, at the Range hotel yesterday morning, was booked on a charge of murder in the first degree before Judge Brady this morning. His preliminary hearing was fixed for Friday morning in municipal court at 10 o'clock. Kames refuses to make any statement. He has not as yet engaged any lawyer.

Evidence tending to weave a chain of guilt about Kames was presented at the coroner's inquest this morning. Witnesses called by Phil Stone, state's attorney, gave connected versions of the affair. The inquest was suspended at noon to resume again at 2:30 p. m.

PARTLY CLOUDY

PARTLY CLOUDY

With more snap in the air today, and the sunshine on the job, conditions seem better. The sun rose this morning at 7:22 and will set this evening at 4:27, giving nine hours and five minutes of sunlight. Mr. Richardson makes the following comment on weather conditions:

"The disturbance centered Saturday morning over north-central Nebraska, moved to East Iowa by Sunday morning and today at 7 a. m. its center was over Ohio. In the meantime rain or snow resulted throughout the Lake Region, Ohio, Upper Mississippi and lower Missouri valley states, and fresh to strong easterly winds which last night shifted to fresh northwesterly on lower Lake Michigan and extreme western Lake Superior. A fairly strong high pressure overlying the region from the Dakotas southward to Texas is attended by a turn to colder in that section and eastward as far as the 85th meridian. Another barometric depression has appeared over Alberta and as a consequence the temperature is rising in the extreme Northwest and rains have fallen over North California, Oregon, Washington and British Columbia."

General Forecasts.

Chicago, Nov. 22.—Forecasts for the twenty-four hours ending at 7 p. m. Tuesday:

Minnesota—Generally fair tonight and Tuesday; warmer Tuesday and in extreme northwest portion tonight.

North Dakota—Fair tonight and Tuesday; warmer tonight and in southeast portion Tuesday.

Upper Lakes—Fresh northeast and north winds and cloudy weather on Lake Superior; strong north and northwest winds and rain turning to snow on Lake Michigan; strong east shifting to north winds with rain probably changing to snow on Lake Huron.

LOCAL FORECAST

For Duluth and vicinity: Partly cloudy tonight and Tuesday. Lowest temperature tonight 15 to 20 deg. at Duluth, Superior and Two Harbors, and 10 to about 15 deg. inland and on the iron ranges. Somewhat warmer Tuesday. Moderate and possibly fresh northerly to easterly winds.

HIBBING MURDER ENDS DULUTH NEGRO'S CAREER

CHESTER EVANS.

Hibbing, Minn., Nov. 22.—(Special to The Herald.)—The deputy coroner is to hold an inquest today into the death of Chester Evans, 42, colored, Duluth, shot and killed here Sunday morning in his room in the Range hotel with a .38 Colt's revolver, alleged to have been fired by John Kames, 28, Greek, presumably as the outcome of a card game difference. The accused is in jail here. Evans who has a widow living in the Zenith City is reported to have a police record there.

Kames was arrested within half an hour after the shooting by Patrolmen Peter McDermott and Eric Nord who followed tracks in the fresh snow leading from the Range hotel to the Oliver hotel, and is in the village hall pending a coroner's inquest.

A shot, an outcry by the wounded negro, moans, the sound of hurried footsteps down the stairs of the hotel and the sight of a retreating man with gun in hand, led Tom Tastsides, one of the proprietors of the hotel, to telephone police headquarters for officers. In his room in the Oliver hotel, where officers found him in bed stark naked and apparently sound asleep, Kames was identified by the patrolmen as the man described by Tastsides and Milton Zorbas, cook in the Range hotel, as the alleged murderer.

The shot is believed to have been fired when Evans was seated in a chair undressing for bed retiring. After the shot, he yelled, then staggered through the door of his room and fell in the hallway, where he was found a few minutes later by Laura Rowler, hotel housekeeper.

Grand Rapids, Minn., Nov. 22.—(Special to The Herald.)—Rev. Father Henneberry late of Duluth, the new pastor of St. Joseph's Catholic church here, yesterday officiated at his first mass here under the new pastorate, and made his first announcements. Father Henneberry is no stranger in these parts, having served the parishes of Deer River and Cohasset and other points in this county, and he is receiving a hearty welcome to his new charge.

Start Grand Rapids Work.

Grand Rapids, Minn., Nov. 22.—(Special to The Herald.)—Courtemanche & Dion, who received the contract for the construction of the addition to the garage and storehouse adjoining the Central school, have commenced work on the building and preparations are being made for laying the foundation. A carload of brick has arrived and other material is on hand for the work.

BIG CROWDS ATTEND 'Y' SUNDAY MEETINGS

Two large crowds of boys attended the Sunday meetings at the boys' department of the "Y." The Knights of Sir Galahad met at 3 o'clock with Willis Peer as leader and Herbert Lee, speaker. A piano solo was given by Sherman Kasmir. The Sunday club met at 4 o'clock. This meeting is for older boys. Leonard Henrikson was the leader and G. A. Giyer gave the talk. The boys' department symphony orchestra played two selections. The committee served lunch at the close of the meeting. The boys' commercial basket ball league will hold an organization meeting Tuesday at 7 o'clock. The Rotary club banquet will take place in the dining room at 6:30. Lieut. Stephen McGiffert will meet a group of boys in the junior club room to talk over the artillery corps. Wednesday evening the high school club will hold its regular meeting and a HI-Y pin will be the attendance prize. This club is being limited to 100 members. President Edson announces there is room for twenty-eight more.

Thursday being Thanksgiving day, the club will have a full day's program. At 9 o'clock there will be a short Thanksgiving service in charge of the Sunday club, at 9:20, a treasure hunt, and at 10 a swimming period. The building will close at 10:30 a. m. and open again at 2:30 p. m. From 2:30 to 4 a championship tournament will be held in the following games: Pool, cue roquet, checkers, shuffle board and ping pong. Awards will be given each champion.

At 4 o'clock the athletic committee will feature a half-mile relay race with a Superior Y. M. C. A. team; also a basket ball game with Superior. Following these two games, there will be a volley and cage ball game for everyone. At 5:30 a swimming period with contest in diving for pennies and catching gold fish will be held.

A cafeteria lunch will be served at 6:30 and at 8 o'clock there will be a vaudeville entertainment.

The club will have open house all day Friday and in the evening. The entertainment committee will present "Daddy Long Legs." The 500-mile club is attracting a lot of members. The members had their first hike Saturday. Twenty boys responded to the first call. In addition to the regular hikes and observation trips, each boy will keep a record of the number of miles he walks every day.

PRESIDENT-ELECT NEARING PANAMA

On Board S. S. Parismina, Nov. 22.—(By wireless to Associated Press.)—President-elect Harding's voyage to Panama was nearing an end today with the Parismina riding in a smooth sea on a schedule that would bring her into Cristobal early tomorrow morning.

Plans for the five days' stay in the canal zone so far are incomplete but one feature will be a trip through the canal, probably on a government tug. It has been suggested that the party go through the waterway on the Parismina but the president-elect regarded the plan as somewhat impracticable. One day probably will be devoted to inspection of the canal and the remainder of the time sightseeing, with a few games of golf in between.

TWO MORE BANKS IN NORTH DAKOTA CLOSE

Bismarck, N. D., Nov. 22.—Two North Dakota banks closed today, O. E. Lofthus, state bank examiner, announced. They are the First State Bank of Kildeer at Kildeer and the Security State bank at Columbus. Mr. Lofthus said that his advices indicated the banks closed because their reserves were below the required amount.

DECLARES QUALITY OF CLOTHING TO IMPROVE

Minneapolis, Nov. 22.—There will be silk in the silk ties and wool in the woolen suits young men buy next spring and the prices may even be cheaper than figures paid for this winter's offerings, according to representatives of clothing manufacturers, who have displays here this week at the buying convention of the United National Clothiers.

The quality of clothing is going up as soon as the manufacturers and merchants can sell the wartime stock and can make the better grades of goods, according to W. L. Mohr, treasurer and general manager of the clothiers' organization.

NORTHWEST'S EGG SUPPLY 30 PER CENT BELOW NORMAL

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 22.—The supply of eggs in the Northwest is approximately 30 per cent below normal, Hugh J. Hughes, marketing director, department of agriculture, said today. Last reports show that there are 169,000 cases of eggs in cold storage and 855,000 pounds of frozen eggs. This supply, according to Mr. Hughes, is for consumption in Minnesota, Western Wisconsin, North and South Dakota and a part of Iowa.

The productive season this year fell far short of the expected, owing to the high price of grain which tended to diminish the size of the various flocks of chickens by the farmers, Mr. Hughes said.

WESTERN UNION SEEKS TO ENJOIN DANIELS

Washington, Nov. 22.—The Western Union Telegraph company applied to the District of Columbia supreme court today for an injunction to restrain Secretary of the Navy Daniels from interfering in the construction of a telegraph cable between Miami and Miami Beach, Fla.

The Western Union company also asked the court to require the naval secretary to instruct subordinate officials and naval officers to cease threatening to destroy the cable if laid. The company in its petition pointed out that the requested injunction would cover a different cable line than the Barbadoes cable, the laying of which was prevented several months ago by the sending of warships to Miami.

Hunter Accidentally Killed.

PRESIDENT IS TO BE AWARDED NOBEL PRIZE

Stockholm, Nov. 22.—(By the Associated Press.)—President Woodrow Wilson will be awarded the Nobel peace prize for 1920, according to the Swedish newspapers. The announcement of the prize committee, however, will not be made before the end of November.

The Interparliamentary Socialist group in the riksdag, including Hjalmar Branting, the Socialist leader, decided last January, according to dispatches from Stockholm, to recommend to the Norwegian Storthing Nobel committee that it support President Wilson and Christian Lange, secretary of the interparliamentary union, as the candidates for the 1919 and 1920 Nobel peace prizes. The last peace prize, in 1917, was awarded to the International Red Cross committee of Geneva.

MUCH COAL MINED WEEK ENDING NOV. 13

Washington, Nov. 22.—More than 12,000,000 tons of bituminous coal were produced in the United States during the week ending Nov. 13, the geological survey estimated in its weekly report. Had it not been that many miners were idle on Armistice day, a production record for the year probably would have been made, the survey said.

The soft coal output thus far this year is placed at 475,000,000 tons, which is less than the production during the same period in 1918 by [illegible] tons but approximately 67,000,000 tons ahead of the total of the first [illegible] working days of 1919.

Anthracite production during the week ending Nov. 13, the survey estimated, was 1,750,000 tons, compared with 1,415,000 for the preceding week.

MISS PADDOCK'S TROUBLES OVER

St. Paul Woman Says Tanlac Has Restored Her to Perfect Health.

Can Hardly Get Enough to Eat and Feels Like Different Person, She States.

"It's just wonderful the way Tanlac has built me up and relieved me of my troubles," said Miss Anna Paddock of 1042 Randolph St., St. Paul, Minn., recently.

"For more than two years before I got Tanlac my stomach was in a badly disordered condition. There were a number of things I never dared eat, but no matter how careful I was about my diet I bloated up with gas and had intense pains after eating. I also had severe pains in my sides and my nerves wouldn't let me rest day or night. In spite of everything I could do I kept getting worse and just felt weak, miserable and despondent all the time.

"But Tanlac helped me from the first few doses and now all my troubles have left me. I can hardly get enough to eat, and can eat just whatever I please and never feel a touch of indigestion. The pains have gone from my side, my nerves are steady and I sleep fine. Tanlac has made me like an altogether different person."

Tanlac is sold in Duluth at the W. A. Abbett drug stores under the personal direction of a special Tanlac representative. Also the leading druggist in every town throughout the Northwest. Wm. Wheat Breaks on Urgent Selling; Bottom Drops Out of Flaxseed.

Duluth Board of Trade, Nov. 22.—The market firmed up around the close on evening up operations. December spring wheat closed 6c off at $1.52; March, 2½c off at $1.52; December winter, 6c off at $1.51 nominally; December durum, 7c off at $1.57, and March, 5½c off at $1.56½ asked.

Oats closed 1⅛c off at 39¾@40¾c for spot, and barley, 5c off at 50@67c for spot.

Wheat prices of all grains sank to new low levels in today's markets. Support was lacking from any quarter and the market ran off in chunks on any selling pressure. Fitful rallies came at times, only to be followed by still weaker periods. Though export trade was reported in wheat at the seaboard, nothing was done in that direction locally, and operators continued bearish. December spring wheat was 7c off at the noon-hour at $1.51, and March, 4½c off at $1.50. December durum broke 6c to $1.58, and March, 5½c off at $1.56½.

December rye broke 3⅝c at $1.34⅝, and May, 3½c at $1.33.

There was on track here for the two days 412 cars of all grains, including spring wheat 46, durum 235, winter 1, oats 2, rye 13, barley 28, flax 20, and screenings 7. The movement of wheat at Winnipeg was liberal at 1,028 cars, against 443 last year, and Kansas City had 480 cars, against 560 last year.

Dealers were still bearish in their views in spite of the heavy declines. It was contended in some quarters, though that a fair recovery might be brought about at any time as efforts might be made in influential quarters to prevent prices being carried down any lower in order to avoid panicky conditions being extended any further. Some comfort was derived in the stronger foreign exchange situation as it is believed that buying by exporters may be promoted on that account.

Bottom Out of Flax.

Breaks extending to 28c were staged in flaxseed. Bedlam broke loose in that market as a result of forced selling through exhausted margins. So limited was the support that the December future ran off 10c at one stage on the selling of only 2,000 bu. The May future rebounded at one time from $1.93 to $2 on the purchase of only 1,000 bu. That went to illustrate the absence of orders in the market and the wide swings brought about on limited transactions. Sales during the first two hours were estimated at 80,000 bu. Some recoveries were made around the close.

November flax closed 22c off at $1.86 bid. December 22c off at $1.86 bid, January 22c off at $1.89 nominal, and May 23c off at $1.99 bid.

At Winnipeg November flax closed 11c off at $1.86 and December 13c off at $1.84 bid.

A Great Falls, Mont., wire said: "An unexpected order to move wheat was received at the offices of the Great Northern railroad. Farmers along the Butte division recently agreed to hold wheat and the shipments of the last two weeks amounted to only about twenty-five cars. Yesterday an order for fifty-six cars was received.

Bartlett Frazier company wired from Chicago: "Speculative commodities and all securities are so demoralized that ther eseems to be no buying power left. In a way wheat prices are higher than almost anything else, notwithstanding the big slump in values and even at this time there seems to be no incentive for speculative longs to take hold. Producers of other commodities have had to liquidate and possibly farmers will have to."

Simons, Day & Co., Chicago, said: "Of all grains corn and oats are relatively too low. They are selling below the cost of production. Comparing grain prices with those prevailing a few months ago we find a shrinkage beyond 100 per cent in coarse grains."

Broomhall cabled: "There can be no doubt the transition from a war time to a peace time basis is now definitely on and prices for all commodities continue to decline drastically. In this respect grain prices are no exception and will probably continue to be influenced by the tendency of other commodities. It must not be overlooked that a substantial portion of the recent reduction in prices of wheat is offset by weakness in foreign exchange, and foreign countries that are still buying are paying good prices for their wheat supplies and other cereals."

Broomhall's linseed review: "Market in the United Kingdom heavy. Offers of plate are liberal, but Indian shippers are not offering seed for the forward positions influenced by the unfavorable crop conditions in India. Oil is dull. Indian shipments this week 356,000 bu.

"Argentine market is weak."

CHICAGO MARKET.

Chicago, Nov. 22.—Wheat prices dropped today to the lowest level yet, although it is now seventy-one days since the grain market began to fall. Adverse commercial conditions remained the ruling factor. The severity of recent declines induced heavy covering by shorts at the opening, but when demand from this source had been satisfied, the market showed lack of support, and a series of violent downward swings ensued. Opening prices, which varied from the same as Saturday's finish to 3½c higher, with December $1.69 to $1.70½, and March $1.60½ to $1.62, were followed by tumbles which received no important check until the market had reached $1.64½ December and $1.55 March.

Utter absence of demand except from profit-taking shorts led to semi-demoralized conditions in the late dealings. At one time December was off 11c a bushel from Saturday's close. Today's finish was extremely nervous at 2½@9c net decline, with December $1.60@1.60½ and March $1.55@1.56.

Corn gave way with wheat. After opening ½c to 2⅞c higher, including December at 65c to 65¼c, the market hardened a little more and then suffered a decided general break.

Corn and oats developed stubborn resistance late. Corn closed firm at ¼c to 2¼c net advance, with December, 64⅝c to 64⅞c.

Oats reflected the weakness of other cereals, starting unchanged to 1c higher, May 48c to 48⅜c and then descending rapidly.

Lower quotations on hogs and grain pulled down provisions.

MINNEAPOLIS MARKET.

Minneapolis, Minn., Nov. 22.—Soft cash wheat markets with a restricted demand for both spot and future offerings and liquidation to stop losses pressing in the pit made another weak day in wheat. After a sodawater bulge of 1@3½c at the start with March leading the rally, a renewal of liquidation sent prices tumbling with a net loss from Saturday's close amounting to 6¼@6¾c. Both December and March dropped under the $1.50 mark early in the session. With less than an hour to go to the close, December touched $1.46½, the low point. Relative ease developed in cash wheat with sales generally 1@2c lower compared with futures.

Rye followed wheat with a 4c decline in December and 3c in March. Oats rallied a fraction early but later went 1c under Saturday's close. Barley held better. Liquidation and hedging combined to break flaxseed savagely.

Receipts, 563 cars compared with 551 cars a year ago. Cash: Wheat—Dark northern, No. 1, $1.58@1.62; No. 2, $1.57@1.59; No. 3, $1.47½@1.55; No. 4, $1.21½@1.41; No. 5, $1.32@1.33; No. 1 hard winter, $1.57@1.61; No. 2, amber durum, $1.65@1.75; No. 3 mixed durum, $1.58@1.58¼. Corn—No. 3 yellow, 65c; No. 4, 56@66c; No. 4 mixed, 50c; No. 4 white, 50c. Oats—No. 3 white, 39⅝@40⅜c; No. 4, 38½@39c. Barley—No. 3, 63@75c; No. 4, 65@68c. Flax—No. 1, $1.81@2.00.

Flour—Unchanged to 30c lower; in carload lots, family patents quoted at $8.60@9.00 a barrel in 98-pound cotton sacks. Shipments, 83,504 bbls. Bran, $33.00.

Paine, Webber & Co. wired from New York: "The stock market situation has reached a stage where the disposition prevails to look for a reverse movement in prices without regard to whatever unsettling developments may come as a result of the distress created in many quarters by the decline which has been in progress since the day after election less than three weeks ago.

"It was also insisted that while declines in products and commodities have occurred the accumulated assets of many corporations have not been decreased to the slightest extent and that proportionately the value of those stocks should be greater than before the commodities declines occurred. Some of those concerned in the trading on Saturday stated that leading banking interests who are able to pay for purchases without seeking banking accommodation, have absorbed practically all the offerings made for both long and short account and that it will be found that even on rallies the supply of stocks has been reduced to scant volume and that the market will from now on be sensitive to bullish influence."

WANT GRADING IN MAY WHEAT

Application to open trading in the May wheat future at once was made today to the chairman of the committee of sixteen of the American grain exchanges by the Duluth Board of Trade. Each of the eight American grain exchanges was also requested by wire to make a similar application.

H. F. Salyards, vice president of the local board, said that the opening of the May wheat future to trading is considered absolutely necessary at this time in order to afford a wider scope to market operations. He pointed out that the December future will soon be going out, so that it is essential to open a more distant future to trading in order to avoid congestion in the March delivery, and to make a better market for both sellers and buyers.

ADVANCES IN STOCKS

Active Buying for First Time in Nearly Three Weeks.

New York, Nov. 22.—For the first time in almost three weeks the stock market at the opening of today's session was active on the constructive or buying side. Shares of almost every variety participated in the rebound, which ranged from 1 to 5 points in the first fifteen minutes. Strongest features included Bethlehem, Crucible and Republic steels, United States Rubber, Atlantic Gulf, Mercantile Marine preferred, Mexican and Pan-American Petroleums, American Tobacco, Tobacco Products, Retail Stores, Beet Sugar, American Locomotive and General Electric. Such rails as Southern Pacific, Reading, New York Central, New Haven and Rock Island also contributed in moderate measure to the rally. Initial quotations for foreign exchange showed distinct improvement.

Upward progress marked the first hour's trading, especially in industrials, shippings, oils and specialties. These were featured by Crucible, Lackawanna and Vanadium Steels, Atlantic Gulf, American International, Mexican Petroleum, Studebaker, Stromberg, Sears-Roebuck and Famous Players. Among rails, Delaware, Lackawanna & Western rose 7 points, Atlantic Coast Line 3, and Great Northern 2½. Reactions of 1 to 2½ points ensued on profit-taking but a rally in which short covering was a factor, carried some of the prominent issues over their previous maximums of the morning. Call money was offered at 7 per cent and easier tone was reported for time loans.

Trading was less active at midday but additions to gains of the morning were the rule. Shorts again covered in oils, shippings, steels, equipments and rails. Outstanding features of strength were Lackawanna Steel, Pullman, United Fruit, Union Pacific and Norfolk & Western.

Liberty bonds: 3½s, 92.18; first 4s, 87.10; second 4s, 86.10; first 4¼s, 86.90; second 4¼s, 86.14; third 4¼s, 88.86; fourth 4¼s, 86.40; Victory 3¾s, 96.02; Victory 4¾s, 96.00.

To Improve Baudette Hotel

Baudette, Minn., Nov. 22.—As a result of the visit here of S. S. Byerly, of the Duluth Brewing & Malting Co., many improvements are to be made to the interior of the Rex hotel. The interior is to be redecorated and several other important changes will be made.

MAKE PLEAS FOR COLLEGE

Gov. Burnquist and Carleton Head Make Appeals in Fund Drive.

With pleas that support for the American college must come from the great mass of people in order that it may retain its position as a democratic institution safeguarding American principles and ideals, Governor J. A. A. Burnquist and President Donald J. Cowling of Carleton college addressed a gathering of Carleton alumni and representative Duluth citizens at the Spalding hotel this noon.

Both men are here in the interests of a $4,000,000 campaign inaugurated at Carleton. It is planned to enlarge the school so that it may accommodate 1,000 students instead of 500, its present enrollment. Carleton has been forced to turn students away for several years.

"College graduates invariably say that the finest experience of their years in college is the personal contact they have had with great teachers," said Governor Burnquist. "If we are to keep up the Carleton standard we must have enough money to pay teachers adequate salaries." Governor Burnquist is a Carleton graduate.

President Cowling declared that Carleton could well model after Princeton. The four-year liberal arts college, he said, was a distinctly American institution, whose preservation is essential for the maintenance of a spirit of idealism and self-sacrifice among all people.

He further declared that colleges are most vital in permitting the younger generation to obtain a sane, unprejudiced social viewpoint. Their maintenance, he said, was the best possible guarantee of American institution. But their support, he stated, must come not from the rich alone, but from all people.

Duluth's Quota $100,000.

Dr. Cowling set Duluth's quota at $100,000, explaining that only about $900,000 remains to be procured in the $4,000,000 drive. The general education board of the Rockefeller foundation has already promised to contribute $400,000. It is hoped that other educational foundations will bring this source of income up to about a million. By an agreement with the Baptist churches of Minnesota in 1916, the college will receive another million dollars. More than half of the remaining two million dollars has already been received from alumni, former students, and many other Minnesota residents.

In all the total really needed to provide for the 1,000 prospective students is $5,852,210. Of this amount $2,310,000 is needed for new buildings, and the balance of $3,542,210 is needed as an endowment fund.

The principal buildings included in Dr. Cowling's program include a main recitation hall and library which would cost $600,000; a chemistry building, $300,000; a women's central building $250,000; an art and museum building $200,000; physics building, $190,000. The rest of the building fund is essential for the remodeling of present structures and the erection of several minor buildings which would be needed with the increased enrollment.

The endowment fund of $3,542,210 will supply the college with a net income of $177,109.50. This amount is essential to provide permanently for the 1919-1920 deficit, to cover the proposed salary increases for 1920-1921, and to pay the cost of the 300 additional students above the increased tuition receipts.

Students' Share One-Third.

Dr. Cowling pointed out that the students themselves hardly pay more than a third of the actual cost. During 1919-1920 the cost of operation was $195,593.36 with 549 students in attendance, making a total cost per student of $356.27. Tuition averaged $153.80, making a total deficit per student of $202.47. Interest on the educational plant and scholarships increase the total cost per student above the income from tuition to practically $300. It is this amount that must be raised by gifts, the speaker said.

Dr. Cowling is well known in Duluth. Ten years ago he occupied the pulpit of the Pilgrim Congregational church for an entire summer. He has visited here upon numerous occasions. He described Carleton's needs in an address at Pilgrim church yesterday.

It is Dr. Cowling's plan to organize an executive committee of Duluth citizens who will be constantly interested in the welfare of the college so as to form a connecting link between the administration, prospective students, and the public.

One Hundred Investment Bargains in Railroad Bonds

In a circular prepared by one of the greatest bond authorities in this country, which we have just had printed, the bond situation is not only thoroughly covered, but there is a list of one hundred bargains in high grade railroad bonds yielding as high as

Ten Per Cent

Among this list are many unusual investment opportunities, and inasmuch as underlying factors are now favorable to rising bond prices, a selection of these bonds would unquestionably result in excellent market profits, in addition to an attractive income return.

The circular will be sent without obligation, together with a booklet describing a convenient method of purchasing the bonds.

Card of Thanks

WE WISH TO EXTEND OUR THANKS to our relatives and many friends, also the employes of the D., M. & N. docks, and Strom's boarding house, for their kind sympathy and beautiful floral offerings during our sad bereavement, the death of our beloved brother and uncle.

MRS. FRANK EKHOLM,
AXEL EKHOLM,
MR. AND MRS. HELMER LELANT.

In Memoriam

ANDERSON—In loving memory of our dear son, Victor Vernon, who died a year ago today, Nov. 22, 1919.

Peaceful be thy sleep, dear son and brother,
It is sweet to breathe your name.
In life we loved you dearly,
In death we do the same.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN ANDERSON, BROTHER HARRY AND SISTER MARTHA.

SWANMAN—In loving memory of our dead son and brother, Leslie S. Swanman, 124th infantry, 84th division, who lost his life in Meuse-Argonne, France, two years ago today, Nov. 22, 1918.

No morning dawns,
No night returns,
But what we think of you.

FARM LANDS

YOUR CALIFORNIA HOME

Will be at Rio Linda on one of our 10 and 20-acre poultry and fruit farms, in the suburbs of beautiful Sacramento, Cal., within sight of the state capitol building, with twenty-minute ride by auto on concrete boulevard, or by electric street car to the business center of the city, with its schools, churches, theaters, libraries and markets. You may enjoy the mild winter climate, with fresh fruits and vegetables from your own garden every month in the year. These details, with pictures and names of the many happy families now living there—many of whom you may know—are given in our new booklet, "Poultry and Orchards." We will mail this booklet on request to those who are planning a trip to California this winter.

WOMAN WILL BE MEMBER OF HARDING'S CABINET

Congress Will Be Asked to Create New Cabinet Portfolio.

Mrs. Harriet T. Upton of Ohio for Secretary of Education.

Philander C. Knox Still in Lead for Secretary of State.

By DAVID LAWRENCE.

(Copyright, 1920, by The Duluth Herald.)

Washington, Nov. 23.—President-elect Harding has determined to appoint a woman to his cabinet. This will be in recognition of the fact that the American electorate has been practically doubled since the enfranchisement of women and that woman's viewpoint shall be represented in the executive councils of the government. In order to appoint a woman, however, Mr. Harding will ask congress to create a new cabinet portfolio—secretary of education. The power to add cabinet portfolios rests entirely with congress and does not require any constitutional amendment.

In all probability, Mrs. Harriet Taylor Upton of Ohio will be asked to head the new department, though it cannot be said that a final selection has been made as a number of names are under consideration.

Arranging the Slate.

Some of the members of the party which accompanied Mr. Harding to Point Isabel, Texas, have returned and just now the president-elect has several intimate friends making investigations concerning the cabinet slate. Conferences are going on among various political leaders, and an effort is being made to satisfy not merely the sentiment of the original Harding men who brought about Harding's nomination, but the Lowden leaders who threw their votes to Harding at Chicago. The Progressives in the party are demanding representation.

President-elect Harding is eager to have the cabinet selected before New Year's, so announcement may be made and the various members of the cabinet may begin at once to familiarize themselves unofficially with their jobs.

Piecing together the views of several close friends of Senator Harding who talked the situation over with him at Point Isabel and have since conferred with prominent Republican leaders, the cabinet slate seems to be at present in this shape:

Cabinet Probabilities.

Secretary of state—Philander C. Knox, if his health permit; David Jayne Hill, former ambassador to Germany, or Charles Evans Hughes, if he could be persuaded to accept it, which is doubted.

Secretary of the treasury—Governor Frank O. Lowden of Illinois. No others are likely to displace him as Senator

CONSULS ORDERED TO VISE FALL'S PASSPORT

Mexico City, Nov. 23.—Mexican border consuls have been instructed by the foreign office to vise the passport of United States Senator Albert B. Fall of New Mexico, who announced a few days ago he intended to attend the inauguration of Gen. Alvaro Obregon as president of the Mexican republic. This order disregards the action taken on Saturday by Roberta Pesqueira, Mexican confidential agent in Washington, who instructed Mexican consuls not to vise any passport presented by Senator Fall.

RARE RELICS FROM ORIENT

Six-Sided Prism Containing the Royal Annals of Sennacherib.

Chicago, Nov. 23.—Fresh from the Near East, thirty-seven big boxes of relics of ancient Egypt and Babylonia are now unpacked at the University of Chicago. They were brought recently after an adventuresome trip by Dr. J. H. Breasted, professor of Oriental history and Egyptology. In the judgment of museum officials here, they make the Oriental museum at the University of Chicago the finest of its kind in the United States.

The university professor and his staff of four were the first white men to cross the Arab state after it was proclaimed, going from Bagdad to Alleppo. At times the expedition traveled at great personal risk.

Ancient Cities Not on Map.

The aim of the party was to survey the most important buried cities of the Near East in regard to the work of excavation. Dr. Breasted said he saw ancient cities, now merely mounds of ruins, that were not on the map and were totally unknown to science.

Because of his knowledge of conditions in the country behind Syria, Dr. Breasted was asked by the British government at Cairo to go on a diplomatic mission to the British foreign office at London and at the expense of changing his plans for returning home, he did so, Dr. Breasted disclosed here.

The traditional friendship of the Arabs for the English has now turned to hatred, Dr. Breasted reported. This, he said, was due to the British giving over Syria to the French after they had promised the Arabs their own kingdom in recompense for the help they gave the British against the Turks.

British political agents were being murdered by the Arabs in Mesopotamia while the University of Chicago expedition was in that country, Dr. Breasted said. He related that a British colonel who knew the Arabs intimately was later killed at the identical camping place the university party had stopped at a short time before.

English Rule a Blessing.

"The English rule in Mesopotamia is, however, the greatest blessing that ever came to the country," Dr. Breasted said. "It is accomplishing

PLAN RELIEF FOR REFUGEES

American Admiral and Others Working Hard in Interest of Thousands.

Constantinople, Nov. 22.—(By the Associated Press.)—Measures to bring relief to the thousands of Russian refugees held on ships now at anchor in the Bosphorus have been started by Allied representatives here. Rear Admiral Mark L. Bristol, commanding American naval forces operating in Turkish waters, has, with Mrs. Bristol, organized a series of teas at the United States embassy for the purpose of raising funds for the Russians. Tens of thousands of subscriptions have been received from the people of Constantinople, all elements joining in the work.

The French camp and barracks near here have been turned over in part to the refugees, and the British military authorities have been providing rations for these people. The situation of the refugees was made more uncomfortable by a pelting rainstorm today.

The rain later turned to sleet and snow rendering the situation virtually hopeless, despite the efforts of various Red Cross missions which are struggling to alleviate the appalling conditions.

Remnants of Gen. Baron Wrangel's Kuban division have arrived here from Kertch, on the eastern extremity of the Crimean peninsula. With the soldiers came several thousand refugees, who declared the evacuation of Kertch had been completed when the Bolsheviki entered the city.

HEBREW FUND IS GROWING RAPIDLY

New York, Nov. 23.—Announcement was made today that $1,500,000 has been raised by the Union of American Hebrew congregations. This is nearly one-half of the $3,500,000 fund which the union is seeking throughout the country to carry out a ten-year extension program of religious and welfare activity among the Jews of this country. The union campaign will continue until the end of the year, and reports from all the leading cities of this country where committees have been organized in the interest of the campaign indicate that the full sum will be raised.

A "flying squadron" of prominent laymen, headed by Julius Rosenwald of Chicago, Congressman Julius Kahn of San Francisco, Mortimer L. Schiff, Manny Strauss and Dr. Nathan Krass of New York are now touring the country in the interest of the campaign, and reports received from cities at which meetings have been held by the "flying squadron" members indicate that this tour has resulted in a great awakening of interest in Judaism among the Jewish people.

FIRST EXHIBITION OF SILVER FOXES

Ottawa, Ont., Nov. 23.—The importance attached by the Canadian government to the development of the breeding of fur-bearing animals in captivity is indicated by the fact that its commission on conservation will hold the first international exhibition of live, ranch-bred silver foxes at Montreal beginning tomorrow. Many entries have been received, notably from Prince Edward Island, while fox breeders in the United States and other countries have promised to be represented.

During the exhibition it is expected to form a fur breeders' association of Canada to organize and manage the future exhibitions which it is expected to hold annually, and to include not only foxes but mink, beaver, muskrat and other fur bearers reared in captivity.

STATE CANVASSING BOARD REPORTS

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 23.—The state canvassing board today certified election returns from the state. The total number of votes cast and counted was 797,945. Of this amount J. A. O. Preus, governor-elect, received 415,805 votes; L. C. Hodgson, 81,293; Henrik Shipstead, 281,402, and Peter J. Samson, 5,124.

The canvassing board is made up of the following: Calvin L. Brown, chief justice of the supreme court; Andrew Holt, associate justice; Fred N. Dickson, judge of the Second judicial district, and Horace D. Dickinson, judge of the Fourth judicial district.

To Reduce Operations.

Canton, N. C., Nov. 23.—Beginning today, the pulp and extract department of the Champion Fiber company, said to be the largest paper mill in the South, will reduce operations to four days a week, it was announced at the plant.

ASSAULTED GIRL AND HER ESCORT GIVE TESTIMONY

Tell Court of Assault at Circus Grounds Last June.

Harrowing Details of Crime Are Related to Court and Jury.

Stories of how a 17-year-old white West Duluth girl and James T. Sullivan, her 18-year-old escort on the circus grounds at Oneota on the evening of June 14 last, were set upon by a group of six or seven negroes; of how one of the assailants had held a gun to the head of the young man while the others carried the girl through the darkness to a ravine a block away and there, one by one, ravished her, were told in all of their harrowing details by the girl and her escort on the witness stand in district court this morning at the trial of Max Mason, one of the seven defendants indicted for rape.

Mason is identified both by the girl and Sullivan as being the man who held a gun to Sullivan's head until it came his turn to ravish the girl and then surrendered it to one of his companions in the crime.

The girl was the first witness called when the state opened its case yesterday afternoon. At the request of County Attorney Warren E. Greene, Judge L. S. Nelson ordered the court room cleared of spectators while the complaining witness gave her testimony.

When her cross examination was concluded this morning and she had stepped from the courtroom, Attorney F. L. Barnett, colored, of counsel for the defense, asked the court to permit spectators to be admitted again. This request was granted.

Girl Tells Story.

Yesterday afternoon the girl told her story. She said that she had gone to the circus grounds and that while there she met Sullivan in front of the sideshow. This was about 8:45 o'clock. He suggested that they walk around the grounds and look at the various attractions. They walked over to the menagerie tent, and watched the men taking down the horses' and cooks' tents. After 9 o'clock, while they were standing there, she claimed that a negro, whom she has identified as Mason, placed a gun to "Jimmy's" head and that two or three of them grabbed her. They threatened to shoot him if he made an outcry and when she screamed out they put their hands over her mouth.

"He took a ring off my finger," she said, testifying concerning Mason. "But he put it back again. Then two of the negroes carried me away, though I tried to get away from them. After they had carried me over to a ravine, one of them, Miller, threw me on the ground. I fainted and I don't recollect anything more until I came to. Jimmy helped me up. Mason told us to cut across and not go back by way of the circus. We went out to Fortieth avenue west and sat on the steps of the Merritt school for about five minutes. Then we walked to the Grand avenue car line and took a car to Forty-ninth avenue west. We walked home three blocks and then sat on the steps about five minutes. Then Jimmy left and I went up to the bathroom and bathed. That was about 10:30 o'clock.

When Arrests Were Made.

"About 2 o'clock in the morning my mother woke me up and we went over to the West Duluth police station. Then we went home and about 5 o'clock the police came in an auto and my father and Jimmy and I went with them to the Canadian Northern railroad yards, where the police had lined up the negroes. I picked out the ones I thought were there the night before. Dr. Graham attended me about 9:30 o'clock that morning. The next time I was asked about the affair was before the grand jury. About the middle of July, Jimmy and I went out to the circus grounds with County Attorney Greene on two different nights. Under these circumstances I recognized Mason as the negro who held the gun at Jimmy's head and I also recognized Miller."

The girl's testimony was concluded this morning. After being cross-examined on every point by Attorney Barnett, she was excused. County Attorney Greene then called Sullivan and he told practically the same story, corroborating the girl in every particular. He was on the stand for cross-examination when court adjourned for the noon recess.

Other witnesses who will be called by the state will be the parents of the girl, Dr. Graham of West Duluth and Dr. W. A. Coventry and police officials. It is expected that the state's case will be concluded some time tomorrow.

G. O. P. DEFICIT ABOUT $1,500,000, SAYS UPHAM

Chicago, Nov. 23.—The deficit incurred in the Republican campaign to elect Senator Harding to the presidency was approximately $1,500,000, Fred W. Upham, national treasurer, announced here today in a statement designed to clear up a misunderstanding of his report filed at Washington yesterday.

Washington dispatches fixing the committee's deficit at only $189,428.95 were based on the fact that nearly $1,400,000 in loans, which must be paid back, had been added to the total receipts, he said.

From July 1 to the end of the campaign, expenditures totalled $3,486,468.80, Mr. Upham said. During the same period subscriptions brought in $2,145,970.13, leaving a deficit of $1,340,498.67. To this deficit must be added approximately $200,000 spent between June 14, the Monday after Senator Harding's nomination by the national convention, and July 1, when the campaign books were opened.

MANY ARE KILLED IN GERMAN TRAIN WRECK

Berlin, Nov. 22.—Forty persons are known to have been killed or badly injured in a collision between a freight train and an express at Baraunswalde, near Marienwerder, today. It is feared that other victims are still beneath the wreckage.

Turks High in New York.

New York, Nov. 23.—New Yorkers who express their annual thanks through the official medium of turkey, the traditional Thanksgiving day bird, will have to pay 5 to 7 cents a pound more than last year. Mrs. Louis Reed Welzmiller, deputy commissioner of public markets, said today the prevailing wholesale price was 52 to 54 cents a pound. Cranberries, the junior partner on the Thanksgiving menu, are retailing at 20 cents a pound.

CASPER E. YOST.

Omaha, Neb., Nov. 23.—Casper E. Yost, 79, chairman of the board of directors of the Nebraska Telephone company and former president of the company, died last night at Long Beach, Cal., according to an announcement here today. Mr. Yost was one of the best known telephone men in the United States.

His death resulted indirectly from a stroke of apoplexy suffered last summer while he was on a fishing trip in Minnesota. He returned to Omaha at that time and last Tuesday left for California in company with a nurse.

HARDING AT CRISTOBAL

President-Elect Lands in Panama After Delightful Sea Trip.

Colon, Panama, Nov. 23.—Warren G. Harding, president-elect of the United States, arrived at Cristobal at 9 o'clock this morning on board the steamer Parismina. He was given a noisy welcome by the craft in the harbor. Mr. Harding went direct to a hotel.

Flooded With Invitations.

On Board S. S. Parismina, Nov. 22.—(By Wireless to the Associated Press.—Delayed.)—As President-elect Harding approached Panama today on his vacation voyage he was flooded with wireless messages inviting him to be the guest of honor at a long list of public functions during his five days' visit to the canal zone. Most of the invitations he will be compelled to decline.

As formulated, his plans shape up as follows:

Reaching Cristobal at Atlantic terminal of canal Tuesday morning and party go ashore and spend entire day resting at Cristobal hotel; Wednesday, trip through the canal with a call on President Porras of Panama at his palace at Panama City; spend night on Pacific side of the isthmus Wednesday; Thursday night guest of President Porras.

Arrangements have been made for a stop of several hours at Kingston, Jamaica on return voyage. Leaving Cristobal Sunday, the party will reach Kingston the following Tuesday morning. A short outing has been planned ashore before departure that afternoon.

THREE KILLED IN EXCHANGE COURT

Dublin, Nov. 23.—The Dublin Evening Mail today narrated a sensational incident alleged to have occurred yesterday in the Exchange court, resulting in the death of Richard McKee, Peter Clancy and a man named McCalune.

These men, according to the newspaper, were arrested during the weekend and kept in a room of the Exchange court, pending transfer. The Mail alleges that the prisoners seized arms stored in the court and attempted to escape. It alleges the court guard was fired on and returning the fire, killed the three men.

Clancy, it is said, was a member of the Sinn Fein "inner circle," which has been directing recent operations of the organization. McKee was an expert on explosives, and McCalune is said to have been an officer of the Republican army.

Mississippi Ice Goes Out.

St. Cloud, Minn., Nov. 23.—The Mississippi, which had been covered with a solid sheet of ice for two weeks, lost its winter covering completely Sunday, following the recent spell of mild weather, and again presents a channel entirely free from ice.

SALVATION ARMY KETTLES BEGIN TO BOIL ON SATURDAY

The Salvation Army kettles for Christmas relief work will begin to boil next Saturday at the usual corners, and it is hoped by those who have the good Christmas work of the army at heart that passers-by will not be merely passers-by this year, but liberal contributors.

The kettles will be located at the First National bank corner, the American Exchange National bank corner, at the Glass Block, Woolworth's and Gray's.

The army each year collects its Christmas fund in this way, and usually has a pretty good sized "roll" by Christmas eve, the time when the kettles are taken off the streets. This money is used for the relief of the poor at Christmas time and many otherwise cheerless homes are brightened by Christmas dinner, clothes and other necessities on the day of days.

DUBLIN SEARCHED FROM END TO END BY STRONG MILITARY FORCE

MORE CAPITAL IS NEEDED IN PHILIPPINES

Gen. Frank McIntyre, Bureau Chief, Reports to Department.

Washington, Nov. 23.—Inability to interest American capital on a large scale in the nation's insular possessions, particularly in the Philippine islands, has resulted in greatly retarding development of the great natural resources of the islands, according to the annual report of Maj.-Gen. Frank McIntyre, chief of the bureau of insular affairs of the war department, to Secretary Baker. Gen. McIntyre urges American bankers and business men to interest themselves in the trade and development possibilities of the outlying possessions, declaring that "large tracts of the best agricultural land in the world await development" and that "in a number of fertile provinces the population falls below twenty persons per square mile, where there is an unsupplied labor demand in other agricultural provinces having a population of 250 persons per square mile."

Action has been taken by the Philippine legislature to provide for the exploration and leasing of lands connecting petroleum and other mineral oils and gases, in which connection Gen. McIntyre says that "the existence of oil in widely scattered localities in the Philippines has been known since the occupation of the islands, but there has been no serious effort at development. There is now promise that in the near future it will be definitely known whether this oil exists in such a way as to be of commercial use."

Hopes Not Disappointed.

The organic act of 1916 providing for the government of the Philippines and greatly increasing the powers of the local legislature has "in no way disappointed the hopes then expressed," says the report, although a number of changes are recommended. Among the suggestions is one that the immigration laws be amended to check migration from the Philippines, particularly to Hawaii; that the land laws be altered to permit of leasing of larger divisions of government land; that the limit of the public debt of the islands be raised from $15,000,000 to $25,000,000; that salaries of United States officials in the Philippine islands be increased and that the laws respecting the citizenship of Filipinos be classified to give the island inhabitants the full effect of the intention of congress in declaring them "citizens of the Philippine islands," and as such entitled to the protection of the United States."

Shortage of labor is proving a serious obstacle to the development of the islands, the report states, the natives preferring to move to Hawaii and other comparatively developed places rather than clear the back country.

Evidence of Contentment.

"There was every evidence of contentment with conditions and of friendliness toward Americans and appreciation for what the United States has done in the islands," Gen. McIntyre states in reporting on a recent inspection trip.

The progress of Porto Rico under the organic act of 1917 has been very satisfactory, and continues so, the report says, the island having just completed one of the most prosperous years in its history. Improvement of freight and passenger service between the United States and Porto Rico was recommended.

Liquidation of the $20,000,000 bond issue of 1908, and the collection of the customs in San Domingo by the United States continued to progress satisfactorily during the past year, Gen. McIntyre stated.

Increase of the salaries of civilian employes in the bureau of insular affairs to retain the services of old and valued employes was recommended.

Trade figures for the island possessions for the past year were given as follows:

Philippines, imports $118,639,052; exports, $13,117,000, the bulk of the trade being with the United States in both cases.

Porto Rico, imports, $96,388,000; exports $150,811,000, of which $133,207,000 went to the United States.

MURDER OF PEIRCE REMAINS MYSTERY

Philadelphia, Nov. 23.—Local authorities today continued that investigation into the death of Henry T. Peirce, Eastern manager of the Insley Manufacturing company, whose body, with the head crushed by blows from an iron wrench, was found yesterday in the rear of his office here. They have succeeded in tracing his movements up to 10:30 o'clock Saturday night, but, with this exception, little progress has been made toward a solution of the mystery.

The condition of the body indicated, according to the police, that he was killed late Saturday night or early Sunday.

The police are looking for a man and a woman who Peirce is said by a business acquaintance to have picked up in the center of the city Saturday night and driven to his office in his automobile. This man said he left the trio when they entered Peirce's office.

COULD GO ONLY BY CONSENT OF ALLIES

The Hague, Nov. 22.—(By the Associated Press.)—Former Emperor William of Germany could go to Corfu only with the consent of the Allied powers, the Associated Press was informed at the foreign office today. This information was elicited by an inquiry relative to reports that the former emperor's villa on the island of Corfu was being repaired and that he was expected to go there soon.

Oil Plant Closes.

Memphis, Tenn., Nov. 23.—Lack of demand for cotton oil and meal is given by officers of the Buckeye Cotton Oil company as the cause for the closing down of its plant here. About 500 men are thrown out of work.

SAYS NATURAL RESOURCES IN PHILIPPINES WONDERFUL

GEN. FRANK McINTYRE.

"NEVER CAN BE COERCED"

Irish Patriot So Writes to Henderson Regarding Ireland.

London, Nov. 22.—Disapproval of the present system of government in Ireland was expressed in a letter written by Leonard Wilde, who was shot and killed in the Gresham hotel, Dublin, on Sunday, which was received by Arthur Henderson, labor leader in the house of commons, today. Wilde asked Mr. Henderson's advice as to "the best method of consecrating my life" to the cause of real democracy in Ireland.

Wilde wrote that his observation had led him to believe "Ireland never could be coerced" and suggested his knowledge of Irish history might make him a valuable worker in the labor party in that organization's fight in behalf of Ireland.

The parliamentary labor commission, which was charged with an investigation of reprisals in Ireland and which planned to leave for Ireland on Tuesday, has postponed its trip temporarily because of the present situation on the island. At a meeting of the labor party today, resolutions were passed expressing "deep sorrow" over recent assassinations and asking both sides to agree to a truce.

Altercation in Commons.

Monday's altercation in commons between Joseph Devlin and Maj. John Molson, coalition member, came while Sir Hamar Greenwood, chief secretary for Ireland, was reading the details of Sunday's assassinations in Dublin to the house. There was a silence except for occasional shocked murmurs and when he had finished, appreciable time elapsed before a single member arose to ask a question. The speaker, in fact, had called Sir William Henry Davidson, who had given notice of an emergency question, when Mr. Devlin arose and was heard to say:

"May I ask—"

There immediately came a chorus of angry cries of:

"No; sit down!"

Mr. Devlin resumed his seat, but apparently under a misapprehension, as directly upon Sir William rising to put his question the Nationalist member also arose. He was received with renewed cries of "sit down," and was the object of a great demonstration. Mr. Devlin ignored the speaker's request to resume his seat, although he was assured he would have another opportunity of speaking, as another question on Ireland was among the approved question papers.

The speaker called on Sir William again, and the member asked whether the premier was aware that the house was prepared at a single sitting to give him whatever power was necessary to stamp out "the atrocious murder campaign in Ireland" and whether he would introduce the necessary legislation to enable persons found in possessions of arms and ammunition without a permit, in any of the disturbed areas of Ireland, to be shot.

Shares Horror.

Premier Lloyd George, rising, said he shared with the last speaker the horror all felt at the cold blooded murder of unarmed British officers. The government, continued Lloyd George, had resolved to suppress murder and conspiracy in Ireland. It was realized by all that to suppress such carefully organized, high subsidized plots would take time, but the government was convinced that despite the recent happenings the Irish authorities were succeeding in breaking up the "gangs of assassins."

The premier said, however, that should experience show that the powers possessed by the Irish government had proven insufficient for that purpose, the government would have no hesitation in asking parliament for

Chicago, Nov. 23.—Undeterred by the chill of Lake Michigan's waves in November, sailors at the Great Naval training station have perfected a new sea sport that puts surf board riding in the parlor game class.

Searching for new thrills, the sailors have discarded fast speed boats to pull their aquaplanes, borrowed the services of a seaplane, and with their surf boards hitched behind the speeding airship tear through the water at sixty miles an hour. Only the most skillful riders can stand upright on one of the tiny boards in the terrific pace. At sixty miles an hour only the rear tip of the board rides on the waves.

HUNTING FOR ASSASSINS IN SUNDAY RIOT

All Roads and Bridges to City Are Under Close Guard.

Trains Allowed to Run After Being Suspended Monday.

Crown Forces at Park to Arrest Alleged Professional Gunmen.

Dublin, Nov. 23.—(By the Associated Press.)—All train services in and out of Dublin were resumed this morning, after the city had passed a quiet night following Sunday's bloodshed and the raiding activities of yesterday. The curfew law was strictly obeyed.

The night, however, did not witness any let up in the work of the military, who were continuing their minute search presumably for suspects in connection with Sunday's assassinations. Before the curfew hour several of the streets were surrounded by barbed wire barriers and the soldiers examined all persons passing.

Patrols Guard Roads.

Dublin, Nov. 23.—(By the Associated Press.)—Strong military patrols manned every bridge and road running out of Dublin last night. Even persons holding permits were not allowed to pass the lines drawn through the outskirts of the city. Reports indicated that virtually the whole military establishment in this district was employed in maintaining this cordon. The strict guard made absolute the paralysis of traffic in and out of Dublin which was begun when orders were issued on Sunday suspending all railway service.

Scores of Raids.

In the meantime soldiers were conducting scores of raids. Reports reaching newspapers showed that all classes and types of residences and other premises were being searched. From early in the morning this work went on, and reports came in quick succession of scores of raids, which were attended by more than the usual amount of incidental clashes. It seemed certain that many casualties had marked the day's activity.

The thoroughness with which the cordon about the city was drawn and raids conducted led those in close touch with the situation to believe the military authorities were determined to arrest the parties responsible for the murder of fourteen officers on Sunday.

Streets Thickly Peopled.

Streets in the downtown section of Dublin were thickly peopled early in the evening by small knots of citizens, who were discussing the situation and expressing fear that the reign of terror had not ended. As a consequence of the advancement of the curfew hour to 10 o'clock, however, the crowds soon dwindled and a little after 9 o'clock there was scarcely a person abroad.

An atmosphere of distrust and suspicion was noticeable on every hand yesterday and last night. Pedestrians in the streets and loungers in hotel lobbies showed reluctance to venture any opinions relative to the possible consequences of Sunday's tragic events.

LEAGUE CLASH IS POSSIBILITY

Powers of Council and Assembly May Come Up for Consideration.

Geneva, Nov. 23.—(By the Associated Press.)—A clash between the council and the assembly of the League of Nations on the question of carrying of the assembly's resolution of yesterday for intervention in the Armenian situation loomed up as a possibility this forenoon as the assembly met for today's session.

The subject of Armenia was early to the fore, the chairman announcing the makeup of the committee to examine details of the eventual intervention. The committee was headed by Lord Robert Cecil of the Union of South Africa delegation, who is a strong proponent of help for Armenia, and had on its membership list likewise Rene Viviani of France, whose eloquent plea yesterday swept the assembly into unanimous approval of the resolutions for action on the subject. The other members announced were Senator Henri La Fontaine of Belgium, Dr. Fridtjof Nansen of Norway, Honorio Pueyrredon of Argentina and Signor Schanzi of Italy.

May Raise Question Again.

The order of the day for the assembly contained several resolutions of an apparently innocuous character promising in themselves no such sensational interest as yesterday's session developed. The possibility was seen, however, that the failure of the council of the league to act last night on the Viviani resolution might provoke another debate on Armenia and raise the entire question of the relations of the council and the assembly.

The respective powers of these bodies is looming up as one of the biggest questions before the assembly. The clash on this subject would naturally come in discussion of the report of the oraganization commission in regular course, but it could easily be precipitated by refusal of the council to carry out any resolution of the assembly. It was known last night that the council had met but had taken no action with regard to the Armenian resolution and Mr. Balfour's attitude after the meeting was taken to indicate that he was in no hurry to urge the council to such action.

WOMAN WILL BE MEMBER OF HARDING'S CABINET

Congress Will Be Asked to Create New Cabinet Portfolio.

Mrs. Harriet T. Upton of Ohio for Secretary of Education.

Philander C. Knox Still in Lead for Secretary of State.

By DAVID LAWRENCE.

(Copyright, 1920, by The Duluth Herald.)

Washington, Nov. 23.—President-elect Harding has determined to appoint a woman to his cabinet. This will be in recognition of the fact that the American electorate has been practically doubled since the enfranchisement of women and that woman's viewpoint shall be represented in the executive branch of the government. In order to appoint a woman, however, Mr. Harding will ask congress to create a new cabinet portfolio—secretary of education. The power to add cabinet portfolios rests entirely with congress and does not require any constitutional amendment.

In all probability, Mrs. Harriet Taylor Upton of Ohio will be asked to head the new department, though it cannot be said that a final selection has been made as a number of names are under consideration.

Arranging the Slate.

Some of the members of the party which accompanied Mr. Harding to Point Isabel, Texas, have returned and just now the president-elect has several intimate friends making investigations concerning the cabinet slate. Conferences are going on among various political leaders, and an effort is being made to satisfy not merely the sentiment of the original Harding men who brought about Harding's nomination but the Lowden leaders who threw their votes to Harding at Chicago. The Progressives in the party are demanding representation.

President-elect Harding is eager to have the cabinet selected before New Year's, so announcement may be made and the various members of the cabinet may begin at once to familiarize themselves unofficially with their jobs.

Piecing together the views of several close friends of Senator Harding who talked the situation over with him at Point Isabel and have since conferred with prominent Republican leaders, the cabinet slate seems to be at present in this shape:

Cabinet Probabilities.

Secretary of state—Philander C. Knox, if his health permit, David Jayne Hill, former ambassador to Germany, or Charles Evans Hughes, if he could be persuaded to accept it, which is doubted.

Secretary of the treasury—Governor Frank O. Lowden of Illinois. No others are likely to displace him as Senator

CONSULS ORDERED TO VISE FALL'S PASSPORT

Mexico City, Nov. 23.—Mexican border consuls have been instructed by the foreign office to vise the passport of United States Senator Albert B. Fall of New Mexico, who announced a few days ago he intended to attend the inauguration of Gen. Alvaro Obregon as president of the Mexican republic. This order disregards the action taken on Saturday by Roberta Pesqueira, Mexican confidential agent in Washington, who instructed Mexican consuls not to vise any passport presented by Senator Fall.

RARE RELICS FROM ORIENT

Six-Sided Prism Containing the Royal Annals of Sennacherib.

Chicago, Nov. 23.—Fresh from the Near East, thirty-seven big boxes of relics of ancient Egypt and Babylonia are now unpacked at the University of Chicago. They were brought recently after an adventuresome trip by Dr. J. H. Breasted, professor of Oriental history and Egyptology. In the judgment of museum officials here, they make the Oriental museum at the University of Chicago the finest of its kind in the United States.

The university professor and his staff of four were the first white men to cross the Arab state after it was proclaimed, going from Bagdad to Aleppo. At times the expedition traveled at great personal risk.

Ancient Cities Not on Map.

The aim of the party was to survey the most important buried cities of the Near East in regard to the work of excavation. Dr. Breasted said he saw ancient cities, now merely mounds of ruins, that were not on the map and were totally unknown to science.

Because of his knowledge of conditions in the country behind Syria, Dr. Breasted was asked by the British government at Cairo to go on a diplomatic mission to the British foreign office at London and at the expense of changing his plans for returning home, he did so, Dr. Breasted disclosed here.

The traditional friendship of the Arabs for the English has now turned to hatred, Dr. Breasted reported. This, he said, was due to the British giving over Syria to the French after they had promised the Arabs their own kingdom in recompense for the help they gave the British against the Turks.

British political agents were being murdered by the Arabs in Mesopotamia while the University of Chicago expedition was in that country, Dr. Breasted said. He related that a British colonel who knew the Arabs intimately was later killed at the identical camping place the university party had stopped at a short time before.

English Rule a Blessing.

"The English rule in Mesopotamia is, however, the greatest blessing that ever came to the country," Dr. Breasted said. "It is accomplishing

PLAN RELIEF FOR REFUGEES

Constantinople, Nov. 22.—(By the Associated Press.)—Measures to bring relief to the thousands of Russian refugees held on ships now at anchor in the Bosphorus have been started by Allied representatives here. Rear Admiral Mark L. Bristol, commanding American naval forces operating in Turkish waters, has, with Mrs. Bristol, organized a series of teas at the United States embassy for the purpose of raising funds for the Russians. Tens of thousands of subscriptions have been received from the people of Constantinople, all elements joining in the work.

The French camp and barracks near here have been turned over in part to the refugees, and the British military authorities have been providing rations for these people. The situation of the refugees was made more uncomfortable by a pelting rainstorm today.

The rain later turned to sleet and snow rendering the situation virtually hopeless, despite the efforts of various Red Cross missions which are struggling to alleviate the appalling conditions.

Remnants of Gen. Baron Wrangel's Kuban division have arrived here from Kertch, on the eastern extremity of the Crimean peninsula. With the soldiers came several thousand refugees, who declared the evacuation of Kertch had been completed when the Bolsheviki entered the city.

HEBREW FUND IS GROWING RAPIDLY

New York, Nov. 23.—Announcement was made today that $1,500,000 has been raised by the Union of American Hebrew congregations. This is nearly one-half of the $3,500,000 fund which the union is seeking throughout the country to carry out a ten-year extension program of religious and welfare activity among the Jews of this country. The union campaign will continue until the end of the year, and reports from all the leading cities of this country where committees have been organized in the interest of the campaign indicate that the full sum will be raised.

A "flying squadron" of prominent laymen, headed by Julius Rosenwald of Chicago, Congressman Julius Kahn of San Francisco, Mortimer L. Schiff, Manny Strauss and Dr. Nathan Krass of New York are now touring the country in the interest of the campaign, and reports received from cities at which meetings have been held by the "flying squadron" members indicate that this tour has resulted in a great awakening of interest in Judaism among the Jewish people.

FIRST EXHIBITION OF SILVER FOXES

Ottawa, Ont., Nov. 23.—The importance attached by the Canadian government to the development of the breeding of fur-bearing animals in captivity is indicated by the fact that its commission on conservation will hold the first international exhibition of live, ranch-bred silver foxes at Montreal beginning tomorrow. Many entries have been received, notably from Prince Edward Island, while fox breeders in the United States and other countries have promised to be represented.

During the exhibition it is expected to form a fur breeders' association of Canada to organize and manage the future exhibitions which it is expected to hold annually, and to include not only foxes but mink, beaver, muskrat and other fur bearers reared in captivity.

STATE CANVASSING BOARD REPORTS

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 23.—The state canvassing board today certified election returns from the state. The total number of votes cast and counted was 797,945. Of this amount J. A. O. Preus, governor-elect, received 415,805 votes; L. C. Hodgson, 81,293; Henrik Shipstead, 281,402, and Peter J. Samson, 5,124.

The canvassing board is made up of the following: Calvin L. Brown, chief justice of the supreme court; Andrew Holt, associate justice; Fred N. Dickson, judge of the Second judicial district, and Horace D. Dickinson, judge of the Fourth judicial district.

To Reduce Operations.

Canton, N. C., Nov. 23.—Beginning today, the pulp and extract department of the Champion Fiber company, said to be the largest paper mill in the South, will reduce operations to four days a week, it was announced at the plant.

ASSAULTED GIRL AND HER ESCORT GIVE TESTIMONY

Tell Court of Assault at Circus Grounds Last June.

Harrowing Details of Crime Are Related to Court and Jury.

Stories of how a 17-year-old white West Duluth girl and James T. Sullivan, her 18-year-old escort on the circus grounds at Oneota on the evening of June 14 last, were set upon by a group of six or seven negroes; of how one of the assailants had held a gun to the head of the young man while the others carried the girl through the darkness to a ravine a block away and there, one by one, ravished her, were told in all of their harrowing details by the girl and her escort on the witness stand in district court this morning at the trial of Max Mason, one of the seven defendants indicted for rape.

Mason is identified both by the girl and Sullivan as being the man who held a gun to Sullivan's head until it came his turn to ravish the girl and then surrendered it to one of his companions in the crime.

The girl was the first witness called when the state opened its case yesterday afternoon. At the request of County Attorney Warren E. Greene, Judge L. S. Nelson ordered the court room cleared of spectators while the complaining witness gave her testimony.

When her cross examination was concluded this morning and she had stepped from the courtroom, Attorney F. L. Barnett, colored, of counsel for the defense, asked the court to permit spectators to be admitted again. This request was granted.

Girl Tells Story.

Yesterday afternoon the girl told her story. She said that she had gone to the circus grounds and that while there she met Sullivan in front of the sideshow. This was about 8:45 o'clock. He suggested that they walk around the grounds and look at the various attractions. They walked over to the menagerie tent, and watched the men taking down the horses' and cooks' tents. After 9 o'clock, while they were standing there, she claimed that a negro, whom she has identified as Mason, placed a gun to "Jimmy's" head and that two or three of them grabbed her. They threatened to shoot him if he made an outcry and when she screamed out they put their hands over her mouth.

"He took a ring off my finger," she said, testifying concerning Mason. "But he put it back again. Then two of the negroes carried me away, though I tried to get away from them. After they had carried me over to a ravine, one of them, Miller, threw me on the ground. I fainted and I don't recollect anything more until I came to. Jimmy helped me up. Mason told us to cut across and not go back by way of the circus. We went out to Fortieth avenue west and sat on the steps of the Merritt school for about five minutes. Then we walked to the Grand avenue car line and took a car to Forty-ninth avenue west. We walked home three blocks and then sat on the steps about five minutes. Then Jimmy left and I went up to the bathroom and bathed. That was about 10:30 o'clock.

When Arrests Were Made.

"About 2 o'clock in the morning my mother woke me up and we went over to the West Duluth police station. Then we went home and about 5 o'clock the police came in an auto and my father and Jimmy and I went with them to the Canadian Northern railroad yards, where the police had lined up the negroes. I picked out the ones I thought were there the night before. Dr. Graham attended me about 9:30 o'clock that morning. The next time I was asked about the affair was before the grand jury. About the middle of July, Jimmy and I went out to the circus grounds with County Attorney Greene on two different nights. Under these circumstances I recognized Mason as the negro who held the gun at Jimmy's head and I also recognized Miller."

The girl's testimony was concluded this morning. After being cross-examined on every point by Attorney Barnett, she was excused. County Attorney Greene then called Sullivan and he told practically the same story, corroborating the girl in every particular. He was on the stand for cross-examination when court adjourned for the noon recess.

Other witnesses who will be called by the state will be the parents of the girl, Dr. Graham of West Duluth and Dr. W. A. Coventry and police officials. It is expected that the state's case will be concluded some time tomorrow.

G. O. P. DEFICIT ABOUT $1,500,000, SAYS UPHAM

Chicago, Nov. 23.—The deficit incurred in the Republican campaign to elect Senator Harding to the presidency was approximately $1,500,000, Fred W. Upham, national treasurer, announced here today in a statement designed to clear up a misunderstanding of his report filed at Washington yesterday.

Washington dispatches fixing the committee's deficit at only $189,428.95 were based on the fact that nearly $1,400,000 in loans, which must be paid back, had been added to the total receipts, he said.

From July 1 to the end of the campaign, expenditures totalled $3,486,468.80, Mr. Upham said. During the same period subscriptions brought in $2,145,970.13, leaving a deficit of $1,340,498.67. To this deficit must be added approximately $200,000 spent between June 14, the Monday after Senator Harding's nomination by the national convention, and July 1, when the campaign books were opened.

MANY ARE KILLED IN GERMAN TRAIN WRECK

Berlin, Nov. 22.—Forty persons are known to have been killed or badly injured in a collision between a freight train and an express at Baraunswalde, near Marienwerder, today. It is feared that other victims are still beneath the wreckage.

Turks High in New York.

New York, Nov. 23.—New Yorkers who express their annual thanks through the official medium of turkey, the traditional Thanksgiving day bird, will have to pay 5 to 7 cents a pound more than last year. Mrs. Louis Reed Welzmiller, deputy commissioner of public markets, said today the prevailing wholesale price was 52 to 54 cents a pound. Cranberries, the junior partner on the Thanksgiving menu, are retailing at 20 cents a pound.

CASPER E. YOST.

Omaha, Neb., Nov. 23.—Casper E. Yost, 79, chairman of the board of directors of the Nebraska Telephone company and former president of the company, died last night at Long Beach, Cal., according to an announcement here today. Mr. Yost was one of the best known telephone men in the United States.

His death resulted indirectly from a stroke of apoplexy suffered last summer while he was on a fishing trip in Minnesota. He returned to Omaha at that time and last Tuesday left for California in company with a nurse.

HARDING AT CRISTOBAL

President-Elect Lands in Panama After Delightful Sea Trip.

Colon, Panama, Nov. 23.—Warren G. Harding, president-elect of the United States, arrived at Cristobal at 9 o'clock this morning on board the steamer Parismina. He was given a noisy welcome by the craft in the harbor. Mr. Harding went direct to a hotel.

Flooded With Invitations.

On Board S. S. Parismina, Nov. 22.—(By Wireless to the Associated Press. —Delayed.)—As President-elect Harding approached Panama today on his vacation voyage he was flooded with wireless messages inviting him to be the guest of honor at a long list of public functions during his five days' visit to the canal zone. Most of the invitations he will be compelled to decline.

As formulated, his plans shape up as follows:

Reaching Cristobal at Atlantic terminal of canal Tuesday morning and party go ashore and spend entire day resting at Cristobal hotel; Wednesday, trip through the canal with a call on President Porras of Panama at his palace at Panama City; spend night on Pacific side of the isthmus Wednesday; Thursday night guest of President Porras.

Arrangements have been made for a stop of several hours at Kingston, Jamaica on return voyage. Leaving Cristobal Sunday, the party will reach Kingston the following Tuesday morning. A short outing has been planned ashore before departure that afternoon.

THREE KILLED IN EXCHANGE COURT

Dublin, Nov. 23.—The Dublin Evening Mail today narrated a sensational incident alleged to have occurred yesterday in the Exchange court, resulting in the death of Richard McKee, Peter Clancy and a man named McCalune.

These men, according to the newspaper, were arrested during the week-end and kept in a room of the Exchange court, pending transfer. The Mail alleges that the prisoners seized arms stored in the court and attempted to escape. It alleges the court guard was fired on and returning the fire, killed the three men.

Clancy, it is said, was a member of the Sinn Fein "inner circle," which has been directing recent operations of the organization. McKee was an expert on explosives, and McCalune is said to have been an officer of the Republican army.

Mississippi Ice Goes Out.

St. Cloud, Minn., Nov. 23.—The Mississippi, which had been covered with a solid sheet of ice for two weeks, lost its winter covering completely Sunday, following the recent spell of mild weather, and again presents a channel entirely free from ice.

SALVATION ARMY KETTLES BEGIN TO BOIL ON SATURDAY

The Salvation Army kettles for Christmas relief work will begin to boil next Saturday at the usual corners, and it is hoped by those who have the good Christmas work of the army at heart that passers-by will not be merely passers-by this year, but liberal contributors.

The kettles will be located at the First National bank corner, the American Exchange National bank corner, at the Glass Block, Woolworth's and Gray's.

The army each year collects its Christmas fund in this way, and usually has a pretty good sized "roll" by Christmas eve, the time when the kettles are taken off the streets. This money is used for the relief of the poor at Christmas time and many otherwise cheerless homes are brightened by Christmas dinner, clothes and other necessities on the day of days.

MORE CAPITAL IS NEEDED IN PHILIPPINES

Gen. Frank McIntyre, Bureau Chief, Reports to Department.

Washington, Nov. 23.—Inability to interest American capital on a large scale in the nation's insular possessions, particularly in the Philippine islands, has resulted in greatly retarding development of the great natural resources of the islands, according to the annual report of Maj.-Gen. Frank McIntyre, chief of the bureau of insular affairs of the war department, to Secretary Baker. Gen. McIntyre urges American bankers and business men to interest themselves in the trade and development possibilities of the outlying possessions, declaring that "large tracts of the best agricultural land in the world await development" and that "in a number of fertile provinces the population falls below twenty persons per square mile, where there is an unsupplied labor demand in other agricultural provinces having a population of 250 persons per square mile."

Action has been taken by the Philippine legislature to provide for the exploration and leasing of lands connecting petroleum and other mineral oils and gases, in which connection Gen. McIntyre says that "the existence of oil in widely scattered localities in the Philippines has been known since the occupation of the islands, but there has been no serious effort at development. There is now promise that in the near future it will be definitely known whether this oil exists in such a way as to be of commercial use."

Hopes Not Disappointed.

The organic act of 1916 providing for the government of the Philippines and greatly increasing the powers of the local legislature has "in no way disappointed the hopes then expressed," says the report, although a number of changes are recommended. Among the suggestions is one that the immigration laws be amended to check migration from the Philippines, particularly to Hawaii; that the land laws be altered to permit of leasing of larger divisions of government land; that the limit of the public debt of the islands be raised from $15,000,000 to $25,000,000; that salaries of United States officials in the Philippine islands be increased and that the laws respecting the citizenship of Filipinos be classified to give the island inhabitants the full effect of the intention of congress in declaring them "citizens of the Philippine islands," and as such entitled to the protection of the United States."

Shortage of labor is proving a serious obstacle to the development of the islands, the report states, the natives preferring to move to Hawaii and other comparatively developed places rather than clear the back country.

Evidence of Contentment.

"There was every evidence of contentment with conditions and of friendliness toward Americans and appreciation for what the United States has done in the islands," Gen. McIntyre states in reporting on a recent inspection trip.

The progress of Porto Rico under the organic act of 1917 has been very satisfactory, and continues so, the report says, the island having just completed one of the most prosperous years in its history. Improvement of freight and passenger service between the United States and Porto Rico was recommended.

Liquidation of the $20,000,000 bond issue of 1908, and the collection of the customs in San Domingo by the United States continued to progress satisfactorily during the past year, Gen. McIntyre stated.

Increase of the salaries of civilian employes in the bureau of insular affairs to retain the services of old and valued employes was recommended.

Trade figures for the island possessions for the past year were given as follows:

Philippines, imports $118,639,052; exports, $13,117,000, the bulk of the trade being with the United States in both cases.

Porto Rico, imports, $96,388,000; exports $150,811,000, of which $133,207,000 went to the United States.

MURDER OF PEIRCE REMAINS MYSTERY

Philadelphia, Nov. 23.—Local authorities today continued that investigation into the death of Henry T. Peirce, Eastern manager of the Insley Manufacturing company, whose body, with the head crushed by blows from an iron wrench, was found yesterday in the rear of his office here. They have succeeded in tracing his movements up to 10:30 o'clock Saturday night, but, with this exception, little progress has been made toward a solution of the mystery.

The condition of the body indicated, according to the police, that he was killed late Saturday night or early Sunday.

The police are looking for a man and a woman who Peirce is said by a business acquaintance to have picked up in the center of the city Saturday night and driven to his office in his automobile. This man said he left the trio when they entered Peirce's office.

COULD GO ONLY BY CONSENT OF ALLIES

The Hague, Nov. 22.—(By the Associated Press.)—Former Emperor William of Germany could go to Corfu only with the consent of the Allied powers, the Associated Press was informed at the foreign office today. This information was elicited by an inquiry relative to reports that the former emperor's villa on the island of Corfu was being repaired and that he was expected to go there soon.

Oil Plant Closes.

Memphis, Tenn., Nov. 23.—Lack of demand for cotton oil and meal is given by officers of the Buckeye Cotton Oil company as the cause for the closing down of its plant here. About 500 men are thrown out of work.

SAYS NATURAL RESOURCES IN PHILIPPINES WONDERFUL

GEN. FRANK McINTYRE.

"NEVER CAN BE COERCED"

Irish Patriot So Writes to Henderson Regarding Ireland.

London, Nov. 22.—Disapproval of the present system of government in Ireland was expressed in a letter written by Leonard Wilde, who was shot and killed in the Gresham hotel, Dublin, on Sunday, which was received by Arthur Henderson, labor leader in the house of commons, today. Wilde asked Mr. Henderson's advice as to "the best method of consecrating my life" to the cause of real democracy in Ireland.

Wilde wrote that his observation had led him to believe "Ireland never could be coerced" and suggested his knowledge of Irish history might make him a valuable worker in the labor party in that organization's fight in behalf of Ireland.

The parliamentary labor commission, which was charged with an investigation of reprisals in Ireland and which planned to leave for Ireland on Tuesday, has postponed its trip temporarily because of the present situation on the island. At a meeting of the labor party today, resolutions were passed expressing "deep sorrow" over recent assassinations and asking both sides to agree to a truce.

Altercation in Commons.

Monday's altercation in commons between Joseph Devlin and Maj. John Molson, coalition member, came while Sir Hamar Greenwood, chief secretary for Ireland, was reading the details of Sunday's assassinations in Dublin to the house. There was a silence except for occasional shocked murmurs and when he had finished, appreciable time elapsed before a single member arose to ask a question. The speaker, in fact, had called Sir William Henry Davidson, who had given notice of an emergency question, when Mr. Devlin arose and was heard to say:

"May I ask—"

There immediately came a chorus of angry cries of:

"No; sit down!"

Mr. Devlin resumed his seat, but apparently under a misapprehension, as directly upon Sir William rising to put his question the Nationalist member also arose. He was received with renewed cries of "sit down," and was the object of a great demonstration. Mr. Devlin ignored the speaker's request to resume his seat, although he was assured he would have another opportunity of speaking, as another question on Ireland was among the approved question papers.

The speaker called on Sir William again, and the member asked whether the premier was aware that the house was prepared at a single sitting to give him whatever power was necessary to stamp out "the atrocious murder campaign in Ireland" and whether he would introduce the necessary legislation to enable persons found in possessions of arms and ammunition without a permit, in any of the disturbed areas of Ireland, to be shot.

Shares Horror.

Premier Lloyd George, rising, said he shared with the last speaker the horror all felt at the cold blooded murder of unarmed British officers. The government, continued Lloyd George, had resolved to suppress murder and conspiracy in Ireland. It was realized by all that to suppress such carefully organized, high subsidized plots would take time, but the government was convinced that despite the recent happenings the Irish authorities were succeeding in breaking up the "gangs of assassins."

The premier said, however, that should experience show that the powers possessed by the Irish government had proven insufficient for that purpose, the government would have no hesitation in asking parliament for

Chicago, Nov. 23.—Undeterred by the chill of Lake Michigan's waves in November, sailors at the Great Naval training station have perfected a new sea sport that puts surf board riding in the parlor game class.

Searching for new thrills, the sailors have discarded fast speed boats to pull their aquaplanes, borrowed the services of a seaplane, and with their surf boards hitched behind the speeding airship tear through the water at sixty miles an hour. Only the most skillful riders can stand upright on one of the tiny boards in the terrific pace. At sixty miles an hour only the rear tip of the board rides on the waves.

HUNTING FOR ASSASSINS IN SUNDAY RIOT

All Roads and Bridges to City Are Under Close Guard.

Trains Allowed to Run After Being Suspended Monday.

Crown Forces at Park to Arrest Alleged Professional Gunmen.

Dublin, Nov. 23.—(By the Associated Press.)—All train services to and out of Dublin were resumed this morning, after the city had passed a quiet night following Sunday's bloodshed and the raiding activities of yesterday. The curfew law was strictly obeyed.

The night, however, did not witness any let up in the work of the military who were continuing their minute search presumably for suspects in connection with Sunday's assassinations. Before the curfew hour several of the streets were surrounded by barbed wire barriers and the soldiers examined all persons passing.

Patrols Guard Roads.

Dublin, Nov. 23.—(By the Associated Press.)—Strong military patrols manned every bridge and road running out of Dublin last night. Even persons holding permits were not allowed to pass the lines drawn through the outskirts of the city. Reports indicated that virtually the whole military establishment in this district was employed in maintaining this cordon. The strict guard made absolute the paralysis of traffic in and out of Dublin which was begun when orders were issued on Sunday suspending all railway service.

Scores of Raids.

In the meantime soldiers were conducting scores of raids. Reports reaching newspapers showed that all classes and types of residences and other premises were being searched. From early in the morning this work went on, and reports came in quick succession of scores of raids, which were attended by more than the usual amount of incidental clashes. It seemed certain that many casualties had marked the day's activity.

The thoroughness with which the cordon about the city was drawn and raids conducted led those in close touch with the situation to believe the military authorities were determined to arrest the parties responsible for the murder of fourteen officers on Sunday.

Streets Thickly Peopled.

Streets in the downtown section of Dublin were thickly peopled early in the evening by small knots of citizens, who were discussing the situation and expressing fear that the reign of terror had not ended. As a consequence of the advancement of the curfew hour to 10 o'clock, however, the crowds soon dwindled and a little after 9 o'clock there was scarcely a person abroad.

An atmosphere of distrust and suspicion was noticeable on every hand yesterday and last night. Pedestrians in the streets and loungers in hotel lobbies showed reluctance to venture any opinions relative to the possible consequences of Sunday's tragic events.

LEAGUE CLASH IS POSSIBILITY

Powers of Council and Assembly May Come Up for Consideration.

Geneva, Nov. 23.—(By the Associated Press.)—A clash between the council and the assembly of the League of Nations on the question of carrying out the assembly's resolution of yesterday for intervention in the Armenian situation loomed up as a possibility this forenoon as the assembly met for today's session.

The subject of Armenia was early to the fore, the chairman announcing the makeup of the committee to examine details of the eventual intervention. The committee was headed by Lord Robert Cecil of the Union of South Africa delegation, who is a strong proponent of help for Armenia, and had on its membership list likewise Rene Viviani of France, whose eloquent plea yesterday swept the assembly into unanimous approval of the resolutions for action on the subject. The other members announced were Senator Henri La Fontaine of Belgium, Dr. Fridtjof Nansen of Norway, Honorio Pueyrredon of Argentina and Signor Schanzi of Italy.

May Raise Question Again.

The order of the day for the assembly contained several resolutions of an apparently innocuous character promising in themselves no such sensational interest as yesterday's session developed. The possibility was seen, however, that the failure of the council of the league to act last night on the Viviani resolution might provoke another debate on Armenia and raise the entire question of the relations of the council and the assembly.

The respective powers of these bodies is looming up as one of the biggest questions before the assembly. The clash on this subject would naturally come in discussion of the report of the oraganization commission in regular course, but it could easily be precipitated by refusal of the council to carry out any resolution of the assembly. It was known last night that the council had met but had taken no action with regard to the Armenian resolution and Mr. Balfour's attitude after the meeting was taken to indicate that he was in no hurry to urge the council to such action.

ASK GOVERNOR TO GIVE AID

City Council Would Relieve Coal Shortage in West Duluth.

The coal situation in West Duluth again occupied considerable attention from the city council at its meeting yesterday afternoon. The discussion was precipitated by the introduction by Commissioner P. G. Phillips of a resolution asking the assistance of Governor Burnquist in getting coal for the residents of West Duluth. Other commissioners took exception to the wording of the resolution on the ground that it was ambiguous and that it discriminated against other sections of the city that were in the same position as West Duluth.

Commissioner Phillips refused to entertain this protest, declaring neither he or the people of West Duluth were interested in any other section but West Duluth. He asserted that West Duluth dealers are not getting the amount of coal that was promised them some time ago by one of the dock operators. He asserted that section of the city was short 4,245 tons and that only 400 tons had so far been delivered to overcome this shortage. He also said that if cold weather sets in at once, there would be suffering and hardship.

Discussion Over Rates.

Commissioner Farrell suggested that residents of that section of the city could get coal if they would pay the same rate the other outlying districts were paying to get coal. Mr. Phillips admitted this, but said he saw no reason why the poor people of West Duluth should have to pay this high rate when coal can be shipped in by freight to the dealers who could retail it at an advance of only 75 cents from the dock price. Other outlying sections of the city are paying 90 cents as delivery charges above the dock price of $14.90.

Mayor T. W. Hugo suggested that when it became known that the residents of West Duluth could get coal by paying the increase, there was a possibility that the investigation, if started, would be dropped. He also suggested that the resolution be worded to cover the delivery of coal by freight to the dealers. This Mr. Phillips refused to do, declaring he wanted it to go through worded as it was. The council adopted the resolution unanimously.

Another discussion was held relative to the ordinance introduced by Commissioner W. F. Murnian providing for the licensing of an employment agency for office help. The article that precipitated this argument was relative to the last clause, which provided that a fee not to exceed 25 per cent of the first month's salary could be charged for finding any executive, managerial or stenographic position. A representative of the Federated Trades and Labor assembly, who was present, also entered a protest against the ordinance. It will come up for its first reading next week.

Plumbers' Ordinance.

The Rotary club sent a letter to the council saying that it had gone on record as opposing the proposed ordinance to license plumbers. The civic council requested the city to include one-tenth of 1 mill tax levy in the next city budget to provide for band concerts. These concerts, it was pointed out, were provided this year through the courtesy of the Kiwanis club.

The wooden bridges at Fifty-ninth avenue west from Polk street to Main street will be wrecked and a fill constructed at a cost of $8,473. An ordinance to compel persons who erect awnings, canopies or signs over the street to obtain a permit was introduced. It provides that such articles shall be ten feet above the sidewalk or fourteen feet above alley grades.

The contract to furnish the city with a snowplow will be awarded to Davidson brothers, who do business under the name of Hibbing Boiler works, on a bid of $360. Christensen, Mendenhall & Graham will furnish the fire department with 225 yards of mackinaw cloth at $5.50 a yard. The Duluth Edison Electric company will be instructed to install and maintain an incandescent light at the corner of Buchanan street and First avenue east.

Over 100 Bushels to Acre.

Tracy, Minn., Nov. 23.—Oral Zimmerman, living near here, is the champion corn raiser of this section. On one acre of Zimmerman's corn plot he raised 100.4 bushels and on his whole plot of five acres he gathered 500.2 bushels.

Nelson Seeks New Trial.

St. Cloud, Minn., Nov. 23.—Arguments for a new trial in the case of the state against Gustaf Nelson, who was convicted of first degree murder in Douglass county in connection with the shooting of Joseph Middleton, a farmhand, were heard by Judge John A. Roeser in district court here. Nelson was sentenced to life imprisonment on Sept. 29. Judge Roeser reserved his decision. Nelson is confined in the Douglas county jail, awaiting the outcome of the action for a new trial.

CITY TO MAINTAIN RINKS AT SEVEN PUBLIC SCHOOLS

Skating rinks will be maintained this year at the following schools: Stowe, Washburn, Cobb, Ensign, Morgan Park, Washington and Lester Park.

According to A. C. Ringsred, business superintendent of the schools, work preparatory to flooding the rinks has been in progress for the last ten days. Water will be turned on as soon as the weather is cold enough to freeze it.

Deer Carcasses Seized.

Mellen, Wis., Nov. 23.—Ten deer carcasses were seized by game wardens Saturday, at the home of Theodore Klix, two miles west of here. Three of the carcasses were those of fawns, which were ordered sold to local purchasers and the does and bucks sent to Milwaukee, under orders of the conservation commission. It is believed that the deer were shot for the purpose of selling them to hunters who might be averse to returning home empty handed after a hunting trip.

GOOD EVENING! We expect partly cloudy weather tomorrow; slightly colder.

T. R. TRAIL MEETING REACHES CLOSE

The annual meeting of the board of of directors of the Theodore Roosevelt International Highway association came to an end today noon. After luncheon at the Commercial club the directors visited President E. J. Filliatrault, who is ill at his home. Executive Secretary I. W. Lee tendered his resignation to become effective Jan. 1.

Increased burget, amending of the by-laws and an intensive campaign of publicity and advertising the advantages of the highway were among the important features of the meeting. A committee of five composed of President Filiatrault, Secretary Lee, M. N. Koll of Cass Lake, J. A. Crowley of Superior, and Ben Gero of Manistique, Mich., were named to draw up the amendments to the by-laws and to appoint the new secretary to succeed Mr. Lee. A meeting of this committee will be called within a short time, it was announced.

Resolutions indorsed the plan of appealing to the Federal government for assistance in improving the stretch of road between Cass Lake and Bena; and also indorsed the work of the Montana association in forcing the building of a road through Glacier National park, paralleling the Great Northern railway. This is a stretch of about fifty-four miles and is the only unconnected section of the entire highway from coast to coast.

The directors also determined to carry a road bulletin service during the touring season of the entire highway for the information of tourists. This will include maps and road information and give detailed information as to the condition of the highway at all points. The executive staff of the association will be placed on a much larger scale and if found necessary field representatives will also be added.

The directors who were present at the meeting were J. E. Fell, Ogdensburg, N. Y., who presided in the absence of President E. J. Filiatrault; Max L. Powell, Burlington, Vt.; L. E. Jones, Glasgow, Mont.; H. F. Dooley, Williston, N. D.; H. M. Stanton, Grand Forks, N. D.; M. N. Koll, Cass Lake, Minn.; J. A. Crowley, Superior, Wis., and I. W. Lee, Duluth Minn.

IRONWOOD PUPILS AND TEACHERS ON MILK DIET

Ironwood, Mich., Nov. 23.—(Special to The Herald.)—Under the direction of the home demonstration agent, a milk squad was started in one of the schools of the city this week. Fourteen pupils and one teacher were selected to be placed on the milk diet.

Alleges Fraud in N. P.'s Election.

Butte, Mont., Nov. 23.—The election contest case involving the sheriff of Silver Bow county is on here before Judge B. B. Law of Bozeman. Unofficial returns gave the victory to Larry Duggan, candidate of the Nonpartisan league faction. G. W. Carlson, Republican contestant, alleged fraud in his complaint.

To Get Rid of Wrinkles and Bad Complexions

Most cosmetics clog the pores. In cool weather, when one does not perspire freely, this interferes greatly with elimination of waste material, injuring instead of aiding the complexion. Ordinary mercolized wax serves all the purposes of creams, powders and rouges, giving far better results. It actually peels off an offensive skin, at the same time unclogging the pores. Minute particles of scarf skin come off day by day, causing not the least discomfort. Gradually the healthy, younger skin beneath peeps out, and in less than a fortnight you have a lovelier complexion than you ever dreamed of acquiring. Mercolized wax, obtainable at any drug store, is spread on nightly like cold cream and washed off mornings. One ounce usually suffices.

For removing wrinkles, without stopping the pores with pasty stuff, here's a never-failing formula: One ounce powdered saxolite, dissolved in one-half pint witch hazel. Use as a wash lotion. Every line will quickly disappear.—Advertisement.

SENATORS INVITED TO CONFER WITH HARDING

Washington, Nov. 23.—Senators Reed of Missouri and Pomerene of Ohio, and Shields of Tennessee, all Democrats, are among those invited by President-elect Harding to confer with him on the League of Nations issue and other matters after his return from Panama, according to Harry M. Daugherty, Mr. Harding's pre-convention campaign manager, today.

Others asked to offer suggestions, Mr. Daugherty said, include Senators Borah, Johnson, Lodge, Knox, Poindexter and, Mr. Daugherty thought, Herbert Hoover.

Informal conferences at Marion probably will begin about Dec. 10, Mr. Daugherty said, adding no definite date had been set for any one to go there.

"Some probably will go singly, while others may go in groups," he said. "There will be no prearranged schedule."

The president-elect plans to spend only a day in Washington after returning from Panama via Newport News and will go immediately to Marion, Mr. Daugherty announced. He said Mr. Harding expected to resign from the senate soon after Jan. 1, when Governor-elect Willis, a Republican, would be named to succeed Senator Harding.

Mr. Daugherty refused to discuss cabinet possibilities.

FALLING METEOR ALARMS PEOPLE

Morgantown, W. Va., Nov. 23.—Residents in the vicinity were thrown into a panic last night when a large meteor fell at Howesville, five miles south, according to reports received here.

The meteor struck in the business section of Howesville, near the depot. It exploded as it buried itself in the earth. The force of the blast was heard several miles.

An automobile standing near the station was damaged by the explosion and occupants of the machine were dazed.

The New Cocoa Cookery

LONG ago, it dawned on experienced cooks, that Runkel's is purely concentrated chocolate in powder form. They used Runkel's instead of grating chocolate, and found that its use resulted in smoother-textured icings, richer flavor, and finer appearance.

All this with a saving of all the bother of grating chocolate and one fourth the cost.

Drink Runkel's, bake with it, cook with it—it will delight you all ways.

PREDICTS DROP IN PRICE OF SHOES

Chicago, Nov. 23.—A 35 per cent drop in the price of shoes was predicted by L. H. D. Weld, head of the department of commercial research of Swift & Co., at the packing house employes' wage hearing before Federal Judge Alschuler, wage arbiter. Mr Weld also produced other statistics on the trend of prices.

He refused to hold out hope for a material decrease in the cost of meats because "the price of by-products has slumped."

In Chicago, Mr. Weld said, there has been an average decrease in the cost of food of 10 per cent in the last year, and 13 per cent in the last ninety days. Clothing has decreased 28 per cent in ninety days, according to his figures. Many other cities, he said, show larger decreases.

"This is no time for increasing wages," he summarized.

KUBELIK SCHOLARSHIP OPEN TO DULUTH VIOLINISTS

Duluth violinists will have the privilege of competing for the Kubelik-Sevick scholarship on Jan. 22 at the Ithaca Conservatory of Music, Ithaca, N. Y. This scholarship will be given by the great violinist, Jan Kubelik, and his master, Sevcik, for the purpose of encouraging and aiding young and aspiring violinists of America.

This scholarship will include free instruction in harmony and counterpoint, conducting ensemble playing, history of music and board and room for the length of time required to take these courses. This instruction plus the living expenses would regularly cost the student more than $1,200.

This is not only a tribute on the part of Kubelik to his master but a constructive effort on the part of the violinist to encourage young American violinists. Applicants will be required to be in Ithaca on Jan. 22, and play before Mr. Sevcik and Mr. Kubelik, who will award the scholarship to the one who, in their estimation, possesses the greatest natural ability as a violinist. Applicants are invited to apply to the registrar, Ithaca Conservatory of Music, Ithaca, N. Y., for detailed information.

Mr. Kubelik will have something to say regarding this scholarship when he comes to Duluth on Dec. 7.

GASOLINE OUTPUT RECORDS BROKEN

Washington, Nov. 23.—All gasoline output records were broken in September, the bureau of mines announced yesterday. Refineries produced a daily average of 15,000,000 gallons, making the output for the first nine months of 1920 3,500,000,000 gallons as compared with 2,900,000,000 gallons in that period of 1919.

Consumption and exports continued high, however, the bureau said, so that while storage tanks on Sept. 30, held 298,000,000 gallons, the amount on hand was actually less than that on hand Aug. 30.

G. O. P. SPENT $4,022,580 FROM JUNE 14 TO NOV. 19

Washington, Nov. 23.—Campaign expenditures of the Republican national committee between June 14 and Nov. 19 totaled $4,022,580.09 and receipts amounted to $3,833,152.14, according to a final report received yesterday by the clerk of the house of representatives from Fred W. Upham, treasurer of the committee. The report indicated that the committee had incurred a deficit of $189,428.95.

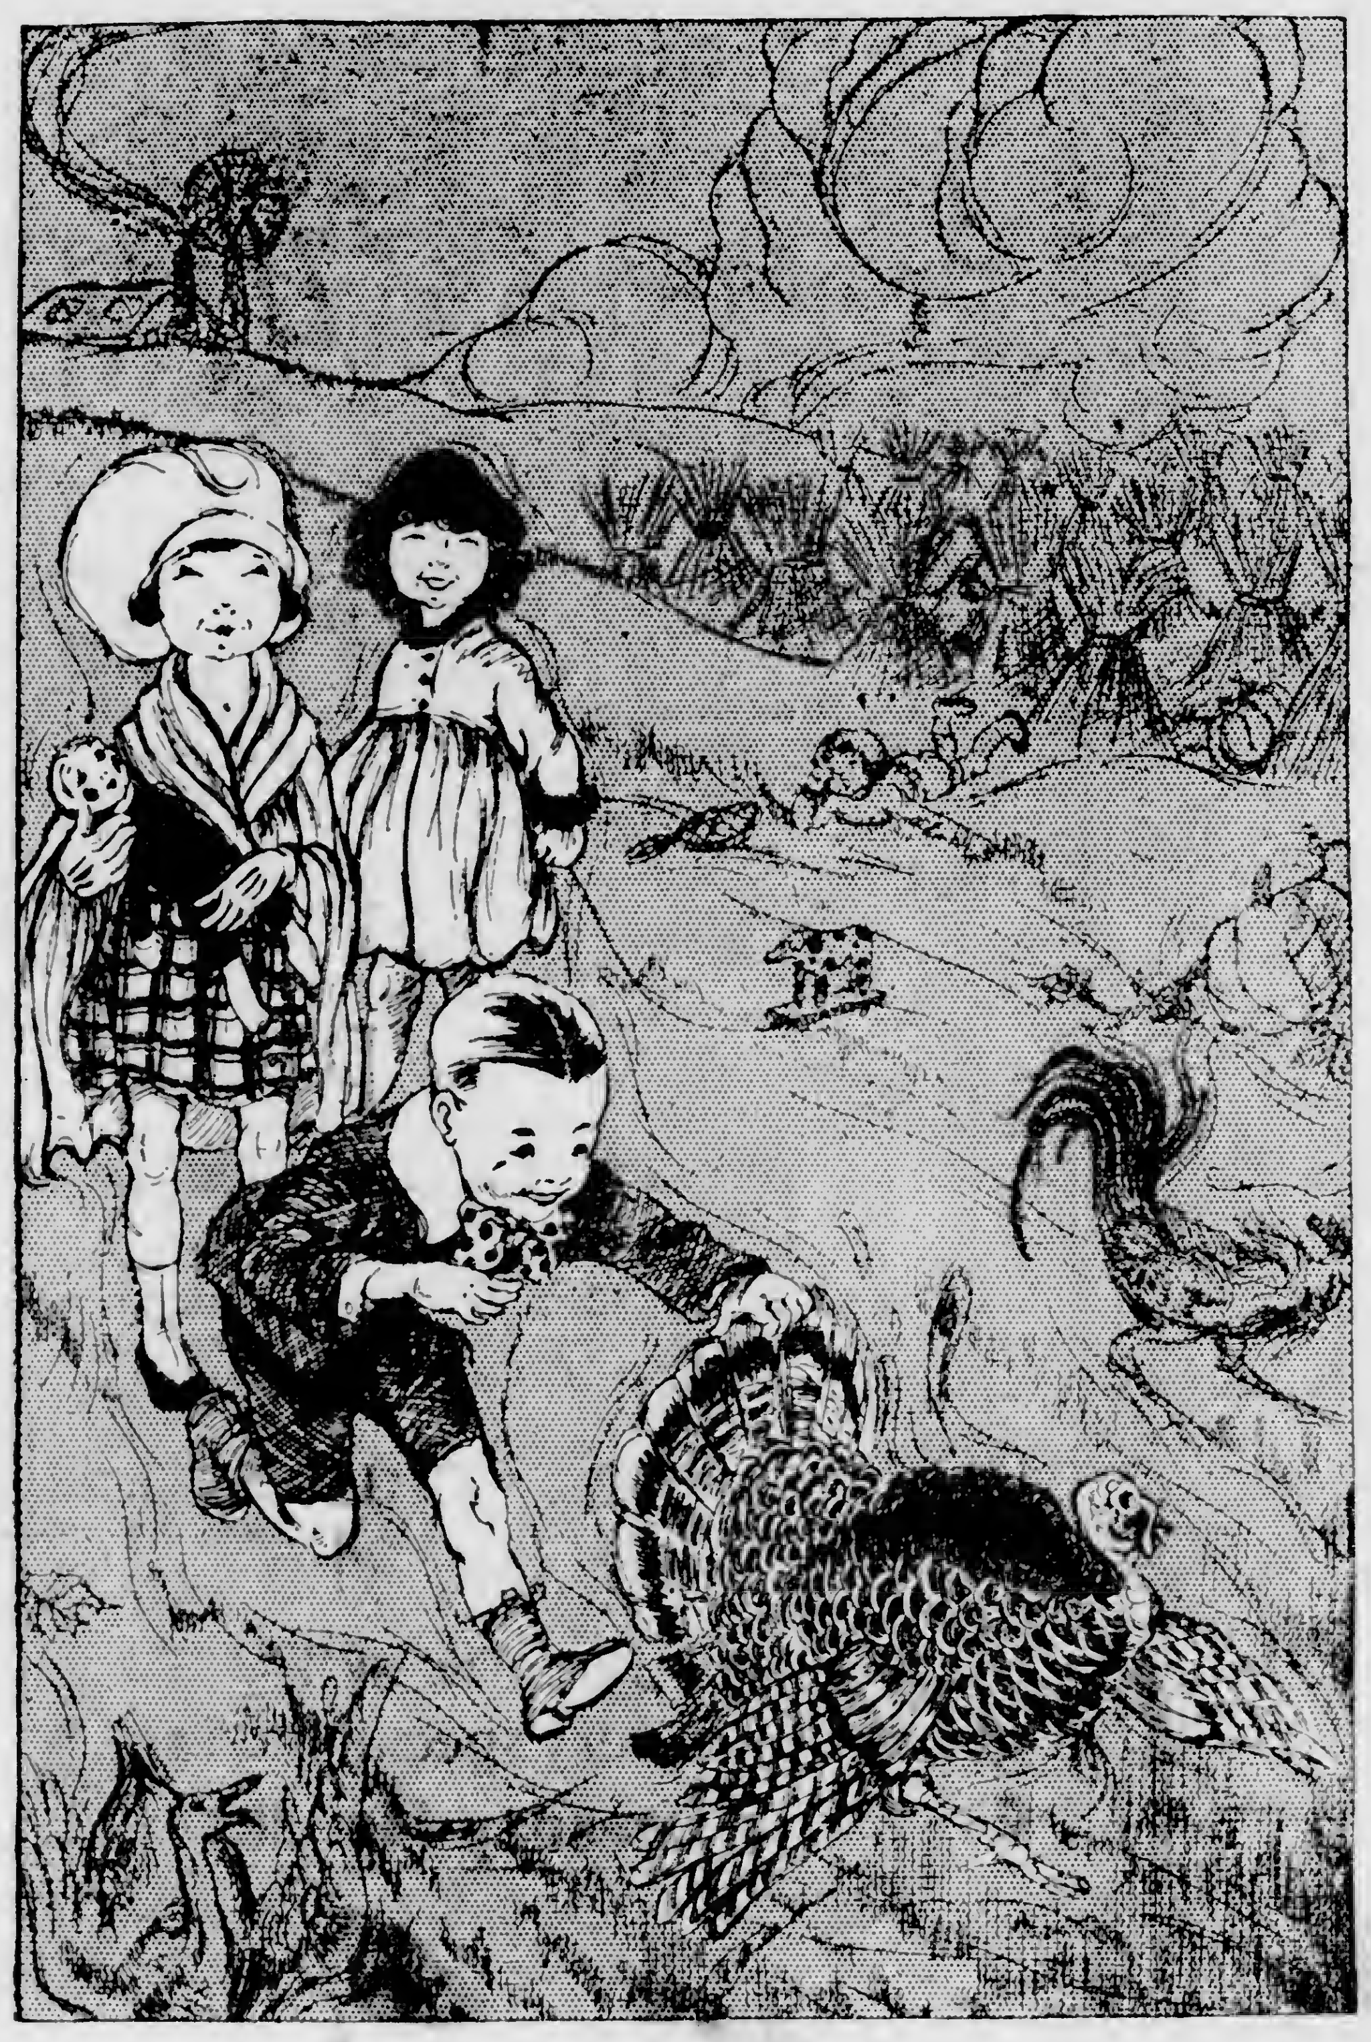
YOUR THANKSGIVING GUIDE



"Gaining on the Turk"

On Thanksgiving There Is Never Enough Boy or Girl to Go Farther Than the Second Helping

But From Tippety-Top to Tippety-Toe the Glass Block Can Clothe As Much As There Is of 'Em

FOR THE LAD

At the Head

A smart cap with visor and fur ear protectors to guard against the cold. A cap that is, of course, made of a pretty mixture to match the garments with which it is worn. Priced 2.95.

An Overcoat

An all-wool Oxford mixture in a warm, cozy weight, with a smart plaid lining. An inverted pleated back, and a convertible collar. Great, big patch pockets, and in every way a coat to be proud of. Priced 15.50.

A Suit

Of a dapper brown mixture. One of those swagger models with inverted pleated back, patch pockets and a pair of good-looking knickerbockers. A suit that has been selling for 22.50. Specially priced 19.50.

Gloves

Of course every regular fellow has to have gloves, even though he has them in his pocket much of the time. There's a pair of heavy gray cape gloves that are warmly lined. This is a "regular pair." Priced 1.50.

Shoes

There's always a reason for scuffing out shoes, according to what most boys tell us, so a new pair for Thanksgiving will give one good reason for thanks. A heavy brown pair of calfskin, size 12 years, is 7.50

Underwear

Turkey will warm the inner cockles of a small boy's appetite, but warm, fine wool underwear in a soft gray hue, will last longer than turkey. Boys' fine underwear may be had for 3.25.

Sweater

And for winter sports on Thanksgiving day, when the suit coat and smart overcoat are too-dressed-up entirely, there's a warm sweater in a heavy weight navy blue, with tan stripes. Priced 10.00.

FOR THE LASS

At the Head

Could anything be prettier or more practical than one of the soft, big, girlish beaver hats that we have on sale? Their regular prices are all the way to 10.00. For this week one may be had for 5.00.

A Top Coat

Could anything be nicer for a girl of 12 than a pretty French blue silvertip Bolivia with a stitched paneled back and a stitched trim around the bottom of the skirt? Thers's a seal collar. Priced 48.50.

A Dress

There's a navy blue serge dress that would please any particular miss. One that has a pleated skirt, has lines of lemon-yellow yarn in a feather-stitched design. There are pom-poms of yellow yarn. Priced 25.00.

Gloves

There are so many gloves that would please a girl that one would think the choice would be a hard one. But, of course, this particular girl chose a pair of heavy cape gloves in brown. Priced 2.50.

Shoes

While choice naturally would fall on a dainty pair of pumps, this Thanksgiving girl had to walk quite a way to keep her Thanksgiving dinner engagement. So she chose heavy brown shoes. Priced 7.50.

Underwear

There's much warmth and cozy comfort to be found in silk and wool underwear. And for our Thanksgiving Miss we have a very nice union suit, silk and wool, with long or elbow sleeves, for 5.50.

Scarf and Tam

There isn't a girl in the land who doesn't want to own a scarf and tam set for regular, everyday comfort and style. They come in all colors, and the one our girl selected was of navy blue with tan stripes. Priced 9.75.

The Last Day of a
Thanksgiving Sale of Ladies' Hosiery

EARLY RECORDS OF FREE WILL BAPTISTS

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 23.—Records and various other data relative to the early activities of the Free Will Baptists in Minnesota were recovered when the ruins of a seminary at Wasioja, Minn., near Mantorville, were recently razed. The material has been placed on exhibit in the manuscript department, Minnesota Historical society, St. Paul.

The records were found embedded in the cornerstone and include two issues of the Wasioja Gazette, dated July, 1857, and July, 1858, a publication long since suspended, and copies of the original committee records which were instrumental in establishing the Minnesota seminary, a Baptist institution here.

The seminary was founded by the Free Will Baptists in 1858, when Wasioja was a booming village of 400 inhabitants and seventy-five dwellings, and was conducted under this organization for ten years. The name of the institution, however, was changed at a later date to the Northwestern college and then to the Groveland seminary.

In 1868 the institution was transferred to the Methodists and was known as the Wesley Methodist seminary who conducted the institution until 1873. The school then passed into private ownership. Later the building was burned and the walls, which remained standing, were not razed until October last.

The cornerstone of the historic building was removed by J. J. Cassidy of Rochester, Minn., who was a spectator at the ceremony which was held at the laying of the stone in 1858.

The material was given to the historical society by Rev. Alfred B. Gould of Zumbro Falls, a son of Rev. J. E. Gould, one of the founders of the Baptist institution.

Records included show that Wasioja, at the time of the founding of this seminary, was a flourishing village and that settlers endeavored to make this a metropolis of that section of the state. The village, however, after its first boom days, dwindled and today has less than half the population of the early days.

MUST PAY CHARGES IN AMERICAN MONEY

Washington, Nov. 22.—The interstate commerce commission today approved an order requiring the payment in United States money and prepayment of charges on shipments between Canada and the United States. The effect of the action would be to require shippers to prepay in American money charges for interstate transportation wholly within the United States. American railroads would thus be protected against loss by reason of depreciation in Canadian money.

CASTORIA

The Kind You Have Always Bought, and which has been in use for over thirty years, has borne the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher and has been made under his personal supervision since its infancy. Allow no one to deceive you in this. All Counterfeits, Imitations and "Just-as-good" are but Experiments that trifle with and endanger the health of Infants and Children—Experience against Experiment.

What is CASTORIA

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. For more than thirty years it has been in constant use for the relief of Constipation, Flatulency, Wind Colic and Diarrhoea; allaying Feverishness arising therefrom, and by regulating the Stomach and Bowels, aids the assimilation of Food; giving healthy and natural sleep. The Children's Comfort—The Mother's Friend.

TO RUN TO COVER EVERYONE GUILTY OF CORRUPTION

Washington, Nov. 23.—Col. Guy D. Goff, general counsel of the shipping board, who was recently nominated by the president as United States shipping board commissioner from the Great Lakes section, made the following statement yesterday:

"Graft is the twin sister to the tip. A gratuity in commercial or social life becomes a bribe when the party accepting or soliciting the favor is a public official. Bribery in public office is the loathsome canker eating at the very roots of the government itself, and poisoning the very life blood of society. When men sworn to uphold the integrity and the honor of their state barter away its sovereignty and view a public trust as a private snap, they are simply conspiring renegades ready to violate their country's confidence and to betray its secrets. Such a man, no matter what his position in official life, is too wretchedly craven to be a traitor. Such a man has lost his worth in the habits of treachery, and by comparison Judas Iscariot is a saint, and Benedict Arnold a patriot. Such practices will not only rot the soul of this nation, but stamp our public servant as a man whose stomach is his God and whose dollars are his graven images. It is and will be my one and single purpose to run to cover every person employed in the shipping board or the emergency fleet corporation, man or woman, clerk or official, who is guilty of corruption, and to presecute them to the fullest extent of the law as well as every private citizen, whether he be tradesman, ship operator, claimant, attorney, lobbyist or solicitor who offers the glittering bribe or sweetens his petition with gold. My appointment as a commissioner to represent the Great Lakes will not in the least interfere. I shall continue as long as I am connected with this board to give such matters my individual and undivided attention, even to the extent of personally conducting the prosecution whenever and wherever the department of justice may deem it expedient or advisable."

TALKS AND MUSIC AT CREDIT MEN'S MEETING

Talks by Isaac S. Moore on "Financial Conditions as Affecting Credit Men," and by Rev. George Brewer on "Personality in Business" featured the monthly meeting of the Duluth Association of Credit Men last night at the Commercial club. Two vocal solos were given by Frank Fenstermacher, accompanied by Mrs. Fenstermacher at the piano. J. R. Batchelor was in charge of the entertainment. A. B. Anderson presided at the meeting which closed with discussions of the current credit situation and a publicity campaign which is being planned by the association.

GRAY STORE FAMILY HAS BANQUET AND PROGRAM

The George A. Gray store family entertained their friends with a banquet, two playlets and a dancing party last night at the store. Members of the salesmanship classes presented a comedy entitled, "All in a Store Lifetime," of which the cast follows:

New salesgirl, Winnifred Currier; floor manager, Archie Buchart; aristocratic customer, Marie Du Roche; Irish woman, Hazel Brainerd; henpecked man, Earl Thompson; sample fiend, Emilie See; debutante and mother, Daisy McLymans and Frances Bowyer. The following characters also took part in one of the scenes: Clifford Hay, Peter Jensen, Bertel Damberg, Andrew Gaffney, Sadie Hendrickson, Harry Gale and Clara Eckenberg.

"The Spirit of Thanksgiving" was the title of the second play in which forty-eight took part. J. A. Starkweather, assistant superintendent of schools, and Mrs. Starkweather were the honor guests of the educational division. About 275 were present.

STUDY NORTH DAKOTA BANKING SITUATION

Mandan, N. D., Nov. 23.—Bankers of Southwestern North Dakota are meeting in Mandan today at the call of officers of the Missouri Slope Bankers' association to study conditions that have caused the closing of nine North Dakota banks in the last ten days.

In conference with the bankers are county and other officers who are custodians of funds derived from taxation, the purpose being to work out a plan for gradual withdrawal of money from the Bank of North Dakota when the new law, permitting officials to withdraw public funds from the state bank, becomes operative.

A canvass of the grain selling movement in the state, made by a Fargo newspaper, indicates that there is no change in the situation. Farmers still are holding their grain, demanding higher prices. This wheat strike, as it is termed, is declared by bankers generally as causing the suspension of business on the part of the banks already closed, as funds ordinarily available to the state for financing its business have not yet been brought into the state.

Great Rejoicing by Rheumatic Cripples

If So Crippled You Can't Use Arms or Legs Rheuma Will Help You or Nothing to Pay.

If you want relief in two days, swift, gratifying relief, take one teaspoonful of Rheuma once a day.

If you want to dissolve the uric acid poison in your body and drive it out through the natural channels so that you will be free from rheumatism, get a 75-cent bottle of Rheuma from your druggist today.

Rheumatism is a powerful disease strongly entrenched in joints and muscles. In order to conquer it a powerful enemy must be sent against it. Rheuma is the enemy of rheumatism (no matter what form)—an enemy that must conquer it every time or your money will be refunded.

Rheuma contains no narcotics—is absolutely harmless, and thoroughly reliable because it is the one remedy that has relieved the agonizing pains of rheumatism sufferers who thought nothing would give relief. It should do as much for you—it seldom fails. Lyceum Pharmacy will gladly supply you on the no-cure-no-pay plan.—Advertisement.

Another Royal Suggestion

3-Egg Angel Cake and Mocha Layer
From the NEW ROYAL COOK BOOK

An Angel cake so good that it fairly melts in your mouth. Instead of eight eggs, it can be made with three and the yolks of the eggs can be used for a Royal Sunshine cake.

Here, too, is a Mocha Layer cake which you will want to try, and clip for future use.

Angel Cake
1 cup sugar
1⅓ cups flour
½ teaspoon cream of tartar
3 teaspoons Royal Baking Powder
⅓ teaspoon salt
⅔ cup scalded milk
1 teaspoon almond or vanilla extract
whites of 3 eggs

Mix and sift first five ingredients four times. Add milk very slowly, while still hot, beating continually; add vanilla; mix well and fold in whites of eggs beaten until light. Turn into ungreased angel cake tin and bake in very slow oven about 45 minutes. Remove from oven; invert pan and allow to stand until cold. Cover top and sides with either white or chocolate icing.

Mocha Layer Cake
½ cup shortening
1 cup sugar
2 eggs
½ cup strong coffee
2 cups flour
3 teaspoons Royal Baking Powder
⅛ teaspoon salt
2 teaspoons mixed spices

Cream shortening and sugar until light; add well beaten yolks of eggs; add coffee slowly; add half of flour sifted with baking powder, salt and spices; mix and add well beaten whites of eggs; add remainder of flour and mix lightly. Pour into two greased layer cake tins and bake in moderate oven. Spread sweetened whipped cream between layers and cover top with—

Mocha Icing
1 tablespoon butter
1 cup confectioner's sugar
1 tablespoon cocoa
2 tablespoons strong coffee
¼ teaspoon salt

Cream butter and sugar; add cocoa, coffee and salt and stir until smooth. If too dry, add coffee; if too moist, add sugar.

DON'T HOLD BACK RED CROSS MEMBERSHIPS; ENROLLMENT FAR SHORT OF PREVIOUS RECORD

Management of Campaign Fears Many Are Holding Back to the Last Day; Would Cause Too Great Congestion to Handle Final Report; Enrollment Up to Now Only 10 Per Cent of Last Year's Memberships.

Workers in the Armistice day-to-Thanksgiving roll call sent out this very emphatic notice today to all sections of the city. The memberships received to date have not been more than 10 per cent of last year's memberships and from the inquiries that have been made at headquarters, 507 Alworth building, and the promises that have been received, the roll call workers are convinced that there have been many more memberships renewed.

It is highly desirable that all those who have had memberships turned over to them should make returns to headquarters at once. The work of compiling the lists of members and certifying them to national and division headquarters must be accomplished immediately after the roll call ceases Thanksgiving day. If all the new memberships come in at the last minute, the work on the headquarters force will be almost impossible of accomplishment.

Holding Memberships Back.

The chairman of the membership roll call, W. A. McGonagle, and his assistants are convinced that there have been many memberships renewed and that the individual workers and the heads of families and business houses are holding them for more. The chairman has made a special request that every membership renewal and every new membership shall be sent in as soon as it is received.

This applies to the business houses and the heads of families and social and fraternal organizations particularly. Chairman McGonagle would like to have the business houses complete their renewals by tomorrow noon so that some idea may be gained at headquarters as to how many memberships will be received in this way and how much work will fall on the clean-up committee which is to make a personal whirlwind campaign.

Voluntary Subscriptions.

The present roll call is being conducted on different methods than have heretofore been followed. The idea was to let the people show their interest in the Red Cross without solicitation from the outside—opportunity being given to every organization, business house and family to renew its memberships and thus demonstrate the high regard that is felt in all quarters for the Red Cross—the 100 per cent American institution.

Temporary headquarters were established at Third avenue west and Superior street in the Lonsdale building on the ground floor. Memberships can be procured there or from J. W. Lyder, Northern National bank, or at the permanent Red Cross headquarters, 507 Alworth building. These are general headquarters stations. There are other stations at the department stores, hotels and clubs where memberships will also be received.

CLAN STEWART WILL HAVE VARIED PROGRAM WEDNESDAY

The program that has been prepared for Clan Stewart's Thanksgiving eve entertainment at Clan hall, Fourth avenue west and First street, is varied in character, and has on it the names of some of the leading entertainers of the city. This is an annual event of the clan, and it is expected that a large audience will be on hand at Clan hall tomorrow night to enjoy the offerings of those who will take part. The program follows:

Selection on bagpipes, Pipe Major George J. MacKay; vocal solo, Miss Florence Hyland; recitation, Miss Barbro Thompson; musical reading, Miss Mabel Fulton; violin solo, Miss Laura Stewart; vocal solo, John R. Batchelor; dance, Miss Bessie Currier; violin selections, Morris Cohen, accompanied by Miss Lucille Thompson; vocal solo, John Galbraith, with Miss Gudrun Thrana as accompanist; recitation, Miss Mildred Evans; address, F. T. Cuthbert.

Game Law Violators Fined.

Rhinelander, Wis., Nov. 23.—George Voegel and Carl Peterson of Wausau, each were fined $225 and costs at Eagle River for violation of the game laws. The men were charged with killing partridges and having venison in their possession out of season, also taking mink and muskrat. Lust Beltz of Two Rivers was fined $100 for killing deer out of season.

PAROLED CONVICT IS KILLED AT ST. LOUIS

St. Louis, Nov. 23.—A man shot to death yesterday at a roadhouse was identified as Ben Milner, ex-convict, who was paroled from the Federal prison at Fort Leavenworth by President Wilson last September.

Milner's death brought the number of crime fatalities in St. Louis and vicinity to seven since Saturday night. One person killed was a woman. Hundreds of suspects have been arrested.

SIXTEEN FOLLOWERS OF VILLA PARDONED

Santa Fe, N. M., Nov. 23.—Sixteen followers of Francisco Villa, sentenced to the New Mexico penitentiary for life for participation in the raid across the border on Columbus, N. M., were pardoned yesterday by Governor Larrazolo. All but one had pleaded guilty to second degree murder, the others getting a commuted sentence for first degree murder.

The governor stated he believed the men were ignorant and not criminally responsible and emphatically denied the reports that the pardons were "to further friendly relations with Mexico."

EDISON HAS COLD; WIFE EXCUSED FROM JURY TO NURSE HIM

Newark, N. J., Nov. 23.—Thomas A. Edison has a cold and Mrs. Edison has been excused from jury service because of it.

The wife of the inventor was to have been foreman of Essex county's second feminine jury, which convened yesterday. Her place was filled by Mrs. Edith Colby, wife of Former Senator Everett Colby, after the judge had granted her request to be released so she might remain at home with Mr. Edison.

"NOW-A-DAYS"
says the Good Judge

A man can get a heap more satisfaction from a small chew of this class of tobacco, than he ever could get from a big chew of the old kind.

He finds it costs less, too. The good tobacco taste lasts so much longer he doesn't need to have a fresh chew nearly as often.

Any man who uses the Real Tobacco Chew will tell you that.

Unlimited power to perfect Troco

Mr. A. E. Hoffman, the butter expert who supervises the production of Troco, has unlimited power in this work.

His authority is absolute and his requirements exacting. He naturally demands the best to get the best results.

These results are—perfected Troco—a new wonderfully sweet and delicately flavored Troco—the fancy brand of nut margarin.

We built a new plant

To give Mr. Hoffman every facility we built a new up-to-the-minute plant.

30 years experience

For over 30 years Mr. Hoffman has made and judged butter and taught butter making at leading dairy schools.

This experience taught him to perfect Troco, since it is churned like butter with coconut fat replacing butter fat.

If you are particular about food products—if you appreciate true delicacy and sweetness of flavor, specify Troco.

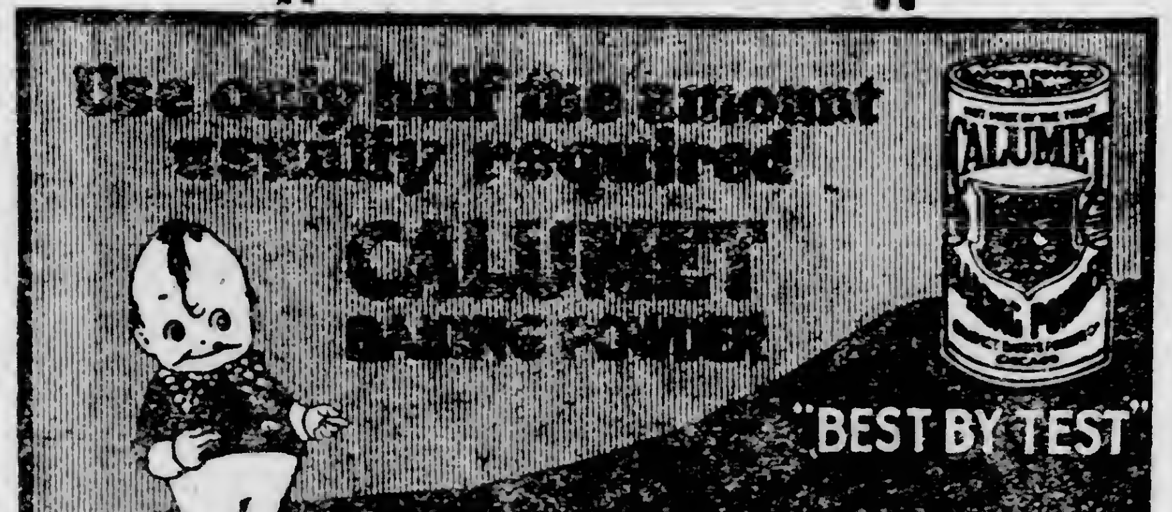
YOU don't use as much of Calumet as you do of most other Baking Powders. It has more than ordinary leavening strength. You save about half.

You don't pay a big price for Calumet. It's sold at a moderate price—that represents another saving.

You don't feel uncertain as to results. Bakings never fail—because Calumet never falls below the proven standard of "Best by Test."



It possesses the highest quality ever put into a Baking Powder. Contains only such ingredients as have been officially endorsed by United States Food Authorities.

For weeks, for months, it keeps as fresh and full of strength as the day it left the Calumet Factories, the World's Largest, most Sanitary and Modern Baking Powder plants.

Pound can of Calumet contains full 16 oz. Some baking powders come in 12 oz. instead of 16 oz. cans. Be sure you get a pound when you want it.

Calumet Gold Cake Recipe

Yolks of 8 eggs, 1¼ cups of granulated sugar, ⅔ cup of water, ½ cup of butter, 2½ cups pastry flour, 3 level teaspoons Calumet Baking Powder, 1 tablespoon of vanilla. Then mix in the regular way.

MRS. NANCY SHARP of Los Angeles, Cal., who says she received one of the greatest surprises of her life when Tanlac completely restored her health after she had almost lost hope of ever getting well. Declares she suffered for twelve long years.

"After seeing the wonderful results my husband obtained from Tanlac I began taking the medicine myself, and now we both agree that it is the grandest medicine on earth," said Mrs. Nancy Sharp, a prominent and highly esteemed resident of Los Angeles, Cal., living at 921 Camulus street, whose husband is proprietor of the Merchants' Express Co.

"During the twelve years that I suffered with indigestion and stomach trouble I tried nearly every medicine I heard about, but nothing helped me and I lost faith in everything. So my wonderful restoration to health has been one of the greatest surprises of my life.

"I began to feel an improvement on finishing my second bottle of Tanlac, and now after taking six bottles I am like a new woman. I have a splendid appetite, eat three hearty meals a day, enjoy them thoroughly and am never troubled in the least with indigestion or any other disagreeable after effects.

"Before taking Tanlac most everything I ate caused my stomach to rebel and I would suffer for hours afterwards. I was so dreadfully nervous that many nights I never closed my eyes in sleep, but now I am not in the least nervous and I sleep like a child. My strength has been wonderfully increased, and I have much more energy.

"I just wish it was so everybody troubled like I was knew about this wonderful medicine."

wonders in quieting the turbulent Arabs and in bringing in civilized conditions. Anyone who knows the Near East cannot fail to rejoice at the British occupation, and most of all the archeologist."

Notwithstanding this hostility to the British, the party determined to push on without protection across the deserts to the Mediterranean. They fortunately found the Arabs friendly to Americans.

One of the prizes brought back to the Chicago Oriental museum is an Assyrian prism chronicling the destruction of Sennacherib's army before Jerusalem. This great Assyrian king had carried a host against Jerusalem and sorely troubled Hezekiah, king of Judah. It is related in the Book of Isaiah that Hezekiah sent for the prophet Isaiah, that Isaiah prophesied that Sennacherib would not enter Jerusalem, but would return to Assyria by the way that he came and that the Assyrian's army suffered a great destruction.

Annals of Sennacherib.

"This is a six-sided prism containing the royal annals of Sennacherib," Dr. Breasted said. "It relates the chief campaigns of his Western wars and chronicles this incident told of in Isaiah. There is a similar prism in the British museum, but ours is three years older, and it is the first in the United States."

A flint knife blade with a sharp edge, which Dr. Breasted characterized as the finest piece of chipped stone known to man, is another of the prizes of the collection. Still another is a small blue vase from Egypt where glass was first used which, the professor said, showed the first artistic use made of glass.

A picture of early Egyptian home life is afforded by a group of twenty-five figures found in an Egyptian tomb. Servants making bread, washing, making music on a drum and doing other familiar things about the house 4,000 or 5,000 years ago go to make up the most complete group of the kind, it is said, that has ever been uncovered in one tomb.

Harding feels grateful to Mr. Lowden for what he did at Chicago and regards him as one of the ablest administrators in the country.

Secretary of war—Gen. John J. Pershing of Nebraska.

Secretary of the navy—Former Senator John W. Weeks of Massachusetts.

Attorney general—Harry M. Daugherty of Ohio, preconvention manager for Senator Harding. If he declines, Former Senator Sutherland of Utah may be selected.

Secretary of interior—Senator Albert B. Fall of New Mexico. He is understood to have made arrangements for the appointment of a successor to the senate in the event that he is asked to take a portfolio in the Harding cabinet. He was one of Mr. Harding's intimate friends in the senate and a personal adviser during the campaign.

Secretary of agriculture—Henry C. Wallace of Des Moines, head of farm publications and the chief counsel to Mr. Harding on agricultural matters during the campaign.

Secretary of labor—Representative Nolan of California or Representative John F. Burke of Pennsylvania.

Postmaster general—Senator Harry New of Indiana or Will Hays of Indiana.

Secretary of commerce—Walter Dickey of Kansas City, Mo., who is being backed by Jake Hammond of Oklahoma, one of the members of the Harding group who is largely credited with the success of Harding in Oklahoma this year; A. Tobias Hert of Kentucky, who was one of the original Lowden men and helped at the psychological moment at Chicago to nominate Harding; Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., who is being urged as a splendid representative of the progressive elements in the Republican party.

Subject to Change.

Now every cabinet slate is like a railroad time table subject to change without notice. The alternates mentioned in the foregoing list may be replaced by others, depending upon the lineup of states and other factors. For instance, Senator New is a close friend of Senator Harding and headed the speakers' bureau during the campaign. He is said to be apprehensive about renomination for the senate as Beveridge is believed to be getting ready to oppose him in the primaries. Therefore diplomatic conversations are proceeding with an eye to appointing New to the postmaster generalship provided the governor of Indiana will ap Will Hays to the senate. It's all a question of whether Mr. Hays wants to be in the cabinet or the senate. It looks as if he would be in either the legislative or executive branch of the government under the next administration. Moreover, Mr. Hert is formerly of Indiana and the contest for the department of commerce seems to be between Kentucky and Missouri, with Indiana demanding some voice in the selection. On the other hand there is a clamor for Raymond Robins, Gifford Pinchot and other Progressives. Some of Senator Harding's friends are discussing the possibility of appeasing this sentiment by appointing to the cabinet the son of the man who started the Progressive movement in 1912—Theodore Roosevelt.

Meanwhile Senator Harding's scouts are busy conferring with the leaders of the Republican party in the hope that the slate may be agreed upon for submission to Senator Harding when he arrives in Virginia after his trip to Panama.

such further authority as might be necessary to achieve that end.

Mr. Devlin arose and asked why it was that when Sir Hamar was asked a question he recited the horrible occurrences which had happened Sunday and yet said nothing about the appearance of a military force at the football match. He was interrupted with loud cries of "sit down!"

Mr. Devlin refused and the altercation followed. After order had been restored Sir Hamar said that although he had not been asked that question, he was willing to reply, and said:

Murders Planned.

"The authorities have reason to believe that Sinn Fein gunmen came to Dublin Sunday under the guise of attending the match in order to carry out the murders. Consequently, a mixed force surrounded the grounds. This force was fired on, and in firing back killed ten and wounded others."

Sir Hamar also gave details of the finding of revolvers and the crushing to death of a man and a woman, which latter he regretted. Earlier in the session, in reply to a question regarding Sunday's events, Sir Hamar said he hoped "that this series of cold-blooded, carefully planned atrocities would bring vividly before the house and the public the cruel reality of the Irish situation." "We are fighting," he said, "an organized band of paid assassins, whose plans, recently discovered, included destruction of life and property in this country as well as in Ireland."

As to present conditions in Dublin, he stated he had received a telegram saying everything was apparently normal, no fresh disturbances having developed.

There was a passage at arms between Jeremiah MacVeagh, Nationalist member for South Down, and Sir Edward Carson, the Ulster leader, during which Sir Edward called the Nationalist a "liar" for saying Sir Edward had "begun the use of rifles" in Ireland. Bonar Law, the government leader, brought peace by announcing that Wednesday would be given over for a discussion of the Irish question in the house of commons.

Sore Throat Chest Colds

Won't Last Many Hours When Begy's Mustarine Gets on the Job.

No mustard plaster that any grandmother ever made goes after inflammation and congestion like Begy's Mustarine, that you can buy at any drug store in a yellow box for 30 cents, and, best of all, there isn't one blister in a whole carload.

Ofttimes when you rub it on at night the inflammation is gone in the morning.

But if it isn't all gone, the relief you prayed for is certain.

And it acts just as fast when used for lumbago, neuralgia, the pains of rheumatism and gout or for sore, aching feet.

In fact, for all aches and pains, soreness and swellings, nothing you can buy at any drug store will produce the hoped-for result as quickly as Begy's Mustarine, in the yellow box—made of real yellow mustard. It's the Quickest Pain Killer on Earth.

Wm. A. Abbett Drug Co., White Swan Drug Store can supply you.

HEADS COLORED PEOPLE'S IMPROVEMENT BRANCH

RAYMOND MERRY.

Raymond Merry, who was recently elected president of the Duluth branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, was formerly secretary of the Negro Business league, one of the largest national colored organizations in the country. The league was one of the activities most actively sponsored by the late Booker T. Washington.

Mr. Merry was born in Clarville, Tenn., and was graduated from Clarksville university. He was an instructor at Fisk university for eight years, and is now connected with the Duluth postoffice.

Mr. Merry will assume his new office on Jan. 1. Other members of the newly elected executive committee are Mrs. Laura Colby, Mrs. Dovie Dawson, Rev. W. M. Majors and Miss Jessie Williams. Mrs. Merry is organist at St. Mark's Methodist church. Mr. and Mrs. Merry have two children.

Above all, no one would give any indications as to his personal sympathies. It was universally agreed, however, that the situation was most delicate, and the spark which might produce the long feared conflagration was momentarily expected.

In general, the life of Dublin was apparently unaffected, street cars were running today, nearly all shops were open and theaters and amusement houses were doing business.

Forces engaged in searching residences and business places were accompanied by armored cars which carried machine guns. Men charged with attacking a military patrol were court-martialed at Marlborough barracks today, and warm tributes were paid by attorneys on each side to the integrity and fair play displayed by Capt. Bagally, one of the officers slain on Sunday morning.

Merely Sightseers.

Pittsburgh, Pa., Nov. 23.—William P. Clark, president of the American Flint Glass Workers' union, and T. W. McCreary, general superintendent of the Phoenix Glass company, Monaca, Pa., were sent to Europe a month ago, to investigate the glass industry. Friends here said neither Mr. Clark nor Mr. McCreary were interested officially in Irish internal affairs, and ventured the opinion that their visit to Croke Park in Dublin was probably the result of a desire to see the scene of Sunday's shooting, and had no other significance.

To Arrest Gunmen.

Dublin, Nov. 23.—Crown forces which went to Croke park on Sunday afternoon in an effort to arrest alleged gunmen, were fired upon by pickets, and as a result of the resultant fighting the crowd inside the park stampeded, said a statement issued at Dublin Castle late last night in reference to the incident at the park.

"It had been arranged," said the statement, "that when the grounds had been surrounded an officer with a megaphone would announce to the crowd the intention of the military to search persons in the park for arms, because it was the belief that men associated with the murder of fourteen officers Sunday morning were hiding in the crowd. An officer was detailed for that purpose but before the crown forces could approach the field, they were fired upon by pickets. Thus the whole plan was upset, and the crowd was stampeded. There is good reason to believe some of the shots were fired inside the grounds for the purpose of creating a panic, which would allow the men wanted to escape as many of them "undoubtedly did."

Denied by Association.

The Gaelic Athletic association has officially denied there were any pickets at the grounds, or that anybody fired on the troops.

Wieman Clarke of Toledo, Ohio, president of the American Glass Workers' union, and Thomas McCreary, superintendent of the Phoenix Glass company, Monaca, Pa., visited Croke Park today and inquired into the circumstances attending the disorder of Sunday afternoon.

Military authorities commandeered the city hall for troops, and the men occupied all the offices except those assigned to the town clerks. It was explained the legitimate work of the corporation would not be interfered with, but that the place was wanted for the accommodation of soldiers. The lord mayor is arranging with officials to seek accommodations elsewhere.

Attack Feared.

A possible attack upon the mansion house was feared by the lord mayor last night, since on previous occasions it has been under assault by troops. He applied for police protection, expecting metropolitan police would be sent but military officers stated none of these patrolmen, or ordinary policemen were available and sent "black and tans" which gave rise to a belief that the mansion house had been again raided.

The central and legislative hotels were both cleared of guests today and are occupied by soldiers. Officers residing in private houses have been recalled to their barracks. No trains ran into Dublin today, not even the morning mail from Kingstown Pier arriving, and passengers from England came into the city in cabs.

ORGANIZING NAVAL RESERVE FORCE HERE

First steps toward the organization of a naval reserve force, similar to the Minnesota naval militia, which existed before the war, were taken at a meeting last night at the Armory under the direction of Capt. Guy A. Eaton.

Another meeting has been called for next Monday night. The remainder of the discharges for the former militia men will be distributed at that time. New recruits for the naval reserve are also asked to attend the meeting.

It is Capt. Eaton's plan to establish in Duluth the First, Second and Fourth divisions of the First battalion in the state's naval reserve. The first two divisions will comprise about 100 men each. The fourth will be an engineering division. The Third division of the Fourth battalion is located at Pine City. Three other battalions are being formed throughout the state.

Men who have never served in the navy or the naval militia before will receive the equivalent of two months' pay for drilling thirty-six times during the year. The minimum amount paid will be $120. In addition, the men will receive the regular pay while on a two weeks' cruise each summer. Those who enter the reserve through re-enrollment will received 25 per cent above the base pay for each re-enrollment. The term of enrollment is four years.

The First division will hold drills at the Armory each Monday night and the Second division on Thursday night. The force will not be divided into separate divisions, however, until more recruits are obtained.

Another Slump in Flour.

Minneapolis, Minn., Nov. 23.—In line with yesterday's break in the wheat market, flour extended its decline of yesterday with an additional break today of 20 cents in the price for family patents. Although one large mill's quotations were unchanged, another flour house reduced their price to $8.40 a barrel from $8.60. Quotations in the flour market here today range from $8.40 to $9.00 a barrel.

HAD BAD COUGH AND PAINS IN HER LUNGS

All Well Now, Gaining Weight and Strength; Does Own Housework.

"Last September I took a heavy cold, I kept getting worse, until finally I had pains in my bronchial tubes and all through my lungs. I had a bad cough, could not sleep at night, and was so sore through my lungs that I could hardly stand it. I consulted three different doctors and took their medicine, but did not get any better. I suffered death a hundred times. One doctor told me I had a deep cold in the walls of my lungs. Another said I had bronchial trouble. He kept changing my medicine and burned me all over with electricity.

"I read in the paper about Milks Emulsion helping other people, so I thought I would try it. While I have only taken four small bottles, my lungs do not hurt me any more. My cough is gone and I have gained 4 pounds, and I am still gaining. I was able to do the first washing today that I have done since last September. In fact, I am now doing my work with pleasure and feel like it is a dream that I have my health again."—Mrs. Lida E. Schilds, 672 Congress St., Toledo, Ohio.

Milks Emulsion is a pleasant, nutritive food and a corrective medicine. It restores healthy, natural bowel action, doing away with all need of pills and physics. It promotes appetite and quickly puts the digestive organs in shape to assimilate food. It helps build flesh and strength, and is a powerful aid in resisting and repairing the effects of wasting diseases.

This is the only solid emulsion made, and so palatable that it is eaten with a spoon like ice cream.

No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try Milks Emulsion under this guarantee: Take six bottles home with you, use it according to directions, and if not satisfied with the results your money will be promptly refunded. Price 75c and $1.50 per bottle. The Milks Emulsion Co., Terre Haute, Ind. Sold by druggists everywhere.

HELD FOR PASSING FORGED CHECKS

William Henry Owens, aged 23, Proctor, was arrested yesterday afternoon while standing on the corner of First avenue west and Superior street, on a charge of passing a number of forged checks on Duluth merchants. Detective James L. Bradley made the arrest on descriptions furnished by some of the victims.

Owens is said to have obtained almost $300 from Duluth storekeepers by use of the fraudulent check system. The largest check was passed on S. E. Gittleson, amounting to $67.20. The other checks included one for $37.20 on the Fritz-Cross company; one for $52.15 on the Bellnet Furniture company; one for $56.25 on the Northwestern Trunk company; one for $51.50 on the Burgess Electric company, and one on the Glass Block for $52.70.

At the Glass Block he purchased a pair of women's shoes costing $16.50. These he said were for his wife, who was in the hospital and for whom it was necessary to obtain shoes before she could be removed to her home. Small purchases were made in each of the various stores where the checks were presented.

Owens was arraigned in police court this morning. The specific charge was that of passing a forged check on Mr. Gittleson. He waived examination and was bound over to await the action of the January grand jury. He declared it his intention to plead guilty to information before the district court. Owens is married and father of an infant son.

HURLEY, WIS., JUDGE TO IGNORE SUMMONS

Hurley, Wis., Nov. 23.—(Special to The Herald.)—Although summoned to appear before the Federal grand jury in La Crosse, Judge Griff Thomas of Hurley municipal court, declares he will not go to La Crosse because he "must attend to business at home."

The summons instructed him to "bring with you all liquor, moonshine, mash and stills in your possession in the cases against Angelo Bott, Louis Dedianna, Mrs. Mary Da Pra, and Mike Smilinich." He also was told to bring the criminal docket and complaint and warrant on file against several other persons including Albina Rigolia.

Says "Evidence" Destroyed.

So far as "evidence" is concerned, Judge Griff Thomas asserts all of it has been destroyed, both F. W. Haas, Federal prohibition agent, and Sheriff Mike White taking charge of that work. In some of the cases referred to in the summons, the defendants were dismissed for lack of evidence and others were finally disposed of in court.

Some time ago Judge Thomas was instructed by United States district attorneys to prosecute liquor cases with the understanding that he was to "proceed to the end" and that they be handled exclusively by the court in which the cases were started.

GIRLS FROM AUSTRIA MARRY AT IRONWOOD

Ironwood, Mich., Nov. 23.—(Special to The Herald.)—Miss Mary Babich, who two weeks ago came here from Austria, and Miss Anna Smelchich who arrived here from the same country two months ago, were married here Monday to John Osterman and John Grezan, respectively. Osterman is an Ironwood resident and Grezan lives in Hurley.

The romance in each case dates back to prewar days when the bridegrooms lived in Austria, but emigrated to the United States to make a home before sending for their wives-to-be.

Colgate Left $6,000,000.

New York, Nov. 23.—Nearly $6,000,000 was left by Richard H. Colgate at his death in Orange, N. J., it was learned yesterday when the result of the official appraisal of the toilet article manufacturer's estate was placed on file by the deputy state comptroller. The bulk of the legacy was willed in equal shares to his wife, Mrs. Margaret A. Colgate; his son, Henry A., and his daughter, Muriel Colgate.

VIRGINIA DUO HELD ON DISORDERLY CHARGE

Sam Sabich and Lydia Ekholm, both of Virginia, were arrested yesterday by Immigration Inspector O. S. Remington on charges of being, respectively, keeper and inmate of a disorderly house. They have been released on $1,000 bond apiece pending a hearing next week before Mr. Remington to determine whether they should be deported. Sabich came here from Jugo-Slavia while the Ekholm woman is from Finland.

Cranberries The Fruit For Every Meal!

Cranberries are good themselves and make other foods taste good!

At breakfast—try cranberry jelly on hot biscuits or toast; it is surprisingly good!

For lunch—with cold cuts—cranberry sauce makes the most delicious relish.

For dinner—with roast beef—cranberry sauce adds a piquant flavor and aids digestion.

Try these recipes:

Cranberry Jelly

Cook until soft the desired quantity of cranberries with 1½ pints of water for each two quarts of berries. Strain the juice through a jelly bag.

Measure the juice and heat it to the boiling point. Add one cup of sugar for every two cups of juice; stir until the sugar is dissolved; boil briskly for five minutes; skim, and pour into glass tumblers, porcelain or crockery molds.

Cranberry Sauce

One quart cranberries, two cups boiling water, 1½ to 2 cups sugar. Boil sugar and water together for five minutes; skim; add the cranberries and boil without stirring (five minutes is usually sufficient) until all the skins are broken. Remove from the fire when the popping stops.

Cranberry Pie

Have ready a partly baked pastry shell. Pour in sauce when cold, made by the above sauce recipe, put strips of pastry over the top, and finish baking in a moderate oven.

Cook cranberries in porcelain-lined, enameled or aluminum vessels—never in tin.

To be sure of a selection of the choicest, cultivated varieties—ask for EATMOR CRANBERRIES.

A recipe folder, containing many ways to use and preserve cranberries, will be sent free on request.

GUARD THE PRIMARY SYSTEM.

Judge Hughes's remark in a speech the other day that it would be folly to take away the primary election system and restore the old convention system is a reminder that Minnesota must be on its guard once more against the scheme to do that very thing in this state.

It may seem incredible in view of the vivid demonstration America had this last summer of the way politicians in convention impudently ignore the public will, but plans to kill Minnesota's primary and restore the debased and discredited convention are well under way, and will be in evidence as soon as the legislature convenes.

The ostensible reason this time, as it was two years ago, is to protect the Republican party against the Nonpartisan league.

As to that, the Republicans seem able, with Democratic help when they need it, to prevent the Townley people from capturing their ticket under the present primary system.

And since the only thing that makes Townleyism dangerous is its popularity, which didn't turn out to be as great as most people had thought, it is impossible to guard election processes by artificial means against such influences without at the same time putting election processes in such "close corporation" control that ANY popular movement, however needed, could be balked.

And as to preventing the victory of undesirable candidates and causes, there are only two alternatives: First, to depend upon public enlightenment and common sense, which has worked very well in this state so far; or, second, to shape the election laws so a committee of "our best citizens"—meaning, of course, those with the largest property interests—will act as a board of censors to exclude all candidates and causes that are not pleasing to them.

Minnesota's primary law needs a few changes, but they should be made by the friends of the primary system, not by its enemies. The legislative error that omitted the old law forbidding candidates beaten at the primaries to run independent should be corrected. The nine o'clock closing of the polls is too late, and the old hour of seven should be restored for both primary and generel elections.

Otherwise, not much change is needed. Perhaps the Republican wish to keep voters in their own party primaries might be met; and yet in two successive elections the fact that Democrats could vote Republican primary ballots was all that saved the Republican party from falling into Townley's control. And too rigid party requirements would deny a voice in nominations to that increasing horde of voters who don't care enough about either party to tie themselves up in one or the other.

But whatever is done, the principle of the direct popular primary election should be protected and preserved. The rank and file should no more be denied a voice in making nominations than they should be denied a voice in electing public officials.

A MICAWBER TRANSACTION.

By 1923 this country must pay or refund eight billion dollars' worth of bonds or savings stamps.

That's one reason taxes remain high—because money has to be levied to meet these payments.

Congressman McFadden of Pennsylvania, chairman of the house committee on banking and currency, has a scheme.

First, he would repeal the excess profits tax—a plan that will meet with universal approval. But,

Second, he would adopt no new means of raising revenue in place of it,

Third, instead of levying a sinking fund to pay off this eight billion dollars' worth of indebtedness, he would convert the whole debt due within the next three years into a long-term issue, say of fifteen years, and he would insure the success of the operation by offering the new bonds at an attractive rate of interest.

There will be many who will agree with this plan. They will say that it is wise to relieve the country of this burden until the process of reconstruction and rehabilitation of business and finance is safely over—until, in other words, the country has sobered up.

But there will be others who, thinking a little farther, will question what the effect of eight billion dollars' worth of bonds at "attractive" rates of interest would be on the general investment market; what it would do to the market prices of Liberty bonds that bring only four and a quarter per cent; and what it would do to interest rates.

And there will be others who will be reminded of the business methods of our old friend Micawber, who, owing a debt, would cheerfully give his note of hand for the amount due and beam benevolently, believing that he had paid his debt and treated his debtor as generously as though he had handed him the hard cash.

> One thorn of experience is worth a whole wilderness of learning.

THAT WORD "OR" SEEMS TO BE THE TROUBLE.

Another death from fast truck driving, and constantly narrow escapes.

Occasionally somebody gets arrested for it, and even sentenced to be punished for it; but that doesn't seem to stop the practice. Drivers of automobiles and trucks who care more about speed than they do about human limbs and lives seem cheerfully to pay their fines and start right in again.

The usual form of sentence imposed is something like this: "So many dollars' fine OR so many days at the work farm."

Isn't the whole trouble in that word "or"?

If a few got sentences without the "or"—fine AND imprisonment, or just straight imprisonment—wouldn't it moderate materially the enthusiasm for speeding?

And is anything else imaginable likely to moderate it?

ST. JAMES ORPHANAGE.

Nor should we forget the St. James Orphanage, that other beautiful institution that mothers the motherless and succors the fatherless.

Thursday afternoon St. James has its annual reception and "shower"—this time a stocking shower—from three to six. With the Right Reverend John T. McNicholas, bishop of Duluth, present to receive visitors, the Orphanage will have a holiday open house to which its friends are invited.

And though this is a "stocking shower," nobody need stop at stockings if he wishes to go beyond them, though stockings are important, as anybody who has to provide them for active boys and girls will realize. "Anything," say those in charge of the shower, "that will tend to brighten or make happier the small people at the home will be gratefully received."

Your Thanksgiving dinner will rest more comfortably and do you a lot more good if, afterward, you drop into the St. James Orphanage, gift in hand, to do your bit toward making brighter the lives of the little ones who are the beneficiaries of the tender care of this fine institution.

KEEP HIM ON THE JOB.

J. R. Batchelor, city recreational director, has an attractive offer from the general Y. M. C. A. organization, which wants him badly enough to give him more salary than Duluth is paying. That's a pleasant tribute to Mr. Batchelor, and shows that others besides us appreciate the kind of work he does and the way he does it.

But what about Duluth letting him go? As an organizer of the good cheer and good spirits that are as essential to a contented and right-minded community as they are to a contented and right-minded individual, he is a man Duluth could ill afford to do without.

The Herald hopes that the city commissioners will find it possible to keep him on the job, continuing to do the good work that is helping so much to make Duluth a cheerful and contented community.

Peter's Vision of Christ

To Peter by night the faithfulest came
And said "We appeal to thee!
The life of the church is in thy life;
We pray thee to rise and flee.

"For the tyrant's hands are red with blood,
And his arm is heavy with power;
Thy head, the head of the church, will fall,
If thou tarry in Rome an hour!"

Through the sleeping town Saint Peter passed,
To the wide Campagna plain;
In the starry light of the Alban night
He drew free breath again;

When across his path an awful form
In luminous glory stood;
His thorn-crowned brow his hands and feet
Were wet with immortal blood.

The godlike sorrow which filled his eyes
Seemed changed to a godlike wrath
As they turned on Peter who cried aloud
And sank to his knees in the path.

"Lord of my life, my love, my soul!
Say, what wilt thou with me?"
A voice replied, "I go to Rome
To be crucified for thee."

The apostle sprang, all flushed, to his feet—
The vision had passed away;
The light still lay on the dewy plain,
But the sky in the east was gray.

To the city walls Saint Peter turned,
And his heart in his breast grew fire;
In every vein the hot blood burned
With the strength of a high desire.

And sturdily back he marched to his death
Of terrible pain and shame;
And never a shade of fear again
To the stout apostle came.

—John Hay.

The California Land Law

Editorial in the Louisville Courier-Journal

As was generally expected the people of California, by a three-to-one vote, approved the anti-alien land law in the referendum on Tuesday. The new law is an extension of the provisions of the law of 1913 and its purpose is to prevent the leasing of agricultural lands by aliens who are not eligible to citizenship under the laws of the United States.

The land act of 1913 permitted aliens to lease lands in California for agricultural purposes for a term not exceeding three years. This privilege is taken away by the new law, which prohibits such lease either by the alien or by any company, association or corporation, the majority of whose members are aliens, or when they hold a majority of the stock of such concerns.

The action of California has called forth a protest from the Japanese authorities on the ground that the land act is contrary to the provisions of the treaty of 1911 between the United States and Japan. According to the terms of this treaty the citizens or subjects of each nation have the liberty to enter and reside in the territories of the other and there "to carry on trade, * * * to lease and occupy houses, manufactories, warehouses and shops, * * * and to lease lands for residential and commercial purposes * * * upon the same terms as native citizens or subjects, submitting themselves to the laws and regulations there established."

The people of California contend that the land act is not inconsistent with or in violation of the terms of the treaty because agricultural lands are not included in the right "to lease lands for residential and commercial purposes." Whether there is a conflict the state must, of course, give way. The California law clearly states that aliens may acquire lands or stock in corporations "in the manner and to the extent and for the purpose" prescribed by the treaty, but not otherwise. The state department held that the law of 1913 was not in violation of the treaty of 1911 and a similar construction will probably be placed on the present law.

The matter will doubtless be considered in the negotiations now under way, or soon to begin, between the United States and Japan. The probabilities are that the Japanese protests are intended only as a smoke screen behind which that nation may strengthen its position in China. The question of racial equality has been used in this manner on previous occasions. Japan's great interest lies in the Far East. It is more concerned in the renewal of the Anglo-Japanese alliance, and this will probably be effected soon now the United States has decided to remain out of the League of Nations.

While some objections or protests may be expected from Japana, therefore, over the California question they need not be taken too seriously. If the California law does conflict with the treaty it can easily be set aside by the supreme court. If not, the Californians have the right to regulate land holding in their state as they now propose to do.

Harding's Opportunity

Louisville Courier-Journal: The accuracy of certain forecasts during the recent campaign by the Courier-Journal is made plain by the following letter from George Sylvester Viereck to the Springfield Republican:

> In your issue of Nov. 5 there appears under the heading, "Felicitations," my message to Senator Harding. This message was dictated over the phone. It seems to me that either the stenographer of the telegrapher sadly mixed up my sentences. I certainly did not say that 6,000,000 Americans of German descent cast their votes for Harding and Governor Cox. I did say that I rejoice that 6,000,000 Americans of German descent cast their vote for Harding, as I foretold in my messages to Harding and Cox.
> I also rejoiced in the fact that Harding enters the White House a free man, under obligations to no group, ethnic or economic. I know of no American of German descent who voted for the Wilson-Cox ticket.

Says the Republican:

> No one will dispute him (Viereck). The election returns indicate that 6,000,000 Americans of German origin voted against Cox, meaning Wilson. * * * Hindenburg, two years after the armistice, is quoted as saying American attacks in the Argonne * * * actually won the war.
> What Hindenburg credits America with having done explains in part the huge plurality of Mr. Harding. * * * These 6,000,000 voters, whose spokesman Viereck professes to be, began their political reprisals in the congressional elections in 1918. * * * President Wilson is the first American president to be stabbed to death with the powerful aid of hyphenated Americanism. It is a fact of historical moment and a political portent of which the last has not been heard.

President-elect Harding should not feel indebted to the 6,000,000 hyphenates for their vote. It was a vote cast for revenge; cast against Woodrow Wilson rather than for Warren G. Harding. Therefore Mr. Harding should not feel under obligations to "any ethnic group." He has an excellent opportunity to prove his Americanism by showing that he recognizes no obligation to 6,000,000 voters whose ballots were cast to record venom against America as a deciding factor in the defeat of Germany.

Rippling Rhymes

By WALT MASON.

The Great Blessing

I had a weary siege of sickness that called for pink and purple pills; my humble roll lost all its thickness when I had paid the doctors' bills. And pharmacists and well trained nurses were chasing to me up the road, and undertakers with their hearses were hanging round my sad abode. Now I am feeling vastly better, the gout and mumps have left my frame, likewise lumbago, croup and tetter, though rheumatiz still plays its game. No longer do I wear a plaster, there is no poultice on my form, and I'm not scared by bleak disaster, or by the ills that round me swarm. If one has health he is a craven to talk of grief and trouble sore, and croak, like Edgar Allen's raven, such balderdash as "Nevermore." Health is the only thing that matters, beside it other boons are vain, and men are surely mad as hatters who kick when they are free from pain. Recovered from my indigestion, and convalescent from the itch, I face my tasks without a question, and life seems full and sweet and rich. Yes, ugly problems crowd around me, and threats and things invade my den, but they can't daunt me or confound me, for I am feeling well again.

American Murder

By Savoyard.

Washington, Nov. 23.—(Special to The Herald.)—Raymond B. Fosdick has been investigating the matter and finds that New York city of some 6,000,000 inhabitants turns out more murders, burglaries and robberies than all England and Wales combined with a population exceeding 30,000,000. There are several reasons for this condition, chief of which is that in England the criminal laws are enforced, while in America those laws are constantly defied and violated. For instance, in every state of our glorious Union there is a statute forbidding the carrying concealed upon the person deadly weapons. As I write that law is being violated with absolute impunity.

Some years ago a man in London, a physician I believe, and an American citizen, murdered his wife, an actress on the histrionic stage. He buried her body in the cellar of his residence and his crime was concealed until his lease of the premises expired, and because of a change of ownership he was unable to renew it. He fled the realm, taking passage on a vessel bound for Montreal, Canada. The new tenant immediately discovered the remains of the murdered woman, and a cable message was sent across the ocean that caused the arrest of the suspect and his return to England.

In less than six weeks that man was indicted, tried, convicted, sentenced and executed. Had that murder occurred in any American state it is possible, barely possible, that the murderer would have paid the penalty of the crime; but it would have taken years to accomplish it. In America it is a poor criminal lawyer who cannot secure the postponement of a murder trial three or four terms of court. Thus the crime is almost forgotten when the trial is ultimately had, and witnesses are scattered, or tampered with. But that is not all. In England the judge on the bench selects the jury in a murder trial; in America the counsel for the defense selects the jury. That is how it comes that in England more than 90 per cent of those accused of murder are convicted, while in America more than 90 per cent of those thus accused are acquitted, and for that very reason Judge Lynch has no jurisdiction in England while in America his jurisdiction extends from ocean to ocean. The mob spirit is flagrant in every community of every state and the sole reason why there are not as many lynchings in New England as there are at the South is that New England's population is dense and there is police protection there owing to the density of the population.

The mob spirit is there as you daily read in the newspapers that tell of culprits rescued from mobs by the police. Even in the staid old town of Chester, Pa., the mob spirit was rampant some years ago.

Next to the rigid enforcement of the criminal laws the best way to avert murders is to tax every pistol out of existence the barrel of which is less than eighteen inches long. The concealed pistol is responsible for more than one-half of the homicides, some 10,000 in number, annually, in our glorious Union. After years of agony whisky, that lends incentive to murder, has been abolished by constitutional amendment; but there is practically free and unlimited trade in the pistol that is the instrument of murder.

As I write millions of our fellow-citizens are armed with pistols who would be safer if they had no pistol and tens of thousands of personal difficulties that arise are precipitated because one or both parties to the row is armed. For defense a shotgun is a better weapon than a pistol. But the pistol is a weapon of offense, not defense, in more than 90 per cent of the occasions when it is employed in personal encounters.

Congress will be busy hunting things to tax. The pistol is an excellent thing to tax, and the higher the tax at the factory where it is made the better. Tax it out of existence.

The Science of Tomorrow

Scientific American: Every age sees a new science—a whole body of phenomena and of the principles that govern them—developed where previously we had not even been conscious that there was a void in our knowledge. In the eighteenth century it was electricity; in the nineteenth, psychology. In the twentieth, it will be the field to which the rather unsatisfactory name of psychic has been attached.

We make this statement without any reference to the question of personal survival or that of communication with those alleged so to have survived. But the fact can hardly be escaped that there is a growing fund of well authenticated phenomena which are explained by no natural law yet formulated, and which seem to require that we postulate the existence of some force operated, consciously or unconsciously, by the human brain. Nobody, for instance, can deny the phenomenon of hypnosis. No careful person is going to deny categorically the accumulating evidence that there really is some sort of communication between individuals widely separated in space, to which the general name of mind reading or through transference or telepathy has been provisionally applied. We think we may, without being accused of having fallen victim to the postwar hysteria, suggest that when all cases of fraud and hypnosis have been ruled out, there is a residuum of material demonstrations of an as yet intangible force—things to which the hateful names of spirit rapping, table tipping, levitation, etc., must be applied until we get a more respectable term to take their collective place.

On all these grounds we are inclined to predict that there exists a force, operated through action of the human brain, that is capable of producing sensible effects upon another brain. The science of tomorrow will tell us what this force is and will give us a control over it which may turn out to be as complete as our control over the electric impulses which today we shoot through the ether in utter defiance of all the experiment and all the knowledge and all the common sense of a generation ago.

Lenine Doubly Vindicated

New York Evening Post: It is not a race between the League of Nations and Bolshevism in the sense that Bolshevism is now an imminent danger to Western and Central Europe. The military victories of the soviets cannot brush away the truth which has been coming out of Russia concerning what sovietism means in practice. Bolshevism will be confined to Russia. But there is no meaning to all this talk about destroying Bolshevism in Russia in a war of "ideas." If western civilization has no great affirmative idea to set up against Bolshevism, Lenine will not be shaken out of power in Russia as long as he can point to the outside world refusing to learn the lessons of the war.

There is rumor of trade resumption with Russia, of possible recognition for the soviets, when Mr. Harding becomes president. But there is to be no recognition for Wilsonism! If the enemies of the league have their way, it will be a double recognition for Bolshevism. The Lenine idea will be vindicated in Russia. The league will be destroyed outside of Russia.

America's absence from Geneva is an added comfort to Moscow in its celebration of military victory.

By William Brady, M. D.

Fish Versus Meat

For all practical purposes fish is meat. Salmon is as nourishing as beef. Haddock is as nourishing as chicken, mackerel is as nourishing as veal, and only cod is somewhat less nourishing, pound for pound, than round steak.

The late George W. Perkins carried on, in a quiet way, many practical philanthropies. Among other things he launched an effort to increase the supply of fish in the markets of the country, hoping thereby to encourage the more general use of fish and incidentally to lower the demand for and the price of meat. To this end he had made considerable headway in acquiring a controlling interest in fisheries, cold storage plants and the other impedimenta of the trade, both about the seacoast and about the Great Lakes. How much influence Mr. Perkins' initial impetus may yet have on the public's consumption of fish remains to be seen. The work is to be carried on.

It would be a wholesome custom to have three Fridays or fish days every week instead of one. Many families do not know the goodness of fish in the bill of fare simply because the housewife does not study this market or strive to enlarge her knowledge of the resources available in the fish market.

The inland sections of the country, all around the extensive Great Lakes basin, should be amply supplied with sea fish particularly, and will be if the people will learn to use this valuable and comparatively cheap food. I say sea food should be more freely used here because of the great prevalence of simple goiter among children in this area. It is all but proved that the reason why so many girls from 10 to 18 years of age develop goiter through the Middle West is because their food does not supply sufficient natural food iodine. Sea food supplies this essential substance.

Prejudice against fish as a substitute for animal flesh in the dietary rests upon three frail fancies: (1) It is wrongly imagined that animal flesh is more "strengthening" than fish; (2) fish was not an attractive item as marketed far from the source in years past—but rapid transit and cold storage now correct this drawback; (3) the average housewife has no knowledge of the value of the many varieties of fish available in different seasons of the year, because she just ignores this important source of cheap food.

Limiting fish day to Friday means that fish men must make enough profit from sales for one day to pay their expenses for the whole week. Therefore, a demand for fish on other days would surely bring down the price of fish. And if people will learn not to order fish out of season, cold storage costs will be greatly diminished.

A fourth objection sometimes offered against fish is unappetizing cooking. That is the fault of the cook, not of the fish. In good cooking there is no such word as "fishy."

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS.

Care of the Hair.

1. Should the scalp be brushed when there is abundance of oil? 2. Is is better to use a brush or a fine comb? 3. How often should the hair be washed? (Mrs. M. J. K.)

Answer: 1. Yes. 2. A brush. 3. Once or twice a week if very oily; once in two weeks, if the scalp is not oily.

Sweaty Hands.

Please let me know what I can do for hands that perspire excessively, not from nervousness, but all the time. (D. B.)

Answer: In some cases mopping the hands with a solution of half an ounce of aluminum chloride in three ounces of distilled or rain water every alternate day gives relief. In other cases this astringent application is more satisfactory:

Benzoic acid	1½ drams
Tannic acid	1 dram
Petrolatum	2 ounces

Apply some to the hands once a day for four or five days, then discontinue until further need.

Healthful Underwear.

What is the hest and most healthful material for underwear in the winter—wool, silk, linen or cotton? Also what is the best material for socks? Should they be light or dark in color, and light or heavy in weight? (H. A. S.)

Answer: Wool most nearly approaches the underwear our primeval ancestors wore—hair. Wool is most healthful, in my opinion. Silk is second choice. Wool and silk mixed is good, and comfortable for a sensitive skin. The materials should be porous, such as the usual machine knitted material of underwear today, never the ancient tightly woven flannels. The lightest weight possible, with regard for personal comfort. The same applies to socks.

Just a Moment

Daily Strength and Cheer.

Compiled by John G. Quinius, the Sunshine Man, Dayton, Ohio.

Almighty God, I bless Thee that Thy banner over us is love. Help us to keep our eyes upon it. May we fight under no other banner, and may all our contentions and strivings be in the spirit of Christian love! Let that love be kindled in my heart today, and let it blaze and burn for Thee.

Almighty God, let Thy good pleasure be my will. Let me have no delights apart from Thine. Let all other joys taste bitter, and let only the holy be sweet. Let me love the lovely and rejoice in its presence.

Heavenly Father, help me to preserve the upward look today. Save me from being ensnared by that which is worldly and mean. Let me move about as a child of the Almighty, and let my citizenship be in heaven. —J. H. Jowett.

Won't Tolerate Reaction

Manchester, N. H., Union (Rep.): Let us hope that the coal men will take this warning to heart. Let us hope that it doesn't make the disastrous mistake of thinking that because the Republican party is about to come into power there is to be a protracted period of reaction in which they can do as they please. No Democratic paper in this country is pointing out the responsibilities of the Republican party so vigorously and specifically as are many of the Republican papers. No party ever came to power in this country with a keener sense of its obligations to the electorate than that which the Republican party has at this moment. It is perfectly true that the party is traditionally opposed to all unnecessary forms of government ownership or control of industry, but we greatly miss our guess if it has any pet theories that it isn't willing to set aside in the face of downright, widespread robbery of the public that may be prevented by a social experiment.

All Right With Them Exceptions

Greensboro, N. C., News: The National Woman's party would be a good name if it were national, or woman's or a party.

Keeping Up With Minnesota Editors

Breezy Comments on Current Topics by State's Live Newspapers.

Fortunately There Are Exceptions

Hokah Chief: Here lies the reason why prices will not go down very much, for a considerable while: The merchants' shelves are loaded with goods bought at a high price and the merchants are not going to lose money on this stock. They have forgotten how they marked up their goods a few years ago and made huge profits, selling low-priced stocks at high prices, and there is nothing they are going to do to jog their memory in this particular. It is a case of "get while the getting is good" with the merchants.

A Gentle Hint

Winnebago City Enterprise: If the men who have been elected to office will remember when they assume the offices to which they have been elected that they are merely servants of the people, and not popular idols raised to great places by an adoring populace, for ornamental purposes only, it will be well for the nation and the state.

They Are Not Always Related

Warroad Pioneer: The price of hides has been low for two years now and people are expecting a reduction in the price of shoes. It is overdue.

A Comforting Thought

St. Peter Herald: Politics cannot kill prosperity. Our country is so great it is bound to prosper, regardless of the political party temporarily in power.

A Good Standard

Virginia Enterprise: Fraternal society men in many places report a great increase of membership and many of them holding extra sessions to keep up with the work.

Joining of a good fraternal society is with many men a first step toward better citizenship. Many thoughtless young fellows who never previously felt they had any civic duties, realize the obligation they owe the community, when they join some order which emphasizes good citizenship. When they associate themselves with industrious and substantial men they set a standard for themselves to live up to.

Irritating But Useful

Minneota Mascot: It is the fellow who differs from us who stimulates us to think. He is the fellow who makes us dig about to find reasons for the faith we possess, he the fellow who keeps us awake; he it is who makes life interesting by contributing variety to the game.

Prejudice Will Never Settle It

Fairmont Sentinel: The League of Nations is still the mightiest problem that ever confronted civilized government and it will continue to overshadow all other questions until a world-wide agreement is reached that will do away with war.

Raising Boys and Girls

Thrift Magazine: The best crop any state or nation can raise is a crop of just plain wholesome boys and girls. What would be the use of working hard to develop a fine country, unless there were some good dependable boys and girls to leave it to?

But boys and girls are more difficult to raise than record-breaking cows or fine horses. Sometimes we get so interested in building up a fine farm, or a great city, that we forget to bring up the kind of children that can be trusted with these wonderful investments and enterprises. We cannot leave the boys and girls to grow up any more than a farmer can turn his cattle loose in the neighborhood and expect to have fine stock in the end.

The youth must be given high ideals, and trained to be honest and dependable men and women. A healthy body can only produce a strong and vigorous mind. By constant effort on the part of parents and leaders, habits of thrift and industry are formed that will insure success. It takes time, trouble and money to raise a good crop of boys and girls but it's worth it.

Twenty Years Ago

From The Herald of This Date, 1900

A Hong Kong dispatch says that United States Consul Wildman has information that the Filipino junta, at a meeting held Nov. 15, decided to brave the chances of deportation rather than quit Hong Kong. Recent correspondence between the junta and the insurrectionists proves that Aguinaldo, commander-in-chief of the insurgent forces, is still alive, but he is said to be suffering from a gunshot wound in the stomach.

President Kruger of the Transvaal republic left Marseilles this morning amidst the cheering of a great assemblage and proceeded north by train. At every stop crowds gathered and expressed their good wishes.

The official bulletin issued by the physicians of United States Senator C. K. Davis said he slept uninterruptedly about seven hours last night, but he is not quite so strong this morning.

Perry S. Heath, who resigned the office of first assistant postmaster general to become secretary of the Republican national committee, is said to have been promised the position of minister to Austria.

At a meeting of the city council last evening, the Commercial Investment company of this city was awarded the $99,000 issue of permanent improvement revolving fund bonds at a premium of $500. The bonds run thirty years and bear 4 per cent interest. It is said that E. H. Gay & Co. of Boston are the real purchasers of the bonds. They now have control of over $1,000,000 worth of Duluth bonds.

Samuel F. Fullerton, formerly an active member of the Duluth Curling club, has recently been elected president of the curling club at St. Paul, where he now resides.

John Enlund, formerly of Duluth, is said to have struck it very rich in the Klondike country. He is reported to be interested in bench claims worth $100,000 and half of what he has belongs to Dr. N. B. McNulty under the agreement made when he staked Enlund for $500 for the Klondike trip in 1897. Enlund has offered $15,000, but Dr. McNulty wants his full share and has placed the case in the hands of attorneys at Dawson City.

Mrs. Sands Van Wagner has returned from Bay City, Mich., where she has been for the past month.

L. W. Leithhead has been called to Montreal by the death of his brother, A. B. Leithhead, aged 24 years. Two years ago Mr. Leithhead lost a brother in the Baldwin hotel fire in San Francisco.

George Gardner, who is employed at the National Iron works on Garfield avenue, received very serious injuries yesterday, being burned by hot iron, and may lose the sight of both eyes. He was cleaning out a slink hole when there was an explosion that hurled about forty pounds of red hot metal into the air. Some of the metal struck Gardner on the face and eyes.

Miss Gertrude Seaton, principal of the kindergarten department at the Longfellow school, has returned from the East, where she has been taking a course in kindergarten work.

THE OPEN COURT

Readers of The Herald are invited to make free use of this column to express their ideas about topics of general interest, but discussion of sectarian, religious differences is barred. Letters must be accompanied in every case by the name and address of the writer, though these need not be published. A signed letter is always more effective, however.

All letters must be written on one side of the paper only.

The Herald does not publish original verse. Contributions of this nature that are submitted for the editor's perusal must be accompanied by a stamped and addressed envelope, if their return is desired. Otherwise no manuscript will be returned.

THANKSGIVING AND HOW TO ENJOY IT

To the Editor of The Herald:

When you and I were boys, we did not have things as we would like to have them. We can remember when we found our mother sitting in the old rocking chair and wishing that she could buy this and that for you and me. She did not like to hear that some other boy received more and better presents than we did, and she did not like to think of the plain Thanksgiving dinner while she knew that others had more than their share.

Now, friend who reads this, I would like to ask you a question. We are in much better circumstances than we were. Would it be asking too much to see if you and I, while we were chasing the dollars up and down the street, too busy to think of anything else other than the dollars running towards us or running away, might we not stop and ponder and notice what is going on around us?

Suppose that you and I were to pick up some little fellow whose shoes were badly worn, his feet cold, and to take him to a store and buy a pair of shoes for him. This is nearly Thanksgiving day. Might not you and I if we were to do this see that we were thankful by having done something of which we might justly feel proud?

Think it over, friend. This is only a suggestion, but I believe that your heart is large and warm, but you are forgetful—carried away by your desires to get a share of the elusive dollar.

Let us gladden the heart of some little fellow and cause him to think that humanity is not greedy and grasping, but has a moment to give to those in more unfavorable circumstances.

THOUGHTFUL.

Duluth, Nov. 20.

HAS ARMISTICE DAY LOST ITS SIGNIFICANCE?

To the Editor of The Herald:

Is this letter from a Duluth boy, now away from home, of any general significance as to the feeling of the other Duluth boys who fought in France and observed the manner of our celebration of Armistice day?

"Armistice day seems to have lost its significance this year. Two years ago the real armistice occurred. Last Thursday, from the time I got up at 6 a. m. until I went to bed that evening, what I had done two years on that day kept recurring to me, despite the fact I tried to concentrate on school work. * * * Since that time public opinion has changed. Last year when only a half holiday was granted by the schools, I thought it to be poor judgment. This year none at all was given, and I thought of the mothers of my buddies who were killed at Montfaucon and how they must have felt when they saw how quick the states had forgotten what they never possibly could. It was pitiful, to say the least. I know I realize the war is over, but the biggest day for this United States of America in half a century is and should be the 11th of November. People seem to have forgotten all the horror, the casualties, the wounded and gassed lists of the war. If they would only realize what war is, as we know it, they would do something to make future wars impossible, even if they have to forget to celebrate Armistice day and that President Wilson led us to victory and did all he could to foorestall future wars."

ORDER BARRING MINOR FROM DULUTH CRITICIZED

To the Editor of The Herald:

Allow me to voice my disapproval of Commissioner Murnian prohibiting Robert Minor delivering an address at the Workman's hall, Nov. 20, and also stating he was going to put the clamps on local radicals. Wrong idea, Mr. Murnian. You will breed more wobblies than a swamp will mosquitos. When a boiler becomes overcrowded with steam, the surplus steam is forced out through a safety valve, thereby preventing an explosion.

Let these babies blow off occasionally, especially when the fires of their radical brains are being fed with fuel such as eggs, $1.10 a dozen, bread 15 cents and 20 cents a loaf, butter 80 cents a pound, oysters 92 cents a quart, wage decrease in woods 20 per cent, etc. You don't have to follow in the steps of St. Paul and Minneapolis. But follow Chicago, New York, Boston and other Eastern cities. Wake up and see how Justice Hughes, ex-President Taft, Woodrow Wilson and other broad-minded men who think, view the subject. Woodrow Wilson nipped Attorney General Palmer's Bolshevik roundup in the bud.

Russia's revolution was caused by oppression. The Nihilists plotted secretly for years. If these birds can't blow off their steam they spread the germ secretly. Robert Minor was practically unknown up here until you advertised him like a circus with that article on the front sheet of Friday's Herald.

Folks who are not radicals, to satisfy their hunger for curious literature, will endeavor to procure a copy of Minor's speech if same can be obtained, to find out what he saw in Russia and Germany during the revolution. He doesn't see anything in this country "yet." Let him rave. Hands off like the new Russian policy The Herald advocated. Leave them to themselves.

Barring speeches is not only unconstitutional, but it scores a feather in the hat of the radical element and gives a black eye to our institutions. It would have been wiser to have let him address his flimsy handful of people, and if necessary give him efficient police protection in preference to hearing them squawk, the power is against us. They are afraid of the truth. Milwaukee has a vast amount of radicals and a giant auditorium for them to voice their opinions, also the least amount of crime and disorders of any city its size, according to statistics.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

This department does not pretend to be infallable. It will endeavor, however, to answer questions sent to it by readers of The Herald to the best of its ability, reserving the right to ignore all that are trifling or of concern only to the questioner, or that ask for advice on legal or medical questions.

To receive attention, every inquiry must bear the name and address of the person asking it. This is not wanted for publication, but as an evidence of good faith.

"Student," Duluth: Will you please tell me the name of the president of Czecho-Slovakia, area and population?

Ans.: Thomas G. Masaryk is president. The total area is about 60,000 square miles, including the former countries of Bohemia, Moravia, Silesia and Slovakia. Population, about 13,000,000.

L. T., Duluth: I have been told there is a law compelling all children to go to school until the age of 18, which is to take effect Feb. 1. Is this so? And when would one start?

Ans.: You have been misinformed. There is no such law.

R. O'R., Duluth: Would you please publish the address of Representative Guy Campbell of Kansas?

Ans.: Representative Guy Campbell is from Pennsylvania, not Kansas. Philip P. Campbell is the Kansas representative. His address when not in Washington is Pittsburg, Kan.

J. N., Duluth: Wish you would answer these questions through your paper. Is a passport required by a person going to Cuba? If so, where may it be obtained?

Ans.: Yes; make application through the office of the U. S. district court clerk in the postoffice building, Duluth.

L. M., Duluth: May a man convicted of any crime for which he serves a term in some penal institution be allowed to vote in Minnesota, or does he lose his vote?

Ans.: People who have been convicted of a felony are excluded from voting unless they have been pardoned by the governor.

Q. and A.: Please answer the following questions for me: Were Senators Nelson and Kellogg re-elected? If not who were elected in their places?

Ans.: The terms of either Senators Nelson or Kellogg did not expire this year, hence the election did not involve their offices. Senator Kellogg's term ends in 1923 and Senator Nelson's in 1925.

Reader, Proctor, Minn.: Will you please give the vote cast for Harding, Cox and Debs in the Southern Minnesota city of New Ulm, the pro-Germanism of which was so notorious during the war?

C. F. N., Duluth: Will you please answer the following questions in your Open Court column? (1) If President-elect Harding should die before he is inaugurated, would Vice President-elect Coolidge become president, or would it be necessary to hold another election? (2) If Debs had been elected, would President Wilson be legally compelled to pardon him, or would Debs be obliged to serve as president of the United States while confined in the penitentiary? (3) Does The Herald believe, after fully considering the tremendous Republican avalanche, that if Hoover had not declared himself a Republican and had been nominated by the Democrats, that even he would have been able to beat Harding? After all, was not Hoover the canny little boy? (4) If England is entitled to six votes in the assembly of the league because of her "self-governing" colonies, should not the United States be entitled to forty-eight votes? The United States is made up of forty-eight "self-governing" states. Minnesota is just as 'self-governing" as Canada; Wisconsin is just as "self-governing" as Australia; Indiana is far more "self-governing" than India; New York state has almost as many people as Canada and Australia combined. Still Canada and Australia have each a full vote, while New York state has one-forty-eighth of a vote. Furthermore, the entire British empire has 25,000,000 less white people than the United States.

Ans.: (1) If Mr. Harding should die before the electoral college meets, probably the college would choose Mr. Coolidge. If he should die between the electoral election and inauguration, we presume Mr. Coolidge would succeed him. (2) If Debs had been elected he could not have legally qualified, being a condemned felon. (3) That is a matter of opinion wholly. (4) No. A state and a self-governing dominion like Canada are not comparable. If Minnesota should have a vote in the league, why not St. Louis county? And why not the several counties of England?

Does Your Husband Come Home Tired, Nervous, Irritable?

Physician Says Thousands Of Men Are Breaking Down Simply Because Their Blood Lacks Iron.

"John, please take Nuxated Iron and be strong and well again."

"Simply because his blood lacks iron, many an American husband who ought to be feeling young, full of health, vigor and energy and in a position to shower his family with every comfort and luxury is actually struggling to make ends meet—a disappointed and discouraged 'old' man who will probably end up in a nervous breakdown or be carried off by his first illness," says Dr. H. B. Vail, formerly physician in the Baltimore Hospital and a Medical Examiner.

"The signs that a man's blood may be low in iron are often first detected by the watchful, loving eyes of his wife. Does your husband come home pale and fagged out and too tired to do anything or go anywhere? Does he find fault with the food, the home or the youngsters' behavior? Does he seem unable for one reason or another to get ahead and make big money as you and he once confidently expected? My advice to the wife who believes her husband capable of big things in this world is to see that he builds up the iron in his blood and for this purpose I have found nothing better than organic iron—Nuxated Iron."

Nuxated Iron is like the iron in your blood and like the iron in spinach, lentils and apples. It is an entirely different thing from ordinary metallic iron, which is iron just as it comes from the action of strong acids on small pieces of iron. Nuxated Iron represents organic iron in such a highly concentrated form that one dose is estimated to be approximately equivalent (in organic iron content) to eating half a quart of spinach and one quart of green vegetables. It is like taking extract of beef instead of eating pounds of meat.

Over 4,000,000 people annually are using Nuxated Iron. It quickly helps enrich the blood, revitalize wornout exhausted nerves and give new energy and endurance to the whole system. It has been used and endorsed by former United States Senators and members of Congress and many prominent people.

Always insist on having genuine organic iron—Nuxated Iron. If you are not feeling quite up to the mark telephone for a package today. Look for the letters N. I. on every tablet. Your money will be refunded by the manufacturers if you do not obtain perfectly satisfactory results. For sale by all druggists.

NUXATED IRON ENRICHES THE BLOOD-GIVES YOU NEW STRENGTH AND ENERGY

Begin this treatment tonight

WRING a soft cloth from very hot water, lather it with Woodbury's Facial Soap, then hold it to your face. When the heat has expanded the pores rub in very gently a fresh lather of Woodbury's. Repeat this hot water and lather application several times, stopping at once if your nose feels sensitive. Then finish by rubbing the nose for thirty seconds with a piece of ice. Always dry your skin carefully.

You will find this treatment, and the other famous treatments for the commoner troubles of the skin, in the booklet wrapped around every cake of Woodbury's Facial Soap.

Conspicuous Nose pores—

How to reduce them

DO you know what it is that causes conspicuous nose pores, the bugbear of so many men—as well as women?

The pores of the face are not as fine as on other parts of the body. On the nose, especially, there are more fat glands than elsewhere, and there is more activity of the pores.

These pores, if not properly stimulated and kept free from dirt, clog up and become enlarged.

That is the reason why a great many people have conspicuous nose pores.

Try this special treatment for this trouble given above, and supplement it with the steady, general use of Woodbury's Facial Soap. Before long you will notice how it gradually reduces the enlarged pores until they are inconspicuous. But do not expect to change completely in a week a condition resulting from long-continued exposure and neglect.

Get a cake of Woodbury's Facial Soap today and begin tonight the particular treatment your skin needs.

A 25c cake is sufficient for a month or six weeks of any Woodbury facial treatment and for general use for that time. Woodbury's is on sale at drug stores and toilet goods counters throughout the United States and Canada.

"Your treatment for one week"

A beautiful little set of Woodbury's skin preparations sent to you for 25 cents

Send 25 cents for this dainty miniature set of Woodbury's skin preparations, containing your complete Woodbury treatment for one week.

You will find, first the little booklet, "A Skin You Love to Touch," telling you the special treatment your skin needs; then a trial size cake of Woodbury's Facial Soap—enough for seven nights of any treatment; a sample tube of the new Woodbury's Facial Cream; and samples of Woodbury's Cold Cream and Facial Powder, with directions telling you just how they should be used. THE holiday season is on its way and this festive occasion means that the small girl will need a new frock. Silk taffeta is a pleasing material, it requires little trimming and comes in a variety of colors. Wool challis are attractive with their tiny flowered patterns or polka dots and soft colored backgrounds. Velvet this season has had a great vogue as a frock material for the small girl, and combined with other materials such as crepe de chine or satin produces smart effects.

Little velvet jumpers worn with a skirt of a plaid silk or wool are a becoming style for the girl of 10 or 12, while guimpes of pongee or silk lighten a dark velvet dress.

A shop on Superior street has on display three little taffeta frocks for better wear. One is a straight model in navy piped in sand colored taffeta and embroidered in red and sand colored silk. The narrow sash is also of sand taffeta. A second frock shown is of French blue taffeta made with a wide waistline and ruffles at the hips which is a becoming mode for her undeveloped figure. The collar of white val edged organdie is stitched in blue and tan. The tucks at the shoulder are piped.

The other frock is also of French blue. It is trimmed with tan colored taffeta, the sash being held in place with rose colored embroidered flowers.

Honoring their son, Harold, who celebrated his birthday anniversary Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Witherell entertained at a surprise party at their home Saturday evening. Chrysanthemums made effective table decoration, where the guests were served. Those present were: Misses Marcella Bird, Vera Smedlund, Buddy Bird, Hazel Hanson, Nancy Harper; Messrs. Carl Sanaker, Arleene Angerman, Wadleigh Hanson, Lester Hanson, Ambrose Duff, Clarence Gunderson, Arnold Gunderson, Arthur Gunderson, Tom Smalldige, Earl M. Witherell, Jr., James Angerman and Mr. and Mrs. Angerman.

An interesting affair in the way of a musicale is the benefit program to be given for the Lighthouse, Saturday evening, Dec. 4, by Mrs. Stella Prince Stocker, when she will present groups of her students in recital at the assembly hall of the Y. W. C. A. The junior singers, who gave such delightful entertainment recently at a meeting of the Twentieth Century club, will be heard again. The second part of the program will consist of solo numbers to be given by Mrs. A. A. Des Laurlers, Wilbur Reigert, Mrs. W. M. Wadsworth, Miss Victoria Benda, and a character song in costume by Miss Mene Guegun. The third part of the program will consist of numbers to be given by the Lighthouse quartet. No admission will be charged. Members of the Lighthouse committee will take up a free will offering.

WEDDINGS AND ENGAGEMENTS

The marriage of Miss Pauline Charlotte Wolanski, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Valentine Wolanski of Silver Lake, Minn., and Leo Pavlok of Makoti, N. D., was solemnized yesterday morning at 9 o'clock at St. Mary's Star of the Sea church, Rev. M. Sengir officiating. The bride was attended by Miss Lottie Povlak, a sister of the bridegroom, and Roman Wolanski, a brother of the bride, was best man. The bride wore a gown of white crepe and carried white roses. Little Miss Eleanor Gates, the flower girl, was dressed in white crepe. Following the ceremony, a wedding breakfast was served to the immediate friends at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gates, East Third street. After a short wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Pavlok will be at home at Makoti, N. D., after Dec. 15.

Dr. A. W. Ryan will perform the marriage ceremony at 1 o'clock, Thursday, for Miss Elizabeth A. Roberts, niece of Miss Laura Roberts, West Fourth street, and George Palmer Harbison, son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Harbison, Nineteenth avenue east. Mr. and Mrs. Harbison will make their home at 615 Woodland avenue.

* * *

Rev. C. E. Knickel performed the marriage ceremony at 8 o'clock last night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Crowley, Fifty-seventh avenue west, for Miss Gertrude Stock and Harold A. Gillette of Kansas City, Mo. Mr. and Mrs. Gillette will make their home in Kansas City.

Meetings

Mrs. C. S. Mitchell's current topics class will meet Thursday morning at 10:15 o'clock and at 3 o'clock in the afternoon at the Little theater.

The annual election of officers and board members for the Duluth Art association will take place at the library clubrooms tomorrow evening, when members of the society will meet at 8 o'clock. Reports from the several committees will be read.

Taxpayers Scored for Buying Ice Cream

Baltimore, Md., Nov. 23.—Two hundred dollars spent for ice cream by the Taxpayers' league of Baltimore county in the recent campaign was one result of the entry of women into politics.

On the list of expenses filed the item of ice cream appears eleven times. Expenditures for this confection ranged from $5 to $42.74.

The league also spent $4.98 for cake.

Opportunity Given to Buy Christmas Trees

The pine trees used for decoration at the Armory, where society people will gather tonight to celebrate the annual Charity ball for the Children's Home, may be purchased for Christmas trees, is the announcement given out by Mrs. G. Herbert Jones, president of the Children's Home society. R. A. Horr will be in charge of the sale.

The trees are said to be in first-class condition and were given to the Children's Home society by a local railroad company after being taken from the land being cleared for a right-of-way.

Lavelle-Scanlon Nuptials Will Be Event of Saturday

Next Saturday has been chosen by Miss Mary Cecelia Scanlon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Scanlon, Nineteenth avenue east, as the date of her marriage to William Frederick Lavelle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lavelle, London road. The service will be read at Sacred Heart cathedral by Rev. W. J. Powers at 9 a. m. Miss Scanlon will have for her attendant, Miss Nellie Quinn, and the bridegroom's best man will be Ray Lavelle. The wedding breakfast will be served at the home of the bride's parents after the wedding ceremony.

FEDERATED CLUBS HAVE PRETENTIOUS PROGRAM MAPPED OUT

Appointment of a woman on the state board of control, on the board of regents of the University of Minnesota and on the state visiting board is desired by the committee on social and industrial conditions of the Minnesota Federation of Women's Clubs, according to a program of work and report of past work just sent out by Mrs. Daniel Coonan, chairman, to the members of the committee.

Enforcement of established laws relating to the welfare of women and children is the first part of the program outlined for the year's work which is based on the national social and industrial program of the general federation. A copy of the report and program has been sent to Governor-elect J. A. O. Preus for his information, Mrs. Coonan said. The state federation has always stood for social legislation during its twenty-six years of work, Mrs. Coonan said, and now, with the franchise, the women plan to increase their activities along this line.

Legislation which the committee proposes to back includes: An eight-hour day for all industries; increased appropriation for the bureau of women and children; another inspector for the same bureau; increased appropriation for the minimum wage commission; increase in the minimum wage; increase in the "mother's pension" or county allowance. Creation of an interest in social insurance which may include insurance in case of illness, maternity, accident, unemployment and old age are also proposed by the committee which is interested in rehabilitation of industrial cripples; of creating public opinion for establishment of a family or domestic relations court; the indeterminate sentence law.

"There is a rebuilding along economic, social and industrial lines since the war," said Mrs. Coonan in her report. "Industrial occupations have been opened to women until we have more than 10,000,000 women engaged in more than 300 different occupations in the United States. Women are the producers of no inconsiderable part of the nation's wealth. The need for organized womanhood to work for the interests of women who are now serving the public through trades and industries has never been so great as now. No state or nation can rise above its women. Looking to the upbuilding of better conditions in our state, let us join forces with every organization that is working for this end.

"Owing to the fact that this is legislative year, there will be more discussions of women's problems in the industrial field than ever before, and these problems are calling for the wise, thoughtful, trained women to lend their talents and to help establish safe legislation for the protection and development of women and children in industries and trades."

Mrs. Coonan outlined the work of the state bureau for women and children, the minimum wage commission, the mother's pension, the work of the Sauk Center Home School for Girls and the Woman's reformatory at Shakopee, Minn., and the state children's bureau, urging the women to give their support to this work in the districts.

Rice in the Thanksgiving Feast

This is the week when attention is centered on the Thanksgiving holiday. One cannot think of Thanksgiving without translating it into terms of feasting. Where is the housewife who is not planning a dinner that will satisfy her tableful of homecoming children or holiday guests—the greatest meal of the year?

The housewife may never have thought how rice can be used to increase the deliciousness and wholesomeness of her great holiday feast. There are numerous forms in which rice has a legitimate place along with the imposing array of appetizing edibles that are associated with Thanksgiving dinners.

First it is necessary to boil rice properly, that is, to boil it without stirring for about twenty minutes. Stirring rice breaks the grains and produces a sticky substance that is as unlike what rice can be as glue is from popcorn. By shaking the kettle or lifting the boiling rice two or three times with a fork, one can keep it from burning on the bottom. The result is a light, flaky substance in which each grain stands out separately, plump and tender.

Dressing for Turkey or Chicken.

Let one chopped onion brown in some butter and mix into it two cups of boiled rice and one cup of bread crumbs which have been moistened in a cup of milk. Add sage or parsley or other sweet herbs as desired and half a pound of sausage meat or salt pork chopped fine, salt and pepper. Stir the ingredients until thoroughly mixed.

As a Vegetable With Chicken Gravy.

For those who never have tried it, there is a treat in store for them when they eat their first bit of tender rice served with hot chicken or turkey gravy poured over it in the same way that potatoes are served.

Rice With Baked Apples.

Boil a cup of rice and a pint of milk until the rice is tender. Take from fire and cool. Beat three eggs and mix with rice, adding one teaspoonful of butter, a little salt and flavoring as desired. Have a square of cheese cloth, thoroughly buttered and flour one side, take up the corners and pour the mixture in it. Tie loosely and put in boiling water. Boil one hour. Turn out on a platter and lay baked apples around the rice ball. Garnish with sliced lemon.

The day after Thanksgiving confronts the housewife with the problem of knowing what to do with sundry, meaty turkey or chicken bones. The addition of rice to the usual fricassee or curry increases the substance and tastiness of these dishes one hundred-fold. A fricassee of curry of chicken, poured over flaky, tender rice will be a revelation of new taste sensations for those who have never enjoyed it.

RECOMMENDS HOLDING FOUR MEN TO GRAND JURY

Chicago, Nov. 23.—A coroner's jury holding an inquest over the bodies of Maree Ramey and Lillian Thompson, actresses found dead in Grant park a week ago, yesterday recommended that Lawrence and Harris Jorgenson, Michael Cox and Marcus Brumberg be held to the grand jury and that charges of manslaughter be brought against them.

The four men were with the actresses on a "joy ride" which ended when the women were left in Grant park.

AT THE THEATERS

TONIGHT'S ATTRACTIONS.

ORPHEUM—"The Dance Shop"; other acts.
NEW GRAND—"Overseas Revue"; other acts.

NEW GRAND—The former doughboys and gobs are the ones among the big crowds attending every performance at the New Grand who are seeing the featured act, "Overseas Revue." With the greatest appreciative understanding, for it recalls to them many of the interesting and humorous experiences they had overseas. But they are not the most appreciative, for the fathers, mothers, sisters, sweethearts and small brothers who only knew from letters and papers of the fun that was going on behind the lines, are now having a chance to actually see it repeated. A higher average of talent, and of good looks, good voices and dancing ability, never appeared in a featured act at the New Grand than may be found in "Overseas Revue." It is a regular show that New Grand patrons have offered them for the first half of the week, and they are showing their appreciation by flocking to every performance. There will be an entire change of bill Thanksgiving day.

ORPHEUM—Edward Marshall enjoys the reputation of being one of the foremost illustrators. He occupies a peculiar position in the art world, inasmuch as he is a cartoonist, an illustrator and a portrait painter. Usually one of these lines is considered quite enough. In vaudeville he calls himself "The Chalkologist," and with lightning rapidity he brings into play his faculty as a cartoonist, a portrait painter and a sketch artist. In applying his art to the stage he has done so successfully that he has been able to tour the world, and his present American tour follows a lengthy engagement in Australia.

NEW GARRICK—Nazimova is credited with declaring that "Madame Peacock" is her "greatest picture since 'Revelation,'" and the majority of Duluth motion picture lovers agree with her. It is an absorbing character study—so absorbing, in fact, that while it is a longer picture than normal one thinks it is shorter. It is pulsating drama; it is life—one feels it from the moment the first scene flashes on the screen until Nazimova as the haughty stage star around whom the story revolves takes into her arms her daughter—her own little baby that was—whose career she had tried to bring to an abrupt end when her own position was threatened. Nazimova plays both roles. "Edgar Can't Stop," a Booth Tarkington boyhood story, supplies the comedy.

Side Talks

THE TERRORS OF THE NIGHT.

WHAT different people we all are in the day time and at night.

I do not off hand remember just when Dr. Jekyl made his transformation into Mr. Hyde, but it seems as if it must have been at night.

And yet I do not mean to imply by that that we become wicked at night—just that we change!

We Are More Nervous at Night.

For one thing we are all more nervous at night. "The terrors of the night" in a phrase which carries a meaning to even the bravest of us. It is easier to believe in danger at night. Here is an odd example of the way we associate danger and the darkness.

I have a friend who allows her two children, aged 7 and 14 (one of whom can swim pretty well, the other not at all) to paddle up and down the river in a boat. She even goes away for the day and leaves them to look after themselves, with the river as their playground. And yet when someone asked her to spend the evening at a house on the next street, leaving the children alone in bed for a few hours, she would not do it. "Something might happen to them," she said with a shiver.

Yet I feel sure if the chances for danger under the two circumstances could be computed, it would be seen tha there was far more chance of something happening to them in the daytime than there was at night. It was simply the sense of danger that night brings, I think, that made her feel that way.

When Night Time Was Cave Time.

I suppose it is a heritage from our remotest ancestors—when night truly was a time for man to keep safe in his cave and let the wild beasts have sway.

Most of us, also, are more emotional at night. We are more easily moved by sentiment than in the daytime. Any actor will tell you that it is far harder to "put over" an emotional play on the same kind of an audience at a matinee, than at the evening performance.

Certain functions of the mind work better in the evening and others in the daytime. For instance, I would say that the imagination was in better working order at night and the judgment in the daytime. For this reason any letter that one writes at night should always be reread in the daytime before it is sent. And any plan formulated at night should be looked over in the cold light of day before it is put into action. Likewise no situation should be given up as hopeless until one has had a chance to think it over in the evening as well as the daytime.

We Know What Men Are Before Breakfast.

Men are even more affected by this condition of dual personality than women. Everyone knows what men are like when they first wake up in the morning! Though women have the name of being more temperamental, they certainly are not so in this respect.

ANSWERED LETTERS.

Interested Reader: I sent your recent article on "Just How to Bake Bread" to a cousin of mine who lives across the country and she says she tried making bread by it but the result was rubbery. Yet I get fine results from the same recipe; my loaves are not at all rubbery. What makes this difference?"

Answer—The water in your cousin's part of the country must be very hard. Write her to use all milk in the recipe instead of half milk, half water. (The recipe calls for 1 pint of milk and 1 pint of water, but she should use 1 quart of milk and no water.) If she will do this, she will have no further trouble.

Business Girl: The desk at my office has two wide cracks in it and I can't work happily when things about me are in a state of unrepair. How can I fill the cracks? The janitor has a varnish with a stain in it with which he says he will revarnish my desk if I can fill up the cracks. Can you help me?

Answer—Putty is generally used to fill up cracks, but chewing gum formed into a long, thin roll (roll it between the hands) and wedged into the cracks, will do just as well.

Sunday School Teacher: Recently I saw in your column a "hint" from another Sunday school teacher about some party she gave, and this gave me the idea that you might answer an inquiry from me. My pupils are supposed to read their Bible daily, the numbers of the verses they are to read being given in the lesson-leaflet each Sunday in advance. But they do not do this; they say they have no time, with school work, to look up the place in the Bible where they are to read each day. What would you do? I have thought of offering a prize to the girl who, at the end of the year, has done the most Bible reading—but can't think just how to work out this plan.

Answer: I have given quite a little thought to your problem and have worked out this plan: Take six slips of paper and write on one slip, "Monday's Reading," on the second slip, "Tuesday's Reading," and so on until you have put all the days of the week (except Sunday) on the slips. Call a week's set of slips "bookmarks." Give each girl a set and insist that each bring her Bible to Sunday school and, right there, before you start the lesson, make them all hunt up the Bible verses they are to read each day, putting in a slip for each day's reading. I think you will find that if the girls have only to open their Bibles and read each day, instead of spending time to hunt up the verses, they will fulfill their duty. I would also suggest that you advise them to do this reading at night before going to bed, when they are not in a hurry. I do not believe in giving a prize for a thing which should be done from principle. Talk to the girls, pointing out that if they form the habit of reading their Bibles now, their entire future lives will be enriched, forever after, when they face life's problems, they will always naturally turn to the greatest source of wisdom and comfort in the world—the Bible.

All inquiries addressed to Miss Kirkman in care of the "Efficient Housekeeping" department will be answered in these columns in their turn. This requires considerable time, however, owing to the great number received. So if a personal or quicker reply is desired, a stamped and self-addressed envelope must be enclosed with the question.—The Editor.

"TINKER BOB" STORIES

By CARLYSLE H. HOLCOMB

LITTLE SAMMY'S OWN STORY.

LITTLE Sammy Squirrel was a dandy little fellow. He kept himself so clean that his fur coat glistened in the sunlight. He was proud of his long bushy tail because he knew that many other forest dwellers envied him, for there was no such tail as his in all the forest.

But I can tell you when young Sammy came to the King of the Forest this time his tail was dragging behind him. He had been so frightened that he could not even hold his tail straight. You see, Mr. Black Snake had cast a spell over him and he was helpless. Don't you know what that means? Well, young Sammy is going to tell the king about it.

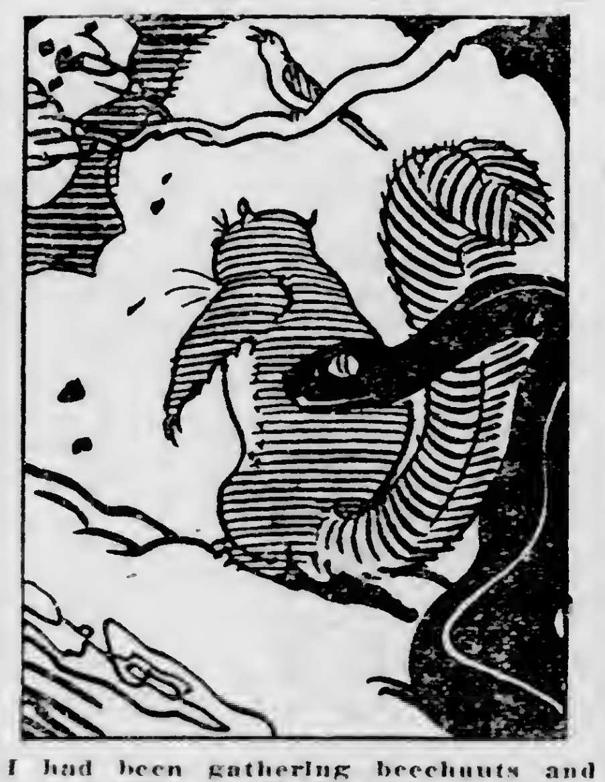
"Oh, King of the Forest," began Sammy as he climbed upon the king's knee. "You saved my life again, for I could not move and that fellow was creeping toward me every moment, and if you had not come just then I would have been killed. Oh King, I will follow you forever." Then Sammy began to brighten up a bit, and again his tail stood straight up.

"Why did you let this fellow cast a spell over you?" asked Tinker Bob as he stroked Sammy's back and tried to make him feel safe again.

"Oh King, no one knows why—I can never tell. I only know what happened. It was just like this," Sammy sat up on his hind feet. "I was going about my work finding food to store up for the winter. I had been gathering beechnuts and was sitting on the log listening to the last song of Mrs. Robin. When I turned around, who stood by looking into my eyes but Mr. Black Snake, and when I looked into his eyes I could not look away again. It just seemed that I was held fast and could see nothing but the eyes of this terrible fellow. I tried, oh King, to look away, and I tried to move but I was held fast by the look of that snake!"

"Why didn't you call for help?" asked Tinker Bob. "Surely some of the forest dwellers would have come to your rescue, if you had cried out."

"Call for help?" repeated young Sammy. "Oh King, I could not make a sound of any kind, I could not move! All that I could do was to look at that fellow and stand still. He never even showed his tongue, but every second he came a little closer to me and the minutes seemed like hours. The longer he waited the more anxious I was for him to come closer. Then the moment came when I was glad to think that he was going to eat me up, for that is a part of the spell he cast over me with his eyes. And, oh King, when you arrived he was about ready to finish his work and pounce upon me! Then you cried out with a loud voice and it broke the spell."



I had been gathering beechnuts and was sitting on the log listening to the last song of Mrs. Robin.

Tinker Bob, king of the forest, wants to tell all of the little folks that when they are in the forest and see a terrible snake casting such a spell over any creature of the forest they should cry out with a loud voice and the spell will be broken.

firmly resolved to "go straight," but the very first day out he laid himself liable to the penalties of the law, for his "ship came in" and on it was Lord Birmingham of whom he was a perfect double. In this fact is found the name of the intensely interesting photoplay, "The Wonderful Chance" in which Eugene O'Brien is making an immense hit at the New Lyric, the run ending tonight. "The Best of Luck," a picturization of the thrilling Drury Lane melodrama, with an all-star cast, comes to the New Lyric tomorrow. Thrills such as have not reached the screen since "The Whip" are found in this picture, featuring a battle on the ocean's floor. Jack Holt, Kathryn Adams and others are in the cast. "April Fool," a new Mermaid comedy, is an added attraction.

NEW ASTOR—"This is not the first child part I have acted during my years on the screen, but it is the best," says Mary Pickford of "Pollyanna" in the name role of which she comes to the New Astor today for a three-day stay. "Pollyanna," which will be shown on the same program with the fourth story of "The Son of Tarzan" series, "The Sheik's Revenge," and which is generally admitted to be the best picture that she has ever made, is an especially appropriate picture for Thanksgiving day, with its little heroine always glad she has as much reason to be happy as she has, regardless of how little that "much" may be. The Astor engagement is said to be the first time in the Northwest that "Pollyanna" has been shown at such small admission prices, the usual New Astor scale prevailing, and yet it is only one of the good things on the program.

STRAND—She was happy in boarding school. The sunshine, the friendships were hers, until a shadow of her mother's past came to haunt her. It brought with it storm clouds. The girl was forced to leave. In order to escape these black shadows she went to Europe and found happiness until the oppressive shadows again broke the sweet illusions. What happened? This you will find out when you come to the Strand theater and see Norma Talmadge in "The Branded Woman," a picture of a woman's search for happiness when the whole world seemed black. In the cast are Percy Marmont, Vincent Serrano, George Fawcett and others. This picture permits the star to display the whole range of her histrionic capabilities. Don't miss it.

ZELDA—"From Now On" closes its run tonight at the Zelda theater. This Fox photoplay has proved one of the big successes of the season. As a hero of the underworld George Walsh has won fresh laurels.

"Buddies" at Plaza.

The Selwyns' production of "Buddies," which will be the attraction at the Plaza theater, Superior, Nov. 25 and 26, proved during its full year in the Selwyn theater, New York, the cumulative power of a romance that is as fragrant as June, and music that is altogether charming in its interpolation of the story as well as the lilting quality of its melody, it is said. It also proved that the public enjoys an entertainment that is wholesome and sweet, for "Buddies" played to big business during the entire period of its twelve consecutive months in the Eastern metropolis.

PRISONERS FACE COURT ON VARIOUS CHARGES

Mike Slick pleaded not guilty in police court today, to having been drunk, but when faced with a complaint made by Margaret Sobczak, charging him with assault and battery, he pleaded guilty to the latter. Slick was given a straight workfarm sentence of ninety days. He admitted having struck the woman. The woman appeared showing a torn hat and coat, which Slick paid for. The drunk charge was dismissed.

Six other drunks entered pleas of guilty when arraigned before Judge Richard M. Funk this morning in police court. Andrew Johnson, John Sellick, Andrew Nordeen and Carl Hanson were sentenced to pay $20 and costs or spend twenty days at the work farm. Sentence was continued until this afternoon on William Gust Johnson and Nestor Montor who were expected to give the police information as to where they obtained the liquor.

Selina Hill, who pleaded guilty to a drunk charge yesterday morning, was given a straight 30-day sentence to the county jail yesterday afternoon. Elizabeth Bowers, who pleaded guilty yesterday morning, was sentenced yesterday afternoon to spend eighty-five days at the Duluth Industrial home. The latter was a former offender.

Willard Conkler, aged 21, is held at police headquarters pending a complaint charging him with carnal knowledge. The complaint is expected to be made by the father of a 15-year-old girl. Conkler will probably be arraigned in police court this afternoon.

Chicago Motorman Killed.

Chicago, Nov. 23—James McCue, a motorman, was killed and more than a dozen persons were injured when two street cars collided at intersecting streets yesterday, crushing one of the cars. The collision occurred when McCue was forced to put on his brakes to avoid hitting an automobile and consequently could not get his car off the intersecting track in time to avoid the other car.

REFUSAL TO BATHE REVEALS MONEY

Roanoke, Va., Nov. 23.—William Porter, alias William Harris, and Charles Carter, held in connection with the robbery of the Glasgow, Va., bank last Friday, on refusal to take baths, aroused suspicion of jail attendants, and a search of their persons resulted in the finding of $1,200, the police announced yesterday. In a bandage around Porter's abdomen was found seven $100 bills. The remainder of the money was discovered in Porter's and Carter's clothing, the police said.

NEW POLICE CHIEF STARTS PROGRAM OF EFFICIENCY

The first official bulletin issued by Chief of Police Warren E. Pugh appeared this morning. Every officer on the force will be given one of these bulletins and request is made that each officer maintain an individual file of them.

The bulletin instructs the officers that note of the name of the officer be made when a prisoner is searched at police headquarters. Effective today all mechanics, jailers, drivers, extra men and telephone operators are to answer roll call when going on duty.

The bulletin also calls attention to complaints by Chief Joseph Randall of the fire department, that the department is often interfered with in fighting fires by the public and automobiles crowding in too close to the location of the fire. Order is given that when a fire occurs in the district below Second street and between Second avenue east and Eighth avenue west that the police emergency carrying fire lines shall attend. Similar orders are given officers at the West Duluth station to attend fires in the business district of the suburb. Policemen are instructed to keep the public back so as not to interfere with the work of the firemen.

VENIZELOS LEAVES MESSINA FOR NICE

Messina, Nov. 23.—Former Premier Venizelos of Greece, whose yacht, the Narcissus, has been at anchor in the harbor of Messina for several days, left last night for Nice.

The former premier received visitors on the yacht, among whom were the ex-mayor of Athens and several newspaper correspondents. In conversation with them he declared he would not answer the "most harmless questions" concerning politics.

TWO COURTS BUSY.

Two Suits for Damages on Contract Deals Being Tried.

Before Judge A. E. Giddings of Anoka, who is holding court here, the case of Frank L. Johnson against John De Toffal to recover $2,300 damages for the alleged breach of a contract was called for trial yesterday afternoon and is still on today. The defendant counterclaims for $800 damages. Johnson had a contract to construct a school house in Carlton county and in November, 1919, sublet it to the defendant. The suit grows out of this transaction.

In Judge C. C. Haupt's division of the court, the case of Matt Kapovich against Thomas Foubister is being tried. Kapovich claims that he made a deal in August, 1919, with Foubister for the purchase of an automobile for $550. He paid $150 and gave a motor boat worth $400. When he tried out the car it proved unsatisfactory and he returned it to the defendant, he claims, and demanded his money and boat back. Kapovich claims that Foubister kept not only the car but also the money and boat. He is suing for $550 damages.

GO HEAL THE SICK

This Man Is Leading Sick People Back to Health.

His Fight Against Old Age, Weakness and Disease.

Fifteen years ago H. H. Von Schlick of 210 Third avenue, Pittsburgh, Pa., was unknown. Today millions of happy people bless and praise him as a benefactor. They are grateful for new health and freedom from sickness and disease.

Mr. Von Schlick is now in the winter of life. He has ruddy cheeks, bright, sparkling eyes and the snap and vigor of youth. Twenty years ago he was down and out, physically.

Then Von Schlick met Boris Marokeff, an old Bulgarian friend, who gave him a Herb Tea. Von Schlick recovered his health. He was a new man in mind and body.

This Bulgarian Blood Tea was a great medicinal discovery for healing the sick. Von Schlick obtained the secret formula and process for making this Bulgarian Blood Tea. The roots, barks, leaves, herbs, berries and flowers grow in forests, fields, valleys and swamps and come from Europe, Asia and Africa.

The wonderful power in this Herb Tea regenerates the system, cleanses and tones the blood, cleanses the liver, flushes and purifies the kidneys, sweetens the bowels and stomach and gives back the snap and vigor that only a healthy person can have.

For years Von Schlick made this Tea and gave it to sick people. It helped everyone. The fame of this medicine began to travel; people came to him for it and he gave it free—gave until it hurt.

Mr. Von Schlick was a poor man and was unable to supply the general demand, as the herbs were very costly, being imported from distant lands. Then people told him to make it for the whole world to use and today he believes he is doing more good for suffering humanity with Bulgarian Blood Tea than any other medicine in the world.

Bulgarian Blood Tea today is used the world over and praised by millions of sufferers fighting disease and warding off old age weaknesses. They include happy girls budding into womanhood or women crossing precarious threshholds of life. All praise and recommend it. Men regain their strength and vitality, the blood becomes rich and pure and the snap and sparkle of good health returns to those who were in despair. Just ask your druggist today for a trial package of Bulgarian Blood Tea and you will never regret the time you spent in reading this item.—Advertisement.

Three Testify in Fire Case.

Three witnesses testified on behalf of the plaintiffs this morning in the Moose Lake group of fire cases being tried before a court of five district judges in Judge Cant's courtroom. They were E. C. Coulard, a farmer, residing one-half mile north of Moose Lake village; John Anderson, a camp cook, and Richard Fletcher, a carpenter, both of whom lived in Moose Lake on Oct. 12, 1918, the day the big forest fire swept the place.

HOW OLD ARE YOU BY YOUR HAIR?

You may be thirty in years, but if you are bald-headed, gray, or your hair is dry, brittle, scraggly and ugly-looking, people will surely take you to be many years older.

If you want a lot of good-looking, healthy hair, the roots must be immediately vitalized and kept properly nourished. To do this quickly, safely and at little expense, get from your druggist a bottle of Parisian Sage and use as directed. A little attention now will insure plenty of beautiful hair for years to come.

Parisian Sage is guaranteed to keep away all dandruff, stop scalp itch and falling hair and stimulate a new growth, or money refunded. It's in great demand by women who always "look their best," because it makes the hair so soft, lustrous, easy to arrange attractively and appear much heavier than it really is.

A massage with Parisian Sage is a real delight—easy to use, not sticky, and daintily perfumed—an antiseptic, clean liquid that does not change the natural color of the hair.—Advertisement.

Cruise Proves Attractive.

Naval enlistments are increasing in number lately since the government has promised all recruits a cruise with either the Atlantic or Pacific fleet next June, according to F. M. Clinton, naval recruiting officer with headquarters in the Federal building. The Atlantic fleet will visit various South American ports and will go around by way of Cape Horn to South Africa. The Pacific fleet will visit the South Sea islands and Australia.

Three Years for Auto Thief.

Minneapolis, Minn., Nov. 23.—Pleading guilty to the theft of an automobile from the Oldsmobile company, and declaring that the crime was the result of a protracted spree, W. G. Gardinier drew a 3-year sentence when he appeared in district court Monday. Gardinier drove to El Paso, Texas, after stealing the machine and sold the car in that city. He was finally traced to Prescott, Ariz., where he was arrested.

The Finest Pie
Homes ever serve—Real Lemon Pie

The queen of pies is lemon pie, yet how rarely people serve it.

The home-made pie takes time and trouble, so lemon pie days come rather far apart.

Now the makers of Jiffy-Jell are making Jiffy-Pie. This is real lemon pie at its best, made to serve easily and quickly.

It comes in a package, almost ready-made. The sugar is there, the egg yolk, powdered milk, corn starch and tapioca.

The lemon essence—made from lemon peel—comes sealed in a glass bottle, so its freshness can't escape.

Add water, cook a little, and you have a lemon pie filler such as only few can make.

The users of Jiffy-Jell will know it must be right. That fruity dessert, with its flavors in vials, has won millions by its quality.

The same experts make this Jiffy-Pie. The same ideals are behind it. If you like one, you will like the other.

Learn this better way to make good lemon pie. The pies you make cost more than this. They take much time. And you have rare skill if you make an equal pie.

Let this way help you serve them easier and oftener.

NEWS OF THE NORTHWEST

DRAPER, WIS., HUNTER ACCIDENTALLY KILLED

Couderay, Wis., Nov. 23.—(Special to The Herald.)—Harry Dean of Draper, near here, was accidentally shot and killed while deer hunting near that town. His gun was discharged when it fell off a stump, the charge striking him in the stomach. Mr. Dean was a member of the town board of the town and leaves a wife.

An unknown man near Ojibwa was shot in the leg while deer hunting.

FAVORS YEARLY FREE EXAMS OF EX-SOLDIERS

Rochester, Minn., Nov. 23.—A thorough physical examination once a year without charge for all men who saw service in the Federal fighting forces during the World war is proposed by the William McCoy post of the American Legion in Rochester.

Dr. Walter F. Bleifus, city health officer, suggested the plan, which would enable a careful checking up of the physical defects and would provide for recommendations as to corrective treatment.

CROOKSTON SKELETON PROBABLY SUICIDE'S

Crookston, Minn., Nov. 23.—A skeleton found near here Sunday by two boys hunting, was believed to be that of a man named John Keen, who disappeared from a local hotel last March. He evidently had grown despondent, because of poor financial circumstances and, seeking a lonely spot, three miles from the city, had hung himself from the branch of a tree.

No identification papers were found in his clothing, nor can anyone be found who knows where the home or relatives of Keen are.

Minot Police Chief Quits.

Minot, N. D., Nov. 23.—The resignation of Charles Land as chief of police was accepted by the city commissioners last night and Police Commissioner Bowker was instructed to confer with representatives of the Minot Association of Commerce and Rotary club on the selection of a successor.

TREASURER OF SONS OF HERMAN IS INDICTED

Stillwater, Minn., Nov. 23.—Chris Zeigler of Stillwater, former secretary of the Sons of Herman national organization, was indicted by the Washington county grand jury here Monday afternoon on a charge of embezzlement. He will be given a hearing in district court tomorrow morning.

Zeigler was arrested last summer in connection with the disappearance of $5,000 belonging to the Sons of Herman. He has claimed that the money was in a safety deposit vault, but has not produced it.

WOODSMEN KILL BEAR THAT ATTACKS THEM

Emetta, Minn., Nov. 23.—(Special to The Herald.)—John Laivo and Carl Lahti, while working at Camp B of the North Star Lumber company, killed a large black bear with their axes. Laivo was cutting windfalls to make a road when he was suddenly faced by the animal, which rose from the ground and attacked him. He struck the bear with his ax and the brute returned to its den only to renew the attack in a few minutes. Laivo shouted to Lahti, who was working nearby, and the latter hastened up, armed with his trusty ax, both soon dispatching Mr Bruin with a few well-directed blows.

Log Delivery Suit.

Menominee, Mich., Nov. 23.—At the January term of court here is to be tried a $10,000 action resulting indirectly from the timber workers' strike last spring. The Boniface Lumber company of Escanaba asks damages from the Jentz Lumber company of Ironwood for failure to deliver several million feet of logs. On account of the strike the Jentz Lumber company could not deliver the logs according to contract, it is alleged.

Ex-Deputy Prison Warden Dies.

Stillwater, Minn., Nov. 23.—Jonas W. Backland, first deputy warden at the state penitentiary, died Sunday. He had been ill for three months. He is survived by a widow and daughter. Backland, who had been connected with the state prison for a half score years, was made deputy first warden last May. Prior to that time he was second deputy warden.

WISCONSIN LEADS IN GUARD ENROLLMENT

Madison, Wis., Nov. 23.—Wisconsin with the enrollment of its National Guard brought to approximately 6,000 by recent enlistments, leads the entire country in proportion to its population, according to Lieut.-Col. Byron Beveridge of the adjutant general's office. Efforts are being made to bring the enrolled strength of the guard up to the required 10,400 before its three-year period has expired.

Under the recent reorganization act for state militia, 800 guardsmen are to be in service for each senator and congressman. Wisconsin, it is stated, expects to have its alloted quota filled much before the alloted time of three years has expired.

Camp Douglas has been put in shape to handle an entire division on short notice, Col. Beveridge said. To bring the state training grounds to a point where they will be more serviceable, the plumbing system has been extended.

New heating and storage plants now being built will be completed by the end of the winter, it is announced, while an additional drill ground has just been completed.

Escaped Trusty Back in Prison.

Sioux Falls, S. D., Nov. 23.—Lawrence Snyder, a trusty who escaped from the Sioux Falls prison on Sept. 29 last, was returned to the prison Monday. Snyder was recaptured at Granite Falls, Minn., on Saturday. He was under sentence of nine years after conviction on a grand larceny charge. He would have been eligible for discharge in about six months.

To Return to Newspaper.

Madison, Wis., Nov. 23.—Merlin Hull, retiring secretary of state declares that he intends to return to Black River Falls and continue to edit his newspaper, the Jackson County Journal and practice law, when on Jan. 1, Elmer S. Hall of Green Bay steps into office.

Sioux Falls Railroad Project.

Sioux Falls, S. D., Nov. 23.—Plans for the construction of a railway from Sioux Falls southwest to the Missouri river are being perfected, it was announced last night by P. F. Sherman. He was the instigator of the South Dakota Central project, which resulted in the construction of the railway from Sioux Falls north to Watertown.

WILL SEEK INJUNCTIOS.

St. Cloud Utility Would Prevent City Resisting Gas Boost.

St. Cloud, Minn., Nov. 23.—The St. Cloud Public service company, utility corporation and alleged monopoly of this city, has asked in the Federal courts for an injunction against the city's interfering with a proposed raise of the gas rate to $3.30 per 1,000 feet. The present rate of $1.35 was established in 1905, as a maximum by an ordinance passed for a thirty-year period, and the ordinance is considered by the city legal department as a binding contract for that period of time. Two of St. Cloud's leading attorneys will oppose each other in the suit, as Senator J. D. Sullivan has been retained by the public service company, and ex-Senator Ripley B. Brower holds the position of city attorney and has stated that he will conduct the fight against allowing the injunction.

HOUSING PROBLEM AT MARQUETTE UNIVERSITY

Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 23.—Marquette university is facing a serious housing problem according to members of the faculty. The shortage of houses in this city has forced many newly married couples, who would normally either buy or build, to move into light housekeeping apartments. In turn the demand for these quarters has caused residents here to remodel their homes, it is said, with the result that in homes where formerly two or more students were living, there is now no room.

According to members of the faculty a proposed building program is under consideration which will include one or more dormitory buildings and a new science building among others. Approximately $1,500,000 raised through endowment and popular subscription is now on hand with which to begin the work in the spring, it is stated.

Fargo, N. D.—Members of the Cass County Farm bureau will hold a meeting at the Fargo Commercial club rooms on Friday, Nov. 26, at 2:30 p. m. to consider the matter of Cass county's farm bureau affiliating with the new state farm bureau federation.

MINNESOTA BRIEFS

Moorhead—The question of the establishment of a municipal market here will be taken up at the monthly meeting of the Moorhead Commercial club to be held Tuesday, Nov. 30, in the lecture room of the public library.

Crookston—W. J. Koppen spent one day in the vicinity of Crookston and East Grand Forks making a final inspection of potatoes which growers would have certified.

International Falls—Harold G. Rovsland, an overseas service man, was married to Miss Thora Landsverk of Fosston Thursday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Salmon Larson by Rev. E. N. Halvorson.

Pillager—A. F. Levin, son-in-law of W. B. Clow, is in a Brainerd hospital with a broken ankle received while sawing wood with a gasoline engine. The belt slipped off the wheel and caught him in such a manner as to throw and trip him, breaking his ankle.

Brainerd—The Brainerd mill located on Front street is soon to resume operations. It has been leased by a competent miller and new machinery will soon be installed.

St. Cloud—Funeral services were held here Monday for Mrs. John Murphy, former resident, who died at Crosby. Mrs. Murphy had lived in Stearns county for many years, making her home at St. Wendel. She is survived by her son in this city, Mrs. Casey and Mrs. Ben Noonan of Crosby, Mrs. J. Lintacon and Mrs. James Stewart and Malcom Murphy of Canada.

Baudette—Baudette is to have a skating rink this winter due to the efforts of the Women's club to provide healthful recreation for the young. Five lots opposite F. E. Johnson's hardware store have been secured, and they will be flooded.

Foley—Fire destroyed the automobile of George Burfield of Albany while he was returning to his home from Royalton. He had had some trouble with the carburetor, which he removed twice, thus spilling considerable gasoline in the mud pan of the car. This became ignited and soon the entire machine was in flames.

St. Cloud—Andrew Richter, Roy Dombrosky, and Hubert Wegler, 17, and Gus Markowitz, aged 22, appeared before Judge Donohue charged with accosting young women on the street. The complaining witnesses, students of the state normal school, accused the boys of speaking to them on St. Germain street and making remarks which they did not care to repeat in police court. The four boys were sentenced to thirty days in confinement in the Hennepin county workhouse.

Eden Valley—Funeral services were held here for Dr. William Hambroer of Eden Valley, who was found dead on his bed Friday morning by his daughter Irene. Dr Hambroer was 75 years of age, but had not been reported to be in ill health so his death came as a shock to his many friends.

St. Cloud—Ground is being broken for the new theater to be constructed on St. Germain street and Tenth avenue. The theater, which has not yet been named, will have a thirty-two-foot entrance on St. Germain street immediately adjoining the new Breen hotel, and between the hotel and the proposed Knights of Columbus building.

Mahnomen—Guy Beatty was in from his farm out in the eastern part of the county. Mr Beatty moved out about a month ago. He has built a house this summer and is quite comfortably fixed. He is enthusiastic over the prospects of that part of the county and will have a lot of neighbors in the spring.

A 10-Day Tube of Pepsodent is sent to all who ask. See coupon.

Why Teeth Stain

You leave a film-coat on them

Most teeth are dimmed more or less by a film. Smokers' teeth often become darkly coated.

That film makes teeth look dingy, and most tooth troubles are now traced to it.

Millions now combat that film in a new, scientific way. This is to offer a test to you, to show the unique results.

You must end film

The film is viscous — you can feel it with your tongue. It clings to teeth, enters crevices and stays.

Ordinary brushing methods leave much of this film intact. So millions find that well-brushed teeth discolor and decay. You must attack film in a better way, else you will suffer from it.

It is the film-coat that discolors, not the teeth. Film is the basis of tartar. It holds food substance which ferments and forms acid. It holds the acid in contact with the teeth to cause decay.

Millions of germs breed in it. They, with tartar, are the chief cause of pyorrhea.

Efficient ways

Dental science, after painstaking research, has developed effective ways to fight film. The world's highest authorities now approve them, after careful tests.

These ways are combined in a dentifrice called Pepsodent. And leading dentists everywhere now advise its daily use. A ten-day tube is being sent to everyone who asks.

Watch these new effects

One ingredient is pepsin. One multiplies the starch digestant in the saliva to dissolve the starch deposits that cling. One multiplies the alkalinity of the saliva to neutralize mouth acids as they form.

Two factors directly attack the film. One keeps the teeth so highly polished that film cannot easily cling.

Pepsodent has brought a new era in teeth cleaning. It fights the tooth destroyers as was never done before.

Send the coupon for a 10-Day Tube. Note how clean the teeth feel after using. Mark the absence of the slimy film. See how teeth whiten as the film-coat disappears.

You will always brush teeth in this new way when you watch the results for a week. Cut out the coupon now.

Pepsodent REG. U.S. PAT. OFF.

The New-Day Dentifrice

A scientific film combatant, combined with two other modern requisites. Now advised for daily use by leading dentists everywhere. Supplied by druggists in large tubes.

ST. PAUL BOXER HEADED FOR TOP

Billy Defoe Defeats Gene Delmont in New York Ring.

Duluth boxing fans will be pleased to know that Billy Defoe, well-known St. Paul featherweight, who has a large acquaintance in this city, is going big in his Eastern bouts and has really made a distinct hit with the Gotham patrons of fistiana. In his last bout Defoe defeated Gene Delmont, the Memphis lightweight and one of the toughest boys at his poundage in the country. His victory places Defoe right in line for a meeting with Johnny Kilbane for the world's featherweight title.

Speaking of the Defoe-Delmont fight, the New York World says:

"Billy Defoe of St. Paul outpointed and outfought Gene Delmont of Memphis in one of the best 15-round bouts seen hereabouts in many a year in the feature event at the opening of the Pioneer Sporting club in East Twenty-fourth street last night. At the start they appeared evenly matched, Defoe weighing 125¼ pounds and Delmont scaling only a quarter of a pound more.

"But before the fight had proceeded many seconds it became apparent that Defoe outclassed his opponent as a boxer. Delmont, however, made up in sheer gameness and willing aggressiveness what he lacked in skill, and although he was on the receiving end almost continuously throughout the battle, he made things interesting for the spectators until the bell rang at the end of the fifteenth round.

"In the last four rounds Defoe had his adversary groggily wobbling about in the ring, but Gene's one great asset, a wicked left swing, kept Defoe at respectful distance on the few occasions that it landed. Despite the fact that Defoe scored with ridiculous ease in the first ten rounds, Delmont, by his rugged gameness, proved that he is entitled to be known as the Battling Nelson of 1920, a soubriquet conferred upon him by his admirers in the South. There were no knockdowns, although Delmont slipped to the floor in the sixth round."

SPITBALL KINGS TO GET REPRIEVE

Saliva Experts Can Continue Freak Delivery in Majors.

Chicago, Nov. 23.—Spitball pitchers are to be given a reprieve, according to information gleaned last week while the sixteen major league clubs were assembled here to arrange peace. The rule established by the baseball legislators that the moist ball delivery would have to be discarded by all twirlers after the season of 1920 is to be rescinded. Pitchers who use the ball are to be permitted to continue it as long as they remain in either the National or American league.

Club owners in both organizations realize the hardship it would work on several of the teams in each league if the pitchers were restrained from using their favorite delivery and only asset. They also realize the injustice it would work on the individual himself. There are many moist ball throwers in the major leagues who still have several years of good baseball before them. These men, if the rule made last year were not rescinded, would be forced to retire from the game or slip into some minor league where the saliva ball is tolerated.

Pitchers Getting Up Petition.

The spitball pitchers themselves have started to get up a petition to present to the presidents of the National and American leagues asking them to repeal the law that would bar them from operating next year. They declare they have devoted all their time to developing the spitball and at their present age it is impossible for them to acquire a curve ball that would be sufficiently effective to keep them in the ranks. They believe that as long as they have been in the game for so many years they ought to be allowed to continue until they have lost their effectiveness.

The elimination of the spitball would work a hardship on the Cleveland team, champions of the American league and the world. Its best pitcher, Stanley Coveleskie, uses that particular delivery to decided advantage. Without it he would be of little use to Tris Speaker. If it is taken from him, the Indians will lose one of the best pitchers in the American league and the one twirler expected to make Speaker's team a pennant contender next year. Coveleskie has been twirling for a number of years and still has a few years of good pitching before him if permitted to continue the spitball, but if it is taken from him, his career will stop before the 1921 campaign begins.

Rule Hits the Yankees.

Cleveland is not the only team in the Johnson circuit who will be hit hard if the rule governing the spitballers is enforced. New York will receive a jolt if Jack Quinn is prevented from using his fast breaking spitter. He is one of the best in the game, but does not rely solely on that particular bender. He has a curve ball that is good enough to make him effective for a year or two.

There are several spitball pitchers in the National league who will lose nearly every bit of effectiveness if the moist ball is banished. They are Phil Douglas of the New York Giants, Burleigh Grimes of the Brooklyn Dodgers, Dana Fillingim of the Boston Braves, Bill Doak of the St. Louis Cardinals and Ray Fisher of the Cincinnati Reds. Lee Meadows of the Phillies uses the spitball frequently and has done effective work with it, but his curve and speed are good enough to keep him in the league.

LEWIS WINNER OVER ZBYSZKO

New York, Nov. 23.—Ed "Strangler" Lewis of Lexington, Ky., threw Wladek Zbyszko of Poland in a catch-as-catch-can wrestling match last night with a flying headlock in 1 hour, 25 minutes, 45 seconds. Lewis thereby earned the right to meet Joe Stecher of Dodge, Neb., world's champion, who last night threw Leon O'Donnell of France in 11 minutes and 40 seconds with a body scissors and arm hold.

Armos Laitinen of Finland pinned Dan McDonald of Nova Scotia to the mat with a body hold in 10 minutes, 22 seconds.

The Lewis-Zbyszko bout was rough, both men trying often for toe holds. In the last five minutes Lewis obtained three headlocks, from two of which his opponent escaped. Lewis was in jeopardy when the Pole got a toe hold and a body hold, but squirmed out and gained his feet. With the final headlock he threw Zbyszko and, retaining the hold, forced the dazed Pole's shoulders to the mat.

CUBS PLAN TRADES TO STRENGTHEN NINE

Chicago, Nov. 23.—Trades designed to strengthen the Chicago National league team are being arranged, but under no circumstances will Grover Cleveland Alexander, pitcher, or Charles Hollocher, shortstop, be sent to another team, John Seys, secretary of the club, announced last night.

"Reports that we are trying to trade Alexander and Hollocher to Cincinnati are foolish," he said. "We are trying to arrange several trades, but they don't include Alexander or Hollocher."

HAL IN TROUBLE AGAIN; WIFE ASKING DIVORCE

Cincinnati, Ohio, Nov. 23.—Mrs. Anna M. Chase yesterday entered suit for divorce from Hal Chase, former first baseman of the Cincinnati and New York Nationals, now under indictment in Chicago in connection with the alleged fixing of the 1919 world's series.

Mrs. Chase charged Chase with associating with other women, with spending money in gambling and dissipation.

THREE CANADIAN SEPTETS SIGNED

Monarchs, Victorias and Winnipeg to Play in Duluth.

Games with Winnipeg's three renowned septets—the Monarchs, the Victorias and the Winnipegs—and possibly with the world's champion Falcons, are assured in the schedule of the Duluth American Legion hockey team this winter.

Gordon Hegardt, manager of the local team, yesterday received acceptance of an offer he made to the three Winnipeg amateur sevens for games in Duluth. Six teams which formerly held sway in Winnipeg have been reduced to three, and therefore the star talent has been packed into each, with the result of much greater strength.

Although no definite answer has been obtained, negotiations are progressing for a game with the Falcons of Winnipeg, who won the Canadian title last winter, and then went across the Atlantic intact, and, representing the Dominion, won the hockey championship of the world, in the finals defeating the all-star American crew from the Boston, Pittsburgh and St. Paul lineups.

The Canadian teams are all in addition to the best of the American sevens, who will be brought here this winter. No definite dates have been arranged by any clubs as yet, because in America a lot hinges on efforts now under way to perfect the United States National Hockey league, into which Duluth has requested admission, and because organization of leagues and schedules is now under way in Canada.

LANDIS FACES FIRST BASEBALL DECISION

Chicago, Nov. 23.—Records of the old national baseball commission have been transferred from Cincinnati to Chicago in preparation for the opening of offices here for Judge Landis as ruler of the major leagues. By a visit to Cincinnati last week Judge Landis familiarized himself with the workings of the old national commission.

One of the first important decisions expected, according to reports is the division of about $15,000 among members of the White Sox team which earned second place money in the 1920 race. Strong opposition has arisen in some quarters to the proposal to exclude from shares the seven former White Sox players under indictment for participation in "throwing the 1919 world's series."

They played with the 1920 White Sox until the confessions of Eddie Cicotte and Joe Jackson which led to their definite suspension just before the closing series of the season.

RECORD CROWDS SEE STAGG TEAM PLAY

Chicago, Nov. 23.—In attendance and gate receipts, the University of Chicago football team of the season just closed outdrew any other team that ever played in this section of the country, it was announced today. In seven games, six of them at Stagg field, 168,000 saw the Maroons with their opponents. For each of the last five games the attendance did not drop below 25,000 and had the field been able to accommodate more than 30,000, it is believed several of these crowds would have been doubled.

MERE PRACTICE ROMP.

O'Donnel Hits 106 Miles an Hour and Breaks Record.

Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 23.—Eddie O'Donnel, in practice today for the 250-mile championship automobile race on the Los Angeles speedway Thanksgiving day, broke the record for 183-inch cars on that track when he went around the mile and a quarter oval in 42.02 seconds, or at the rate of 106.13 miles an hour.

The previous record for the track was a lap in 42 3-5 seconds, or a speed of 105.14 miles an hour.

BICYCLES RETURN.

Road Races, Craze of Twenty Years Ago, Now Revived.

New York, Nov. 23.—Bicycle road races, which were a craze in the United States two decades ago, are enjoying a revival in the metropolitan district. The old days were recalled today when it was announced the Empire City wheelmen would hold a handicap road race for its members on Thanksgiving day, over the twenty-five-mile course on Ocean parkway, Brooklyn.

WARD VICTOR OVER BROCK IN TAME FIGHT

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 23.—Bobby Ward, St. Paul lightweight, outpointed Matt Brock of Cleveland in a tame ten-round, no-decision boxing bout here last night in the opinion of newspaper men. Ward floored Brock in the tenth with a right cross.

Jack Josephs of Minneapolis shaded Al Vanryn of St. Paul in six rounds.

GREB WINS DECISION IN SCRAP WITH MOHA

Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 23.—Harry Greb of Pittsburgh, light-heavyweight boxer, was awarded the newspaper decision last night over Bob Moha of Milwaukee in a ten-round no-decision fight here. Greb weighed in at the ringside at 171 pounds and took seven rounds, while Moha, who weighed in at 169 pounds, won one round, fighting two to a draw.

DULUTH MAY GET ORGANIZED BALL

Milwaukee Promoters Plan to Revive Old Northern League.

Milwaukee promoters are planning on reviving the old Northern Baseball league, which included the cities of Winnipeg, Duluth, Brandon, Fargo, Grand Forks and Superior. Just how far the plans will progress and what will eventually become of the movement will depend entirely upon the caliber of the men who are back of it, their experience in promoting baseball and easy capital that can be drawn on to finance the formation of the proposed circuit.

Winnipeg, it is stated, is not entirely satisfied with the manner in which professional baseball has been conducted there in years and is yearning for a change which will take the Manitoba metropolis out of the Canadian league and place it on a wheel with American cities. When Winnipeg was a member of the old Northern league it was one of the best baseball cities in the minors. Great crowds attended all of the games and the team owners were prosperous.

Just who would be willing to back a baseball league movement in Duluth is a problem but if the right kind of a proposition is advanced, there are certain Duluth men who might be willing to head the movement. Fargo and Grand Forks, as well as Superior and Brandon are said to be ripe for organized ball and with this spirit rife the game should be made to pay right from the grand opening date on.

It is said that a meeting of the various interests in the different cities of the proposed league will be called late in December or early in January, probably in Duluth, when the proposition will be given formal airing.

PULITZER RACE DRAWS FLYERS

Mineola, N. Y., Nov. 23.—Attracted by the promise of new world's flying records, airplane enthusiasts gathered at Mitchell field here today for the first of the trial events for the Pulitzer trophy race, Thanksgiving day. Planes rated as the speediest in the world were entered in the preliminaries.

Army air service pilots confidentially predicted that their pet machine, the 600-horse power plane which was the entry of the United States in the James Gordon Bennett races at Etampes, France, would eclipse the record of 192 miles attained in France. Lieut. C. C. Mosley, who went to France as alternate to Capt. Rudolph Schroeder, was selected as pilot. The air service entry went into the air at Etampes with Capt. Schroeder as pilot, but a mechanical defect cut it out of the contest.

The course for the trial flights here is one mile and one kilometer. Officials of the Aero Club of America, observers at the trials, will certify the records made to the Federation Aeronautique Internationale.

EVERS ASSUMES JOB: DENIES TRADE RUMOR

New York, Nov. 23.—Johnny Evers, new manager of the Chicago Cubs, plans to leave tomorrow for Chicago to take up his duties. Asked today as to persistent reports that a big trade is being negotiated between the Cubs and the Cincinnati Reds he said:

"There is nothing to it."

Herzog Convalescent.

Baltimore, Md., Nov. 23.—Charles (Buck) Herzog, second baseman of the Chicago National league club, who underwent a serious operation for intestinal trouble at a local hospital here about two weeks ago, is again on his feet and plans to return to his Eastern shore farm soon.

CARLETON WINS STATE PENNANT

Minnesota College Football Teams Finish Their Schedules.

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 23.—Big Ten and Minnesota college conference football for 1920 closed Saturday, with Ohio State champions of the Big Ten and Carleton college supreme in Gopher collegiate circles.

Minnesota finished in the Big Ten with the poorest conference record ever shown by that institution during a season—six straight losses and not a win, the University of North Dakota, a nonconference team, being Minnesota's only victim.

Ohio State's victory Saturday forced Illinois into fourth place, where a win would have given the Suckers a claim to the championship. As the race finished, Wisconsin is second, Indiana a third and Illinois fourth, with Iowa, Michigan, Northwestern, Chicago, Purdue and Minnesota following in the order named.

With the exception of Michigan, the conference teams will put away their football clothes until next season. Michigan, however, meets Notre Dame at East Lansing on Thanksgiving day and will close the season Dec. 4 against Tulane university at New Orleans.

Carleton won the state college conference championship by defeating Macalester, runner-up, 17 to 0. On Thanksgiving day the champions will meet the Ripon college team from Ripon, Wis., at Northfield.

Other Northwest teams to be in action this week include the University of South Dakota against Creighton at Omaha and Yankton college and Dakota Wesleyan at Mitchell, S. D. The University of North Dakota will close the season against Valparaiso university at Valparaiso, Ind.

Patronesses for Fights.

New York, Nov. 23.—Prominent society women in New York, headed by Mrs. Vincent Astor, will be patronesses at boxing bouts in the ballroom of a hotel on Dec. 14, it was announced today. The contestants will be members of recently organized clubs of wayward boys.

Wants Gamblers Barred.

New York, Nov. 23.—William W. H. McCarthy, president of the Pacific Coast Baseball league, and Charles H. Strub, owner of the San Francisco club, who are on a short tour in the East, declared here today that "the only way to clean up baseball is to go after the gamblers." They urged the barring of every known professional gambler from the parks of organized baseball.

Pacific Coast Game.

Eugene, Or., Nov. 23.—Twenty members of the University of Oregon football team are en route today to Pasadena, Cal., for a Thanksgiving day game with the University of Southern California. It is the team's second Pasadena trip.

Decisive Victory.

Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 23.—Joe Burman of Chicago decisively outpointed Carl Tremaine of Cleveland in an eight-round bout here last night.

MAY CALL OFF GAME.

Duluth and Superior Pro Teams Having Trouble Over Date.

Hopes of the Duluth and Superior professional football teams meeting on the gridiron this fall began to die this morning when Manager Art Olson of the Superior eleven requested that the game be put over from Thanksgiving day to next Sunday. He did not give any particular reason for this, but it is believed that Chuck Darling, Superior fullback, will play with the Minnesota All-Stars on that day against the Marines at Minneapolis, and Superior does not care to tackle Duluth without him.

"With real winter weather threatening to move in any hour, I don't like the idea of a postponement and, as far as I am concerned, will disband my team at once," said Manager Joe Feekes of the Duluth eleven this morning. "Thanksgiving day is generally accepted as the very final of the football year. We will reach some decision today so that it will be possible for us to make a definite announcement tomorrow."

Feekes was not certain, either, whether the game, if played, will be staged in Superior or Duluth.

HOREMANS DECLINES TO PLAY HOPPE TILL 1921

New York, Nov. 23.—Edouard Horemans, European billiard champion, has declined to accept the challenge to meet Willie Hoppe, world's champion in a match before the end of the year, it was announced today. In a formal reply to the challenge issued last week by R. B. Benjamin, Hoppe's manager, Horemans expressed a desire to meet the champion next February or March.

The Belgian cueist said he wanted to be absolutely sure he was in the best form before attempting to play Hoppe.

Billiard Record.

Cincinnati, Ohio, Nov. 23.—What is said to be a new amateur record in three cushion billiards was established here last night when Paul Redlich made a run of 17 and defeated Cliff Peebles 25 to 13 in a match game. Both are Cincinnati men.

Toledo Awarded Tourney.

Toledo, Ohio, Nov. 23.—Toledo today was assigned the 1922 national tournament of the American Bowling congress, it was announced by Al Langtry, secretary of the A. B. C.

PARTY WORKS UNDERGROUND

United Communists Holding Meetings With the Utmost Secrecy.

Chicago, Nov. 23.—The first "underground party" that the United States has ever seen is now believed to be operating, according to Edward J. Brennan, division superintendent of the bureau of investigation of the department of justice here.

"It appears," he said, "that the members or a great majority of them of the Communist parties have gone over to a third Communist party that seems to be maintaining a secrecy never before attempted by an American radical organization.

"These people appear to be holding meetings with the utmost secrecy with which they can surround them. Names used appear fictitious.

"The Russian element, which formed the backbone of the original Communist party, appears to be in control and to have the bulk of the membership of the new secret organization.

Unusual Precautions.

Literature is frequently distributed without any indication as to where it comes from. In order to escape detection, it appears that the party members take unusual precautions. The members are known among themselves and literature is passed around among them, sometimes by messenger. When mailed, we know that it is done in small quantities, three or four letters or packages in a box in one corner of a city and three or four in a box in another section.

"The party has its largest membership in Chicago and New York. In Chicago meetings have been made extra difficult by the Illinois law which forbids renting property to an outlaw organization of this character. Property owners who become suspicious often call us to make sure on this point.

"It is my individual conviction that the United Communist party, the old Communist party and kindred associations of this nature are unlawful in that they advocate the overthrow of the government by force and violence.

No Part in Elections.

"The original Communist party, which was organized here a year ago, took a stand against participating in elections. This it held to be of no use and it urged a Bolshevik program. I have no knowledge myself of literature being recently distributed urging against taking part in the presidential election as was reported in press dispatches from the East at the time, but if this was the case, it was in line with what the party appears to stand for.

"It will be recalled that pamphlets, literature and circular letters were sent out broadcast to members of the Communist party and that lecturers gave instructions at their meetings that if at any time a member was interviewed or attempted to be interviewed by any person, particularly by a Federal or state officer, to answer no questions and tell them nothing, and in the event of a member being arrested, to say nothing, and that as soon as possible he would be provided with a defense.

"Evidence adduced in the trial of John Jassinakas and J. Juodis before Judge Landis here last week disclosed how secretly they were working."

TAKE TRAINING COURSE IN SOCIAL HYGIENE

Washington, Nov. 22.—Nearly 50 persons, social workers and public health officials, enrolled here today for a special two weeks training course in venereal disease control and social hygiene conducted by the United States public health service.

The training course is conducted as a preliminary to the all-American conference on venereal diseases to be held here Dec. 6 to 11.

COSTS $1.87 TO PRODUCE BUSHEL MONTANA WHEAT

Bozeman, Mont., Nov. 23.—The average cost of producing a bushel of wheat on nonirrigated farms in Montana this year was $1.87, according to a statement by Prof. E. L. Currier, head of the department of farm management at the state college here. His statement is based upon statistics gathered this fall from farms in eighteen counties.

While the average cost of production was $1.87, 25 per cent of the farms reporting showed per bushel costs above $3.25. On the other hand, 2.1 per cent of the farms reporting showed per bushel production cost under $1. Three farms reported a per bushel production cost of $10 or more and three others reported complete failures, not a bushel being produced.

The average production on these nonirrigated farms was 10.9 bushels. The average cost of production per acre was $20.38.

GIANT EAGLE TRIES TO CARRY OFF BOY

Glencoe, Wyo., Nov. 23.—It took the combined efforts of the Spaulding family yesterday to save 8-year-old Walter Spaulding from being carried away by a giant eagle at their ranch.

The huge bird with a spread of eight feet, attacked Walter in the ranch yard. He grasped the eagle by the neck and screamed for help.

John, Walter's 7-year-old brother, came to the rescue, and a third boy ran for help. Mrs. Spaulding beat off the bird with a stick and the eagle attacked her. She was saved when Mr. Spaulding appeared with a shotgun.

The two boys were lacerated by the eagle's claws.

Fined for Beating Pupil.

Chicago, Nov. 23.—F. T. Goodier, superintendent of schools in Chicago Heights, yesterday was fined $100 and costs for beating Russell Healy, a 12-year-old pupil, with a rubber hose. He was found guilty of assault with a deadly weapon.

Do the Busy Days Show Up Your Strength?

The busy day is a true test of your physical condition. The way your mind and body forces respond under stress indicates the extent of your reserve power; discloses the strength or weakness of your staying qualities.

When your work piles high, with matters of importance surging in upon you in a seemingly endless stream, and it's hurry and confusion on every hand, do you feel that sensation of being on the verge of "flying to pieces," under the crystallizing effect of the high tension? If you do, then there's something wrong.

Your inability to keep cool and collected, your readiness to petulancy, your tendency to nervousness, your inclination to lose your temper and "fly off the handle" are indubitable signs of a disordered and out-of-gear condition of your general system.

Such symptoms are a real barometer of your physical and nervous condition. They tell of a threatened breakdown cautioning you to slow up and take observation of yourself.

In such situations there is safety in FORCE, the master rebuilder. It is your protection against the peril of a general and nervous break-down, because it will tide you over the danger period, and bring you back to normal health by its sustaining and reconstructive properties.

FORCE might well be called a tissue and nerve food, because its real tendency is to supply the nourishment needed by the impoverished organs of the body. It feeds the hungry nerve cells and rebuilds the broken down tissues.

If your nerves are shattered and your physical powers exhausted, don't run the risk of a collapse—commence at once to fortify your system with FORCE. It will bring you increased energy, renewed strength and greater endurance.

FORCE is sold by reliable druggists everywhere, and is equally beneficial to men, women and children

WANDERS FAR TO SEE MOVIE; NIGHT IN CITY JAIL

Attending a local theater alone last evening and staying until the end of the final performance, then wandering along the streets to look at the windows, caused Maggie Yelich, aged 11 years old, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. Yelich, 1512 Ninety-seventh avenue west, to be picked up by Detectives Englert and Boland at 1:15 o'clock this morning. The child was standing shivering from cold on the corner of Fifth avenue west and Superior street.

The father came to police headquarters this morning to get his daughter. He told the police that the girl had been allowed to go to the show, there was no idea that she intended to go uptown. The girl had missed her last car for the suburb. She passed the night in the women's department at police headquarters.

WILL SERVE TURKEY TO ALL A. O. U. W. MEMBERS

Turkey will be substituted for venison as the meat course to be served at the annual banquet for members of West Duluth lodge No. 145, A. O. U. W., at its annual meeting Monday, Dec. 13, according to plans for the affair made last night. Special invitations will be sent to every member of the local lodge and invitations will also be extended to members of Fidelity lodge No. 10 and Rice's Point lodge No. 80.

The annual election will be held earlier in the evening, with the business meeting called to order at 8 o'clock sharp. The banquet will be served in the hall at 10 p. m. An informal program will also be arranged at which short talks will be given. In charge of the arrangements are A. C. Baumgartner, chairman; T. F. Olsen and J. T. Morin. The banquet will be free but no one who is not a member of the order will be admitted.

Meetings Every Night.

The Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints is holding meetings at 31 South Fifty-third avenue west every night at 8 o'clock. All are invited. This organization is not in any way connected with what is usually known as the Mormon church. The speaker, Rev. William Sparling, is the city pastor of the Minneapolis branch and district president for Minnesota and North Dakota.

EVERY RAILROAD MAN SHOULD READ THIS

Peterson's Ointment Co., Inc., Buffalo, N. Y. Dear Sirs: I was afflicted with what the doctors said were Varicose Ulcers, and up until about five weeks ago I have been treating them for about a year and five months.

With all the treatments that were prescribed to me by several doctors I received little benefit, and they kept spreading and gave me much distress and caused me to quit my work.

I was induced by a brother brakeman to try Peterson's Ointment, and after I had used two boxes I saw the wonderful results. You can tell suffering ones troubled with ugly, painful and horrid ulcers that your Ointment is a cure for them when everything else fails, as I have tried about everything.

Thanking you many times over, I am, your happy friend, Chas. J. Heyser, Battle Creek, Mich., 42 Glenwood Avenue. January 12, 1916.

ANNUAL AUCTION TO BE HELD WEDNESDAY

Central School Will Attempt to Break Big Record of Last Year.

Central high school is all abustle today in preparation for the annual Thanksgiving day auction tomorrow afternoon. Classes will be dismissed at 1 o'clock. A. F. M. Custance, for more than a quarter of a century the official auctioneer, will again mingle elaborate praise of unknown candies and raucous threats to withdraw prize lots about to be seized by bargain hunters. The purpose of the auction is to raise the utmost income possible to be distributed in the form of food, clothing and fuel to the poor on Thanksgiving day.

More specifically, Central high students are aiming to break last year's record of $806. Each student has contributed his share of candy, pennants, and pillows. The aim today was to form pools to increase the buying power of individuals and make possible bids for the greatest prizes. Katherine McDonald and Wilbur Taylor head the committee of seniors which has charge of the auction.

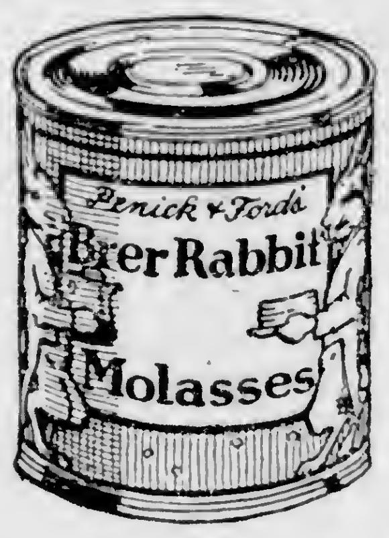
THIEVES GO TOO FAR.

Hotel Guest "Sore" at Loss of Big "Roll" and His Gloves.

"They might have left me a dollar or two for a meal or at least not have stolen my gloves," said Oscar Carlson, who today told the police how he woke up in a room at the Superior hotel this morning minus his roll of $325. Carlson and a party of others left Duluth for Superior last night.

Carlson now wants the police to begin at the original starting point of the party in the search for his missing bank roll. He told how he had met a friend who had taken him where he got a drink or two and then the pair had picked up a couple of women.

"I was drunk when I got into the auto and I didn't know where we went," said Carlson. "It's not the first time I have had such experience but they never got as much money from me before. It made me sore when I found they had taken my gloves."



Molasses cookies—with the real old plantation flavor

THE flavor of fresh sugar cane molasses! Twenty-two years ago, two Louisiana boys remembered fondly the goodies made with the sweet juice from the fresh crushed sugar cane that used to bubble over the crackling bonfires down on the old plantation.

Spurred on by delicious memories they determined to restore to the world that bygone delicacy—fresh sugar cane molasses. They put up a molasses so fragrant, so full flavored, so sweet and pure that the first taste carries you back to childhood joys. And they named it Brer Rabbit in honor of the hero in the plantation stories of their childhood.

Today it is the most popular molasses in America.

One taste and you know the difference its old-time flavor makes in cooking. Get Brer Rabbit, either the light molasses (gold label—for table use as well as cooking) or the dark molasses (green label—a stronger flavor for cooking), at your grocer's today. Penick & Ford, Ltd., New Orleans.

Give the children Molasses Cookies

1 cup Brer Rabbit Molasses
1 tablespoon ginger
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1 teaspoon soda
½ cup soft butter
Flour to make soft dough

Cream butter, add molasses, spices; soda and flour. Roll out one-fourth inch thick and cut in small rounds or fancy shapes. Sprinkle with granulated sugar and bake in a quick oven.

DISPOSAL OF LUMBER ISSUE

Federal Hearing in Wilcox Co. Bankruptcy Case; Property Worth $90,000.

Whether 3,500,000 feet of lumber, valued at about $90,000, will be distributed for the benefit of the general creditors of the bankrupt Wilcox Lumber company or whether it will be divided among six other lumber companies, each of which is claiming title to a portion, is the issue before W. O. Pealer, referee in bankruptcy, who is conducting hearings in the case in the United States court.

The six plaintiff companies contend that each of them had contracts for lumber with the Wilcox firm. Most of the contracts were oral and a few were executed in part. The claims of the seven companies overlap and a total of 7,000,000 board feet is mentioned in the complaints.

E. G. Robie, who has been named trustee in bankruptcy, is defending the suit. His attorneys are Courtney & Courtney, and Donald S. Holmes. The plaintiffs are represented by about ten attorneys, several of whom are from Minneapolis and Chicago.

Treasurer Testifies.

Stanley E. Wilcox, treasurer of the company, testified this morning that the lumber in question is at Silverdale in Koochiching county. He was the manager of the yard there for several months during the year. Summoned as a witness by the Rathbone & Ridgeway Lumber company, he testified that the lumber for each company was placed in piles and the company's name plainly marked. On cross-examination it was brought out that when orders were filled lumber was taken indiscriminately form all piles.

Several of the complaints charge that the lumber in question has already been paid for. In return, the defense has answered that under the bankruptcy law, the plaintiffs have no more than secret chattle mortgages which cannot be treated as preferred claims.

EITHER PACKAGE MAY CONTAIN STEEL SAW

It developed today that there were two packages, either one of which might have contained the steel saws which were smuggled into the Douglas county jail and into the hands of Harry Markle, alias "Moonshine Harry," who is being held as one of the men who held up and robbed a pool room several days ago. Both packages are said to have been sent by Miss Edith Wahl, one of them a carton of cigarets being forwarded to Mrs. Hilda C. Markle, wife of the prisoner and the other a box of candy to Attorney Peter Cadigan.

Both packages were delivered to the prisoner after a casual inspection by the jailor. It now develops that either of these might have contained the saws. Miss Wahl, who was defended by Attorney Cadigan, claims that the candy box did not contain them. Miss Wahl is held to the superior court.

Mrs. Markle delivered the package of cigarets and was innocent of knowledge that it contained saws. The package was mailed to her with the request that it be delivered to her husband. Five of the steel saws have been found. It is claimed that there were six of them and until the sixth can be found Markle will be held in a special cell at the county jail.

HIGH TIDE FLOODS BOSTON WATER FRONT

Boston, Mass., Nov. 23.—A tide which backed by an easterly gale attained a rise of twelve feet, ran over wharves on the water front today, brought confusion to shipping and caused washouts on railroad tracks. The wind reached a velocity of sixty miles an hour.

Only three vessels approached the port and none of these could dock.

Rowboats displaced automobiles as conveyances on Winthrop thoroughfares. The sea broke over the wall there. Houses were flooded. At Winthrop beach a new pier was destroyed.

A warehouse which has been a landmark at Fort Beach, Marblehead, for nearly a century, was blown down.

HERALD EMPLOYES GIVE WELL TO RED CROSS ROLL

Today the subscriptions of The Herald employes were turned over to Red Cross headquarters at 507 Alworth building. The list was passed around this office yesterday and of those whom it was possible to reach in time not one failed to enroll. The Herald employes, so far as they have been seen, are 100 per cent for the roll call.

ADAMS SCHOOL TO GIVE PROGRAM

The children of the Adams school, Eighteenth avenue west and Superior street, will give a Thanksgiving program at the school tomorrow afternoon. The program will begin at 2 o'clock. All those interested are invited to attend.

The program will open with a selection by the orchestra and will include: A chorus, "We Thank Thee" by children from rooms 14, 15 and 16; a recitation, "The First Thanksgiving," by Ellen Miller; Thanksgiving proclamations in four parts, an introduction by Margaret Cadotte, Washington's proclamation by Harry Glick, Lincoln's proclamation by Bertram Stessen and Wilson's 1920 proclamation by Blanche Levant; "The First Thanksgiving" by a group of five girls from room 12; a dialogue, "A Different Point of View," by two boys and three girls from room 6; two songs, "Pop Corn and Farmer in the Dell," by room 3; a folk dance by room 11; a recitation, "Thanksgiving Joy," by Edward Larson; a dialogue, "Penelope's Thanksgiving," by pupils from room 3; a dramatization, "Thanksgiving Conundrums," by room 5; a song, "Now, Is Just the Time," by five boys, room 7; recitation, "Psalm 100," by Elly Ekstrom; a recitation, "Thanksgiving Dinner," by room 3; violin solo by Audrey Swenson; "Thanksgiving on the Farm" by four girls from room 16; a folk dance by the pupils of the first grade; "A Thanksgiving Dream" by five girls and six boys of room 6; "Thanksgiving on Grandfather's Farm," by room 12; a recitation by Esther Futter; a dialogue, "The Puritans' Thanksgiving," by pupils of room 7, and the closing number a selection by the orchestra.

HOME-COOKED FOODS GO FAST AT CHURCH SALE

Although they have doubled the amount of home-cooked foods on sale this year, the women of the Second Presbyterian church, who are conducting a baking sale today at Swanstrom Bros.' real estate office, 27 North Twenty-first avenue west, state that they expect to be all sold out by closing time tonight. The chairman of the committee for the sale said today that most of the housewives of the West end were taking advantage of this opportunity to purchase things for their Thanksgiving tables. The sale will close at 10:30 tonight.

Brende Funeral Wednesday.

Funeral services for Peter R. Brende, 2616 West Fifth street, will be held at the family residence at 2 o'clock and at the First Norwegian Lutheran church, First avenue east and Third street, at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. The body will lie in state at the residence until 12 m. tomorrow. Interment will be in Park Hill.

Central Baptist Notes.

The West End Prophetic Bible class meets at 7:45 every Tuesday night for an hour's study on the book of Daniel. This class is open for all who wish to attend.

Thursday morning at 10:30, the annual Thanksgiving service of the English speaking churches of the West end will be held at this church. Rev. Thomas D. Whittles of the Second Presbyterian church will preach the sermon.

Next Sunday afternoon is the time set for the every-member-canvass of the church and congregation. The captains have been appointed and each one will select his mate for the team work. A letter has been prepared by the committee in charge and will be sent to each family of the congregation before the team calls.

Ian McDonald, the blind evangelist, attended service Sunday morning and addressed the Bible school for a few minutes.

West End Briefs.

Lieut. Carl A. Holmstrom of the police department returned from a week's vacation in the woods this morning.

The Duluth lodge of the Swedish-American National league will hold its annual bazar at Woodman hall, Twenty-first avenue west and First street, during the week of Dec. 6. A committee is now at work planning the entertainment for the celebration.

It's True Economy to Buy the Best

Munsingwear is best. It will wear longer, wash better, fit and cover the form more perfectly and give more real comfort and satisfaction than any other underwear on the market. It's fine in quality, fine enough to suit the most fastidious. Its first cost is not nearly as great as the cost of much of the "fad" underwear, and it's much more sensible and serviceable.

THANKSGIVING TO BE HOLIDAY

Stores and Offices Will Be Closed; Services at Churches.

All Duluth will cease its toil Thursday in observance of Thanksgiving day.

Public offices, retail stores, wholesale houses and industrial plants will be closed. A holiday has been officially proclaimed both by President Wilson and Governor Burnquist.

In the morning the day will be generally observed with services at many Duluth churches. Several of the congregations have combined for union services. These will be held at the First Presbyterian for downtown section, at the Central Baptist church in the West end for the English congregations and at the Swedish Tabernacle for the Scandinavian congregations, and at the Holy Apostles' Episcopal church at West Duluth. Several of the churches are also planning entertainments for the evening.

Mail Service.

"There will be no delivery of mail by carrier either in the business or residence districts, the day being observed the same as Sunday.

"For the benefit of transients receiving mail the general delivery as well as the stamp and registry window will be open till 12 noon.

"There will be prompt delivery of all special delivery matter, including perishable parcel post as well as letters.

"Business at contract stations will be carried on during the hours that the stores in which they are located are open.

"There will be no collections in the residence districts, but in the mixed territory and business sections collections will be made at 11 a. m., 2, 4 and 6 p. m.

"The regular holiday schedule of exchanges of mail with all stations will be in effect.

"Outgoing dispatches of mail will be made as on week days, except the night mail will close at 9 p. m. instead of 10:30 p. m.

"The money order and postal savings windows will be closed all day, and there will be no service on rural routes."

FOUR COMPANIES FILE ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

Four corporations filed articles of incorporation and amended articles this morning with the register of deeds.

The Cole-Rees company of Virginia is capitalized at $50,000 with George H. Cole, A. W. Rees and E. L. Boyle, all of Virginia, as incorporators. It will engage in the real estate business.

The O-Che-Cho Laboratory & Supply company has organized to engage in the manufacture and sale of hair, scalp and skin remedies. The capital stock is $30,000 and the incorporators are: Frank A. Melvin, Arthur C. Belgard and Carl Johnson.

Two subsidiaries of the Marshall-Wells company filed amended articles of incorporation. The Sheet Metal Products company, formerly the Duluth Corrugating & Roofing company, amended its articles to change the number of its directors from three to five. The Duluth Chow Case company filed an amendment to its incorporation articles changing the number of its directors and making new provisions for the election of officers.

CLERGYMAN SUES FOR DIVORCE HERE

Divorce proceedings were instituted in district court today by R. Edward Sayles, former pastor of the First Baptist church of this city, against his wife, Jessie H. Sayles. No complaint has yet been filed by attorneys for the plaintiff and the grounds for divorce do not appear from the note of issue for the January term of court which is the only paper in the case which has been filed to date.

EXPECT EXTRADITION OF FEDERAL AGENTS

Hurley, Wis., Nov. 23.—(Special to The Herald.)—With Sheriff Mike White called to Lansing by District Attorney Marion F. Reid, it was indicated here that the application for the extradition of Federal men wanted in connection with the fatal shooting of John M. Chapuzio of Hurley, was honored by Governor E. L. Philipp and the district attorney is now engaged in obtaining the co-operation of the Michigan governor.

Messages received since the county officials reached Lansing indicate they will procede to Springfield, Ill., to confer with Governor Lowden with the view to extraditing those men wanted who are in Illinois. The arrest of six Federal agents is sought. Leo J. Grove, group chief of the Upper Peninsula, and two other men have headquarters at Marquette. The three other men are working out of the Chicago office and were sent by Maj. Dalrymple to assist Grove in the raid which proved fatal to the Hurley saloonkeeper.

That the governors of Michigan and Illinois will honor requisitions for extradition of the Federal agents is confidently expected, as it is the contention of Hurley authorities that Governor Philipp probably was "sure of his ground" before he approved the application of the Iron county district attorney.

"BAD MAN" WITHOUT GUN WHEN ARRESTED

Hurley, Wis., Nov. 23.—(Special to The Herald.)—That Marshal Frank Dardas of Hurley was fully aware of the fact that Chris Nolan, "bad man" of Minneapolis, caught here last week, was in Hurley, but wanted to wait until such time as he thought Nolan was not armed," is the allegation made by the officer in the case. Dardas had been previously warned that Nolan would fire any time he thought anyone would attempt to arrest him. When Nolan was arrested he had left his gun at his rooming place.

Break Chest Colds With Red Peppers

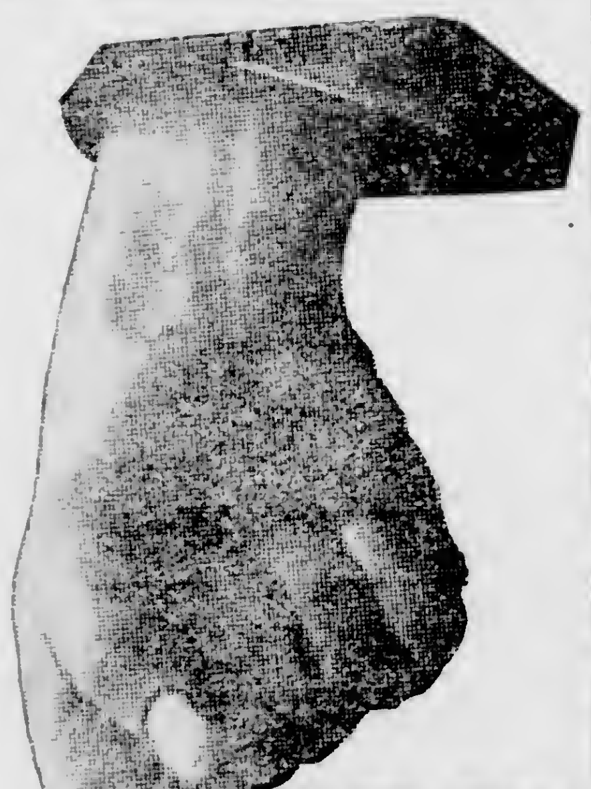
Ease your tight, aching chest. Stop the pain. Break up the congestion. Feel a bad cold loosen up in just a short time.

"Red Pepper Rub" is the cold remedy that brings the quickest relief. It cannot hurt you and it certainly seems to end the tightness and drive the congestion and soreness right out.

When heat penetrates right down into colds, congestion, aching muscles and sore, stiff joints, relief comes at once.

Nothing has such concentrated, penetrating heat as red peppers. The moment you apply Red Pepper Rub for colds, backache, sore muscles, stiff neck, lumbago, or the pains of rheumatism or neuritis, you feel the tingling heat.

In three minutes the congested spot is warmed through and through. When you are suffering so you can hardly get about, just get a jar of Rowles Red Pepper Rub, made from red peppers, at any drug store. You will have the quickest relief known.—Advertisement.



GRIP MAY RETURN

Doctors say influenza may come back. If it does, be ready to fight off the germs by taking Father John's Medicine now to build new resisting power.

Remember, this pure food Medicine is guaranteed free from alcohol and dangerous drugs and has been successfully used for 60 years for colds, coughs and as a body-builder.

The foundation of good dress

Richmond Union Suits are a correct foundation for well-fitting clothes. Their perfection of design banishes unsightly wrinkles or bunching. They give the wearer unrestricted comfort—composure—poise.

Richmonds combine the economy of long service with the satisfaction of wearing the best that can be made.

The snug-fitting Richmond collar is tailored to conform to the shape of the neck. It never binds, even after repeated washings and the top button can always be fastened without pulling, puckering or binding.

This is only one of eight exclusive Richmond features. Ask the salesman to show you the other seven.

Now—See How Klearflax Linen Rugs Stand the Sidewalk Test

Tomorrow morning—we shall place on the sidewalk in front of our store a Klearflax Linen Rug—where thousands of people will walk over it.

We want you to see how it will stand up under the severest test a rug could have.

Rain or shine—sleet, ice or snow—dust and mud—all will be given opportunity to do their utmost for a good, long test.

Then we'll have the rug cleaned and placed on exhibition, so you can see how these wonderful rugs stand up!

$5 Cash Puts a 'Gainaday' in Your Home!

Balance in Convenient Payments

Remember, we can only make this offer until Nov. 27th. You will surely have a "Gainaday" some day, why not order now.

It's worth a lot to know that your linens aren't receiving unnecessary wear in the wash—when they're as expensive and hard to get as they now are. The "Gainaday" "handles" them as carefully as you would yourself and gets them spotlessly white in a short time. And that's only one of the many reasons that it's so popular in hundreds of Duluth homes.

Before Saturday—see it demonstrated. We fully guarantee the "Gainaday" Washer Wringer.

HIBBING BONUS CLAIMS REPORT

Hibbing, Minn., Nov. 23.—(Special to The Herald.)—Report received by Secretary Saxby of the Commercial club from the state bonus board shows that 50 per cent of the bonuses due Hibbing ex-soldiers and sailors have been approved and will be paid the men as soon as the local banks purchase the state bonds which is expected to be done this month. The total amount of bonuses due to all service men who left from Hibbing is $40,000. The report received by Secretary Saxby tells of the claims that were approved and went through as special; claims have been approved of but remittance not made on account of a shortage of funds; claims not made because they have not been approved; those claims which have not been made because errors were made in making out papers; and which claims were disallowed.

JURY DECLARES KAMES KILLED CHESTER EVANS

Hibbing, Minn., Nov. 23.—(Special to The Herald.)—The coroner's jury that heard the evidence in the death of Chester Evans, Duluth negro, shot to death here early Sunday, found that Evans "came to his death by a bullet fired from a gun in the possession of John Kames."

It developed that Evans never carried a weapon and when search was made of his clothes after his death not even a jackknife was found on him. Evans' wife testified that he came here with $300 to gamble. When found he had $180 in his possession.

Kames has a brother in Hibbing and an uncle in St. Paul. When searched at the county jail Sunday morning, when he was arrested, $5 was all he had in his possession. The body of Evans was taken yesterday to Duluth for burial.

Kames, who declines to talk, has retained Attorney M. H. McMahon of Virginia and will appear in Judge Brady's court here Friday morning to answer to the murder charge.

FORMER COPPER STILLS FOR MANUAL SCHOOL WORK

Hibbing, Minn., Nov. 23.—(Special to The Herald.)—The Biblical advice about beating swords into plowshares will be followed in a sense by the manual training class of the Biwabik high school when Raymond Smith, the instructor, puts his boys at work on copper stills seized in booze raids. Game Warden George Wood has turned over to the school some of the copper kettles and articles used by law violators he arrested. They will be melted down, Mr. Smith says, and wrought by the class into decorative material.

TOWER NOTES.

Tower, Minn., Nov. 23.—(Special to The Herald.)—Mrs. Bjorklund is here from Tacoma, Wash., visiting at the Roland home.

The dredging of East Two rivers from boathouse row to the lake has been completed. There is now a channel eight feet deep and forty feet wide from the boathouses to the lake, which is about 5,000 feet.

Mr. and Mrs. Oakes and their son, Philip, spent a portion of the summer on Lake Vermilion, Mr. Oakes then going to New York city to engage suitable apartments, where the family will make their home this winter. Mrs. Oakes and son, who have been living in apartments over the Skaala building, have left for Minneapolis to visit for a time before going East.

LEGION ORCHESTRA OF AURORA PLEASES ALL

Aurora, Minn., Nov. 23.—(Special to The Herald.)—The audience was pleased with Hoppe's orchestra which played at the Rex theater last night. It consists of ex-service men. The concert was held under the auspices of Tom Quayle post, American Legion. Carl J. Hoppe is director. There were delightful violin solos. L. W. Johnson played clown and gave vocal solos and character sketches which were amusing. The orchestra played at a dance afterwards at the Finnish Workers' hall, a large crowd attending.

To Inspect Hibbing Cows.

Hibbing, Minn., Nov. 23.—(Special to The Herald.)—Dr. G. Mason will soon start to inspect all cattle in the village to determine whether any are affected with tuberculosis. The work to be carried out under the supervision of the board of health will require several weeks. Dr. Mason asks owners of cows to keep them in the barns a few days after a notice is issued announcing his arrival.

Range Thanksgiving Affairs.

Hibbing, Minn., Nov. 23.—(Special to The Herald.)—Tomorrow night, Thanksgiving eve, the Married Peoples' club will entertain at the Armory at a dance. On Thanksgiving night the Fantasy club will entertain at a dance at Workers' hall. On the same night the Virginia Elks will entertain with a dance and Hibbing Elks and their ladies are invited. The Elks of Eveleth will entertain with a dancing party Thursday night and Hibbing Elks are invited to attend.

HIBBING COMMERCIAL CLUB REPORTS HEARD

Hibbing, Minn., Nov. 23.—(Special to The Herald.)—At a meeting of the directors of the Commercial club yesterday, chairmen of the various committees reported. R. W. Hitchcock told of the visit to the county commissioners and the definite promise of the board that $187,000 would be appropriated for the completion of the Meadowlands road from the township line, a distance of twenty-nine and one-half miles to Floodwood. A route which will be a much shorter one for the Hibbing, Chisholm and Buhl traffic to Duluth.

Secretary Saxby read a letter from the county attorney of Aitkin county stating that a fleet of trucks is now improving the Aitkin-Hill City road and expressing appreciation for the interest shown by members of the Commercial club in the matter.

A report was also made of the visit of Secretary Saxby to the state bonus board when he was promised $21,000 of the soldiers' bonuses will be paid. Local banks, he stated, will meet today to decide on their taking the state bonds and the proportion each one will be under obligations to take.

Permission was granted Secretary Saxby to attend the sessions of the state legislature after Jan. 4 and act as first assistant reading clerk.

Plans were informally discussed for the observance of the Christmas holidays, the holding of the Christmas tree exercises and the distributing of baskets to the poor.

THANKSGIVING SERVICES IN COLERAINE CHURCH

Coleraine, Minn., Nov. 23.—(Special to The Herald.)—Union Thanksgiving day services will be held in the Presbyterian church here on Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Rev. Philip A. Schwarz will deliver the address, taking for his subject "Our Debt of Gratitude to the Pilgrim Forefathers."

The president's proclamation will be read by John Slapp. There will be special music by the choir under direction of Mrs. E. E. Rabichaud, chorister, who will sing "Oh, Jerusalem," by Sheldon, and "While the Earth Remaineth," by Brackett. There will be good congregational singing. The Thanksgiving offering will be given to the Coleraine chapter of the Red Cross society to be used for local needs. A special invitation has been extended to the people of Bovey and Taconite to attend the services.

DULUTHIAN KILLS BEAR THAT TREED HIBBINGITE

Hibbing, Minn., Nov. 23.—(Special to The Herald.)—T. O. Sather, barber, tells a story of his narrow escape while deer hunting near Deerwood, Minn. Sather saw a bear cub at which he fired, wounding the animal. The she bear immediately gave chase and Sather climbed a tree. For three hours he was perched on a limb with the bear keeping vigil below.

D. F. Somerswell of Duluth, also out hunting, was attracted to the scene by Sather's shouts and shot and killed the bear, releasing the Hibbing man from his predicament.

EVELETH TIE MAKER IS BEING SOUGHT.

Eveleth, Minn., Nov. 23.—(Special to The Herald.)—Moses Vandell of this city is looking for his brother, Fred, about 40 years old, who left here last April and has not been heard of since about the middle of June. Mr. Vandell says his brother is in the habit of going away and working in lumber camps, but that he usually has a letter from him once in three or four months. He has become anxious about the prolonged silent absence and has now started search for him. The police have been notified and authorities all over the northern part of the state have been asked to assist in locating him. He is described as being about five feet nine inches in height, about 170 pounds in weight, has dark hair and brown eyes. He is a tie maker by trade and the brother who is conducting the search says that Duluth or Twin City employment offices may be able to give more information as to his whereabouts.

HIBBING'S NIGHT SCHOOL CLASSES AROUSE INTEREST

Hibbing, Minn., Nov. 23.—(Special to The Herald.)—There is little danger of Hibbing falling behind other range towns in night school work this winter, judging from the interest shown in English classes, both in the village and location schools.

Kitzville is one of the most zealous in all the district and record attendances enjoy the programs presented under the direction of the Americanization workers at the Kitzville school.

An entertainment was given last night at this school by the Pollyanna club. Slavian songs and folk dances featured the program which was followed by a dance. Accordion music was played for the dance by T. Sonagrio.

A home nursing night school class has been organized by Mrs. Quiggley at Kitzville with seven members appearing for the first class last Thursday. The purpose of this class is to teach practical home nursing to young married women. A number of the older girls have also joined in the class.

Eveleth Club Rehearsing Play.

Eveleth, Minn., Nov. 23.—(Special to The Herald.)—Rehearsals are being conducted by the Oliver Woman's club for the presentation of "Mrs. Temple's Telegram" at the city auditorium on Tuesday, Dec. 7. The play is to be given by local talent and is being directed by Mrs. Ethel Pitkin, instructor of dramatics in the Eveleth schools. The cast of characters is as follows: Wigson, Charles Cullen; Mrs. Temple, Inez Davey; Mr. Temple, Harry Rabinowitz; Mrs. Fuller, Mrs. A. A. Trost; Mr. Fuller, Victor Essling; Mr. Brown, Lawrence Jacobson; Mrs. Brown, Mrs. E. H. Hatch; Capt. Sharp, John Griffiths. Funds secured by giving this play are to be used in assisting needy families of the locations near Eveleth.

PARTLY CLOUDY; TEMPERATURE SLIGHTLY LOWER

PARTLY CLOUDY

Just when everyone was flinching over the prospect of another severe cold snap, the weather man decided to continue his good behavior and handed out only a moderate brand. He made up for it, in a little way, by pulling the shades over the sun. It's not bad. This morning the sun rose at 7:25 o'clock and will set at 4:26 o'clock tonight, giving nine hours and three minutes of sunlight.

Mr. Richardson makes the following comment on weather conditions:

"The storm that has just passed across the country is now centered off the New York coast, further rain or snow resulting from Missouri, Illinois, Eastern Wisconsin and Michigan eastward to including Atlantic districts. Boston, Mass., reported 1.06 inches rainfall. Rain or snow also fell over Northern Utah, Nevada, Oregon, Idaho, Washington, British Columbia and the northern parts of Alberta and Saskatchewan. The barometer is high over the lower Mississippi valley and Oregon and a low pressure area of very moderate strength is centered over Oklahoma. In general the temperature changes were unimportant. Near zero was recorded last night on the Minnesota iron ranges."

General Forecasts.

Chicago, Nov. 23.—Forecasts for the twenty-four hours ending at 7 p. m. Wednesday:

Minnesota and Wisconsin—Partly cloudy tonight and Wednesday; not much change in temperature.

North Dakota—Fair tonight and Wednesday; not much change in temperature.

LOCAL FORECAST

For Duluth and vicinity: Partly cloudy tonight and Wednesday. Lowest temperature tonight 20 to 25 deg. at Duluth, Superior and Two Harbors, and 10 to 20 deg. inland and on the iron ranges. Moderate variable winds.

Upper Lakes—Moderate north winds; cloudy weather tonight and Wednesday.

HUNTER FIRED UPON.

Six Bullets Sent Toward Him Before He Proves Not Deer.

Virginia, Minn., Nov. 23.—(Special to The Herald.)—James Larson of Cusson was fired at six times by an overexcited deer hunter several days ago and declares that in order to correct the hunter's mistaken impression that he was a deer he had to open fire himself.

Larson was hunting in the vicinity of Cusson when a bullet whizzed past his ears. He shouted but the shooting continued. He threw himself flat on the ground, but the hunter who was standing on top of a hill nearby continued to shoot. Larson declares that the snow fell about him in showers as the bullets struck near him. Finally he decided to return the fire. One bullet placed near the hunter was sufficient to cool the ardor of the latter.

Larson says that he was partly to blame for the mistake made by the hunter. He was dressed in a khaki colored hunting outfit, and did not have the usual red coat or cap that hunters wear for self-protection.

DULUTH EX-MARINE TAKES BRIDE AT BOVEY, MINN.

Bovey, Minn., Nov. 23.—(Special to The Herald.)—Miss Katherine Jane Foley was married here last Saturday to Neil Erwin Doyle at the home of Rev. Father Ryan. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Mary Foley, while William Doyle was his brother's best man.

A wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Foley, to the immediate families, after which the bride and groom left on the noon train for Duluth and St. Paul to spend a fortnight with friends and relatives. They will be at home in Bovey after Dec. 1.

Mr. Doyle, formerly of Duluth, a promising young man, served with the United States marines in the World war, is now employed as machinist by the Oliver Iron Mining company at Taconite.

Mrs. Doyle was reared in Bovey and taught school for a while at Crosby, Minn., but for the last year was bookkeeper for the Mitchell-Bluntach company of Coleraine.

GILBERT BREVITIES.

Gilbert, Minn., Nov. 23.—(Special to The Herald.)—Funeral services were held at New Richmond, Wis., for Julius Erickson who went there recently for medical treatment and died. He was a native of Black River Falls, Wis., and while here worked for Mr. Murphy who attended the funeral.

The board of education will open bids Tuesday next for the installation of steam heat in the school garage.

Tony Eiv is putting up an icehouse at Ely lake.

A Thanksgiving service will be held in the Presbyterian church on Thursday morning.

The November program meeting of the Women's Missionary society will be held at the home of Mrs. Percy Carmichael this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

LAST nite we started to eat suppir, being veel stew with more stew than veel, me saying, Wats for dizzert, ma?

Well for goodniss sakes, he's hardly started his suppir and he wunts to know wats for dizzert, well for goodniss sakes, sed ma.

He werks fast, that boy, sed pop, and my sister Gladdis sed, Wy dont you ask wats for brekfist tomorro?

Wy dont you powder your nose a little more so peeple can see it 3 blocks away insted of ony 2 blocks? I sed.

Benny, dont descend to the personal, sed pop, and I sed, Well G, heck, she's descending to it, aint she?

Eat your suppir, sed pop.

Wich I kepp on doing, wondering how mutch room to leeve for dizzert insted of knowing ixackly like I generelly do, and after a wile wat did Nora bring in but a big glass dish pack full of pruens.

Holey Moses wats that? I sed.

Dizzert, wat does it look like? sed ma, and I sed, Well gosh G wizz it dont look like dezzert, how can pruens look like dizzert?

There's no law to compel you to eat them, I beleeve, sed ma sourcastic, and I sed, Well gosh G wizz, ma, if Id of knew we was going to have pruens insted of dizzert I wouldent of left eny room, gosh, G, ma, how can pruens be dizzert? How cany enything you dont even like for brekfist be dizzert?

Do you wunt eny dizzert or dont you? sed ma.

I dont call pruens dizzert, I sed. Wich I dont, and ma sed, Well then leeve the table, and I sed, Well holey smoaks ive went and left a space now and I haff to fill it with sumthing so it mite as well be pruens.

How very considerate of you, sed ma. And she gave me 6 small size pruens trying to look like dizzert in a sancer and I looked at them a wile in diskust and then filled the space with them.

With the exception of the last two years, it has been the yearly custom of the Hibbing library to conduct a sale of children's books for a short period before Christmas. The regular display will be held for a period of two weeks before Christmas, beginning on Dec. 11, and next Saturday's exhibit is to give parents an opportunity who wish to buy their presents early.

MARINE

SHEADLE HITS ROCK WHILE BACKING FROM DOCK

Marquette, Mich., Nov. 23.—Members of the crew of the steamer J. H. Sheadle of the Cleveland-Cliffs Iron company fleet, which went aground here, were taken off by Marquette coast guards. The Sheadle, an ore carrier of the 500-foot class, was loaded with ore for Cleveland.

While backing away from Presque Isle ore dock here it was caught by a strong current, which, aided by a strong wind, swung the vessel out of the regular channel, and it struck a submerged rock, puncturing the steel plates on the port side. Water began pouring in the engine and boiler rooms so rapidly that firemen and engine room workers left their posts.

The stern of the boat is in eighteen feet of water, while there is thirty-two feet of water at the bow.

DAILY WEATHER CHARTS FOR RADIO-EQUIPPED VESSELS

Service to radio-equipped vessels so as to permit navigating officers to construct daily weather charts aboard ship through reports received on actual conditions prevailing at selected points, was announced today by H. W. Richardson, Duluth weather forecaster.

In past years vessels have been furnished only with daily forecasts and occasional warnings of storms and hurricanes. Naval radio stations from which the new service will be distributed are located at Arlington, Va., Point Isabel, Tex., Great Lakes, Ill., and San Juan, Porto Rico.

Copies of a base chart will be supplied free to vessel masters who regularly take and forward weather observations to the United States weather bureau.

No Fear Now of Indigestion

A Host of People Seem to Thrive on What Used to Provoke Indigestion Before They Learned of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets

When the stomach becomes sour, with gassiness and heartburn due to indigestion or dyspepsia, relief may be had by one or two Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. Simply chew them, no hot water nor any other fillers for a stomach perhaps already too much overcrowded.

These tablets supply to the stomach the alkaline effect which is what relieves the sour acid condition. They also contain pancreatin to help digest the starchy foods, such as potatoes, rice, oatmeal, white flour, etc.

Get a 60-cent box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, have them on hand at all times and thus have no fear of indigestion or dyspepsia.

The fact that these tablets are on sale everywhere in the U. S. and Canada shows how generally recognized they are as an efficient aid when the dyspeptic stomach needs a little help.—Advertisement.

TO DARKEN HAIR APPLY SAGE TEA

Look Young! Bring Back Its Natural Color, Gloss and Attractiveness.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea, with sulphur added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is falling, streaked or gray. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get a bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound at any drug store, all ready for use. This is the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and after another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant.—Advertisement.

How to Make Pine Cough Syrup at Home

Has no equal for prompt results. Takes but a moment to prepare, and saves you about $2.

You know that pine is used in nearly all prescriptions and remedies for coughs. The reason is that pine contains several peculiar elements that have a remarkable effect in soothing and healing the membranes of the throat and chest. Pine is famous for this purpose.

Pine cough syrups are combinations of pine and syrup. The "syrup" part is usually plain sugar syrup.

To make the best pine cough remedy that money can buy, put 2½ ounces of Pinex in a pint bottle, and fill up with home-made sugar syrup. Or you can use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, you make a full pint—more than you can buy ready-made for three times the money. It is pure, good and very pleasant—children take it eagerly.

You can feel this take hold of a cough or cold in a way that means business. The cough may be dry, hoarse and tight, or may be persistently loose from the formation of phlegm. The cause is the same—inflamed membranes—and this Pinex and Syrup combination will stop it—usually in 24 hours or less. Splendid, too, for bronchial asthma, hoarseness, or any ordinary throat ailment.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and is famous the world over for its prompt effect upon coughs.

Beware of substitutes. Ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

WAS AFRAID TO BE LEFT ALONE

Mrs. Wilbur Suffered From Neurasthenia But Found a Remedy That Restored Her Health.

Neurasthenia is a condition of exhaustion of the nervous system. Among its symptoms are over-sensitiveness, irritability, headache and a disposition to worry over trifles. The treatment consists of the nutrition of nerve cells by means of a non-alcoholic tonic. Nerves get their nourishment from the blood and strong nerves are possible only when the blood is rich and abundant. Sufferers from neurasthenia will be interested in the experience of Mrs. Dettie Wilbur of No. 1702 South Lawrence street, Wichita, Kansas.

"My nerves were in such a condition that I was afraid to answer a knock at the door," she says. "I was weak and so badly run down that I had dizzy spells. My mind was all of a flutter and my nerves were shattered. I could not sleep and I did not have any spirit or ambition. I worried a great deal, sometimes over my condition and sometimes over little things of no importance. I was afraid to be left alone. My appetite was poor and there were days when I did not eat a thing.

"I read about Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and got a box. After I had taken one box of pills I felt a little better. It was not long before my appetite improved and then I had more ambition. As I became stronger my spirits improved and my nerves became stronger. I sleep better now and no longer worry. I can heartily recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to those who need a tonic."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills may be purchased at your druggist's or they will be sent by the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y., postpaid, on receipt of price, 60 cents per box. Write for the free booklet, "Diseases of the Nervous System" which contains a special chapter on neurasthenia.

WOMAN'S SUFFRAGE
may eventually give to women rights to which they are entitled, but good health, which is the birthright of every American woman, must be hers before she can fully enjoy the privileges which woman's suffrage will bring. Women who suffer from those dreadful pains, backache, headaches, irritability, nervousness and depression, symptoms of organic trouble, should rely on Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which is made from roots and herbs, to restore them to a normal, healthy condition as it has thousands of other American women.—Advertisement.

11 Hens Idle; Now Lay 221 Eggs A Month

Almost Gave Up Raising Chickens. Then She Tried This Plan.

"When I accepted your offer and tried Don Sung, I was getting 1 or 2 eggs every other day. The next month, using Don Sung, my 11 hens laid 221 eggs. I almost quit raising chickens, but now I will raise as many as I can."—Mrs. F. C. Young, Bellefonte, Pa.

You also can easily start your hens laying and keep them laying, even in coldest winter. To prove it, accept our offer, as Mrs. Young did.

Give your hens Don Sung and watch results for one month. If you don't find that it pays for itself and pays you a good profit besides, simply tell us and your money will be cheerfully refunded.

Don Sung (Chinese for egg-laying) is a scientific tonic and conditioner. It is easily given in the feed, improves the hen's health and makes her stronger and more active. It tones up the egg-laying organs, and gets the eggs, no matter how cold or wet the weather.

Don Sung can be obtained promptly from your druggist or poultry remedy dealer, or send $1.04 (includes war tax) for a package by mail prepaid. Burrell-Dugger Co., 214 Columbia Bldg., Indianapolis, Ind.

GOOD BULGES IN ALL GRAINS

Wheat Recovers on Active Bidding; Flaxseed Scores Sharp Advance.

Duluth Board of Trade, Nov. 23.—Closing wheat prices were at their top of the day. December spring wheat closed 7c up at $1.59 asked; March, 8½c up at $1.60½ bid; December winter 7c up at $1.58 nominally; December durum 6¼c up at $1.63¼ asked, and March 7½c up at $1.64 asked; Rye closed 7c up at $1.50 for spot; December, 6c up at $1.40 asked, and May, 6½c up at $1.39. Oats closed 2¼c up at 42@43c for spot and barley unchanged at 50@67c for spot.

The corner appeared to have been turned for the time being at least in the grain markets today. On a wave of covering, prompted by reports of the putting through of export trade, prices were advanced 5@6½c during the first three hours' business. At the start the market held firm on quiet trading with operators waiting for a line upon the next probable move. It was the consensus of opinion in well informed quarters that liquidation had run its course, and that a rally in quotations had become necessary to prevent utter demoralization in general trade circles. Receipts were light on all the markets, with farmers determined to hang on for figures more to their liking.

December spring wheat advanced 5c up till the noon-hour at $1.57; March 6½c at $1.58½; December durum 4¾c at $1.61¾, and March 5¼c at $1.61¾.

December rye gained 3c at $1.37, and May 4¼c at $1.37¼.

There were on track here for the day 325 cars of all grains, including: Spring wheat, 36; durum, 179; corn, 1; oats, 3; rye, 70; barley, 19, and flax, 17. The chartering of some boats to load wheat and durum for Buffalo was reported here this morning, and it was noted that around 800,000 bu of wheat and durum are being loaded out today. While a rush in shipments is not looked for, a material speeding up is expected between now and the close of the navigation season.

Flaxseed Receipts.

The long expected happened in the flaxseed market. The breaks in the seed market of the last ten days had been considered as due to raids to force out interests who had been hanging on tenaciously some of them around the $5 mark. Yesterday's remarkable break resulted in dislodging nearly all that class of longs, and the market was ready for a recovery. It came almost shortly after the opening on good bidding while the market was bare of offerings. The market was strong at the close with fresh upturns.

November flax closed 18c up at $2.04 nominally; December, 18c up at $2.04 asked; January, ⅛c up at $2.07 nominally, and May, 18c up at $2.17.

At Winnipeg, November flax closed 16c up at $2.02, and December, 16c up at $2.00.

At Buenos Aires flax opened today at $1.55½ for December.

MARKET GOSSIP.

G. Le Personne of Antwerp, Belgium, was a visitor on the board of trade today. He asserted that he is on a scouting trip over the American markets, and he intimated that his country expects to be a good buyer of all agricultural products in the United States from time to time during the next few months as exchange and other conditions warrant. Commercial and industrial conditions are improving in Belgium and the country is fast getting on its feet again, he said.

Broomhall cabled: "Market in the United Kingdom continues firm this morning. Late yesterday buyers were in evidence and a fair business was reported with prices advancing and the sterling holding its advance of the early part of the day. Market has been heavily oversold and merchants were busy covering and taking profits.

"Freight rate firmed up slightly after showing a substantial increase last week. A large fleet of steamers is now directed to the Southern grower to be ready to load new crop grains directly these commerce arriving at the two large ports of the Argentine.

"Continental merchants are reported to be showing more interest in the market for afloat and due to arrive parcels of either Plates or Canadian white oats. Since the commencement of the American shipping season we reckon there have been exported about 5,500,000 bu of oats to England and the continent compared to a total of nearly 30,000,000 bu during same period last year. This fact coupled with the extra surplus from this year's crop is sufficient to convince importers that there is no shortage to be feared until the new continental crops are ready."

Weather Forecasts—Dakotas—Generally fair tonight and Wednesday; cooler, mostly cloudy, not much change in temperatures.

Cured and fresh meat shipments from Chicago last week were 53,256,000 pounds against 103,985,000 pounds last year. Lard shipments were 1,026,000 pounds, against 15,781,000 pounds last year, and canned meats shipments, 29,361 cases, against 34,285,000 cases last year.

Exports of wheat and flour last week were 8,460,000 bu, against 7,866,000 bu last year, and of corn, 947,000 bu, against 27,000 bu last year. Since July 1 last wheat and flour shipments aggregated 106,350,000 bu, against 128,252,000 bu during the same period last year.

An official of the Milwaukee railroad asserts that the road now has a surplus of cars, and is speeding up work on equipment. He noted that farmers are holding back in the marketing of their crops, and that traffic is falling off in consequence. He thinks, however, that indications point to improvement after Jan. 1 next.

The coming season's yield of wheat in Australia is estimated at 131,850,000 bu, of which home consumption will absorb 30,000,000 bu. The price for home consumption has been fixed at 9s a bu.

Simons, Day & Co. wired from Chicago: "It is understood that some of the export business in wheat being reported represents an exchange of futures for cash grain against business booked several days ago."

CHICAGO MARKET.

Chicago, Nov. 23.—Brisk demand today for cash wheat for export had a bullish effect on the future delivery market. On the upturn in prices free selling took place and a sharp reaction occurred, but rallies quickly ensued. Improved financial conditions, including an advance in sterling exchange, were generally regarded as strengthening factors. Opening prices, which ranged from ½c to 4c higher, with December $1.61 to $1.61½ and March $1.57 to $1.59, were followed by setbacks to well below yesterday's finish and then by substantial fresh gains.

Subsequently the fact that in many quarters it was believed liquidation had been completed, brought about further advances. The close was nervous, 7½c to 9c higher with December $1.68 @1.68¾, and March $1.63½@1.64.

Corn was swayed by the action of wheat. After opening ⅜c to 1c higher, including December at 65¼c to 65⅝c, the market sagged somewhat and then rose higher than before.

Shorts, including some of the most aggressive recent bears, bought heavily on the advance. Prices closed unsettled, 2⅜c to 3⅛c net higher with December [illegible] 67⅞c to 67⅝c.

Traders in oats took their cue from the course of other cereals. The market opened ½@⅝c up, May 48⅜@48½c, eased off temporarily and then ascended with considerable vigor.

Lowest quotations of the season in the hog market had depressing influence on provisions despite grain strength.

Wheat—No. 1 hard, $1.68¼@1.72½; No. 2 mixed, $1.75.

MINNEAPOLIS MARKET.

Minneapolis, Minn., Nov. 23.—Moderate receipts all around, firmer cash markets in the Southwest and improvement in the export demand for wheat and flour turned wheat higher today after a little uncertainty at the outset. With offerings lighter after moderate opening pressure, prices rebounded quickly. Opening prices were unchanged to 1⅜c lower. December then moved up 3½c, hesitated and again turned higher toward noon, reaching $1.53½ at midday and registering an advance of 6c over yesterday's close. March gained 6½c, selling at $1.57½. There was a brisk demand for cash wheat, which was relatively 2c higher than yesterday.

Corn futures held to a ¼c dip early and turned firmer shortly after the opening. Oats advanced 2c and barley 3⅜c. Rye responded to the better feeling with a rally of 4c. Flax futures recovered 5@7c.

Large copper producers are reported to be holding the market firm at 14¾c a pound, though small lots for prompt delivery are obtainable at 14½c. The New York manager of one of the largest distributing agencies stated that his agency's foreign and domestic sales so far this month have been larger than during the corresponding period last month. He claimed that the market is firm at its present basis of 14¾c a pound and that consumers are finding they cannot induce further cuts by playing one agency against another.

DECLINES IN STOCKS

Early Gains Not Maintained and Selling Becomes Extensive.

New York, Nov. 23.—Stocks were buoyant at the very active opening of today's session, recording further substantial rallies from their recent protracted reversal. General Motors was the outstanding feature on announcement that control had been acquired by Morgan-Dupont interests. A block of 15,000 shares sold at 16½@17½, against yesterday's final price of 15¾. Crucible Steel made an initial advance of 3⅝ and gains of 1 to 4 points accompanied the early buying of American and Baldwin Locomotives, Bethlehem Steel, General Electric, Chandler, Studebaker, Stromberg, Pierce-Arrow, United States Rubber, American Smelting, Houston Oil, Atlantic Gulf and Retail Stores. Rails were overshadowed by the demand for industrials and specialties but their tone also was strong. 1st ad Wall st

Early gains were not long maintained, extensive selling for profits following the rebound in steels, equipments and motors. General Motors soon canceled its advance on an enormous turnover and weakness suddenly developed in low-priced rails. New Haven fell 5 points and Texas Pacific 2¾, the reaction embracing St. Paul preferred, Rock Island, New York Central and Southern Pacific. Shippings were next to yield, notably Atlantic Gulf, United Fruit and American International. Crucible and General Electric forfeited their advantage and oil began to sag, Royal Dutch showing especial pressure. Although call money opened at 6 per cent, the lowest initial rate in many months, stocks made further recessions with the approach of noon.

Low priced rails became increasingly reactionary during the midsession. New Haven and St. Paul extended their losses. Reading and Atchison also were driven back and declined among shippings, oils and specialties including food and tobacco shares ranged from 1 to 3½ points.

Popular rails, equipments and oils rallied 1 to 2 points later, but the undertone elsewhere continued sensitive to pressure. The close was heavy. Sales approximated 1,150,000 shares.

Liberty bonds: 3½s, $92.70; first 4s, $87.50; second 4s, $86.40; first 4¼s, $87.50; second 4¼s, $87.16; third 4¼s, $89.28; fourth 4s, $87.30; Victory 3¾s, $96.16; Victory 4¾s, $96.10.

FLAXSEED WEAK DURING LAST WEEK

With net declines extending to 25c almost panicky conditions prevailed in the flaxseed market during the last week. The swing of quotations downwards during the last eight months from over $6 last March to $2.10 for spot seed at the close on Saturday is without parallel in the history of the industry. Even at its present low basis specialists in the flaxseed market do not care to risk their reputations in the putting out of any opinions to the effect that low points have been touched, but hopes are expressed that a period of sanity will shortly be reached in the trade.

The break of 9c on Saturday following one of 11c on Friday was prompted by receipts of seventy-two cars in one day at Winnipeg. Stocks in the hands of the trade are heavy and are all the more burdensome in view of the limited demand for linseed oil. On that account no support has come from crushers during the last two weeks. Two small boatloads were shipped out from the elevators for Buffalo during the week on account of a linseed oil house and further shipments are expected before the close of navigation.

Receipts on this market during the week were 147,699 bu against 22,154 bu last year and stocks in the elevators were reported at 1,561,000 bu.

DROP IN STEEL SHOWS A CHECKED DECLINE

Though much has been made in quarters inclined to be pessimistic of the declining tendency in the markets in steel products the average price of the eight principal steel and iron products showed only a small drop during the last week, the figure being $76.05 as compared with $76.30 in the previous week, according to data compiled by the Iron Age. Last week's drop of 25c compared with a break of $3.43 the week before.

The only change in price of the eight products came in Bessemer pig iron, which dropped to $41.96 a gross ton from $43.96. In general, pig iron was weak, and practically all grades declined on small sales.

ESCANABA RESORTS ARE RAIDED; ONE MAN SHOT

Escanaba, Mich., Nov. 23.—One bartender was shot, probably fatally, and thirteen alleged liquor resorts raided last night by a detail of Michigan state constabulary under Capt. Archie Downing.

John Kerenski was shot by Trooper Sheridan after the officer had gone into a saloon where Kerenski worked, and, posing as a lumberjack, ordered a drink of whisky. A bystander is said to have warned Kerenski that the customer was an officer. Witnesses say the bartender started to attack Sheridan with a wine glass when the trooper fired.

ORDER FOR HEARING ON PETITION FOR ADMINISTRATION—

State of Minnesota,
County of St. Louis—ss.

In Probate Court. In the Matter of the Estate of Charles E. Lanigan, Decedent.

The Petition of J. T. Lanigan having been filed in this Court, representing, among other things, that said Charles E. Lanigan, then being a resident of the County of St. Louis, State of Minnesota, died intestate, in the County of St. Louis, State of Minnesota, on the 12th day of November, 1920; leaving estate in the County of St. Louis, State of Minnesota, and that said petitioner is the brother of said decedent and praying that letters of administration of the estate of said decedent be granted to said J. T. Lanigan, it is ordered, That said petition be heard before this Court, at the Probate Court rooms in the Court House, in Duluth, in said County, on Monday, the 13th day of December, 1920, at 10 o'clock A. M., and all persons interested in said hearing and in said matter are hereby cited and required at said time and place to show cause, if any there be, why said petition should not be granted. Ordered further, That this order be served by publication in The Duluth Herald according to law, and that a copy of this order be served on the County Treasurer of St. Louis County not less than ten days prior to said day of hearing.

Dated at Duluth, Minn., November 15th, 1920.

By the Court, CLARENCE B. WEBSTER,
Judge of Probate of Itasca County,
Acting Judge of Probate of St. Louis Co., Minn.

Attest:
G. B. GIFFORD,
Clerk of Probate.

FARM LANDS

WHY BEAR IT?

Why do you bear the burdens of old age, the aches and pains of rheumatism and lumbago, caused by cold and storms of the Northern winter? Why not go with your old friends and neighbors to sunny California and live among the orchards and gardens, with fresh vegetables and fruits every month in the year? Our 10 and 20-acre fruit and poultry farms at Rio Linda, in the suburbs of beautiful Sacramento, Cal., offer you the opportunity. Your old friends and neighbors are there now. Write us for the new booklet, "Poultry and Orchards"—it may start you thinking. We mail it on receipt of your request, stating that you are planning on a trip to California and about when you expect to go.

PLAN FOR UTILIZATION OF GERMAN SECURITIES

Would Use $400,000,000 Held by Alien Property Custodian.

Question Now Before Wilson Administration But Not Decided.

Leading Bankers Ask Conference With Harding on the Subject.

By DAVID LAWRENCE.

(Copyright, 1920, by The Duluth Herald.)

Washington, Nov. 24.—(Special to The Herald.)—Leading bankers have asked President-elect Harding for a conference as soon as he returns from Panama so that his views may be obtained on the formation of a banking syndicate whereby $400,000,000 of German capital and securities now held by the alien property custodian shall become available as a basis of credit in international trade.

The plan to utilize the German securities is also before the Wilson administration, which is studying the legal points involved. But the undertaking is so far-reaching in importance and has such a vital bearing on international exchange that New York bankers are eager to know how Senator Harding looks at the matter, so that there will be smooth sailing ahead in the event that a start is made before March 4.

The securities were originally held by German residents in the United States or American corporations and business houses in which the majority of the stock was German-owned. These securities have been held in trust during the war, and along with other German property their disposition has been left to congress. President Wilson has declined to recommend the return of the property until America signed a peace treaty with Germany and said treaty was ratified by the senate. One of the chief arguments against the Knox resolution for a separate peace was that it did not bind Germany, and that only by a separate agreement or treaty with Germany could an understanding be reached concerning such questions as German property in the United States or claims growing out of the sinking of the Lusitania.

Want Credit Started.

But the depression in export trade and the general condition of American businesses which depend very largely for their existence on their ability to sell goods overseas is a part of the present movement to establish a new basis of credit. Foreign trade has been adversely affected not because of a surplus of goods abroad but because of the absence of money or credit wherewith to pay for American goods. The movement to create a credit for

COMMITTEE RESTRAINED

Ordered to Cease Examination of Builders' Supply Bureau Stenographer.

New York, Nov. 24.—The joint legislative committee investigating New York's "building trust" today was temporarily restrained from further examination of Miss Elizabeth O'Dea, stenographer of the Builders' Supply bureau, of which the contracting firm of John A. McCarthy, business partner of Charles F. Murphy, Tammany hall leader, is a member.

Another temporary injunction, restraining the committee from examining Secretary Feist of the Mason Supply company also was served on Chairman Lockwood.

Explains Estimating Bureau.

Workings of the estimating bureau of the Concrete Fireproofers' association were related yesterday by Roswell F. Easton, its originator. Books of the Builders' Supply bureau, comprising fourteen contracting firms, also were surrendered to the committee.

The hearing was marked by a sharp clash between Samuel Untermyer, committee counsel, and Grover Whalen, commissioner of plants and structures, formerly Mayor Hylan's private secretary, during his examination regarding city ash dumps contracts. To these developments was added testimony of Former Magistrate Frank E. O'Reilly of Brooklyn, and two attaches of the Fifth district magistrate's court concerning "more or less close relations" between the mayor and Commissioner of Accounts Hirschfield, as law practitioners, with John T. Hettrick, who was court stenographer there.

Hettrick Central Figure.

Hettrick is a central figure in the "building trust" as operator of a "code of practice" among 400 master plumbers and plumbing contractors throughout the city.

Easton told how the concrete fireproofers' estimating bureau, formed June 21, 1919, grew from the Master League of Cement Workers' association, until it expanded into the Concrete Fireproofers' association with membership of twelve firms, which individually are members of the Building Trades Employers' association.

It was agreed among the twelve members, Easton testified, to permit the bureau to make their estimates on all proposals, and then 10 per cent was added to the estimate by the firm as an overhead charge before bidding. The contractor, if successful, paid the bureau 2¼ per cent of the contract. Then, at the end of the year, the bureau divided the money among the unsuccessful bidders, proportionately.

Under the rules of the association, Arthur Greenfield, Inc., was fined $300 at an executive committee meeting Jan. 7, 1920, for taking a contract too low, Easton admitted under vigorous questioning by Mr. Untermyer.

SAYS HARDING WILL STOP AT VERA CRUZ

Mexico City, Nov. 24.—President-elect Harding will stop at Vera Cruz en route to the United States from Panama unless unforeseen circumstances prevent, said a statement issued at the Mexican foreign office last night. The statement added that assurance had been given that Senator Fall of New Mexico probably would arrive here next Monday to attend the inauguration as president of Mexico of General Alvaro Obregon.

MEN HELD AT OMAHA MAY BE BANK RAIDERS

Superior Police Informed Suspects Were There at Robbery Time.

Photos Coming for Identification by the Superior Bank Employes.

The men who robbed the Superior State bank on Nov. 16, getting away with $7,215 in cash, are believed to be in custody at Omaha, Neb., according to telegraphic communications received yesterday by the Superior police. This morning warrants were issued for J. B. Bohmer, H. Ryan and Charles Stewart, three of the men taken by the Omaha police in a raid at the Flat Iron hotel, Omaha, charging them with the robbery.

According to information imparted to the Superior police by the authorities at Omaha, these three were members of a party of eight, which included Mrs. Bohmer, Mrs Ryan, Miss Bessie Wyatt and James Mack and James McCarthy, who, the Omaha police say, were planning the robbery of five Omaha banks. The police of Omaha claim to have received the information against the band through an arrangement with the hotel whereby the police took over the hotel switchboard.

Were in Superior.

Conversations over the telephone held by the various parties arrested resulted in the police learning that Bohmer, Ryan and Stewart, together with the three women, were in Superior at the time of the robbery of the Superior bank. Since then they have been in different parts of Northern Minnesota.

Photographs of the three men are now being forwarded to the Superior police for identification by the bank officials. If the men are recognized as the parties wanted, officers armed with warrants will be sent at once to Omaha to bring back the men.

The Superior bank robbery was one of the boldest daylight affairs that has taken place in the history of the Head of the Lakes. Two men entered the bank, covering the cashier, clerks and customers with large revolvers. The open safe was rifled of $7,215. The men made their escape in a large touring car. No trace of the bandits was found.

TRACE TWO WANTED IN MURDER MYSTERY

Philadelphia, Nov. 24.—The man and woman wanted in connection with the killing of Henry T. Pierce, the manufacturer's agent, who was found beaten to death in the rear of his office here Monday, were expected by the local police to be taken into custody today. Detectives left last midnight for Wheeling, W. Va., where a motor car bearing the same license number and answering the description of Pierce's machine, in which they believe his slayers fled, was left at a garage for repairs.

Although the occupants of the car, two men and a woman, have disappeared, local officials said one of the men and the woman were well known and that they felt sure soon would be arrested. The second man in the machine was believed to be an innocent acquaintance of the couple who was picked up in the flight across Pennsylvania.

Investigation, it was stated, revealed that the man being sought is well known in sporting circles and was himself a former amateur boxer of New Jersey.

COMPLAIN OF GREEK PRESS CENSORSHIP

Athens, Nov. 23.—(By the Associated Press.)—Foreign newspaper correspondents went before Demetrios Gounaris, minister of war, and George Rhallis, premier, today, and complained that the press censorship established during the Venizelos regime was being continued. They declared that their dispatches were being delayed or absolutely suppressed.

The two officials answered that during fusillades on Wednesday and Thursday of last week, bullets cut and injured eighteen overhead wire systems, and that this was responsible for any delays that have occurred. They declared that if the censorship was still in operation, it was due to the fact that some correspondents had misrepresented last week's demonstrations by saying they were in favor of the former German emperor. This was declared to be untrue. The two ministers, however, promised to remove all censorship restrictions. Some correspondents have left Athens and others intend to go if conditions do not improve.

FREIGHTER CLEMSON AGROUND AT CHICAGO

Chicago, Nov. 24.—The freighter D. M. Clemson of the Pittsburgh line, a 600-foot ore boat, is aground on Morgan Shoals, two miles off Jackson park, having struck last night during a fog. The boat filled rapidly and coast guards from two stations stood by throughout the night with surfboats ready to remove the crew of thirty-five men. Tugs expect, however, to float the steamer and tow her to the river for repairs.

The Clemson is loaded with 13,000 tons of iron ore en route from Duluth to Gary, Ind.

Disarmed by Poles.

London, Nov. 24.—The last remnants of the troops of Gen. Petlura, Ukrainian leader, have crossed the Ukrainian frontier into Poland and have been disarmed by Polish troops, according to Tuesday's official statement from the Russian soviet war office at Moscow.

Deer Hunter Killed.

Black Creek, Wis., Nov. 24.—Lynn Bates, New London, was accidentally shot and killed at Choate's Siding, Wis., yesterday, by Ted Maas of Black Creek. The two men were hunting deer. Bates, it is said, scared up a bear and went around to run it out of the brush when Maas fired, killing him instantly.

DEPOSITS $150,000 AND IS RELEASED FROM BANKRUPTCY

CHARLES WEEGHMAN.

Chicago, Nov. 24.—Federal Judge Carpenter yesterday dismissed bankruptcy proceedings against Charles Weeghman, owner of a string of restaurants. Mr. Weeghman deposited $150,000 with the court clerk to cover all claims. He was previously interested in the Chicago National league baseball club.

BOY CRAWLS INTO "TENT"; ASPHYXIATED BY FUMIGATING GAS

Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 24.—Howard Matheson, 4, and Billy Mayberry, 5, "played house" yesterday in what they thought was a tent near Billy's home in Glendale, near here. H[illegible]rd crept under the ter[illegible] [illegible]illy waited to "knock" at [illegible]r.

When Billy entere[illegible] [illegible]ward was lying very still. [illegible] tried to carry his friend [illegible] He could not. He grew dizzy, stumbled and cried out.

Neighbors heard the cry. When they arrived Howard was dead and Billy was unconscious. Billy was revived with a pulmotor.

What they thought a tent was a canvas covering over an orange tree filled with gas for fumigation.

$7,000,000 IN BONUSES

Will Be Distributed to Employes of Ford Company on Jan. 1.

Detroit, Mich., Nov. 24.—Bonus checks aggregating more than $7,000,000 for employes of the Ford Motor company are now being written and their distribution will start Jan. 1 next, according to announcement today by Edsel B. Ford, president of the Ford Motor company.

Mr. Ford also announced a forthcoming extra 3 per cent for the six months ending Dec. 31 on Ford investment certificates held by employes of the company. This, Mr. Ford said, is in addition to the guaranteed 6 per cent. He added that 8 per cent had been paid July 31 last, making a total of 14 per cent on the certificates for 1920. Mr. Ford's statement was made, it was announced, to correct what he said was an erroneous report of testimony by S. S. Marquis, director of the Ford educational department before Judge Alschuler in Chicago yesterday that the recent reductions in the price of Ford cars had resulted in the bonus to employes being practically cut off.

The statement that 6,000 men of the Detroit force had quit work within the last ninety days was correct, it was said, at the executive offices, but the men had left voluntarily, and increased production of the remaining employes had made it unnecessary to replace them.

Princes Arrive at Athens.

Athens, Nov. 23.—(By the Associated Press.)—Princes Andreas and Christophor, brothers of ex-King Constantine of Greece, arrived in Athens today from Italy.

TO PRESENT HARDING'S VIEWS ON THE LEAGUE

Senator McCormick Will Lay President-Elect's Ideas Before Europeans.

Illinoisan's Trip Discussed by Delegates to League Assembly.

Project for International Staff Is Again Before Geneva Meeting.

Paris, Nov. 24.—United States Senator Medill McCormick of Illinois, who sailed yesterday from New York for Europe, is crossing the Atlantic to lay Senator Harding's personal views on the League of Nations before governmental chiefs, says a report from Geneva to the Echo de Paris.

The dispatch states that the object of Senator McCormick's trip to Europe was discussed by delegates to the assembly of the League of Nations at Geneva yesterday.

Discuss International Staff.

Geneva, Nov. 24.—(By Associated Press.)—Projects for an international staff, proposed by Leon Bourgeois of France at the Versailles conference and rejected there, were reviewed here yesterday in a prolonged discussion regarding the reduction of armaments.

M. Bourgeois declared the carrying out of the Versailles treaty must be assured before disarmament was possible. He declared that to make that treaty effective, some military organization such as he had proposed to the peace conference was required.

Details of this discussion, made known last night, indicated that the sentiment prevails in the committee on disarmament that it is impossible to secure at present a general scrapping of war materials. On the other hand, Signor Schanzer, an Italian member, pointed out the danger to the league in the disappointment of the masses if nothing should be done.

Committee Meetings.

Today's program comprised committee meetings and a meeting of the council of the league at which it was expected action would be taken on the assembly's request for negotiations with Mustapha Kemal, leader of the Turkish nationalists, through one of the powers.

There is some uncertainty relative to the admission of Luxemburg and Finland to the league, but it is said that it is probable they may be invited to join by a majority of the delegates. Montenegro's eleventh-hour application has not as yet been discussed and sentiment would appear to indicate that Albania may not be admitted.

Notwithstanding the decision of Committee No. 1, on general organiza-

FORCED TO DRILL WITH WOODEN GUNS

Washington, Nov. 24.—That artillery troops for the American army in the world war were forced to drill with "improvised wooden guns, rope harness and other expedients" because of lack of equipment, is officially revealed today in the annual report of Maj.-Gen. William J. Snow, chief of field artillery, to Secretary Baker.

Demobilization difficulties made it almost impossible to carry on regular peace time training of the artillery during the year, Gen. Snow reported, but he said an effort was made to keep two regiments trained and recruited up to strength for possible border duty.

Developing Combinations.

The signal corps is now engaged in developing combination radio telegraph and telephone sets for the use of artillery firing with aerial observation, the report stated. Army accomplishments during the year were the motorization of four regiments armed with seventy-five millimeter guns, including the use of two and a half and five-ton tractors; the development of new gas and smoke shells and successful incendiary shells by the chemical warfare service, and an extensive test of pack equipment for mountain artillery under service conditions.

Many regiments had little more than the numerical strength of batteries during the entire year, Gen. Snow stated, adding, however, that recruiting now is progressing more favorably.

JIM VAUGHN STABBED BY HIS FATHER-IN-LAW

Kenosha, Wis., Nov. 24.—Jim (Hippo) Vaughn, a pitcher for the Chicago Cubs, was stabbed by his father-in-law at midnight during an argument at the Vaughn home. He is in a serious condition at the city hospital.

SAVINGS OF WHOLE YEAR WILL HELP FEED STARVING EUROPEAN CHILDREN

New York, Nov. 24.—The accumulated savings of a whole year were poured into the lap of Herbert Hoover today to help feed starving European children, and as a result every day for two whole months will be Thanksgiving day for one hungry little European waif.

The savings totaled $2. The great-hearted giver is Constance Wilmarth, 7 years old. Seated at her own dinner at home she heard her mother say that $1 given to the American Relief Administration European Children's fund would give a hungry European child one good meal a day for one month.

Constance, who lives at Long Beach, L. I., raided her savings bank and wrote:

"My dear Mr. Hoover, I am sending you 2 dollers of my owen. I have a silver doller but I would rather keep it my self but if you need it I will send it too. You know I am sending it for the poor starving children of Europe. Yours friendly, "CONSTANCE."

She told her mother that maybe by January she would have another "doller." Her mother will help discharge America's great self-imposed charity—the task of keeping two and one-half million European children from death or permanent injury from starvation between now and next harvest. Every American dollar stimulates the production of two in Europe, and the $3 are so expended that they give a child one square meal a day for a month. The goal of the European Children's fund is $23,000,000.

STATE PLAYS TRUMP CARD IN RAPE CASE

Shows Mason and Girl Have Same Infectious Disease.

Other Negroes Involved Not So Afflicted, Doctor Testifies.

The state played its trump card this morning in the prosecution of Max Mason, alleged negro rapist on trial in district court, when it developed from the testimony of two physicians that the defendant on trial and his alleged 18-year-old victim were both found to be infected with the same infectious disease within a short time after the alleged crime. The contention of the prosecution is that Mason communicated the infection to his victim.

Dr. W. A. Coventry testified that he examined the girl about three weeks after June 14 and found her suffering from a recent case of infection. He also testified that he had examined Sullivan, her escort on that evening, and that he was not similarly infected. Dr. M. A. Nickelson testified that, at the request of the county attorney, he examined thirteen negro suspects at the county jail in July and that he found but one infected and that was Mason, the defendant on trial.

Condition Indeterminate.

Dr. David Graham, who examined the girl the morning following the alleged assault, testified today that he found no positive evidence one way or the other which would indicate that she had been assaulted. From her physical condition, he testified, she might have been outraged or she might not have been. He said she might have been attacked as she claims to have been without having any marks upon her, assuming that she was unconscious at the time of the assault.

Capt. A. G. Fiskett of the police department was called as a witness for

SUB-TREASURY TO CEASE TO EXIST

New York, Nov. 24.—Pursuant to an act of congress, which provides for the abolition of the various sub-treasuries scattered throughout the country, the United States sub-treasury in this city will cease to exist at the end of the year and its functions and powers will be added to those already delegated to the local Federal reserve bank.

Many of the employes of the sub-treasury, now numbering less than 100, will be taken over by the Federal reserve bank, which will occupy the treasury building until its own new home in this city is completed and other employes may go into the customs service.

The local sub-treasury, for generations an integral part of the financial history of the government, occupies a commanding position in the heart of the financial district and is on the site of the seat of the Federal congress, where George Washington took the oath of office as first president of the United States.

WOMAN IS MIXED UP IN HAMON SHOOTING

Ardmore, Okla., Nov. 24.—The condition of Jacob L. Hamon, Republican national committeeman of Oklahoma, who is in a sanatorium here suffering from a gunshot wound showed material improvement early today and Hamon took his first nourishment since Sunday, when he was wounded, according to the attending physicians.

Hamon, according to statements of his business manager, was wounded accidentally by the discharge of a small revolver he was cleaning. Information has been issued by the county prosecutor charging Clara M. Smith with assault with intent to kill in connection with the shooting. The woman has disappeared and early today had not been located.

SUBMARINE CHASER ACTS ON ORDERS

Telegraph Company Attempts to Join Barbados Line at Miami.

Naval Commander Ordered to Prevent Carrying Out of Plan.

Head of Western Union Claims Authority Under Act of Congress.

Miami, Fla., Nov. 24.—What was described as an attempt by the Western Union Telegraph company to connect its cables from Barbados to a cable from Miami at the west end of the causeway here today was stopped by an armed force from the United States submarine chaser 154.

Orders to prevent the connecting of the two cables were received by the commandant of this district from the navy department some time ago and the commander of the submarine chaser had in turn been ordered to prevent any attempt at such operation.

Claims General Authority.

New York, Nov. 24.—Newcomb Carlton, president of the Western Union Telegraph company, declared last night his company has general authority under an act of congress to lay cable in all navigable waters in the United States and a specific permit from the secretary of war.

Mr. Carlton made this assertion in a formal statement which he issued in connection with his company's application in the courts of the District of Columbia for an injunction to restrain the secretary of the navy from interfering with its plans to extend its telegraph lines from Miami to Miami Beach.

"Last April," he said, "the Western Union Telegraph company commenced the construction of wires along the causeway over Biscayne bay, which separates Miami from Miami Beach. There are two drawbridges in the causeway, and following usual procedure and in order to avoid interruption to navigation, a short cable is laid on the bottom of the bay at each of these drawbridges.

Has Specific Permit.

"The Western Union has general authority under an act of congress to lay cables in all navigable waters in the United States. In addition to this authority, it holds a specific permit for

GERMAN AIRPLANES HELD UP AT HAMBURG

Berlin, Nov. 23.—Eleven aluminum German airplanes sold to an American concern and loaded on a ship in Hamburg have been ordered held up by the inter-Allied aeronautical commission, which alleges a violation of the Versailles treaty, it is officially announced here. German manufacturers claim the contracts for the airplanes were drawn since July 10, when, in their opinion, the prohibition against the manufacture and sale of airplanes under Article 202 of the Versailles treaty expired.

The commission is understood to claim authority from the council of ambassadors in Paris to prevent commerce in airplanes until Germany has complied with Article 201, which directs the delivery of war material to the Allies. The German government has announced it will protest against the commission's action.

METROPOLIS IS WELL GUARDED

Due to Rumors of Attacks to Be Made on Prominent Persons.

London, Nov. 24.—Suggestions that it was probable Sinn Fein agents would attack prominent persons and property in London and other large cities of England have been current during the last few days, but nothing substantial has been found to lend color to them. The Graphic claimed today that a "high authority" had said the British secret service had discovered a Sinn Fein plot aimed at citizens of London. The newspaper adds the secret service recently discovered a Sinn Fein plot to destroy property elsewhere, mentioning the Manchester ship canal and the Liverpool docks, "the chosen scenes of Sinn Fein outrages."

Elaborate precautions have been taken at both places.

The Sinn Fein official publication, The Irish Bulletin, prints what purports to be a circular from the Royal Irish constabulary headquarters to police inspectors, warning the latter of the Sinn Fein's intention to employ Irish women in committing outrages, and instructing them to remember this when conducting investigations.

To Condemn Outrages.

London, Nov. 24.—H. H. Asquith, former premier, and leader of the opposition in the house of commons, was prepared today to move a resolution condemning outrages against Crown forces and civilians in Ireland. The resolution he had written expressed abhorrence of the brutal assassination of officers in Dublin last Sunday, deplored and condemned the action of the Irish executive department in "attempting to suppress crime by methods of terrorism in reprisals involving the lives and property of innocent persons," and declared the urgency of taking immediate steps to bring about the pacification which is demanded in the interests of Ireland and the empire.

The government has indicated there is no objection to debate on the subject but fear was expressed today that further excited scenes might occur.

LAW REACHES GIRL THIEF

Helen Ostlund Admits Robbing Carlson; Three Taken by Police.

"I'd rather have lost it all than to see the girls go to jail for a long time," said Carl A. Johnson, victim of a planned robbery in which he was relieved of $325 Monday night by Helen Ostlund, aged 21, who, according to her written confession given to Chief of Police Warren A. Pugh this morning, said she had taken $280 and divided this sum with her companions, Helen Marcotte, aged 22, and William Broman, aged 23. The robbery took place at the Superior hotel after the four had driven over there in a taxi-cab.

According to the confession of the Ostlund woman, Broman had come to her and told her that he had a "sucker with a roll." The quartet met in her room, she said, and at that time Johnson is said to have had several drinks and been well under the influence of liquor. An automobile ride was suggested by Johnson and the four drove to the Superior hotel. Miss Ostlund said that shortly after arriving at the room in the Superior hotel, she had relieved him of the money and had come back to Duluth, where a distribution was made with Miss Marcotte and Broman.

Arraigned for Larceny.

The Ostlund woman will be taken back to Superior this afternoon by Detectives Widness and Peterson of the Superior police department, where she will be formally arraigned on a charge of grand larceny. The other two will be arraigned in the local police court on charges of having received stolen property. Formal complaints against the three were sworn out this morning. The two women were arrested after midnight last night by Detectives Boland and Englert, and Broman was arrested this morning.

Johnson, the victim, said he hoped the girls would not get more than thirty days. Tears came to his eyes when told the chances were better that they would get a year sentence.

"I do not care to prosecute them. If they had only taken a hundred or even half of my money, I wouldn't have said anything. I'd rather go back to the woods and earn more money than have them spend a long time in jail."

Johnson said he was still crazy from the booze he drank when he woke up in the hotel yesterday morning. He said he saw his purse on the floor and then knew what had happened. He looked toward the window and saw a rope used for a fire escape.

Wanted to Hang Himself.

"I made a noose and tied it around my neck," he said. "I was going to end it all for being such a sucker. Just then I happened to glance in the looking glass and I braced up. I found a little small change in my pocket and decided to hunt up the girls. If I had known that the girls had spent most of the money I would have tried to get back what they had left and said nothing."

The Ostlund woman had $40 in cash on her person when searched at 1:30 o'clock this morning by Police Matron Mary Connolly. The Marcotte woman had only a few dollars left. Broman told the police he had all of the money he got out of the theft and was willing to turn it back to the victim.

Dandruffy Heads Become Hairless

If you want plenty of thick, beautiful, glossy, silky hair, do by all means get rid of dandruff, for it will starve your hair and ruin it if you don't.

It doesn't do much good to try to brush or wash it out. The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning most, if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop, and your hair will look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and four ounces is all you will need, no matter how much dandruff you have. This simple remedy never fails.—Advertisement.

STENOGRAPHER IS HELD IN CONTEMPT

New York, Nov. 24.—Today's session of the joint legislative committee's investigation of the "building trust" started with the adjudging in contempt of Miss Elizabeth O'Dea, a stenographer employed by the builders' supply bureau.

This followed her failure to take the stand after vacating of a temporary injunction obtained by her counsel restraining the committee from examining her on the ground that the subpoena served on her was invalid. A sergeant-at-arms was sent after the bureau's books.

While the committee then was questioning the next witness, Anthony A. Paterno, the board of estimate met and decided to postpone until next Monday taking of evidence in its separate investigation of alleged collusive bidding on city contracts.

Paterno corroborated testimony of his brother, Joseph, yesterday that his firm had paid $3,000 cash to delegates of Robert P. Brindell's building trades council for "protection against labor troubles" on two apartment houses being built in upper Manhattan.

The witness added that Brindell got $1,750—or $50 a man for thirty-five men—to allow members of William Zaranko's house wreckers' union to remain on a job.

Testimony that three-fourths of the wrought steel industry in America is controlled by three powerful corporations with prices usually absolutely uniform was given by John G. Cornell, Jr., a jobber and exporter.

The wrought iron industry is similarly in the hands of the three steel titans, Cornell said, and this business is practically paralyzed just now owing to a strike in one of their plants.

HOLIDAY FEATURES FOR WASHINGTON SCHOOL

A Thanksgiving program was given in the assembly hall of the Washington junior high school. The biggest hit was a play presented by eight boys and representing their ideas of school life. The boys' chorus of sixty-six members also made its appearance for the first time. The school orchestra played during the singing of patriotic songs. A group of girls gave a Thanksgiving dialogue.

During the afternoon and evening of Dec. 3 a gift sale will be held by the pupils of the art department. Among the gifts are small wooden horses and other animals, brooches, hairpins, baskets and pottery. All the articles will be work of the art department. Miss Williams, conductor for the sale, says that each article will be suitable for a Christmas gift. The proceeds will be used for buying a motion picture machine for the art department.

The Washington junior high school has three musical organizations this year under the leadership of Miss Downie. The orchestra is composed of thirty members, while the boys' chorus has sixty-six members and the girls' chorus seventy-six members. Each organization promises to be an interesting and enjoyable feature of our school activities.

The boys' basket ball team will meet the alumni team tonight.

EIGHT SALOONS IN CHICAGO CLOSED

Chicago, Nov. 25.—Temporary injunctions closing eight saloons and cafes for violation of the liquor laws were granted today by Judge Kenesaw M. Landis.

Attorney General Brundage of Illinois has filed bills for injunctions closing seventy-two other places as public nuisances. The defendants have been ordered to appear before Judge Landis this afternoon.

WELLS-FARGO SETTLES GOPHER BACK TAXES

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 24.—The state tax commission yesterday received a check for $57,987.25 for back taxes from the Wells Fargo Express company, now extinct. The amount covers taxes for the years 1914, 1915, 1916, 19917 and the first half of 1918. The company had declined to pay the taxes, contending the state 8 per cent gross earnings tax was confiscatory. The state brought suit and was upheld by district court, whose decision was affirmed by a supreme court decision.

GIVEN SIX MONTHS FOR SHOOTING BOY

Grand Forks, N. D., Nov. 24.—Joseph A. Edelin of St. Paul, who has been held at the county jail since Nov. 1, when Cecil Gahagen was injured by the accidental discharge of a gun held by Edelin, at the Hotel Frederick here, on Monday pleaded guilty to a charge of carrying concealed weapons and was sentenced to six months in the state penitentiary, Judge C. M. Cooley passed sentence.

Young Gahagen was shot through the lung and another lad had his hand injured, as the result of the discharge of a gun, which Edelin had in his hand demonstrating.

A Home-Made Gray Hair Remedy

Gray, streaked or faded hair can be immediately made black, brown or light brown, whichever shade you desire, by the use of the following remedy that you can make at home:

Merely get a box of Orlex powder at any drug store. It costs very little and no extras to buy. Dissolve it in 2 oz. of distilled or rain water and comb it through the hair. Full directions for use and a $100.00 gold bond come in each box guaranteeing the user that Orlex powder does not contain silver, lead, zinc, sulphur, mercury, aniline, coaltar products or other derivatives.

It is safe, does not rub off, is not sticky or gummy and leaves the hair fluffy. It will make a gray-haired person look twenty years younger.—Advertisement.

OIL PAINTING EXHIBIT AT SPALDING MONDAY

David Ericson, Noted Painter, Will Present Varied Display of Art Work.

David Ericson, the noted painter, who made Duluth his home for many years, together with Theodore J. Morgan, an artist of Provincetown, Mass., and Washington, D. C., will hold an exhibition of oil paintings, monotypes, and batik at the Spalding hotel for a limited period beginning the first of next week.

This will be the first time in which the two men have exhibited together. They go from Duluth to Chicago and then on to the East, with exhibitions scheduled in many cities. The work to be shown here will include many articles as well as painting never before seen in Duluth.

Mr. Ericson is well known here, having lived in the city since his boyhood. His paintings are in many Duluth homes. The city has also purchased several of his best works which may be seen in the public library. Mr. Morgan has never exhibited in the West before. Mr. Ericson is a former student of Whistler, who made it a rule not even to criticize the works of young artists unless he were certain they showed considerable promise.

Both men come here directly from Provincetown, Mass., America's most famous art colony. Situated on the very extremity of Cape Cod, it has the distinction of being the oldest town in America. It was there that the Pilgrims stopped to wash their clothes before proceeding on to Plymouth. Observance of the three hundredth anniversary of the Pilgrims landing was begun at Provincetown this year, and the same city will be the scene of a more elaborate festival next spring.

Many of the oil paintings to be exhibited here are concerned with scenes about this quaintest of towns. Mr. Ericson has made studies especially of the mackerel fleet and the sand dunes in the vicinity. Mr. Morgan has many oil paintings of the odd multi-colored homes of the town.

Both the monotypes and the batik which Mr. Morgan will exhibit are new to Duluth. A monotype somewhat resembles an etching. An impression is first made on glass, and a print is then made on canvas. Unlike an etching, however, only one impression can be made for a monotype which is therefore as exclusive as a painting.

The exhibit of batik will be shown in smocks, draperies, and wall hangings. This art has come to the United States from Java and is already exceedingly popular in the East. Each bit of drapery must be dyed once for each color it includes. Mr. Morgan has some pieces which have had to be dyed fully sixty times. The work has occupied months, and some of the wall hangings to be shown are worth as much as $1,500.

This will be the first time Mr. Ericson has visited Duluth in about a year and a half.

CROOKSTON PREPARES FOR WINTER SHOWS

Crookston, Minn., Nov. 24.—(Special to The Herald.)—The board of directors of the Crookston association at a special meeting to plan for entertaining the winter shows here Feb. 7-11, inclusive, under auspices of the Northwest School of Agriculture, the Red River Valley Livestock association and the Minnesota Red River Valley Development association, voted an appropriation of $1,000 to the show management for use in caring for expenses in arranging for and conducting the show, $500 to be paid immediately and the balance after Jan. 1. This arrangement will, it is expected, enable the association to make the contribution without resorting to an assessment upon its members as has been customary in the past.

To Reduce Working Schedule.

Springfield, Mass., Nov. 24.—Beginning tonight the plant of the Fisk Rubber company in Chicopee Falls will reduce its working schedule from five to three days a week. The plant employs about 1,800 hands and the reduction is made, it is announced, to provide work for as many employes as possible. The move follows the precedent established by large tire concerns elsewhere, an official said.

WARRIOR EARNS SCHOLASTIC AWARD

Cambridge, Mass., Nov. 24.—The hallmark of scholarship was put on a hero of the battlefield and gridiron today when the Phi Beta Kappa society of Harvard elected to membership Wesley G. Brocker of St. Paul, Minn. He is one of eight members of the junior class to be so honored and the only man active in athletics.

Brocker won a scholarship, which brought him to Harvard in 1916 and his powerful play as guard on his freshman eleven and successful pitching on the class baseball nine gained him distinction.

After training at the first Plattsburg camp he went overseas with the First division and as reward for his exploits in several battles was made a captain. He was wounded at Soissons while leading his men in a charge, a machine gun bullet passing through both thighs. It appeared that his days in sports were done.

But Brocker returned to college last fall, reported for service with the football squad and became a member of the varsity team of last year and this fall. He was a second string man through both seasons, but was called into the game with Yale at guard and obtained his varsity letter. To this accomplishment in sport has now been added the Phi Beta Kappa recognition of his scholarship.

ATHLETES GET GOOD HUNCH WHEN THEIR STAR IS SETTING

How does an athlete know when he has reached the age limit in his particular branch of sport and has commenced to go back? Sometimes it takes a considerable time for the realization to seep in, sometimes the knowledge comes suddenly. W. G. George, the Englishman, who was making his records in the distance runs before the champions of today were born, found the knowledge forced upon him when he was apparently at his best.

"The age came in my case," writes Mr. George in London, "when I was in training at Botany bay, Sydney, Australia, in 1887, when I was 29 years of age. I had had ten years of very strenuous athletics, and during that time probably ran more races, and I believe won more prizes, than any other man. I was trotting round the track and felt quite all right, but when I stopped my whole muscular system seemed to collapse, so that I almost fell down. I did not feel particularly ill—only useless.

"However, after a rest, I gradually recovered and thought nothing further about it till the next time I visited the track. Then I found I could not run, and from that day on I was never able to run with any real pleasure or with vim, dash, and power—the essentials necessary for success."

SISLER HANGS UP NEW SWAT RECORD

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 24.—When George Sisler, the Browns' first sacker, blazed the trail for American league hitters during the campaign just ended and finished with an average that unofficial figures place at .409, it marked the first occasion in eight years that a major league player has reached the .400 mark, and gave the St. Louis Americans their first batting champion since 1906 when George Stone finished with .358.

Records indicate incidentally that it was only the fifth time in a score of years that a big league mark of such proportions has been established, and in every instance by an American leaguer.

Lajoie of Cleveland led the way in 1901, when he finished the season with .422, and it was not until ten years had been passed that his record was approached. Ty Cobb and Joe Jackson then hung up marks of .420 and .408 respectively. Cobb held up for another year, compiling an average of .410 in 1912, but after that, the .400 genus became extinct until this year.

The last time the National league owned a .400 hitter was in 1899 when El Delehanty of Philadelphia ended with .408.

In addition to leading the league, Sisler established a new modern record for hits in a season, driving out 258. The previous mark, 248, was set by Ty Cobb in 1911.

SO CONFUSING.

London Answers: Wealth had carried Mrs. Nurich into exalted circles of which she had hardly dared even to dream.

At a big dinner party she was being shown the glories of an ancestral mansion by her titled hostess, and as they passed along a corridor the latter lady paused before a marble bust.

"Oose that of?" asked Mrs. Nurich, with an air of great interest.

"That is Marcus Aurelius," replied her hostess.

"Oh!" "Is it?" exclaimed Mrs. Nurich. "But I wish you'd tell me," she went on confidently, "whether its' the old marquis or the new one? I do get 'em mixed up so."

Legacy of $28,000 From Unknown Source Awaits Edward Wimmer.

A $28,000 legacy from an unknown source is seeking Edward Wimmer, 3608 Allendale avenue, who moved here from Chicago two months ago, with his family.

"There are several possible explanations of the legacy," said Mr. Wimmer today. "I am getting in touch with other relatives in an effort to obtain further information.

"All I know about it is that my aunt in Chicago, Mrs. M. J. Brorby, has recently sent us a letter explaining that some stranger is looking for us to deliver $28,000."

Mr. Wimmer said today one of the legacies, which is likely to materialize soon, is from a relative of Mrs. Wimmer's, who is a general in the Danish army. The amount from this source, however, he declared, would be larger than $28,000.

Mr. Wimmer is a salesman for the Grand Rapids Show Case company.

THOUSANDS OF TURKEYS FROM THE BLUE GRASS

Lexington, Ky., Nov. 24.—Thousands of turkeys will be furnished to the New York and New England markets for the Thanksgiving festival by the blue grass country adjacent to Lexington.

Lexington dealers estimate that between 12,000 and 15,000 turkeys will be slaughtered and shipped from this city to New York, Boston and Providence.

RELIEF OF EUROPEANS

Hoover Heads Council to Continue Feeding of Under-Nourished.

Chicago, Nov. 24.—Formal announcement of the organization of a European relief council, composed of seven American organizations, was made by Herbert Hoover at a dinner last night. Continuation of American support in feeding the under-nourished peoples of Europe was urged by Mr. Hoover, who will act as chairman of the council. The dinner, tendered by Howard B. Jackson, formerly vice president of the United States Grain corporation, was attended by 300 Chicagoans.

"This council, after full investigation, has decided that the present priority should be given to American relief in Europe to support 3,500,000 children who have, since the armistice, been dependent on American charity, until the children are secure over the winter," Mr. Hoover said.

"Here is an issue in our foreign relations which is neither racial, political nor religious. It is just the preservation of the lives of children.

Greatest Famine in 300 Years.

"The war has collapsed, among both Allies and enemy, in the face of the greatest famine in 300 years. In the first stage of famine the human animals eat the food of their cattle and thus undermine the production of milk. In the second stage they consume the cattle themselves. The children of the white races are dependent upon cattle for their very existence, thus famine bears hardest upon the children.

"Today there are 3,500,000 waifs who live by virtue of the 3,000 asylums, hospitals, clinics and canteens whose doors would close but for American charity. At the time of the armistice, Americans were carrying the burden of 200,000 children in Belgium and 600,000 in Northern France. This system was spread over Finland, Esthonia, Letvia, Lithuania, Poland, Germany, Austria, Czecho-Slovakia, Serbia, Roumania, Hungay and Armenia.

Burden Grows Less.

"With the harvests of 1919 and 1920 and the gradual economic recuperation, the burden has grown less and the harvest of next summer will greatly lighten the burden. It is not a perpetual charge on American charity. It is an emergency demand. It will cost $23,000,000 about $1 per month per child until next harvest. For every American dollar, another dollar of local support is provided in equipment and food, together with a vast amount of voluntary service. We have but to supply them with their deficient milk, fats, clothing and in some countries, bread and they will succeed; without it they fall.

"To me it is a glory to the United States that 3,500,000 hungry waifs should sit every day at our table. I would rather have the American flag implanted in the hearts of the children of Europe than flying over any citadel of victory. Twenty years from now they will form the basis of civilization in Europe. If we are to preserve the foundations of society in the East, if we are to keep open the love of humanity in the West, our duty is clear before us."

NIGHT IN TURKEY PROMISES ACTIVITY

A barnyard medley will be the feature of the comic opera, "A Night in Turkey," which is to be staged at the Duluth Commercial club at 8 o'clock tonight. The stage has been set and the artists are in good voice, it was announced this morning. In addition to the medley it is understood that each artist is a soloist and will endeavor to win favor with the audience.

The big feature that the prospective audience is looking forward to is the privilege of carrying away with them the concert artists after the performance is over. Many staid and dignified businessmen, in everyday life, are expected to throw discretion to the winds and carry off some youthful chicken, which has made a hit during the evening. To avoid any argument as to the favored ones, it has been decided to draw lots for the performers. Even with this plan, it is expected there will be a big scramble for the more youthful poultry.

Another headliner on the program will be the advent of "Jerry" who has been engaged to furnish the "jazz." This artist comes to the club with the highest of recommendations as an expert in that line. "Tom," the other partner in this team was lost some time ago, about the time the eighteenth amendment act visited this city and put the team out of the running.

The king prize of the evening will be the star of the performance who will go to the one guessing the performer's correct weight, but another prize, which is expected to start a near riot will be offered late in the evening. What this will be is being withheld by the committee, as the members declare they want a peaceful evening, if possible.

The event is the annual stag affair of the club which is held just before Thanksgiving. The usual turkeys, geese, ducks and chickens will be awarded to the lucky ones and in sufficient quantities to supply everyone. A few small pigs have also been obtained for the occasion, the committee announces.

EXHIBIT OF TESTAMENTS AND BIBLES AT Y. M. C. A.

In anticipation of the national celebration of Mayflower Universal Bible Sunday on Nov. 28, the religious department of the Y. M. C. A. has put on an exhibit in the lobby of the Central building of the Bible in a variety of languages as well as some interesting old Bibles.

Among the curiosities is a German Bible published in 1575, or 345 years ago; a Scottish Gaelic Bible published from Society hall, Edinburgh, March 25, 1807, and an Irish Bible, published in Dublin in 1827. There is also a volume showing the simplified system of embossed reading for the use of the blind, invented by William Moon.

The exhibit contains Bibles in French, Swedish, Icelandic, German, Italian, Bohemian, Welsh, Yiddish (both Old and New Testaments), Syriac, Slovenian and Hungarian; Testaments in Norwegian, Polish, Spanish, Finnish, Lettish, Flemish, Croatian, Korean and the language of the Ojibwa Indians, and Gospels in Japanese, Arabic, Roumanian, Igabo (Isoko), Shilha, Berberi, Eskimo and Lithuanian, as well as all sorts and sizes of Bibles and Testaments in English.

An interesting feature is the Scripture text calendars for 1921 in Norwegian, Swedish and English.

The public is invited to this exhibit and also to a meeting in the lobby at 5 p. m. on Sunday afternoon to honor the day with special music and an address.

DULUTHIAN'S SISTER VERY ILL AT CROSBY

Aitkin, Minn., Nov. 24.—(Special to The Herald.)—Miss Lydia Holden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Holden, is critically ill in the Crosby hospital, where she has been employed as head nurse for some time.

Her sister, Miss Marion Holden, has been called from Duluth.

Ex-Banker Convict Being Sued.

Minneapolis, Minn., Nov 24.—C. F. Wyant, manager of the Mortgage Securities company, now serving a term for grand larceny at Stillwater following financial manipulations with William H. Schafer which resulted in the closing of fourteen state banks, is being sued by Frank E. Pearson, state bank superintendent, for assessment on stock in two banks. The amounts named are $359 on the State bank of Hammel and $500 on the St. Louis Park State bank.

STARRING AT PLAZA

DENHAM MALEY.

The Selwyns' production of "Buddies," which will be the attraction at the Plaza theater, Superior, tomorrow, matinee and night, and Friday night, proved during its full year in the Selwyn theater, New York, the cumulative power of a romance that is as fragrant as June, and music that is altogether charming in its interpolation of the story as well as the lilting quality of its melody, it is said. It also proved that the public enjoys an entertainment that is wholesome and sweet, for "Buddies" played to big business during the entire period of its twelve consecutive months in the Eastern metropolis.

THANKSGIVING PROGRAMS IN ALL CITY SCHOOLS

Thanksgiving programs are being held today in most of the city schools.

These consist of recitations, speeches, dramatizations and music by the children, all arranged in keeping with the Thanksgiving idea.

Miss Ann Dixon, supervisor of music, estimates that twenty-eight school orchestras will play at the programs. In addition many of the schools have glee clubs and music classes that will participate.

The Franklin school, of which H. G. House is principal, held its Thanksgiving program yesterday morning. The Monroe school held an evening program last night.

Parents have been invited to attend the programs in the various schools.

JO JO, HEALTH CLOWN, GOING HOME; NOT TO APPEAL TO SCHOOL BOARD

Jo Jo, Red Cross health clown, is off for Chicago today.

He has finished a tour of the county schools, where he taught the rural boys and girls some new maxims of good health.

C. H. Barnes, superintendent of the county schools, brought Jo Jo to Duluth and "loaned" him to the Duluth city schools for two days last week. Jo Jo appeared at four of the city schools.

Yesterday when Jo Jo returned from a trip on the range his services were again offered to the city schools, but when the committee on schools didn't warm up to the proposition Jo Jo bucked and announced he was going back to Chicago.

Dr. Kent, superintendent of the city schools, said this morning that he had not seen Jo Jo.

"The school physician and one member of the school committee, I understand, have seen Jo Jo and his work, and have recommended against giving him any time with the school children just now. The committee so decided."

County Supt. Barnes thinks Jo Jo proved to be of great value to the children.

"He gets across a valuable lesson in hygiene and in an impressive way," said Mr. Barnes.

Jo Jo is not going to appeal to the city board of education. He denies a report in a morning paper which states that he will appear before the board in "makeup" and urge them to let him appear before the school children.

DR. STOUGHTON ADDRESSES DULUTH ENGINEERS' CLUB

Members of the Duluth Engineers' club were entertained yesterday afternoon by an address delivered by Dr. Bradley Stoughton of New York, secretary of the American Institute of Metallurgical Engineers. Dr Stoughton told of the advantages to be derived from organizing a branch of the institute for Northern Minnesota. About twenty members of the local club were present.

No action will be taken by the club until the return of Dr. Stoughton, who left last night for the Cuyuna, Mesaba and Vermilion ranges, where he will outline the plan to engineers. If the range engineers look with favor on the plan, local engineers will perfect the organization it was announced after the meeting. The organization will be informal with no stated time for meeting and no dues. If organized, it will be the twentieth instituted by Dr. Stoughton.

Injury Fatal for Woman.

Bemidji, Minn., Nov. 24.—(Special to The Herald.)—Funeral services were held Tuesday in the Pony Lake church for Mrs. Fishel of Wilton, formerly of Liberty, who died at the age of 74 of gangrene following an injury sustained several months ago, when a piece of heavy iron fell on her foot. Two sons and three daughters survive Mrs. Fishel, whose husband died some time ago. One son and one daughter lived with the mother, the other members of the family living in Iowa.

WEAK WOMEN

cannot hope ever to become strong and well again unless they have plenty of good, rich, red blood of the kind that organic iron—Nuxated Iron—helps make. Nuxated Iron is like the iron in your blood and like the iron in spinach, lentils and apples, while metallic iron is iron just as it comes from the action of strong acids on iron filings. Nuxated Iron does not injure the teeth nor upset the stomach; it is an entirely different thing from ordinary metallic iron. It quickly helps make rich, red blood, revitalize wornout, exhausted nerves and give you new strength and energy. Over 4,000,000 people annually are using it. For sale by all druggists. Beware of substitutes. The genuine has N. I. stamped on every tablet. Always insist on having the genuine.

AUCTION AT HIGH SCHOOL BEING HELD

The annual auction at Duluth Central high school is being held this afternoon. Virtually the entire school, including faculty and students, gathered in the assembly hall at 2 p. m. It was expected that the entire list of articles donated by the students would be sold by 5 o'clock. A large sum of money is raised yearly at these auctions. A. F. M. Custance is auctioneer.

Candy, cushions, blankets, pennants and many other small novelties, trimmed in red and white, have been auctioned off.

The program began with musical selections by members of the school orchestra. This orchestra has been organized for all entertainments of the school and the members are as follows: Marvin Sukov, violinist and leader; Inez Melander, violinist; Harry Chalmers, cornetist; Robert Swanson, saxophone; Julia Waldo, pianist; Ward Luxin, drummer, Harold Conrad, clarinetist; Svere Spotswald, clarinetist; Conrad Sederquist, trombonist, and Edward Hamm, trombonist. The "peanut" quartet sang. The members are Kendall McLure, Reginald Cowen, Robert Tod and William Alexander.

KILLED SECOND TIME REVOLVER IS DROPPED

Wichita, Kan., Nov. 24.—The second accidental discharge of the same revolver yesterday caused the death of James H. Blutchard, 18, a student at Fairmount college here. Two years ago the youth dropped the revolver and it was discharged, the bullet striking him in the foot. Yesterday, while sitting in the office of the city marshal, he dropped the same revolver and it was again discharged, the bullet striking him in the chest and he died an hour later.

TWO ARRESTED ON STATUTORY CHARGE

Chicago, Nov. 24.—Mrs. Amille Conrow, daughter of Daniel S. Willard, said to be a millionaire New York broker, and Rudolph Bodmer of Washington, D. C., author and publisher, were arrested last night on a statutory charge preferred by Robert W. Conrow of New York, from whom Mrs. Conrow was divorced some time ago. The arrests were made at the request of the Washington police, according to local officials.

Bodmer denied to the police that he or Mrs. Conrow were guilty of any wrong, and said they would fight extradition.

RHEUMATISM—RELIEF

From Its Dreadful Pains and Aches, Stiffness, Soreness—

Is properly to be sought in a good blood medicine, because authorities say rheumatism is a blood disease; acid has entered the blood, settling in the muscles and joints. That's what makes the sharp, sudden, shot-like pains, causing you to jump and cringe in agony.

Hood's Sarsaparilla comprises remedies that every physician prescribes for rheumatism, combined with other blood-purifying, tonic and strength-building ingredients in a formula vastly superior in make-up and in curative power. It does give positive relief. Thousands say so. So will you. For a fine laxative take Hood's Pills.—Advertisement.

PREWAR PRICES FOR LIVE HOGS PREVAIL

Chicago, Nov. 24.—Prewar prices for live hogs became general yesterday throughout the United States. Big receipts from the farms appeared to be the immediate cause, the total supply of hogs on sale at ten principal markets of the country being estimated at 182,000 head, as against 124,000 a week ago.

In Chicago, the market closed at the bottom figures of the day, the lowest since Dec. 16, 1916, and at an average drop of $1 a hundredweight as compared with Monday. The practical top at the finish was $1 a hundredweight, whereas on July 31, 1919, hogs commanded $23.60, the pinnacle point on record. Five years before the current price was $8.15.

Graceville, Minn., Soldier Buried.

Fargo, N. D., Nov. 24.—Funeral services were held at Graceville, Minn., for James Andrew Conery, formerly of Fargo, who died in Belfast, Ireland, of pneumonia aboard ship while en route to the front. MULE IN MANHOLE; HOLDS UP TRAFFIC

A mule in a manhole at Third avenue west and First alley gave work for a few, excitement for hundreds and delayed traffic more than an hour on the Third avenue west street railway lines yesterday afternoon.

The lowly, lanky, long-eared mule is resting and recuperating today in the stables of the Duluth Van & Storage company, nursing bruised muscles and bones.

It all happened when the mule, hitched with his mate, was hauling an empty dray wagon, driven by Mike Jeanette, across Third avenue west and First alley. One of the mule's hind hoofs hit a manhole cover. The cover slipped out of place and the hoof and leg slipped in. In a moment the surprised and kicking mule sank to the bottom, leaving but the nose of the animal sticking out.

The driver, probably as much surprised as the mule, jumped to the nearest fire alarm box and turned in an alarm. The entire personnel and equipment from headquarters fire hall responded, looked down the hole and returned. The firemen found that they were out of place.

A call for help was sounded at the offices of the Duluth Street Railway company and its powerful crane was brought to the scene. Nearly an hour was spent in getting a rope swung around Mr. Mule before the crane could be put to use to give the final tug which hauled the animal out.

Thousands of Duluthians lined the streets and windows of various office buildings to watch the process. Never before in the history of Duluth had anything just like this happened.

HELD FOR MANSLAUGHTER.

Badger Banker's Son, Who Killed Man at Waukesha, Detained.

Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 24.—Robert G. Quick, son of a prominent banker at Rome, Wis., was arrested on a charge of manslaughter last night at Waukesha, near here, after the automobile which he was driving had struck and killed William H. Schacht of Milwaukee.

Schacht, according to the police, had stepped into the road to fix his car, when Quick's machine struck him. The car was being driven at a fast rate of speed, the police assert.

HE COULD HAVE SAVED HUNDREDS OF DOLLARS

Minneapolis Man Sorry He Didn't Know of Tanlac Ten Years Ago; Restored His Health.

"I firmly believe if I could have had Tanlac ten years ago I would have been saved the terrible suffering I had to endure, besides the hundreds of dollars I paid out trying to get well," said Charles Frigolla, 4051 France ave. north, Minneapolis, Minn., a valued employe of the Great Northern Railroad company, recently.

"Tanlac has not only relieved me of my suffering, but has built me up twelve and a half pounds in weight, and for the first time in many years I am feeling like a real man. I don't see how anybody could suffer more from stomach trouble than I did. Everything I ate caused a heavy distressed feeling in my stomach, fermented and bloated me up and kept me in agony for hours after each meal. At night the pain and distress tortured me so I often had to get up and pace the floor. I became so weak and run down it is a mystery to me yet how I ever pulled through.

"Finally I began reading about Tanlac and decided to see what it would do for me, and I must say it certainly did the work. My stomach trouble is a thing of the past, and I eat like a horse without feeling that old bloating and distressed feeling or the least pain. My nerves are in fine condition, and I sleep like a log every night. Tanlac's certainly great, there's no getting around that fact."

Tanlac is sold in Duluth at the W. A. Abbett drug stores under the personal direction of a special Tanlac representative. Also the leading druggist in every town throughout the Northwest. Wm. Isaacson, Gowan, Geo. W. Swanson, Culver; Floodwood Merc. Co., Floodwood; Wilfrid Longtin, Grand Lake, P. O. Saginaw; Fairbanks Store Co., Fairbanks; George Lestic store, McKinley.—Advertisement.

Refrigeration and Meat

In less than an hour after an animal is dispatched in a Swift & Company packing plant, it is hanging up as meat in a room brought by refrigerating machinery to a temperature just above freezing.

From that time until it is in your own ice box—within two to three weeks—it is kept at the same temperature; first in the coolers at our packing plants; next on our refrigerator cars, more than 6,000 of which are constantly moving to market with their perishable cargoes; then in our refrigerator rooms at our branch selling houses; then in your dealer's ice box, and last in your own.

Only for the few minutes while it is being put into the refrigerator cars at our packing plants, or taken out of them at our branch houses, or whisked to your retailer in our trucks, is it exposed to any change of temperature.

Without a skilled use of this system of cooling, made possible by modern science, you could not get fresh meat, prepared under most sanitary conditions, except at greater expense—unless you happened to live so near live stock raising centers that your needs could be supplied from live stock raised near-by.

If the foregoing raises any question in the mind of the reader, we will endeavor to answer it, upon request.

Many a Pretty Face
Spoiled By Pimples

Don't close your eyes to the warning which nature gives, when unsightly pimples appear on your face and other parts of the body.

Not only are these pimples and splotches disfiguring, but they lead to serious skin diseases that spread and cause the most discomforting irritation and pain. Sometimes they foretell eczema, boils, blisters, scaly eruptions and other annoyances that burn like flames of fire, and make you feel that your skin is ablaze.

When these symptoms appear on any part of the body, take prompt steps to rid the blood of these disorders. And the one remedy which has no equal as a blood cleanser is S. S. S., the purely vegetable blood medicine, which has been on the market for more than fifty years. It is sold by druggists everywhere.

If you are afflicted with this form of skin disease do not expect to be cured by lotions, ointments, salves and other local remedies, as they can not possibly reach the source of the trouble, which is in the blood. Begin taking S. S. S. today and write a complete history of your case to our chief medical adviser who will give you special instructions, without charge. Write at once to Medical Director, 827 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Georgia.

EACH OF THIS PARTY GOT A DEER, BUT THEY HAD TO TRAVEL FAR; OUT FIVE DAYS

HERE'S THE KILL.

Six young Duluth men got back Monday from Thompson beach, fifty-five miles up the north shore, each with a deer to his credit. The accompanying picture shows the kill as it arrived in Duluth on the steamer America. The young men took the steamer as the going on shore is anything but good, and spent five days in the region of Thompson beach, but their trip and hunt were rewarded by the limit of the law. The young men making up the party were Art, William, Ernest and Emil Thompson, all of Restormel street, West Duluth; Harry Jackson of 224 Second avenue east, and Sievert Ohrstrom of Restormel street.

JAPANESE SEAMEN TO FORM GREAT UNION

Tokio, Oct. 15.—(By the Associated Press.)—Formation of a great union of Japanese seamen is planned, covering the whole of the country, and having as its object the protection of the interests of the seamen. The plan may be regarded as a counter move against the Japan Shipowners' union which was established about two months ago, including all the leading Japanese shipping companies among its members.

In Kobe about 3,000 seamen are now out of work, while unemployed seamen in Yokohama number about 1,000. As the shipping depression continues with a steady increase in the number of tied-up ships, it is feared that marine unemployment will assume a more serious aspect. In the circumstances the seamen have come to realize the greater need of combining themselves to protect their own interests. At present forty-eight different seamen organizations exist in various parts of the country, the largest of them being the shipping section of the Maikai, the members of which number 15,000. It is now urged that all the organizations should combine to increase the power of the seamen in dealing with their employers.

PERSONNEL OF COMMERCIAL CLUB DIVISIONS AND COMMITTEES NAMED FOR CURRENT YEAR

Organization Completed for Active Season; Assignments Made to Different Divisions and Committees According to Personal Preference.

The personnel of the different divisions and the several committees named by the board of directors for the ensuing year were announced by Secretary W. I. Prince yesterday. These committees include many changes, but are made up by assigning according to personal preference.

The club's activities are controlled by a board of directors consisting of sixteen members, including a first vice president, three division vice presidents, treasurer and secretary. The three division vice presidents in turn are in charge of the division of civic affairs, division of commerce and industry and the division of organization affairs. Each of these divisions is composed of a vice president and four directors.

Each division is subdivided into four committees with a director chairman in charge. The division of civic affairs includes the following committees: City planning, education and social welfare, municipal, and publicity and conventions. The division of commerce and industry includes committees on traffic, trade promotion, industrial promotion and agricultural development. The division of organization affairs includes the membership, ways and means, meetings and entertainment, and finance and audit committees.

Following is the list of officers, directors and committeemen of the several divisions and committees as arranged by the board of directors:

President, Benjamin Finch; vice president Julius H. Barnes; secretary, W. I. Prince; assistant secretary, I. W. Lee; traffic commissioner, F. S. Taken From Court and Lynched.

Tylertown, Miss., Nov. 24.—Harry Jacobs, negro, while on trial here yesterday for assault on a white woman, was taken from the courtroom and lynched by a mob. Despite efforts of court officials and others to prevent violence, the negro was seized, a rope placed about his neck and dragged to a bridge, where the lifeless body was swung to the limb of a tree and riddled with bullets. One man was accidentally shot and is said to be in a critical condition.

WANT PROFITS USED IN AID OF FARMERS

Spokane, Wash., Nov. 24.—Declaring that the United States Grain corporation, during its existence, made profits of $50,000,000, "which properly belongs to the producers," a conference of several hundred farmers of Eastern Washington, Eastern Oregon and Northern Idaho yesterday adopted resolutions urging the secretary of the treasury to use that fund through the Federal reserve board or other agencies to extend credit to the farmers by providing a revolving fund.

The resolutions, which declared the present condition of the wheat market "is largely a grain gambler conspiracy," urged legislation eliminating option trading in food products, declared for a tariff on Canadian wheat, urged Federal reserve banks to renew all ninety-day paper and urged the farmers to take out memberships in co-operative grain growers' associations, such as the Idaho and Washington Grain Growers' associations.

Restoration of the war finance corporation and adoption by congress of the Capper-Volstead bill also were advocated. Congressional delegations of the Northwestern states were urged to support the present farm loan act, which was declared to be in danger of repeal or amendment disastrous to the farmers.

United States Senator Miles Poindexter of Washington, addressing the conference, advocated organized marketing through a national farmers' agency and not through government intervention. Senator Poindexter declared that to have the government help in the marketing of wheat would ruin independent liberty and independent development.

Congressman J. Stanley Webster of Washington urged the farmers not to resort to "striking."

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sallow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle. Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are gentle in their action yet always effective. They bring about that natural buoyancy which all should enjoy by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are known by their olive color. 15c and 30c.

German purchases is believed by its authors to be the best way to start the ball rolling toward better conditions in the exchange market generally.

Considerable pressure is being brought to bear upon the Wilson administration to approve the plan, irrespective of what the ultimate fate of the peace treaty may be. Mr. Wilson's determination during the last session of congress was to insist upon the ratification of the treaty before taking up all other questions with Germany growing out of the war.

Can Invest Securities.

Some of those who favor the building of an American syndicate believe the German securities could be invested legally by the United States government in such a corporation as is permitted by the Edge law and that the right still exists to invest German securities in any way that the American government — the trustee — sees fit. Others think a wiser plan would be to obtain the permission of the German owners of the securities, and it is believed that this permission is already assured, because by such a scheme Germany would be able to buy at once needed commodities. Just what England and France might say about the establishment of such a credit in favor of Germany which might tend to give to Germany raw materials that France, for example, may be desirous to get but is unable to do so without similar arrangements is hard to say. The American government, however, is free to discriminate in favor of Germany or to establish trade relations in any way that may seem desirable at the moment. Since the defeat of the peace treaty the association with the Allied governments has suffered more or less, and the tendency among exporters had been to get trade wherever possible without thought of war hatred.

All Trading with Germany.

The expected coolness in trade relations, a symptom of which was the agitation against the purchase of German toys, has not developed and England and France are trading with Germany. America has been handicapped in a resumption of trade by the defeat of the peace treaty, but the movement of the New York bankers to establish a basis of credit for German purchases is believed to be the first step toward a general renewal of trade relations with Germany.

It is estimated that of the $400,000,000 of securities owned by the Germans and held at present by the alien property custodian are invested in the new syndicate, a basis of credit amounting to approximately $2,000,000,000 may be established. German companies or corporations approved by the German government would be enabled to buy goods with that credit and the hope of the organizers of the syndicate is that large quantities of American goods may as a consequence promptly find a market in Central Europe.

Although Senator Harding has not yet replied to the request for a conference, his close friends represent him as ready to discuss the whole situation carefully, and to give such assurances as may be possible under the circumstances to forward the plan for a betterment of trade relations with Europe.

tion, yesterday, which ruled that there should be no amendments to the Covenant of the league at this session of the assembly, some proposed amendments were brought up by the Swiss delegation. The delegation will ask the committee on general organization to consider a proposition to choose the four elective members of the council among different states successively, with only one term expiring each year. The Swiss representatives, with the support of Scandinavian delegates, will also ask the same committee to report a proposition for fixed meetings of the assembly.

Council Approves Action.

Geneva, Nov. 24.—(By the Associated Press.)—Action in conformity with the resolution for Armenian intervention recently passed by the assembly of the League of Nations, was taken today by the council of the league.

The council decided to ask the general secretary of the league to prepare and submit a telegram to be sent to the powers in pursuance of the resolution of the assembly that a government willing to undertake mediation between Mustapha Kemal Pasha, the Turkish nationalist leader, and the Armenians be sought.

It is expected that the United States will be among the powers to whom the telegram is sent concerning intervention in Armenia.

It transpired today that the council on Sunday invited Sweden, Norway and Denmark to join in the Vilna expedition sending 100 men each.

The efforts of the council committees to keep their deliberations under cover, without offending too much the strong sentiment in the assembly for absolute openness, are provoking considerable comment and amusement. There even is talk among the more independent delegates of a revolt against what they consider an effort on the part of the council secretariat to override the assembly.

Food Short at Budapest.

Washington, Nov. 24.—Prospect of a more serious food shortage in Budapest this winter than last was reported to American Red Cross headquarters here today by James C. Pedlow, Red Cross commissioner to Hungary. Failure of the Hungarian wheat crop to meet expectations, the report said, meant a serious shortage of breadstuffs, necessitating continued use of stringent bread card regulations.

UNITED STATES HALTS CONNECTING OF CABLE

this work from the secretary of war. The purpose of the construction was to improve the connection from Miami to Key West, the present connection being an unsatisfactory temporary affair to meet the requirements of government dredging operations.

"Notwithstanding the unquestioned right of the telegraph company to improve its system, further indorsed by the approval of the war department, the navy department has for months arbitrarily interfered with the progress of the work by force of arms and stated that if the cable was laid the navy department would immediately cut it. We are informed that this action was taken at the request of the state department, although the state department has no jurisdiction whatever over the extensions of the telegraph system."

Permission Revoked.

Washington, Nov. 24.—Secretary Baker announced last night that he had revoked permission granted the Western Union Telegraph company last May to lay certain cables at Biscayne bay, Miami Fla. The permit was issued by the district engineer at Jacksonville, Fla., and Mr. Baker directed its withdrawal by telegraph last night.

Mr. Baker made no explanation of his action. He merely authorized through his secretary the statement that the permit had been rescinded.

STATE PLAYS TRUMP CARD IN RAPE CASE

the state this morning. He testified as to the arrest of the negroes following the report received at the police station on the early morning of June 15.

The state rested its case this morning at 11:45 o'clock. Charles W. Scrutchins of Bemidji, of counsel for the defense, then moved the court to dismiss the case and discharge the defendant on the ground that the state had failed to prove its case. The motion was denied and this afternoon the defense will have its inning. Attorneys for the defense expect that the case will be ready for the jury Friday.

Under Cross-Examination.

On the witness stand yesterday afternoon James Sullivan, the girl's 18-year-old escort, testified under cross-examination by F. L. Barnett, Mason's attorney, that he identified the negroes who had assaulted the girl and who had held the gun to his head by their "voice" and "size" rather than by their facial expressions or dress.

"When the police brought the negroes before you and the girl in the Canadian Northern railroad yard early on the morning of June 15 what means did you use to identify them?" asked Attorney Barnett.

"I looked at their forms," Sullivan testified, "and picked them out by voice and size when the police questioned them. I picked some, the girl picked some, Capt. Fiskett picked some and so did some of the other police. I understood they were being taken for further examination."

"Did you pick out Mason and Miller at that time?"

"I don't know."

"If you didn't pick out Mason and Miller then, will you tell the jury why you failed to do it?"

The county attorney objected to this question, but the court overruled the objection. Sullivan again said that he did not know.

"Up to the time you went to the circus grounds again in the middle of July to look over the prisoners under circumstances similar to the night of June 14 had you told anybody that Mason was the man who had held the gun against your head or that Miller was the man who held his hand over the girl's mouth?" he was asked.

"No; it was at that time that I identified Mason and Miller and one other man whose name I don't remember," he testified.

Others on Stand.

Other witnesses examined yesterday afternoon included P. B. Sullivan, the young man's father; the parents of the girl alleged to have been assaulted by the negroes and John Murphy, who was chief of police at the time.

The elder Sullivan testified about calling the police from the ore docks and of notifying the girl's father of his son's story of the alleged assault. The parents of the girl told about awakening her, going to the West Duluth police station and later to the railroad yards to identify the circus hands. They testified that the girl was more or less hysterical and nervous for three days after the affair and that she complained of her body aching all over. They also testified that she was examined by Dr. David Graham and Dr. W. A. Coventry.

Murphy testified that he first heard of the assault from Sullivan over the telephone at 2 a. m. June 15. He said that he immediately arranged with the railroad officials to hold the circus train, summoned about fifteen policemen and with Capt. A. G. Fiskett and Detective Frank Schulte rounded up the negroes.

When Hands Were Idle.

"From the foreman and the waiters," he testified, "we learned that the negroes who had worked on the big top and with the cooks had been idle some time between 9 and 10 o'clock the night before. We arrested about thirteen and took them to the city jail. Seven of these were released after examination. On information from these suspects, Capt. Fiskett, Lieut. Schulte and myself drove to Virginia where the circus was showing that day and arrested eight or nine more negroes. We took four of these negroes with us in the auto and started back to Duluth, leaving Virginia about 8:45 o'clock that evening. The other negroes were arrested were left in the jail at Virginia. About four miles out of Duluth we were stopped by Commissioner Bert Farrell in an auto. Mr. Farrell told us about the mob at the jail and I turned the negroes over to him to hide in a cabin. I got back to headquarters station about 11:30 o'clock and found that three of the negroes had been lynched."

URGES FARMERS TO STAND TOGETHER

Washington, Nov. 24.—Declaring he understood that "Federal agents are already going over Kansas, Iowa and other states trying to get evidence necessary to the indictment of men who are asking farmers to hold their crops," Charles S. Barrett, president of the National Farmers' union, through a statement issued yesterday appealed to members of his organization to stand together and not sell their products at present "ruinously low prices."

"Show that you have the moral courage to go to jail, if necessary," Mr. Barrett advised members of the farmers' union.

"The word seems to have been passed around that farmers were to be taught a lesson—they were getting troublesome."

The farmers' answer to claims of over-production, Mr. Barrett said, should be: We will simply lessen production.

This was "no idle threat," he said, adding:

"From every part of the country comes the promise that this policy should be adhered to until the country wakes up to the fact that it must either go on short rations or pay you wages high enough to live on."

Efforts of the farmers toward cooperation, Mr. Barrett said, has met with strong opposition from the first. He charged that "deliberate efforts" had been made to prevent them from buying collectively.

"For seven years," the farmers' union president added, "the farmers of this country had placed over them a secretary of agriculture not in real sympathy with and with little understanding of the needs of agriculture, and who now as secretary of another department is being used apparently as a willing and eager tool to enforce deflation of farm products."

Mr. Barrett's appeal further stated that the only course left to the farmers was to help one another and by raising sufficient money to finance more adequately "our business undertakings so that we can hold and market farm products in a business-like, orderly fashion."

HAYS APPEALS TO G. O. P. FOR FUNDS

New York, Nov. 24.—An appeal for contributions to make up a deficit of approximately $1,500,000 in the campaign fund of the Republican national committee, was sent out last night by Will H. Hays, its chairman.

The appeal, addressed to the "Republicans of the country and all those who aided them," called attention to the report of the committee's treasurer filed in Washington, pointing out that, although the buying power of the dollar was materially less than in 1916, the 1920 campaign had actually been conducted at less expense than the Hughes campaign four years ago.

Mr. Hays accompanied his plea for further funds by an expression of higher praise for the spirit of Republicans during the campaign. More than 50,000 individuals contributed about $2,000,000 to the fund, he said.

Cost of Campaign.

The presidential campaign this year cost approximately $3,400,000, exclusive of preconvention expenditures, he wrote, leaving a net deficit of nearly $1,500,000. This, he declared, he hoped might be promptly made by popular subscriptions in amounts less than the $1,000 limit set during the campaign.

"Of course, the easiest way to liquidate this indebtedness would be to appeal to a limited number of generous Republicans who could give substantial amounts," he said.

"This could have been done before election; it could be done now, but this policy I am unwilling to adopt except as a very last resort.

"It is my firm belief that the $10 campaign in the last days of the 1916 campaign and the $1,000 limit of 1920 have finally placed the popular collection of political funds on a permanent and certainly on a most healthy basis. We are all very anxious that this become an achieved fact."

NO DEATH SENTENCE CARRIED OUT IN ARMY

Washington, Nov. 24.—Thirty-two persons in the army were sentenced to death by court-martial during the last fiscal year, but in no case was the sentence carried into effect, says Maj.-Gen. E. H. Crowder, judge advocate general, in his annual report made public today.

Twelve of the death sentences were disapproved, nineteen reduced to imprisonment ranging from life terms to five years and one case was pending on review when the report was compiled.

Only nine of the cases were for military offenses. Eight were found guilty of misbehavior in the face of the enemy and one was sentenced as a spy

Trials for desertion were slightly less numerous than the preceding years but the comparative number was larger. Confinement for life was imposed in forty-two cases, thirty-one of the sentences being approved, two disapproved and eight mitigated to shorter terms. One case is pending.

In all, 236 officers were sentenced to dismissal after court-martial. Of these, 134 sentences were approved. The total number of general court-martial for the more serious offenses was 6,769; 87.8 per cent convictions being obtained.

TORONTO SECRETARY, WHO STOLE $100,000, CAUGHT IN OREGON

Portland, Or., Nov. 24.—John Doughty, former private secretary to Ambrose J. Small, millionaire theater owner of Toronto, Ont., who disappeared last December, is under arrest here, and will start today in custody for the Canadian city.

Officers who arrested Doughty said he confessed to the theft of $100,000 in Canadian Victory bonds, which were missing after his disappearance. The prisoner, they said, would not discuss the disappearance of Small, beyond saying that he last saw his employer in a Toronto theater on the night of Small's disappearance.

Doughty said the bonds were deposited in Chicago and that he will obtain them when he goes through that city.

Doughty was arrested in Oregon City, near here, where he was employed in a paper mill and where he had risen from a laborer to an assistant foremanship in a department crew. A worldwide search has been conducted for him, according to Toronto advices.

FURTHER REDUCTION IN PRICES OF SHOES

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 24.—Further reductions in the wholesale price of certain styles of shoes were announced by two local shoe manufacturers yesterday. An estimate of the average of reductions since last June, when shoe prices began to decline, was not available.

John A. Bush, president of the Brown Shoe company, one of the companies announcing the reductions, however, asserted that 35 per cent reductions predicted in Chicago today already had been made. The prediction was made by L. H. D. Weld of Swift & Co.

The Brown company announced that men's calfskins were reduced from $7.50 to $5.60, enabling a retail reduction from $11 and $12 to $8. Women's calfskins, the announcement added, were cut from $6 to $4.60, enabling the retail price to decline from $8 to $6, or $6.50.

Two Killed by Explosion.

Cork, Nov. 24.—Two persons injured by the explosion of a bomb in Patrick street last evening died later at a hospital, and two others are reported to be in a critical condition. Sixteen persons were injured by the bomb.

Freeman's Journal Raided.

Dublin, Nov. 24.—Troops raided the offices of the Freeman's Journal early this morning and searched vainly for men wanted in connection with recent disorders. It was declared at the newspaper office that none of these men was ever employed there.

STUDENTS SHOWN AS CHURCH ATTENDANTS

New York, Nov. 23.—Alarmed parents who fear that the trend of modern education is away from religion should take comfort from a survey recently made by the Baptist denomination in the University of Chicago, the results of which have just been announced in the Baptist Observer.

Among more than 2,000 students interviewed, there were only two avowed agnostics and one atheist, while 88 per cent of the students claimed membership in some organized religious group. More women than men were without any religious connection. Two-thirds of the entire student body recorded itself as Protestant.

The figures showed that during the school year 92 per cent of the students attend some religious service at least once a month, and that 45 per cent go once a Sunday. One-eighth of the students engage in some form of religious work, such as teaching Sunday school, etc. An even larger per cent engage in social service work of one kind or another.

A butter expert in an up-to-the-minute plant

The new Troco plant, just completed, is the latest, most up-to-date margarin plant that it is possible to design.

It is under the supervision of A. E. Hoffman, a famous butter expert, who for 30 years has made butter, judged butter and taught butter making in leading dairy schools.

Famous in the butter world

Mr. Hoffman was famous for the peculiarly sweet, delicate flavor of his butter. He puts this same sweet, delicate flavor into Troco.

The white, nutritious coconut fat which replaces butter fat must meet an exacting laboratory test.

All milk used comes from selected herds and is twice pasteurized.

What you can't expect

Troco is the fancy brand of nut margarin, with quality standardized. You can count on fresh, appetizing deliciousness.

What you can't expect is price cutting to compete with other brands. Troco may always cost a few cents more.

Ask your dealer. If yours hasn't it in stock tell him to order it. All leading dealers should supply Troco.

Elderly People Need This In Medicine Chest

To relieve chronic constipation, always keep a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin handy.

NEARLY all people as they advance in age suffer from chronic constipation. Many, however, are indifferent to the laxative they use, on the theory that "they are all alike." That is a great mistake.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, for example, is a mild, gentle liquid laxative, and it does not lose its effect with repeated use. It so trains the bowel muscles that in time medicines of all kinds can be dispensed with.

A sixty-cent bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin will last many months. The prescription was written thirty years ago by Dr. W. B. Caldwell, a well-known family doctor, who is himself now in his 82nd year and can appreciate what chronic constipation must mean to elderly people; how it brings on headaches, colds, loss of appetite and sleep, heaviness and a general dull feeling.

Every home that has an elderly man or woman should be provided with a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. Eight million bottles were bought at drug stores last year. It is a truly wonderful constipation remedy.

TRY IT FREE

Send me your name and address and I will send you a free trial bottle of my Syrup Pepsin. Address me Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 513 Washington Street, Monticello, Illinois. Everybody now and then needs a laxative, and it is well to know the best. Write me today.

WHEN furs are worth their weight in gold, as present-day prices would seem to indicate, the separate scarf is indispensable to the woman whose plan of dress includes both suit and topcoat or cape. Indeed, with the possession of a fur neckpiece even a simple evening wrap might be indulged in. For two lengths of some lovely colored velvet would accomplish the result.

Typical examples of smart fur pieces are shown in a downtown shop—ever beautiful seal in a novel bow arrangement at the top; in the center, flattering mink, followed by a charming collar of squirrel trimmed gray duvetyn, embroidered in self-color, with muff and perky hat to match.

RAISING FUND TO CARE FOR FRENCH WAR ORPHAN

AGATHA MUELLER.

Agatha Mueller, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry E. Mueller of 4423 Regent street, will take an important part in an entertainment to be given next Friday night on the third floor of the Armory by the Red Cross circle of the Lakeside Jewel club for the benefit of a French war orphan. The Red Cross circle of the club is composed of a number of little girls and has undertaken to support Louise Potier of France, a war-made orphan, whom they adopted four years ago. The club has given several entertainments to obtain the money with which to keep this little girl, and the program that they have prepared for next Friday night is for the same purpose. It follows:

"Never Despair," a one-act drama, depicting a married pair on New Year's day, presented by club members; Russian classic, ballet and ballroom dancing; Egyptian, Grecian, Spanish dances and Japanese imperial ballet; krowvlack and highland fling; rope dance, nature dance, waltz brilliante; humoresque; "Song of Ages," quadrille. Opening carnival directed by Prof. Leo.

REVIVAL OF CHARITY BALL PROVES BRILLIANT EVENT

Society's Big Event of Season Proves Great Success in Setting, Costumes and Numbers; Some Charming Gowns Are Worn by Fair Participants.

Duluth's social-elect assembled at the armory last night to participate in the thirty-third annual charity ball, an unprecedented success as to artistic arrangement, costumes and attendance.

In its raiment of evergreen trees of varied length which lined the walls and stage where the orchestra was placed and ceilings hung with shaded lights embracing all the colors of the rainbow, the hall was a paragon of loveliness. Evergreens outlining the booths at either side of the stage, where punch was served and at the rear of the hall trees banked before a latticed colonnade, completed the decorations.

But if the hall was a bower of particular excellence it was not more exquisite than were the gowns of the attractive matrons and younger members of the smart set, and the combination of the two gave symmetry at once harmonious and beautiful.

Notable among the many attractive gowns worn was that of Mrs. Homer Collins which was liberty blue with an overdrape of iridescent beads and black tulle. Her daughter, Miss Cordelia, wore an exquisite creation of white satin with front and back panel of opalescent beads. Her sash of jade and fan fashioned of a single large plume of corresponding color leant an air of distinctiveness to the costume.

Silver ribbon and lace was combined with taffetta in orchid shade in the gown worn by Mrs. Norven H. Gillespie. Mrs. George H. Crosby was costumed in jet trimmed black velvet with which she used a tulle scarf, and fan of jade. A combination of canary tulle and taffetta of electric blue was cleverly combined in the gown worn by Mrs. E. F. Burg.

Handsome panniers of silver cloth were combined with the gown of panne velvet and jet worn by Mrs. R. M. Sellwood.

An attractive combination was arrived at in the gown worn by Mrs. Hubert H. d'Autremont with shell pink velvet and lace. A spangled trimming was used in the bodice. Her sister, Miss Elizabeth Congdon, was gowned in black lace and carried a Colonial bouquet of pink rose buds.

Mrs. Ray Helm's gown was of sea green taffeta, fashioned with velvet flowers in pastel shades. Mrs. William Pitt Abbott was costumed in taffeta of tomato shade and elaborated with tiny ruffles. The gown worn by Mrs. Adam Thomson was of georgette in nasturtium shade over silvercloth, and set off with a tulle bow of king's blue.

Flesh pink tulle and silver cloth were combined artistically in the gown worn by Mrs. John Banks of Superior. Mrs. J. E. MacGregor wore a gown of gold cloth with overdress of black tulle. She carried a purple ostrich fan. A draped skirt of peach colored crepe with bodice of opalescent beads and rhinestones, made the attractive costume worn by Mrs. Kenneth L. Rice.

Taffeta in an apricot shade with lace, made the becoming gown worn by Miss Claire Fowler. Her aunt, Mrs. Bentley P. Neff, was costumed in black crepe with elaborations of silver beads. She carried a fan of liberty blue. A draped gown of orchid and nile green was worn by Mrs. George Bryan (Marie Elston). Her fan was of orchid ostrich.

Ruffled black net over a foundation of black and elaborated with ornamentation of jet, was worn by Mrs. O. W. Rowe. Mrs. Gladson Fowler (Adele Johnson) was attractive in black lace of Spanish model and carried a fan of black ostrich.

Mrs. W. Preston White (Elizabeth Horr) wore white tulle fashioned with bands of silver ribbon, over a foundation of silver cloth. An orchid fan completed the becoming habit.

Mrs. Ernest Jacobi was gowned in black satin with jet elaborations. Her daughter, Miss Isabel, was charming in a model of baby blue velvet with rose trimmings. The gown of terra cotta shade worn by Miss Mabel Neimeyer was fashioned along simple lines of satin and georgette with ruffles of lace in harmonizing shade, used at either side of the skirt.

Baby blue taffeta was worn by Mrs. Warren S. Jamar (Lydia Woodbridge). The bodice which was in basque effect, was of iridescent beads. Rose pink of a soft shade with silver lace was worn by Mrs. Carlisle Heimbach (Charlene Bagley) in a bewitching model of colonial style. Miss Mary Scanlon wore a gown of black lace with a corsage of pink rosebuds.

A combination of silvertone and white satin with real lace was worn by Mrs. George S. Richards. She carried a black ostrich fan. A changeable taffeta of lavender and gold was worn by Mrs. Walker Jamar.

Mrs. George Welles' gown was of panne velvet in electric blue, with draped skirt. American beauty shade of velvet and fashioned with gold lace made the attractive gown worn by Mrs. David Williams. Her sister, Mrs. Elmer N. Whyte was costumed in a creation of black tulle and velvet elaborated with a bead design in blue. Sable elaborations were used on the georgette gown of nasturtium shade worn by Mrs. George Barnum, Jr.

Orchid taffeta with ostrich trimmings made the stunning costume worn by Mrs. John Jenswold, Jr. Mrs. Victor Stearns was gowned becomingly in black tulle beaded with jet. Blue crepe beaded in silver was worn over a foundation of black by Mrs. N. J. Upham. Mrs. Robert Jacques wore a smart model of light blue taffeta and tulle with spangled trimming.

Mrs. R. McLaren Knox (Vera Lindahl) was becomingly attired in watermelon crepe, embroidered in gold. She carried an old-fashioned bouquet of lilies of the valley. Canary colored taffeta combined with a pleasing shade of blue was worn by Mrs. Hans Haroldson. Cerise velvet was worn in very becoming style by Mrs. Arthur Hoene. Mrs. D. J. Manley was costumed in taffeta in an electric blue. Mrs. Earl Hunner's gown was of canary colored taffeta with embellishments of gold lace.

Drapes of crimson tulle ruffled at the waistline and fashioned over a foundation of taffeta in harmonizing shade, was worn by Mrs. E. F. Chapin. Miss Ethel Bunnell was attractive in a model of blue chiffon over foundation of silver. She wore a corsage of pink roses.

The second of the series of dances being given by the Temple Aid society at the Spalding, which will take place tonight, is attracting many out-of-town people. These dances have proved very popular for several years and this year are scoring fully up to past records. Any profits that are realized go to charity.

Among the out-of-town guests who have arrived for tonight's dance are: Mr. and Mrs. Shanedling and Miss Evelyn Shanedling, Mr. and Miss Keller, Mr. and Mrs. Goodman and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Shapiro, all of Virginia; Mr. and Mrs. George Mesberg of Eveleth and Leo Shapiro of Minneapolis.

Choral Society Holds Annual Election

Former officers and board members of the Duluth Choral society were reelected at the annual meeting of that society, held in the auditorium of the Washington junior high school last night. A healthy enthusiasm was exhibited by members in the further development and growth of the society and a sincere wish was expressed for the affiliation of all persons musically inclined.

Charles Helmer was reinstated director of the chorus work and Mrs. Frances Berg Ober was reinstated accompanist.

The officers are: President, Louis Dworshak; vice president, Rev. C. E. Knickel; treasurer, Ernest O. Evanson; recording secretary, Miss Winifred Ulsrud; membership secretary, Charles F. Holland; corresponding secretary, Miss Mae Morlund; assisting membership secretary, Miss Clara Sutton; librarian, W. C. Freshe. The board of directors is constituted of C. A. Knippenberg, Mrs. W. D. McGill, Mrs. V. B. Ging and David Adams.

Celebrities Recognize Book by Former Duluthian

Notes from Sir Douglas Haig and Gen. Pershing conveying their respects and praise to the late C. F. Johnson for his meritorious work in the handling of "The Long Roll," a book which deals with the struggles enduring during the Civil war, as recorded in his journal from 1861-1863, have been received by Mrs. A. B. Hilton, 324 North Fifteenth avenue east, daughter of the deceased author.

Montana Potato and Apple Yields.

Helena, Mont., Nov. 24.—Montana raised 4,910,000 bushels of potatoes this year. The apple crop also has been especially good. The corn crop in the state established a record mark, 9,759,000 bushels having been harvested. This season's flax crop is double that of last year and grasses were especially plentiful. The ranges this fall are in fine shape.

To Confer With State Bank.

Mandan, N. D., Nov. 24.—Bankers representing the Missouri Slope group of the North Dakota Bankers' association, at a special meeting here late yesterday, named a committee of nine to confer on Thursday with officials of the State Bank of North Dakota for the purpose of arranging some system whereby sudden withdrawal of state funds from private banks will not impair either the state or private institutions.

Gopher Delegation Leaves Saturday.

Minneapolis, Minn., Nov. 24.—The Minnesota livestock special, carrying farmers and others who will attend the International livestock and hay and grain shows in Chicago, will leave Minneapolis at 7:15 p. m. Saturday. The special will stop at points in Southern Minnesota to pick up delegations.

Side Talks

By Ruth Cameron.

THE WISDOM OF A RICH MAN'S DAUGHTER.

A few days ago I wrote you of a letter I had received, signed "A Rich Man's Daughter But a Poor Man's Wife." I dwelt so long on the vista of feminine readjustment to marriage that this letter opened up, that I was unable to quote the letter itself. But the letter ought to be quoted and here it is:

"The topic for tonight especially interested me, for I think the majority of us have had to wake up and be more thrifty in order to make things come out right at the end of the month.

Pleasure in Doing Hard Things.

"Although at first it generally comes hard to do without, in time I think the most of us find pleasure in accomplishing what once we thought was impossible!

"The thought that we must be careful need not be a hardship unless we make it so. Brooding only makes it hard, whereas if we think that by being thrifty in the end it will make someone more happy, then I think the effort seems well worth while.

"It costs little to smile, and a smiling face, a kind word, goes a long way toward helping us forget that we cannot afford to have everything we would like to.

"I find a good cure for me, when I feel that I cannot stand it to go on being careful all the time, is to go to the home of someone who is poorer than I. Then I come home and think how happy we ought to be.

"Another way is to drop my work, go to the house of someone who is lonely or ill, and do some little act for them. And by thus making someone else happier I feel happier, too.

She Has Been Rich and Poor.

"We don't have to spend money in order to be happy. You see I have been both rich and poor, and so know how it feels both to spend and count my pennies and one can be happy doing either if one just gets to looking at it in the right way!"

Truly, if anyone should know how to be happy, in spite of having to watch the pennies, it is this woman, for she certainly has all the rules for being happy down fine.

In the first place, the joy of contriving—"I think the most of us find pleasure in accomplishing what we thought was impossible." You can make thrift into a game in 100 ways if you will. I found it difficult to get the little girl who helps me in the summer, to be saving with oil until I devised the game of seeing how long we could make five gallons last. We have a record now of ten days that we are trying to beat. There are ever so many of these little games one can play with oneself—if one will!

The Reflex Action of a Smile.

In the second place, the effect of a smile, not only on the one who sees, but on the one who smiles! The reflex action of maintaining a cheerful attitude is something that is only beginning to be understood. Throw out your chest, throw back your shoulders and smile, and you simply cannot feel so badly as if you let your shoulders slump and the corners of your mouth turn down.

In the third place, contrasting what you have with the lot of those who have less—not in a smug way, but to shame oneself into a better attitude.

In the fourth place, doing something kind for somebody, and thus taking your mind off yourself and starting the glow of pleasure in your own heart that just inevitably results from such an act.

Truly, any woman who has mastered the deeper secrets of happiness as this woman has "does not need to spend money in order to be happy."

Efficient Housekeeping

By Laura A. Kirkman.

USE MORE NUTS IN YOUR COOKING.

CONSIDERING the amount of nutrition that a handful of nuts will provide and also the deliciousness of nuts, it is strange that the average housewife seldom is found buying a pound of nuts from her grocer.

"Nuts are a luxury," I once heard a woman say. "It's all I can do to pay for the necessary foods, without indulging in fancy groceries."

Yet if this housekeeper had stopped to think, she would have seen that by adding nuts to a dish and thereby making that dish more nourishing, she would not have to provide as many other dishes in the same meal as she ordinarily would. Take for instance this supper menu:

Stuffed Baked Potatoes, Peanut Filling
Bread and Butter
Cocoa Preserves

Without the peanut filling (recipe given below) in the baked potatoes, one would feel the necessity of serving something else—something that would give the meal a protein element, such as eggs or perhaps cheese or sliced meat-loaf. But with the peanut filling (peanuts are very rich in protein) it is not necessary to serve a second main dish. Two large stuffed potatoes per person are entirely satisfying, combined with the cocoa, bread and butter and preserves.

Hazel nuts, pecan nuts, walnuts, butternuts and hickory nuts are all about two-thirds fat and should therefore be regarded as savers of salad oil and butter.

The following luncheon menu is appropriate to place even before a guest:

Macaroni-Cheese Ramekins
Club Sandwich Without Butter, Oil or Bason
Coffee Cake

Club Sandwich (one portion)—Toast two slices of bread; take 1 tomato thinly sliced, 2 ounces of nut-meats very finely chopped (so that the oil is running from them), 1 stalk of celery cut into small pieces and salt and pepper to season. Spread the toasted bread slices with some of the minced nuts; add a layer of the tomato to one of these pieces, followed by a layer of the celery mixed with the remainder of the nuts; add a few more slices of tomato and top with the other piece of toast.

Stuffed Baked Potatoes, Peanut Filling—Bake large white potatoes and when soft cut them in half crosswise and scoop out the inside. Mix this scooped-out potato with an equal proportion of finely chopped peanuts, add 1 teaspoon of melted butter and a little salt to each potato, and refill the potato skins with this mixture. There will of course be some of the stuffing left over and this should be formed into balls to be rolled in flour the next day and fried like ordinary potato cakes (they are delicious). The refilled potato skins should be pressed together to form whole potatoes and placed on a pan in the oven for a few minutes just before serving, so that they will be piping hot when put on the table.

All inquiries addressed to Miss Kirkman in care of the "Efficient Housekeeping" department will be answered in these columns in their turn. This requires considerable time, however, owing to the great number received. So if a personal or quicker reply is desired, a stamped and self-addressed envelope must be inclosed with the question.—The Editor.

"TINKER BOB" STORIES

By CARLYSLE H. HOLCOMB

MR. SNAKE MEETS MR. BEE.

TINKER BOB knew that Mr. Black Snake would be well paid for having been so bold as to try to capture young Sammy Squirrel by casting a spell over him. So he said to Sammy: "Young fellow, we'll see whether you are to have a black snake cast a spell over you without his being punished! You shall go with me, and we will see if that wiggling snake is anywhere in the forest. He is afraid to come to see the king."

Young Sammy was glad to have the king talk like that, and so happy to have the king break the spell that he could not speak, but just listened and watched to see what was going to be done about it all. Tinker Bob knew what was going to be done, for he was going to find that snake if it took him a whole day in the forest!

"I know he passes the place where Mr. Mole lives every day," said Tinker. "And we will go to that place and see if he dares to go that way today. If he does, we will call him to ask why he did this terrible thing."

They went to the place where Mr. Black Snake traveled every day on his way to obtain food. Then Tinker Bob watched from a log nearby.

Did I hear you ask about the path of a snake? Well, let me tell you Mr. Black Snake and all of his other snake friends have paths through the forest just like other forest dwellers, only they are smaller and much harder to see. King Tinker knew all about this.

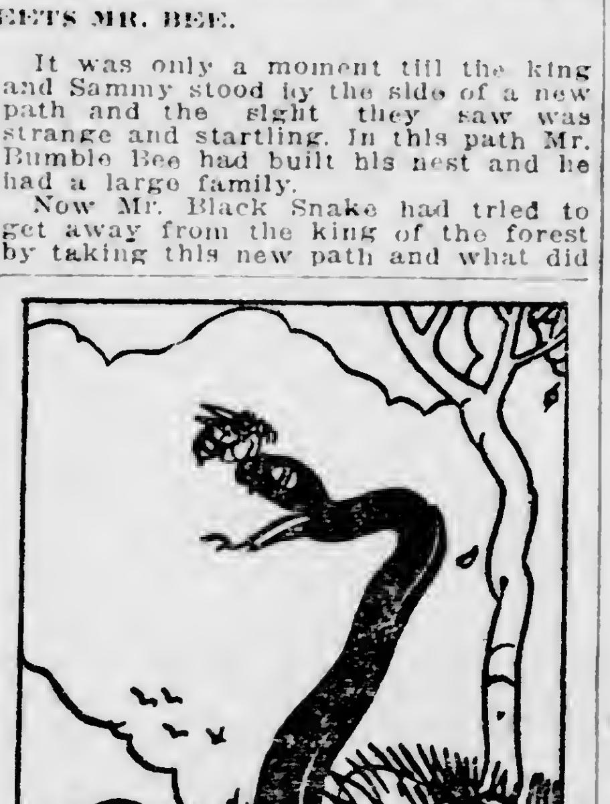
He and young Sammy waited till it was past time for Mr. Snake to appear. Then a thought came to Tinker Bob. It was something like this—Mr. Snake has gone another way, and will not be here today. Well, when this thought came to the king he soon hit on a way to find where Mr. Snake was trying to hide himself.

"I'll show that fellow," said Tinker to Sammy. "We will find where he is in a short time." After the king had said this he tapped the Stone of Knowledge, and the Beautiful Creature of his Desire was by his side at once with the magic basket, and the king took Sammy under his arm and climbed in.

It was only a moment till the king and Sammy stood by the side of a new path and the sight they saw was strange and startling. In this path Mr. Bumble Bee had built his nest and he had a large family.

Now Mr. Black Snake had tried to get away from the king of the forest by taking this new path and what did he do but run right into Mr. Bee and his whole family! This made Mr. Bee angry, and when Tinker Bob and Sammy arrived Mr. Bee and his family were stinging Mr. Black Snake on the nose and around the eyes till he couldn't see. Now when Sammy saw this he laughed till his sides were sore.

And the king knew Mr. Snake would be well paid for casting a spell over Sammy Squirrel.



What did he do but run right into Mr. Bee.

TONIGHT'S ATTRACTIONS.

ORPHEUM—"The Dance Shop;" other acts.
NEW GRAND—"Overseas Revue;" other acts.

NEW GRAND—It is seldom that one of the big-time vaudeville acts goes on tour with such a really capable cast as that brought to Duluth by "Overseas Revue," the feature of the unusually big and entertaining show which closes at the New Grand this evening. Billy C. Welp is a real comedian, Duluthians have agreed, and Blanche Latell is equally capable as a character comedienne. Mlle. Le Roy and all the rest of the company, including the Overseas Beauty chorus, measure up to the best to be found in the traveling musical comedy organization. "Just like we saw overseas" is the common exclamation of former service men as they see the various characters in the revue. The revue is of such length that it has been possible to put but two other acts on the bill, but both of these have been winners. The Ferraros in sensational twists and eccentric novelties, and Johnny Keane, at one time of Father Finn's Paulist choir, billed as "The Boy From Ireland" in keen songs and stories. There will be an entire change of program tomorrow with a real thanksgiving flavor to the bill which is of all-star character.

ORPHEUM—The world's most famous boulevard, those bordered by the ultra shops to which hundreds of thousands make pilgrimages annually in search of finery, can't boast of a shop to compare with that presided over by Jeanette Hackett and Harry Delmar. Theirs is a dance shop and its location is the stage of this or that vaudeville theater. The proprietors, Miss Hackett and Mr. Delmar display their wares with the assistance of a bevy of beautiful sales girls, Marie Cavanaugh, Helen Blair, Helen Warren, Estelle Haddon and the Wood Sisters.

PHOTOPLAYS

NEW LYRIC—Allen Dwan's "The Best of Luck," Drury Lane melodrama.
ZELDA—J. Warren Kerrigan in "The Blue Flame."
NEW GARRICK—Nazimova in "Madame Peacock."
STRAND—Norma Talmadge in "The Branded Woman."
NEW ASTOR—Mary Pickford in "Pollyanna."

NEW GARRICK—Fame more than compensates for love. So thought Jane Goring when she gave up "the hopeless grind" at home, leaving a failure of a husband and a little girl, to go back on the stage. So still thought Jane Goring after her triumph. But then something happened; something so unusual, so unexpected that only by seeing the famous star, Nazimova, in "Madame Peacock" can it be understood and appreciated. This story is offered today for the last time on a program also including "Edgar Can't Stop," a Booth Tarkington story, and other attractions. Starting tomorrow the featured attractions will be Will Rogers in "Honest Hutch," and one of the Sewell Ford Torchy comedies with Johnny Hines, "Torchy Turns Cupid." Not since "Rip Van Winkle" has the public been given a rural characterization as human and convincing as Will Rogers' "Hutch."

NEW LYRIC—All the thrills that have ever been put into pictures, are promised in "The Best of Luck," the all-star picturization of the Drury Lane romantic, melodramatic success, which comes to the New Lyric today on a bill which also includes "Wedding Blues," one of the uproariously funny Christie comedies, and other attractions. A big motor car at fully speed plunges from a high bridge; a motorcycle speeding to aid her lover in recovering lost treasure is wrecked with the heroine, Kathryn Adams, plunging down a steep embankment as a result; a battle beneath the waves is fought to a finish by Jack Holt, the hero, and the villain, who is trying to get the treasure, and there are many more. While the scene is in the British Isles, the heroine is an American girl.

STRAND—Norma Talmadge, her leading man, Percy Marmont and the rest of her company, while engaged in filming "The Branded Woman," Norma's latest First National picture, which is now showing at the Strand theater, spent an entire night working on board the ocean liner Kaiserin Augusta Victoria at its Hoboken pier.

Another interesting trip took the star, Marmont and Charles Lane down to Washington Square with Director Albert Parker and his staff to film a short series of shots of the Greenwich Village section.

The picture, which is adapted from Oliver D. Bailey's famous stage play, "Branded," has been produced on an elaborate scale.

ZELDA—The most pleasing feature of J. Warren Kerrigan's latest Brunton production, "The Green Flame," released by W. W. Hodkinson, which starts today at the Zelda theater, is the excellence of its casting. Kerrigan is supported in this picture by a group of the most talented and popular players on the screen. The star himself cleverly portrays the role of Frank Markham, an adventurous young detective. He is engaged by the head of a large jewelry concern to guard "The Green Flame," a priceless emerald which was at one time a Russian crown jewel. A notorious clique of gem thieves launch a daring plot to secure the "Flame." Pretending to be a guileless country yokel, Markham works himself into the confidence of the crooks and at the moment rounds up the entire gang. Fritzi Brunette is her usual charming self in the feminine lead.

NEW ASTOR—Few pictures have ever reached the screen that are so glad, so refreshing and intensely interesting as "Pollyanna" with Mary Pickford in the stellar role, which features a remarkable program at the New Astor today and tomorrow. "The Sheik's Revenge," the fourth story of "The Son of Tarzan" series, provides the thrills for the program. The story of "Pollyanna" grips the soul. It's a real Thanksgiving picture. For Friday and Saturday Mary Pickford's husband Douglas Fairbanks, will be featured in "His Majesty, the American," one of his best thrill-comedies.

BIG BROTHERS HOST AT ANNUAL SPREAD

Many Boys of City Enjoy Feast and Program Given by Rotarians.

They came from all the ragged ends of the city last night—spruced-up, wizened little fellows; sturdy, aggressive, wide-awake lads; burly-messy, hulking youngsters, almost in the adolescent stage. One hundred of them, honor guests at the annual "big brother" banquet of the Rotary club, forgot every semblance of bashfulness, joined in vociferous appreciation of dinner and entertainment and, with boxes of candy tightly clutched in their hands, reluctantly left the cheery boys' department of the Y. M. C. A., certain that they had discovered a friend who would be ever ready to help when trouble arose.

It was the fourth annual "big brother" banquet conducted by the Rotary. All of the boys were taken from the poorer sections of the city. Most of them were from homes where the mothers are widows and there are no men in the household to give the boys good, wholesome advice and treats.

Turkey, cranberry sauce, ice cream, cake, apples and candy disappeared in a flash at the dinner table. An announcement that Ed Furni, manager of the Orpheum, had invited all the boys present to be his guests at the Orpheum on Friday afternoon brought cheers that almost disrupted the entire ceremony. The dinner cleared away, the entertainment began.

Ed Marshall, Orpheum performer, scored a hit with his drawings of Happy Hooligan and others of the boys' friends. There was a rush afterwards to obtain his sketches as souvenirs. Jo Jo, the health clown, received an enthusiastic reception when he combined sound advice with his comic antics. Miss Elizabeth Richardson, soprano, accompanied by Miss Gudrun Thrana at the piano, was given a warm welcome. She responded to the continuous applause with several encores.

Theodore Hillingast, who was voted the best all-round camper at Camp Miller last year, described the camp's advantages. Scoutmaster Liddie and three Boy Scouts put on a mock surgical operation that scored a hit. Throughout the dinner the "Y" eight-piece orchestra played.

THANKS GOD FOR RED CROSS

Woman Expresses Appreciation When She Enrolls; Reports Are Better.

"I cannot thank God too much that there is a Red Cross."

This simple statement accompanied the payment of $1 for a membership in the Armistice day-to-Thanksgiving roll call from a woman to whom dollars have been none too plentiful during the past few years.

She lost her husband during the forest fire and two children were barely saved from becoming influenza victims in 1918 by the efforts of the Red Cross agents who assumed charge of her household during the days and months following the fire. This woman says that everything she has and is or hopes to be is the direct result of the work of the Red Cross in this section of the country—the Duluth chapter of the Red Cross!

Comment has been made by a number of the people who were aided by the Red Cross during the forest fire and the influenza epidemic that the Thanksgiving season was the most appropriate time for the renewal of memberships, as the persons who have been aided by the organization could in this way show their appreciation of the aid.

More Reports Come In.

The appeal of the roll call managers for immediate reports from the workers has had its effect in bringing to headquarters, 507 Alworth building, a number of reports of memberships. The business houses became more active yesterday afternoon and this morning and it is expected that by this afternoon there will be a number of the consolidated workers' reports received at headquarters.

Chairman McGonagle of the roll call campaign has called attention to the fact that while he has asked the workers to make report now of the memberships received, this does not mean that the campaign has been finished or that they should turn in their surplus of supplies. He says that the next week or ten days will be made a cleanup time and that the campaign will be extended to that time. The committee in charge wishes to check up on the memberships that have been procured so that it will know where the cleanup shall start and how far it shall go.

Officers of the camp have extended an invitation to all former service men of 1898 to attend this meeting as the questions that will be discussed will be of interest to them all. Nonmembers are invited as well as members of the camp, it was announced.

WINTER ENTERTAINMENTS FOR CITIZENSHIP CLASS

The first of a series of winter entertainments for the citizenship class at the Y. M. C. A. will be held Friday evening at the association building. The program has been arranged under the direction of John Samuel, educational secretary.

The entire class and friends are invited to attend and it is expected that about 250 will be present. Mr. Samuel will preside. The program will include a piano selection by Miss Ruth Larson; vocal solo, Miss Madge Buell; reading, Miss Mary Shesgren; vocal duet, Miss Buell and Mr. Samuel; violin solo, O. E. Brown, and an address, Rev. H. C. Rex, pastor of St. John's English Lutheran church. Two reels of comedy motion pictures will be presented for their entertainment.

BEECHER MANUSCRIPTS DESTROYED BY FLAMES

New York, Nov. 24.—Priceless manuscripts and relics written and collected by Henry Ward Beecher, including many sermons in his own handwriting were consumed by a fire early today that destroyed the Sunday school building adjoining the historic Plymouth church, Brooklyn, where the famous pulpit orator was pastor for many years. The old church edifice itself, erected in 1849, narrowly escaped destruction.

In their efforts to save the main edifice, the firemen had to break ten memorial stained glass windows.

Measure your COFFEE - don't guess!

EVEN a teaspoonful too much or too little may make all the difference between a good and a bad cup of COFFEE.

The amount of COFFEE to use depends upon the strength you like. Experiment until you find just the amount of COFFEE that suits your taste, then stick to it. Don't guess! Measure proportions carefully, both COFFEE and water.

Don't try to get more strength by letting the COFFEE pot stand on the fire and "over-draw." If you boil your COFFEE, let it boil for the briefest instant only. If you use a percolator, don't let it percolate too long. The result, if you do, will be a bitter, "woody" flavor — the commonest fault of badly made COFFEE.

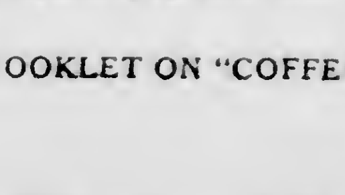
For a drip (or filter) pot use a finely ground COFFEE—as fine as corn meal. For percolating or steeping use a medium grind.

In brewing, the COFFEE grounds absorb about one-fifth of the water in the pot. Therefore, to make five cups of brewed COFFEE, use six cups of water—and in the same proportion for larger or smaller quantities. (See rules for making good COFFEE.)

COFFEE
-the universal drink

Six Rules for Making Good Coffee

1—Keep your Coffee fresh—preserve the aroma to the last. Fruit-jars are ideal for this purpose.
2—Measure proportions carefully, both Coffee and water.
3—When serving hot Coffee, serve it hot. Never recook.
4—Use water only at full boiling-point in making "drip" Coffee.
5—Strain or settle carefully. ALL Coffee is clear if properly made.
6—Keep Coffee-making utensils clean.



This is the sign of The Coffee Club. Look for it in dealers' windows. It will help you find good coffee.

THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY HEREAFTER.

Elsewhere on this page is assembled an interesting discussion of the future of the Democratic party, which has lately suffered one of the greatest defeats in its history. It is a timely subject, and important, because as the Indianapolis News says "the opposition is almost as much a part of the government as are the executive and the majority in congress." Indeed, it would be no great exaggeration to say that the opposition is quite as important a part of the government as the party in power; for, not to speak of the country as a whole, the party in power needs a vigilant and resourceful opposition to protect it against the temptations of power that are all too likely to lead to its undoing if it gives in to them.

Most of those taking part in the discussion are good enough to say that the Democratic party isn't dead, and even the Republican papers are wise enough to say that it ought not to die. Perhaps what they mean is that it ought not to die entirely, and that they would like it to remain as an easily conquerable minority party. But of course a minority party that had no hope of ever becoming a majority party wouldn't live long or amount to much.

There is a danger in the present situation of the Democratic party that is pretty nearly as great as that resulting from its overwhelming defeat, and this danger is touched upon by several writers quoted in the report of this discussion.

The assumption of some of them, including some Democrats, seems to be that as "Wilsonism" brought about the party's defeat, the party ought to repudiate "Wilsonism" in all its phases. A little historical perspective will, we feel sure, enable everybody to see clearly that "Wilsonism" didn't defeat the party, and that to repudiate "Wilsonism" in all its phases would be party suicide and a national calamity.

The effect of that reasoning, if followed out, would be to make the Democratic party a sort of faint echo of the Republican party, and to give the country two Conservative parties and no Liberal party, with no alternative for the voter except conservatism with two labels on one side, and radicalism with many labels on the other. That would be a great stroke of business for radicalism, but mighty poor business for the country.

For what "Wilsonism" is and has been, shorn of the temporary confusions caused by the defects of Mr. Wilson's virtues, is Liberalism. Not radicalism nor Socialism, as some have believed or affected to believe and have made others believe, but true, constructive Liberalism. It was Wilsonian Liberalism that gave the country the great record of progressive legislation during the first Wilson administration, headed by a banking and currency system that protects the public interest against private greed. It was Wilson Liberalism that, by this record of progressive legislation and its sound attitude toward war and jingoism, returned the Democratic party to power for a second term in 1916.

If to repudiate "Wilsonism" is to repudiate the fine and constructive Liberalism of the first Wilson term, then the Democratic party would be hamstringing itself and doing the country an injury if it followed the advice to interpret the election as a rebuke to that Liberalism and an invitation to make the Democratic party a feeble copycat of the Republican party by turning it into a second Conservative party.

The country needs a Conservative party, and it has one in the Republican party. But the country needs a Liberal party too. It had one in the Democratic party under Mr. Wilson; and if the party is wise and able to get a view from above the delusions and confusions of the moment, it will have one again under whoever may become the new leader.

If the Democratic party chooses otherwise, it will recognize its mistake in 1924, when the country turns from the ultra-conservatism of the Republican party under its present leadership and, seeking a constructive Liberal party, finds that the Democratic party, which might have responded to the call, is not ready.

Of course the Democratic party isn't dead, nor even in as great danger as the Republican party with its present heritage of an embarrassingly large following with a heterogeneous crop of hopes and hatreds which it is expected to satisfy in full, but which it cannot satisfy, try how it will. The Democratic party, if it will perceive and regret the folly of its half-apology for Wilson, and make his fine Liberalism its excuse for being and the inspiration of its program hereafter, has a future before it full of opportunities and glories.

MUSIC IN THE PARKS.

Last summer, thanks to the enterprise and public spirit of the Kiwanis club, Duluth enjoyed good band music in its parks all summer long, the excellent American Legion band furnishing it.

As the Kiwanis club cannot be expected to shoulder permanently the burden of meeting the expense of this public service, the civic council, representing all the civic bodies of the community, has asked the city government to take it over and to make provision for it by appropriating the necessary funds.

There being no other provision, if the city cannot do this there will be no band music in the parks next summer.

The city should do it if it can possibly squeeze out the money. The law empowers it to take such action if its finances permit. We know that even with the extra three mills voted by the poeple the city has no surplus funds, but the commissioners should reflect that music is as essential a part of living as food, and that providing it in this way is a fine public service. Moreover, the city is the right agency to do it, and as soon as possible it ought to take it over and put it on a permanent substantial basis.

For it is true of a community as it is of an individual that

The man that hath no music in himself,
Nor is not moved with concord of sweet sounds,
Is fit for treasons, strategems and spoils.

THE YELLOW PERIL.

California seems to want the rest of us to become as excited as she is about "the yellow peril." If it is right that we should, then we ought to join her in being agitated. But we want to be pretty sure of our ground first, because California's attitude toward the Japanese is creating a very delicate situation between the two countries, and is already making some people talk about war. It is true that these are mostly people who always seem to be talking about war because they seem to have a queer craving for such talk; but then it is the sort of talk that inevitably makes war if there is enough of it in the two countries concerned.

So, though California is one of our sisterhood of states and the rest of us must be with her if she is right, we mustn't let her agitation drag us to the verge of war unless she IS clearly right.

Therefore, before taking it for granted that we should, with California, become alarmed about a "yellow peril," we ought to find out just how much of a peril it is, and how threatening.

Fortunately, the census produces some timely figures which we should all keep in mind in weighing the case of California vs. Japan.

California, with a white population of 3,426,861, has 70,196 Japanese. Washington, with 1,356,621 white people, has 17,114 Japanese. Oregon, with 783,389 Caucasians, has 4,022 Japanese. The three Pacific coast states, therefore, have 5,566,871 Caucasians and 91,332 Japanese. This is the extent of the Japanese peril.

Those coast people who are striving to work us up to their pitch about this say that in the last ten years the Japanese population of California has increased sixty-nine per cent; that the Japanese population of Washington has increased thirty-two per cent, and that of Oregon seventeen per cent. That sounds big until we learn that the total increase in the Japanese population in these three great states in ten years is only 33,629.

Immigration from Japan, because the Japanese government made a pledge to restrict it and is keeping the pledge, is very small. The proportion of Japanese to white people on the coast makes California's concern seem simply absurd.

Certainly there is no such situation as to warrant the rest of the country in letting California's agitation carry it anywhere near the brink of war.

The Democrats Arise From Their Ashes

Press Comment on the Democratic Reverse.

"After every election it is the fashion of the superficial and the partisan to assume the death of the defeated party." Thus the Fort Wayne, Ind., Journal-Gazette (Dem.) discounts the theory that the Democratic party was "killed" in the presidential election. To this the New York World (Dem.), far from anxious as to its present condition, adds that "the Democratic party has been 'practically wiped out of existence' so many times during the last sixty years that another obliteration can hardly be more than an interesting incident in its career."

Editorial writers of both parties agree that reports of the death of the Democratic party are, like Mark Twain's, "grossly exaggerated." But they agree, also, that the present condition of the party is such as to demand reorganization. From the Democratic standpoint rehabilitation is needed to provide against a repetition of this year's defeat. Many Republicans regard such a step necessary if there is to be a working opposition to a cumbersome Republican majority.

"Great as is the defeat which the party has just sustained," says the Norfolk Virginian-Pilot (Ind. Dem.), "this does not mean its political demise. It will come back. It is not defeated past recovery." The Springfield, Mass., Union (Rep.) agrees somewhat facetiously that "it will pull through. It would pull through even if it let itself entirely alone, held no conferences, made no plans, but just let Nature take its course." Agreement will be general, the Detroit Free Press (Ind.) admits, that the party organization as such is not dead; "the thing that breathed its last on Nov. 2 was the organization that was built up around President Wilson." A new structure with new leaders, it continues, must succeed this "beaten organization." This is a task for a "political mechanic," the Washington Post (Ind.) believes, "and thus far the real genius of the party has not tackled the job. For one thing it is too soon after the smashup. Some parts of the dismantled machine are still hot from the impact. It will be well to tarry until things cool off a bit."

Using a different figure, the Manchester, N. H., Union (Ind. Rep.) believes that most Democrats feel that "if there had to be a tornado, a tornado that would sweep away a lot of rubbish and clear the ground for straight building is preferred. * * * Already one begins to hear suggestions that there never was a better time for reorganization."

These suggestions are plentiful in the Democratic papers. The Cincinnati Enquirer (Dem.) sees the party "reduced to its lowest terms," from which, however, will come its greatest opportunity. In the reorganization which must come "the radical and Socialist policies which have been grafted upon the party must be disclaimed, rejected * * * and leaders of a national capacity must now come forward." The need of the party, in the opinion of the Norfolk Ledger Dispatch (Ind. Dem.) "is to return to Democratic principles," and

> There is just one influence that can bring this about and that is the influence wielded by Democrats. If they are "disgusted," as many of them say they are, the part for them to play is not to go outside the party and make faces at it, but to stay within and reform it. Reform it literally, that is, bring it back to its old form. Unless the Democratic party goes back to democracy it is lost. And no one will be to blame except Democrats.

The danger, as the Louisville Post (Ind.) sees it, is that in the reaction against the conservatism of the next administration, "radicals will try to stampede the Democratic party into the camp of radicalism. * * * This happening the party must avoid if they hope to win the country again in the near future. * * * All the Democrats need to do to 'come back' is to stand on the record they have made.

This lack of leadership is lamented by many of the Democratic papers, but, with the Chattanooga Times (Ind. Dem.) they are hopeful that a "constructive and faithful leadership will arise to lead us back to the path of rectitude and of sound doctrine from which we have been sadly wandering." The chief hope of the party, the New York Times (Ind. Dem.) agrees, "must lie in the coming to the front of men who have both character and sagacity. When the man needed appears we shall know him. And then the repair of the party machinery will follow naturally."

The reconstructed party, says the Knoxville Journal and Tribune (Rep.) "must be more national and less sectional in its makeup," since, as the Fort Worth Star-Telegram (Ind. Dem.) maintains, leadership in the party is based too much on local issues and local politics. In its opinion:

> If the party is ever to be rehabilitated the Democrats of the South must begin to give consideration to national problems from a national point of view, and the rank and file of the party must look to leaders who give such problems their proper place.

Reorganization that will produce a functioning minority party is recognized by all writers as imperative. "There must be a second party to challenge the party in power," the Rocky Mountain News, Denver, (Ind.) thinks, and the Indianapolis News (Ind.) fears that "the American people are in danger of forgetting that under a representative system the opposition is almost as much a part of the government as are the executive and the majority in congress." It would be a sorry day for the country, the St. Louis Globe Democrat (Rep.) believes, if the Democratic party were permanently shattered. "For the country needs the Democratic party, and perhaps it never needed it more than now, when the great Republican preponderance requires, because of the very nature of all human propensities, a balance wheel. Its foundations are unharmed, and we have not the slightest doubt that it will continue to serve in the future as it has served in the past."

Rippling Rhymes

By WALT MASON.

Weary of Virtue

For months I save the dollars with energy sublime, and wear old shoes and collars to save another dime. For months I am a student of thrift in every guise; I am so beastly prudent I make men blink their eyes. I preach on self-denial beneath my own roof tree, till life becomes a trial to all who live with me. For months I keep on raving about the penny gained; then I get sick of saving, by thrift my soul is pained. And so I blow my money as though I had no sense, and live on milk and honey, regardless of expense; I patronize the tailor and buy a fordmobile, and like a jingled sailor I burn the hard earned wheel. Then, tired of misbehaving, I gently simmer down, and once again I'm saving the guilder and the crown. And such a course seems dotty to people safe and sane, who think such orgies naughty, and villainous and vain. But saving, though a virtue, may soon become a fault that's bound to badly hurt you, unless you call a halt before the shining dollar to you seems so immense that all the world looks smaller than its circumference. The thrifty man is wiser than is the spendthrift jake; but, oh, the greedy miser! He makes my innards ache.

Everybody in the Same Boat

Editorial in the Minneapolis Tribune.

With wheat dropping down below the $1.50 mark and other products of the farm declining accordingly, the farmer is complaining bitterly of the loss imposed and clamoring for some relief against the downward trend of the market. His is a serious case and he is entitled to and is receiving sympathy and consideration to an extraordinary degree. The dropping out of the bottom, so to speak, is certainly calculated to impose upon the farmer great hardship and perhaps serious loss.

But the farmer may be reminded of the old adage that "Misery loves company," and there is plenty of company. He is not the only one who is charging off from day to day heavy losses on his product or his stock in trade. Manufacturers and merchants are traveling right long with him. They had their period of extraordinary profits; so did the farmer; they are taking their losses with as good grace as possible; the farmer will lose no sympathy by doing the same thing. And not only is the grain farmer and the livestock farmer suffering loss, but the cotton farmer is in the same boat. Cotton has dropped from 45 to 18 cents and is still going down. It is estimated that the cotton growers of Texas alone, if obliged to sell now, would have to take $385,000,000 less than when cotton was at the 40-cent level.

Readjustment on a declining scale is a difficult task, but it is one which business of every description is obliged to undertake at the present time. The only answer is to meet the situation with all the courage and all the resources of skill and patience that the individual concerned is able to muster. Happily, our financial system is sound; our production is enormous; we have raw materials in great abundance; we shall, in this Northwest, be able to readjust ourselves to the change in conditions with greater assurance of ultimate recovery with moderate losses than other parts of the country. The readjustment means not only a decline in the prices of that which we have to sell, no matter what it is, but a corresponding or an approximate, corresponding reduction in what we have to have to buy; so that in the long run we shall be readjusted without the serious consequences which just now magnify themselves before our imagination. We are taking counsel today altogether too much of our fears and not enough of our resources.

Swell! You Tell 'Em, Gert!

Indianapolis News: They evidently were on the way to high school and their names were Gertrude and Mabel. The street car was crowded and their conversation was in tones that carried far.

"Where y' been?" asked Gert.

"To the show," Mabel replied.

"Good?"

"Swell!"

"Who was there?"

"The swellest fellow! He had some of the swellest jokes, but I can't remember them. I wish I could. They were swell!"

"Were they?"

"I could kill Prof. Smith," said Mabel, not answering Gert's question.

"What for?" asked Gert.

"He gives us so much outside work to do. I don't have time to do anything. I spend all my time in the library."

"You tell 'em! I never worked so hard in my life."

"Oh, yes, he said. 'Start the conversation,' when the phone rang, instead of saying 'Hello.' It was the funniest thing."

"Who said that?"

"That swell fellow at the show."

"Oh! I'll bet it was funny."

"Gee, you gotta go to the show this week," said Mabel.

"Yah I gotta," replied Gert.

"Been to the movies yet this week?"

"Yah! Went last night."

"Good?"

"Swell! You gotta go."

"Yah, I gotta."

"Gee, it was swell."

"I'll bet it was."

"Have you seen Alice since she bobbed her hair?" asked Gert.

"Yah," replied Mabel. "Don't she look fierce?"

"You tell 'em!"

"Oh, yes, and he sang 'Ashes to ashes, dust to dust, j'ever see a woman that a man could trust,'" said Mabel. "It was the funniest thing!"

"Who said?" asked Gert.

"That swell fellow in the show."

"Oh, it musta been funny."

"It was. He said a lot of swell things. I wish I could remember them. You simply gotta go!"

"Yah, I gotta."

Then they left the car.

The Human Side of Banking

The Nation's Business: A woman walked into the Paris office of a big New York trust company and got a check cashed. Talking with one of the bank's officers, she said: "I don't know what I'm going to do. I've got to go to London tomorrow. I've six trunks to pack and my passports must be vised and I can't get a soul to help me."

"We'll do that for you," said the banker, and they did. The company sent a porter around who packed the six trunks, another man attended to the passports and the depositor went on her way to London in comfort.

Service? The woman thought so and she's quite apt not only to stick to that bank as long as she lives, but to make it an executor in her will.

Don't get from this the idea if you're starting away on a little trip to Palm Beach or Havana you can go to the telephone, call up the National City bank or the Guaranty Trust company or Kuhn, Loeb & Co. and ask for the third vice president in charge of trunk packing and get away with it. You can't. But the incident shows what a bank can do when the emergency arises. It shows, too, the state of mind of a present-day bank to its customers. It helps to do away with the conception of a bank as a huge money machine which swallows money greedily and parts with it reluctantly.

Moral Forces

Thomas Carlyle: Above all it is ever to be kept in mind, that not by material but by moral force are men and their actions governed. How noiseless is thought! No rolling of drums, no tramp of squadrons, or immeasurable tumult of baggage wagons attends the movements. In what obscure and sequestered places may the head be meditating which is one day to be crowned with more than imperial authority; for kings and emperors will be among its ministering servants; it will rule not over but in their heads, and with these its solitary combinations of ideas, as with magic formulas, bend the world to its will. The time may come when Napoleon himself will be better known for his laws than for his battles; and the victory of Waterloo prove less momentous than the opening of the first Mechanic's institute.

Saltless Russia

I saw one village market in a western province at which most of the peasant women who had poultry, eggs, milk and fruit to dispose of, refused to part with anything for money. I tried hard to buy, only to receive the monotonous answer "For salt." A sucking pig could be had for two pounds of salt. Vladimir had just received a year's supply of salt as I left it, but the distribution had not yet begun.

Health Talks

By William Brady, M. D.

Malaria and Tuberculosis

The other day I referred to the waywardness of tuberculosis of the lungs in respect to the mode of onset of this common disease, and mentioned frequent modes of onset which might not arouse the suspicion of the untrained observer, as, for instance, onset with obstinate so-called "dyspepsia" in frail, poorly developed young persons who are anemic.

In certain regions of the country where malaria (fever and ague) really does prevail at present or has prevailed in the past, an error frequently made by the laity and perhaps still made occasionally by some careless doctor, is the confusion of beginning tuberculosis of the lungs with malaria.

Malaria, as everyone now knows or should know, is caused by inoculation of the victim, and only by inoculation. The inoculating agent is one breed of mosquito called Anopheles. This night-flying pest differs from the common harmless mosquito of this country in sitting almost at right angles upon a surface, whereas the ordinary harmless mosquito sits with body parallel with the surface. The malaria-carrying mosquito becomes infected with the malaria parasites by drinking the blood of a person who has malaria, and conveys the parasites of the blood of the person subsequently bitten.

Without being bitten by a mosquito of this breed which has had previous access to an individual with malaria, it is impossible for one to contract malaria. Therefore, all ancient theories and fancies concerning damp or swampy ground, fresh turned earth, and the like, must be discarded except in so far as even a cowtrack or a tomato can or an obstructed eave trough filled with water for ten days at a time may furnish the necessary stagnant pool for breeding mosquitoes.

The characteristic sequence of symptoms from which malaria receives its common name of "fever and ague," namely, chill followed by fever and sweating, may occur in other conditions than malaria. Chill, fever and sweat often signify the development of an abscess somewhere in the body. Sometimes chill, fever and sweat occur in acute septicema ("blood poisoning") in cases of accidental wounds infected at the time of accident or through improper care after the accident. In the past, and in unenlightened communities even at present, the occurrence of chill, followed by high fever and sweat in the days following childbirth has too often beent misinterpreted as "malaria."

In certain cases of beginning or incipient lung tuberculosis the patient suffers repeated and sometimes regularly recurring attacks of chill, fever and sweating. If this happens in a district where the ordinary malaria or fever and ague is prevalent, there is danger of confounding the tuberculosis with that disease. This danger is entirely obviated if the physician is careful enough to examine the naked chest.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS.

Mr. Barnum Said It.

......I have had my rupture about nine years, though I guess there was a muscular defect since I was born ....lately received a sample of a rupture treatment, a kind of ointment to be rubbed in. It is said to strengthen the muscles. ....

Answer: It would be as reasonable to attempt to cure a broken leg with the ointment as to attempt to relieve a rupture. Plainly some shrewd charlatan has your number. Of course there is no cure for rupture in an adut except operation. Rarely a small hernia (breach, rupture, as it is variously called) spontaneously and permanently corrects itself. But it is childish to imagine that any medicine can be of any such avail.

Please tell me the nature of "albolene." The doctor advised me to drop it into the nostrils of my baby when he has a cold. I am troubled with dry skin and I found that this "albolene" is good to rub on. (Mrs. R. F.)

Answer: It is purified mineral oil, liquid petrolatum paraffin oil, Russian oil, also known by dozens of trade names. It is bland, neutral, nonirritating. Soothing when used as your doctor advised. A good agent for dry skin or dry scalp.

Just a Moment

Daily Strength and Cheer.

Compiled by John G. Quinins, the Sunshine Man, Dayton, Ohio.

O Lord we know there are a thousand reasons why we should be glad. We cannot always forget our sorrows and our failures; there are manifold sources of temporary vexation and annoyance and harassing care, but in the face of Thine overmastering Providence and Love we cannot long be vexed nor sad. If tears have dimmed our eyes let us brush away the tears. If troubles and cares have burdened our hearts let us rise triumphant over them all and for this day be glad; and in our gladness let us find our strength. Amen.—George L. Perin.

I will arise, and go to my father.—Luke xv, 18.

Hast thou wandered far
From thy Father's happy home,
With thyself and God at war?
Turn thee, brother, homeward come.

Hast thou wasted all the powers

He thy gentlest prayer can hear;
Seek Him, for He may be found;
Call upon Him; He is near.

If a Thorn Wounds Me

If a thorn wounds me, I draw back from the thorn,
But I do not hate the thorn
If some baseness,
Filled with envy, thrusts me with its darts of malice.
My feet in silence turn aside and make their way
To an air of purer love and charity.

Rancor? To what end? Did good e'er spring from rancor?
Nor does it stanch wounds, either, nor set aught evil right.
Hardly has my rose tree time to bear its flowers;
It wastes no precious snap on pricking spines.

If my enemy passes near my rose tree
He shall pluck from it the buds of sweetest perfume;
And if he spies in them some vivid red
It will be the red blood that his malevolence
Of yesterday drew by wounding me with its hatred and assault,
And which the rose tree, changed into a flower of peace, returns.

The Old Problem Again

St. Cloud Journal-Press: The American Federation of Labor officials report there are today in this country three million idle men, while the average during the winter months is one million. Indications are that this number will be greatly increased before spring. Meanwhile we are receiving from foreign shores an immense stream of immigrants, who will all be looking for employment, and will add to the distress of the present situation. Men and women who have good jobs will be wise to hold on to them. The person out of work, unless he is a skilled workman, may have a hard time connecting with a well-filled pay envelope for some months, and there are in the big cities thousands of trained workmen who have no jobs in sight.

Not So Far Off at That

The men who under the old system spent all their wages for liquor, now have enough money to spare to pay off those officials who are running down the brazen violators of the Volstead act.

Enforcement of Existing Law Enough

Stillwater Gazette: Capital punishment for those guilty of murder, rape, highway robbery and automobile stealing would reduce the number of these crimes very materially. Hang the auto thief, as was the case of the horse thief years ago. It was a swift punishmet, but it had the desired effect. The average punishment of criminals is not half what it should be.

The Tipping Nuisance

Sherburn Advance-Standard: If a fellow has more money than he knows what to do with he should take a week off and spend it in one of the Twin City hotels. The hat and coat lads and the other flunkies peculiar to such places can get more real coin out of a full-grown man in half a day than a collector for charity would get out of him in six weeks of persistent begging. There is only one way to successfully beat the flunky hold-up game in these metropolitan centers and that is to carry a gattling gun and cut the darned pests off as they advance. Some folks perhaps would construe that as murder, while others would rise up and call you a benefactor to humanity.

It'll Keep Him Busy Not To

Hokah Chief: One of the greatest difficulties Mr. Harding will have while president will be to prevent the jingo politicians from getting this country into trouble with Mexico. American corporations almost without number are trying to have Mexico annexed and will do all in their power to accomplish their desire. President Harding will do well not to listen to these exploiters, but leave Mexico to work out its own salvation and the Americans who are grafting there to look out for their interests as best they can. How Mexicans run their country is their affair, not ours, and Mr. Harding must tolerate no interference.

Twenty Years Ago

From The Herald of This Date, 1900

President Kruger of the Transvaal arrived in Paris this morning and was given a magnificent reception. The boulevards were crammed with vast crowds. He was met at the station by the mayor who gave him an official welcome amid scenes of great enthusiasm. Over the entire route from the station to the hotel great crowds greeted Mr. Kruger. Shout after shout arose, until there was a continuous roar of cheering. There was a great demonstration at the hotel, and Mr. Kruger was forced to appear on a balcony. On his arrival at the Hotel Scribe, Mr. Kruger was greeted on the threshold with the Boer hymn, sung by the children of the Transvaal consul, to which Mr. Kruger listened with tears in his eyes.

Senator C. K. Davis of St. Paul passed a very restless night, with acute delirium. It is not expected that he will survive many hours.

Turkey has definitely rejected the request for an exequatur for a United States consul at Harpoot. The refusal is regarded by the United States legation at Constantinople as a direct violation of treaty rights; consequently, despite the refusal, Dr. Thomas H. Norton, who was appointed by President McKinley some time ago to establish a consulate at Harpoot, has been directed to proceed to his post.

Cards are out announcing the wedding on Thanksgiving day of Miss Josephine Socier and John McGraw, both of Hazlewood Park. The ceremony will be performed at St Jean Baptiste church. In the evening there will be a wedding reception and dance in Gilley's hall, West Duluth, to which over 300 invitations have been issued.

D. A. Fitzpatrick, an old time resident of West Duluth, now of Houghton, Mich., was in the city yesterday on his way to the West.

The old Duluth Poultry association was reorganized last evening at a meeting in the Lonsdale building and the following officers were chosen: President, John H. Norton; vice president, George W. Smith; secretary, J. B. Greenfield; treasurer, W. L. Seaton; executive committee, H. L. Patterson, Benjamin Wood, John C. Green, George H. Thompson, Max Clemens and C. Sullivan. The matter of holding a combined poultry and Belgian hare show this winter was talked over, and one may be held.

Mrs. Lane K. McGregor has left for a short visit in Chillicothe, Ohio, before going to Florida, where she will spend the winter.

The British cabinet yesterday decided to recommend Queen Victoria to make Maj.-Gen. Lord Kitchener a lieutenant general so as to enable him to take over the supreme command in South Africa when Lord Roberts leaves that country.

The new concrete annex of the Peavey Terminal system will begin receiving grain next week. One-half of the concrete bins are finished, and next spring the remaining half will be built.

J. McNicol, formerly of Duluth, now interested in mining in British Columbia, is in the city for a few days' visit. Mr. McNicol left Duluth about ten years ago, at which time he was employed by the Morison & McGregor Grocery company, then doing business in the Metropolitan block.

THE OPEN COURT

Readers of The Herald are invited to make free use of this column to express their ideas about topics of general interest, but discussion of sectarian, religious differences is barred. Letters must be accompanied in every case by the name and address of the writer, though these need not be published. A signed letter is always more effective, however.

All letters must be written on one side of the paper only.

The Herald does not publish original verse. Contributions of this nature that are submitted for the editor's perusal must be accompanied by a stamped and addressed envelope, if their return is desired. Otherwise no manuscript will be returned.

A CORRECTION.

To the Editor of The Herald:

In your issue of Nov. 18, page 11, in referring to my address at the meeting of the Northern Minnesota Development association, I am quoted as follows: "The land improvement law must be amended so that a farmer may be paid by the state for clearing lands he purchased from the state. Now, the farmer must pay a contractor for doing the work." This quotation is wrong, and in justice to the state land improvement board to which I referred in discussing this matter, as well as to the farmers in the cut-over region who are not asking the state to pay for their clearing work as reported, we wish to have you correct the impression given in your report of my address, the thought of which, as bearing on the development of state lands, was as follows:

Under the present law, bids for improvement work on such state lands as are selected for development are advertised for, and the improvement work let to the lowest bidder. After the improvements are completed, which must not exceed $300 per forty, the lands are sold at public auction to the highest bidder. The cost of the improvements on said land is added to the price that the land is sold for and eventually paid for by the settler. The state land improvement board proposes a change in this law so as to enable the state to loan the settler money on the improvements made by him on lands that he has purchased from the state. The amount so loaned by the state on such improvements to be determined by an appraisal by the state auditor's department. The amount allowed for improvements already completed by the settler will be added to the contract covering the purchase of the land and will be repaid by the settler under such terms as he now pays for the land.

You will note therefore that under the proposed plan the state is not asked to pay for improvements made by the settler, but simply extends credit to him the same as it now does, the difference being to aid settlers in developing the lands purchased from the state instead of first improving state lands under contract before selling same to the settler. It would give the settler an option of buying unimproved land to develop himself with the aid of state credit under the same terms as he may now purchase lands already improved by the state. Yours very truly.

OTTO I. BERGH,
Superintendent.

THE RED CROSS.

To the Editor of The Herald:

It is time for our roll call again. And I for one feel so many of our people here and throughout the fire district misunderstand the Red Cross. They do not know the state took over the fire relief work a week or two after the fire, and the work the Red Cross did after that was under the management of the state fire relief officers. Those ladies from out of town who had made a study of that kind of work were hired by the state fire relief, not by the Red Cross.

If our good people would only stop and think what the greatest mother on earth did the night of the fire, and the first week or two before the state could get its machinery to work! Where would we have been without the Red Cross? Who opened homes, clothed, fed and cared for your burned ones in town? Who went out and hunted you up and either fed, clothed or gave first aid, or brought you in? Who looked after your stock? Took hay and feed out through the burned country; gathered your stock together and looked after them when you were too dazed to do anything for yourselves in those first terrible days after the fire? The Red Cross, and no red tape!

But it is so easy to forget the good deeds done for us, and remember the things that hurt? Just as someone suddenly taken ill: The kind neighbor, or mother does all she can in her own loving way, and her first aid may have saved the life; later the doctor and trained nurse tke the case with their rules and regulations. No matter how you or your friends feel about it. When you get around you find something does not please you and you blame all alike; forget the first help and just remember the things you did not like. That is human nature, but it is not American justice.

Remember the American Red Cross means the friend ever-ready to jump in to help at the first call, not in two or three days or a week, but now, at once. I am not knocking the state any more than the doctor or nurse—(I am a nurse)—just as the sick case needs trained, experienced care, so this thing needed the bigger, stronger help—the state with its power and recourse. And in each case alike, the greater the power the more red tape.

But don't forget the love and kindness of the first friends who did all they could with love and free will, yet with the quiet, smooth organization of the Red Cross.

RADIUM.

To the Editor of The Herald:

Referring to an account published in your journal on Oct. 15, that a perfect substitute for radium can be produced by a chemical process which purifies mesothorium, we feel sure that with your reputation for accuracy and fair play you will be glad to have your attention called to the facts in the case.

Your account states that, according to G. F. Breckenridge and Dr. Herman Schlundt of the University of Missouri, mesothorium is a perfect substitute for radium. Scientific investigations and the findings of such authorities as Prof. Rutherford show that mesothorium is not practicable as a radium substitute.

Mesothorium is a by-product of thorium. The only use of thorium at present is in the manufacture of gas mantles. The by-product of mesothorium from this is so inconsiderable that it would be insufficient for the purposes for which radium is used, either medically or industrially. This is the first reason why it is impracticable as a substitute.

Second, mesothorium has 300 times less energy than radium. The life of radium is 3,600 years, while the life of mesothorium is only twelve years. This ratio is of great moment in evaluating the two substances, since mesothorium as a by-product costs as much as radium. This alone would negate its equal value in medical and industrial uses.

Another important reason why mesothorium is impracticable as a substitute for radium is that, while the emanations of radium retain their power for thirty days, those of mesothorium retain their life for only a fraction of a second. This means that the bottled energy of radium can be utilized in a time and a place that is thirty days removed from the main source, without decreasing the value of radium itself. Mesothorium emanations have no practical value whatsoever.

The fourth reason why mesothorium is not a practical substitute for radium is its far greater cost where it is regained directly from the mineral ores. Its cost as a by-product from thorium is the same as radium, but its cost as a product from the ore is three to four times that of radium.

It is important that the public should know these facts about radium, because radium in its medical uses is just beginning to receive the attention it deserves as a powerful therapeutic agent, and in its industrial uses is just beginning to extend its fields to many life-saving and useful purposes. The large mine developments of radium-bearing ore in this country should be encouraged. Some years ago Europe was in the forefront in radium mining and new developments of its use. Today America leads in radium therapeutics and radium uses. She should retain this position, but to retain it the public should know the truth about the utility and value of radium.

It is for this reason that we have gone to this extent in putting before you these facts concerning radium.

Vet, Duluth: Has New York state provided for a cash bonus for her service men in the late war; if so, how much and who shall I apply to?

Ans.: Yes, a bill passed by the New York legislature last May and approved by Governor Smith, provided for a referendum as to whether or not the state should issue $45,000,000 in bonds for the purpose of paying a war bonus. This was approved at the election Nov. 2. The bill provides for the payment to "each resident of the state who served in active duty in the military or naval service of the United States between April 6, 1917, and Nov. 11, 1919," of $10 for each month of active service, no person to receive more than $250. For further information, apply to the Adjutant General, Albany, N. Y.

Vet, Duluth: I was born and raised in the city of Duluth, enlisted in the Canadian army and served overseas with the Seventy-eighth battalion. Was wounded Sept. 25, 1918. Am I or am I not going to get the Minnesota bonus?

Ans.: No, the bonus is restricted to those who served in the United States organizations.

STUDENTS URGED TO VARY COURSES

The faculty of Denfeld high school is using posters as a means of aiding the students in the choice of courses of study for next semester. With approximately only two months before the opening of the second semester, they hold that it is not too early for a campaign of this kind.

J. F. Taylor, principal of the school, in speaking of the importance of this phase of educational work, said today: "Too many students are pursuing courses for which they are not properly adapted. The student and the school are both great losers when a student takes a course for which he is not fitted. This first poster, which was placed on the bulletin board today, aims to guard against a student learning only one thing so that he is adaptable to only one kind of work.

"It is impossible for anyone to foresee what the conditions will be twenty-five years from now, just as it was impossible for anyone to size up the automobile industry twenty-five years ago. It would mean a great saving if one were able to see conditions in future and so direct one's training to meet these conditions. But at our present rate of development, this is an impossibility. It is a matter of daily experience that about seven out of ten men today are not pursuing the same course that they set out to take up. This is due to the present rapid development of new industries.

"We are going to use these posters as an effective means of bringing these facts home to the student. This poster, which is designed to urge the student not to confine himself to acquiring a knowledge of one thing or one machine but rather to aim to make himself adaptable to conditions, is the product of the art department of this school."

The poster by means of a photographic layout, shows a mechanic at work at a lathe and how he knowing only lathe work, is completely disabled by the lost of an arm or failing eyesight.

FAREWELL RECEPTION FOR FR. WALSH OF PROCTOR

Rev. E. J. Walsh, for the last fifteen years pastor of St. Rose's Catholic church, Proctor, was tendered a farewell by the people of Proctor last night. Four hundred people attended the reception, which was given Father Walsh on his leaving the Proctor parish to assume charge of St. Michael's church, Lakeside. Rev. L. Ryan of Coleraine will take charge of St. Rose's.

A banquet was held at which Father Walsh was presented with several valuable gifts in appreciation of his work in the community. Bruce Palmer, chief of police, Proctor, made his own presentation speech in presenting Father Walsh with a shilallah, an Irish cane. C. Herbert acted as toastmaster and introduced the following speakers: Congressman W. L. Carss, Matt Kenney, W. F. Morong, C. W. Seddon, H. H. Peyton, Rev. Hugh Floyd, Pat McKabe and Rev. J. W. Spink.

DENFELD BOYS WILL GIVE BASKET SOCIAL

The Boys' club of Denfeld high school will give a basket social at the school next Monday night, Nov. 29, to raise funds to defray the expenses of the club's two delegates to the state convention of the Older Boys' clubs at Faribault, Dec. 3. A committee composed of Edward Harris, Edward Martini, Robert Bratt, Serona McComber was appointed at the last meeting of the Denfeld club Monday night by its president, Chris Larson, in charge of general arrangements.

The committee has invited all the girls of West end, West Duluth, Gary and New Duluth whether they are students of Denfeld or not, but has ruled that no girl shall be admitted without a basket. A program will follow the supper. Edward Harris heads the program committee.

Police Blotter Clean.

The police blotter at the West Duluth station showed a clean sheet this morning. No arrests had been made within the last twenty-four hours. This is the first clean slate of the month at the West Duluth station.

Garage Man Bankrupt.

Harry G. Olsen, doing business at the Riverside garage, filed an involuntary petition in bankruptcy today. He lists his assets, outside of insurance, at $612.86 and his liabilities at $2,892.95.

Rebekahs Will Meet.

The Excelsior Rebekah lodge of West Duluth will meet tonight at the West Duluth Odd Fellows' hall for the nomination and election of officers. A Thanksgiving program of games and dances will follow the business meeting. Leah Bousett is chairman of the program committee.

Tool Box Raided.

A tool box, the property of the Northwest Telephone company, left at Sixty-seventh avenue west and Redruth street last night for the resumption of line work at that point this morning, was broken into last night and a large quantity of tools and such materials as are used in the repair of telephone lines was stolen.

FORTIFICATIONS TO BE BUILT SOON BY JAPAN

Tokio, Oct. 18.—(By the Associated Press.)—Additional fortifications, suitable to the needs of modern warfare, are to be built soon by Japan on the Bonin islands, lying to the southeast of Japan proper, according to the Nichi Nichi. A number of military experts under the direction of Major Kadona are reported to have left for the islands on the steamer Higo Maru to make a preliminary survey for the erection of the new forts.

The Japanese government has realized for some time that changes in the manner of warfare have rendered some of the outlying defenses of the empire out of date, and the government, it is said, intends to build at least ten new strongholds along the coasts of the islands of Japan, the first to be in the Bonin islands. The others for the present are unspecified.

The main island of the Bonin group is the landing place of the Japanese cable from Tokio. From Bonin messages are relayed by the Pacific cable to Guam and then to the United States via Midway and Honolulu.

CARLETON STUDENTS RUSHING TO THE GOAL

Northfield, Minn., Nov. 24.—With $52,310 already subscribed, the campus campaign in the Four Million for Carleton drive has a good chance to reach the $70,000 goal.

The object of the campaign on the campus is not to have a few students give large amounts, but to have each student give something. Team captains and lieutenants were busy interviewing students last week, and it is expected that Carleton's student body will show up with 100 per cent loyalty.

At present the sophomore class heads the list with a total of $16,990. The freshman class ranks second with donations amounting to $16,810. Faculty subscriptions to date total $6,625.

ROUNDUP OF CHICAGO CRIMINALS CONTINUES

Chicago, Nov. 24.—The roundup of alleged criminals, started Sunday by Charles Fitzmorris, chief of police, for the announced purpose of "ridding Chicago of crooks," continued yesterday when special details raided dozens of gambling places, saloons, billiard halls, bowling alleys and cigar stores, making more than 100 arrests.

Judge John Richardson continued to impose fines of $25 and costs on persons charged with being keepers of gambling houses or disorderly places and to dismiss a majority of those charged with being inmates, ruling that unless the men were caught in the act of gambling there was not sufficient evidence to convict.

Chief Fitzmorris said the drive "would not end until every crook had been run out of the city."

CANADA STEAMSHIP LINE TO INAUGURATE AIRPLANE SERVICE

Montreal, Nov. 24.—The Canada Steamship Lines, Ltd., which is the chief Canadian operator of steamships on the Great Lakes, plans next summer to start an aerial passenger service between Montreal, Toronto and New York.

This announcement was made today by J. W. Norcross, head of the concern, who has placed contracts for two large seaplanes to be delivered next spring.

The planes, which will carry twelve passengers and two pilots, are credited with a speed of 127 miles an hour.

MILK PRICES SHOULD DROP

Reason of Call for National Conference of Milk Producers.

Chicago, Nov. 24.—There is a big surplus of milk in the country and milk prices generally should be lower than they are, J. W. Coverdale, secretary of the American Farm Bureau federation, said here in explanation of the federation's call for a national conference of milk producers. The conference, he said, aims to work out some better method of marketing milk and will consider the possibilities of co-operation.

"A number of condenseries absolutely refuse to buy milk and many producers don't know what to do with a large part of their supply," Mr. Coverdale said. "In New York state producers have put up several of their own condenseries and have bought several more that had closed. They propose to can their milk and lay it away on the shelves until the time when the public will want it.

More Milk Than Demand.

"There is so much milk without a demand for it that I think milk could be sold for less and still pay out. People would use more of it. Some of the people are not using as much milk as they should.

"The present difficulty dates back, I think, to the high price of sugar. Sugar is used in condensing milk and the condenseries filled their shelves with milk put up at a high price. There is no export sale and the condenseries are trying to force the consumer to buy this milk. The people are not doing it, and the result is there is too much condensed milk in the country."

AUCTION TO AID FIFTY FAMILIES

More than fifty families will be recipients of Thanksgiving day baskets containing flour, sugar, potatoes and in many cases even blankets and clothes tomorrow morning when the Central high school auction committee makes its annual tour of the city to distribute the proceeds obtained at today's auction. The size of donations has been gauged by data obtained about each needy family.

The following letter was previously sent to the persons upon whom the committee will call:

"Every year at Thanksgiving time the students of Central high school hold an auction, an event of much fun and pleasure. But its real happiness comes from the fact that by means of this auction the students are able to share their joy and good times with others. All the hard work the auction causes is repaid if it brings to more people the spirit of Thanksgiving, a time when we all join in being grateful for our blessings. So we ask the pleasure and privilege of bringing to you on Thursday morning a Thanksgiving dinner. We hope that it will give you as much joy to receive it as it will give us to bring it.

"Best wishes for a very happy Thanksgiving.

"AUCTION COMMITTEE."

TOOK NO CHANCES WITH STOCK OF BUSTED COMPANY

How representatives of lumber companies who had purchased stock from the Wilcox Lumber company stood guard over the latter company's stock at Silverdale, Koochiching county, to see that none was secretly removed and that markings were not tampered with was described in Federal court today before W. O. Pealer, referee in bankruptcy, who is settling distribution of claims in the matter of the Wilcox company's bankruptcy.

C. A. Stafford, vice president of the Rathbone, Hair & Ridgeway company of Chicago, was the principal witness this morning. He told of having made a hurried trip to the lumber yards upon being told by Stanley Wilcox, treasurer of the bankrupt firm, that deliveries could not be made. R. F. Hallstad, his assistant, testified to the same purpose this morning. He admitted on cross-examination that no attempt was made to tamper with the stock in the yards.

It was also brought out yesterday that a number of laborers have checks of the company which could not be cashed at the bank. In many cases merchants are also the holders of these checks.

Adjournment will be taken at 4 o'clock this afternoon to permit some of the attorneys to go to their homes in Minneapolis and Chicago for the Thanksgiving holiday. Sessions will be resumed at the beginning of next week.

MATT KAPOVICH RECOVERS $376.75 FROM THOS. FOUBISTER

A jury in district court before Judge G. C. Haupt of St. Paul yesterday afternoon returned a verdict for $376.75 in favor of Matt Kapovich, who sued Thomas Foubister to recover money and security given in payment for an automobile which proved unsatisfactory. In August, 1919, Kapovich bargained with Foubister for an automobile. He paid him $150 and a motorboat valued at $400. When he tried out the car, he didn't like it and so it was returned. Foubister, Kapovich claimed, kept the car, the money and the motorboat. Kapovich then sued for $550 damages.

A jury was selected this morning in Judge Haupt's division to try the case of Cassie O'Brien against A. Fieldman. The plaintiff wants $190, the purchase price of a fur coat, repaid to her. She claims that the coat which Fieldman sold was defective and shoddy.

PRESIDENT HARRISON'S DAUGHTER, WHO IS TO BE BLAINE KIN'S BRIDE

Miss Elizabeth Harrison, youngest daughter of the late President Benjamin Harrison and Mrs. Harrison of Indianapolis and New York, is to become the bride of James Blaine Walker, grandnephew of the late James G. Blaine, who was secretary of state in President Harrison's cabinet. Miss Harrison is a lawyer, a member of the bar of Indiana and New York, but she will not allow marriage to interfere with the practice of her profession.

WOULD RECOVER PROPERTY FROM FURRIER TO PAY DEBTS

H. S. Wenger, local furrier, is cited by an order filed today in district court to show cause in court Saturday why property belonging to Merle O. Anderson, contractor, which he has attached under a writ of the court, should not be released so that the property might be sold and Anderson given a chance to pay his debts. Wenger is suing Anderson for $3,000 damages. Anderson claims that he has tied up property worth $15,000 and that if the court will order the attachment set aside he can sell the property and put himself square with the world. The order to show cause was signed by Judge Dancer.

JOSEPH FIELDING, OLD RESIDENT, SUMMONED

Joseph Fielding, aged 64, 412 West Third street, died at his home early this morning, following an illness of several months. Mr. Fielding was associated with C. A. Knippenberg of the Northern Securities & Loan association for several years. He leaves a widow and granddaughter, Miss Inez Brockway of this city. The funeral will be held Friday afternoon from Stewart's undertaking rooms. Dr. Brewer, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, will have charge of the service.

FUGITIVE FROM THIS COUNTY IS CAPTURED

Jerome A. Graham, who is alleged to have procured $1,000 from the Curry & White company of this city on Dec. 15 last by giving a chattel mortgage on fifteen horses which he did not own, was arrested yesterday at Jamestown, N. D., according to word received last night by Sheriff Frank L. Magie.

The sheriff has sent Sam Altman, a deputy, to Jamestown with a warrant for his arrest. Graham was indicted for grand larceny, first degree, by the May grand jury and will be brought back here to face trial on that charge.

According to information which the local authorities have, Graham is an ex-convict, having served time in the North Dakota penitentiary for horse thieving.

Von Rintelin Sentence Commuted.

Washington, Nov. 24. — President Wilson has commuted the sentence of Franz von Rintelin, a German convicted of wartime conspiracy, on condition that he leave the United States before next Jan. 1.

TITLED BEAUTY WHO IS TO GO INTO THE MOVIES

LADY DIANA MANNERS.

Reports from London have it that Lady Diana Manners, the acknowledged beauty of England, will go into the movies. The beautiful daughter of the duke of Rutland has signed a contract with an American producer to appear in a series of photoplays which will be filmed in England, it is said.

MAKING TRIP THROUGH THE GREAT CANAL

President-Elect Is Making Study of Workings of Panama Waterway.

Dinner at Pacific End Will Be Followed by Public Reception.

Cristobal, Canal Zone, Nov. 24.—(By the Associated Press.)—Senator Warren G. Harding, United States president-elect, gave up golfing and motoring this morning to make a personal study of the practical working of the Panama canal. He planned to leave here at 8:30 o'clock on a government mine sweeper and looked forward to a leisurely journey through the waterway.

His trip was more than a sightseeing expedition. Stops were arranged at Gatun lock and at other points to permit close inspection of problems of canal maintenance and management, this inspection being one of the big reasons for Mr. Harding's trip in the canal zone.

Mr. Harding has taken a keen interest in the future of the canal. During the debate in congress relative to the canal, the problem of tolls for American ships received his particular attention, his strong conviction for free passage for American ships having been expressed many times.

To Dine With Harding.

Col. Chester Harding, governor of the canal zone, accompanied him on the trip and tonight will be his host at a dinner at the Pacific terminal of the canal. The dinner will be followed by a public reception and the party will remain on the Pacific coast until Friday. Mr. Harding will attend a dinner given by President Porras at Panama at the palace Thursday night.

The steamer Parismina was welcomed into the harbor by a swarm of army airplanes and several submarines which met her three miles out and convoyed her to her dock. A large crowd cheered the president-elect and his wife, and a formal greeting was extended by Governor Harding, Brig. Gen. Kennedy and Rear Admiral Johnson, commanders, respectively, of military and naval forces in the canal zone.

KIWANIANS GIVEN SAMPLE OF 'RED' TALK

Kiwanians were treated to a "Red" talk at the meeting at the Commercial club today noon. During the luncheon a letter alleged to have been sent to the Kiwanis club from the new chief of police, W. E. Pugh stated that he had picked up a radical "Red" and that if the club pleased, he would allow him to give them an idea of the class of talk these men were spreading. Cries of "Bring him in" was answered by Patrolman Wanwick bringing in a hardy-looking individual who immediately began to rant against capital and the right of free speech.

It was but a few minutes until cries of "Throw him out" and "Did you ever work?", "Look at those hands. He never used them. He uses his mouth," put a further stop to the oration. Impossible to go on, the speaker removed his coat, spectacles and hat, disclosing Harold S. Adams, of the Northwest Warriors committee, who was the guest of the Kiwanis club. Mr. Adams then gave a short talk on Americanism and what it stands for.

Amendments to the bylaws of the Duluth Kiwanis club were read and a discussion of the different articles taken up. A copy of the changes will be mailed to each member and at the next meeting they will be voted upon.

The club adopted resolutions favoring the appointment of W. C. Sargent as a member of the state fair board to succeed the late John Dwan. The club also adopted resolutions recommending to the civic council that steps be taken to keep J. R. Batchelor, city recreational director, from accepting another position, it being announced that he had been offered a much better position elsewhere.

SOLE HEIRESS TO VALUABLE ESTATE

Miss Maren Mendenhall, aged 23, both of whose parents died this year, falls heir to an estate valued at $100,000, which was left by her mother, Mrs. Zuella Mendenhall, according to papers filed today in probate court.

Mrs. Mendenhall died Oct. 23, aged 54. She was the wife of the late Edward Mendenhall, who also died this summer. Her estate is represented to consist of real estate valued at $25,000 and personal property to the value of $75,000.

Mrs. Mendenhall's will, made in 1908, provided that in the event that both her husband and daughter were living at the time of her death they should share equally in the property, otherwise it should go to the one who survived. If both died before she did the estate was to be divided among nine relatives named in the will.

As the will stands, however, Miss Mendenhall is the only heir. The First National bank of this city, executor under the will of Edward Mendenhall, petitioned the court for appointment as executor under the will of Mrs. Mendenhall.

FUEL SITUATION IS SHOWING IMPROVEMENT

While the tonnage of wheat at the Head of the Lakes has been gaining slowly, the fuel situation has materially improved lately as a result of the continued mild weather over the Northwest.

There is a total supply of 210,300 tons of hard coal on hand on the docks, according to a report made by F. M. Schutte, state weighmaster at Duluth, to A. L. Flinn, traffic expert of the railroad and warehouse commission at St. Paul.

Of this amount 44,500 tons is on the Duluth docks and 165,800 tons on the Superior docks.

GROWING DEAF WITH HEAD NOISES? TRY THIS

If you are growing hard of hearing and fear Catarrhal Deafness or if you have roaring, rumbling, hissing noises in your ears go to your druggist and get 1 ounce of Parmint (double strength), and add to it ¼ pint of hot water and a little granulated sugar. Take 1 tablespoonful four times a day.

This will often bring quick relief from the distressing head noises. Clogged nostrils should open, breathing become easy and the mucus stop dropping into the throat. It is easy to prepare, costs little and is pleasant to take. Anyone who is threatened with Catarrhal Deafness or who has head noises should give this prescription a trial.—Advertisement.

PROPOSED LEGISLATION TO AFFECT ENGINEERS

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 24.—Many steam engineers will be affected by legislation as proposed by a committee of engineers appointed at a recent meeting of state engineers and V. E. Patnaude, chief boiler inspector. The proposed changes suggest a law of licensing of engineers following an examination by a board of boiler rules which would be made up of one steam engineer, one boiler manufacturer, one employer of engineers, one professor of steam engineering and the state chief boiler inspector. The law, if enacted, Mr. Patnaude said, would not materially affect the license of engineers for one year. All engineers, he said, who make application before the expiration of their present license, would be granted another license for the term of one year.

WEEKLY RELIGIOUS SERVICES AT TALMUD TORAH HALL

Religious exercises will be held at 8 p. m. every Friday at the Talmud Torah, 310 East Third street, beginning next Friday, Rabbi Israel Lebendiger announced today.

The exercises will include the old traditional prayers and hymns. The Hebrew school choir will assist in the music. The new departure in the orthodox ceremonies, however, will be the weekly sermon by Rabbi Lebendiger.

Sunday school classes will open at 10 a. m. Sunday. All parents are asked to send their children for religious instruction.

MILL CITY APARTMENT RENT CUT IS FORECAST

Minneapolis, Minn., Nov. 24.—Slight reductions in rentals of apartment houses in Minneapolis were reported yesterday, and further reductions in the spring were anticipated by real estate men here. Because most apartments are rented on a year's lease dating from September to September, no great reductions can be felt until the time comes for drawing up a new lease, it was pointed out. There are few if any vacant apartment houses.

Rentals at one large apartment building are to be reduced Dec. 1, tenants were notified yesterday. The mild fall weather which has enabled the owners to save in fuel bills and general operating expenses was given as the reason.

SAYS COUNTRY WILL REGRET ELECTION

Dallas, Tex., Nov. 24.—"The country will live to regret what it has done in the recent election," Thomas R. Marshall, vice president of the United States, declared in an address at the Terminal Railway station yesterday afternoon.

"It is the greatest injustice of a century, and will bring one of the world's greatest figures to an untimely grave," the speaker said.

Mr. Marshall passed through Dallas on his way to Fort Worth.

TORONTO POLICE MAY USE MACHINE GUNS

Toronto, Ont., Nov. 24.—Machine gun tests are being carried on by police officers of the city with a view to the possible adoption of machine guns for use by the police department.

If the tests prove that the machine gun is adaptable for regular police duty it is probable that the local police force will be equipped with these weapons for use in cases of emergency. It is said that the tests being carried on here show that 200 bullets may be fired each minute in which the gun is used.

The guns used are specially adapted for police duty and the rebounding of bullets which might do great damage in crowded thoroughfares has been greatly minimized by recent inventions.

CLEVELAND GRAYS TO BE ESCORT TO HARDING

Cleveland, Ohio., Nov. 24.—The Cleveland Grays, Cleveland's crack military organization, has been selected to act as escort to Warren G. Harding at the presidential inaugural ceremonies in Washington, March 4. It will start soon a special series of drills for the occasion.

The Grays have acted as escort for Presidents Garfield, McKinley and Roosevelt at their inaugurals.

GRAVE CONDITIONS AT BOLOGNA, SAYS REPORT

Rome, Nov. 23.—Investigation of the riot at Bologna on Sunday in which eight persons were killed and seventy wounded, shows very grave conditions, says the Popolo Romano. The newspaper declared that municipal guards participated in the conflict between Socialists and anti-Socialists, defending the former and firing on royal guards inside the municipal building. The government is urged by the newspaper to "dissolve a municipal administration which has become a nest of impudent criminality."

BREAD SHORTAGE AT MADRID ACUTE

Madrid, Nov. 23.—This city and its immediate neighborhood is again in the grasp of an acute bread shortage. In the poor districts bread lines half a mile long formed from the earliest hours this morning and the people remained for hours outside the bakeries despite the sharpness of the weather.

Efforts are being made by the government to improve the situation by issuing bread from military bakeries, but matters have been rendered difficult by the master bakers, who have refused to grant wage increases demanded by the men. Bakery employes as a result threaten a general strike. In the meantime ordinary loaves of bread are virtually unobtainable.

Well Known Writer Dead.

Modesto, Cal., Nov. 24.—Mrs. Margaret Brewster, widely known magazine writer, died here yesterday.

SAVES CHILDREN, LOSES OWN LIFE

Lamberton, Minn., Nov. 24.—After carrying four of his five motherless children from the burning building in their night clothes, W. A. Rockwell, 50 years old, returned to a back room to secure valuable papers, was overcome by smoke and was cremated in the fire which totally destroyed the farm home early this morning. The mother was an influenza victim last winter. The fire, which started from a defective chimney, broke out shortly before 5 a. m.

IRON COUNTY, WIS., TO SPEND MUCH ON ROADS

Hurley, Wis., Nov. 24.—(Special to The Herald.)—More than $100,000 will be spent on Iron county highways during the year 1921 if weather and labor conditions are favorable, it is estimated following appropriations made by the Iron county board of supervisors yesterday for road work in the county.

One appropriation of $20,000 will be Iron county's share of the state highway project, commencing at the Ashland county line and extending in a southerly direction. A total of $60,000 will be spent on this project.

General maintenance and road construction work call for additional appropriations of $11,332.78 and $7,000, making a total of more than $38,000 to be provided by the county. The state will assume the burden of an expenditure of $60,000 on Iron county highways and several towns have appropriated sums totaling $5,250.

New Fast Mail Service.

Chicago, Nov. 24.—New fast mail service between Chicago and St. Paul and Minneapolis was announced today by the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway. Two trains will leave Chicago at 9:40 p. m. each night, arriving at St. Paul at 7:30 the next morning, making the 421-mile run in nine hours and fifty minutes. The first train will carry nothing but mail and the second express. No passengers will be accommodated on either.

NEWS OF THE NORTHWEST

TO SEEK BOY SCOUTS IN RURAL SECTIONS

Minneapolis, Minn., Nov 24.—Extension of the Boy Scout movement to the rural communities of the Northwest is planned by the Boy Scout organization, following a recent conference of councils in District No. 10, which embraces the state of Minnesota, North and South Dakota and Montana.

Minneapolis now is headquarters for this district, which is one of twelve formed throughout the United States as a step towards centralization of the Boy Scout movement. The officers of the twelve districts will act as an advisory council to the national organization, according to F. H. Zeller, national field executive for this district.

In the Northwest district, it is planned to enroll 30,000 boys in scout councils during the next five years.

Mr. Zeller will canvass the entire district to enroll Boy Scout troops this winter. His first trip will be made to the Iron Range in Minnesota, and Mr. Zeller will visit Virginia and Chisholm within a few weeks. From the northern section of the state he plans to go to Faribault and Winona to take up scout organization work there, Mr. Zeller said.

"The small towns will be made the immediate objective of the drive," Mr. Zeller said. "Many of these have no scout troops at all. When the work has progressed sufficiently in towns and cities, organization of county councils will be taken up."

At present, there are twenty-four councils in the four states of the district, with a total enrollment of 10,000 scouts.

Glenwood Miller Badly Burned.

St. Cloud, Minn., Nov. 24.—A young miller of Glenwood, Minn., whose name was given as Henry Janesen by the public service company officials, was horribly burned at that city late Monday, when he came in contact with a high tension line carrying a voltage of 33,000. Janesen was repairing the roof of a feed mill over which the high line passed when the accident occurred. He is reported as being conscious at a Glenwood hospital with a chance for recovery.

Bull Kills Badger Farmer.

Nortage, Wis., Nov. 21.—Hugh Kunow, 50 years old, leading Caledonia farmer, was attacked and killed by a vicious bull at his farm near here on Monday. His wife ran to rescue him, but the animal had trampled the victim to death before she could drive him off. The widow and three children survive.

GYPSY PAIR FOILED.

Grab Roll of $500 Telling Banker's Fortune But Fail to Get Away.

Marinette, Wis., Nov. 24.—Robbery of the Farmers' Savings and Trust bank was atempted here today by two girls, members of a gypsy tribe encamped near here. While the atention of the cashier was diverted by one of the girls who was telling his fortune, the other grabbed a roll of bills containing more than $500. The attempt was frustrated by the assistant cashier, Leslie Eggleston.

Nita and Josepha were the names given by the accused girls when arrested after Assistant Cashier Leslie Eggleston had frustrated the theft by running to the door and stopping the one having the stolen money. They said their gypsy caravan is returning south from Two Harbors, Duluth and other Northern Minnesota points. Police are communicating with Two Harbors and Duluth police to learn of the gypsies' records in those places.

WASHBURN PLANT IS BUILDING FERRYBOAT

Washburn, Wis., Nov. 24.—The local yard of the Anchor Shipbuilding company of this place is quite busy these days. Gangs of men are laying the large timbers for the building a slip on which the first vessel to be built in Washburn will be laid.

The slip itself is 200 feet long by 50 feet wide, to allow plenty of working room.

The ship, when built, is to be used as a fast ferry in New York harbor.

Mr. Curr said he expected to keep about fifty men employed the most of the winter and possibly more would be used later on.

STATE-WIDE CAMPAIGN FOR "WISCONSIN BEAUTIFUL"

Madison, Wis., Nov. 24.—A state-wide conference of citizens interested in rural planning for a "Wisconsin beautiful" is proposed for this winter, according to F. A. Aust, secretary of the Friends of Our Native Landscape.

The purpose of the conference, it is stated, would be to urge the legislature to supplement the recognition given to the rural development by the 1919 legislature with an appropriation.

"Plans for the development of rural parks have been made in Chippewa and Eau Claire counties and $25,000 has been raised by these counties in connection with women's club, local chambers of commerce and rural planning committees," Mr. Aust said.

SAY SUPERIOR WOMEN LIBELED STATE BANK

St. Cloud, Minn., Nov. 24.—A jury of twelve was selected in municipal court yesterday afternoon before Judge Alden to try the alleged libel charge against Mrs. A. Diederichs, living at 2508 Twenty-second street, Superior, Wis., growing out of the allegation that on Nov. 1 she circulated on St. Cloud streets printed handbills which stated that the Zapp State bank of this city and R. P. Brower and Theodore Bruener, prominent local attorney, were "thieves, robbers and swindlers." The warrant was procured by officials of the bank.

McCoy & Hanson of Duluth are representing the defendant. At the time of the distribution of the circulars the bank published a statement of the bank's resources showing that the institution was solvent and had deposits of nearly $3,000,000.

The woman's advice to the depositors to withdraw their balances went almost unheeded.

Iron River Class Election.

Iron River, Wis., Nov. 24.—(Special to The Herald.)—On Monday evening a meeting was held by the sophomore class of the Iron River high school to elect officers and plan a party. The following officers were elected: Brady Doherty, president; Fred Johnson, vice president; Loche Lund, secretary and treasurer. After the election Miss Virginia Tarter was chosen class adviser, and committees were appointed and the following chairmen of each to take charge: Alfred Johnson and Margit Miller, refreshments; Elihu Olson, entertainment; and Keith Hall, decorations.

Foreign Pair Study Farming.

Grand Forks, N. D., Nov. 24—Nicolas P. Makaroff, professor of the University of Moscow and Co-operative Institute of Russia, and John Loebel, representing the department of agriculture of the Czecho-Slovak republic, who are making a study of agricultural conditions, were here Monday looking into the marketing systems and rural conditions generally for the institutions which they represent. They have headquarters in New York city, and began their tour some two months ago, having come to this country about six months ago.

Farm Account Books Ready.

Madison, Wis., Nov. 24.—Farm account books have been issued and are ready for distribution to farmers upon application, it was announced yesterday. The books were prepared by the department of agriculture economics of the university, and are so arranged that a complete inventory of farm equipment, cash receipts and expenses and crop production may be recorded and a balance taken at any time.

ST. LOUIS SCHOOLS TO GET $139,817

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 24.—Annual state aid of $3,075,756 to Minnesota's public schools for the year ending July 31, was certified today for payment by J. M. McConnell, state commissioner of education.

Of the amount, $1,222,729 was paid to 240 high schools; including special department aid; $408,829 was paid to 261 graded schools; $604,157 paid to 250 consolidated schools, as building and transportation aid, and approximately $841,641 was received by 8,000 rural schools.

The law governing the distribution of this money, Mr. McConnell said, provides that where a nonresident high school pupil, for whom the state pays tuition, is resident of a district levying less than 6 mills for school purposes, the amount paid in his tuition must be deducted from the aid of such district.

Certification Delayed.

The certification of this year's aid has been greatly delayed on account of the additional work resulting from that provision.

Counties receiving state aid include: Benton, $11,957; Blue Earth, $33,362.50; Carlton, $51,709; Clay, $55,436; Dodge, $35,230; Faribault, $46,104; Freeborn, $27,712; Goodhue, $47,063; Hennepin, $85,666; Itasca, $82,755; Jackson, $46,175; Martin, $40,389; Mower, $45,145; Nicollet, $19,020.50; Olmstead, $31,758; Otter Tail, $54,774; Polk, $71,510; Ramsey, $32,379; St. Louis, $139,817; Sherburne, $23,422; Stearns, $56,385; Wilkin, $24,722; Winona, $25,589.

AMPLE SCHOOL FUNDS.

Wisconsin Problem Is to Arrange Constructive Program.

Madison, Wis., Nov. 24.—The Wisconsin legislature has made ample provision for funds to be used in upbuilding the school system of the state, E. A. Fitzpatrick, secretary of the state board of education, pointed out today in a discussion of the financial problems confronting education.

"The special session of the legislature last June, provided for a special tax of 8 mills for school purposes, in addition to the total tax limit previously provided. It increased the tax for school districts from 2¼ to 2½ cents, increased the tax for vocational schools from ¾ of a mill to 1½ mills of the assessed valuation, and provided for increased state aid to county training schools, and for increased salaries to supervising teachers of the rural schools and special increases for teachers in Milwaukee in addition to increases in salaries of teachers in all state schools.

"The problem now is not as to the legal availability of funds, but for a constructive program giving public service on the basis of the best return on the investment on schools. There are now huge funds at the disposal of the state educational system," Mr. Fitzpatrick stated.

SHEBOYGAN'S CANNON PLACED BY CITIZENS

Sheboygan, Wis., Nov. 24.—The captured German cannon recently presented to Sheboygan by the war department and which was refused a place in the city park by action of the Socialist majority in the city council, was taken from its storage place in a tool shed last night by more than 4,000 citizens and placed in the park. An effigy of the Socialist aldermen who led the fight against mounting the trophy was burned.

DAKOTA BRIEFS

Grand Forks, N. D.—At a meeting of the board of directors of the North Dakota State Fair association Miss Irene Fee was named assistant secretary of the state fair association.

Devils Lake, N. D.—Tim Running post, American Legion, of this city plans an active season the coming winter. The legion boys are holding dances every Saturday evening in the Grand theater rink, and the big dance of the season will be a costume affair to be held in the rink New Year's Eve.

Fargo, N. D.—Emil Nelson, a prisoner in the Cass county jail, charged with carrying concealed weapons, has a nationwide and international reputation as a drunk. The bureau of criminal identification at Fort Leavenworth has supplied Fargo police with information that Nelson was at one time arrested in Antwerp, Belgium, as a drunk.

Bismarck, N. D.—The motor vehicle registration department of North Dakota is preparing for the registration of 100,000 automobiles and trucks in 1921.

Devils Lake, N. D.—The Haggeret Construction company reports that should the weather continue as favorable as at present, the paving contract in this city will be completed by Dec. 1. The cost of the job is about $400,000, and about fifty city blocks are being paved with bithulithic.

Grand Forks, N. D.—The North Dakota Radio association will hold its annual convention in Science hall at the university next Friday and Saturday.

MINNESOTA BRIEFS

St. Cloud—The largest bazar ever held by the St. John's Cantinus parish opened Monday night at the St. John's hall and will continue for three nights.

Redwood Falls—M. C. Helm of Fairport Harbor, Ohio, formerly superintendent of schools here, has been appointed director of education in Peru and will leave for his new field of labor in January.

Morris—Miss Irene Labree, county public health nurse, narrowly escaped death when the car she was riding in gave a sudden lurch and tipped over about four miles from Morris. Miss Labree was unhurt.

Barnesville—M. Schwartz, former resident of Kenmare, N. D., died at Barnesville last week. He was one of the early settlers of Ward county, N. D.

Stillwater—Leo Bryant of Houlton, Wis., appeared in municipal court here Monday and pleaded guilty to the charge of driving an automobile while in an intoxicated condition through the business steets of Stillwater. He was fined $25 and costs by Judge O. E. Lee, which he paid before leaving the city hall.

Crookston—Funeral services for Joseph Hattlestad, son of Mrs. and Mrs. J. E. Hattlestad of Fertile were held Tuesday afternoon at 1 o'clock at Maple Bay. Relatives from this city attended as well as the members of the American Legion from Fertile.

St. Cloud—Charles Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. R. Moore, who is attending the University of Wisconsin, has been chosen as a delegate to attend the inter-fraternity council, which will be held at New York on Nov. 25 to 28. Mr. Moore will leave from Madison on his way to New York tomorrow.

Pequot—W. E. Barnard of Pequot was high man at the local creamery, receiving a cream check for October amounting to $140.61. Twenty-eight other farmers received varying amounts $40.11 to $97.15.

Brainerd—Hope hose company No. 1 will give its thirty-eighth ball at Gardner auditorium on Thanksgiving night. The Blue Ribbon orchestra will play.

Albert Lea—Haldor Knatvold and Ben Rieke are back from their week's sojourn in the northern woods where they went in quest of big game. They brought home one of the largest bucks ever bagged by a local hunter. They hunted north of Two Harbors in Lake county.

PENINSULA BRIEFS

Marquette—Funeral services were held here Tuesday for Eugene Longpre, 78, former resident of Limestone, Mich., who died here Sunday at the home of his son, Edward.

Escanaba—John Sloger, proprietor of a saloon here, was held by Judge C. D. McEwen to await action of the circuit court on four charges of selling liquor. Bonds were fixed at $2,000 and Sloger, unable to procure guarantees in that sum, returned to the county jail.

Negaunee—Rev. Luciano Zampa has arrived in the city from Italy and will be assistant to the Rev. Joseph E. Dittman, pastor of St. Paul's church.

Ishpeming—Chief John Lacey and members of the Ishpeming fire department expect that one of the largest crowds that has ever attended the department's annual ball will be on hand tonight at the thirty-second annual ball. It will be held in the Ishpeming theater.

Marquette—Roy Crawford, aged 16, has enlisted in the United States navy. His mother, Mrs. F. J. Crawford, was greatly surprised and shocked when she received a letter from him, sent from Norfolk, Va., informing her that he is now a gob.

Calumet—The Kivela clothing store on Fifth street was entered about 6 o'clock Sunday evening and stock valued at $140 was taken. The cash register also was rifled and $7 in change was stolen.

Houghton—Solomon Kirkish of Houghton is in St. Joseph's hospital with three bad scalp wounds and the loss of blood as the result of an accident on the county bridge last week.

Ripley—Daniel Dowd, Jr., and his brother, Thomas, of Ripley returned from a hunting trip at Ontonagon, where Daniel shot a 210-pound buck and Thomas shot a 130-pound doe.

Lake Linden—The Radio club has been organized in the Lake Linden high school. It has been formed to study wireless and to make use of the equipment provided last year. About twenty boys have already joined the club.

Houghton—The Houghton County Farm bureau was formed here. The officers selected were: President, John R. Frent of Lake Linden; vice president, Leonard Christofferson of Bootjack; members of executive committee for two years, Andrew Rliki, Charles A. Trestl and John Koskella; for three years, John Jacobson, William Larson and August Nordine.

WISCONSIN BRIEFS

Washburn—The following bids were received for the Onion river bridge to be built on State Trunk Highway No. 13 on the Bayfield road: Forsyth Construction company, $7,200; Guaranty Construction company, $10,420; Worden Allen company, $7,980. The contract was let to the Forsyth Construction company, they being the lowest bidder, subject to action of the county board.

Mellen—Funeral services were held here for John Lundquist, well known Mellen resident who died at his home Sunday night, following a long illness. He was a patient at the Ashland general hospital, last spring, where he was operated on for cancer of the stomach. He was in the employ of the Foster-Latimer Lumber company of Mellen for fifteen years, and of the John Schroeder Lumber company of Ashland, for the past few years, as an expert mechanic.

Ashland—Thomas Bardon and John H. Burch left for Wausau to attend the funeral of D. L. Plumer, who died Sunday morning at his home. Mr. Plumer was well known here, having been connected with the Northern Chief Iron company as its president. He was also president of the First National bank of Wausau. Mr. Bardon is now the sole survivor of the original board of directors of the Northern Chief Iron company.

Mellen—The Drake hotel of Mellen one of the pioneer buildings here, was destroyed by fire Sunday night. The building was insured for $3,000 but the probable loss is between $8,000 and $10,000. The building was built originally, by the Penokee Lumber company of Morse, which was a thriving town long before Mellen thrived.

Madison — Officers' correspondence schools have been started in Wisconsin under the direction of Lieut.-Col. Collin H. Ball, senior inspector for the National Guard in this district, it was announced by the adjutant-general. All commissioned personnel are required to take part in the work. Study of map construction and reading will begin immediately, it is said.

The Housewifes Burden

When a woman is almost distracted from overwork, her home is in disorder, crying children, and on top of all is suffering from backache, bearing down pains, or some other form of feminine ills, then she should remember that hundreds of women in just her condition have been restored to health and regained their youthful strength by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and not rest until she has given it a fair trial.

Proof that it Restored the Health of These Two Women

Cairo, Ill.—"Some time ago I got so bad with female trouble that I thought I would have to be operated on. I had a bad displacement. My right side would pain me and I was so nervous I could not hold a glass of water. Many times I would have to stop my work and sit down or I would fall on the floor in a faint. I consulted several doctors and every one told me the same but I kept fighting to keep from having the operation. I had read so many times of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it helped my sister so I began taking it. I have never felt better than I have since then and I am able to do all my work. The Vegetable Compound is certainly one grand medicine."—Mrs. J. R. MATTHEWS, 3311 Sycamore Street, Cairo, Ill.

Chattanooga, Tenn.—"I used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before my baby came when I could no longer keep up. It strengthened my back and relieved me of the ill effect which so often develops at such times. That was my first experience with the Vegetable Compound. Years afterwards I took it during the Change of Life and got along so well I scarcely ever had to lie down during the day and seldom had dizzy, fainting spells. I am now well and strong, can do all my housework with perfect ease and it is a comfort to me to be able to say to other suffering women 'take Lydia E. Pinkham's medicine and be strong.' I will be glad to have you use my name if it will be the means of helping any one."—Mrs. R. A. FAIRBURN, 606 Orchard Knob Ave., Chattanooga, Tenn.

SIOUX FALLS TO PLAY MITCHELL

High School Championship of Three States Hangs on Game.

Sioux Falls, S. D., Nov. 24.—The 1920 high school football championship of South Dakota, Iowa and Nebraska will be decided here tomorrow when Sioux Falls and Mitchell teams meet in their annual game.

Invading enemy territory, Sioux Falls high school four weeks ago defeated Sioux City by a decisive score and made possible the acquisition of the tri-state football title by a South Dakota high school team for the first time since 1917. Previously, Sioux Falls had won over Central high of Omaha, champions of Nebraska.

Mitchell and Sioux Falls high have clean slates for the season, neither team having lost a game and between the two elevens, all other contenders for the South Dakota title have been eliminated. Early in the season, Sioux Falls visited the Black Hills and won over Rapid City, champions of that part of the state.

Regarding the strength of the opposing teams, comparative score figures give Mitchell the advantage. Both elevens have developed powerful scoring machines with the Soos' offensive machine being built around quarterback McDowell and Mitchell depending on Fullback Scallin, a four-letter man for their greatest gains.

Sioux Falls captured the 1919 high school football championship by defeating Mitchell 6 to 0 in the Thanksgiving day game on the local field. Conditions now are similar to those of last year and followers of high school football anticipate a thrill when the elevens meet in the all-important contest tomorrow.

Back in 1917, Sioux Falls high by defeating Sioux City, champions of Iowa and eliminating all other South Dakota teams, paved its way to a tri-state championship tilt with Central high school of Omaha, but the Nebraska eleven was far superior and in the game played here, Sioux Falls was decisively defeated.

BASKET BALL MEN WILL TAKE FLOOR

Minnesota Colleges Preparing for Active Winter Sports Season.

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 24.—Football harnesses have been hung up by all the Minnesota conference colleges with the exception of Carleton which closes its season tomorrow, and the abbreviated basket ball clothing is being brought out.

With the exception of the Hamline five, the prospects of the several teams in the conference are of the "dark horse" variety. Hamline is virtually assured of the same men who were tied for the state title with Carleton last year. Kobs and Kratz at forward, Gainey and Burns at guards, and Ernest Hanson, who is expected to enter Hamline next term, was last year's center.

At St. Olaf and St. John's the basket ball men have been working out for more than a week with large squads. Coaches at these two institutions have not cut their squads yet and will not have a definite line on first string material for a week, according to their announcements.

St. Thomas has several veterans of last season's squad in school this year some of whom already have reported to the basket ball coach.

Macalester, though handicapped by lack of basket ball training quarters, will have a team in the field, it is announced.

PRINCETON TO DECLINE CALIFORNIA INVITATION

Princeton, N. J., Nov. 24.—Definite announcement that the Princeton university football team would decline an invitation to play a game in California on New Year's day was made yesterday by the board of athletic control. The board reached its decision after receiving a recommendation from the football committee advising against acceptance and pointing out a number of reasons why the team should not make the trip.

OWNER OF TOLEDO BASEBALL CLUB IS SUED FOR DIVORCE

Roger Bresnahan, Former New York Giant, Now President of Toledo Club, Defending Court Action Started by His Wife.

ROGER BRESNAHAN.

New York, Nov. 24.—The divorce case of Mrs. Bresnahan took a sensational turn Friday when she declared her husband, Roger Bresnahan, introduced her to her first cocktail. Bresnahan is president of the Toledo baseball club and was formerly with the New York Giants.

In her petition Mrs. Bresnahan charges cruelty and neglect.

They were married in 1903, when Bresnahan was with the Giants, Mrs. Bresnahan said:

"For the first two years we went along lovely. We corresponded every day when he was on the road. I thought he was the best man in the world until 1905. Then he changed."

When she chided him for his neglect, Mrs. Bresnahan said, he told her she had everything she needed, and added, "what in hell more do you want, anyway—you have plenty to eat and lots to wear."

She accused her husband of being interested in other women.

When Bresnahan testified he said his wife would not have children.

"I wanted some babies," he told the jury. He said his wife refused to let him use the bathroom to bathe his broken leg in hot water and accused her of not permitting him to smoke around the house.

"I fixed up a den and hung some hunting pictures on the wall," he said, "but she tore them down. When I went to work in a nitrate plant during the war she called me a cur and a slacker."

Mrs. Bresnahan said when her husband worked at the nitrate plant he wanted her to get up and get his breakfast at 5 o'clock in the morning.

"He came home drunk and tore the pictures down," she said. "He threw souvenirs I had collected about the room. He wouldn't let me associate with wives of other ball players—said they were not good company for me. He often left me alone. He used to say he was going to his mother's. I followed him once. He went toward his mother's all right, but he didn't go in."

Mrs. Bresnahan wept repeatedly while she was on the stand. Mr. Bresnahan was cool. He admitted corresponding with a woman, but said the letters were not love letters.

Wins Decision.

Jacksonville, Ill., Nov. 24.—Al Baldwin, Jacksonville, had the best of a ten-round bout with Andy Williams, Chicago, at Beardstown last night, according to newspaper men. Baldwin forced the fighting throughout. Jimmy Ford, Milwaukee, knocked out Jimmy Lewis of San Francisco in the third round of a scheduled ten-round bout in the semi-windup.

Aldrich Yale Captain.

New Haven, Conn., Nov. 24.—Malcolm P. Aldrich of Fall River, Mass., last night was elected captain of the Yale football team for 1921. Norris B. Gaddess of Washington, D. C., was elected manager.

COMMENT ON SPORT

By SANDY MACDONALD.

When Jack Dempsey, world's champion boxer, and Georges Carpentier, heavyweight titleholder of Europe and light-heavyweight champion of the world, meet in their titular bout to be held some time in 1921 Dempsey will undoubtedly enter the ring a heavy odds-on favorite over his French opponent. The average fan believes that Carpentier is tailor-made for Dempsey and that the latter will knock him for a goal in the same brief time that it took to dispose of Willard, Fulton, Morris, Levinksy, Miske and the others. They honestly believe that when Dempsey feels that the battle has gone far enough to satisfy him, the champion will smite Georges on the button, the promoters will count up the house, turn off the lights and go home.

Dempsey Will Have to Step.

Dempsey may whip Carpentier. He may beat him into submission in three rounds or less; but from the records of the two men, their respective styles, their speed, their hitting power and their ability to give and take, it looks to us as if Dempsey is about to take part in the only real fight in which he has participated. Carpentier is the first fighter of real class, the first finished product of the boxing sport, that has ever signed to box Dempsey. No expert in the game of fistiana would ever compliment such oxen as Willard, Morris, Fulton and the others by calling them fighters. Nature never intended they should box. They would have made exceptional piano movers and the captaincy of a transfer van would surely have been their forte. They are as much out of place in the ring as Kid Soakum would be directing the Boston Symphony orchestra.

It took a class man to show up that galaxy of sod-busters, and Dempsey did the job with the glossy finish; but will Dempsey be able to walk across the ring and swat Carpentier with impuunity? Well, not so you would notice it. Dempsey will have to use caution all the way with the Frenchman, for the latter is certainly dangerous. He has exceptional speed, wonderful knowledge of ring science, tremendous hitting power, a fighting heart and is a fast, sharp thinker. There is just one thing in his disfavor and that is his weight. He will enter the ring about fourteen pounds lighter than Dempsey and, if the fight goes over seven rounds, this difference in poundage will certainly be much in Dempsey's favor.

Georges Has Good Record.

Removing all of the easy marks from Carpentier's record, he has met Gunboat Smith, Joe Beckett, Joe Jeanette, Bombardier Wells, Frank Klaus, Battling Levinsky, Harry and Willie Lewis and Jeff Smith. Not an easy row for any boxer to hoe, especially Joe Jeanette, who at the time Carpentier met him was one of the world's leading heavyweights and a better man than Willard, Fulton or Morris. Carpentier was only 20 years old when he fought the big negro. He floored him twice in the fifteen rounds that the mill went, but Jeanette got the decision on points. In America Carpentier would surely have got the decision. Carpentier was but 18 years old when he faced Billy Papke, the Illinois Thunderbolt and one of the toughest, roughest and hardest-hitting middleweights in the books. Papke got the decision in a seventeen-round bout.

Both Dempsey and Carpentier defeated Gunboat Smith, Jack knocking him out and Georges winning on a foul in the sixth round. Up to the time the bout came to an abrupt finish the Frenchman had Smith badly beaten. That was in 1914, when the Gunner was a real tough battler, better by far than he was four years later when he went down before Dempsey. Smith, just prior to losing to Carpentier, had defeated Sam Langford and was regarded as the king of the "white hope" crop that was blossoming at that time.

Unless all indications go awry, the Dempsey-Carpentier fight should prove to be one of the greatest in ring history. From a scientific and hitting standpoint it should prove a masterpiece. Anyone who has the notion that Dempsey is going to have easy sailing and be able to punch the Frenchman at will would do well to disabuse his mind of any such ideas, for Dempsey is surely going into the hardest, fastest fight of his career.

OHIO REFUSES BID FROM NOTRE DAME

South Bend, Ind., Nov. 24.—Coach Knute Rockne of the Notre Dame football team yesterday signified his willingness to meet Ohio State in a post-season game at Chicago to determine the Western football championship. Rockne said he had received an offer from a promoter for such a game.

Conference Bars More Games.

Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 24.—A post-season football game between Ohio State and Notre Dame will not be considered by Ohio State Athletic authorities, L. W. St. John, athletic director at the university, said last night. When notified of Coach Rockne's tentative approval of such a game, St. John said that it was not even a "remote possibility."

St. John pointed out that Western conference rules prohibit the playing of more than seven games in a season and said that no request for permission to play another game would be made.

OHIO WILLING TO PLAY COAST TEAM

Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 24.—Although he stated that a post-season football game between Ohio State and Notre Dame would not be considered, L. W. St. John, university athletic director, said that an invitation for a game at Pasadena, Cal., between Ohio State and some Western team would be received favorably, should it be extended, it was announced today.

JACK JOHNSON IN PRISON BOUT

Former Champion Reported Busy as Convict Athletic Trainer.

Chicago, Nov. 24.—Bound for Leavenworth, Kan., to fill a ten-round boxing engagement in the Federal prison, Gus Rhoades, Jack Johnson's nephew, left Chicago today with George Owens of New Orleans, a negro fighter of 235 pounds. The bout which will be held Thursday afternoon before the prisoners, is for the purpose of finding out exactly what the former champion's present condition is and to give him a thorough tryout.

Reports from the penitentiary have it that Johnson is engaged as athletic trainer for the prison and has aroused interest there in athletic work. He is said to be in good condition for his bout with Owens.

WET WEATHER BAD FOR DEER HUNTERS

Marinette, Wis., Nov. 24.—Sixteen inches of wet snow, followed by sleet storms and continued wet weather, have made the woods of this section almost untenable for deer hunters. Many of the season's hunters left for home yesterday without bagging any game. Unless cold weather sets in, the deer killing this year will be much less than any previous season, it is said.

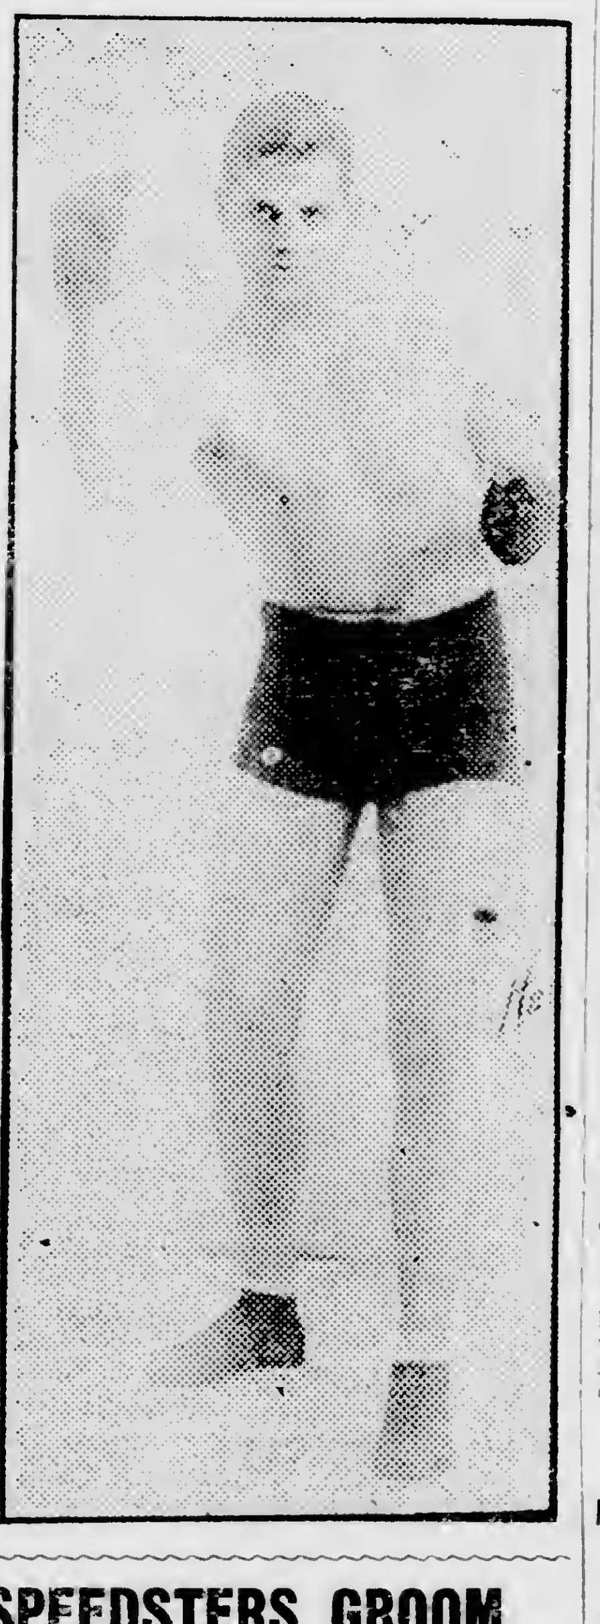
K. O. Bill Brennan, Who Has Signed to Box Jack Dempsey in New York, Was Knocked Out by the Champion in Six Rounds Before Milwaukee Club in 1918.



SPEEDSTERS GROOM PLANES FOR RACE

Mineola, N. Y., Nov. 24.—Airplane speedsters entered in the Pulitzer trophy race here tomorrow were busy today grooming their respective charges in preparation for one of the most important events in the history of aviation racing.

Brig.-Gen. William Mitchell, in charge of operations of the United States army air service, predicted many speed records would be broken. The favorite of the race, especially among army men, was the Verville-Packard 600-horse power plane, which will be piloted by Lieut. Corliss C. Mozley.

Lieut. MacReady, an entry with a German Fokker plane, whose machine suffered a broken wing yesterday at Buffalo in its flight from Dayton, Ohio, telegraphed his machine was being shipped and he hoped repairs could be made in time for him to enter the race.

TWO CHANGES IN BASKET BALL RULES

New York, Nov. 24.—Two important changes in the rules of the intercollegiate basket ball league were made public today. The first will permit a player who has been taken out of the game to be sent back later, provided he has not committed four personal fouls, which automatically disqualifies him for the entire game. The second provides that after a "held ball" beneath the basket, the ball will be brought out fifteen feet and tossed up.

PETE HERMAN MATCHED TO BOX JIMMY WILDE

New York, Nov. 24.—Pete Herman, world's bantamweight champion, will meet Jimmy Wilde, British flyweight, in London on Jan. 14, Samuel Goldman, Herman's manager, announced here yesterday. The American boxer and his manager sail for England Dec. 11.

WASHINGTON STATE TO MEET NEBRASKA

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 24.—Twenty-two football players from Pullman, Wash., representing the state college, arrived in Lincoln last night for the Thanksgiving day game with Nebraska. The Nebraska eleven will have the advantage in weight by a pronounced margin. Both teams will have a workout today.

BEMIDJI-FARIBAULT GAME NEXT FRIDAY

Bemidji, Minn., Nov. 24.—(Special to The Herald.)—The football game between the Faribault and the local high school, scheduled for tomorrow at Northrop field, Minneapolis, has been postponed until Friday as the Marine-All Star game is to be played tomorrow. Both the Faribault and the local teams have won undisputed titles in their respective sections and both are reported in fine form for what will be a championship game.

CAMERON CHOSEN TO LEAD ELEVEN

Cathedral High Football Players Hold Annual Banquet.

Dave Cameron, junior student at Cathedral high school, and one of the best halfbacks that appeared in the Head of the Lakes games this fall, was elected captain of the 1921 Cathedral eleven, at the annual banquet of the football players held last evening at Cathedral gym. McRae, quarterback, and Kelly center, were also nominated for the captaincy, the former getting 8 votes, the latter 5 and Cameron 17. Both McRae and Kelly are star performers, rating among the very best at the Head of the Lakes.

Thirteen members of the team were awarded letters, as follows: Cameron, Lynch, Gallagher, Murray, Bielli, Kelly, McGowan, Walsh, McNally, Weinberger, Cavanaugh, McRae and Sueck. Seven members of the team will be back next year.

The banquet was featured by short speeches delivered by Rev. William J. Powers, pastor of Sacred Heart Cathedral, Brother Matthew, athletic head at Cathedral, and by several of the team members.

KELLEY TURNS DOWN JOB WITH PHILLIES

Philadelphia, Nov. 24.—Mike Kelley of the St. Paul American association baseball team, having declined the managership of the Philadelphia Nationals, William F. Baker, president of the Phillies, said today he had several other men in mind to succeed Manager Cravath.

"The Phillies," said Baker, "are after a manager of experience. Kelley's refusal to come East has complicated things, but I have the names of several players in the National league and will take my time in picking a new manager."

John Henry (Honus) Wagner, athletic director at Carnegie Tech, and who played twenty-one seasons in the National league, was among the applicants.

"COME ELEVEN."

Navy Adopts New Slogan for Annual Army Game Saturday.

Annapolis, Md., Nov. 24.—"Come eleven" is the latest slogan at the naval academy, but its popularity does not mean that the 2,000 or more middies have become addicted to "rolling the bones."

The figures are regarded as a "hunch" for the success of Navy over Army in Saturday's football game, because the series of games now stand eleven victories for Army, ten for Navy, and another Navy victory will place the teams on an even basis.

PLAN INDOOR FOOTBALL.

Armory Drill Hall Almost as Good as Regulation Field.

Philadelphia, Nov. 24.—Philadelphia this winter is to have a season of indoor football with night games, according to an announcement today by Joseph P. Maguire, manager of the second city troop eleven. The games will be played in the drill hall of the new cavalry armory in West Philadelphia on an oval lacking only five yards of the regulation distance between the goal posts.

DARTMOUTH ELEVEN PLAYS AT SEATTLE

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 24.—Dartmouth college's football eleven was due here early today for its game Saturday with the University of Washington squad, the occasion marking the formal dedication of "Washington Field," the new horseshoe shaped stadium. The new stadium will seat 60,000 persons and advance sales indicate it will be filled.

The Herald prints today's news today.

FOOTBALL TEAMS TO PLAY SUNDAY

Superior and Duluth Pro-Elevens Will Contest at Hislop Park.

The Duluth City football team will play Superior at Hislop park, across the bay, next Sunday, if the weather permits. This announcement was made this morning by Manager Art Olson of the Superior eleven who stated that the condition of the field was such as to forbid play there tomorrow, one of the several dates that had been set for the contest.

The teams have had a difficult time in their efforts to stage a second game of a series of three contests arranged in October, bad weather causing several postponements, the last one last Sunday when the teams were booked to battle in Superior but were prevented by a full-grown blizzard.

While the football season, professional and amateur, is over in the North country, the fans are anxious to see just one more struggle between Duluth and Superior and have faithfully kept the old fires burning in the hope that the weather man will be kind.

Manager Olson of the Superior eleven stated this morning that a crew of men will be placed at work in Hislop park tomorrow putting the gridiron in shape for play and that all other arrangements for the game will be made. The Duluth team is still intact and Superior will assemble her players this evening.

BOBBY WARD TO FIGHT SCHAUER

Twin City Lightweights Will Meet in St. Paul Next Month.

The morning mail brings in a breezy letter from Mike McNulty of St. Paul, one of the best known managers of boxers in the Northwest, in which he states his lightweight, Johnny Schauer, has been matched to box Bobby Ward of St. Paul on Dec 17 before the St. Paul Boxing club. The bout will headline a classy card which Promoter Jack Reddy is framing.

For the reason that there has been much dispute among the Twin City fans as to whether Ward or Schauer is the better man, betting on the mill will be lively, in fact has already started, according to McNulty's letter.

Mike says that he is anxious to match Billy Emke, his middleweight, against Tony Machefts on the next Duluth bill, stating that, in spite of the fact that Machefts was awarded a decision over Emke at Hibbing last week, the latter can defeat the range policeman. Mike says Emke broke his right hand in the Hibbing fight and under that handicap was unable to show to his best advantage. He says it was a great fight.

Range promoters are planning on matching Machefts with Jack Clifford, a heavyweight boxer that McNulty is piloting, and if the bout is sealed it will probably be staged before the American Legion post at Hibbing.

Ball Players in Circus.

Fort Worth, Tex., Nov. 24.—With Tris Speaker, Leslie Nunamaker and Roger Hornsby, major league baseball stars, sharing honors with broncho busters, and trick ropers from all over the United States, Ft. Worth's fall "Wild West" show opened here today.

Governors at Army-Navy Game.

New York, Nov. 24.—At least two governors will attend the Army-Navy football game here Saturday—Edwards of New Jersey and Ritchie of Maryland—it was announced today.

Horse Electrocuted.

Stockton, Cal., Nov. 24.—While nibbling at the foliage of fruit trees in front of a house, a horse belonging to a local fuel company was electrocuted yesterday. The animal, standing on wet ground, shoved his head into the leaves of the tree. A wire running through the branches lodged under the animal's tongue, resulting in death.

ON THE IRON RANGES

FAYAL MINER LOSES LIFE IN CAVE-IN

Eveleth, Minn., Nov. 24.—(Special to The Herald.) George Ignatla, miner, was crushed to death and Carl Schoultz hurt yesterday in an underground mine cave-in at the Fayal mine.

With several other men Ignatla was digging out ore on contract work and had just started the day's work when the accident happened. The others who were working with him were dug out with little injury, but it was not until about 3 o'clock in the afternoon that his body was uncovered. Ignatia was 24 years old and single. Schoultz is in a hospital and will recover. He has a wife and three children.

HIBBING CLUB TAKES $20,000 BONUS BONDS

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 24.—S. V. Saxby, secretary Hibbing Commercial club, today purchased $22,000 worth of bonus bonds from the state soldiers' bonus board with which to pay claims to ex-service men living in the village of Hibbing. The Commercial club of that village is co-operating with local banks in financing the claims of the ex-service men at that place and are in a position to take up the claims as rapidly as they are approved by the bonus board, Mr. Saxby said. It is proposed to purchase approximately $41,000 worth of these bonds.

The bonus board is speeding up work of paying soldiers' claims and they hope to have a large number of checks submitted to the ex-soldiers before Christmas, F. R. Cullen, executive clerk, today. The temporary setback caused by the removal of the bonus board department from the new capitol to the old capitol building has been overcome and the office routine is going forward at a rapid pace, Mr. Cullen said.

VIRGINIA GIVES $600 TO HIGHWAY BOOSTERS

Virginia, Minn., Nov. 24.—(Special to The Herald.) The city council last night indicated the gratification of this community over the successful campaign recently conducted by the Minnesota Highway association for the passage of Amendment No. 1, which assures hard roads in St. Louis county, by promptly voting the state organization $600 to help make up a deficit of $22,000.

DON'T FUSS WITH MUSTARD PLASTERS!

Musterole Works Without the Blister—Easier, Quicker

There's no sense in mixing a mess of mustard, flour and water when you can easily relieve pain, soreness or stiffness with a little clean, white Musterole.

Musterole is made of pure oil of mustard and other helpful ingredients, combined in the form of the present white ointment. It takes the place of mustard plasters, and will not blister.

Musterole usually gives prompt relief from sore throat, bronchitis, tonsilitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, headache, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frosted feet, colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia).

35c and 65c jars; hospital size $3.00.

MUSTEROLE WILL NOT BLISTER

Stiff Joints Sore Muscles

Smoothed Out By Hamlin's Wizard Oil

Soreness and stiffness resulting from unaccustomed use of muscles or too much exercise, such as tennis, baseball, golf, handball, etc., give way quickly to the soothing effect of Hamlin's Wizard Oil. It penetrates fast, drives out the soreness, and limbers up stiff, aching joints and muscles.

Hamlin's Wizard Oil is a good, dependable preparation to have in the medicine chest for first aid when the doctor may be far away. It is an absolutely reliable antiseptic application for cuts, burns, bites and stings. Sprains and bruises heal rapidly under its soothing, penetrating qualities. Keep it on hand.

Generous size bottle 35c.

If you are troubled with constipation or sick headache try Hamlin's Wizard Liver Whips. Just pleasant little pink pills at druggists for 30c.

STREET VACATION HEARING PUT OVER

Virginia, Minn., Nov. 24.—(Special to The Herald.)—Consideration of the petition of the board of education, for the vacating of Third street south, between Fifth and Sixth avenues, was taken up by the city council last night, but as only a few of the parties interested were present it was decided to continue the hearing for another week.

From present indications, it is evident that the petition will go by default, unless the parties interested in seeing the street closed, take steps to present their arguments to the council. Last night the property owners of the west end of Third street, who are opposing the closing of the street were out in force, with Attorney E. L. Boyle as spokesman. The board of education was represented by Attorney W. J. Archer, who asked that the hearing be continued, in the hope that at another meeting, a settlement could be reached which would be agreeable to all parties concerned. With only one side showing sufficient interest to appear, it is believed the council will be forced to give its verdict to that side.

Attorney Boyle presented a plat of the Rainy Lake mill end of the city, showing the district is hemmed in by mill, mill yard and Silver lake, with only Third street as a straight entrance. He showed that both Second and Fourth streets are practically blind streets, making Third street of great importance. He also submitted figures of a census taken by students showing Second and Fourth streets used by the school children to almost as great a degree as the block in question. He was supported by A D Heritage and fifteen other property owners of that district.

VIRGINIA NOTES.

Virginia, Minn., Nov. 24.—(Special to The Herald.)—Special Thanksgiving services will be held in the Episcopal, the Scandinavian Mission, the M. E. and various other churches tomorrow.

Mr. and Mrs. Reid of Cleveland arrived yesterday to visit at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Coates, of South Fifth avenue west.

Little Miss Ruth Bodas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nick Bodas of First street north, entertained a number of her young friends at a party in honor of her seventh birthday.

Mrs. M. Shean, formerly Miss Marie Toman, was surprised by a number of her friends at a party given at the home of Mrs. Frank Elliot of Twelfth street south, Tuesday evening.

Announcements are issued for the wedding of Miss Vivian Newgard and Ernest Harold Isaacson, to take place in Gilbert on Saturday, Nov. 27. Miss Newgard was employed here for several years and recently began work in Gilbert.

George Bakalyar, T. H. Tomlinson and C. F. Lamburg of Duluth are spending a few days in the city.

Rev. and Mrs. J. J. Lorentz were honor guests at a surprise party Tuesday evening tendered them by members and friends of the Norwegian M. E. church.

Nashwauk School Notes.

Nashwauk, Minn., Nov. 24.—(Special to The Herald.)—The Alumni association of the Nashwauk high school had a meeting and discussed things of interest to the local association. A committee was appointed on a holiday dance for Tuesday, Dec. 28. Lydia Meyers was appointed chairman of the committee and the other members are Horace Dodson, Lynn Miller, Russell Trythall and Walter Johnston. The Nashwauk high school auditorium may be obtained for this affair. Classes in first aid for women will be started in the Nashwauk night school if enough women apply so that it will be worth while to form such a class. Instruction in the use of the public library is being given the night school classes by Miss Margaret Gilpin, local librarian.

Eveleth R. C. Headquarters.

Eveleth, Minn., Nov. 24.—(Special to The Herald.)—To bring the annual membership campaign of the Red Cross to a more successful conclusion, headquarters have been opened in the building which is to be occupied by the Finch drug store on Grant avenue and Jones street, with Harry L. Burns, who acted as war work secretary in Eveleth during the war, in charge.

Miller's Antiseptic Oil, Known as

Snake Oil

Will Positively Relieve Pain in a Few Minutes

Try it right now for Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Lumbago, sore, stiff and swollen joints, pain in the head, back and limbs, corns, bunions, etc. After one application pain usually disappears as if by magic.

A new remedy used externally for Coughs, Colds, Croup, Influenza, Sore Throat, Diphtheria and Tonsilitis.

This oil is conceded to be the most penetrating remedy known. Its prompt and immediate effect in relieving pain is due to the fact that it penetrates to the affected parts at once. As an illustration, pour ten drops on the thickest piece of sole leather and it will penetrate this substance through and through in three minutes.

Accept no substitute. This great oil is golden red color only. Manufactured by Herb Juice Medicine Co. only. Get it at Lyceum Pharmacy.

BIG EATERS GET KIDNEY TROUBLE

Take Salts at First Sign of Bladder Irritation or Backache.

The American men and women must guard constantly against kidney trouble, because we eat too much and all our food is rich. Our blood is filled with uric acid which the kidneys strive to filter out. They weaken from overwork, become sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and the result is kidney trouble, bladder weakness and a general decline in health.

When your kidneys feel like lumps of lead; your back hurts or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment or you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night; if you suffer with sick headache or dizzy, nervous spells, acid stomach, or you have rheumatism when the weather is bad, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys; to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure, makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water beverage, and belongs in every home, because nobody can make a mistake by having a good kidney flushing any time.—Advertisement.

MAPLE HILLER HIT BY STRAY BULLET

Hibbing, Minn., Nov. 24.—(Special to The Herald.)—John Knutl, Maple Hill farmer, shot through the thigh by a stray bullet while walking on a road, is reported getting along nicely, but efforts to find out who the reckless nimrod was have failed. This is the only accident of importance reported in this section. Game Warden Wood arrested a Hibbing man near Nashwauk for hunting on a game refuge, but his name and punishment have not been made public. Local nimrods report fair hunting luck.

KIWANIANS CONSIDER AMERICANIZATION WORK

Virginia, Minn., Nov. 24.—(Special to The Herald.)—At yesterday's Kiwanis club meeting Americanization work in the city was discussed from various angles by Miss Teckla Johnson, in charge of the work in the public schools, Mrs. L. W. Gade, who told of the work of the Virginia missions, and Miss Anna Takkanen, who read a paper describing her social and Americanization work with the Oliver Iron Mining company.

Ladies' night was postponed from Dec. 2 to Dec. 9. The following committee will take charge of the program: A. D. Heritage, chairman; Dr. A. C. Raymond, J. H. McInnis, Mayor W. M. Emple and B. D. Pearson. This meeting will take the place of the regular Tuesday meeting.

The attendance prize was presented by Fred Mott to Joe Karl.

UNION CHURCH MEET IN EVELETH THURSDAY

Eveleth, Minn., Nov. 24.—(Special to The Herald.)—Local schools closed this noon so that teachers living elsewhere could go home for Thanksgiving and will be reopened Monday. Banks, public buildings and business houses will be closed tomorrow. The Protestant churches of the city are to have union services at the Presbyterian church at 4:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. Rev. James G. Ward, rector of the Episcopal church, will have charge.

VIRGINIA COUNCIL NOTES

Virginia, Minn., Nov. 24.—(Special to The Herald.)—In reply to a letter from Eveleth, urging this city to get the end of the Virginia-Eveleth road in condition for use at the earliest possible moment, the clerk was instructed by the city council last night to notify the neighboring city that no steps will be taken at this time. J. Burt Pratt post, American Legion, thanked the council for making the Armistice day celebration a success. A letter from the state tax commission confirmed the former announcement that local property valuations are to be increased from 25 to 50 per cent. The clerk of the municipal court reported fines collected last week as $452.50.

The council committee reported that the committees from other city organizations showed a desire to ignore any property save the Oliver forty back of the detention hospital for an aviation field and indications are not bright for securing that. The councilmen suggested the state owned land just back of the Oliver ground, and also land on the Sand lake road, but received no report. Alderman Richards offered a government specification for an aviation field, which called for a piece of ground 3,000 feet long and from 1,500 to 2,000 feet wide. The Oliver land is not of sufficient size to meet these requirements. The committee was instructed to continue its work.

GILBERT MAN ATTACKS VERDICT AGAINST HIM

Virginia, Minn., Nov. 24.—(Special to The Herald.)—Motion for a new trial of the breach of promise case of Barbara Matekovich vs. George Mihelich was filed here today. The first trial resulted in a verdict of $6,000 damages for the plaintiff. A new trial is asked on the grounds of errors of law in the trial, objected to at that time, and "excessive damages appearing to have been given while under the influence of prejudice and passion." It is charged the verdict was not justified by the evidence and is contrary to law. The principals live at Gilbert, the plaintiff running a store, the defendant being a retired grocer.

HIBBING TO HONOR DEPARTING PRIEST

Hibbing, Minn., Nov. 24.—(Special to The Herald.)—Tonight at the McGolrick institute the people of Hibbing will pay honor to Father Hogan, who leaves on Friday morning for Brainerd. The Knights of Columbus arranged the reception in his honor and Father Hogan will be tendered a purse.

Last Sunday morning Father Hogan announced to his parishoners that the bishop of Duluth had appointed him to the parish at Brainerd.

Father Hogan began his work in this diocese at Duluth and was assistant in the cathedral parish until he was sent to Virginia. From Virginia he was sent to East Grand Forks and from there he came to Hibbing in the summer of 1911, succeeding Father Gamache as pastor of the Church of the Blessed Sacrament.

Father Hogan immediately started a movement to build a parish school which culminated in the purchase of an abandoned public school building which was removed from Center street near the Sellers pit to the present site. It was opened in the fall of 1912 by the Benedictine sisters, under the direction of Father Hogan, with a school attendance of 225 children. Upon the completion of the first year's work of the school its success was recognized and extensive improvements and additions have been made to the building.

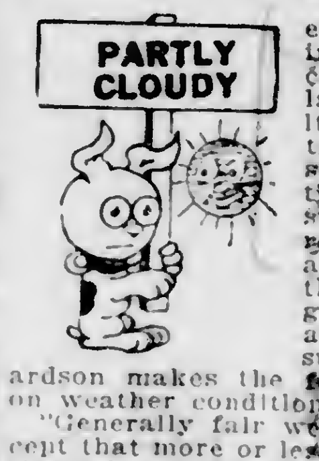
PARTLY CLOUDY



Pretty fine weather—eh, what? Helping to solve the coal problem to a large extent, too. If it keeps up like this there should be a surplus of coal on the docks next spring. The sun rose this morning at 7:42 and will set this evening at 4:25, giving nine hours and one minute of sunlight. Mr. Richardson makes the following comment on weather conditions:

"Generally fair weather prevails except that more or less rain or snow fell throughout the lake region, extreme Eastern Canada and North Atlantic states during Tuesday or last night in connection with the disturbance, which has advanced eastward to North Atlantic districts. Boston, Mass., reported 1.24 inches rain. An area of high pressure covers the central Rocky mountains and plains states. Another low pressure is developing over Alberta. The 24-hour temperature changes were generally unimportant except that a rather decided turn to colder has taken place over Texas. The winds in the lake region are mostly light this morning and from westerly directions."

General Forecasts.

Chicago, Nov. 24.—Forecasts for the twenty-four hours ending at 7 p. m. Thursday:

Minnesota—Generally fair tonight and Thursday; not much change in temperature.

Wisconsin—Generally fair tonight and Thursday, except somewhat unsettled in east and south portions tonight; not much change in temperature.

North Dakota—Fair tonight and Thursday; not much change in temperature.

Upper Lakes — Moderate variable winds, mostly west and northwest; cloudy weather tonight and Thursday.

LOCAL FORECAST

For Duluth and vicinity: Partly cloudy tonight and Thursday. Lowest temperature tonight near 20 deg. at Duluth, Superior and Two Harbors, and 5 to 18 deg. inland and on the iron ranges. Moderate winds, mostly westerly.

FAVOR M'EACHIN TO SUCCEED JOHN DWAN

Hibbing, Minn., Nov. 24.—(Special to The Herald.)—D. D. McEachin of Hibbing was unanimously indorsed for a place on the state agricultural board to fill the vacancy caused by the death of John Dwan of Two Harbors at a meeting of the St. Louis County Agricultural society here last night.

The following officers were elected: President, Con Kepple; secretary, R. L. Giffin; treasurer, D. D. McEachin.

These officers, together with Arthur Egge, T. J. Godfrey and G. H. Alexander, will compose the board of directors.

COLUMBIA PROFESSOR WILL SPEAK AT HIBBING

Hibbing, Minn., Nov. 24.—(Special to The Herald.)—Dr. Bradley Stoughton, secretary of the American Institute of Mining and Metallurgical Engineers, will speak to range members of the institute in the clubrooms of the local public library tonight after supper is served.

The proposed organization of local chapters of the institute on the range will be discussed.

Dr. Stoughton is a member of the faculty of Columbia university, New York.

PREDICTS MUCH LOGGING IN HIBBING TERRITORY

Hibbing, Minn., Nov. 24.—(Special to The Herald.)—Farmers and loggers in this district are more anxious than ever to comply with the slashing disposal law, according to D. L. McIntosh, forest ranger, now receiving reports from different individuals and companies who intend to log this winter. They will be notified that they must dispose of all pine, balsam and jack slashings within the specified time laid down by the law and must furnish complete descriptions of their camps and the timber to be cut.

Indications point to more loggers in the woods than last winter, Mr. McIntosh says, judging by the increased number of petitions from logging operators.

School Opening Delayed.

Eveleth, Minn., Nov. 24.—(Special to The Herald.)—The local board of education went to the Section 36 school yesterday and inspected the new building, which has been under construction the past few months, with the idea in mind of opening the school there next Monday. It was found, however, that some of the interior work is as yet unfinished and consequently it will not be ready for occupancy until about the first of January.

Evelethians Lose Money.

Eveleth, Minn., Nov. 24.—(Special to The Herald.)—Losing cash seems to be getting common here. Only two weeks ago Frank Giovaninni lost nearly $1,000 on his way to the bank, several smaller amounts have been lost since then and Miss Mabel Wright, clerk at the Eveleth candy kitchen, lost $80 in bills while going from one side of the street to another on Grant avenue between Jones and Pierce street, not more than ten minutes after she cashed a check for that amount.

Big Virginia Payment.

Virginia, Minn., Nov. 24.—(Special to The Herald.)—The city council last night passed a resolution calling for the payment of about $22,000 to the general fund from a special assessment next year for permanent improvements such as sidewalks, water and pavements, which have been financed by the general fund, and will be repaid by yearly payments by the property benefited.

Virginia Undertaker Marooned.

Virginia, Minn., Nov. 24.—E. F. Onkka, of a local undertaking firm, injured his foot while hunting near Markham and was unable to return to his camp, so he spent the night in the open air without much convenience. He reached camp the next morning and returned here with a fine buck.

Hibbing Footballist Honored.

Hibbing, Minn., Nov. 24.—Clarence Kleffman, Hibbing high school letter athlete, is one of fifteen members of the freshmen class at the University of Minnesota to gain his numerals. Kleffman won a sweater with the numerals "1924" as a result of his work as halfback on the freshmen football eleven.

Wants Northern Minnesota Game.

Hibbing, Minn., Nov. 24.—(Special to The Herald.)—St. Peter high school wants to play a Northern Minnesota football team to decide the state championship and prefers Hibbing or Bemidji, the claims of Faribault; Red Wing, Bemidji and Hibbing being disputed by the Southern Minnesota eleven, which has not been defeatd this winter.

Hibbing Quint Crippled.

Hibbing, Minn., Nov. 24.—(Special to The Herald.)—With a strained side, Dennis Murphy, former Buhl high school player and member of the junior college quint last year, has been unable to report for practice. Wilbur Quayle has injured a leg and Carl Ranta is still out with injuries to his ankle, sustained in football practice.

VAINLY DRAG LAKE FOR MISSING YOUTH

Soudan, Minn., Nov. 24.—(Special to The Herald.)—The search for Matt Stephan, local boy who disappeared a week ago yesterday while hunting in the Mud lake country about ten miles northeast of here when he became separated from his companions, continues but hope of ever finding him alive is growing less. Yesterday some men dragged Mud lake in the hope that at least his body might be found but without results. The search may continue for several days.

HERRING CATCH GOOD ALONG NORTH SHORE

Two Harbors, Minn., Nov. 24.—(Special to The Herald.)—With the return of freezing weather fishermen along the North Shore have taken up their winter work in the fish industry which promises to be a very successful one.

Fishermen claim that in their many years of experience in this business they have never found the herring to be so plentiful as now many of them lifting several tons each day. It is not expected that any great amount of the fish will be handled through here this year as the bulk of the business will be taken direct from the fishermen to Duluth by Duluth firms.

TWO HARBORS FOLKS AT DULUTH FUNERAL

Two Harbors, Minn., Nov. 24.—(Special to The Herald.)—Many Two Harbors people went to Duluth today to attend the funeral of Mrs. John Cable who died Saturday evening, following injuries received when hit by a truck.

Mrs. Cable was a former resident of this city, having resided here and at Fairbanks for many years prior to going to Duluth with her husband about one year ago. Besides her husband, she is survived by three sons of a former marriage: William Agnew of Two Harbors, Donald Agnew of Portland, Or., and Neal Agnew of Chicago.

ONLY ANOTHER WEEK'S D. & I. R. ORE SHIPPING

Two Harbors, Minn., Nov. 24.—(Special to The Herald.)—The ore business on the Duluth & Iron Range suffered a big falling off during the last twenty-four hours and indications are that another week will complete the shipping from this port for the season.

There is one boat due today and another tomorrow which will probably be almost the last for the season. Switch crews in the local ore yard were put back on an eight-hour-day yesterday after working much longer periods during the entire summer and other operating reductions indicate an early close of the summer business.

OLD RESIDENT OF TWO HARBORS BURIED

Two Harbors, Minn., Nov. 24.—(Special to The Herald.)—The funeral of Joseph Meyelt, old and respected resident of this city, who died at his home here Sunday, was held this morning from the Catholic church and interment was made in the Calvery cemetery. He had been ill for many months. Besides his wife and three daughters he is survived by one son, Joseph Meyett, who is now in France.

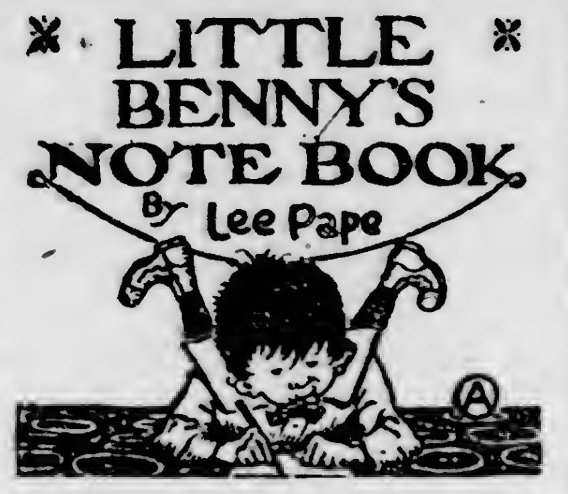
Visit Dying Husband.

Hibbing, Minn., Nov. 24.—(Special to The Herald.)—Mrs. Joseph Straccaccia was summoned to Stillwater on receipt of word that her husband, a convict in the penitentiary sentenced from another place, is dying. The woman was located here through State Parole Agent Whittier writing Mayor Power and the latter asking newspapers to find her.

ITCHING ECZEMA DRIED RIGHT UP WITH SULPHUR

Any breaking out of the skin, even fiery, itching eczema, can be quickly overcome by applying a little Mentho-Sulphur, says a noted skin specialist. Because of its germ-destroying properties, this sulphur preparation instantly brings ease from skin irritation, soothes and heals the eczema right up and leaves the skin clear and smooth.

It seldom fails to relieve the torment and disfigurement. Sufferers from skin trouble should get a little jar of Mentho-Sulphur from any good druggist and use it like a cold cream.—Advertisement.



FISH

A fish descends frum a meer raw egg
Like a insek and like a berd,
And it swims until the day it dies
Without utterring a werd.

Some fish, sutch as sourdeens, come completely serrounded by olive oil in cans, ony unfortunately they are ded and cant enjoy each others compinny or the oil either. Other fishes in oil never do enything but hang hed ferst in oil paintings on peeples dining room wall, proberly being more monotoniss for you to watch them there than wat it is for them to be there.

Fish eyes are round and dum
And their shape is genrelly slim.
And living in watter like they do,
Its lucky they all can swim.

The most bewtifill fishes are goldfishes and they also have the leest fun, on account of spending most of the timo looking out of aquarians waiting for peeple to stop forgetting to feed them. This proves bewty is ony skin deep. The leest bewtifill fishes are wales, ony they proberly dont realize it so it dont influence them eny.

To see them get frum place to place
Without a single leg,
Its hard to beleeve that every one
Was once a meer raw egg.

Woman Paralysis Victim.

Virginia, Minn., Nov. 24.—(Special to The Herald.)—Mrs. Nels Pajara died suddenly at her home in Field township last night of paralysis, aged 48. She is survived by her husband and one son. The funeral will be held Friday at the Unitarian church at Alango, and burial will be at Alango.

MARINE

ONE OF BEST SEASONS FOR PASSENGER LINES

Cleveland, Ohio, Nov. 24.—Passenger line steamers on the Great Lakes have had one of the best seasons in their history, according to D. C. McIntyre of the Detroit & Cleveland Navigating company. He predicted lower fares next season and a drop in freight rates. His company, he said, plans to erect an $800,000 terminal at Cleveland.

BUILDING IN OCTOBER; THIS YEAR MILLION AHEAD OF LAST YEAR

Estimated costs in the 147 building permits issued in October amounted to $153,120, according to the monthly report of Adolph Anderson, city building inspector. The total estimated amount of improvements for the month was $193,713, which includes $11,983 for plumbing work and $28,819 for plumbing work.

The total amount received in fees, including, besides those for improvement fees, signs, elevator installations, elevator licenses, meter tags, billboards and house moving permits, was $554.75.

A comparison of the amount of estimated improvements so far this year with those of the entire year show that this year's improvements exceed those of last year by almost $1,000,000. The total for 1919 amounted to $5,876,199, and for this year up to Oct. 1, it has amounted to $6,822,689.25, showing an increase of $946,490.25 for the ten months.

WISCONSIN NOW BOASTS SIX ARTILLERY BATTERIES

Madison, Wis., Nov. 24.—An artillery company has been recruited at Port Edwards and Nakoosa, ready to be mustered in within the next week or two, according to Adjt.-Gen. Orlando Holway. With this addition Wisconsin will have six batteries.

All but one of the artillery units of the state are concentrated in the central counties, it was stated. Morrill Stevens Point, Wisconsin Rapids, Port Edwards, and Antigo are exclusively artillery companies. La Crosse also has a battery.

The adjutant general announces that steel lockers are being shipped from Camp Douglas and will be supplied as equipment to all companies. The cavalry are being supplied first because of the greater amount of their paraphernalia.

OLD-TIME COLD CURE—DRINK TEA!

Get a small package of Hamburg Breast Tea at any pharmacy. Take a tablespoonful of this Hamburg Tea, put a cup of boiling water upon it, pour through a sieve and drink a teacupful at any time. It is the most effective way to break a cold and cure grip, as it opens the pores, relieving congestion. Also loosens the bowels, thus breaking a cold at once.

It is inexpensive and entirely vegetable, therefore harmless.—Advertisement.

Wheat Breaks Heavily on Fresh Selling; Flaxseed Again Turns Weak.

Duluth Board of Trade, Nov. 24.—The wheat market still showed weakness around the close. December spring wheat closed 7½c off at $1.51½ bid; March 7¼c off at $1.53¼; December winter 7½c off at $1.50½ nominal; December durum 8¼c off at $1.55 asked and March 8¾c off at $1.55¼.

Rye closed 3½c off at $1.46½ for spot; December 3½c off at $1.36½ asked and May 5½c off at $1.31 bid. Oats closed 1c off at 41@42c for spot and barley unchanged at 50@67c for spot.

Wheat prices broke heavily today with prices down a maximum of 8½c during the first two hours' trading. Yesterday's recovery was considered to have been the result of short covering, and not of any real demand, so that when fresh selling came this morning, there were no buying orders in the hands of operators to take care of it. In the absence of new support, it is predicted in some quarters that the market may recede to new low levels.

December spring wheat broke 8c to $1.51 at the noon hour and March 8½c to $1.52. December durum broke 8¼c at $1.55 and March 9c at $1.55.

Rye was also under pressure. December rye broke 3½c to $1.36½, and May 5½c at $1.31.

Operators in the grain markets are generally of the opinion that liquidation is practically over, and they look for prices being stabilized at around their present basis. It is claimed that the development of any better export demand would result in a general firming up in the markets, and the bringing about of moderate advances in quotations. There were on track here today 295 cars of all grains, including: Spring wheat, 30; durum, 176; winter wheat, 2; corn, 2; oats, 4; rye, 61; barley, 7; flax, 13. Minneapolis had 495 cars of wheat today, against 301 last year and Winnipeg 884 cars against 607 last year.

Flax Breaks Again.

Flaxseed market weakened in the absence of any bidding by crushers. Trading was light and was confined largely to pit operations and the evening up of accounts. Receipts showed a moderate falling off, but stocks in hand were reported to be burdensome in view of the curtailed demand for linseed oil. Final prices were above the lows of the day.

November flax closed 7½c off at $1.96½ nominal, December 7½c off at $1.96½ bid, January 7½c off at $1.99½ nominal and May 7@7½c off at $2.10@2.10½.

At Winnipeg, November flax closed 12c off at $1.90 and December 12c off at $1.88 bid. At Buenos Aires, December flax opened at $1.50½.

Earnings of the Shattuck-Arizona Copper company for the third quarter of this year were $456,476.56, while expenses, including milling and management, were $456,258.94, leaving a loss of $19,109.44 after making an allowance of $19,327.06 for depreciation of mill and equipment. Development work during the quarter included 1,750 feet of drifts, but it did not disclose any new ore of commercial value. Sinking operations in the main shaft have been completed to a depth of 1,139 feet. The company's lead concentrating mill closed down on Sept. 24 on account of scarcity of fuel oil. The ores milled during the quarter were reported of better value and larger returns per ton in copper, gold and silver were realized.

Philip L. Ray & Co., Duluth brokers, are offering on the market a $3,000,000, 8 per cent, ten-year gold note issue of the Avery company. The notes are a direct obligation of the company, and constitute its only funded indebtedness. Provisions is made for a sinking fund to retire at least $300,000 of the notes each year. The business of the Avery company was founded in 1877 for the manufacture of agricultural implements, including tractors.

Considerable durum and rye has been bought to arrive on the Duluth market during the last ten days and operators are looking for a more active movement from country points from now on up till the close of navigation.

Julius Barnes, former president of the United States Grain corporation, who was in Chicago yesterday said: "I think we have seen the worst of the liquidation in the grain security and commodity markets. I do not see anything especially bullish in the wheat situation, but the apprehension regarding the grain and commodity markets has plainly subsided. The export situation is healthy, sales running around 1,000,000 bu per day on the average. However, we have not as yet used up our exportable surplus, owing largely to the fact that domestic consumption is smaller than usual this season."

George P. (Bud) Harbison was given a send-off by his friends on the Duluth board of trade trading floor today on the occasion of his approaching marriage. He was decorated with a dog collar and harness to which was attached a cow bell. The key to the harness was thrown away into the alley, forcing the grain man to wear it during the day's market session. The involuntary ringing of the cow bell with every movement served to afford amusement to the other operators in the pit. It was also intimated that "Bud" experienced difficulty in obtaining his marriage license through technicalities that had been thrown in the way. The boys on the floor enjoyed a box of apples at his expense.

Russell's News, New York, wired, "Wheat sales in the last three days were 3,000,000 bu. It is slow today. Gulf is stronger at 21c over. English cables say buyers are waiting for offers to come more freely. They might be back any day."

Broomhall cabled: "Foreign crops are generally favorable. In the United Kingdom the reduction of wheat prices by the wheat commission is expected shortly. Merchants here are able to offer at prices below the official rates. Arrivals of wheat are small."

The steamer Sarnian arrived in South Chicago yesterday with a cargo of wheat from Port Arthur.

Bartlett-Frazier company wired from Chicago: "An overnight analysis of yesterday's wheat market leads us to the conclusion that the upturn recorded was more a natural reaction than anything bullish in the situation. With the holiday tomorrow it was only natural that there should be some evening up of open interests, besides which the decline had been unusually drastic. Export business yesterday was in the neighborhood of 750,000 bu, but there still seems to be plenty to go round. While general conditions look a little brighter for the moment, we cannot be led to believe that there is going to be any bullish speculation in anything. A money situation as black as it was painted last week cannot be adjusted in so short a space of time."

CHICAGO MARKET.

Chicago, Nov. 24.—Acute fresh weakness developed in the wheat market today. There was a general rush to sell, and a nearly complete lack of support. Reports of distress in the flour trade at Philadelphia formed the chief bearish influence.

It was said Philadelphia merchants had on hand 300,000 barrels of flour for which there was no demand. Downturns in stocks and cotton tended further to unsettle confidence. Opening prices, which ranged from 1c to 4¾c lower, with December $1.64 to $1.67 and March $1.59½ to $1.62, were followed by sharp additional breaks.

Downward swings were accelerated by heavy offerings ascribed to a leading New York trader. On the break export business took on large proportions. The close was unsettled, 7¾c to 9¼c net lower, with December $1.59½ to $1.60¼ and March $1.54¾ to $1.55.

Corn gave way with wheat. After opening unchanged to 1⅜c lower, including May at 72½c to 73¾c, the market underwent a material setback all around.

Subsequently purchasing on the part of elevator interests rallied the market somewhat. Prices closed nervous, 2⅛c to 2½c net lower, with May 71⅜c to 71½c.

Oats were depressed by the depression of other grain, starting unchanged to ⅝c lower, May 49¼c to 49½c, and then undergoing a general sag.

Lower quotations on hogs and cereals forced provisions downgrade.

MINNEAPOLIS MARKET.

Minneapolis, Minn., Nov. 24.—Buyers failed to follow the upturn of yesterday and wheat had a severe setback today. Export buyers backed away on the bulge, flour buyers refused to follow and speculative buyers were unable to carry on the advance. December wheat opened practically unchanged but soon turned lower and finally sold 9¼@½c under yesterday's close. March had a ragged start, sales ⅞c up to ⅝c down and followed the near delivery later with a break of 9⅝c from last close.

Early demand for cash wheat was good with some sales of choice at 1@2c better prices.

Rye led the other market in weakness, December dropping 5c and May 3c. Oats sold down on scattered hedging and liquidation and barely declined 2½c. Hedging and liquidation sent flax futures down 9@9½c. Support failed in corn also and futures opened weak and broke sharply.

Wheat—Receipts, 495 cars compared with 301 cars a year ago.

Cash: Wheat—No. 1 dark northern, $1.59¾@1.66½; No. 2, $1.56@1.61¾; No. 3, $1.48¾@1.58; No. 4, $1.38½@1.56½; No. 5, $1.29@1.41½; No. 1 northern spring, $1.60¾; No. 3, $1.46½; No. 1 dark hard winter, $1.58½@1.67⅝; No. 2, $1.54¼@1.60½; No. 2 amber durum, $1.61@1.62½; No. 3, $1.62½; No. 1 mixed durum, $1.56@1.67; No. 2, $1.58@1.63½; No. 3, $1.56; No. 1 mixed wheat, $1.62½@1.63. Atlantic Gulf Forced Down Almost Ten Points—Close Irregular.

New York, Nov. 24.—Gains and losses were quite evenly distributed at the uncertain opening of today's stock market, but the trend became distinctly downward within the first half hour. Shippings, steels, equipments and oils were the principal features of weakness. United Friut lost 2¾ points, Atlantic Gulf 3½, Crucible Steel 2½, Mexican Petroleum 1¾, and Royal Dutch 1 point. United States Rubber, Corn Products, Baldwin Locomotive and Studebaker also fell back. New Haven recovered part of yesterday's severe loss and Louisville & Nashville, Pittsburgh and West Virginia, American Telephone and Sinclair Oil were firm to strong.

Although tomorrow's holiday caused a marked curtailment of operations, the market showed extended recessions. Shippings, steels and oils offered the least resistance to pressure. United Fruit falling 5 points, Atlantic Gulf 4, Crucible 4½ and Bethlehem and Sloss-Sheffield 2 each. Mexican Petroleum lost almost 4 points, Houston Oil 2¾ and equipments eased 1 to 2½ points with specialties such as American Sugar, Sumatra Tobacco, Industrial Alcohol, Famous Players and Sears-Roebuck. The heavier rails included Atlantic Coast Line, Northern Pacific Southern Pacific and Reading, which fell 1 to 2 points. Call money repeated yesterday's initial rate of 6 per cent.

Moderate buying of secondary rails, except Texas Pacific, which broke 3½ points, was the only striking feature of the intermediate period. Mexican Petroleum rallied 1½ points, but other leaders made only nominal recoveries from their low quotations of the morning.

Rails, steels and equipments were inclined to improve, but fell back later when pressure against Atlantic Gulf forced that stock down almost 10 points. The closing was irregular.

Liberty bonds: 3½s, $92.60; first 4s, $87.20 bid; second 4s, $87.30; first 4¼s, $8.70; second 4¼s, 86.96; third 4¼s, $89.30; fourth 4¼s, $87.40; Victory 3¾s, $96.00; Victory 4¾s, $96.00.

PAVED WAY FOR U. S TO RECOGNIZE MEXICO

© HARRIS-EWING

ROBERTO V. PESQUEIRA.

As confidential agent of Provisional President Huerta, Roberto V. Pesqueira has paved the way for the early recognition of the present Mexican government by the United States. This action has been predicted by Secretary of State Colby. In a letter to Mr. Colby, Senor Pesqueira pledges President Huerta and President-elect Obregon will meet all obligations and will establish a national program in Mexico based on order and justice.

New York Cotton.

New York, Nov. 24.—Cotton—Futures closed barely steady; December, 16.80; January, 16.45; March, 16.34; May, 16.25; July, 16.10.

South St. Paul Livestock.

South St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 24.—Cattle—Receipts, 7,500; market mostly 25c higher; spots, more; common and medium beef steers, $6.00@8.00; few higher; butcher cows and heifers mostly $4.25@6.50; some up to $7.00; canners, $2.25@3.00; cutters, $3.00@4.00; veal calves mostly 50c lower; top, $11.50; good and choice stockers and feeders strong to 25c higher; medium and common kinds 25c to 50c higher; country demand improving.

Hogs—Receipts, 21,000; market about 60c lower; range, $8.75@9.30; bulk, $9.20@9.30; god pigs, $9.00@9.25; choice light lights, $9.40@9.50.

Sheep—Receipts, 1,500; steady; no choice lambs here; bulk fair to good kind at $9.75; top ewes, $4.00.

EASIER TONE IN COPPER STOCKS

While the tendency was easier in the mining stocks market at New York today, price changes were only fractional. Anaconda sold around the close unchanged at $41.12; Chino, unchanged at $20.87; Great Northern Ore, 25c up at $31.75; Inspiration, 37c off at $34.25, Kennecott, a shade up at $19.62, and Utah 87c off at $52.12.

* * *

A New York wire said: "The failure of the copper market to show some improvement is a source of worry to the producer. It is generally agreed that there is little hope of either domestic or foreign demand picking up during the remainder of the year."

* * *

A New York wire to Robinson-Macaulay company said: "Bear interests are paying no attention to easier money conditions or to continued improvement in sterling exchange. Rumors that aside from General Motors common stock other holdings that have been hanging over the market may be expected to be liquidated any time. Announcement of Southern Pacific bonus plan is said to be near at hand."

ORDER TO EXAMINE FINAL ACCOUNT—
State of Minnesota,
County of St. Louis—ss.

In Probate Court. In the Matter of the Estate of Edward A. Little, Decedent.

The Petition of Amanda M. Little and Isaiah F. Sears as representative of the above named decedent, together with their final account of the administration of said estate, having been filed in this court, representing, among other things, that they have fully administered said estate, and praying that said final account of said administration be examined, adjusted and allowed by the Court, and that the Court make and enter its final decree of distribution of the residue of the estate of said decedent to the persons entitled thereto, and for the discharge of the representatives and the sureties on their bond. It is ordered, That said petition be heard, and said final account examined, adjusted, and if correct, allowed by the Court, at the Probate Court rooms, in the Court House, in the City of Duluth, in said County, on Monday, the 13th day of December, 1920, at 10 o'clock A. M., and all persons interested in said hearing and in said matter are hereby cited and required at said time and place to show cause, if any there be, why said petition should not be granted. Ordered further, That this order be served by publication in The Duluth Herald according to law.

Dated at Duluth, Minn., November 16th, 1920.

By the Court, CLARENCE B. WEBSTER,
Judge of Probate of Itasca County.

FOUR OR MORE KILLED BY BOILER EXPLOSION

Madison, Wis., Nov. 24.—Three men and one woman were killed in a boiler explosion in the condensary plant of the Stoughton Marketing company at Stoughton, Wis., today, according to advices from there. The dead are:

BENNETT MARVIN, Cooksville, farmer.

G. E. FERGUSON, Wauwatosa, insurance man.

O GRAVES, Stoughton.

MRS. SAM KRUEGER, wife of a Stoughton harness merchant.

They were killed instantly, their bodies being blown a block away and horribly mutilated.

Five Reported Dead.

Janesville, Wis., Nov. 24.—Reports received here indicated that the following persons are dead as a result of the explosion at Stoughton:

Emmet Marvin, Stoughton; O. Graves, Stoughton; Wilmar Nicholas, Stoughton; unidentified woman, Stoughton, and George Ferguson, insurance agent, supposed to be from Janesville but not identified here.

INDIANS ROLL IN LUXURY.

Harpers: The Osage Indians are in danger of becoming so rich they will wipe themselves out of existence. The tribe numbers a few over 2,000, and they occupy a territory given them by the government in Oklahoma. When they were moved there from Kansas a few years ago, their income was $40 a year for each person from the government, and what they could wrest from a rocky soil. Oil was discovered in 1915, and wealth began to pour in. The Indians received one-sixth of each well and all the money for leases. This money was pooled and divided among the individual tribe members.

Figuring four to the family, the Indians are now getting $10,000 a year income for each family. An orgy of spending has resulted, and they are buying everything from motor hearses as pleasure cars, to hot house cherries at $18 a pail. If some check is not made they will eat themselves to death or be crushed under the weight of gold baby carriages and oil paintings of themselves, some of them having as many as 100 of the latter.

One Hundred Investment Bargains in Railroad Bonds

In a circular prepared by one of the greatest bond authorities in this country, which we have just had printed, the bond situation is not only thoroughly covered, but there is a list of one hundred bargains in high grade railroad bonds yielding as high as

Ten Per Cent

Among this list are many unusual investment opportunities, and inasmuch as underlying factors are now favorable to rising bond prices, a selection of these bonds would unquestionably result in excellent market profits, in addition to an attractive income return.

The circular will be sent without obligation, together with a booklet describing a convenient method of purchasing the bonds.

FARM LANDS

WHY BEAR IT?

Why do you bear the burdens of old age, the aches and pains of rheumatism and lumbago, caused by cold and storms of the Northern winter? Why not go with your old friends and neighbors to sunny California and live among the orchards and gardens, with fresh vegetables and fruits every month in the year? Our 10 and 20-acre fruit and poultry farms at Rio Linda, in the suburbs of beautiful Sacramento, Cal., offer you the opportunity. Your old friends and neighbors are there now. Write us for the new booklet, "Poultry and Orchards"—it may start you thinking. We mail it on receipt of your request, stating that you are planning on a trip to California and about when you expect to go.

SINN FEIN PLANS TO DESTROY BRITISH CITIES REVEALED

EIGHTEEN CHURCHES HOLD FOUR UNION SERVICES

Pastors Preach on Subjects in Keeping With Thanksgiving Day.

Downtown Churches Meet in First Presbyterian; Dr. Elderkin Speaker.

Three in Western End of City; One Scandinavian.

Duluth observed Thanksgiving today by a complete cessation of business activities. Union services were held among the leading Protestant congregations and mass was said at all Catholic churches.

Dr. Noble S. Elderkin of Pilgrim Congregational spoke on "Strange Lands and the Lord's Song" at the First Presbyterian church, where there were gathered the congregations of the First Methodist, Endion Methodist, First Christian, Woodland Community, Pilgrim Congregational and First Presbyterian churches.

At West Duluth, services were held at the Holy Apostles' Episcopal church, with a sermon by Rev R. W. Adair of Merritt Memorial Methodist church. The other congregations meeting there were the West Duluth Baptist, Westminster Presbyterian and Asbury Methodist.

English services in the West end were held at the Central Baptist church. There were also present congregations from the Second Presbyterian and Grace Methodist churches. Rev. Thomas D. Whittles of the Second Presbyterian preached the sermon.

Scandinavian services in the West end were held at the Swedish tabernacle, other churches co-operating being the Swedish Methodist, First Norwegian Danish Methodist, First Swedish Baptist and the Ebenezer Lutheran. The sermon was delivered by Rev. Edward Evensen of the First Norwegian-Danish Methodist church.

At First Presbyterian.

For his sermon on "Strange Lands and the Lord's Song" Rev. Noble S. Elderkin took for his text Psalm cxxxvii, 4, "How shall we sing the Lord's song in a strange land?" He said, in part:

"First, a picture of ancient Jews singing their song in their heart of Babylon. Where it was hard to sing they sang their song.

"And we find ourselves thanking the eternal God because these men long ago refused to cease their singing.

"Second, a picture of the Pilgrims braving the opposition of the leaders in church and state to sing their new song of conscience and freedom for the soul.

"And again we find ourselves thanking the eternal God that men like these once walked the earth and sang their song.

"But all this is easy and simple. Praise is easy and simple.

"There are nearer strange lands where songs need to be sung. The strange land of hatred, where we have lived much of late and where we

HALF BILLION GIVEN AWAY

Rockefeller's Benefactions Have Now Reached Close to That Total.

New York, Nov. 25.—John D. Rockefeller, his son, John D. Rockefeller, Jr., announced here last night, has provided $63,763,357 toward the Laura Spellman Rockefeller memorial, established in memory of his wife, who died in 1915. The announcement also revealed that Mr. Rockefeller's total benefactions have reached close to half a billion dollars.

"For years prior to her death," the statement said, "my mother was interested in the support of many religious and charitable enterprises. Since her death it has been the desire of my father that in so far as might seem wise, those and kindred objects in which my mother had manifested an intimate interest should continue to receive support. To make this possible my father, in loving memory of my mother, established a charitable corporation, known as the Laura Spellman Rockefeller memorial."

The directors of the memorial are John D. Rockefeller, Jr., Charles E. Hughes, George Welwood Murray, Starr J. Murphy and Willard S. Richardson.

In 1915, when John D. Rockefeller, Jr., testified before the industrial relations committee he estimated his father's gifts up to that time at about $250,000,000. In the last five years additional philanthropies amounted to $225,000,000, divided as follows:

Amounts Given.

To the Rockefeller foundation, $82,000,000; to the general educational board, $70,000,000; to the Rockefeller Institute, $10,000,000, and to the Laura Spellman Rockefeller memorial, $63,000,000.

More than $8,000,000, it was announced, has been appropriated to date from the memorial fund to various organizations, including the Boy Scouts, $29,000; Interchurch World Movement, $200,000; Red Cross, Christmas seals, $25,000; Salvation Army, $60,000; Northern Baptist Laymen, $750,000, and board of promotion, Northern Baptist convention, $4,000,000.

"The memorial," Mr. Rockefeller said, "has no connection with the Rockefeller foundation or any other of the benevolent institutions established by my father.

"The trustees have full and unrestricted discretion in the use of the funds. While as yet no definite policies have been worked out, it is the mind of the founder, as well as of the board, in keeping with the general spirit of my mother's interests in charitable work, that special consideration should be given to activities looking toward improvement of the condition of the women and children."

ON COMMITTEE NAMED TO STUDY IRISH CONDITIONS

JAMES H. MAURER.

Washington, Nov. 25.—The commission on conditions in Ireland announced last night that the subcommittee to go to Ireland to conduct an investigation would be headed by Maj. Oliver P. Newman, former district commissioner of Washington, D. C., the other members being Rev. Dr. Norman Thomas, New York; James H. Maurer, president Pennsylvania State Federation of Labor, and Arthur Gleason, New York.

The delegation will sail as soon as passports have been obtained, the statement said, and "will pay particular attention to securing the British point of view in the present critical situation, both from official government sources and from all shades of public opinion."

"U" BUDGET IS BIGGEST EVER

More Than $11,000,000 for Two Years Asked for University.

Minneapolis, Minn., Nov. 25.—The University of Minnesota must have $11,492,250 for its maintenance and improvement during the next two years, Lotus D. Coffman, its president, told the board of regents yesterday, in presenting to them the tentative budget he has drawn up.

This proposed budget exceeds by $5,490,250 the largest amount ever asked before—the $6,002,000 budget of 1919.

Of the amount estimated as the minimum requirement for the university for 1921 and 1922, $1,936,000 already is provided for, President Coffman told the regents, the rest of the sum, $9,555,885, will be asked of the legislature in two separate budgets, if the board of regents approves Mr. Coffman's figures. As prepared by the president, the two budgets call for $8,458,950 as the regular university appropriation by the legislature and for $1,097,935 as an emergency budget.

Cut of Half Million.

The emergency budget as presented to the regents showed a cut of more than $500,000 from the sum the regents originally planned to ask from the legislature as a special allotment. President Coffman yesterday estimated the minimum amount which must be raised by special appropriation at $1,210,000, a cut of nearly $400,000 in the original emergency budget.

The items in the budget for which provision already has been made are one of $1,120,000, granted for the construction of new buildings, and another of $816,000 automatically raised by the regular state-wide tax provided for the university.

In maintenance alone, the new tentative budget calls for almost twice as much as the sum requested in the preceding budget. It sets maintenance costs for 1921-22 at $6,724,630; for the previous two years, the same expense was set at $3,730,000, making an increase for the next two years of $2,994,630.

What the budget will call for in its final form, when it goes to the legis-

TWELVE-YEAR-OLD WITHOUT A COUNTRY HELD AT NEW YORK

New York, Nov. 25.—Without a country, as a result of an order by immigration authorities refusing her admittance to the United States, Evodokia Go[illegible]lkina, 12-year-old Russian refugee, has been held at Ellis island awaiting the next of life's buffets.

When Bolshevist troops threatened Tomsk, where Evodokia lived with aristocratic parents, she fled with American Red Cross workers to Vladivostok and, with 700 other refugee children, traveled aboard the steamship Yomei Maru nearly around the world.

The arrival of the Red Cross refugee ship at a Finnish port, where the children and their parents were reunited, found Tomsk still in Bolshevist hands, and Evodokia was unable to find her parents. So she was taken in charge by the Red Cross workers, and brought back to the United States. A special board of inquiry refused to admit the child because she was unaccompanied by either parent and likely to become a public charge.

An appeal from this decision is being made by Red Cross workers to the authorities at Washington.

Meanwhile Evodokia looks across the bay at busy New York and yearns for something besides ships and the sea.

FUNDAMENTAL CHANGES ARE ON PROGRAM

Harding Will Suggest Radical Alterations in the League Covenant.

Entirely New Proposal for Preservation of World Peace.

By DAVID LAWRENCE.

(Copyright, 1920, by The Duluth Herald.)

Washington, Nov. 25.—(Special to The Herald.)—The tendency of the assembly of the League of Nations now meeting in Geneva to postpone consideration of amendments to the Covenant until after President Harding shall have been inaugurated was received in Washington by friends of Senator Harding as confirmation of their oft-repeated statements that the nations of the world would always be ready to form a new association with the United States as an associate in the enterprise.

Senator Harding's friends insist that during the campaign he was frequently misrepresented by political opponents on the subject of the League of Nations. When he spoke of a new association, the senator meant to be understood as conveying the idea that he didn't care whether the present machinery were revised and modified or a new institution created, so long as the objectionable features of Article 10, its guarantees of territorial integrity and implications of military force, were entirely eliminated. When he speaks of the league being "dead," or when he refers as he did at Des Moines last August to turning his back on obligations, he means Article 10. His friends therefore declare that in so far as an international conference has been brought about by the present league and negotiation is thus made easier, no disposition exists to insist upon a league different in every detail from the present organization. Nevertheless they say that, when Mr. Harding formulates his program, the changes he will suggest to other countries will be fundamental and that they will absolutely alter the character of the Covenant so that the league will be known as the Harding league, instead of the Wilson league.

McCormick to Hold Conferences.

Senator Medill McCormick of Illinois, who has just sailed for Europe, is one of the so-called irreconcilables who voted along with Senators Borah and Johnson against the treaty with or without the league reservations. He has said that Europe was ready to negotiate for a new understanding with the United States, and that he personally had been assured by persons close to foreign governments of their readiness to accept the American program. His visit to Europe is fully expected to develop interesting conferences with foreign statesmen, the substance of which will be cabled to Senator Hard-

STEALING OF AUTOMOBILES

Club Secretaries to Discuss Question at Louisville Meeting.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 25.—Secretaries of automobile clubs from throughout the United States will meet here on Nov. 29 for a two-day convention, said to be the first national meeting of its kind ever held here. The meeting will be under the auspices of the Louisville Automobile club, and other officials of automobile clubs have been asked to attend.

The program includes addresses and discussions on many topics of interest to automobile clubs and officials. Men from all parts of the country are slated to speak.

Car Thievery.

The program includes discussion on "In What Manner Can the Local Club Co-operate With the Police in Connection With Car Thievery?" The leader will be W. S. Gilbreath, manager of the Detroit Automobile association, who also will deliver an address on "Signs and Highway Markers."

"How to Build Club Membership" will be the subject of a discussion led by Fred H. Caley, secretary of the Cleveland, Ohio, Automobile club. Mr. Caley also will deliver an address on "Legislation."

Charles C. Janes of Columbus, Ohio, secretary of the Ohio State Automobile association, will lead a discussion on "The State Association and How to Build It," while Dal H. Lewis, secretary of the Automobile Club of Buffalo, N. Y., will lead a discussion on "What Are the Best Methods for Getting Out Touring Information."

Serving Nonmembers.

What Eugene Stuart, secretary of the Louisville Automobile club says is one of the most important subjects to be taken up will be to what extent shall the nonmember be served in connection with the dissemination of touring information and other matters dealt with by automobile clubs. This discussion will be led by M. E. Noblet, secretary of the Hoosier Motor club, Indianapolis. Mr. Noblet is manager of the Hoosier State Automobile association.

A. G. Batchelder, chairman of the executive committee of the American Automobile association, Washington D. C., will deliver an address on "National Highways and the Townsend Bill," and M. J. McCormick, secretary and manager of the Toledo Automobile club, Toledo, Ohio, will speak on "Club Publications."

Other discussions slated for the meeting and their leaders are:

"Is There Any Value in So-Called Protection and the Appointment of 'Official' Lawyers in the Club's Territory?" J. Borton Weeks, president of the Keystone Automobile club of Philadelphia, Pa.

"Is the Insurance Department Advisable or Is It Sometimes a Detriment?" Charles M. Hayes, president, Chicago Motor club, Chicago, Ill.

GERMANS IN BITTER DEBATE

PEACE PACT DENOUNCED

Reichstag Members Discuss Question of Raising Money Demanded.

Dr. Zapf Says Germany's Financial Condition Seems Hopeless.

Berlin, Nov. 24.—Bitterness marked a debate in the reichstag today relative to the voting of appropriations to carry out provisions of the Versailles treaty. Members of the chamber denounced the action of the Allies in keeping such a large force of men along the Rhine, and in particular, assailed France for sending negro troops into Germany.

Dr. Zapf, a member of the German People's party, said Germany's financial situation seemed hopeless. He pointed out that interest charges on the budget alone amounted to 12,500,000,000 marks, and declared the conduct of French officers and their families in the Rhineland was provoking a growing irritation.

"If Russian soviet troops," he declared, "should appear on Germany's eastern frontier, they would not find the united industrious nation of former years, but a people broken down morally."

Rudolph Dreischeid, a leader of the Moderate Independent league, said the nation's burdens were not a result of the "infamous conduct of her enemies" but the sequel of Germany's prewar policies.

Due to Men of War.

"Germany's collapse," he continued, "was not due to the pacifists, but to the men who praised war as the fountain of youth and the bath of steel. I predict the time will come when the present treaty will be replaced by an instrument dictated by true justice. This will be when the workers of France and Germany become sufficiently powerful to put the Versailles treaty out of commission."

The Rev. Adolf Korell, a member of the Democratic party, charged the Entente nations with "unloading troops indefinitely in the Rhineland," asserting these soldiers were not controlled either from Washington, from London or from Paris.

"One should not refer to President Wilson's fourteen points in scorn and mockery," he said. "Even in the face of disappointment, we still have faith in the ultimate victory of love."

HEAVY LOSSES DUE TO PLANT DISEASES

Washington, Nov. 25.—Millions of bushels of grain, fruit and vegetables and a big tonnage of cotton were lost to American farmers last year by plant diseases, according to figures compiled by the plant disease survey of the department of agriculture. The survey said that the statistics indicate that lack of prompt application of known measures of control was largely the cause of the loss.

The plant disease survey estimated the losses at 112,000,000 bushels of wheat, 50,000,000 bushels of oats, 80,000,000 bushels of corn, 50,000,000 bushels of potatoes, 4,000,000 bushels of sweet potatoes, 185,000 tons of tomatoes, 850,000 bales of cotton, 5,000,000 bushels of peaches and 16,000,000 bushels of apples.

GUARD GRADE CROSSINGS

Laws for the Protection of the Public Are Recommended.

Washington, Nov. 25.—A campaign for the passage of laws in all states requiring better protection of railroad grade crossings is to be carried on by members of the Association of State Railway Utility Commissions, which recently held its annual convention here.

A special committee appointed to investigate the whole subject said the elimination of all grade crossings in the United States "would probably cost as much as all the railroads are worth." It recommended laws requiring that every grade crossing be protected by an approach warning sign, placed in the highway at a distance not less than 300 feet on each side of the railroad tracks. The sign should be a circular disk not less than twenty-four inches in diameter, and properly lighted at night if deemed necessary.

Railroad companies would be required to maintain within the limits of their rights of way proper cautionary signs, to be equipped with a red light at night where necessary.

Safety Provisions.

Other provisions of the proposed law include:

Crossing flagmen to use during the day a uniform disk sixteen inches in diameter painted white with a black border and the word "stop" painted thereon in black letters about five inches high.

Crossing gates to be painted with alternate diagonal stripes of black and white.

Railroad property at grade crossings to be maintained free from obstructions to vision, and highway approaches to be graded so as to permit free passage of vehicles.

Automobile drivers to come to a full stop at crossings not protected by gates or a flagman.

Between 4,000 and 5,000 persons are killed each year from trespassing upon property and as many more injured, the committee said in urging passage of laws making such trespassing a misdemeanor punishable by fine.

WYOMING CONGRESSMAN MEETS THIRD ACCIDENT

FRANK W. MONDELL.

Washington, Nov. 25.—Representative Mondell of Wyoming, Republican leader of the house, is confined to his bed as a result of the third accident he has suffered since congress adjourned last June. While ascending the steps at his home here Tuesday night a crutch which he was using as a result of a previous injury, broke, causing the majority leader to sustain a severe fall.

AIRPLANES ALL READY

Forty-Eight to Start in Race for the Pulitzer Trophy.

Mineola, N. Y., Nov. 25.—Propellers of forty-eight high speed airplanes fanned the air over Mitchell field into various cross currents early today in final preparation for the "toe the mark" order scheduled to be given at 11 o'clock, officially starting the dash for honors in the Pulitzer trophy race. Every piece of metal had been burnished, the wings officially "preened" and inspected, and the engines tuned so that their spins made only harmonious music in the mechanicians' ears.

For the first time in history of airplane racing the plans called for simultaneous starting of machines, instead of singly and racing against time. Arrangements were made to have seven planes ready to start at a time seven succeeding racers being kept constantly in readiness to line up immediately following their predecessors.

Triangular Course.

The triangular course of seven, eleven and fifteen mile lines, is 132 miles in length, each entrant being required to circumnavigate the triangle four times.

The race also was eventful in that it marked the first time for army and navy pilots to vie with each other for aerial supremacy.

Besides Gen. John J. Pershing and Josephus Daniels, secretary of the navy, the designers of all the makes of machines entered in the race were expected to watch the performance of their respective "creations."

Planes of American, French, Italian, Belgian and German makes were entered as well as various types of machines from the United States army and navy.

MANY ACHIEVEMENTS OF U. S. SIGNAL CORPS

Washington, Nov. 25.—That a number of messages may be sent over submarine cables simultaneously through the use of alternate current and that the trunks of growing trees may be utilized at times in the place of sending and receiving antennae for radio apparatus was disclosed by experiments conducted in the research laboratories of the army signal corps during the last year, according to the annual report of Maj.-Gen. George O. Squier, chief signal officer, to Secretary Baker, made public today. Interesting experiments suggested by Gen. Squier's recent discovery that uninsulated conductors might be used under water successfully were also conducted, the report said.

Much of the report was devoted to various phases of radio telegraphy, progress in which "continues to be nothing phenomenal," Gen. Squier said.

Among the achievements of the signal corps chronicled in the report were the design and completion of a cavalry radio pack set for field service and the completion of an army observation plane radio telegraph and telephone set with a range of 80 to 100 miles telephone and 200 to 250 miles telegraph, in addition to the designing of a large number of minor parts calculated to improve existing communication sets.

TWO HUNDRED POOR FAMILIES FURNISHED THANKSGIVING DINNERS

Approximately 200 Thanksgiving baskets went out to the city's poor today through various charitable agencies, according to C. G. Durgin, secretary of the Associated Charities.

The Charities furnished names of worthy and needy families to the schools, churches and other charities who wanted to see every Duluth home have its Thanksgiving cheer today.

The Central high school supplied fifty-one dinners, the First Methodist church, forty-one, the Park Point school, six, and most of the other schools in the city and many of the churches arranged to take care of two or more families.

Sioux City, Iowa, Nov. 25.—While dressing a turkey for the big dinner today, L. A. Donishee, chef in a restaurant, found what looked to him like a valuable stone in the turkey's gizzard. A jeweler pronounced it a diamond weighing one-fifth of a carat and offered $75 for it. The turkey came from Northern Minnesota.

President-Elect Spends His Thanksgiving With Governor of Canal Zone.

Ancon, C. Z., Nov. 25.—(By the Associated Press.)—Senator and Mrs. Warren G. Harding observed Thanksgiving quietly here today. Although gray skies may have prevailed over much of the United States, a scorching tropical sun bathed this city, the Pacific terminus of the Panama canal, while the president-elect had dinner. He was a guest in the home of Col. Chester Harding, governor of the canal zone, who is his host during his visit here.

During the morning hours, Mr. and Mrs. Harding went for an automobile ride through Panama City, Ancon and Balboa, and the plans of the president-elect included a golf game for late in the afternoon. Tonight he will be guest of honor at a banquet and reception given by President Porras of the Panama republic.

Greets President of Panama.

Balboa, Nov. 25.—(By the Associated Press.)—President-elect Harding came through the Panama canal from Cristobal to the Pacific coast yesterday and crossing into the republic of Panama exchanged with President Porras personal felicitations. Senator Harding also expressed a warm hope for better relations between the United States and Panama.

Although declaring that he acted purely as a private citizen in making an informal call during his vacation visit to the canal zone, the president-elect conveyed in an earnest manner to the Panama executive his desire to see Panama established firmly in the affection of her southern neighbors. Later President Porras came across the boundary and on American territory told Mr. Harding that he warmly reciprocated these desires.

The trip through the canal zone was in the nature of an inspection of the waterway, in which Mr. Harding has shown unusual interest.

LEYGUES GOES TO MEET LLOYD GEORGE

Paris, Nov. 25.—Premier George Leygues left for London this morning at 9:45 o'clock. While in that city he will confer with Premier Lloyd George of Great Britain relative to questions arising from the recent Greek election, the Russian situation and problems relative to the Near East.

There are indications that the meeting of the French and other premiers may assume a more important aspect than was contemplated by their original plans. Former Premier Venizelos of Greece is said by the Matin to be planning to hurry his trip northward from Italy to participate in the conversations in London and the same newspaper declares Premier Giolitti of Italy will also take part.

An Athens dispatch states that Premier Rhallis has declared that if Allied premiers hold a meeting a representative of the Greek government would attend to the real significance of recent events in that country.

WOULD BURY "UNKNOWN SOLDIER" IN WINNIPEG

Winnipeg, Man., Nov. 25.—Veterans of the World war will present to the Manitoba government a request that "an unknown Canadian soldier" be disinterred from a Canadian battlefield in France and returned to Winnipeg for burial in the capitol grounds on Commemoration day next May or August. The matter will be presented to the next session of the provincial legislature.

PLOTS LAID IN MILITARY PRECISION

Liverpool Schedule Called for Over 100 Men and High Explosives.

Detailed Precautions Taken for Dealing With "Enemy" Forces.

Whole Plot Is Laid Before Commons by Sir Hamar Greenwood.

London, Nov. 25.—Alleged plots for blowing up the Liverpool docks and the Manchester power and water plants are said to show that they were made in military fashion after detailed reports with drawings had been forwarded to Irish republican army officers by spies at each place that was destined for destruction. The plans, which are said to have been found when the documents relating to the spreading of typhoid and glanders were taken, were made public last night after the statement of Sir Hamar Greenwood in the house of commons.

The Liverpool plans called for [illegible] officers, 27 engineers and 75 privates and 800 pounds of a high explosive for attacking twenty-one points, most of them dock gates, with a view to stranding ships.

Diversions suggested in the report would consist of numerous fires in cotton and other warehouses, starting a half hour before the other operations.

Apparently every precaution was taken for dealing with the "enemy forces"—the police of both Liverpool and Manchester. The Manchester plan called for destruction of the street car power plant serving both industries and train lines, and also the Clayton Valley pumping station which furnishes water to a larger part of Manchester. Hammers and explosives were to have been used.

Revealed by Greenwood.

London, Nov. 25.—(By the Associated Press.)—The most conspicuous incident in the Irish debate in the house of commons yesterday was the revelation by Sir Hamar Greenwood, chief secretary for Ireland, of Sinn Fein plans to destroy property in Liverpool and Manchester, a revelation which was greeted by Joseph Devlin with the exclamation:

"All that was written in Dublin castle."

In other respects, the debate followed the customary lines. Former Premier Asquith moved a resolution expressing abhorrence of the recent Dublin assassinations and condemnation of reprisals, and urged immediate steps to bring about Irish pacification. An amendment by Col. John Ward converted this motion into an expression of admiration for the courage and devotion of the crown forces in Ireland. This was adopted by 303 to 83, and the motion as thus amended was adopted by acclamation, said ministerial cheers.

Composite Resolution.

The motion was a composite resolution, combinign the Independent Liberal and Labor motions and sponsored by Mr. Asquith, Donald MacLean and Arthur Henderson.

The former premier declared that he believed an overwhelming majority of the Irish people and of the crown forces had no sympathy with reprisals.

It was difficult, said Mr. Asquith, to speak with restraint of Sunday's assassinations in Dublin.

"They were cruel cold blooded murder," he continued, "and can only have been the work of men who have lost all sense of humanity and honor. The very gravity of such crimes as these, I am afraid is a mistake to say they are decreasing, makes it all the more necessary that the executive shall be

COMMITTEES HARD AT WORK

Reports Soon Will Be Ready for League of Nations Assembly.

Geneva, Nov. 25.—Committee meetings again featured today's session of the assembly of the League of Nations. Several of these bodies, charged with examination of projects laid before the assembly and the preparation of reports, are believed to have nearly completed work, and it is expected that debate on their conclusions may begin in a few days.

Distinct lines of cleavage seem to be making their appearance at the meeting of the assembly, delegates from the smaller nations insisting that the countries they represent should play an influential role in the work of the assembly and the council of the league. Scandinavian and South American representatives are prominent in the conversations occurring at sessions of the assembly and it is expected their leaders are planning to take part in the debates which will soon begin.

Want Four Members.

Honorio Pueyrredon, foreign minister of Argentina, and one of that nation's representatives, is one of the leaders in demanding that smaller nations should elect four members of the council of the league, and he seems to have the support of a number of influential delegations. Sweden, Norway and Denmark evidently purpose to take the floor of the assembly fight for amendments to the Covenant of the league. In addition, several nations have taken decided views regarding the economic blockade, the international court and mandates. The proceedings of the assembly, which are at present really being carried on by the committees, may be considered as merely preliminary to its real work, which will begin when these committees submit reports and debate begins.

ACTIVE TRADE FOR HOLIDAY

Produce Prices Lower Than Year Ago; Meats at Low Level.

Duluth commission houses and produce dealers generally reported a satisfactory holiday trade in all lines. In addition to taking care of an active demand from local retailers, heavy shipments were made over the range towns, so that supplies arranged for in advance were well distributed.

That costs of living, in the produce line at least, are coming down was shown in the fact that, with the exception of oranges and bananas, all the leading items in the fruits and vegetables list are quoted lower than a year ago.

A big drop has come about in apples, which are now quoted at $6@7 a barrel, with the exception of Jonathans, as compared with $9@10 wholesale at this time last year. As a result of the lower quotations and warm weather conditions, dealers have experienced a good movement in apples during the last ten days.

New Oranges In.

Sales of oranges for the holiday trade were liberal and commission men are now in better position to take care of the trade than in some time back. A car of new Florida navel oranges was received this week and a car of new California navels is expected next week. The market is well supplied with grapefruit and it is being quoted at a reasonable basis. Quotations in cranberries are slightly higher as a result of an urgent demand from over the country and a falling off in the Eastern crop, as compared with a year ago.

The range in green vegetables is improving, with a better movement from the Pacific coast. Everything in the heavy vegetables list is as cheap as ever, and consumption is reported to be expanding, as householders are showing more of a disposition to bring their living costs in foodstuffs down through selecting the ordinary staples to a greater extent.

As had been predicted, supplies of medium and lightweight turkeys proved sufficient to meet the holiday demand. Prime dressed turkeys were quoted at 48 cents a pound wholesale. A good demand was also experienced for fowl, geese and ducks, in which a wide range was offered.

Meats Lower.

The market in meats is rapidly working down to a pre-war basis. Beef prices were marked down substantially this week as a result of weakness in the cattle market at packing points.

Quotations in butter are off a cent at 58@62 cents a pound wholesale. The easier situation in butter has been brought about through imports liberal at Atlantic ports.

Prices in fresh eggs are unchanged at 62@65 cents a dozen wholesale and 57@60 cents a dozen for storage. As large quantities of eggs are now coming out of storage, and with the greatly reduced stocks put away, it is predicted that they will be completely exhausted early in the season. As illustrating the shortage of stocks in Eastern warehouses, a Duluth operator mentioned that he had received an inquiry yesterday for thirteen cars of eggs for Buffalo delivery.

DEVISE NEW PLAN TO ASSIST FARMER

Wichita, Kan., Nov. 25.—A new way to relieve the wheat farmer of his difficulties, as the result of low prices and a strained money situation, has been devised by mill and elevator operators here and in other grain centers of the Southwest.

A plan of advancing to grain growers $1 a bushel on wheat carried on contract, so that they may deliver now and sell at some future date, has been adopted by a large line of elevators and mills. The inauguration of this new plan is primarily to relieve the money situation, it was said. It has been in working order less than a week.

Millers declare the plan, although in its early stage, will move considerable wheat and stop talk of forcing the farmers to sell their grain.

Mill operators said it already has been received with much favorable comment by farmers as well as bankers. The plan as outlined by mill and elevator men follows:

"The contract with the farmer is very simple. He now has the opportunity to dispose of his wheat at once and receive in turn $1 down. Then, as he watches the market quotations, and finally decides the quotations have reached the top, he can draw the remainder of his money from the miller or elevator at the basic market price. The result of the plan can be easily seen. It will relieve the farmer of holding his loan. The wheat will not be subject to weevil and the market will become more stable."

Kills Family and Himself.

Pender, Neb., Nov. 25.—George H. Binklage, a farmer near here, reputed to be wealthy, yesterday killed his wife and three children with a hatchet, badly wounded his baby and then hung himself to a rafter in the barn. Neighbors said they believed he was despondent because of the falling off of the value of his land and because of the reductions in the prices of farm products.

POSSESSION IS VIOLATION PROOF

Drug convictions over the United States have been facilitated by the ruling of Judge Page Morris in the United States district court at Minneapolis this week that the possession of packages of narcotics with the revenue stamps lacking indicated purchases from other than legitimate sources and hence was a violation of the Harrison narcotic act, according to Joseph M. Bransky, narcotic group chief for the Northwestern division.

The defense contended that it was not the purpose of the Harrison narcotic act to place the burden of its enforcement on the purchaser, as would be the case if the purchaser were required to see to it that the drugs he bought were in original stamped packages.

William Anderson, assistant United States district attorney, said that due to the revenue requirement of the Harrison act the government had a right to require purchasers to see that it was not defrauded and hence could hold them responsible if they had in their possession other than stamped packages.

"The government has the authority to say that the purchaser must buy a stamped package or from a stamped package," Judge Morris declared in his decision. "The government has the right to levy a tax and can pass any law for the enforcement of that tax."

"The decision of Judge Morris will assist us here in securing convictions in cases now pending," Mr. Bransky explained. "It will enable us to make arrests in many instances where we have heretofore been unable to proceed and it will make possible a more effective enforcement of the Harrison narcotic act in the United States."

Denied by Tumulty.

Washington, Nov. 25.—Secretary Tumulty yesterday denied that he had advised leaders of the bituminous coal strike last fall to call off the strike under penalty of exclusion from mail and telegraph facilities, as stated by John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers, in an address at Belleville, Ill. Tumulty also denied that he had told strike leaders that troops would be used should the walkout continue.

DECLARE PEIRCE WAS KILLED BY STRANGERS

Wheeling, W. Va., Nov. 25.—Peter D. Treadway and Marie Williams, giving their home addresses as Philadelphia, arrested here yesterday in connection with the murder late last Saturday night or early Sunday morning of Henry T. Peirce at Philadelphia, told the police, according to a statement given out at headquarters, that Peirce was killed by two unknown strangers who escaped in the victim's automobile, after forcing Treadway and the Williams woman to accompany them at the point of a revolver. The two were examined by the police separately. Treadway, the police say, admitted witnessing Peirce's murder, adding that his woman companion also was in the room at the time. The woman, however, the police say, denied that she was present when Peirce was slain.

The prisoners are said to have expressed a willingness to waive extradition to Philadelphia and will be taken there tomorrow.

According to the police, Treadway said he and Peirce and the Williams woman and a "girl friend" gave a "party" at Peirce's apartment.

About midnight, according to Treadway, "two strangers" entered the apartment and "ordered the members of the party to hand over their money." Peirce, he added, was the only person to resist the intruders and was struck down.

CONDENSED DISPATCHES

Kovno, Lithuania—The soviet representative in Alexandrovsk has informed the Lithuanian government that the Bolsheviki forces will be obliged again to occupy Vilna, according to advices received from Alexandrovsk.

New Orleans, La.—About twenty women, allowed for the first time in Louisiana prizefighting history to attend a bout, attended the fight between "Happy" Littleton of New Orleans, and Harry Krohn of Akron, Ohio, Littleton scoring a technical knockout in the twelfth round of a fifteen-round go.

Berlin—The council of people's commissioners in Russia has directed the Russian finance commissioners to prepare a plan within a month for the abolishment of money, according to a Moscow report to the Red Flag, the Communist organ here.

Berlin—The reichstag entered upon consideration of appropriations to carry out the provisions of the treaty of Versailles with the presentation of a report of the budget committee, which had increased the original estimates, especially for the army of occupation by several million dollars.

Gassed Ex-Soldier Kills Self.

Great Falls, Mont., Nov. 25.—Illness and despondency, the aftermaths of being "gassed" in France with the United States forces are declared to be causes of the suicide by shooting of August Anderson, age 28, at Haughsville, near here.

Chicagoan Drops Dead.

Chicago, Nov. 25.—Robert O. Law, president of the Robert O. Law Publishing company, dropped dead yesterday while testifying in an automobile accident damage suit against his wife. Heart disease is believed to have caused his death.

Pine Fragrance from Northern Forests FOR YOUR

CATARRH MAYR'S PINE NEEDLE BALM

A Comfort and A Corrective

THE first cool days of autumn and early winter have a tremendous effect on Catarrh indications. Flu and other infectious germs abound. They find a harbor in the nasal passages affected with Catarrh. Mayr's Pine Needle Balm opens and clears these passages, keeping them in a clean, wholesome condition. Healthy nasal passages do not harbor germs. Catching a cold in the head, nose or throat means that a germ has been taken in and will develop unless the inflammatory condition is at once corrected. Do not neglect colds, they very often lead to chronic Catarrh which is embarrassing and sometimes offensive to others. Prolonged Catarrhal affection often causes foul breath. Mayr's Pine Needle Balm promotes natural breathing by opening up the nasal passages. It is a pure natural product. Soothing and pleasant to use. When Catarrh, colds of the head, nose and throat have made you feel disagreeable, Mayr's Pine Needle Balm will prove a comfort and corrective. Excellent for children as well as adults. Sold in two sizes, 30 and 60 cents.

Mayr's Pine Needle
Mayr's

Hygienic Note—To those susceptible to frequent colds the following advice is extended: Avoid "coddling" habits and overheated rooms, encourage fresh air habits, take a cold water bath, spray or sponge each morning, followed by a brisk rubbing of the body with a coarse bath towel. One who can safely resist the shock of a cold plunge or even of sponging may with confidence expect to resist ordinary drafts and exposure.

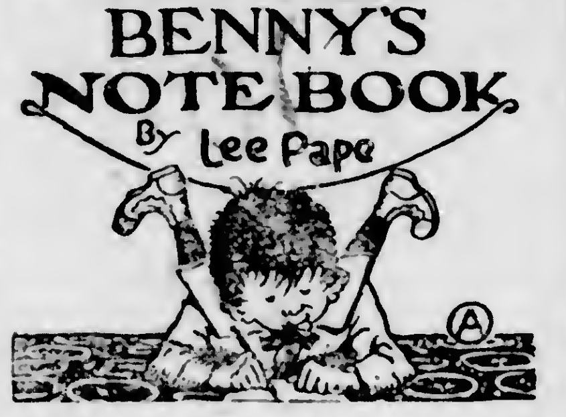
LITTLE BENNY'S NOTE BOOK

By Lee Pape



My CUZZIN ARTIE was eround today and I noticed a strange cake of soap in the bathroom, being round soap smelling more like a buntch of flowers than a hunk of soap, me saying, Hay Artie, if you wunt to smell sumthing, smell this.

Wich he did, saying, O boy, flowers. Im going to wash my hands with this. I jest did wash them but it wont hert them eny.

And he washed his hands with it and I washed mine, making a peetchy lot of lather and smelling bewtifill, and then we both washed our face with it to see if it taisted as good as it smelt, wich it dident quite, and then we each gave ourself a shampoo with it, making a fearse big lather all over the top of our heds, me saying, Lets go in the setting room and show pop. Wich we did, me saying, Hello pop, do you wunt to see the wild shampoo twins frum Borneo?

Haw haw ha ha ha, sed pop laffing. Wich jest then I herd my sister Gladdis saying, Who's bin using up my 60 cent cake of Frentch soap that I axsidently left in the bathroom and now look at it. And she came running in the setting room holding what was left of it, not being mutch, and she saw me and Artie standing underneeth our shampooes, saying, So, thats it, is it, a bran new cake of 60-cent Frentch soap ruined, absilootly ruined.

A good shampoo is never a total loss, haw haw ho ho ho, sed pop, and Gladdis sed, Father, I think its perfeckly terrible of you to act as if it was all a joak wen I jest paid 60 cents for that cake of soap.

Thats the joak, sed pop, enybody thats fool enuff to ho ho ha ha pay 60 cents for one portion of soap deserves the ha ha ho ho ho consequences.

And he kepp on laffing and Gladdis went up to her room mad and me and Artie washed the soap out of our hair feeling lucky.

Gopher Livestock Judges.

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 25.—Minnesota's college of agriculture will be represented by six men from the senior class in advanced livestock judging in the intercollegiate livestock judging contest at the International Livestock exposition at Chicago next Saturday as follows: H. E. Drews of Mapleton; E. J. Schindler of St. Paul; R. E. Adams of Des Moines, Iowa; C. E. Carney of Marseilles, Ill.; E. H. Ostrom of Winthrop and Web Hedlin.

Kill Beaver to Make Road.

Washburn, Wis., Nov. 25.—Because beavers interfered with construction of three miles of road through the Bibon marsh, the Wisconsin highway commission was obliged to ask permission of the conservation commission to kill off the beavers in order that the road could be completed. The colony was destroyed under the direction of two conservation wardens.

The Sandman with his sleepy head,
And says, "Come on, my dears,"
Don't worry if he blinks and blinks;
For what does he know about Tiddledy-Winks?

EIGHTEEN CHURCHES HOLD FOUR UNION SERVICES

have schooled ourselves to the brutalest of hatreds, the strange land of faith in guns and forts and monster dreadnaughts.

"The strange land of nationalism, where men think themselves superior to other men because a certain flag floats from a certain building where they themselves must go to be taxed.

"The strange land of denominationalism, where men arrange the geography of heaven so as to admit those who profess acceptance of certain formulated statements of metaphysics and consign to hell those who prefer other statements.

"The strange land of intolerance, where men are impatient of the opinions of others and of the very idea that others dare to have opinions unsanctioned by those in power.

"In these nearer strange lands the Lord's song must be sung.

"Those who profess to know the song will have to sing it—if it is to be sung at all."

At Central Baptist.

An excerpt from the sermon delivered by Rev. Dr. Thomas D. Whittles at the Union Thanksgiving service in the Central Baptist church, preaching from Ex. 23:16, "Thou shalt keep a feast unto me when thou hast gathered in thy labors out of the field," follows:

"The Jewish Feast of Weeks, or Feast of the Harvest, was celebrated as a due recognition of Jehovah's bounty. It was a concert of praise and action expressed in song and in the distribution to the needy. In 1621, at the first Thanksgiving service held in this country the same idea was dominant in the minds of the Pilgrims. Likewise the continued celebration of Thanksgiving is to express our national gratitude to the Giver of all good gifts.

"From hill and plain the harvest has been gathered and the whole land rejoices with the husbandman. We are rich because the fields have brought forth abundantly. All wealth comes from the soil. Without its bounty every wheel of industry would stop and all our boasted prosperity would be replaced by beggary. Good times and bad times wait on the word of the crop, the yield of the acres is the indicator of tomorrow's content or misery.

Power Over Soil.

"What power have we over the soil? Science has done much to aid fertility but all our skill is nullified by unseasonable sun or rain. The frost of late summer and early spring can stifle the vanity of our boasts and make a desert of our immature hopes. We cannot control the wind which is able to make us rich or mendicant. Since we are unable to create, having only the power to change the form of gifts received; since our seeming independence is after all dependancy, what is more becoming to the recipient than a whole-souled recognition of the Giver and thanksgiving to the source of our life and preservation.

"Lest we forget. In the days of prosperity we some times forget the hand that feeds us. The glamor of our own greatness often hides the cause of causes and with Nebuchadnezzar we proudly say, 'See this great Babylon which I have built.' But Thanksgiving day stops the wheels of human energy and bids us contemplate the source of all we have.

"The tribe of Judah always led the armies of Israel and the word Judah means praise. The thanksgiving man has always been in the forefront. To Ceres, goodness of agriculture, the ancients poured their liberal libations of gratitude. Recognition of obligations is a primary demand. Today we pay our best debt-Thanksgiving. Nationally we voice our dependence. Praise waiteth for Thee, our God, throughout the land.'"

At Holy Apostles.

At Holy Apostles church, Rev. R. W. Adair, pastor of Merritt Memorial Methodist church, spoke on "Our Debt of Gratitude to Our Pilgrim Fathers." He said in part:

"Two hundred and ninety-nine years ago the first Thanksgiving day was observed in America. Notwithstanding the severe winter and the partial crop failure of the first summer, out of gratitude to Almighty God a special day was set apart for Thanksgiving. We are not only indebted to our Pilgrim fathers for our national Thanksgiving day but for much that is worth while in our national and individual lives. The Pilgrims were mighty men in the sight of God and their fellow men, men of strong personalities; men with convictions. Many men have opinions, few men have convictions. Because of their convictions they were unpopular. Jesus, the Christ, was unpopular and was crucified; yet today there are millions who would die for him.

"The Puritans insisted upon interpreting the Bible for themselves, thus becoming pioneers in religious liberty. A people can only be great as they live up to their convictions with due respect to the man who differs from him.

Religious Liberty.

"Religious liberty is the generating principle for civil liberty—'Behold how great a matter a little fire kindleth.' The Mayflower compact was the forerunner of the Declaration of Independence and out of this grew the constitution of the United States. This in turn has become the model for the republics of the world.

"The Pilgrims came to this country not in search of gold but to establish homes. The adventurers who came in search of gold alone were a menace to this country. So today the immigrant who comes here to establish a home and become a part of this land of ours, we welcome him, but the immigrant who comes for a few years to seek gold and then return is a menace to the industrial order as well as to the government. Thanksgiving day is pre-eminently a home day. The American home is the bulwark of the American nation, for no nation can long exist when the home life is corrupt.

"The Pilgrims' consciousness of God needs to be kept alive in the hearts of men today. Welfare and reform work without God is like a cut flower. It is beautiful to look upon but does not develop seeds and cannot reproduce itself. God only is the source of power.

"We are facing tremendous tasks, in industry, in commerce in government and in home life. We can gain the victory only as did the Pilgrims 'in the name of God. Amen.'"

Scandinavian Services.

Rev. Edward Evensen, pastor of the First Norwegian-Danish Methodist church, preached at the Swedish tabernacle, taking for his text II Corinthians, 9:15, "Thanks be to God for His unspeakable gift." He said in part:

"Thanksgiving is not a period of time determined by the calendar, but an expression of the soul determined by our conception and appreciation of the goodness of God.

"The first Thanksgiving was no perfunctory celebration; no more occasion for feasting and happy recollections, but a sincere expression of gratitude to God. God and His goodness was the center of the feast. Food and fellowship were added reminders of His care and goodness towards all His creatures.

"In God's best country, America, this high quality of the soul first found concerted expression. She has led the world to a better and clearer realization of God as a good and faithful Provider and Helper in the annual celebration of this day. May she carry her profession high—faith in a God that is good and show the world the interpretation of Thanksgiving in true thanksgiving.

"The immigrant, as he comes to our shores, and makes his home in our midst, feels America's heart beat at its best at this season of the year and comes to know the high intent of the men who formulated the Constitution when they recognized God as God of all and humbly gave their allegiance to Him. At heart, America is a Christian nation.

"Thanksgiving could only be born and perpetuated in a Christian nation and consequently has special significance to us as Christians, even as originally to the Puritan Christians. The text has special significance to the Christian. To him God's gifts are great and good, even the least, according to man's measure. Christ is God's greatest gift to man. Receiving God's bountiful and varied material gifts and rejecting or making light of His gift of gifts is the oft-repeated and tragic sin of our age. All God's gifts are lifted into a higher and nobler plane as we see them in the light of Christ, the gift of gifts. Men come to realize the truth of the promise when it says 'Seek ye first the kingdom of God and His righteousness and all other things shall be added unto you.'

"This gift was necessary, for without it all other of God's goodness would never have come to its present fulfilment to man. He is God's great antidote to sin and selfishness. This gift was great in the extent of its blessing, for it reaches to all mankind. This gift is great because of the way that is opened to God, that here we may walk in Christ's footsteps and confidently look up and on to the day when the Giver, the good God of us all, Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, shall welcome to the house of many mansions the faithful, the thankful, those who have accepted the unspeakable gift.

"The spirit of the day will be heightened, deepened and broadened when we place the name of Christ at the head of the list of our blessings and can say with Paul in the words of the text, 'Thanks be unto God for His unspeakable gift.'"

"U" BUDGET IS BIGGEST EVER

lature, depends on the action of the regents.

Preus Attends Session.

Governor-elect J. A. O. Preus, with Governor J. A. A. Burnquist, attended his first session of the board of regents and participated in the discussion.

When the question of the new music building, for which bids were recently turned down by the board because of high prices, came up in the meeting, Dr. W. J. Mayo, one of the regents, precipitated a discussion by saying he believed the university should make provision to care for students who are taken ill while at school before it provided a music building. Governor Burnquist suggested that both be included in the program. President Coffman, however, said the proposed building program outlined could not accommodate another item without rearrangement.

The tentative budget includes provision for constructing a mines experimental station under agreement with the United States government; it must be a structure equal to one which would have cost $150,000 in 1916. The budget also includes $50,000 to add to the $50,000 already allotted for an addition to the university high school, $382,000 for equipping various buildings and $140,000 for repairs.

The sum allotted for maintenance includes salary increases and additions to the staff as well as upkeep.

FUNDAMENTAL CHANGES ARE ON PROGRAM

ing at Marion. McCormick is in no sense an official representative of Mr. Harding, but he has apprized Senator Harding of his plans. The Illinois senator differs from other members of the irreconcilable group in that he sees the necessity of some sort of world association in which America shall play a part in her own way.

Revision of Peace Treaty.

Incidentally considerable pressure is being brought to bear upon President-elect Harding to persuade him to move for a revision of the peace treaty itself. There is no doubt that if Senator Knox were made secretary of state he would endeavor to separate the peace treaty from the world association idea so that the United States would never be obliged to participate in the enforcement of the treaty. Whether such a separation will be practicable is a moot point. So many compromises were worked out in Paris that some of the nations which have most at stake would fear that a reopening of one question would lead to tangled situations on another and thus to political crisis throughout Europe. However, there seems no question that the proposal will be made completely to divorce the peace treaty from the new association, as the original round robin presented by the Republican senators proposed when President Wilson made his first trip to the United States from the peace conference.

Of course, the action of the assembly of the League of Nations in waiting for proposals from the United States to change the Covenant is interpreted here as a particularly graceful move and one that is apt to put an even greater responsibility for early action on President-elect Harding. It is viewed as the first overture by Europe to Senator Harding, and some of those who know him best are convinced he will not lose the opportunity to make an entirely new proposal for the preservation of world peace.

SINN FEIN PLANS TO DESTROY BRITISH CITIES REVEALED

able to encounter them with a clear front and clean hands."

Sir Hamar Greenwood, the chief secretary for Ireland, was loudly cheered on rising to answer Mr. Asquith.

"The vast majority of the people of Ireland are not in favor of murder," he said.

Want Peace.

"They want peace, and they are getting peace because the forces of the crown are breaking the terror."

"The murder gang in Ireland," he continued, "issued a document known as the Irish republican bulletin and that murder gang sends the bulletin to persons in England and to newspapers in England. Some of them publish it. What amazes me is that the London Liberal federation has actually used the bulletin and based on it a charge of reprisals, so-called, and circulated it without any comment except this, 'display this prominently wherever you can.'

"The right honorable gentleman (Mr. Asquith) is president of that federation," Sir Hamar added.

Sir Hamar noted that Mr. Asquith had referred to the comments of an American correspondent.

"We have certain knowledge," continued the chief secretary, "that some of these enjoy the hospitality of the murder gang itself in Ireland. They send their newspaper matter to America to hurt Anglo-American friendship and do their best to damage the British empire.

"I could name these papers that have printed the most notable falsehoods, but the last election in America has been an adequate response. These who stop to make the Irish question an issue rather than Anglo-American friendship were covered with defeat."

Reprisal Charges.

As regards the reprisal charges, the chief secretary declared there was not a single authenticated case of anything called a reprisal having taken place under an officer. He cited an instance of soldiers who lost their heads because of the murder of a lieutenant of whom they were very fond, and had started firing. Another officer, said Sir Hamar, drew a revolver and threatened to kill any soldier who did not cease shooting, with the result that the men stopped.

The crown forces, declared the chief secretary, were daily growing more effective. It was true that more of them were being murdered, but that was because they were asserting the authority of the crown. Extracts from a document he said had been recently captured were read to show that £7,500 had been spent in organizing the headquarters staff of the republican army since July. This, he said, was the center of the "murder gang" and that it was from this center that in some cases £100 "per skull" of the police and military had been paid.

Specific instructions for the manufacture of certain high explosives had been discovered, the chief secretary declared, and two carefully detailed plans for the destruction of a large powerhouse in Manchester and of docks in Liverpool had been found. In the Liverpool case, he said, among the details were instructions regarding action at twenty-one points, involving the use of 800 pounds of gelignite.

Terror Creeping In.

Reading other documents showing the effect of the present policy of the government, Sir Hamar quoted a statement from a high republican army officer to the effect that the "enemy" had found a very effective method of disrupting the republican army's movements. The officer said a sort of terror was creeping in and disorganization setting in in many cases. The officer added that after the volunteers were disrupted all was lost.

Sir Hamar concluded by claiming that no country in the world had to deal with such a campaign of murder and outrage as England had to deal with in Ireland, but said the government was succeeding in its efforts to stamp it out. The Sinn Fein forces had disappeared, he declared, except in backroom meetings for propaganda; the boycott had been broken and its ugly sister, intimidation, was going; hunger strikes have ended, and the Irish republican army was being broken up.

The chief secretary appealed to the house to show every consideration by word and by resolution for the police, soldiers, civil servants and judges, he declared, were obeying the orders of parliament and fighting a battle against assassination and not against the Irish people. He appealed especially to the "great Catholic church in Ireland," which, he said, by appeals from every altar could greatly assist in this fight against assassination. Sir Hamar ended his address amid cheering when he said:

"There is only one issue left. That is 'who is for the empire and who is for assassination.'"

HOLIDAY PREVAILS AT THE NATION'S CAPITAL

Washington, Nov. 25.—Practical suspension of the nation's business marked the observance of Thanksgiving day in Washington today. The closing of all public offices and most of the private institutions and places of business gave the capital a holiday aspect, but there were no public functions. Most of the cabinet officers followed the example of President Wilson and spent the day quietly at home after attending church services. A number of private social functions and dinners were arranged for the evening.

President Wilson planned to spend the morning on the south portico of the White House with a short drive in the afternoon. In the evening, with Mrs. Wilson, he will be the host to a few relatives at a turkey dinner. Mrs. Wilson arranged to attend religious services in the morning at St. John's Episcopal church.

PLAN TO ESCORT ALL LIQUOR TO CONSUMER

New York, Nov. 25.—Bootlegging in New York was dealt a severe blow today by the announcement of Charles R. O'Connor, Federal prohibition director, that plans have been laid to officially escort every drop of liquor from its withdrawal from the bonded warehouse to the ultimate consumer. An intricate system of "checks and balances" has been devised for co-ordination of the work of various enforcement agents, he said, making efforts to divert liquor to beverage purposes "increasingly difficult and dangerous."

If it is found, he said, that any liquor withdrawn is so diverted, permits issued to the offender for withdrawal will be revoked, all remaining stock confiscated and an assessment of an additional tax of $12.80 per gallon levied—aside from legal proceedings for violation of the Eighteenth amendment.

RED LAKE COUNTY FAIR HAS $6.99 IN TREASURY

Red Lake Falls, Minn., Nov. 25.—Special to The Herald.—At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Red Lake County Agricultural society held Monday evening, Directors N. M. Watson and A. T. Ostendorf declined re-election, and in their stead Ed Porter and W. H. Gilfillan, both of Red Lake Falls, were elected for terms of three years. Noel Delorme of Red Lake Falls was re-elected for a three-year term. Hold-over members of the board are J. H. Wagner, Ildaige Baril, Gilbert Marchildon, Ferment Derosier, J. E. Braeger and Frank P. Grenier. At the first meeting of the board in January, a president, vice president, secretary and treasurer will be elected. The returning members of the board were given a vote of thanks. Secretary Joseph Salley's annual report showed a balance of $6.99 in the treasury. Receipts for the past year were $5,099.59 and expenses, $5,092.60.

Membership Close to 400.

Red Lake Falls, Minn., Nov. 25.—Special to The Herald.)—The membership of the Red Lake County Farm Bureau association will be close to 400 as the result of the six-day drive conducted by a group of thirteen farmer-solicitors in all parts of the county last week, according to Charles C. Lake, county agent. There were 268 new members on the continuous plan.

OUCH! LAME BACK
Rub Backache, Lumbago, Soreness and Stiffness Away—Try This!

Back hurt you? Can't straighten up without feeling sudden pains, sharp aches and twinges? Now listen! That's lumbago, sciatica or maybe from a strain, and you'll get blessed relief the moment you rub your back with soothing, penetrating "St. Jacobs Oil." Nothing else takes out soreness, lameness and stiffness so quickly. You simply rub it on and out comes the pain. It is perfectly harmless and doesn't burn or discolor the skin.

Limber up! Don't suffer! Get a small trial bottle from any drug store, and after using it just once, you'll forget that you ever had backache, lumbago or sciatica, because your back will never hurt or cause any more misery. It never disappoints and has been recommended for 60 years.—Advertisement.

FINE SCHOOLS GOPHER PLANS

Seventy-Five Cities of the State to Expend About $15,000,000.

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 25.—School building programs involving an expenditure of approximately $15,000,000 have been outlined by seventy-five cities of the state, according to an announcement today by S. A. Chailman, state inspector of school buildings.

Minneapolis proposes to invest approximately $2,000,000 for the erection of school buildings and St. Paul is planning to expend $1,125,000, according to Mr Chailman

School building activities have been greatly retarded during the past two years, and the disparity between buildings actually erected and those planned has been constantly increasing, Mr. Chaliman said. This has been due to the steadily mounting cost of construction which has upset all calculations as to funds needed in order to complete buildings under consideration The actual cost of school building operations has been twice as great as it was prior to the entry of the United States in the World war.

Spent $6,000,000 in Two Years.

Despite the high costs and the various other difficulties encountered in building activities, school buildings involving an aggregate cost of $6,000,000 have been erected in Minnesota during the past two years, according to a report of Mr. Chailman. Contracts have been let and construction is under way at the present time, Mr Challman said, calling for an expenditure of $10,000,000 for new buildings.

"While there has been considerable discussion as to the advisability of constructing temporary buildings to meet the most urgent needs," Mr. Challman said, "only a very small amount of money has been expended for such purposes.

"Except in a few instances where prudence would dictate that temporary or portable buildings should be constructed, in order that facilities for an education might not be denied, a large number of children," Mr. Challman added, "the policy of erecting permanent and properly equipped buildings has been generally adopted."

The three-story school building is being supplanted by the safer and more serviceable two-story building, both above ground, Mr. Challman said, while the basement will be used for nothing except the mechanical department of the various classes in these activities.

Much progress also has been made in the sanitary appointments of buildings. Toilet rooms are now generally distributed on each floor and omitted in the basement, except in conjunction with shower bath rooms. The co-operation of the state board of health, Mr. Challman said, in regard to water supply and sewage disposal has been of great value in bringing the school buildings of the state to the forefront.

Typical Buildings Erected.

Typical buildings, such as are desired by the various school districts, have already been erected in numerous cities and towns of the state. Some of these cities and towns are: Adams, Crosby, Red Wing, Richfield, South St. Paul, Staples, Thief River Falls, Waite Park and Warroad Buildings typifying the model school are under construction in the following towns and cities: Bertha, Deer Creek, Ely, Kettle River, Lake Elmo, Minneapolis, Nashwauk, Keewatin, North Mankato, Owatonna and Pemberton.

Buildings varying in cost from $200,000 to $400,000 are being planned at Annandale, Bemidji, Chisholm, Duluth, Eveleth, Litchfield, Luverne, Marshall, Renville, Waseca and Wayzata

Hibbing is planning to erect a high school at a cost of more than $1,000,000.

Buildings approximating a cost of from $100,000 to $200,000 are being planned at Aitkin, Gilbert, Herman, Hutchinson, Ivanhoe, Lewistown, Long Prairie, Montevideo, Morton, Sleepy Eye, Spring Grove, Stillwater, Storden, Thief River Falls and Virginia

Twenty towns in the state are planning to erect school buildings at an approximate cost of from $50,000 to $100,000.

CONVICTS WEEP AT FUNERAL OF WARDEN

Marquette, Mich., Nov. 25.—The funeral of James Russell, warden of the branch prison here for many years, was held at the prison. Services were conducted by the Rev. Father H. A. Mild Havana at Its Best

If we are prejudiced in favor of El Producto, so are the thousands of men who smoke it. And many a smoker praises this cigar far more highly than we would ever dare.

But this much we can say:

El Producto is a good cigar because El Producto's blend was originated to meet that happy medium where mildness and richness of flavor join. It was the first aim of the originator to produce a cigar that would give real enjoyment regardless of price. It was later that ways and means were discovered for placing this cigar on the market at a price that has made El Producto's present tremendous demand possible.

Today, in whatever shape or size you prefer, at prices ranging from 2 for 25c to 30c, you may enjoy that original El Producto blend that can't be copied.

LANDING OF THE PILGRIMS.

The breaking waves dashed high
 On a stern and rock-bound coast,
And the woods against a stormy sky
 Their giant branches tossed;
And the heavy night hung dark
 The hills and waters o'er
When a band of exiles moored their bark
 On the wild New England shore.

Not as the conqueror comes,
 They, the true-hearted, came;
Not with the roll of stirring drums,
 And the trump that sings of fame;
Not as the flying come,
 In silence and in fear;
They shook the depths of the desert's gloom
 With their hymns of lofty cheer.

Amidst the storm they sang;
 The stars heard, and the sea!
And the sounding aisles of the dim woods rang
 To the anthem of the free.
The ocean eagle soared
 From his nest by the white wave's foam,
And the rocking pines of the forest roared;
 This was their welcome home!

What sought they thus afar?
 Bright jewels of the mine?
The wealth of seas, the spoils of war?
 They sought a faith's pure shrine.
Ay, call it holy ground,
 The soil where first they trod;
They have left unstained what here they found:
 Freedom to worship God.

Club Memberships to Be Sold Saturday

Announcement is given out by Mrs. C. H. Houston that on Saturday an all-day sale of memberships in the Twentieth Century club will be made at the Glass Block store. For those who find it more convenient to procure memberships at the library, as has been the practice heretofore, Miss Thorne, at the public library will be in charge of the sale of memberships there.

This sale will not be in the nature of a drive, but is designed to relieve the membership committee of some of its responsibilities, and to avoid confusion and delay at the regular club programs, necessitated by the purchase of memberships at that time.

Announcement is made, also, that persons wishing to take care of this matter by mail may send checks to Mrs. T. A. Armstrong, 731 West Seventh street, treasurer of the Twentieth Century club. It is the earnest wish of those in charge of the club business that members will avail themselves of the opportunities given, that the club business may be disposed of in proper shape and at an early date.

Hennepin Women Deputy Sheriffs

Minneapolis, Minn., Nov. 25.—Hennepin county soon will have the first woman deputy sheriff in the state. Sheriff Earle Brown, informed yesterday by Rollin Smith, assistant attorney general, that appointment of women as deputies is legal since passage of the universal suffrage amendment, said he plans to deputize Mrs. Grace Cleveland, stenographer in the sheriff's office, as soon as possible. Mrs. James Merrick, matron of the county jail, also should be made a deputy, he said.

ANNUAL SALE OF CHRISTMAS SEALS BEGINS IN DULUTH FRIDAY MORNING

Tomorrow the annual sale of Christmas seals will open in Duluth and will continue until Christmas. For many years it has been the custom, at this time of the year to raise funds for the combating of the spread of tuberculosis. Where in years past, the funds have been used for different lines of this work, this year it will be used in another channel, that of helping disabled men and women who served in the late war.

Officials of the bureau of war risk insurance have called upon the National Tuberculosis association for consultation and expert advice in the development of plans for the best possible care for the treatment of every World war service man and woman who is disabled on account of tuberculosis. The treatment work is being financed with part of the $46,000,000 appropriated by congress last July to the war insurance bureau.

The fight against tuberculosis for the nation generally is directed by the National Tuberculosis association. In this state, the fight against the deadly "white plague" is waged through the Minnesota Public Health association and affiliated county public health associations which also are supported through the sale of Christmas seals and health bonds. The 1920 Christmas seal sale starts here Dec. 1.

Patients will be cared for in public and private sanatoria and hospitals in Minnesota and other states, as well as in the government institutions. Official records show that 1,500 Minnesota young men called to the colors were rejected because they were victims of tuberculosis and thousands of others, many of them from this state, developed the disease in the service.

From data furnished by the bureau of war risk insurance, it is estimated that nearly 12,400 tuberculosis men and women need treatment at the present time as beneficiaries of the bureau of war risk insurance, and by 1924, when the peak load is expected, that this number will be increased to 13,800.

The plans worked out by the bureau of war risk insurance and the National Tuberculosis association include:

The construction of first-class sanatoria, and proper care and treatment of every man and woman who needs it and can be induced to take it. The bureau has found it necessary to educate disabled ex-service men concerning the value of treatment for disabilities, and to induce them to accept government provisions, especially the victims of tuberculosis.

Provisions in sanatoria for occupational therapy and prevocational training. By co-operation with the Federal board for vocational education, the men will be passed on from treatment to full vocational training when such special training is necessary to restore the man to full working efficiency.

Utilization of state, county, municipal and private sanatoria where the best interests of the patients require it. These institutions also will be used as clearing houses for the examination and diagnosis of doubtful cases. The plan is to use only those sanatoria which meet the standards of first-class treatment as promulgated by the American Sanatorium association.

AT THE THEATERS

TONIGHT'S ATTRACTIONS.

ORPHEUM—"The Dance Shop;" other acts.
NEW GRAND—G. Swayne Gordon & Co. in "Off With the Old Love;" other features.
PLAZA, Superior—"Buddies," musical comedy.

NEW GRAND—A comedy playlet filled with dramatic situations, a spectacular exhibition of marksmanship, a breezy farcical bit, a little of a number of entertaining phases of variety, and a combination of dance oddities with novel melodies are among the good things promised for the new show at the Grand today.

G. Swayne Gordon & Co. will be seen in "Off With the Old Love," a somewhat different comedy notable for its crisp dialogue and unexpected developments. There are three characters, an author, his friend and "the girl." This combination coupled with the statement that the scene is the friend's room at 1 o'clock in the morning gives an insight as to the possibilities, but whatever you expect remember that it is comedy that prevails.

The Georgalis Trio, two men and a woman, will present a clever exhibition of remarkable and rather spectacular marksmanship. The sharpshooting of these "bullseye experts" is a wonderful demonstration of what steady nerves and years of practice can accomplish.

Al. Lester & Co. have an assortment of farcical ideas mixed with comedy songs and glib talking.

"A Little Bit of This and That" is what De Witt & Robinson are bringing as their contribution to the show. One of the pair is a midget comedian and with his associate reels off a line of funny stuff with songs and dances and banjo and piano numbers as extras.

A pleasing assortment of songs, with several changes of costume for the feminine member of the team; lively dances and other features go to make up the miniature revue which Robert and Demont will present.

The photoplay program is a show in itself with the twelfth story of the "Hidden Dangers" serial, "Human Bait," as one of the features. "In Wrong Wright" is the comedy feature. Other attractions include "Silver Linings," a Bruce scenic; and the Grand News Weekly.

ORPHEUM—How far can one travel in fourteen minutes? That depends upon how fast the travelers go. Fenton and Fields cover the whole course and finish much stronger than the start. They travel fast, setting a terrific pace for their followers. The track on which they run is a vaudeville stage and the event is comedy. Fenton and Fields are blackface comedians. They excel in comedy, singing, talking and dancing. From the time they first set foot on the stage until they make way for the next act, they are bountiful contributors to the public fund of fun and melody. Both men have good voices and they are manufacturers of laughs.

"Little Miss Vamp" Coming.

"Little Miss Vamp," a musical comedy in one act, with a star cast and beauty chorus, is scheduled for the Orpheum next week. This act has been acclaimed by critics over the circuit as one of the brightest and best in vaudeville and it is now creating a fine impression among Twin City theater-goers. The Lightner Sisters, Newton Alexander and other star vaudevillians are featured.

PHOTOPLAYS

NEW GARRICK—Will Rogers in "Honest Hutch."
ZELDA—J. Warren Kerrigan in "The Green Flame."
NEW LYRIC—Jack Holt and Kathryn Adams in "The Best of Luck."
STRAND—Norma Talmadge in "The Branded Woman."
NEW ASTOR—Mary Pickford in "Pollyanna."

NEW GARRICK—"Honest Hutch," with Bill Rogers in one of the best roles of his screen career, comes to the New Garrick today on an unusually strong program, which also includes "Torchy Turns Cupid" and other attractions. Rogers has been cast as a lazy, shiftless, yet lovable person residing on the banks of the Mississippi in the sugar-growing belt. His greatest claim to fame lies in the fact that he is the husband of a jewel of a wife and the father of a smart, if dirty, lot of children. How the finding of $50,000 in thousand dollar bills, which he does not attempt to use, knowing that even a $10 bill in his hands would excite suspicion, stirs him into actually working long enough to come to like it, makes a story that entertains every foot of the way. It is a distinct novelty and one of Rogers' very best pictures as it is his latest. The added attraction on the program is one of the Sewell Ford comedy-dramas, "Torchy Turns Cupid."

ZELDA—Manager Abrahamson of the Zelda theater is to be congratulated on securing J. Warren Kerrigan in "The Green Flame," which will be shown tonight and last time tomorrow. The director, Ernest C. Warde, who made it and those who have seen this romantic mystery drama say that the popular matinee idol is at his best in a story that is not only clear and clean cut but an even better picture than "No. 99," which has doubled the number of Kerrigan fans all over the world. Kerrigan's increasing popularity is only the natural outcome of one who leads a good clean life, is a hard, consistent, earnest worker always playing with his heart in the game.

NEW LYRIC—There is a little of everything in the way of thrills and spectacles in "The Best of Luck," the picturization of the Drury Lane theater's big romantic and melodramatic success, which opened a three-day engagement at the New Lyric yesterday with "Wedding Blues," a special Christie comedy, on the same bill. The offering is so different, so filled with the stress of combat of wills and purposes, and with thrilling action that it holds the spectator tense and on edge from first to last. Jack Holt, Kathryn Adams, Fred Maletesta and others are in the all-star cast. Neal Burns, Vera Steadman, Helen Darling and Earl Rodney are the stars in "Wedding Blues," "a runaway romance of roars." There are other attractions including the Lyric News Events, which shows among other things, the Minnesota Homecoming. The offerings combine for an ideal entertainment.

STRAND—Norma Talmadge, in the greatest success of her career, "The Branded Woman," will continue at the Strand theater all this week. In this production Miss Talmadge again demonstrates her great emotional ability and the charm of her personality. For the next few weeks the question, "Have you seen 'The Right to Love'?" will share importance in town talk. This attraction comes to the Strand starting Sunday. As a producer and director of society drama, George Fitzmaurice has few if any equals on the screen. With that accomplished of pantomimists, Mae Murray and David Powell, he has made a recent big success, "On With the Dance." With this same team he has fashioned from the French play by Pierre Frondaie and Claude Farrere another which bids for the same honors, although unlike the other in every detail. The one deals with life under the white lights, the other with the life of an American

ON BEING POSITIVE.

DON'T you hate positiveness in matters of opinions?

Don't you hate it in others and aren't you ashamed of it when you find it in yourself?

Almost always when I've been positive I have come to regret it afterwards.

I never hear anyone who has not tried auction bridge declare that he prefers bid whist without remembering how positive I was, before I learned, that I, too, could never like auction as well as bid. And I promise myself I will never be so positive again.

And then there's Christian Science. How virulently positive I used to be against that! Not that I have become a Scientist, by any means, but I have come to see that there may be more things in heaven and earth than are dreamed of in my philosophy.

Positiveness Causes a Quiet Smile.

Positiveness always defeats its own ends because it never convinces.

We are apt to smile a quiet inward smile at the man or woman who is always positive about things—if we are too polite to smile outside.

Of course, it is a splendid thing to know what you know. But that isn't being positive, that's being sure. We like to meet people who are sure about things that they have reason to be sure of. They give you a feeling of dependability. For instance, what a joy is the one-man-in-ten who, when asked the time, will not say, "Well, my watch says thus-and-so, but it may be a few minutes slow, I'm not sure," but will haul out his watch, tell you the time and say that he knows it is right within thirty seconds.

The same man will give a date or a figure with quiet surety—if he knows it. And if he doesn't know it he will not try to give it.

One Cannot Be Sure on Matters of Opinion.

But one cannot be sure over things that are matters of opinion. One can only be positive about them.

It doesn't cost any more to qualify statements of opinion, or of facts which you do not absolutely know, with an "I think."

It doesn't cost any more to present them quietly instead of with violence. After all, it is not an insult for people to differ from you in opinion; you do not need to grow hot under the collar about it.

And then when you are sure about anything you will receive a great deal more attention and confidence.

Positiveness Versus Sureness.

You remember the old Persian proverb, "He who knows not and knows not that he knows not is a fool, shun him; he who knows not and knows that he knows not is simple, teach him; he who knows and knows not that he knows is asleep, wake him; he who knows and knows that he knows is wise, follow him."

At the one end of the scale is the positive man—the fool "who knows not and knows not that he knows not."

At the other is the man who is sure, the wise man "who knows and knows that he knows."

(I have a grave suspicion, also, that the positive man will acclaim himself as one who "knows" and the really wise man will pause to wonder if he is ever positive.)

Efficient Housekeeping

By Laura A. Kirkman.

THE UP-TO-DATE WEDDING SHOWER.

A few years ago the participants in a bridal shower simply brought their various gifts and gave them to the bride-to-be. Today there is an effort to present the gifts in some distinctly original way. "Do help me out with suggestions for a wedding shower," say dozens of letters I receive from my readers. It is so hard to think how to give the gifts to the bride. I am giving a shower to a friend and I want it to be different from any other shower she has ever heard of."

In reply to these letters I always outline some such plan as the following (which is original with me.)

Invite the unsuspecting bride-to-be to your home for a cup of tea at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. Have all the girls who are to take part in the shower drop in at different times, apparently on chance, until all have arrived. After the first one or two have come, the bride-guest will of course begin to suspect that her friends have been invited to come and have not merely happened to drop in; so for this reason the other guests may come in a body after the first few have arrived.

Before coming, the guests have all left their gifts for the bride at the nearby home of some friend. A small boy must be hired to make as many trips from the house where the gifts were left to the house of the hostess, as there are gifts. As the bride and her friends sit sipping their tea, the doorbell will ring and a messenger of "Dan Cupid's Express" company will deliver a parcel for the bride-to-be. She will, of course, open each parcel in the presence of those gathered and her surprise and delight will fill the little hour with pleasure.

If it is desired to serve more elaborate refreshments than merely tea, the following menu may be served—either in the dining room on table or buffet, or brought in on the tea cart.

Noisette Cheese Sandwiches
Tea Layer Cake
Prune Whip with Orange

Noisette Cheese Sandwiches—Cut stale nut bread into very thin slices; spread with butter and cream cheese which have been beaten together thoroughly, and add a layer of marmalade before putting two slices together.

Prune Whip—Five eggs, 1 cup cooked prune pulp which has been pressed through a sieve, 1 tablespoon lemon juice, 5 tablespoons powdered sugar, a pinch of salt and ¼ teaspoon cream of tartar. Beat the egg whites until stiff. Mix together the sugar, salt and cream of tartar and beat these into the stiff egg whites. Now fold in the lemon juice and prunes well mixed together. Pile this mixture lightly into a buttered baking dish and bake in a moderate oven about 25 minutes. Serve cold in individual sauces, bordering each portion with a row of sweetened sliced oranges.

All inquiries addressed to Miss Kirkman in care of the "Efficient Housekeeping" department will be answered in these columns in their turn. This requires considerable time, however, owing to the great number received. So if a personal or quicker reply is desired, a stamped and self-addressed envelope must be enclosed with the question.—The Editor.

"TINKER BOB" STORIES

By CARLYSLE H. HOLCOMB

A VOICE IN THE AIR.

"Tinker Bob, Tinker Bob," came the summons, and it was none other than Jack Frost calling to tell the king that he was almost ready to open the chestnut burrs and nip all of the leaves from the trees. Tinker Bob had already planned to go to the Land of the South with Lady Duck, but he was anxious to wait till Jack Frost opened the chestnuts, for he liked chestnuts so well and he wanted to take some along with him. Lady Duck also liked chestnuts very well when the hard shell was taken off and, of course, the king would take the shell off so she could have some.

Tinker Bob went outside the palace and looked about to see who might be calling him. He could see no one. It seemed very strange to him that he heard a voice but could not see a single person. He was not afraid, like many would be who, having heard a voice, could see no one. He returned to the palace and waited to see if the voice would speak again.

Sure enough, it did! "Tinker Bob, Tinker Bob." He went again outside, but still he could see no one. Then the little Forest Breeze came along and whispered in his ear, "It is Jack Frost calling you. Go to yonder chestnut tree and you will see what he has done."

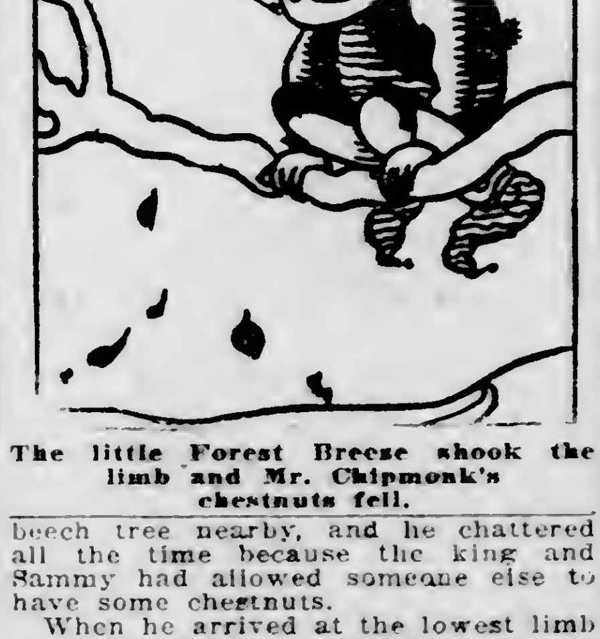
This pleased the king and he told Lady Duck that the chestnuts were ready to gather. With a bag on his back and a stick in his hand, he and Lady Duck went to the chestnut tree, and what do you think they found? Well, they found a tree full of creatures from all parts of the forest.

Yes, young Sammy Squirrel was there, and so was Mr. Chipmonk. They were chattering as fast as they could and gathering chestnuts as fast as they could also. Rufus the Tree Mouse had asked Sammy if he might have some chestnuts and Sammy had told him he could, but Mr. Chipmonk was angry, for he wanted them all himself.

It was only a moment after Tinker Bob arrived before Dr. Coon came along and asked the king if he could have a few chestnuts for his sick friends in the forest. The king said he might have all he could carry, and then Mr. Chipmonk was angry again because he wanted them for himself.

Mr. Chipmonk gathered all the nuts he could manage and more. Then he started with them to his home in the beech tree nearby, and he chattered all the time because the king and Sammy had allowed someone else to have some chestnuts.

When he arrived at the lowest limb of the chestnut tree the little Forest Breeze shook the limb and Mr. Chipmonk's chestnuts fell from his arms and went tumbling to the ground, and who do you suppose was there? Well, Jack the Wood Rat was there and he took every nut he could find, and Mr. Chipmonk had none—just because he wanted them all.



The little Forest Breeze shook the limb and Mr. Chipmonk's chestnuts fell.

Time dispels our old illusions—

COFFEE

comes into its own

Gradually our old "bugaboos" pass away. Who of this day can realize that the Telephone was first received with jibes and jeers? It was called a "plaything."

Even coffee,—this rarest of Nature's gifts,—is sometimes assailed by people of super-sensitive nerves and overwrought digestions.

Our food fancies are many and curious. Red meat is too rich for the blood of some. Tomatoes contain too much acid. Milk is said to produce biliousness in adults,—but it is fine for children!

If we accept the general condemnation of foods because of individual prejudices or disabilities, there may come a time when we shall have nothing to eat! What then?

The real truth is—the use of coffee brings the greatest good to the greatest number. Coffee makes normal people more normal. Coffee makes healthy people more healthy.

Brazil is noted for its large coffee production. Its people are inveterate coffee drinkers,—uniformly robust and healthy.

Coffee is now, and ever will be the world's popular beverage. Drink good, pure, clean, wholesome coffee. Get the goodness of the genuine taste. There is no substitute.

SIGNIFICANT—The London Lancet—that eminent medical authority—states: "The effect of coffee upon the vital centers after a meal makes it valuable as an aid to digestion."

NEW ASTOR—The real Thanksgiving picture, Mary Pickford in "Pollyanna," the story of the "Glad Girl," which has been running for the last three days at the New Astor will be offered for the last times this evening. Tomorrow there will be an entirely new program, featured by Douglas Fairbanks, who recently acquired a new hold on fame by becoming "Mary Pickford's husband," in "His Majesty, the American," which has more laughs and more thrills to the foot than any three or four ordinary pictures. There are added attractions. Sunday D. W. Griffith's wonderful romance, "Broken Blossoms," never before shown at popular prices, will be the featured attraction of a program which will run for two days.

BIG CROWD ATTENDS NIGHT IN TURKEY

One of the largest crowds that ever attended a "Night in Turkey" gathered at the Duluth Commercial clubrooms last night for the annual "stag" affair, staged by the club the night before Thanksgiving. Not only was the main cafe crowded to the doors, but the lobby and small rooms were also filled. It was estimated by officers of the club that at least 500 visited the club during the evening, some to stay for the entire performance, and others for only a short time.

More than fifty prizes were given away during the evening, including turkeys, geese, ducks, chickens and small pigs. Refreshments were served during the evening, consisting of cider and apples. The musical program was furnished by "Jerry" who supplied the "jazz."

BAY STATE COURT RULES ON JAMAICA GINGER

Boston, Mass., Nov. 25.—Unless Jamaica ginger is sold as a beverage, it is not to be considered as intoxicating liquor, the full bench of the supreme court yesterday ruled in setting aside verdicts of guilty in the case of Sam Sookey and Michael J. Feagan, storekeepers in Pittsfield.

Judge De Courcey, who wrote the opinion of the court, held that the sale of Jamaica ginger as a disguised substitute for liquor "is not so notorious that we can assume without proof that Jamaica ginger has the distinctive character, use and effect of an intoxicating liquor."

CONSTABULARY TROOPER HELD FOR MANSLAUGHTER

Escanaba, Mich., Nov. 25.—Joseph Sheridan, Michigan state trooper, was bound over to circuit court under $5,000 bonds yesterday for manslaughter, growing out of the killing of John Kerenski, a bartender, when state constabulary raided his saloon Monday night.

Capt. Downing of the constabulary who earlier yesterday asked for Sheridan's resignation, changed his decision and refused to accept it.

PRESIDENT WATCHES PARADE OF PILGRIMS

Washington, Nov. 25.—President Wilson viewed from the east portico of the White House last night a colorful pageant commemorating the landing of the Pilgrims 300 years ago. Seated in his armchair beside Mrs. Wilson, the president watched the procession to the end, frequently applauding the elaborate floats depicting scenes of the Pilgrim days. A realistically posed scene of the landing of the Pilgrims drew special attention.

DISCUSS CITY WATER SUPPLY

No Sickness From Chlorine; Commissioners Meet Civic Council.

The members of the city council were guests of the Duluth Civic council at a luncheon at the Duluth Commercial club yesterday noon. They were invited to be present and discuss with the civic council the subjects of the water supply and law enforcement. While there was some discussion of the water, little was said of the other question, this having been virtually settled for the time being, with the appointment of Maj. W. E. Pugh, new chief of police, one of the members of the council declared.

Commissioner P. G. Phillips of the public utilities department was called upon to explain the use of chlorine in the water and what amounts were being used. He asserted there was no foundation to the stories that women had become sick from breathing the fumes of the chlorine in the water, as there was no taste or odor from it. He gave the amounts other cities were using in their water systems, most of which were using much more than Duluth.

Commissioner Farrell also talked of the water and sewer conditions in the city and declared Duluth was as free from sewage troubles as any city in the country. The only possibility of any trouble now was when there was a heavy northeaster blowing, and that was not often, he said.

Mayor T. W. Hugo commended the council on the plan of holding joint meetings at which questions of civic interest could be discussed.

"Mentho-Laxene is the Best Cough Medicine Known—Especially It Worked Wonders With Our Children."

(From a Mother's Letter)

Doubt is said to be our one worst enemy. Often people suffer months, sometimes years, with severe coughing and continuous "fresh colds," not knowing or not believing that science has found a most efficient and practically sure relief for such conditions, (if it is not consumption). The makers of Mentho-Laxene guarantee results from every bottle, or offer to refund purchase price, and in ten years less than 50 persons have asked for money back. Four thousand barrels of Mentho-Laxene syrup were used last year, and each season finds a greater number of satisfied users. Each bottle has directions how to make a full pint of cough syrup, simply and easily—or it can be used in 10 drop doses just as you buy it, concentrated.

For chronic colds, coughs, bronchitis, hoarseness, difficult breathing, whooping cough, we believe there is nothing better, "especially for our children," as Mrs. Pearl Hauck of Covington, Ky., states it. Your druggist has it, or can get it from his jobber. Try it today.—Advertisement.

A Hymn for Thanksgiving

Our cities wax triumphant, all in clay and stone and steel,
Our fields are rich with provender, our bins are filled with meal.
The days have brought us glory and the year has brought us gold,
So come we to our temples as our fathers came of old.
We come with all our blessings; with all treasures that we hoard,
We come with joyous hearts to bring thanksgiving to our Lord.

Thou, Lord, whose might has cherished us, thou, who has filled our hands
With plenty, and hath brought us peace from all our sister lands—
O come thou, Lord, and mould our minds, and humble, Lord, our hearts,
So that we shall not glorify the milling in our marts.
Teach us how frail our baubles are, what outworn shadows these;
Fat fields and teeming cities and good ships upon the seas.

O Lord, this day we come in shame as stewards of thy store,
Thy bounty we have hid away, e'en as men did of yore;
In swinish, heedless blindness have we bestowed thy goods,
Heaping here and starving there in wicked, wanton moods.
O Lord, have mercy on us, who have heard the bitter cry
Of them who, broken by our greed, have called thy love a lie.

O Lord, what are our harvests; O God, what are our gains
That we should boast of them to thee who sendest wind and rains?
But if the passing year has brought one custom, law or code,
Which makes for thy kind justice, Lord, here now, in thine abode,
We thank thee for this sign that thou still showest us thy face,
For that, O Lord, we thank thee—that sure proof of thy dear grace. Amen.

—William Allen White in the Kansas City Star.

THANKSGIVING.

Some hae meat and canna eat,
And some wad eat that want it;
But we hae meat, and we can eat,
Sae let the Lord be thankit.
—Robert Burns.

If there is a people on earth that has cause for real thanksgiving this day it is the American people. It is true that it is rather sorry and selfish thanksgiving to be made thankful by the contrast between our lot and the poorer lot of others, and probably we had better search for larger and less selfish reasons. Few there are who cannot find them if they search. And those who have given, even though it be but a little, to make the lot of others less pitiable than it is, will find a finer flavor in their thanksgiving than those who have not.

It is not all sunshine in America today. Like the rest of the world, we must undergo the transition from the hectic, unhealthy boom of war times to the soberer and safer prosperity of peace. We are undergoing that transition now, and it is bringing anxious moments for many; but it will pass, like all transition periods, and those who keep their feet on the ground and their heads cool will come through safely.

And it isn't a bad thing that it isn't all sunshine. They say that people living where it is all sunshine or nearly so get very weary of it, and long for the stimulus of a bad storm once in a while. Nobody would appreciate sunshine if we didn't have cloudy days to make a contrast.

With nearly everybody, the difference between being thankful or being unable to find reason for thanksgiving, being happy or being miserable, is largely a matter of a state of mind that has wonderfully little to do with external and material affairs. If a fellow's mind is not working right, he can have ten great blessings and one small affliction, and the one small affliction will make him utterly oblivious to all the ten blessings. The fellow who is to be envied is not the one with lots of money, but the one with a mind that lets him be happy over one blessing even though he has ten afflictions.

And when you find a fellow situated as fortunately as that, you are pretty likely to discover that religion, that cornerstone which is rejected by so many of us—or rather neglected than rejected—has a good deal to do with it.

He is in pretty tough luck who can't find reason for thanksgiving this day. The chances are, too, that it isn't because he hasn't reason for thanksgiving, but because he hasn't the happy faculty of finding it and appreciating it.

Burns's verses mean a good deal more than meat, and have to do with things much more important than Thanksgiving dinner. Those who have blessings but let small afflictions obscure them are they who "hae meat and cannot eat." If we have the happy faculty of getting the most out of what we have—if "we hae meat, and we can eat"—then, indeed, "let the Lord be thankit."

THE ANOMALY OF NEVADA.

Nevada, which lost population in the last ten years where most states gained it, has about seventy-eight thousand people. And it has two members in the United States senate.

New York, which gained, has about ten million people. And it, too, has two members of the United States senate.

A senator from Nevada, when he votes, reflects—or is supposed to reflect—the will of seventy-eight thousand.

A senator from New York, when he votes, is supposed to reflect the will of ten million.

Seventy-eight thousand, living in Nevada, have as much legislative power as ten million living in New York.

Rather queer, isn't it? And hardly just, of course. Yet there is nothing that can be done about it, and we seem to be getting on rather well in spite of it.

This anomaly is due, of course, to two great crises in American history when things that were not exactly right were done to avoid far greater evils.

The first was when the Constitution was being forged, when its makers had the difficult task of uniting thirteen separate nations, large and small, and when the fear of the little colonies that they would be swallowed up and extinguished by the large ones seemed about to defeat the whole great enterprise. The compromise that was made—representation of population in the house of representatives and of the states equally in the senate—was the first step that produced the anomaly of Nevada.

The next step was taken in 1864, when President Lincoln needed more votes in the senate to get the two-thirds majority necessary to carry out his programs, and Nevada was made a state to supply them. Nevada did not have statehood stature then, and it hasn't now. But it was made a state to meet a great political exigency, and it will remain a state.

The anomaly of its disproportionate power in the senate will always remain, of course; and there is another and greater anomaly that will remain as long as the hocus-pocus of the electoral college remains. This is that as states have electors as numerous as their senators and representatives, less than thirty thousand people living in Nevada have as much power in electing a president as two hundred and twenty-five thousand people living in New York.

THE MILLER HOSPITAL SITE.

The committee in charge of the project to build a free city hospital with money bequeathed to the city for that purpose by the late A. M. Miller selected and bought a site on East Second street between Fifth and Sixth avenues east.

A question has been raised whether that location is the best one, and it seems worth considering carefully.

Mr. Miller's purpose in leaving this money was to provide a public hospital which should be primarily for the poor.

Therefore, naturally, the hospital should be located where it will be handiest to the places where most poor people dwell; and the question that has been raised is whether the site already chosen meets that requirement.

If it does, all right. If it doesn't, then a plan of changing the location should be considered. It is not probable that it would be difficult to sell without loss the site already purchased if a change is determined to be wise.

The question having been raised, the committee in charge should give it careful consideration, and should decide whether or not the present site is the best available before further steps are taken.

DESPICABLE BUSINESS.

Henry Ford conducts a weekly magazine as a sort of a hobby. He can well afford to do it, no matter how much red ink is needed to keep the books. And there is no harm in it, either, IF there is no harm in it.

But Mr. Ford, it appears, is using his magazine to carry on a campaign against the Jews, and makes that campaign a leading feature week after week.

That's a wretched business to be in. We don't care whether such a crusade is anti-Jewish, anti-Irish, anti-British, anti-Catholic or anti-Protestant, it is wretched business.

Any man who devotes himself and his resources to stirring up religious or racial hatred anywhere, and in this country above all countries, is in shameful business and deserves nothing but scorn and contempt.

When there is so much good work to which he could apply his money and the talents of those who write for him, Mr. Ford chooses to devote them to a campaign of race hatred. We are ashamed of him, and for him.

Harding and Root

By Savoyard.

Washington, Nov. 25.—(Special to The Herald.)—William Randolph Hearst was conspicuous among the Pretorians who swelled the ranks of the G. O. P. the campaign of 1920, and there is no doubt that his squad, however vicious in character, was formidable in number. Mr. Harding had not been president-elect a week when Mr. Hearst issued an order forbidding him to appoint Elihu Root secretary of state. The late Theodore Roosevelt pretended to know a good deal about American public men, living and dead, and he gave it as his opinion that Elihu Root was the greatest and the wisest political thinker the Republican party ever produced—intellectually greater than Lincoln, greater than Conkling, greater than Garfield, greater than Thomas B. Reed.

Mr. Harding has pledged himself to consult the "greatest minds" of the country to draw from them wisdom with which to equip and fortify his administration. Will he exclude Root from the collection of sages he intends to call in council, at the insolent mandate of this Janizary, captain of the yallers? Not if he is fit to be president of the United States. Of all living men Elihu Root is fittest to advise a Republican president. True, he is the most trusted champion of Wall Street, but the G. O. P. is only the junior partner of the firm Wall Street & Co.

If America is to join the League of Nations during the administration of Warren G. Harding, Mr. Root is the statesman who will lead her into the combination. That America will some day be a full member of the league there is no sort of doubt. That she is not a full member of the league this blessed moment is solely due to the envy and jealousy of the little and jaundiced minds of the senatorial oligarchy, captained by Henry Cabot Lodge.

Woodrow Wilson is not the founder of the idea of a league of nations to avert wars. That tremendous and blessed conception existed centuries ago. But the name of Woodrow Wilson is as securely bound to that transcendal political reformation as the name of Martin Luther is linked to the religious reformation of the Sixteenth century. That is a stubborn and fixed fact that is inexorable history regardless and contemptuous of whatever the Harding administration may do or may not do. The League of Nations had little to do in bringing about the election of Harding. It was world unrest and world discontent arising out of the world convulsion of fifty-two months of world war that made the political revolution in America as it made it in France and in Italy, and as it would have made it in England but that in England the administration is a coalition of the two great political parties, each equal in credit and in responsibility.

Mr. Root is as anxious for America to be a member of the League of Nations as is President Wilson. He has served notice that Harding's talk of a new association of nations, independent of the league now in existence, is gibberish. He has convinced himself that by some sort of artifice America can sneak into the league and at the same time discredit Wilson. That is "one of them impossible things," for Wilson already has the full credit that can come to any man as the creator of the league.

The brains of the Republican party is for the league—also the respectability. True they are going to modify and amend the pact with a view to discredit and rebuke Wilson, but this they cannot do except with the assent of the Democratic side of the senate that may be depended on to play its part in the drama with honor and with discretion.

* * *

The league is as vital an issue as it was the day Wilson first transmitted it to the senate. I think it will split both parties, though the damage to the Republicans will be much greater than to the Democrats as Hi Johnson has a much bigger following than Jim Reed. Had Lodge & Co. known that they could elect a Republican president in 1920 without the league as an issue as it is now clear they could have done, the league just as Wilson transmitted it to the senate would have been ratified by the senate more than a year ago.

Fetch on your cabinet, Mr. Harding. It is going to make a merry and a halcyon old time, whatever its composition.

Rippling Rhymes

By WALT MASON.

The Toilers

I hired some honest working men (to find such men long leagues I chased) to come around and fix my den, which time and weather had defaced. The carpenter arrived in state, he was attired in raiment glad; his touring car was simply great—eight cylinders the blamed thing had. The plasterer, a stalwart man, gave evidence that he was flush, for he rode in a fine sedan upholstered in the richest plush. The painter came, as he'd agreed, a man of rather haughty mien; he used to drive an old bay steed, but now he tools a limousine. The tinsmith came, an able cuss, who labors through a six-hour day, and I admired his handsome bus, a model '21 coupe. And there was one who came to delve a ditch where concrete would be poured; his wagon was a super-twelve whose powerful engine chugged and roared. They parked their cars around my shack until the street, both ways, was blocked; and of the toiler's burdened back, throughout the day they warmly talked. They spoke of Capital that sat in gilded ease and wore a grin, and on ill-gotten gains grew fat, while Honest Toil grew lank and thin. They talked all day of tying cans to plutocrats and men of means, then drove away in rich sedans, and touring cars and limousines.

Thanksgiving Sentiments

From the Philadelphia Public Ledger.

Rabindranath Tagore, the Hindu-English poet, contributed to the London Times the following verses on "Thanksgiving," which are as unlike the conventional Thanksgiving poem in sentiment as they are in form:

Those who walk on the path of pride crushing the lowly life under their tread, spreading their footprints in blood upon the tender green of thy earth.
Let them rejoice, and thank Thee, Lord, for the day is theirs.

But Thou hast done well in leaving me with the humble whose doom it is to suffer and bear the burden of power, and hide their faces and stifle their sobs in the dark

For every throb of their pain has pulsed in the secret depth of Thy night, and every insult has been gathered in Thy great silence.
And the morrow is theirs.

O Sun, rise upon the bleeding hearts blossoming in flowers of the morning and the torchlight revelry of pride hiding in its own aisles!

There is, of course, nothing new in dissent from that smug piety that returns thanks because its possessor is "not as other men are," be it in worldly possessions, in bodily health, in mental equipment or even in moral inheritance. Robert Burns long ago satirized one aspect of such self-complacence in "The Selkirk Grace":

Some hae meat and canna eat,
And some wad eat that want it;
But we hae meat and we can eat,
And sae the Lord be thankit,

and another aspect in "Holy Willie's Prayer:"

I bless and praise Thy matchless might,
When thousands Thou hast left in night,
That I am here afore Thy sight,
For gifts and grace,
A burnin' and a shinin' light
To a' this place.

William Blake, in one of those quaintly phrased little poems of his that have almost the flavor of esoteric wisdom, declares:

Since all the riches of this world
May be gifts from the devil and earthly kings,
I should suspect that I worshipped the devil
If I thanked my God for worldly things.

The countless gold of a merry heart,
The rubies and pearls of a loving eye,
The ideal man never can bring to the mart,
Nor the cunning hoard up in his treasury.

And in recent years Edmund Vance Cooke, a poet of whom Cleveland, the "sixth city," should be proud, has sung:

We thank Thee. Yea, in the even tone
Of those who are glad of the goods they own.
We thank Thee. Yea, that Thou hast preferred
And blessed us more than the common herd.
We thank Thee, part with the heart's intention,
But most, let us own, with the lips' convention.
"We thank Thee." Lord! What a selfish prayer!
Thanks—while a beggar's breast is bare!
Thanks that our own full feast is spread
While another creature is lacking bread!
Thanks that our full fed blood runs warm,
While a starveling baby breasts the storm!

There is certainly no taint of Tartuffe or Pecksniff in the reason that William Ernest Henley gives for thankfulness in his "Invictus," but it has something of pharisaical arrogance notwithstanding:

Out of the night that covers me,
Black as the pit from pole to pole,
I thank whatever gods may be
For my unconquerable soul.

Algernon Charles Swinburne, in "The Garden of Proserpine" (from which, by the way, Henley seems to have borrowed his "whatever gods may be"), expresses a sentiment that in certain moods has an appeal to many men:

From too much love of living,
From hope and fear set free,
We thank with brief thanksgiving
Whatever gods may be
That no life lives forever
That dead men rise up never,
That even the weariest river
Winds somewhere safe to sea.

But, after all, there is a healthier appeal than Swinburne's and an appeal to a greater number of normal men and women, in such fine odes as that which the late Hezekiah Butterworth wrote in celebration of the first "Thanksgiving in Boston Harbor":

The Arabella leads the song—
The Mayflower sings below,
That erst the Pilgrims bore along
The Plymouth reefs or snow,
Oh, neved be that psalm forgot
That rose o'er Boston Bay,
When Winthrop sang, and Endicott
And Saltonstall that day:

"Praise ye the Lord with fervent lips!
Praise ye the Lord today!"
And praise arose from all the ships
Like prayers in Yarmouth Bay.

Health Talks

By William Brady, M. D.

Near-Sightedness and Vision

The near-sighted eye is too long from front to back. It is often determined by a skull shape which is long from front to back. The Teutonic skull is that shape and near-sightedness is therefore common in persons of Teutonic nativity. The Indian and negro skulls are rather short from front to back, and in these races near-sightedness is rare.

Far-sightedness may be compensated to a certain degree by straining to focus the eyesight, but there is no way in which the near-sighted eye can overcome its deficiency, save by artificial lenses. By squinting the lids, so that some of the marginal rays of light are excluded, the near-sighted may make vision slightly clearer, but only slightly.

Near-sightedness tends to progress from bad to worse from year to year, up to the age of 20 to 25 years, when it generally does not show further increase.

If the child is carefully treated from the earliest discovery of the defect of vision, which is usually around the age of 7 or 8 years, fairly good vision will be retained throughout life. If the near-sightedness is not recognized and properly treated the eyes may undergo grave changes which may threaten vision itself.

By proper treatment I mean the regular care and advice of the oculist. When the oculist has measured the child's vision and considered the child's individual requirements he will prescribe the proper lenses and instruct the child or parents as to the care of the eyes.

A number of young persons write me and ask whether it will not be better for them to leave off their glasses part of the time, although they are near-sighted and cannot see clearly without the glasses. They harbor a notion that they should "exercise" the eye, and that the constant use of glasses will somehow "weaken the sight." Both of these ideas are groundless in any case, and in the case of near-sightedness it is very bad policy to omit the glasses at any time when the eyes are to be used. The glasses save the eyes.

Near-sightedness is never "outgrown." Well, for that matter, no other anatomical defect or disease is ever outgrown.

(The technical name for near-sightedness is myopia, and near-sighted individuals are called myopes).

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS.

Poets and Things.

In reading the biographies of poets painters, composers and scientists I notice they generally reach a ripe old age. How do you account for that? (J. O.)

Answer: Perhaps you happened to select some who attained old age. The majority of the classes mentioned are short lived.

Pure Cold Cream.

Quite a while ago you recommended a pure cold cream, but I have lost the clipping about it. Will you kindly give the name or formula again? (L. V.)

Answer: Unguentum Aquae Rosae, U. S. P., or in English, Ointment of Rose water, prepared in any desired quantity by any pharmacist, according to the formula in the official Pharmacopoeia, which every pharmacist has. This is the best cold cream, but it must be freshly prepared.

Needless Worry.

I have heard it is possible to become infected with syphilis through using drinking glasses, towels or utensils which others have used. If this is true, isn't everybody who must associate with a person whose blood tested Wassermann four plus, endangered? (S. M.)

Answer: In the earlier weeks or months of syphilis there is some danger to persons intimately associated with the patient unless the patient uses individual personal utensils and toilet articles. If you will refrain from using common towels, drinking cups and the like you need not worry about such infection.

Just a Moment

Daily Strength and Cheer.

Compiled by John G. Quinius, the Sunshine Man, Dayton, Ohio.

Because thou hast made the Lord, which is my refuge, even the most High, thy habitation; there shall no evil befall thee, neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling. For He shall give His angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways. They shall bear thee up in their hands, lest thou dash thy foot against a stone. Thou shalt tread upon the lion and adder: the young lion and the dragon shalt thou trample under feet. Because He hath His love upon me, therefore will I deliver him: I will set him on high, because He hath known my name. He shall call upon me, and I will answer him: I will be with him in trouble; I will deliver him, and honor him. With long life will I satisfy him, and show him my salvation.—Ps. xci, 9-16.

Another Day

Another day, and with it that brute joy
Or that prophet's rapture of the boy
Whom every morning brings as glad a breath
As if it dawned upon the end of death!

All other days have run the common course
And left me at their going neither worse
Nor better for them; only a little older,
A little sadder and a little colder.

But this—it seems as if this day might be
The day I somehow always thought to see,
And that should come to bless me past the scope
And measure of my farthest-reaching hope.

Today, maybe, the things that were concealed
Before the first day was, shall be revealed;
The riddle of our misery shall be read,
And it be clear whether the dead are dead.

Before this sun shall sink into the west
The tired earth may have fallen on his breast,
And into heaven the world have passed away
At any rate, it is another day.
—William Dean Howells.

The Need of the Hour

Roger W. Babson in Boston Congregationalist: If one thing is becoming more and more evident to business men it is that religion holds the only solution to our political, commercial and industrial problems. The need of the hour is more religion.

The business men should get behind movements of churches to extend missionary work, especially carrying to the churches such missionary intelligence as will create a greater interest in missions and education; and, second, to inaugurate a tithing system of giving which will provide the wherewithal by which the work may be carried on.

America's future demands that we all become imbued with the spirit of service, and seek to do instead of to get; seek to give instead of to accumulate.

Around North Dakota With the Pen Pushers

Breezy Comments on Current Topics by State's Live Newspapers.

States and Rail Rates

Grand Forks Herald: It is manifestly impossible, as the business of transportation has developed, to separate local from interstate business. The two are carried in the same cars, over the same rails, hauled by the same engines, and are covered by the same overhead charges. The effort to apportion costs between two systems so interwoven is like an effort to solve a mathematical problem all of whose main factors are unknown quantities. It cannot be done.

Since the thing cannot be done, why persist in the attempt? Why not accept frankly the fact that the regulation of transportation is the business of the nation, and then proceed from that?

Confidence on the Up-Grade Now

Fargo Forum: While nervous persons and a few vicious ones whose business it is to preach unrest and calamity, are running up and down the country yelling "panic," it might be worth while to consider for a moment what the nation has come through in the last few months without any signs of what might be called a panic.

In the last few months this country has seen the greatest fall in prices of basic commodities in its history.

Those who are yelling "panic" and secretly hoping for it in order to discredit political enemies, and add to the general unrest, are destined to be disappointed. The worst of the "panic" is over now.

Cause for Thanksgiving

Beach Advance: While the Nonpartisan league, as represented by its leaders, has won a few important offices, it has begun its ride on the toboggan and another election will see Townley and Lemke wiped off the political map in this state as they have been mopped up and thrown into the garbage pail in all the other states wherein they attempted to get a foothold.

The independents have much to be thankful for in this election.

Is It as Bad as This?

Bismarck Tribune: In December recurs one of the extraordinary inefficient happenings of the political machinery of this government.

It is—as the Searchlight so aptly terms it—"the-don't-care-a-damn-session" of congress.

Meeting after the November elections, this holdover session of congress is composed of re-elected and defeated members. The defeated members "don't-care-a-damn" about the public interest; the re-elected members are so far away from another election that they also "don't-care-a-damn."

Surely it is time to change such an absurd practice.

Probably

Minot News: It is not expected that the farmers and others who have paid over their good dollars to start the Townleyite papers will continue to subsidize them as losing business ventures merely to furnish outlets for floods of abuse against the independents and media for the Socialistic and other propaganda of the Townleyite leaders. The farmers are beginning to see a great light and have other and better uses for their money in these stressful days.

Apparently They Are

Dickinson Press: The thrones of the Nonpartisan league are tottering, but what else can its leaders expect? Any program, no matter how great its virtues, that is propagated and fostered on lies, deceit, class hatred and villification, as the league has been during the past four years, cannot succeed and it is time that the thinking people of the state were beginning to fully realize the fact.

A number of Franciscan sisters will leave this country next week for the leper settlement in the Hawaiian islands. They intend to devote their future lives in behalf of the lepers and probably will never return to their homes in the United States. The leader of the band is Mother Ann Schilling, a native of Syracuse, N. Y., who for some time past has labored among the poor in Louisville, Ky. An industrial school for the lepers' benefit will be started under the special charge of the Franciscan sisters.

A Twentieth Century ball will be given at the Spalding on the night of Dec. 31 by the old Assembly club. The committee on arrangements is composed of C. H. Graves, W. C. Sargent, D. R. McLennan, A. M. Miller, Jr., W. J. Olcott, W. B. Silvey and W. R. Peyton.

The marriage of Miss Isabelle V. Brackinseed and Walter M. Ober, both of this city, took place on Nov. 11 at Great Falls, Mont. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Eufers. Mr. and Mrs. Ober will reside at Great Falls, Mr. Ober having recently taken a position in the chemical laboratory of the Boston & Montana smelter in that city.

Duluth society people have been interested this week in the marriage of Miss Louise Pierpont Morgan, the New York heiress, and Herbert L. Satterlee, who formerly made his home in Duluth, representing Charles W. Wetmore here at the time he was financing the Duluth, Missabe & Northern road for the Merritts.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Blake of West Duluth expect to move soon to Los Angeles, Cal.

Dr. and Mrs. Pillsbury, formerly of this city, now of Faribault, Minn., were visiting friends at the Head of the Lakes this week.

M. S. Lloyd has returned from New York, where he went to meet his mother on her return from an extended visit in England.

Herbert R. Rix of Proctorknott has gone to Kansas City to take a position on the Baltimore & Ohio road.

C. A. Green of West Duluth has gone to Salt Lake, Utah, where he will spend the winter.

John S. Brown and James Martin, two engineers of the Missabe road, have gone to North Carolina, where they will remain during the winter. Pat Corrigan, another old engineer of the same road, has gone to Albuquerque, N. M., where he has secured a position on the Mexican Central road.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Taylor of Proctorknott have gone to Chicago for a brief visit before going to Detroit, Mich., where they expect to spend the winter.

Victor Kohn has returned from an extended visit with relatives in Louisville, Ky.

THE OPEN COURT

Readers of The Herald are invited to make free use of this column to express their ideas about topics of general interest, but discussion of sectarian, religious differences is barred. Letters must be accompanied in every case by the name and address of the writer, though these need not be published. A signed letter is always more effective, however.

All letters must be written on one side of the paper only.

The Herald does not publish original verse. Contributions of this nature that are submitted for the editor's perusal must be accompanied by a stamped and addressed envelope, if their return is desired. Otherwise no manuscript will be returned.

INFORMATION OF DULUTH CHORAL SOCIETY SOUGHT

To the Editor of The Herald:

Can any of the readers of the Open Court give information regarding the plans of the Duluth Choral society for the coming season?

This organization has been one of the very useful factors in musical affairs in the city during the past and, under the direction of its officers and its musical directors, has presented some of the most important oratorios in a style that has left very little to be desired. Last year, especially, the performance of the Messiah at the new Armory was particularly fine.

The club has given opportunity to many singers and students of music to get first-hand knowledge of many of the great composers. It fills a place in the musical world that is not occupied by any other organization and in the community which makes it peculiarly a community institution. It seems to be the duty of all citizens to support this organization and stimulate its activities.

Hence this inquiry. In years previous to this the club has worked under some handicap to secure the support that was needed—not necessarily financial, but that great stimulus of enthusiasm from the people who like to hear real music well presented. So many things of this sort flourish for a little while and then die for lack of the requisite sunshine of popular approval and interest. Has anything like that happened to the Choral club?

AN INTERESTED BYSTANDER.

THE BARRING OF MINOR.

To the Editor of The Herald:

People in this neck of the woods were surprised to read in Saturday's Herald that Robert Minor would not be allowed to tell the people of Duluth what he knew (or thought he knew) about Russia. While very few of us are interested in that far-off country, we have been bored muchly by long recitals on the situation there. Attending a lecture in the hope of hearing some constructive legislation favored by Harding or Preus, we have had to sit and listen to tiresome digressions on the soviet failure in Russia until we wondered if the speaker, while visiting his relatives in the insane asylum, hadn't picked up the wrong speech; however, we politely stifled our yawns and sat through these wearisome monologues.

No belted knight in the shape of a public safety commissioner came to our rescue; no public hall was refused these exhorters. About three years ago our leading periodicals all came down with a chronic attack of Russian fever, their once interesting pages being cluttered with bewhiskered Bolsheviki and dreary tales of rapine and starvation in Russia. Wall Street's journal gives us a doleful word-picture of conditions in Petrograd which fails to interest anyone, since these conditions have become common in all war-torn countries; but after being led to believe that Russia's money is worthless and the only crop grown there is whiskers, it bewilders us to read that England is going to recognize soviet Russia in order to trade her manufactured goods for some of that worthless money! Also that Russia has vast stores of wheat that England needs. Verily, someone has lied!

Perhaps Robert Minor could have shed some light on the subject; perhaps he could have told why our country opened its doors to Czar Nicholas, who ruled by brute force, and shuts them in the face of Lenine, claiming "his is a rule of might."

MARGARET ELLSWORTH.

CHICKEN CHOP SUEY.

To the Editor of The Herald:

The Open Court is in receipt of two chop suey recipes in response to the request of "Mrs. R. J." published a few days ago. As they are quite different, both are given. The first is from Mrs. J. Kampf of Duluth, and the second from "U. G. H." of Virginia.

1 pound raw meat of chicken, 2 tablespoons chicken fat, 1 cup diced celery, 1 onion, 6 mushroom caps, 6 Chinese water chestnuts, 2 tablespoons butter, ½ pound bean sprouts, ¼ pound bamboo shoots, 1 teaspoon Soya sauce, 2 cups chicken stock, salt and pepper.

Cut chicken in inch strips. Cook in frying pan in chicken fat 5 minutes. Add celery, onion, peeled and sliced; also chestnuts peeled and cut small. Cook all 5 minutes longer. Add bean sprouts, bamboo shoots cut in small pieces, Soya sauce, chicken stock and simmer gently until bean sprouts and chicken are thoroughly cooked, season. The Chinese water chestnuts, bamboo shoots and Soya sauce can be obtained at a Chinese grocery store.

3 chicken livers, cooked and cut in pieces; 3 chicken gizzards coked and cut in pieces; 2½ cups pork cooked and cut in pieces; 3 stalks celery cut in small pieces; 1-3 cup chicken fat; 1 tablespoon vinegar; ⅓ tablespoon lemon juice; 2-3 cup boiling water; 1½ tablespoons Worcestershire sauce; 1 teaspoon salt; pepper; 1 can button mushrooms; Soya sauce to taste; 3 tablespoons flour.

Cook the first four ingredients slowly in the chicken fat until a golden brown, then sprinkle with flour and add the other ingredients in order given. Cook until thoroughly heated and thickened. Add Soya sauce to taste. The recipe will serve six people.

CONSERVATISM AND RADICALISM

To the Editor of The Herald:

It is really too bad that anyone like Mrs. Turno, who admits that she does not know and wishes to be enlightened about why the farmer complains about the high cost of living, etc., should have such positive ideas when it comes to voting and condemning the farmers because they do not dust their brains. But as she wishes to be enlightened upon the subjects, she might find some very valuable information if she moved herself out on the farm for a short time and tried it herself. I do hope that Mrs. Turno will live long enough to see the day when the plain public will have a voice in things, but she must remember that the farmers of the country comprise very nearly one-half of the population and that they form a very large percentage of the very plain public, and when they ask for a compensation and labor consistent with the efforts put forth, they are asking nothing more nor less than what every good American citizen should do. The only trouble with them, however, is that they have not, and do not, stick together or they would get what they are entitled to.

I am sorry, too, that Mrs. Turno had to vote the Republican ticket at this time. It does not sound very well to talk of radicalism, but it would be far better to be a living radical than a dead Republican or a dead Democrat. Radicalism is, and always will be, an evidence of growth, an evidence of progress. The radicals are advocating something new. Unless we have something new from time to time, we will stand still, we shall be dead like the Chinese, who have been slumbering for the past forty centuries of time. It may be necessary that the radical ideas advanced by leaders of all shades and descriptions be pruned in order to produce the proper growth, but society and more particularly the conservative element, not excluding Mrs. Turno, generally attend to the pruning very effectively.

As to loving the farmer, they all do that; before election, the politician loves the farmer; in the spring when the farmer buys his goods, the merchants love the farmer and at other times, when the farmer shells out his money or his crops or his boys, he is a very lovable man. But when he begins to ask that his problems be solved by legislation or by someone in authority, then he is a Socialist, a Townleyite or a Bolshevik, and I have heard them called by names much worse than that. I believe, Mrs. Turno, you will agree with me that an intelligent farmer will not long consent to be called such names without dusting someone else's brain.

I regret very much that some of the people in the cities are so ready to criticize the farmer when they know practically nothing of the problems with which he has to contend and when they themselves do not care to undertake the responsibility of raising the farm products. Let us stick to facts and let us do justice to the farmer, to the laboring man, to the business man, or anyone who tries to earn an honest living and for goodness' sake, do not call them any more names.

This Week's Sunday School Lesson

Written for The Herald By Rev. J. S. Kirtley, D. D.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON, NOV. 28.

Mathew xi, xii: How Jesus Was Received.

CONNECTION.

It was still in the summer of A. D. 28 and shortly after the Master sent out the twelve disciples to do work supplementing His own. During that short time He had raised from the dead the son of the widow of Nain and the report of that deed had spread everywhere, at last reaching the ears of John the Baptist, now languishing in prison.

THE LESSON.

I.

How He Was Received by John. xi, 1-6.

"And it came to pass when Jesus had finished commanding His twelve disciples He departed thence to teach and preach in their cities. Now when John heard in prison the works of the Christ he sent by his disciples and said unto Him, Art Thou He that cometh, or look we for another? And Jesus answered and said unto them, Go and tell John the things which ye hear and see—the blind receive their sight, the lame walk and the lepers are cleansed and the deaf hear and the dead are raised up and the poor have good tidings preached to them. And blessed is he whosoever shall find no occasion of stumbling in Me."

1. DISAPPOINTMENT.—John was in prison after about a year and a half of active life. He had been in prison for some months and was discouraged, for he was a child of the open and was now confined; he was active and now must sit still day and night; he had preached and believed that Jesus would bring an ax with him and hew down the barren, gnarled, perverse tree of the national life or of individual lives and a fan to separate chaff from wheat, but Jesus had not done anything of the kind. John is disappointed. He thought possibly Jesus was not the Messiah, but might be simply another Forerunner.

2. BUT RATIONAL.—He did not give up his faith in the rightness of his own course of life, was not sorry that he had called the people to expect their Messiah and to get ready for Him by repenting of their sins, was sure Jesus was the good man whom he had first taken Him to be, went right on in his attitude towards sin of all kinds, especially the sins of Herod and Herodias, which he had rebuked and then had been put in prison for doing so, still resolved to do the only wise thing and send direct to Jesus for the settlement of the question that troubled him. He didn't cherish his doubts but doubted them and was driven by them to try to resolve them. He doubted only one thing—simply whether the good man Jesus was the Messiah and he did that because he had not comprehended the actual work of the Messiah. He didn't try to live by his doubts as so many do.

3. RELIEVED.—The question touched Jesus very deeply. There was no complaint in the question, no threat in it, no regret for his own course as a preacher, but the desire to know just one thing, whether Jesus was the real Messiah or another messenger like himself. That simple way of dealing with his doubts went to the Master's heart. Jesus relieved him in the wisest way, not by rebuking him, nor by saying yes to the question, but by keeping the messengers with Him awhile till they could see what He was doing with the unfortunate and then telling them to go and tell John of the wonderful deeds. John would draw his own conclusion and would never doubt again. It would be more attractive even to John than deeds of vengeance and the messengers would quote Isaiah as saying the Messiah would do those very things and that would show him that Jesus was following the words of the prophets. He also said that it was blessed to accept this work and not to find an occasion to stumble in it, a slight warning to John. Read the omitted verses for the Master's wonderful tribute to John.

II.

How Received by People and Rulers. 16-19, 25-30.

"But whereunto shall I liken this generation? It is like unto children who sit in the market places and call upon their fellows and say, we piped unto you and ye did not dance; we wailed and ye did not mourn. For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say he hath a demon. The Son of Man came eating and drinking and they say, Behold a gluttonous man and a winebibber, a friend of publicans and sinners! And wisdom is justified by her works.

"At that season Jesus answered and said, I thank Thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that Thou didst hide these things from the wise and understanding, and didst reveal them unto babes; yea, Father, for so it was well pleasing in Thy sight. All things have been delivered unto Me of My Father; and no one knoweth the Son save the Father; neither doth any know the Father save the Son, and He to whomsoever the Son willeth to reveal Him.

"Come unto Me, all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you, and learn of Me, for I am meek and lowly in heart, and ye shall find rest unto your souls. For My yoke is easy and My burden is light."

1. PEOPLE.—There were several classes, the indifferent, the antagonistic, the childish. The class He now speaks of was the most numerous, the childish, the perverse, the whimsical like children who played weddings and piped and complained when the people didn't dance, also complained that the people didn't join in their Oriental mournings when they played funeral. The one characteristic of the class is that they are satisfied with nothing, therefore faultfinding, hateful. They disliked John, the Forerunner, because he was too severe, abstemious in his life and too exacting with them; they didn't like to be called to repent and live a self-denying life. If Herod had not made way with John they would have done it sooner or later. They disliked Jesus for the very opposite reason, because He lived in the open, ate and drank as other people did, loved to mingle with people, was wondrously human. This offended them for it condemned their selfishness in living for themselves while He was a benediction to all and revealed to them their own selfishness. The results of the work of both Jesus and John proved the wisdom of God in sending them to work in different ways.

2. THE DOCILE.—There was a class of people who received His life and His words in the childlike, not childish way, and to them big blessings came. He calls those who have their own native powers developed and trust in them "wise and prudent," while the trustful, teachable, obedient are "babes." Here is the logic of it, the links tight and true—babes, who do not pretend to know it all and are willing to receive what is taught them, depending on Him; thereby they learn what He has to teach; in doing that they learn of God, for Jesus has everything to tell them that God has and His will is to reveal God to such people. He, the Son, makes them all children of God.

3. THE ADJUSTABLE.—There was unrest in them. He saw it and proposed to remove it. It was a matter of inner twist and outer maladjustment to their loads. Their teachers burdened them with loads of legal requirements that made life hard. Jesus would adjust them within and without. That would bring rest, a rested condition even in the midst of work. He does not take away work or loads, but adjusts them to it. A yoke is for that purpose. The Oriental ox yoke was awkward, rubbing, wearing, giving perpetual discomfort. He tells them to learn of Him, see how He is adjusted, and become adjusted the same way. Two kinds of rest are promised. One comes from His touch and the other comes as we go along in the adjusted life. We receive the one and "find" the other. Christ also yokes up with us. Though Master, He is also companion and friend; His yoke chafes not, is soft with love; gives rest in toils and tasks, not from them; is in us a new strength, a conquering principle that organizes and correlates and directs our powers without distraction or waste or chafing, none other than the peace of God.

4. THE VICIOUS.—Vicious leaders could not hold those who liked Him. They must dwell there; to do so requires that they get rid of Him; they will do that; they are plotting.

WHAT THE MASTERS SAY.

In rest there are always two elements—tranquillity and energy, silence and turbulence, creation and destruction, fearlessness and fearfulness. Thus it was in Christ.—Drummond.

I am going to take Jesus Christ as my teacher, my example, my savior and my only test of character. From this time forth I am going to cut myself off from associations which I know are doubtful, from habits which I know are demoralizing and from acts which I know, however much I may try to deceive myself, will have their bad result in the years to come, and I am going to devote myself squarely and honestly to doing what I believe is right in the name of my Master.—Disciple.

PERTINENT QUESTIONS.

1. Is there any sort of doubt that may not be taken with confidence to Jesus?

2. What is the difference between childishness and childlikeness?

3. How far is it possible to know God apart from Christ?

4. Is there any real rest of the soul apart from obeying and imitating Christ?

Our Catalog Is "An Institution"

The Julius Andrae & Sons' catalog is famous throughout the country. Buyers of electrical goods everywhere regard it as among the most complete and valuable reference books of electrical supplies and materials published.

This catalog is yours.

It is issued for the benefit of buyers right here in the Middle West territory. The fact that the electrical trades of New York, St. Louis, Chicago and San Francisco look upon it as a standard work, simply emphasizes the fact that the trade here at home is thoroughly well served.

But a catalog, no matter how excellent and comprehensive, is after all nothing more than a catalog. What really counts is this: Do the stock, organization and resources behind that catalog live up to the promise of the printed page?

In Andrae's case, the answer is, emphatically—Yes. The Andrae warehouses in Milwaukee, Duluth and Mason City ordinarily carry ample stocks of approxmately 10,000 items of electrical supplies, apparatus and merchandise. "Anything from a push button to a power house" is not a catch-phrase with us; it is a fact. And not only are our own stocks adequate, but our sources of supply are both ample and dependable.

The Andrae catalog has been spoken of as "an institution." What makes it an institution is the Andrae warehouses with their thousand of items, and the Andrae organization, imbued with the spirit of service.

Executives and buyers for industrial plants, mills, mines and businesses requiring electrical equipment are invited to avail themselves of the service rendered by this institution.

BIGGEST THING OF THE KIND EVER SEEN HERE.

Entire Trainload of Tanlac Sold in Minnesota, Wisconsin and Iowa in Only Few Months' Time.

DULUTH DEALERS ARE ENTHUSIASTIC

Celebrated Medicine Now Selling at Phenomenal Rate of 7,500,000 Bottles Per Year—All Records Broken.

"The fact that twenty carloads or an entire trainload of Tanlac has been sold in the states of Minnesota, Wisconsin and Iowa within the short period of ninety days is a big business item that will attract attention throughout the entire Northwest, for nothing like it has ever happened, for fore. It breaks all records."

Mr. A. J. Kolling, special Tanlac representative, made this remarkable announcement when seen yesterday and imparted the additional information that the preparation was now selling at the phenomenal rate of approximately 7,500,000 bottles a year.

"If the present rate continues," said Mr. Kolling, "the Northwest alone will require considerably over 2,000,000 bottles a year. This is a tremendous figure, but I am really conservative in making this statement. These enormous sales mean but one thing and that is merit.

"Tanlac has been well advertised, it is true, but such a large and rapidly growing demand could not be brought about by advertising alone. It is what the people themselves say that counts. One bottle of Tanlac is sold in a neighborhood through advertising, but ten more are sold in the same community as a result of the sale of that first bottle and that is why Tanlac has succeeded. People are always willing to talk about their ailments, but they are more than glad to tell others of the medicine that helped them. It is something they could not keep to themselves if they tried, for the impulse to sympathize with your fellowman and want to help him is one of the strongest, as well as one of the biggest, things in human nature.

"As I have just stated, the enormous demand for Tanlac is due to merit alone for, although Tanlac is extensively advertised, no amount of advertising would continue to sell any article that does not possess real merit. Unless full value underlays the article advertised, the advertising will ultimately fail of its own weight. 'You can fool some of the people some of the time, but you can't fool all of the people all of the time.'

"This applies to every line of business, and the modern business man or firm can only succeed through honest advertising and fair dealing. When the manufacturers of Tanlac placed it on the market, something over five years ago, they did so with the firm conviction that they were offering to the people the best and purest product of its kind on the American market. They did not hesitate, therefore, to expend vast sums for advertising because of their absolute confidence in their product.

"Tanlac has never been advertised as a cure-all or that it would perform unheard wonders. The advertising, has been clean, straightforward and conservative. Actual facts and figures have been stated and stated in a true, business-like way that has commanded the confidence of all in the conservative claims set forth.

"When I came to Minnesota to superintend the sale of Tanlac in Duluth I stated publicly that the success of the medicine would be as great in this city as elsewhere. I offered Tanlac upon its merit, knowing full well that it would prove satisfactory if properly tested. The success the preparation has achieved here has amply proven that my confidence was well placed. A large percentage of your best people are now using the preparation and are daily testifying to its remarkable powers as a medicine."

Tanlac is sold in Duluth at the W. A. Abbett drug stores under the personal direction of a special Tanlac representative. Also the leading druggist in every town throughout the Northwest. Wm. Isaacson, Gowan; Geo. W. Swanson, Culver; Floodwood Merc. Co., Floodwood; Wilfrid Longtin, Grand Lake, P. O. Saginaw; Fairbanks Store Co., Fairbanks; George Lestic store, McKinley.—Advertisement.

SALE REMARKABLE, SAYS LOCAL FIRM

Sales Since Introduction Here Reach Total of 34,272 Bottles.

Demand Is Astonishing and Unprecedented; Sets a New Sales Record.

In referring to the unprecedented demand for Tanlac in Duluth since its introduction here a short time ago, Mr. Abbett, proprietor of the W. A. Abbett drug store, the well-known retail druggists, said: "I have been closely identified with the drug trade in this city for a number of years and in all of my experience we have never handled anything in the way of a proprietary medicine that even approaches Tanlac as a seller.

"In less than a year and a half's time we have sold and distributed 34,272 bottles of Tanlac, and I believe that I will be entirely safe in saying that this amount of business in so short a time establishes a new sales record, not only for Duluth, but for the entire state of Minnesota. On one Saturday alone we sold over 142 bottles. The sales are now averaging over 63 bottles each and every day and the demand is constantly increasing.

"While we were aware of the success the preparation had achieved in other cities of the country, we had no idea that the medicine would become so popular in Duluth in so short a time. From the repeat sales and expressions of satisfaction from those who have actually tested Tanlac, and who state that they have been benefited by it, the preparation must therefore possess unusual merit.

"The class of people who are buying Tanlac are among the best in our city; people who are capable of judging impartially and who carry weight in their statements. When it is considered that the demand is confined to one preparation, it is indeed remarkable and is, in fact, the biggest thing of the kind ever seen in our city."

WEST END

NEED OF P. O. BRANCH SHOWN

Moe & Sons Company Gives Notice Abandoning Postal Station.

That the West end needs a regular branch postoffice, such as is maintained in West Duluth, is the contention of John J. Moe, whose store has maintained a postal station for some years, in a letter which he sent last Saturday to Postmaster Thomas E. Considine, giving notice of terminating his contract with the government for the station. Mr. Moe declares that for some time he has been losing fully $100 a month by maintaining the station and feels that the West end has grown to such an extent that a regular branch should be established by the government and that his company should not be required to face a deficit further to furnish postal service to the section.

May Be Without Station.

Under the rules of the postoffice department, the government can terminate the contract by giving thirty days' notice and the J. J. Moe & Sons company can terminate on forty-five days' notice. As the letter was sent on Nov. 20, the contract will terminate about Jan. 5, and unless Mr. Considine succeeds in getting some other firm to take the station over the West end will be without a station after that date. Mr. Moe's letter to the postmaster was as follows:

"Referring to our contract for maintaining Postal Station No. 1 in our store, would respectfully call your attention to the fact that we are sustaining a considerable financial loss every month under said contract.

"Owing to the constant growth of population in this part of the city it seems that the time ought to be ripe for the establishment of a regular branch postoffice to be operated by the government in this locality.

"For the reasons above set forth I hereby tender my resignation as clerk in charge of Station No. 1 to take effect as soon as you can possibly grant the relief, same to take effect not later than forty-five days from date hereof."

CARNIVAL DOING MUCH TO RAISE LODGE CLUB FUNDS

The carnival being conducted by the building committee of the Duluth lodge of the I. O. O. F. at 2026 West Superior street is meeting with a great deal of success and is aiding appreciably in providing funds for the club which the committee expects to start building early in the spring.

The building will cost approximately $70,000, according to the present noble grand, Harry Witz. It will have three floors, which will be occupied by a lodge hall, a ballroom, a billiard room, a reading room and other recreational rooms.

Thanksgiving Program.

A Thanksgiving program will be given at the Swedish Tabernacle church, Twenty-first avenue west and Second street, at 8 o'clock tonight. Rev. Louis Turnquist will speak and there will be several appropriate numbers by the male chorus. Refreshments will be served and an offering taken up for the old people's home of this district.

Auto Strikes Lamp Post.

Dr. W. A. Coventry [illegible] post with his car at Twenty-third avenue west and First street today. Nobody was hurt. The car tore the lamp post from its foundation and carried it for some distance. The top of the car was badly smashed. It is thought that the accident occurred in an attempt to avoid collision with a car coming down the hill.

Club Plans Cabin Party.

The Laurel club will give its second cabin party of the year at the Happy Western cabin on Dec. 11. The next regular meeting of the club will be held on Dec. 15 at the clubrooms, 2024 West Superior street. The committee in charge consists of Walter Jernberg, chairman; Carl Anderson, Anker Porsmer, George Smith and Edward Mork.

AUCTION RECEIPTS SET NEW RECORD

Breaking all previous records by more than $300, the Central high school auction yesterday brought receipts totaling $1,192.16.

Baskets of food and clothing, purchased with the proceeds, are being distributed among the city's poor today by members of the auction committee. Whatever money is left over will be given to local hospitals and orphanages.

The previous record was made last year when $886 was paid for the candy, pennants, cushions and other knickknacks contributed by the students and sold to them in turn. The total received yesterday far exceeded even the expectations of the auction committee.

Had there been more candy and other novelties left, it would have been possible to dispose of these also and increase the proceeds by several hundred dollars. The auction was completed by 4 o'clock, which is a record time. A. F. M. Custance was auctioneer. Katherine McDonald and Wilbur Taylor were chairmen of the auction committee. A considerable amount of credit for the auction's success is given to Miss Margaret Taylor, faculty adviser.

A program given before the auction opened included a comedy skit by Marie McGreevy and Dorothy Bush, a short play by Buster Sahlberg, Paul Winship and Helen Holohan, and songs by the "peanut quartet," consisting of Kendall McClure, Robert Todd, William Alexander and Reginald Cowen.

RED LAKERS INDICTED.

First Grand Jury in Seven Years Finds Bill Against Four.

Red Lake Falls, Minn, Nov. 25.—(Special to The Herald.)—Four were indicted by the first grand jury summoned in Red Lake county for seven years. Frank Plante of Lambert was indicted for manslaughter in the first degree, it being alleged he killed Ferdinand Marsonette with a pitchfork last month. Adolph, Ernest and William Raaf, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Raaf of Red Lake Falls town were each indicted on two separate counts—incest against a sister, and having carnal knowledge of a child under 18. Upon their plea of guilty to the charge of incest, Judge William Watts quashed the indictments for carnal knowledge on motion of County Attorney Fred L. Farley. Adolph and Ernest Raaf were sentenced to the St. Cloud reformatory for an indeterminate period and were taken there by Sheriff Charles Fellman. William Raaf is in Iowa and has not yet been arrested.

Sentence of Mrs. Anesie Angers, who had pleaded guilty to co-habitation with Eugene Beaucage, was deferred, and she was released upon signing a $500 bond to insure her appearance whenever called for. Her husband was here and expressed his willingness to take her back and she will join him at Winnipeg. Her two children by Beaucage have been adopted by Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Depta of Trail.

The petit jury for this term of court has been summoned to meet Monday, Dec. 5 and will try twelve cases, nine civil and three criminal.

MARINE

BIGGEST FLAX CARGO OF SEASON FROM DULUTH

Toledo, Ohio, Nov. 25.—A cargo of 220,000 bushels of flax valued at $600,000 was delivered here late yesterday by the steamer W. G. Pollock from Duluth.

The cargo was the largest of its kind to arrive here this season, marine men said.

TWO GIANT CARGOES WILL CLEAN FT. WILLIAM HOUSES

Fort William, Ont., Nov. 25.—The American steamer Snyder, Jr., will clear in a few days from port carrying 485,000 bushels of wheat, while the Canadian steamer Grant Morden will clear with slightly over 500,000 bushels, the two vessels completely cleaning out one large elevator, constituting a record shipment.

GOOD WINNINGS HERE IN BIG POTATO CONTEST

Detailed reports of Minnesota winnings at the Midwest Horticultural exposition at Council Bluffs were brought back yesterday by County Agent E. P. Gibson. Conrad Johnson of Duluth took the bulk of potato prize money offered and won the first prize of $75 for the best complete display.

Winners from St. Louis, Itasca and Lake counties follow:

Irish Cobblers—Conrad Johnson, Duluth, first; Ole Larson, Duluth, third; E. H. Douglas, Duluth, fourth.

Green Mountains—W. J. Fuller, Grand Rapids, Minn., first; Conrad Johnson, Duluth, second; Lake County Potato Growers' association, Two Harbors, Minn., third.

Triumphs—Conrad Johnson, Duluth, second; A. M. Sisler, Grand Rapids, third.

Burbanks—Conrad Johnson, Duluth, first.

Early Ohios—Conrad Johnson, Duluth, fourth.

Any other variety—Conrad Johnson, Duluth, fourth.

Best display of potatoes—Conrad Johnson, Duluth, first; Itasca county farm bureau, Grand Rapids, second.

Dan E. Johnson of Duluth also won first prize for the best exhibit of rutabagas and Conrad Johnson won first with a display of carrots. The county exhibits, however, were almost all of potatoes. Mr. Gibson was in charge of the intercollegiate potato judging contest, which was won by the University of Missouri team.

TESTIFY IN RAPE CASE.

Three Indicted Negroes on Stand in Behalf of Max Mason.

Attorneys for the defense in the case of the state against Max Mason, negro, charged with the rape of an 18-year-old West Duluth girl on June 14 last, expect to conclude their testimony in time for the case to reach the jury tomorrow. Today, being a holiday, the court is not in session.

Yesterday afternoon Lonnie Williams, Nate Grays and Louis Hayes, negroes, indicted for participation in the assault upon the girl, took the stand as witnesses in behalf of Mason. They testified regarding their duties at the circus and all claimed to have been at work loading wagons with poles and other materials until about 12 o'clock the night of June 14. They also testified as to how they were routed out of their bunks and examined by the police the next morning.

On cross-examination Grays admitted that he had testified before the grand jury that he had played baseball at 4 o'clock and was "shooting craps" at 6 o'clock on the night of June 14 last.

STOP CATARRH! OPEN NOSTRILS AND HEAD

Says Cream Applied in Nostrils Relieves Head-Colds at Once.

If your nostrils are clogged and your head is stuffed and you can't breathe freely because of a cold or catarrh, just get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm at any drug store. Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic cream into your nostrils and let it penetrate through every air passage of your head, soothing and healing the inflamed, swollen mucous membrane and you get instant relief.

Ah! how good it feels. Your nostrils are open, your head is clear, no more hawking, snuffling, blowing; no more headache, dryness or struggling for breath. Ely's Cream Balm is just what sufferers from head colds and catarrh need. It's a delight.—Advertisement.

Girls! Have Beautiful Hair Like This

Lustrous Hair—Soft—Fluffy and Abundant—Easily Attained by Wonderful Beautifier That Thousands Praise.

Parisian Sage Surprises and Delights—It Positively Does Not Change the Natural Color of the Hair.

Beautiful hair is every woman's birthright and one of her greatest charms.

It is the duty of everyone not only to preserve the natural beauty of the hair, but to improve it. You cannot afford to neglect it, and just a little care will work wonders.

If your hair is scanty, wispy, brittle, dry, losing its natural color and luster, and full of dandruff, it needs immediate attention. Don't wait, but begin now—tonight—to help regain its life and beauty.

Any good druggist can supply you with Parisian Sage, which is guaranteed to keep away all dandruff, stop falling hair, promote a new growth and beautify it, or money refunded.

Parisian Sage is perfectly harmless. A clean antiseptic and daintily perfumed liquid—neither greasy or sticky—and easy to use.

If you want a fresh, clean scalp, and a wealth of lustrous, live-looking hair that's easy to arrange attractively, try this simple home treatment.

OHIO MAY PLAY IN CALIFORNIA

Await Permission of Conference Officials Before Accepting Invitation.

Pasadena, Cal., Nov 25.—The football team of Ohio State university was formally invited yesterday to represent the East in the annual East vs. West gridiron classic in Pasadena on New Year's day.

The expectation here is that the University of California eleven, Pacific coast champions, will represent the West in the contest.

Ohio Director Willing.

Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 25.—Approval of a football game between Ohio State, Western conference champions, and the University of California at Pasadena New Year's day was expressed last night by L. W. St. John, university athletic director, following receipt of a formal invitation for the game. The athletic board and university faculty have already sanctioned the game, St. John said, and permission of Western conference officials is now being sought. The conference faculty board of control will meet in Chicago Dec. 4.

The Herald prints today's news today.

ST. PAUL TEAM TO GET NEW PLAYERS

Several Pitchers, Catcher and Infielder Are Needed.

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 25.—Many new faces will be in evidence when the team representing the St. Paul American association ball club, winners of this year's championship, takes the field next spring. Five members of this year's club already have been disposed of, three going to major league clubs and two to the Southern association.

Catcher Hargrave, Pitcher Coumbe and Infielder Rapp have gone to the majors and Pitchers Griner and Brown have been sold to the Memphis club. Coumbe was sold to the Cincinnati club before the close of the association season, after the local club had the championship tucked away. Later Hargrave's sale to the same club was completed.

Rapp, considered the find of the season, was purchased for $1,000 from Cincinnati by the St. Paul club just before the playing season began. His play during the year placed him above all third basemen in the association. He was sold to the New York Nationals for $15,000 and two pitchers, and an infielder will be turned over to the St. Paul club as part of this amount.

Announcement has been made by Manager John McGraw of the New York Nationals that the addition of Rapp to his club will give him the best infield he has had since New York won three pennants in a row. Frisch, last year's flash in the Nationals, will be sent to second base and Rapp will play third, according to the announcement.

The local pitching staff is almost depleted. Hall, Merritt, Williams and Foster are the remaining pitchers. Of these four, Hall and Merritt were the only dependable starters during the season. Foster, who joined the club late in the season, showed to advantage in the few times he worked.

The hard hitting outfield is still intact, and it is not expected that the infield will be changed, with the exception of third base. A new catcher and several pitchers will be needed, however.

MUST HAVE THE GOODS.

Mike Kelley Has Managed St. Paul Club Fourteen Years.

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 25.—Mike Kelley, who has just refused an offer to manage the Philadelphia National league team next season, has served for fourteen years as manager of the St. Paul club in the American association, in three distinct periods.

Four championships have been won for the St. Paul team by Kelley. These were in 1903 and 1904 and in 1919 and 1920.

Kelley's first service as manager with the Saints was in 1902, and he continued in that capacity through 1905. He returned to the Saints in 1909 for a four-year period, and came back again in 1915 and has been here since. He was manager of the Minneapolis team in the American association in 1906; was with Des Moines in 1907, and with Toronto in 1908.

Although Kelley's contract had another year to run with St. Paul, Owner John W. Norton declared he would tear it up if Kelley saw fit to go to Philadelphia. Kelley, however, announced his intention to stay here another year, at least, and expressed hopes of another top-notch team in 1921, despite the sale of several crack players.

Women See Bout.

New Orleans, La., Nov. 25.—About twenty women, allowed for the first time in Louisiana prize fighting history to attend a bout, saw the fight between "Happy" Littleton of New Orleans and Harry Krohn of Akron, Ohio, last night. Littleton scored a technical knockout in the twelfth round of a fifteen-round go. The men are middleweights.

COMMENT ON SPORT

BY SANDY MACDONALD.

If a man is known by the enemies he makes, Ban B. Johnson, president of the American league, should feel complimented. Opposition shown to Johnson by Colonels Ruppert and Huston of the New York Yankees and Frazee of the Boston Americans should be taken as a boost by Ban. Frazee's Red Sox park in Boston has been an incubus for baseball gamblers for years and Sport Sullivan, one of the men espoused by Frazee and his ilk, was prominently mentioned in connection with the corruption of the Chicago White Sox players.

Johnson has steadfastly opposed gambling in connection with baseball and probably would have succeeded in wiping out the curse but for Frazee and some of the others who fought him at every turn.

The twelve-club National league bubble burst, as was expected, and with peace reigning once more the major as well as the minor leagues are looking forward to a prosperous 1921 season. The grim experience that the National and American club owners went through during the regime of the late Federal league, when they marked down a loss of approximately $3,000,000 in their books, is still fresh in their memories. This makes it certain that the promoters of the proposed new league were only spoofing.

Superior football enthusiasts, after trying valiantly, have failed to wrest the Head of the Lakes professional gridiron title from Duluth. No money nor time nor effort was spared on the part of Manager Art Olson of the Badgers to assemble an eleven that would humiliate Duluth; but the best they got was a 7-to-7 tie and then the weather man stepped in to prevent the staging of two other games in the series.

Professional football came through its greatest season in Duluth with a boom and bang, the team playing the heaviest schedule in the history of pro-contests in Duluth. None of the players were injured, the crowds were all of record-breaking size and the weather for every game was ideal. Manager Joe Feaks and Coach Art Von of the local eleven certainly deserve praise for the efficient manner in which they conducted affairs.

Duluth A. C. promoters are anxious to sign Bill Burns, Duluth welter, and Kid Billings of Superior to meet in a ten-round boxing bout here in January for the Head of the Lakes welter title. Both boys are willing and no trouble, it is believed, will turn up to prevent the going through of the match. Billings is still suffering from a broken hand, but his attending physician believes the paw will have mended firmly by the first of the year so Billings can resume training.

Billings and Burns are both fast, aggressive fighters and would certainly give the fans a grand run for their money. Just which boy is the better is a problem. To us it looks like a toss-up. But they can and will fight and, after all, that is what the fans are principally interested in.

Harry Boyle of Philadelphia will meet Ed Frantl, the Bovey lightweight, in the main bout of an American Legion show to be staged at Bovey this evening. The mill is scheduled to go ten rounds. Boyle, a veteran of the prize ring, has the hardihood of an old-time salt water sailor. He will fight anyone, black or white, anywhere near his poundage, and will crawl through the ropes three times a week if he can get the matches. Boyle will probably have a lively evening with Frantl, for the latter is a willing performer, socks fairly hard and can assimilate a world of punishment and stand up.

WINNER TO GET TRIP.

Champion South Dakota High School Team to Visit Coast.

Sioux Falls, S. D., Nov. 25.—If present plans are completed, the winner of today's South Dakota high school championship football game between Sioux Falls and Mitchell will be given a trip to the Pacific coast for games during the holidays with the Everett, Wash., and other high school elevens.

With a trip of this nature at stake, together with the high school tri-state football title, the game today assumes more than a local interest. Victories over Central high school of Omaha, Neb., and the Sioux City, Iowa, eleven champions of their respective states, by Sioux Falls, has made the locals favorites.

For several years South Dakota high school athletic authorities have sought to arrange a series of games between the champions of the state and Pacific coast elevens. From Everett, Wash., it is announced almost definite assurance has been given that this year the long proposed enterprise may be successfully promoted.

GOETZ IS THROUGH.

Michigan Football Captain to Graduate Next Spring.

Ann Arbor, Mich., Nov. 25.—Angus Goetz, captain of the University of Michigan football team for the past two years, and who holds the distinction of having played more minutes for Michigan than any other player in the university's history, will be lost to the team next season because of graduation.

Capt. Goetz played four years for Michigan, the last three seasons in the tackle position and the first year at end. He is the first Michigan player to captain the team two years.

Perhaps his most notable distinction lies in the fact that no time has been taken out for him during any game in the four years that he has been in the Michigan machine. He was a member of the 1918 All-Western eleven. He is a medical student and a native of Sault Ste. Marie, Mich.

EASTERN GRID SEASON OVER

Three Outstanding Games Mark Virtual End of Autumn Schedules.

New York, Nov. 25.—The football season on Eastern collegiate gridirons virtually closed today, the outstanding games being the clashes between Penn State and Pittsburgh, Cornell university and University of Pennsylvania and Washington and Jefferson vs. West Virginia.

The contest at Forbes field, Pittsburgh, between Glen Warner's Panthers and Bezdek's formidable Penn State eleven attracted widespread interest. Neither eleven has been defeated in a season marked by hard schedules. Penn State, which won last year by the score of 20 to 0, was a slight favorite.

Cornell Favored.

Cornell was favored in the wagering to down the Red and Blue at Franklin field, Philadelphia. The Quakers, despite a poor season, have shown flashes of power and promised to give the Red and White a battle royal. Penn won last year, 24 to 0.

Neither West Virginia nor Washington and Jefferson had been up to the standard of past years. The West Virginians were slight favorites, although the Presidents had the advantage of playing on home grounds.

The strong Holy Cross eleven was a general favorite to tame Fordham at Worcester, Mass.

Other Eastern games scheduled include:

Franklin and Marshall vs. Gettysburg.

Bucknell vs. Dickinson.

Johns Hopkins vs. Maryland.

St. Bonaventure vs. Lebanon Valley.

TODAY'S GRID GAMES

Alabama vs. Mississippi Aggies at Birmingham.

Arizona vs. Redlands at Tucson.

Bucknell vs. Dickinson at Williamsport.

Case vs. Western Reserve at Cleveland.

Centre vs. Georgetown, Ky., at Danville.

Cincinnati vs. Miami at Cincinnati.

Colorado vs. Oklahoma Aggies at Stillwater.

Colorado College vs. Colorado Mines at Colorado Springs.

5,000 WOULD SEE JOHNSON FIGHT

Leavenworth, Kan., Nov. 25.—At least 5,000 fight fans have made application to Warden A. V. Anderson to witness two boxing bouts at the Federal prison here today in which Jack Johnson, former heavyweight champion, will make a test of his present condition in an attempt to "come back."

Few outsiders, however, will be admitted to the prison for the boxing tournament, Warden Anderson announced, as it was arranged strictly as a Thanksgiving day entertainment for the prisoners.

George Owen, formerly a sparring partner of Johnson, has arrived here and "Topeka" Jack Johnson, another negro boxer, is expected today. Each will go five rounds with the former chapion. Prisoners will stage four preliminary bouts.

JACKSON, WILLIAMS FIRED IN FLORIDA

Auburn, N. Y., Nov. 25.—Announcing that the St. Petersburg club had released Joe Jackson and Lefty Williams, previously expelled by the Chicago White Sox, the Florida West Coast league yesterday applied to Secretary John H. Farrell of the National Association of Professional Baseball leagues for protection under a special dispensation. Jackson and Williams were involved in the 1919 world's series scandal and now are under indictment. The league opened Nov. 11 and will continue until Feb. 22.

The league also notified Secretary Farrell that it had rejected the services of Carl Cram of the Indianapolis club of the American association, and Tim Murchison of the New Orleans club, alleged contract jumpers.

Secretary Farrell withheld decision on the application asking for further information.

Roper Defeats Martin.

Boston, Mass., Nov. 25.—Capt. Bob Roper of Chicago gained the referee's decision over Bob Martin, champion of the A. E. F., in a fast ten-round bout here last night.

NAVY CONFIDENT OF WINNING OVER ARMY

Annapolis, Md., Nov. 25.—Full of confidence that they will return winners of the annual service football match with Army, the navy squad of players and trainers leaves here this afternoon for the football arena at New York.

The eleven will have a final drill at the Polo grounds tomorrow and also a last minute workout Saturday morning.

Leaving here early Saturday morning on four special trains, the regiment of midshipmen, 2,000 strong, will arrive at the Polo grounds a short time before play begins. "Billy," the celebrated goat mascot in charge of a member of the senior class, will occupy his usual conspicuous place.

PROTEST ELIGIBILITY OF STAR FULLBACK

Baltimore, Md., Nov. 25.—Johns Hopkins university and University of Maryland will contest for the state intercollegiate football championship on Homewood field here today. A stirring struggle is expected.

Coach Byrd of the College Park team has declared that Leroy Mackert, star fullback, will play despite Hopkins' protest. Hopkins claim that Mackert is ineligible because of having had four years of collegiate football, and threatens severance of athletic relations with Maryland after today's game if he plays.

Referee Sets Record.

Lexington, Ky., Nov. 25.—The Rev. Ralph W. Owen, associate pastor of the Second Presbyterian church of this city, will establish a Kentucky football record here today when he acts as referee at three regularly scheduled games.

GAMES IN WEST OFFER VARIETY

Thanksgiving Day Contests Range From Local to Intersectional Interest.

Chicago, Nov. 25.—Thanksgiving football games today offered a schedule in the West ranging from local to intersectional interest.

Nebraska received the husky invaders from Washington State at Lincoln in an intersectional battle which presented but little basis for comparative prognostication in the light of isolation of season contests of Middle West and Far West elevens.

The Cornhuskers gave Notre Dame a hard fight and Coach Schultz's team was considered on a par with the average Middle West eleven. Chances of victory were regarded at about even for either side.

The Michigan Aggies met the strong Notre Dame team at Lansing, Mich., the later eleven being picked by "dopesters" to win by comparative merit.

The Missouri valley conference championship will be decided in the outcome of the Drake-Oklahoma and Missouri-Kansas games. Oklahoma has not been defeated this season.

Western Reserve crosses the river to fight Ohio in Cleveland's annual championship. Rutgers and Detroit play an intersectional game at Detroit with the Western team the favorite, as Rutgers has been reported weak all season.

At St. Louis, Washington university (of St. Louis) and St. Louis university meet in their annual battle.

No other important games are scheduled.

DULUTH FOOTBALL FANS TO SEE GAME

Several Duluth football players and fans left last evening for Minneapolis where they will witness the big annual contest between the Marines and the All-Stars which will decide the Minnesota state professional championship.

"Chuck" Darling of Duluth, former University of Minnesota player, who has been performing with the Superior City team all season, and "Big Bill" Rooney, fullback for the Virginia City eleven, have left for Minneapolis to play with the All-Stars.

With ideal weather prevailing here it is to be regretted that Duluth is without a game today for it certainly would have gone over big as there is nothing else doing in the way of entertainment in outdoor sports. Manager Joe Feakes of the local team says that he waited on Superior so long that it made it impossible for him to sign up another team when the Badgers decided they could not play today.

BATTLE FOR ROCKY MOUNTAIN TITLE

Denver, Colo., Nov. 25.—The Colorado Aggies have at stake the Rocky mountain conference title in their game today with the University of Denver. Undefeated by any conference team in the last two years, the Aggies will go into the fray a topheavy favorite, although their stock received a setback last Saturday when they were held to a tie by the University of Colorado.

WINTER SPORTS WILL BE LATE IN OPENING

Between the termination of the football season and the commencement of the winter indoor sports in Duluth this fall looks like there is going to be a lot of idle days. The Duluth Curling club is set to go ahead with its ice making just as soon as the weather warrants and when that ice is made, boy, what a program of sports and indoor fun those curling fellows will unpack.

Plans for the coming winter at the D. C. C. forecast the greatest season of activity the club has ever experienced, curling, hockey, trick and speed skating and dancing being among the more notable features. Over 100 young women, principally instructors in the local public schools, have joined the club and every one of them intends to both curl and skate.

The hockey schedule will include some of the foremost teams in the country offering the fans some of the rarest sport seen here in years. Members of the squad are already in training and will be ready to hop on the ice as soon as it is ready.

BADGER BASKETBALL PROSPECTS BRIGHT

Madison, Wis., Nov. 25.—Basket ball prospects at the University of Wisconsin appear bright, with a wealth of material reporting for early practice to Coach W. E. Meanwell, back in the harness as basket ball coach at the school where he developed several conference winners. Knapp, Weston, Zulfer and Smith of last year's squad are back, and the squad has been augmented by Tebell, Williams and Eggebrecht of the football squad.

"U" Wrestlers Training.

Minneapolis, Minn., Nov. 25.—The University of Minnesota wrestling team has begun training for the winter events. A call for candidates brought out all the tusslers not engaged in football activities.

To Train at Gulfport.

Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 25.—The Milwaukee American association baseball team will train for the 1921 season at Gulfport, Miss., it was announced today by Otto Borchert, president of the Brewers.

HOLIDAY HUNTERS LEAVE FOR WOODS

Deer Slayers Have Not Had Usual Luck This Fall.

With the exception of those who have already been successful in the chase of big game this fall, Duluth nimrods are out in the forests today in full numbers combing the timber for deer. A few hunters, who expect to be out at least a week, went far to the North in search of moose. Quite a number of the hunters took along their shotguns and will devote a portion of their time to partridge, the season on the birds still being open.

While the slaughter of deer this fall has not been as large as in other seasons, a large number of carcasses have been brought to Duluth. Returning hunters say that the deer have not started running yet and that until the general gallop begins shooting will be off color.

Roy Hewitt, the Daniel Boone of Park Point, who has the distinction of being the only Duluth nimrod to kill a moose this fall, has just got his trophy home. After slaying the big fellow, which weighed 1,100 pounds, Hewitt tagged it according to law and left it with the railroad people to be shipped to Duluth. After he got home he received word that he would have to go back and take charge of the shipping himself and this he did. The expense in connection with getting this moose cost Hewitt about $50.

TWENTY-ONE BOUTS IN PHILADELPHIA

Philadelphia, Nov. 25.—Twenty-one boxing bouts were scheduled today for Thanksgiving matinees at four local athletic clubs. Among the windups were eight-round fights between Lew Tendler, Philadelphia, and Johnny Tillman, Minneapolis, and Willie Jackson, New York lightweight, and Matt Brock of Cleveland.

Syrian Beats Vic Moran.

Oshkosh, Wis., Nov. 25.—Charley Metrie, Milwaukee Syrian lightweight, easily defeated Vic Moran of New Orleans in a ten-round bout here last night.

ASK ANOTHER JUDGE IN PICKFORD CASE

Carson City, Nev., Nov. 25.—Formal motion that a jurist other than Judge Frank P. Lanagan be called to try the state of Nevada's action to dissolve the divorce granted Mary Pickford, now Mrs. Douglas Fairbanks, from Owen Moore, was filed by Leonard B. Fowler attorney general, in the district court at Minden, Nev., yesterday. Judge Lanagan tried the original divorce action.

Argument on a motion of the defense to quash the state's action has been set for next Saturday in the court at Minden where Miss Pickford last March was granted the divorce. Shortly after the decree was granted, Miss Pickford married Douglas Fairbanks, and Attorney General Fowler instituted action to set aside the divorce.

CONSTIPATION GONE; SUFFERED 8 YEARS

Tried Everything, But Finally Found Right Road to Health: Gained 20 Pounds.

"My wife has been troubled for eight years with constipation. She has tried almost everything on the market and has never received any benefit from any of them. In fact, they have done more harm than good.

"She overheard one lady telling another what Milks Emulsion had done for her. She got a bottle and has continued its use since. She weighed 97 pounds at that time, and after taking five bottles she now weighs 117 pounds; gained 20 pounds on five large bottles; besides she is feeling fine.

"If all the people suffering from constipation knew what Milks Emulsion would do for them, you would have to enlarge your plant." Leonard McKee, 29 Eye st., N. E., Washington, D. C.

Hundreds have endured torture for years and then found that Milks Emulsion gives blessed relief and real lasting benefit. It costs nothing to try.

Milks Emulsion is a pleasant, nutritive food and a corrective medicine. It restores healthy, natural bowel action, doing away with all need of pills and physics. It promotes appetite and quickly puts the digestive organs in shape to assimilate food. As a builder of flesh and strength, Milks Emulsion is strongly recommended to those whom sickness has weakened, and is a powerful aid in resisting and repairing the effects of wasting diseases.

This is the only solid emulsion made, and so palatable that it is eaten with a spoon like ice cream.

No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try Milks Emulsion under this guarantee—Take six bottles home with you, use it according to directions and if not satisfied with the results, your money will be promptly refunded. Price 75c and $1.50 per bottle. The Milks Emulsion Co., Terre Haute, Ind. Sold by druggists everywhere.

NEWS OF THE NORTHWEST

JOB SEEKERS SLOW.

No Rush Expected for Wisconsin Civil Service Examinations.

Madison, Wis., Nov. 25.—Civil service positions are not being sought as eagerly as had been expected on the last announcement of examinations, according to Examiner Ruggles, who said that applications for legislative positions, recently thrown open had been slow in coming in.

The civil service commission had expected that the number of applications would increase because of recent reports of unemployment in industry. Examinations are now being prepared for vacancies that will open with the new year, it was stated.

Work is being carried on now with a view to determining upon definite policy for promotion. The Wisconsin system, it was said, had previously been without a method of advancing those in the employ of the state. According to present plans examinations will be given at regular intervals in which workers might give evidence of their capacity to handle bigger jobs.

Wisconsin is also planning to use the oral interview in its examinations to determine personal fitness, Mr. Ruggles said. This affords a means of culling out those who may pass a high practical examination but who fail to measure up to the personal standards set by the state, it was said.

REMAINS WITH AUNT.

Court Disposition of Sole Survivor of Flickertail Wholesale Murder.

Washburn, N. D., Nov. 25.—Emma Wolf, 16-month-old survivor of the Turtle Lake murder tragedy, will remain with Mrs. Emanuel Hoefer, sister of the child's murdered mother, during her infancy. When the child is of school age she will be sent away to school far from the neighborhood where her parents, five brothers and sisters and a chore boy were murdered on the parents' farm. This was the decision of the court which heard the case here yesterday.

Emanuel Hoefer, brother-in-law of Mrs. Wolf, was appointed guardian of the estate, estimated to be worth more than $25,000.

James McCulloch, temporary guardian of the little girl, declared Emma should be sent away to an institution to be reared.

"KILLED BY UNKNOWN."

Coroner's Jury's Finding in Killing Near Sweetgrass, Mon.

Great Falls, Mont., Nov. 25.—A coroner's jury yesterday returned a verdict that Henry Jacobson, a rancher living near Sweetgrass, Mont., north of here on the border, "was killed by an unknown hand." Jacobson was shot and killed Monday night in a gun fight between immigration officials and Jacobson and three other occupants of an automobile. The officials were looking for liquor thieves and intercepted another car. Words followed and a shot was fired which killed Jacobson. No arrest has been made.

CAUGHT RUNNING BOOZE ACROSS INTO MONTANA

Regina, Sask., Nov. 25.—Jack Maybee and Jack Shelby, alleged rum runners, and the manager of a local wholesale liquor house were arrested by provincial police early Wednesday. Two automobiles and a truck containing eighty cases of liquor were seized. It is alleged the men were running liquor from Regina into Montana. The arrests were made eighteen miles south of Regina. Two other alleged rum runners with the party escaped.

CANCELS POLICIES AS RATES ARE INCORRECT

Madison, Wis., Nov. 25.—Platt Whitman commissioner of insurance, yesterday ordered immediate cancellation of all fire and tornado insurance policies recently issued and reported to him by the Wisconsin Audit bureau of Milwaukee. This action, it is said, comes as a result of the writing of these policies at incorrect rates.

As the audit bureau is not a part of the insurance department, but is strictly a bureau managed by the insurance companies, the commissioner takes the position that he cannot assume authority over their regular operations. He can, however, offer criticism.

FAIRCHILD, WIS., HIGH SCHOOL IS DESTROYED

Fairchild, Wis., Nov. 25.—Members of the local school board are hunting available halls in which to reassemble the high school classes next Monday, following destruction of the high school building here yesterday.

The fire broke out just before noon, but the teachers were able to march the pupils out of the building without difficulty before the flames became dangerous. The loss was $30,000, partially covered by insurance.

WARN UNEMPLOYED TO SHUN NORTH DAKOTA

Fargo, N. D., Nov. 25.—Unemployed persons in this state are warned not to come to the larger cities of North Dakota unless they have previously secured work, in statements issued yesterday by the Federal labor department employment bureau in Bismarck and Fargo.

"We have thirty applicants for every city position or job," said Mrs. Mintie B. Bowe, in charge of the employment bureau here.

"We are just about breaking even in placing applicants for farm work."

BURNQUIST PROCLAIMS AMENDMENTS NOW LAWS

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 25.—Proclamations were issued yesterday by Governor Burnquist declaring the good roads, probate judge and railroad assessment amendments to the constitution of the state to be laws. The good roads amendment provided for improving highways; the probate judge law for extending the term of office from two to four years for probate judges for the term beginning in 1923, and the railroad law provides that railroad property may be assessed for part of the payment of improvements to be made on abutting property.

CAR BREAKS THROUGH ICE AND THREE DROWN

Prince Albert, Sask., Nov. 25.—John Fagneau, 24; his sister, Eugenie Fagneau, 20, and Esther Bedard were drowned Tuesday night in Lake Lenore. The bodies have not been recovered.

Fagneau was driving a car on the ice when it broke through and sank in twenty-four feet of water. Another girl in the party escaped. Lake Lenore is 120 miles southeast of Prince Albert.

Justice of Peace Fifty Years.

Dickinson, N. D., Nov. 25.—Recently elected to his fifteenth term as justice of the peace in North Dakota, Judge A. T. Folsom of Dickinson has rounded out an even half century as a justice of the peace in the courts of his native state, Vermont, and the commonwealth of his adoption, North Dakota. Judge Folsom is 76 years old and a Civil war veteran but even now carries himself with the bearing of many men no more than half his age.

Watertown, Wis., Hunter Killed.

Rhinelander, Wis., Nov. 25.—Walter Broom of Watertown, Wis., died yesterday after being accidentally shot by Arnold Gebers. The young men were hunting when the accident occurred.

Appleton, Wis., Banker Dies.

Appleton, Wis., Nov. 25.—Herman Erb, 77, president of the First National bank here, died in San Diego, Cal., Tuesday. His body will be brought here for burial. He is survived by his widow and three daughters.

DAKOTA BRIEFS

Grand Forks, N. D.—A Federal prohibition office will be opened in Grand Forks within the next few weeks, according to an announcement made by Paul D. Keller, supervising prohibition agent for the Northwest.

Dickinson, N. D.—Dickinson's sewer and water extension, employing 4,000 feet of pipe, has been completed and water has been turned on.

Forman, N. D.—W. H. Whitinger, 74, farmer of this vicinity, was almost instantly killed when struck by an auto traveling on the state highway north of here.

Inkster, N. D.—The Bank of Inkster, established in 1886, rounded out the thirty-fourth year of its life as an institution by entirely remodeling the interior. The improvements not only add to the general appearance, but more room is provided for the business of the bank.

Mott, N. D.—The charred bodies of three of the children of Mr. and Mrs. J. Sullivan, who were burned when the home of the Sullivan farm, fifteen miles northeast of here, was destroyed by fire, have been taken from the ruins of the house.

Fargo, N. D.—Ole Halvorson, living at Hatton, Steele county, was adjudged bankrupt in the United States district court here. Halvorson's assets are listed at $1,165 and his liabilities at $7,949.19. The sum of $205 is claimed as exempt. The first meeting of the creditors will be held in Fargo on Dec. 2.

Bismarck, N. D.—A check is being made of merchants in many communities in the state who are selling an abnormally large amount of flavoring extracts containing alcohol, according to W. D. Lynch, Federal prohibition director.

Devils Lake, N. D.—The Devils Lake Commercial club and Knights of Columbus are working to give the children and grownups of the city amusements this winter in the form of an ice skating rink and toboggan slide.

WISCONSIN BRIEFS

Hurley—The last of the Good School week meetings in Iron county was held Monday afternoon at Manitowish in the nature of a mothers' meeting. After a program, which included an address by Miss Margaret Hardie, supervising teacher, a contest for mothers was held.

Ashland—The local army recruiting station reports accepting the following: G. P. Hurley of Mill Town, Wis.; Isaac Allen of North Port, Mich., and Phillip Hockey of Jim Falls, Wis.

Antigo—Sixth and eighth grade boys taking instruction in manual training are to spend their time from now until Christmas making toys for the poor children of the city. The boys bring box and crating material to school for this work. The toys will be distributed by the Community Welfare association.

Richland Center—Frank Roach was found by a jury to be guilty of assault with intent to commit a statutory offense upon Ruth Barklay, 13, and was sentenced by County Judge McCorkle to serve seven years in Waupun.

Menasha—Military services were held in honor of Private John Lengenfeldt, Winnebago county supervisor, who died in service in France and whose body was buried here.

Dodgeville—Prizes amounting to $230 are offered by John M. Reese, president of the First bank of Dodgeville and editor of the Dodgeville Chronicle, for the highest testing cow and herd in Iowa county.

La Crosse—The La Crosse county board appropriated $115,000 for highway work during the coming year. With state, town and Federal aid included, over $300,000 worth of road construction work will be done in 1921.

PENINSULA BRIEFS

Marquette—Philip H. Johnson, son of Anton Johnson, and Miss Frances M. Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Anderson, were married Monday morning at 8 o'clock in St. Peter's cathedral, the Rev. Father H. A. Buchholtz officiating.

Ishpeming—The 10-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Rokola of Mohawk narrowly escaped death by drowning in No. 4 dam while skating, timely action of Urko Saaranen saving his life.

Hancock—Oreste Agretti and Mrs. Agretti arrived in Hancock from Pisa, Italy. They will locate here where Mr. Agretti will be the active head of a company organized some time ago to manufacture paper toys and novelties.

Marquette—James H. Kaye, president of the normal school, was appointed a member of the Peter White library board to succeed Daniel W. Powell, resigned.

Calumet—Great State Commander E. R. Thomson of Port Huron and other great state tent officers were the guests of Calumet tent, No. 218, Knights of Maccabees Wednesday evening.

Marquette—W. G. Miller, contractor, has completed the construction of the foundation and first floor structure for the new hotel on Front street. The work was done within the time contemplated, although considerable overtime work was necessary on account of cold weather.

Houghton—The Houghton farm bureau is now ready for active work. The secretary, along with L. M. Geismar, the bureau agent, will open headquarters here and it will be through the Houghton office that the work of the bureau here will be done in large measure.

Ironwood—Two substitute clerks, the Misses Alice M. Sahlin and Adele Peterson, are employed at the postoffice here in place of Carl Palmquist and Paul Coleman, both of whom have temporary leaves of absence.

Bessemer—The winter haul of gravel made for depositing on the state road No. 12 west of Dunham was started on Monday by William Maki of Bessemer. Mr. Maki's contract calls for the hauling of 2,500 yards of gravel. It is estimated that the work will take several months to accomplish with a force of six teams hauling.

MINNESOTA BRIEFS

St. Cloud—John H. Ley, after an absence of months while he was publishing city directories at Bemidji, Brainerd and Thief River Falls, has returned here from the last-named city to reside and will start compiling the local directory next spring.

East Grand Forks—Carmon House, who was run down by an auto Tuesday afternoon while riding his bicycle on De Mers avenue, is reported as resting easily. The driver of the car has not been located as yet by the East Grand Forks police force, as none of the bystanders noticed the number on the car.

St. Cloud—F. M. Wright has sold his tie plug factory adjoining the Great Northern railroad tracks to E. W. Morton of Minneapolis, who will operate the plant in the future. The factory has a capacity of 175,000 tie plugs daily and employs six or seven men.

Blue Earth—Eleven-year-old Carl Oelke, who lives on a farm adjoining Blue Earth, is the owner of "Gold Dust," a black Aberdeen Angus calf, which was judged to be the "grand champion baby beef" of the state of Minnesota at the junior stock show held in St. Paul last week.

Stillwater—The funeral of Jonas Backlund was held at his late residence in South Stillwater Tuesday afternoon, Rev. C. E. Benson officiating. Members of Stillwater lodge, No. 1, I. O. O. F., attended the services.

Minneapolis—Using a bottle of sirup as a hammer sent Fred Densler, 5 years old, to the General hospital Tuesday. He was badly cut about the hands when the bottle broke.

Tyler—William Mohling, farmer, is dead from lockjaw, the result of having one of his fingers torn off in a gasoline engine pumping outfit on his farm.

Crookston—Chester Taylor, station agent for the Northern Pacific, who returned from a hunting trip in the northern part of the state, brought back one of the largest antlered deer that has been shipped into Crookston this fall.

Bemidji—In order to renew acquaintance with the farmers and settlers in the southern part of Beltrami county, the members of the Bemidji Civic and Commerce association will hold a dinner at the association rooms on Dec. 4 at 12 o'clock noon. Plans are being laid for an exceptionally fine program for the meeting.

Brainerd—The Elks memorial committee will meet Friday evening to make final arrangements for the Elks memorial program of Dec. 5 and for the reception to be tendered L. C. Hodgson of St. Paul, the speaker at the lodge hall on Saturday evening, Dec. 4.

Moorhead—Melvin Rufer of Moorhead, who was injured in an automobile accident last week, is gradually recovering the sight of his right eye. He can see a shadow when an object passes before his eye, and hospital attendants believe that in time he will recover, if not full, at least partial sight.

Hawley—A. D. Wilson of the University farm, St. Paul, delivered the dedication address at the dedicatory exercises of the Farmers' Co-operative creamery here Tuesday. O. M. Olson, Clay county agent, and a number of Moorhead men attended.

Moorhead—Graduating exercises for the class of twelve students who complete their normal work with the close of the first term of the Moorhead normal school were held at 11 a. m. Wednesday at the normal school.

Fosston—Funeral services for Willis J. Carstens, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Carstens of Fargo, were held here Saturday, Nov. 13. The body was buried at Forest Hill cemetery. Willis Carstens, who was 27 years old, died in France of influenza while on duty with the American forces.

What Dual Valves Add to Pierce-Arrow Trucks
DUAL Valves add to Pierce-Arrow trucks increased power equal to any demand they may be called upon to meet. Hills, mires and rough-going will not worry them.
Power Avoids Road Delays
Power equal to any need saves delay. Trucks complete trips in less time; makes more trips, more money. The yield from a truck investment is fixed by the work it does.
Reduces Operating Costs
This increased power is developed at a lowered cost. Dual Valves mean fuller, purer gas charges. Two sparks assure complete combustion and convert the charge into more miles.
Decreases Repair Costs
Time lost in the shop is a big truck expense. Easy accessibility of parts assures repairs, when necessary, with the least loss of time, with the lowest labor charges.
THREE TRUCK SIZES:
2-ton, 3½-ton and 5-ton—and a tractor—all electric lighted, worm driven, and equipped with Dual Valve engines.

ON THE IRON RANGES

CLOVER RAISING IS GIVEN BOOST

Virginia, Minn., Nov. 25.—(Special to The Herald.)—Clover raising in the Bear River district is very profitable and the culture should be enlarged in this section, Burt Simons, well-known farmer of that section, told the members of the Rotary club at their noonday luncheon yesterday in discussing what he had done.

Mr. Simons invited the Rotarians to visit Bear River and see for themselves the farming possibilities in that section.

His talk before the Rotary club was due to the efforts of the agricultural committee consisting of Joseph Christopherson, W. F. Fliehr and J. E. Howe.

Lawrence Barrett, talking on "Business Conditions From the Wholesaler's Standpoint," declared that the outlook is promising and that in many lines the prices have been forced down by the wholesalers. He defended the position of the wholesaler sometimes assailed as being "middle men."

Arthur Brude talked on the "Income Tax" and W. J. Archer on "Rotary."

A legislative committee consisting of the following was named: R. R. Bailey, Bruce Britts and E. T. Duffield.

Next Wednesday evening will be ladies' night.

COLERAINE EASTERN STAR ENTERTAINS HIBBING ORDER

Coleraine, Minn., Nov. 25.—(Special to The Herald.)—Pine Cone chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, entertained the Mesaba chapter of Hibbing Tuesday evening at Fraternity hall. H. D. Powers, worthy patron; Mrs. W. W. Libby, worthy matron, and Mrs. Kremer, associate matron of Jeptha chapter at Grand Rapids were also guests. Two candidates were initiated, F. C. Beach of Marble and Miss Hazel Lindstrom of Coleraine. There were out-of-town guests from the neighboring villages.

At the close of initiation the local chapter put on a pretty floral addenda which was followed by an unusually well conducted march in which different figures were formed illustrating the symbols of the order. This part of the program was prepared under the direction of Miss Helen M. Hutchins, associate matron of Pine Cone chapter.

Virginia Quint Practicing.

Virginia, Minn., Nov. 25.—(Special to The Herald.)—The high school basket ball team is practicing regularly. Nearly all of last year's team have returned and the candidates trying out for the team promise to do their best to duplicate the championship of the 1919 quint. The first game will be played about Dec. 10.

Virginia Woman Honored.

Virginia, Minn., Nov. 25.—(Special to The Herald.)—Miss Ruth Kellar of Virginia was chosen one of the district delegates to the national convention of the women's auxiliary to the American Legion at the state meeting of the auxiliary members held in Minneapolis last Friday. Miss Keller and Mrs. Frank Elliott attended the meeting from Virginia.

Buhl Fight for Depot.

Buhl, Minn., Nov. 25.—Buhl will carry its fight for a new station nearer the heart of the community to the state railroad and warehouse commission, following failure of the Duluth, Missaba road to act on the city's petition for a change in location. The village contends the station at Sharon is too far from the center of the community and causes hardships.

Architect Not Yet Chosen.

Virginia, Minn., Nov. 25.—(Special to The Herald.)—Action regarding the new building program of the public schools was deferred until a future meeting by the board of education, which Tuesday night considered routine business. It is thought that the choice of architect will be made at the next regular meeting.

VENISON RUNNING SECOND TO TURKEY

Virginia, Minn., Nov. 25.—(Special to The Herald.)—In many homes in Virginia today it is reported that venison is running turkey as close second as the piece de resistance recent successful hunting by local nimrods having brought much of that delicacy to the city. Many local boys and girls attending school elsewhere are home for the holiday while, of course, the schools and all public offices are closed for the day. There are no especial sporting events planned for the day. Local markets are said to have been liberally supplied with turkeys, chickens, geese and other foods popular on this day even bear meat being offered in some instances.

The only Thanksgiving program given yesterday morning when the public speaking class gave a sketch, "The First Thanksgiving," under the direction of Miss Ethel Bailey.

In the lower grades some of the teachers related the story of Thanksgiving to the pupils, while in other rooms short programs took place.

At Parochial School.

At the Parochial school a large program was given yesterday afternoon serving the purpose, both after the holiday and for thanks to the mothers who have done a great deal at the school. The following numbers were given: Welcome, Allen Gately, song, "Down By the Sea," the seventh and eighth grades; recitation, "Fellow's Mother," Bernard Hughes, song, "Thanksgiving at Grandpa's," first and second grades' dialogue, "Getting Off at School," boys and girls of third grades; "song, "Turkey Land," third and fourth grades; recitation, "Look on the Sunny Side," Louise Martinson; "The Mothers' Strike," Ruth Kearney; "Queen Crown Folks," Maide McDonough; "First Thanksgiving," sixth grade; recitation, "Roy's Suggestion," Floyd Irwin; recitation, "Thanksgiving in the Farmyard," our babies; song, "The Seed," fifth grade girls; "Colonial Ballad," Leona Irwin and Loraine McGillivray; playlet, "A Second Rip Van Winkle," seventh grade; song, "Pilgrim Maidens," third grade; sketch, "Three o'Clock Train," Helen Sparling, Agnes Hedican and Anna Bohte; "When the Flag Goes By," fifth and sixth grade students.

DESIRE STREETS OF CHISHOLM NUMBERED

Chisholm, Minn., Nov. 25.—(Special The Herald.)—If the suggestion of the chamber of commerce is acted upon by the village council all streets in Chisholm will be designated by numerals instead of the names of trees. At a regular session of the chamber of commerce Tuesday night the annoyance caused residents of the village as well as strangers in locating certain streets was discussed and the secretary instructed to communicate with the council requesting that numerals be substituted for names of streets.

Other matters which were referred to the council with request for action was enforcement of the ordinances relative to the peddling of meat that had not passed inspection and that uniform action be taken to compel all property owners to connect their premises with the sewers.

Proposed Backus Dam.

Rumor that the Minnesota & Ontario Power company, an E. W. Backus interest located at International Falls, was planning to erect a dam on Little Vermilion lake was discussed. According to vague information at hand it would appear that the dam is to be one of the largest power projects ever attempted in the northern part of the state and would result in the raising of the waters of Little Vermilion and Loon lakes as well as Lac La Croix way above their normal level and put many thousands of acres of the Superior national forest under water. The secretary was instructed to secure authoritative information on the subject.

Directors elected for the ensuing year were: W. E. Bates, Ernest Drew, Anton Tancig, Norris Peck, C. M. Tramontin, Clyde Blough, J. H. McNiven, Arthur Mattson and B. H. Graham. The directors electde will meet next Tuesday and organize and elect officers.

McCRACKEN SPEAKS TO HIBBING STUDENTS

Hibbing, Minn., Nov. 25.—(Special to The Herald.)—"It is the ability to get together in an orderly manner and to follow regular rules of order that makes our congress differ from the necktie parties of Mexico," Duane McCracken, instructor in economics in the Hibbing Junior college, told students of the college and their friends at the Thanksgiving meeting of the students yesterday afternoon.

The value of parliamentary practice which is being taught at the meetings of the college literary society was his theme.

An interesting talk by C. E. Everett on "Being Square" was well received.

The work of the college French department, under the instruction of Miss Florence Donahue, was displayed in a French playlet, "Le Marriage al Americaine," presented by four students. Following was the cast: Paulette Darbois, Loretta MacNamara; Rose, Ida Johnson; W. Martin Johnson, Morris Stevens, and Georges Blainville, Amelia Currie.

TWO HARBORS WATER METERS DECIDED ON

Two Harbors, Minn., Nov. 25.—The city council, in response to complaints against the flat rate for city water now in vogue, decided to install meters and, to that end, entered into a contract with the Neptune Water Meter company of New York to install 1,000, both large and small, at an approximate cost of $16,000. The council frowned upon the proposition of private installation of the meters. It is believed the meter system will result in a noticeable saving of water and, of course, of coal used in pumping, and other expenses.

Nashwaukers Best Spellers.

Nashwauk, Minn., Nov. 25.—The recent oral and written spelling contest between local eighth grade pupils and similar ones from Keewatin the locals proved more adept. Supt. J. A. Vandyke of the Coleraine district chose the fifty words used in the written contest while the oral spelling bee lasted about half an hour.

The Nashwauk spellers were: Eunice Kresek, Alma Davern, Esther Johnson, Bernice Cox, Florence Lindquist, Lena Michaels, Helmi Laine, James Mayale, Seppe Talpale, Bernice Howard, George Dahl and Beulah Corwin.

Senator Conroy Virginia Visitor.

Virginia, Minn., Nov. 25.—(Special to The Herald.)—State Senator Martin Conroy of St. Paul, who is visiting Senator Michael Boylan, is much impressed with the industries and institutions of the Mesaba range. The committee investigating industrial compensation and insurance, of which the senator is a member, will meet at St. Paul next week.

Alice Library Branch Popular.

Hibbing, Minn., Nov. 25.—(Special to The Herald.)—The Alice branch library of South Hibbing is proving a great convenience to that part of town. During the last year 26,614 volumes, 14,035 to adults and 12,035 to juveniles were loaned from the branch. Twenty-three per cent of the adult and 52 per cent of the juvenile circulation was nonfiction.

Will See Harding Inaugurated.

Hibbing, Minn., Nov. 25.—(Special to The Herald.)—Many range Republicans are expected to attend the inauguration of President-elect Harding. While D. D. McEachin was visiting Marion, Ohio, with state Republicans, last summer, he jokingly said to the president-elect that he hoped to see him again at the inauguration. "Sure, I hope so and bring along your good Minnesota friends."

Hill City Hunter Shot.

Grand Rapids, Minn., Nov. 25.—While hunting deer about eight miles south of Hill City, John Hill got an accidental bullet wound in the right shoulder and was brought to the local hospital where he is reported doing nicely.

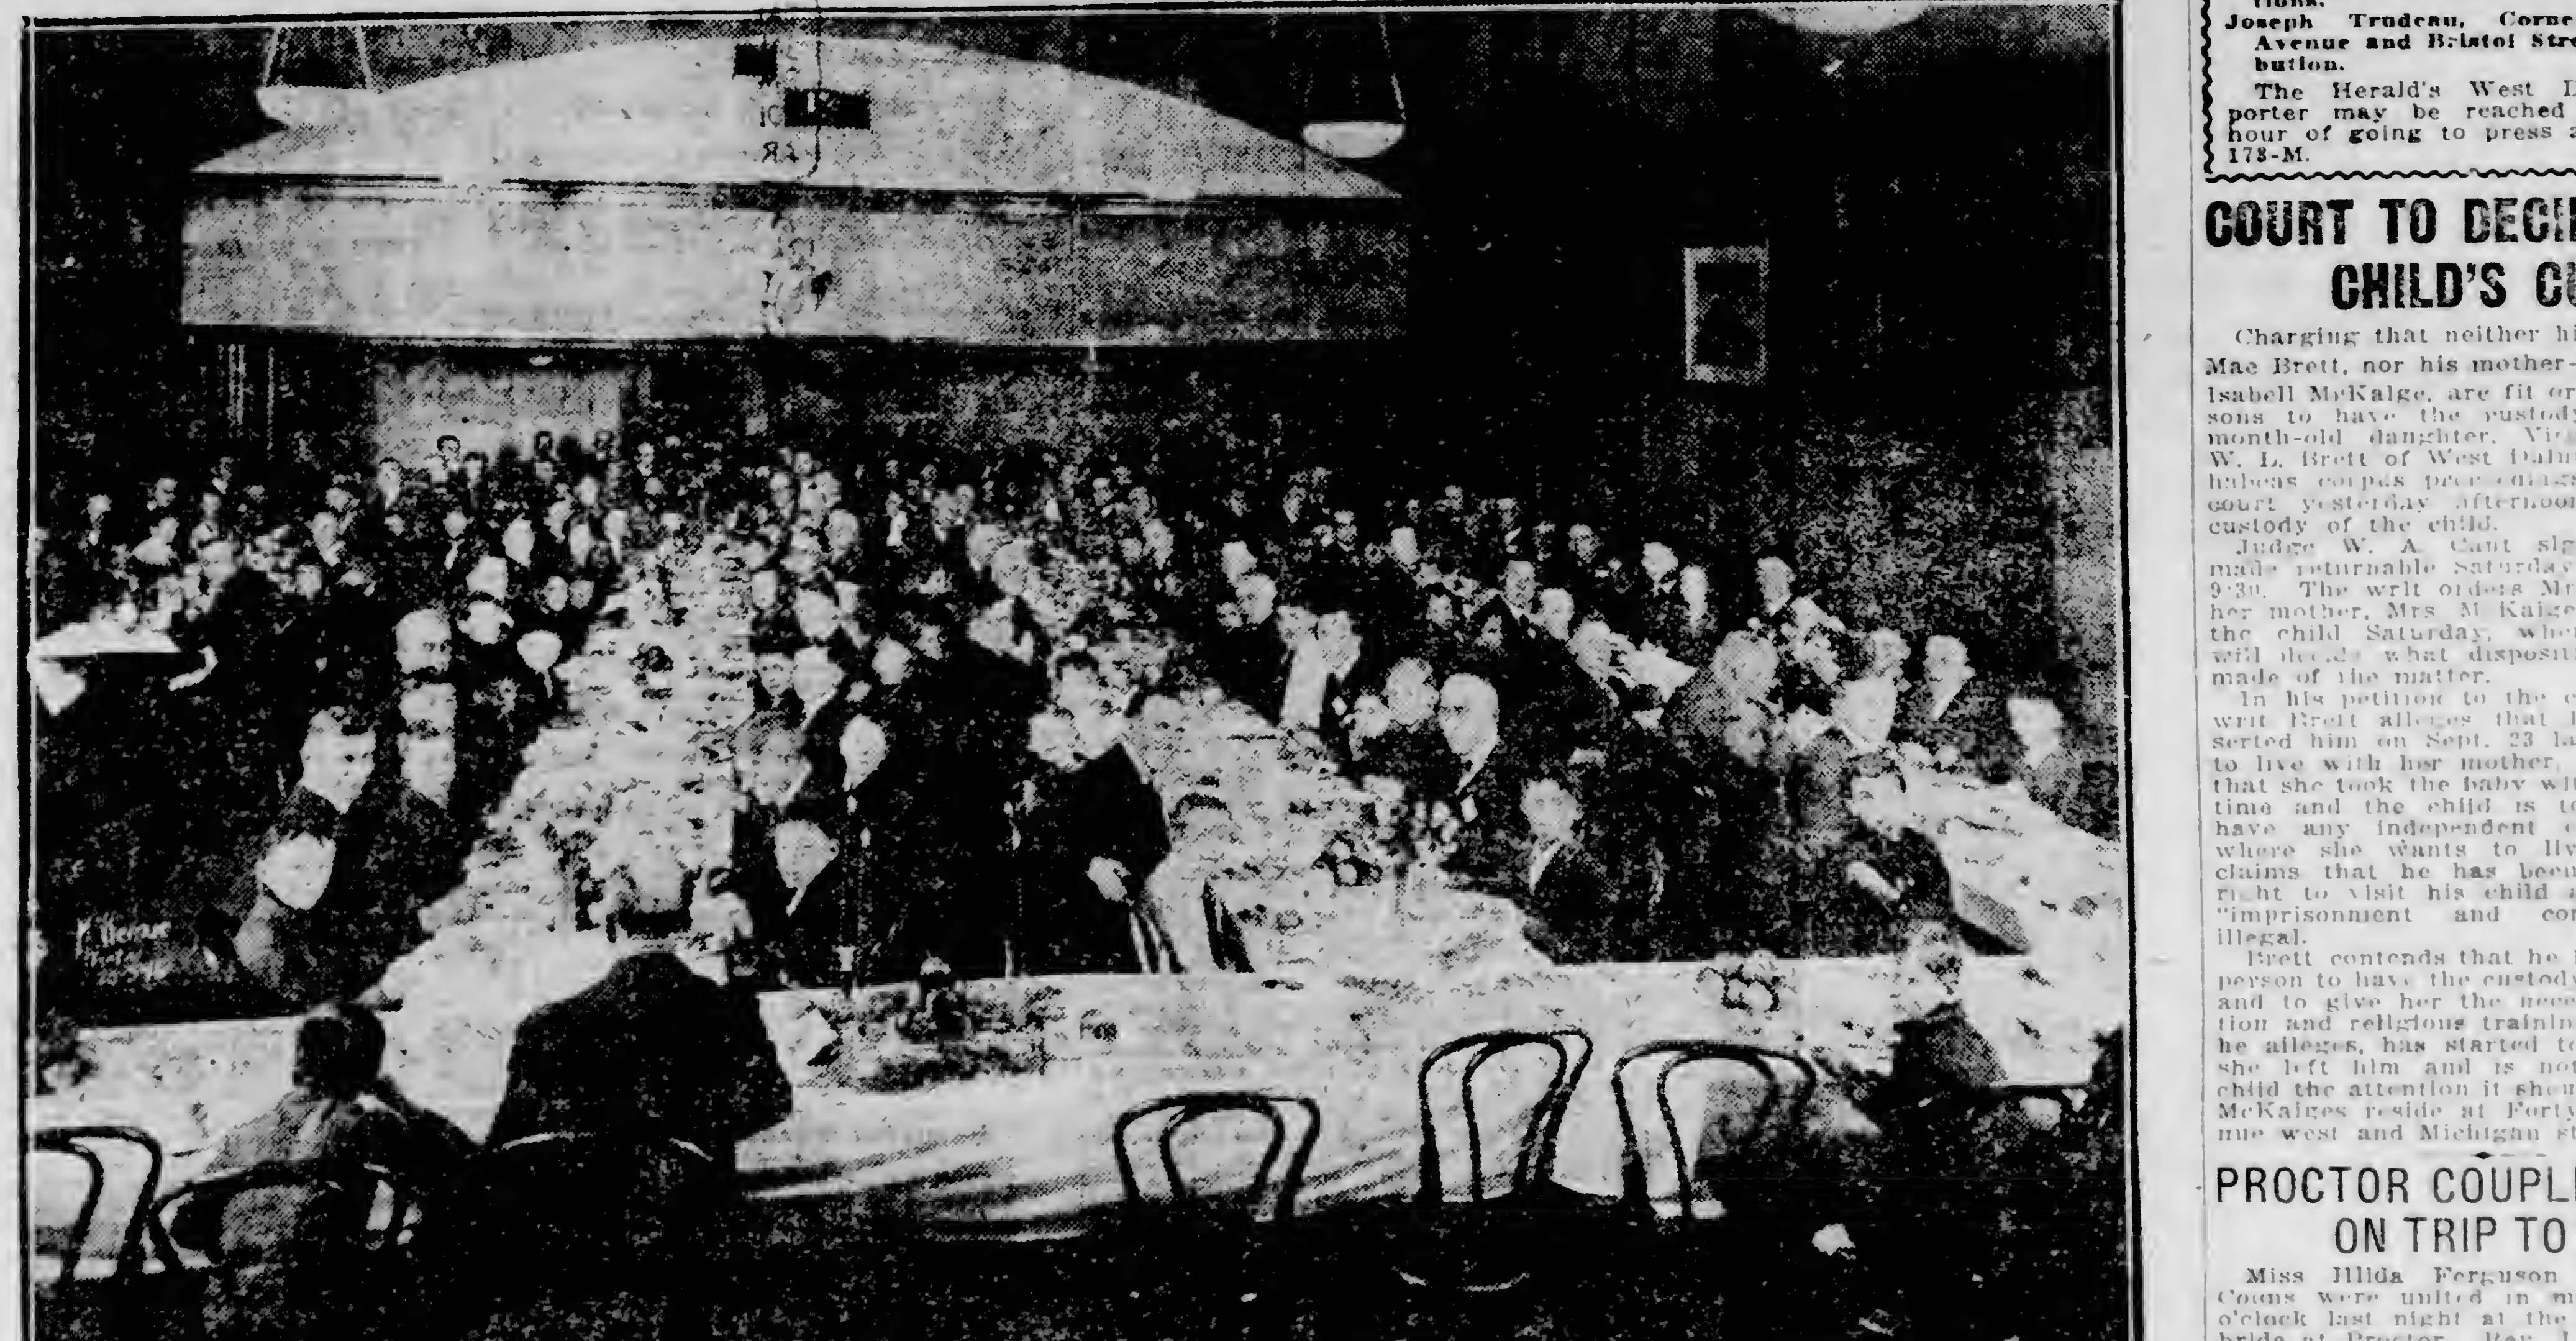
Camping Place for Autoists.

Hibbing, Minn., Nov. 25.—(Special to The Herald.)—A camping ground for visiting autoists, to be located in Bennett park, is among summer plans of Conrad Wolf, superintendent of parks. Last summer automobile tourists pitched their tents south of Bennett park and then Supt. Wolf broached the plan to the park board and they favored the idea.

Object to Meat Peddlers.

Nashwauk, Minn., Nov. 25.—Local merchants take emphatic exception to the custom that has grown rapidly here in the past few weeks of nearby farmers and others peddling meat in town and the village council will be asked to enact ordinances licensing or otherwise controlling outsiders who peddle here.

BIG BROTHERS AND BOYS ENJOY TURKEY DINNER AT BOYS' "Y" TUESDAY



A turkey dinner with cranberry sauce and the other "fixin's" constituted the bill o' fare for the annual Big Brother banquet given by the Rotary club Tuesday night at the boys' department building of the Y. M. C. A. One hundred little fellows, recruited from the poorer sections of the city, were the Rotarians' guests.

Each club member has now undertaken to be responsible for the welfare of at least one "little brother" for a year. The banquet Tuesday marked the beginning of the fourth year of the movement. Joseph A. Smith was chairman of the committee in charge of arranging the dinner and program.

That the turkey dinner was a most unusual treat for the youngsters was evidenced in striking fashion. When Jo Jo, the health clown, for instance, advised the lads to drink at least two glasses of milk daily, he was met with shouts of derision mingled with cheers.

"G'wan, It costs too much," one boy shouted.

"What if you can't afford it?" was a cry that came almost simultaneously from several.

NO SNOW FOR THANKSGIVING

LOCAL FORECAST.

For Duluth and vicinity: Partly cloudy tonight and Friday. Lowest temperature tonight 25 to 30 deg. at Duluth, Superior and Two Harbors, and 20 to 25 deg. inland and on the iron ranges. Moderate westerly winds.

There will be little change in weather conditions from those of the last few days, according to H. W. Richardson, local weather observer. Generally fair weather prevails throughout the country, with the exception of the lake region, where it is cloudy, and the northeastern states, where snow or rain is falling. Snow is falling in the New England states, indicating an "old-fashioned" Thanksgiving.

There are no indications of a storm in sight anywhere, although there is a low barometer in the extreme Northwest. There were no severe cold temperatures last night reported anywhere on the map.

General Forecasts:

Washington, Nov. 25.—Upper Lakes—Moderate and northeast winds; cloudy tonight and Friday, probably rain or snow this afternoon or tonight on Huron.

Upper and Lower Michigan—Cloudy tonight and Friday; no change in temperature.

Minnesota—Fair tonight and probably Friday; somewhat warmer in extreme west portion tonight and in south and west portions Friday.

Wisconsin—Fair tonight and Friday; somewhat warmer Friday.

North Dakota—Fair tonight and probably Friday, rising temperature.

RED CROSS TO END DRIVE SATURDAY

Saturday will mark the close of the intensive Red Cross roll call for this year. The roll call was launched on Armistice day and was to have closed today, but workers at large industrial plants and wholesale and retail houses have informed headquarters that their reports will not be ready until Saturday. Headquarters in the Alworth building requested that as many as possible have their reports ready on that day.

A call sent out yesterday to the different workers brought forth encouraging reports. Many of the workers have not made any report up to this time, and from their partial reports yesterday, it is expected by the managers of the campaign that last year's membership record of 21,000 will be exceeded. A large increase in the number of junior enrollments this year are also looked for.

Brainerd's Former Mayor Dies.

Brainerd, Minn., Nov. 25.—Former Mayor John Small, who thirty years ago was master mechanic in the local Northern Pacific shops, died in California recently, according to word received here, aged 73. He was superintendent of the locomotive shops of the Southern Pacific at Sacramento and had been promoted to be general master mechanic, with headquarters in San Francisco. He was the uncle of F. A. Farrar, Mrs. R. R. Gould and Miss Winifred Small in Brainerd.

HAVE FORMER JAIL RECORDS

Men Arrested for Superior Bank Robbery Positively Identified.

Two of the trio of men whose photos have been sent to the Head of the Lakes for identification in the Superior State bank robbery, which took place on Nov. 16, have been positively identified as former convicts. All three were identified yesterday afternoon by employes of the bank as the robbers who entered the bank and stole $7,215 from its vaults and counters.

The Superior identifications were made by H. E. Erickson, cashier, Miss Martha Nelson, clerk, and Miss Nell Mulligan, teller. The cashier identified the photos of J. J. Bohmer and Charles Stewart and the two women identified this man as well as the photos of Charles Stewart and H. Ryan.

Robert E. Donaldson, Bertillon expert of the Duluth police department, has positively identified two of the trio as former convicts. It is the belief that H. Ryan was the leader of the gang from his former experience and being the oldest of the gang. Ryan is positively identified as Joseph Daley, alias Joe Kinsella, who on Oct. 3, 1905, at the age of 20 years, was sentenced from Menaha county, Kan., to Leavenworth prison for grand larceny. Daley, alias Frank Swanson, alias Chi Tommie, was arrested in Minneapolis for the burglary of the Scandia State Bank of Scandia, Minn., which took place Feb. 6, 1914. His companions in that deal were J. Lipton, alias "Canada Blackie," and A. V. Carter, alias "Wisconsin Max." They were sentenced to an indeterminate sentence not exceeding ten years in the Stillwater prison.

Former Red Wing Boy.

Mr. Donaldson, also identified J. J. Bohmer as James McCormick, alias James Irish, alias John Divitt, a former Red Wing boy. His record included an arrest on May 28, 1913, in Douglas county, Or., for burglary and assaulting an officer, and is wanted by the Oregon state prison for violation of parole in October, 1918. On Feb. 25, 1919, this man was arrested in St. Paul for automobile theft and burglary and was sentenced to ninety days at the Ramsey county workhouse. Last spring Bohmer, in company with two other men and three women were in Superior, the police claim, for the purpose of robbing the Community Savings bank. The entire six were arrested after creating a disturbance on lower Tower avenue during which time a large number of shots were fired.

The police have so far been unable to connect Stewart up with a former record. The sheriff of Douglas county, accompanied by two undersheriffs, left today for Madison to procure extradition papers for the three men. They hope to be in Omaha by tomorrow afternoon with the necessary papers to bring the prisoners back.

Word was received last evening that attorneys for the eight prisoners taken in the raid on the Omaha hotel have started habeas corpus proceedings for their release. The warrants for the arrest are said to have arrived in Omaha in time to have these proceedings stopped.

IN RIGHT CHURCH, BUT THE WRONG PEW

Story of Petty Grafter Nailed by Dr. Brewer; Other Pastor Stung.

When Philip Bjundy, aged 29, yesterday tried to "touch" Rev. George Brewer, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, for a loan of $10 on the strength of a hard luck story about a sick wife, he unwittingly exposed himself in a petty graft evidently directed against the preachers of Duluth.

Bjundy assured Dr. Brewer that he was a good Presbyterian. He always attended the Presbyterian church regularly, used to pass the plate around every Sunday and all that back in his home town.

"Where was that?" asked Dr. Brewer.

"Columbus, Ohio—First Presbyterian church of Columbus, Ohio," replied Bjundy.

Bjundy soon realized that he had committed a colossal blunder. Out of all of the First Presbyterian churches in the big United States he had unwittingly picked the very church in which Dr. Brewer had served as pastor for many years prior to his coming to Duluth.

Dr. Brewer's next few questions nailed the story as a lie and Bjundy later admitted that he had used poor judgment in picking Columbus. He still stuck to his "sick wife" story, however, but Dr. Brewer requested further time to investigate before he advanced him any loan.

Later Dr. Brewer found that a man answering to Bjundy's description had interviewed other pastors in the city with the same hard luck story, only that he possessed the quality of a chameleon in the matter of religion.

Bjundy procured a $10 loan from the pastor of one of the Methodist churches of the city on the same hard luck story. But on that occasion he was a life-long Methodist and had the good fortune to pick some place to hail from that his pastor-victim was not familiar with.

The police have been furnished with the description of the petty grafter and have asked the preachers of the city to be on the lookout for him.

PERSONALS

Arthur Poissant, until recently an employe of the Otis Elevator company in this city, left today for Chicago where he will remain for a few days before leaving for his home in Tampa, Fla.

Thomas G. Mayer of Wausau, Wis., arrived in the city this morning.

Miss Loretta Maloney of Baudette is visiting in the city.

Carlo Jorgenson of Fargo is here on business.

Teachers Pass Holiday Here.

Few Duluth school teachers left the city yesterday to spend the Thanksgiving holiday out of the city. About twenty-five per cent of the teaching force of 600 are out-of-town residents but most of them have made plans to postpone their visits home until the Christmas holidays.

Suspect Not Inkinen.

Deputy Sheriff Bert Duff returned late yesterday from Winegar, Wis., where he was called for the purpose of making an identification of a suspect arrested in the Johnny Jones murder case. Authorities held a man whom they believed to be Mike Inkinen, wanted for the murder, but Deputy Sheriff Duff notified them that they had arrested the wrong man.

Mule Dies From Injuries.

There are even some things that a mule cannot stand and survive. One of these is falling into a manhole and being derricked out of it. The mule belonging to the Duluth Van & Storage company which dropped through the manhole in Third avenue west and First alley Tuesday afternoon died yesterday afternoon at the company's stables as the result of its injuries.

Benefit Dance for War Orphans.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Catholic Order of Foresters will entertain at a benefit dancing party at the Polish hall, Fourth avenue east and Fourth street, this evening for the benefit of the children sufferers of Poland.

Waive Examination.

William Broman and Helen Marcotte waived examination in police court yesterday afternoon when arraigned on a charge of receiving stolen property. They confessed to the police as having received a share of the money stolen from Carl Johnson Wednesday night at the Superior hotel. The theft was committed by Helen Ostlund, who has been taken to Superior for trial. Broman and the woman were bound over to the grand jury. Their bail was set at $500 each.

Dies at Her Home.

Mrs. Barbara Hay, aged 66, a resident of Duluth for a number of years, died at her home, 1214 East Ninth street, yesterday afternoon, following an illness of several weeks. Mrs. Hay is survived by a number of sons and daughters in Duluth.

Needed a Stimulant.

That he needed liquor for a stimulant was the excuse offered by Philip Schroeder, farmer near Lakewood, when arraigned yesterday before U. S. Commissioner J. C. H. Engel, charged with making mash. He waived hearing and was released on bond till January.

Rotary Meets Friday.

The weekly meeting of the Rotary club, scheduled for today, was postponed on account of the holiday until tomorrow noon at the Spalding hotel. Arrangements will be made for a visit to Minneapolis which will later be returned by the Mill City Rotarians. Plans for an entertainment in December are also scheduled for discussion.

Congressman to Washington.

Congressman and Mrs. William L. Carss left last night for Northfield, Minn., Des Moines, Iowa, and Washington, D. C. Today they are visiting with their daughter, who is a student at Carleton college, Northfield. Tonight they will proceed to Des Moines to visit Mr. Carss' mother, and from there will go to Washington in time for the opening of congress on Dec. 6.

Will Meet Friday.

The Woman's Missionary Society of St. John's English Lutheran church will meet in the church parlors tomorrow afternoon.

Yeggs are Foiled.

An attempt to blow the safe in the offices of the Carlson Motor company, 1215 Belknap street, Superior, was frustrated early this morning with the arrival of Frank Carlson and W. H. Hoover from a hunting trip. The big 900-pound safe had been moved from the office back to the workshop, a distance of about forty feet, and two holes had been drilled in it preparatory to blowing. No trace of the men was found.

Seven Drunks in Court.

Seven drunks formed the Thanksgiving police grist. They were Victor Berg, Kenneth Barns, Swan Nelson, Charles Sands, Ed Hendrickson and Judd Johnson, all of whom pleaded guilty and each was sentenced to pay $20 and costs or spend twenty days at the work farm. Gust Beck forfeited $20 bail instead of appearing in court.

Police Grab Moonshine.

A five-gallon jug, a one-gallon jug of moonshine and four quarters of "dago red" were included in the "swag" confiscated by the police in a raid on the place conducted by Axel Grew, 4025 Woodland avenue, last night. The raid was conducted by Chief of Police Pugh, assisted by several officers of the department. Grew was released on $100 bail to appear in police court Friday morning.

Complete Still Found.

A complete still hidden underneath a display window at 1403 Ninety-ninth avenue west, together with a barrel of mash and a large quantity of raisins found in the basement of the building, resulted in the arrest of Tony Simlick last night. The raid was conducted by Police Chief Pugh and members of the New Duluth force. Simlick claimed that he had no knowledge of the hidden still. He put up $200 bail for his appearance in police court tomorrow morning. John Solden was arrested last evening on a charge of having aided in procuring intoxicating liquor. He will be arraigned formally in police court tomorrow.

COURT TO DECIDE CHILD'S CUSTODY

Charging that neither his wife, Mrs. Mae Brett, nor his mother-in-law, Mrs. Isabell McKaige, are fit or proper persons to have the custody of his 8-month-old daughter, Virginia Maria, W. L. Brett of West Duluth instituted habeas corpus proceedings in district court yesterday afternoon to obtain custody of the child.

Judge W. A. Cant signed a writ made returnable Saturday morning at 9:30. The writ orders Mrs. Brett and her mother, Mrs. McKaige, to produce the child Saturday, when the court will decide what disposition shall be made of the matter.

In his petition to the court for the writ Brett alleges that his wife deserted him on Sept. 23 last and went to live with her mother. He charges that she took the baby with her at the time and the child is too young to have any independent choice as to where she wants to live. He also claims that he has been denied the right to visit his child and that her "imprisonment and constraint" is illegal.

Brett contends that he is the proper person to have the custody of the child and to give her the necessary education and religious training. His wife, he alleges, has started to work since she left him and is not giving the child the attention it should have. The McKaiges reside at Forty-eighth avenue west and Michigan street.

PROCTOR COUPLE WEDS; ON TRIP TO OREGON

Miss Hilda Ferguson and George Coons were united in marriage at 7 o'clock last night at the home of the bride at Proctor. Rev. J. W. [illegible] officiated. The bride wore a dress of ivory satin and carried a bridal wreath. Miss Rhoda Eales, bridesmaid, wore a gown of black lace over satin and carried American Beauty roses. The flower girls were Irene Buss and Esther Ferguson, sister of the bride.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mrs. Rasnow, Miss Blanche Thomas, Wentworth, S. D.; Harlon McGillvray, Alvin Foster, Morris, Minn.; E. A. Douglas, Virginia, Minn.

The couple left for a honeymoon trip to Oregon and will return the first of the year and be at home in Proctor.

DENFELD CITIZENSHIP CLASSES HAVE PARTY

The three citizenship classes of the Denfeld high school night school held a Thanksgiving party at the school last night. Fifty members and three teachers attended the party, which was given under the direction of M. D. Sutton, principal of the Denfeld night school. Dancing followed the program of several instrumental and vocal selections.

The music for the evening was furnished by the recreational department of the city. Refreshments were served. A committee headed by J. V. Johnson of the Citizenship club of the Denfeld night school was in charge of the arrangements for this party.

WEST DULUTH GETS COAL.

Three More Carloads Delivered Following Resolutions to Governor.

Three cars of coal were shipped to West Duluth dealers yesterday, but whether or not this was a result of the resolutions sent to Governor Burnquist by the city council, has not been determined. The city council Monday, at the request of Commissioner P. G. Phillips, adopted resolutions calling on Governor Burnquist for assistance in getting coal shipped to West Duluth dealers instead of the residents of that district depending on the delivery by the coal companies direct from the docks.

The action of Commissioner Phillips was to save this section of the city the difference between the carrying charges of the downtown coal companies and the freight charges on car shipments. This he informed the city council would mean a saving to the consumer of considerable on the winter's supply of coal.

Commissioner Phillips asserted that the supply of coal to West Duluth was controlled by Twin City offices and that this section of the city was classed the same as were the range cities in apportioning the amount of coal they should have.

SEEK GRAVEL IN WISCONSIN

Location of Deposits Important in State Highway Construction.

Madison, Wis., Nov. 25.—Prospecting for gravel has become an important adjunct to highway construction in Wisconsin, according to Prof. E. F. Bean, assistant state geologist. Surveys have been made of available gravel beds within the immediate proximity of proposed new roads in 150 counties under his direction.

The first prospecting was done by Prof. Bean last year. His findings were so satisfactory that the highway commission sent out four parties this season, each under a trained geologist with a civil engineer assistant. Next year eight parties are planned.

Wisconsin, it has been found, is fortunate in the amount of gravel suitable for construction. Large beds were located in parts of the state, where previously it was thought that all material would have to be shipped by rail.

Gravel Location Important.

The location of gravel and its quality has an important bearing on the success of road construction in Wisconsin, Prof. Bean explained. Unless gravel pits are within hauling distances of the project under construction, it is necessary to depend upon transportation by rail which has proved unsatisfactory.

It is the duty of these prospecting parties to locate gravel along the proposed highways, classify it, and definitely locate the bed so that the highway commission may come in and have its supply on hand. In eight cases out of ten, it has been found, the findings of the prospectors were satisfactory, and in one case fairly so, and in the remanining case the gravel could not be used.

Much depends upon the nature of the road to be constructed, whether it is to be concrete, gravel, or macadam, in determining upon pits. Gravel to be used in concrete must be free from clay, while that to be used in the plain gravel road requires clay as a "binder."

Prof. Bean said that university men with a "nose" for gravel are being developed as gravel engineers, and will be definitely placed. Railroads have been left out of consideration by the commission, it was stated, while short hauls over good roads are desired.

ALL CONSCIENTIOUS OBJECTORS RELEASED

Washington, Nov. 25.—All army conscientious objectors imprisoned during the war have now been released from custody, Secretary of War Baker announced last night. Thirty-three, the statement said, have been discharged by recent orders, including Benjamin J. Salmons, who started a "hunger strike" while confined in a government hospital here a month ago.

"Each case has been considered on its merits and the principle on which they have been considered is to remit so much of the sentence as exceeds the normal peace-time penalty for the offenses charged," said Mr. Baker's statement.

"The major part of these men have been in confinement for more than two years. Those last discharged were men who had refused to do any sort of work while in confinement.

"Benjamin J. Salmons, whose case attracted some attention, was the last case disposed of by reason of the fact that legal proceedings instituted in the civil courts have delayed consideration of his case."

UNFINISHED BUSINESS.

The resolution by Commissioner Murnian, awarding contract for furnishing the fire department with 225 yards of mackinaw cloth to Christenson, Mendenhall & Graham, was laid over for one week under the provisions of the city charter.

INTRODUCTION AND CONSIDERATION OF ORDINANCES.

The following entitled ordinances were read for the first time:

By Commissioner Murnian:

An ordinance to amend an ordinance entitled "An ordinance to license and regulate all keepers of intelligence offices and employment offices, as well as persons doing the business of furnishing employment for others, or procuring or furnishing others employes, within the city of Duluth."

By Commissioner Farrell:

An ordinance to appropriate from the permanent improvement fund the sum of $8,437.00, to cover the cost of wrecking a wooden bridge and constructing a fill on Fifty-ninth avenue west from Polk street to Main street.

By Commissioner Farrell:

An ordinance to appropriate from the public works fund the sum of $360.00, to cover the cost of purchasing a snow plow for the division of public works.

By Mayor Hugo:

An ordinance to amend an ordinance entitled "An ordinance providing for all matters concerning, relating to, or affecting the construction, alteration, regulation, repair, removal, maintenance, use and inspection of all buildings, walls, or structures, erected, or to be erected, within the limits of the city of Duluth, for the protection of property against fire, and for the purpose of securing healthful, safe and sanitary environments, for the occupants of buildings used for human habitation or otherwise, and to compel the owners of such buildings, walls or structures, to alter, reconstruct or modify the same, or any part thereof, for the purpose aforesaid, and to prohibit the unlawful use or occupancy of all buildings, walls, or structures, establishing fire limits and prescribing the powers and duties of the building inspector," passed Sept. 30, 1918, and approved Nov. 2, 1918.

The following entitled ordinances were read for the second time:

By Commissioner Phillips:

An ordinance to appropriate from the general fund the sum of $500.00 for the repair of the aerial bridge in addition to the sum already appropriated therefor to defray the cost of repairing the aerial bridge.

By Commissioner Murnian:

An ordinance to appropriate from the general fund the sum of $275.00 to cover the expenses of the director of public health in attending the institute on venereal disease control at Washington, D. C.

By Commissioner Phillips:

An ordinance to appropriate from the public utility fund the sum of $12,000.00 for the purchase of cast iron pipe.

By Commissioner Farrell:

An ordinance to appropriate from the permanent improvement fund the sum of $241.43 for the construction of a crossing at Washington avenue and Superior street.

By Commissioner Farrell:

An ordinance to regulate and license persons engaged in the business of plumbing or working as plumbers in the city of Duluth.

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS.

By Mayor Hugo:

Resolved, That in the condemnation proceedings entitled, "In the matter of the condemnation by the city of Duluth of certain property in Duluth Heights, Third division; Grand View addition to Duluth, Willard & Piper's division of Duluth and sections 28 and 33, township 50, range 14 west, for park purposes," ordered by resolution passed June 28, 1920, as amended by resolutions of July 26, 1920, and Aug. 18, 1920, there be omitted the following described property, namely:

All of the lots and blocks in Grand View addition to Duluth and the southeast quarter of the northeast quarter of the southwest quarter and the northwest quarter of the northwest quarter of the southwest quarter, in section 28, township 50, range 14 west, and the city attorney is hereby authorized and directed to take the necessary steps to have said condemnation proceedings dismissed as to said lands.

Mayor Hugo moved the adoption of the resolution, and it was declared adopted upon the following vote:

SALE OF SCHOOL AND OTHER STATE LANDS

State of Minnesota, State Auditor's Office.
St. Paul, Minn., October 27, 1920.

Notice is hereby given that on December 10, 1920, at 10 o'clock a. m., in the office of the county auditor, at Duluth, St. Louis county, in the State of Minnesota, I will offer for sale certain unsold state lands and also those state lands which have reverted to the state by reason of the non-payment of interest.

Terms of Sale:

Fifteen per cent of the purchase price is payable to the County Treasurer at the time of sale. The unpaid balance is payable at any time in whole or in part within forty years from the date of sale, interest rate of 4 per cent per annum, due on June 1, of each year; provided, that the interest can be paid at any time within the interest year without penalty. In effect, this means that the interest money may be paid any time between June 1 and May 31 without penalty.

The appraised value of timber, when so stated, must be paid in full at the time of sale.

All mineral rights are reserved to the State by the laws of the State.

All lands are sold subject to any and all ditch taxes thereon.

Lands on which the interest has become delinquent may be redeemed at any time up to the hour of sale, or before resale, to the actual purchaser. Such lands are listed under the caption: "Delinquent Lands."

No person can purchase more than 320 acres of land, provided, however, that State lands purchased previous to 1905 are not charged against such purchase.

Agents acting for purchasers must furnish evidence of authority.

Appraisers' reports showing quality and kind of soil are on file in this office.

Lists giving legal descriptions of lands to be offered may be obtained of the State Auditor or the Immigration Commissioner at St. Paul, and of the County Auditor at the county seat.

J. A. O. PREUS, State Auditor.

ORDER FOR HEARING ON DISSOLUTION—

State of Minnesota, County of St. Louis—ss.

District Court, Eleventh Judicial District.

In the Matter of the Dissolution of the Standish Iron Company.

There having been duly presented and filed in this Court in the above entitled proceeding, a duly verified Petition of the Standish Iron Company, a corporation organized under the laws of the State of Minnesota, praying for a judgment and decree of this Court dissolving the said corporation as by statute in such cases made and provided, and it further appearing by the said Petition that said Standish Iron Company has determined, upon the affirmative vote of [illegible] outstanding stock, that it be dissolved, and that said Petition for Dissolution having been filed pursuant to the authorization of its stockholders:

Now therefore, it is ordered that said Petition for Dissolution be heard before this Court at the Court House, in the City of Duluth, in said County and State, at a special term of said Court to be held on Saturday, the 11th day of December, A. D. 1920, at 9:30 o'clock A. M., or as soon thereafter as counsel can be heard, and all persons interested in said hearing and in said matter of dissolution are hereby cited and required at said time and place to show cause, if any there be, why the said Petition should not be granted and to file written objections, if any there be, to the granting of said Petition.

Ordered further, That notice of hearing of said Petition be served by publication of this Order in The Duluth Herald for three (3) successive weeks, once in each week prior to said day of hearing, and that a copy of this Order be served upon all the persons who were named in said Petition for Dissolution as the stockholders of said Standish Iron Company, by mailing a copy thereof to each of said persons at their respective places of address as in said Petition stated, at least twenty (20) days before the date set for hearing.

Dated Duluth, Minnesota, Nov. 10, 1920.

By the Court,

H. A. DANCER,
Judge of said Court.

WHITE PINE BLISTER IN ST. LOUIS COUNTY

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 25.—(Special to The Herald.)—White pine blister rust disease has been found within thirty-five miles of the Minnesota-Canadian border, according to A. G. Ruggles, state entomologist, who is co-operating with the Minnesota forester and the bureau of plant industry, Washington, D. C., in fighting the disease. Two new infections recently discovered—at Tower in St. Louis county and at Knife River, near Two Harbors—show that the disorder has spread far into the native pine area of the state.

The only way to protect white pines from this dangerous disease, Mr. Ruggles says, is to remove all currant and gooseberry bushes within 200 to 300 yards. White pine blister rust lives on the inner bark of white pine trees and in the leaves of all known kinds of currant and gooseberry bushes. The state forester has charge of all eradication work and will assist owners who wish to protect their trees. White pine blister rust does not attack Norway pine.

The new infections found this year in Cass, Crow Wing, Itasca, Lake and St. Louis counties show that the Federal quarantine against the shipment of currant and gooseberry bushes west of Minnesota must be strictly enforced to prevent blister rust disease spreading into the big pine areas of the Far West.

WOULD ELIMINATE ALL SPORTS SUNDAY

New York, Nov. 25.—Enactment of laws calling for strict enforcement of the Christian Sabbath will be urged in the legislature of at least thirty-five states during 1921, the Lord's Day alliance announced here today.

An effort will be made to stop "commercialization" of the Sabbath, according to Dr. Harry L. Bowlby, secretary of the alliance, with elimination of Sunday professional baseball, motion pictures and automobiling. All stores would be closed.

"We would not impose a 'Puritan Sabbath,'" Dr. Bowlby said, "but we would have more of the spirit of the Puritans in the observance of the Lord's day. The moral tone of the nation is slipping backward steadily and the people must return to spiritual things."

The alliance, during its campaign, Dr Bowlby said, will seek the support of organized labor and business interests which now close their doors on Sunday. The co-operation of some Jewish leaders is also expected, he said.

The Herald prints today's news today.

INDIAN KILLS HIMSELF.

Father of Chippewa Victim of World War Takes Life.

Couderay, Wis., Nov. 25.—(Special to The Herald.)—Charles Diamond, a Chippewa Indian residing on the Couderay Indian reservation, near here, committed suicide by shooting himself through the heart with an old-fashioned army revolver. He left a note to his wife stating that he was not going to live to let people learn of his trouble and for her to do the best she could with herself and the children. He leaves a wife and several children.

He had a son, Francis, in the late war who was gassed, then went back to the front and had his arm shot and broken in three places. After recovering he went back to the front for the third time and was killed by a shell.

PLAN UNIVERSITY DORMITORY SYSTEM

Minneapolis, Minn., Nov. 25.—Construction of a system of dormitories at the University of Minnesota costing $15,000,000 was suggested by Governor Burnquist at a meeting of the university board of regents here yesterday.

The dormitories, if built, would be used to house approximately 3,500 out-of-town students attending the university. It was suggested that funds be obtained through a loan from the permanent state school fund. The board appointed a committee to investigate the feasibility of the plan.

A new salary list for members of the faculty was approved by the board.

Read Them Daily

It makes no difference in what particular direction your interest lies, you will find among the want ads in today's Herald something that will probably interest you.

As new advertisements are being added daily, the best way to keep thoroughly posted is to read the want ad columns every day, for unless you make it a regular practice, the advertisement that might interest you most may appear on the very day you neglect to read the want ads.

If you have a proposition in mind, why not advertise the fact instead of waiting for someone else to let you know that they can be interested in a similar one? There is nothing to be gained by the delay. Those who are in the market for anything read the want columns as well as those who have something they wish to dispose of.

CANAL VISIT OF HARDING NEARS END

President-Elect Devotes Last Day of Stay at Ancon to Golf.

Makes Address at Banquet With Panama's President Present.

Ancon, C. Z., Nov. 26.—(By the Associated Press.)—Senator Harding devoted today, the last day of his short visit at the Pacific terminus of the Panama canal to recreation, for the most part, although he had several more talks with canal zone officials.

The president-elect rose early for a game of golf and later took a motorboat ride. Late this afternoon he will leave for Cristobal, where on Sunday he will go on board his ship to return to the United States, sailing for Norfolk. His return to Cristobal will complete a three-day visit here, in which sightseeing was combined with a practical study of problems which will confront him after he becomes chief executive of the United States.

Not the least of these problems are the relations of the new administration with the republic of Panama, with the president of which he exchanged assurances of good will at the banquet given in his honor by President Porras last night.

The question of a proper military force for the canal zone also has engaged his attention and he will be particularly interested in plans of the war department to increase that force to a full division. Senator Harding today had luncheon with Brig. Gen. Kennedy, commander of troops in the canal zone, and had a long talk with that officer. During his motor ride he inspected the forts off the Pacific end of the great waterway.

Creates Favorable Impression.

Senator Harding's address at last night's banquet created a most favorable impression, judging from comments after it was completed.

"The cordiality of your greetings and the fine spirit of your good wishes stir me deeply," he said facing President Porras. "It is a fine thing for one republic to be so reassured of the abiding confidence and friendship of a sister republic. I am wholly conscious I am here as a private citizen, though I am not permitted to forget, however much I may wish it, that I am to come to a great responsibility at a no very distant day. Is it for that you honor me as you do? Believing that is the reason, I cannot believe it unbecoming to accept, because more cordial relations between peoples, and riveted ties of friendship among nations is the call of the great heart of the human mind.

Most Attractive Land.

"Moreover, though being on this hurried trip mainly for recreation, I would be insensible to the obligations of citizenship if I were indifferent to the great sponsorship of my country. This is a most attractive land, and I would be deaf to the call of duty as a public servant in the senate if I did not seek a fuller understanding of the developing obligations of our civilization as

NEW PROCESS FOR PHOSPHORIC ACID

Washington, Nov. 26.—Discovery of a process for extracting phosphoric acid from rock by the heat method, which experts predicted would mean revolutionary changes in the fertilizer industry, was announced by the department of agriculture. The process has been worked out on approximately a commercial basis at the government experiment plant at Arlington, Va.

Experiments have shown that phosphoric acid can be freed from rock by the use of fuel oil much more cheaply than by older methods, the announcement said. The experiments tend to show that acid can be produced at about 15 per cent of the actual value of the product while the cheapest previous production cost was placed at about 22 per cent.

BIG CALIBER GUNS NEEDED

Nothing Less Than Sixteen-Inch for Coast Defense, Says Report.

Washington, Nov. 26.—Adequate defense of naval bases calls for the installation of no major caliber armament of less than sixteen-inch guns, Maj. Gen. Lansing H. Beach, chief of engineers, declares in his annual report, made public today. The armament must possess power and range sufficient to oppose successfully any which can be brought against it by a hostile navy, the report asserts, and should be placed on fixed mounts.

Existing armaments should not be removed Gen. Beach says, as it has an important function in constituting interior and secondary lines of defense, especially against armored raiding vessels or first line ships able to pass the outer main line of fortification.

Construction of a comprehensive system of interior roads and waterways, especially along the frontiers, is of great necessity as a measure of defense, the report said. A deep waterway between Chesapeake bay and Delaware bay, thence to New York harbor and Long Island sound, the report declared, would "provide a means of defense of immense value."

The report contains recommendations for a ten-year program of road construction in Alaska as outlined by the board of road commissioners for Alaska. Building of an additional 700 miles of new road at a cost of $10,000 a mile is proposed.

Three classes of roads are contemplated: arterial or feeder highways; development roads, the location of which has not been determined and the present road and trail system which would be continued.

IDENTIFIED AS THE BANDITS WHO ROBBED SUPERIOR BANK

CHARLES STEWART.

JAMES McCORMICK, alias J. J. Bohmer.

HERBERT RYAN, alias James Daley.

Superior police hope to have three of the men who took part in the Superior State bank robbery on Nov. 16 behind the bars of the Douglas county jail by Monday next week. The sheriff, accompanied by two undersheriffs, is now on his way to Nebraska to get the signature of the governor of that state to extradition papers.

The three men who have been identified by the employes of the Superior bank as the robbers are Charles Stewart, J. J. Bohmer, whose right name is said to be James McCormick, alias James Irish, alias John Devitt; and Herbert Ryan, whose right name is James Daley, alias Joe Kinsella, alias Frank Swanson, alias Chi Tommie. The latter two have prison records, Daley having served time in Stillwater, Waupun, Wis., and Leavenworth, Kan., and McCormick having served time in the Oregon penitentiary and the Ramsey county workfarm, as well as at Red Wing, Minn., when a boy.

THREE KILLED NEAR RED LAKE FALLS

Red Lake Falls, Minn., Nov. 26.—(Special to The Herald.)—Peter Bolstad of Polk county and an unidentified companion were instantly killed by Great Northern passenger train No. 135 at Delmorem crossing, eight miles south of this city at 10 o'clock this morning. An unidentified companion died in the baggage car en route to this city, while a fourth, still living, was taken to the hospital at Thief River Falls.

The four men were riding in a Ford with the top up and curtains on and did not hear the whistle of the train. The dead men were badly mangled. The bodies were viewed by Dr. I. Leiux, deputy coroner, and taken to the city morgue.

Men Identified.

Crookston, Minn., Nov. 26.—Three men were killed and one seriously injured today when a Great Northern train struck the automobile in which they were riding eleven miles from Crookston. The dead: A. G. Gjesdahl, Crookston, 68; Peter Bolstad, Cooperstown, N. D., 45; and W. Riel, Oklee, Minn., 35. C. E. Gjesdahl, 22, is in a hospital at Thief River Falls, Minn.

The train which struck the men was bound from Crookston to Roseau, Minn.

$6,515,537.53 EXPENDED ON LOCAL HARBOR

Balance of $67,295.47 Available for Further Improvements.

Existing Project Authorized by Congress Is 95 Per Cent Completed.

(From The Herald Washington Bureau.)

Washington, Nov. 26.—Six and one-half million dollars have been spent by the United States government on the Duluth and Superior harbor, according to the army engineer's annual report, which was made public here today. This covers work in former years as well as the last.

During the fiscal year, which ended July 1 last, $272,057.44 was spent on new work and $31,561.25 on maintenance, a total during the twelve months of $303,618.69. The engineer's report that there is a balance still available for improvements of that harbor of $67,295.47, which it is proposed to spend as follows: New work, $21,808.61, and maintenance, $45,486.86.

Total Expenditures.

In discussing the total expenditures from the time congress voted to improve the harbor down to the present, the chief of engineers reports: "The expenditure under the existing project was $5,505,609.11 for new work and $1,009,928.42 for maintenance, a total of $6,515,537.53."

This report will be sent to congress on Dec. 6, when it reconvenes.

"The effect of the work done," says the report on the Duluth harbor, "has been to facilitate navigation by means of deeper and wider channels, with commodious anchorage and turning basins and safe entrances to the harbor, as well as to give refuge to vessels seeking shelter from storms. Through these improvements, which permit the use of larger vessels, water rates have been reduced and railroad rates have also been materially reduced.

Depth of Twenty Feet.

"The controlling depth in this harbor and up the St. Louis river to a point opposite the southerly end of Big island is twenty feet at low water, as shown by surveys completed in February, 1920. There is some shoaling along the side of channels and basins. The head of navigation for small craft, rafts and logging is at Fond du Lac, on the St. Louis river.

"The Duluth canal piers, the warehouse and buildings at the United States vessel yard and the engineers' office building in Duluth Canal park are all in good condition.

"The landing pier at the United States vessel yard, which was decayed, was repaired during the fiscal year. The movement of the piers at Superior entry has been materially reduced by removing some of the sand back filling. These piers need riprap in places where riprap has settled or sand scoured away. Otherwise the piers are in good condition.

"Slight damage was done to the south rubble mound during the spring of 1919. This damage has been repaired.

"The shore line at the inner end of the north breakwater, which was

CHICAGO SALOON MEN RESTRAINED

Chicago, Nov. 26.—Federal Judge Kenesaw M. Landis issued restraining orders against seventy-two saloon keepers today to prevent their violating the prohibition law.

Attorney General Edward J. Brundage of Illinois, who filed suit against the saloon men Wednesday, had asked that their places be closed.

BIG HAY AND GRAIN SHOW

Hundreds of Farmers Are Measuring Skill for the Premier Honors.

Chicago, Nov. 26.—The International hay and grain show will open here tomorrow with hundreds of farmers in the United States and Canada measuring skill for premier honors.

The United States department of agriculture, state agricultural colleges, state farm bureaus, corn and seed growers associations and Canadian dominion and provincial organizations have sent big exhibits. As a further incentive to crop improvement, which is the object of the show, the Chicago board of trade will give $10,000 in cash prizes for best samples of hay and grain.

"The show will go far toward encouraging better agricultural and better country life," said Prof. G. I. Christie of Purdue university, who for several months has been directing the preliminary work. "For many years growers have felt the need of an international show where best grains and forage crops might be compared.

Many Premiums Offered.

"A thousand ten-ear samples of corn will form a part of the exhibit. Premiums will be offered for single and ten-ear samples each of white and yellow corn; for exhibits of wheat, oats, barley, rye, soybeans, cowpeas and field peas and for samples of seed and hay, including red alsike and sweet clover, alfalfa and timothy."

The number of exhibits is expected to exceed 3,000. The exhibit of the United States department of agriculture occupies 3,000 square feet of floor space. The show, which is in conjunction with the International livestock exposition will continue a week.

States, sending especially large exhibits, include Michigan, Missouri, Kentucky, Wisconsin, Iowa, the Dakotas, Nebraska, Kansas, Minnesota, Montana and Ohio. Louisiana is sending the chief exhibits of her state fair for the purpose of showing progress being made in the growing of rice, sugar cane and cotton.

SWEDISH MINISTER TO UNITED STATES IS DEAD

W. A. F. EKENGREN.

Washington, Nov. 26.—W. A. F. Ekengren, Swedish minister to the United States, died at the legation here today after a brief illness.

ARREST HEAD OF SINN FEIN

Arthur Griffith and Others Taken in Charge by Dublin Police.

Dublin, Nov. 26.—(By the Associated Press.)—Arthur Griffith, founder of the Sinn Fein organization, Prof. John MacNeill, Sinn Fein member of parliament for Londonderry city, and the National University of Ireland, together with a number of others, including Prof. MacNeill's son, were arrested today by the auxiliary police.

The Irish office, in stating this noon that Arthur Griffith has been arrested in Dublin at 2 o'clock this morning, said no formal charge had yet been preferred against him. He was taken away in a lorry to a destination not made public.

Mr. Griffith was to have addressed a meeting of the Irish Self-Determination league at Manchester next Sunday.

In the absence in America of Eamonn De Valera, president of the Irish republic, Arthur Griffith has been probably the most active spokesman in Ireland for the cause of Irish freedom. Last night in an interview he charged the policy of reprisals in Ireland was determined upon by England more than a year ago and inaugurated last March with the assassination of Lord Mayor MacCurtain of Cork.

Everybody in Ireland deplored the bloodshed, Mr. Griffith said, "but England started it, and she could get it stopped in twenty-four hours is she so wished." He disclaimed any responsibility for the operations of the "murder gang," the existence of which was charged by Sir Hamar Greenwood, chief secretary for Ireland, in a recent speech.

CO-OPERATION BY FARMERS

Business of $600,000,000 Transacted by National Farmers' Union.

Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 26.—Co-operative agencies, selling and purchasing, together with commercial enterprises conducted by the National Farmers' union, an organization of 900,000 members, did an aggregate business of more than $600,000,000 in the last twelve months according to reports submitted at the annual union convention here several days ago.

Strung across more than twenty states, the business activities of the union have become most important factors in the farming industry and the agency feature presents the only working co-operative marketing plan today, according to officials.

The agencies are maintained primarily to bring to the members the highest market prices for what they produce and to offer them commodities at the lowest prices.

Selling and Buying Agencies.

Under the plan the farmer-member ships his produce or livestock to the nearest selling agency. There it is taken in charge by men who have his interests at heart and not sold until the highest price has been commanded. For the purchase of commodities he needs, the member turns to the purchasing agency, whether he wants calico, two by fours or a steam tractor. He finds them offered, officials say, at prices considerably below those he would have to pay ordinarily. This is possible, they explain, from the fact that the agency is able to get better prices because it purchases in carload lots and the profit of the middle man is eliminated.

As in the case of the agencies, the business enterprises of the union are conducted by men drawn from the organization's membership. In Kansas where that feature has been given special attention more than 700 elevators, stores, mills, lumber yards, etc., are in operation.

The operating expenses of the selling and purchasing agencies, officials say, come from money deducted when sales are made for members and from margins realized from sales of commodities to the members. In both cases, they say, the sum realized from the individual is normal. If there is a surplus at the end of the year the money is prorated back among the members.

MASON IS ON STAND IN HIS OWN BEHALF

Claims Alibi; That He Was Working When Alleged Rape Occurred.

Denies Infectious Disease Testimony; Case to Jury Soon.

Max Mason, negro on trial in district court for the alleged rape of an 18-year-old white girl on the West end circus grounds June 14 last, claimed an alibi when he took the stand as a witness in his own defense today.

Mason testified that he did not see the girl that night and was hard at work packing up the empty seats at the show between 9 and 10 o'clock when the assault is alleged to have been made.

The defendant asserted that he was employed by the circus in a number of different capacities that evening. He said that he waited table for the Nelson family, gymnasts, and the bareback riders, until it was time for them to appear in the "big top" and that when he was released from that job the next duty he performed was that of "spotting the wagons" which were brought up to take the empty seats away. He had finished "spotting" the wagons, he said, about 8:30 o'clock and from then on until 10 o'clock he was busy carrying board seats to the wagons.

Had No Disease.

Mason testified also concerning his arrest at Virginia, interviews which he had with the county attorney after his arrest, and about the testimony which he gave before the grand jury which indicted him. He denied that he was afflicted with any infectious disease and disputed the testimony of Dr. M. A. Nickelson, the physician who examined at the jail, on this point. He testified that he had at first refused to be examined, but that a trusty had suggested that if he did not submit to the examination, the jailer would put

VIRGINIA CHILD CRUSHED BY AUTO

Virginia, Minn., Nov. 26.—(Special to The Herald.)—Lavina, 8-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Duncan McKenzie, died last night as the result of injuries received when hit by an automobile. The driver continued on his way without stopping and the police are still unable to identify the man. The child's skull was badly fractured and her body crushed.

The only witnesses were children playing with the victim.

AGED JUDGE KILLED BY TROLLEY CAR

Chambersburg, Pa., Nov. 26.—Justice John Stewart, 81, of the supreme court of Pennsylvania was struck by a trolley car here last night and instantly killed.

Justice Stewart was a delegate to four Republican national conventions, the first at Baltimore in 1863, when Abraham Lincoln was nominated.

HAMON DIES FROM WOUNDS

Woman Sought in Death of Oklahoma G. O. P. Committeeman.

Ardmore, Okla., Nov. 26.—With the death early today of Jake L. Hamon, Republican national committeeman from Oklahoma, Carter county authorities redoubled their efforts to locate Clara Smith of Ringling, Okla, charged with shooting Mr. Hamon in a local hotel last Sunday night.

County Attorney Brown charged in an information that Clara Smith, said to have been Mr. Hamon's secretary, fired the shot which resulted in his death. This version, however, was denied by Frank L. Ketch, Hamon's business manager, who issued a statement asserting the national committeeman wounded himself "accidentally" while cleaning a revolver in preparation for a hunting trip.

Russell R. Brown, county attorney, today reiterated his belief that the Smith woman had not left the country, but was in a nearby town. A warrant for her arrest charging assault with intent to kill was placed in the hands of the sheriff of Carter county last Tuesday.

Oil and Railroads.

The career of Hamon is a story of oil and railroads, for one of his hobbies was building railroads.

In 1898 he was graduated from the law department of the University of Kansas at Lawrence and at once came into the Indian territory to seek his fortune. His first job was as a clerk in a store at Newkirk.

When the Kiowa-Comanche country was opened to settlement, Mr. Hamon went with the first rush of newsettlers to Lawton, becoming the city's first city attorney. He was later chairman of the Republican territorial committee and for many years remained active in the leadership of the party in Oklahoma.

One of the first big ventures of Mr. Hamon was the building of two railroads, one from Lawton to Ardmore, the other from Wichita Falls, Tex., to Oklahoma City.

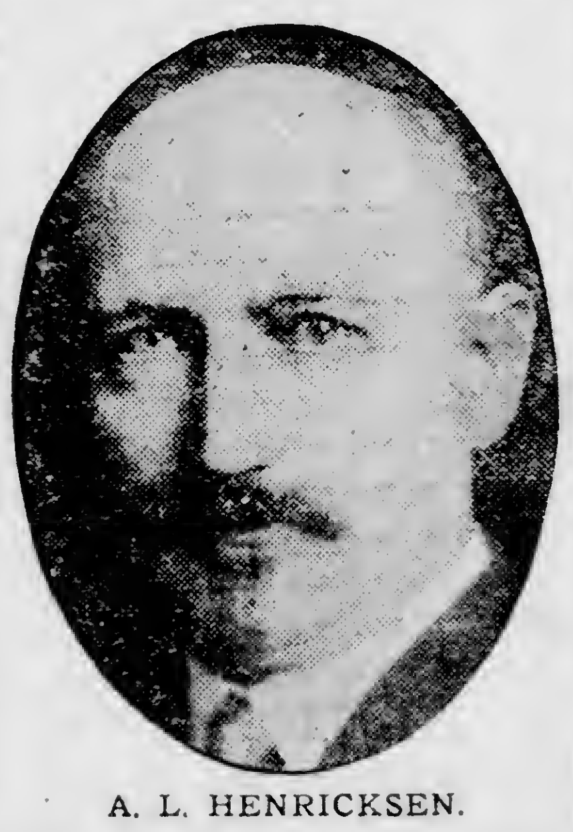
Backed by John Ringling of New York, circus man, he built thirty-one miles of railroad from Ardmore to Ringling, Okla. Later he became owner of the Hamon-Kell railroad in Texas.

Mr Hamon made his first venture in the oil game when the Healdton field came into prominence as a prospective producer, and is said to have amassed a fortune of $5,000,000 within three years from his oil operations.

Funeral service will be held in Ardmore Monday.

BANDITS GET $10,000 WORTH OF JEWELS AT HENRICKSEN STORE

DULUTH JEWELER BADLY BEATEN BY ROBBERS



A. L. HENRICKSEN.

ONE PARTNER BADLY HURT

Ammonia Thrown in Eyes of A. L. Henricksen; Hit With Gun.

Two Men Grab Sack of Unset Gems and Make Escape.

Walk to Fourth Avenue and Disappear Up the Hill.

Emulating Superior and even surpassing it in boldness, Duluth today scored a daylight robbery which netted the thieves in the neighborhood of $10,000 and created a sensation on West First street which has perhaps never been equaled in crime annals of the city. Two men, apparently unaided in escape by a vehicle of any kind, robbed the jewelry store of A. L. and N. J. Henricksen at 321 West First street at 10 o'clock this morning, getting away with about $10,000 worth of unset diamonds, and up to noon not being caught although they left the store on foot and dashed up Fourth avenue west to Second street, where all trace of them was lost. The police are after them, believing that they are hiding in some of the alleys or outlying buildings not far from the scene of robbery.

A. L. Henricksen, who was showing one of the men the diamonds, is in a hospital, suffering from a bad cut on his head, caused by one of the robbers hitting him with the butt of a revolver after throwing ammonia in his face.

Long Inspection of Jewelry.

One of the men came into the store shortly before 10 o'clock and asked to see unset diamonds. Mr. Henricksen waited on the man and brought out a bag of diamonds, which were displayed to the robber at a table near the front window. It was a few minutes later when the second man entered and engaged E. J. Bloomstrom, watchmaker, in showing him a line of fine watches. This man stood at the counter fully fifteen minutes before the robbery. The men were waiting for John D. Stensholt and Bert Skogen, two other clerks, to get out of the way. The former went to the rear while Skogen

HUNTER'S PARK STORE ROBBED

Safe Opened Expertly and $110 Cash Taken; No Clew.

The Hunter's Park Mercantile company was burglarized at an early hour this morning, the safe being robbed of $100 in cash and checks of a face value of several hundred more, and the cash register tapped for $10 additional. The police have no trace of the robbers.

The police are of the opinion that the work was that of professionals. The knob of the safe had been knocked off and a wire used to drop the tumblers. It was then easy to get to the cash drawer. In rifling the cash register the top had been lifted up and evidence found showed that one of the robbers had placed his finger on the register bell when the drawer was opened in order that the tingle of the bell would not be heard.

The burglary was discovered this morning when one of the clerks opened the place up for the day. It was then found where entry had been made through the rear entrance. The police were at once notified and detectives sent out to investigate. So far no clews have been found that would lead to the arrest of the men who did the job.

WHEAT DROPS BELOW $1.50 PER BUSHEL

Chicago, Nov. 26.—Values in the wheat market shrank today below $1.50 a bushel. It was the first time since peace conditions had been restored that the $1.50 level was passed on the big downward slide of prices which has been in progress of late.

Before the momentum of rushes to sell wheat today met with any decided check the market collapsed to $1.47 for March delivery, a fall of 8 cents a bushel as compared with Wednesday's finish. An unusual absence of buying power was apparent, but finally European interests were reported as making purchases of cash wheat for trans-Atlantic shipment.

New reasons given for downturns in the wheat market aside from world economic causes were the numerous agricultural bank failures in North Dakota and weakness in foreign exchange, together with a fresh break in the prices of cotton. A house that generally represents a leading New York trader in cotton was on the selling side today in the wheat market.

O'DONNELL DIES FOLLOWING CRASH

Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 26.—Eddie O'Donnell, racing driver injured yesterday at Beverly Hills speedway, died this morning without regaining consciousness.

The body of Gaston Chevrolet, who died in the crash in which O'Donnell was injured, will be taken to Indianapolis for burial. Mrs. Chevrolet will leave Sunday with her husband's body, according to present arrangements.

No funeral arrangements for Lyall Jolls, the mechanician who was riding with O'Donnell, have been made today. Jolls was engaged to marry Mrs. May A. Esch of St. Paul, who witnessed the accident. His home was in St. Paul, where he left relatives. Speedway officials said today it was probable his body would be sent there after Mrs. Esch had recovered sufficiently from the shock to be consulted. She was prostrated last night.

LONDON TIMES PAYS TRIBUTE TO SIMS

London, Nov. 26.—The Times in an editorial today pays high tribute to the co-operation of the United States navy with the British navy in the World war, and especially to Rear Admiral William S. Sims, commander of the American naval forces in the war zone, which the newspaper says it would have been indiscreet to pay "during the controversies" of the election period.

"The American sailor who is the symbol to us all of that wonderful time of common effort and of common victory, is Admiral Sims," says the Times.

CHANGES IN DEPARTMENTS

Proposed in Bill to Be Introduced by Senator McCormick.

Washington, Nov. 26.—Abolition of the department of interior, creation of two new departments—one to be known as the department of public works and the other as the department of public welfare—and general reorganization of other governmental departments is proposed in a bill prepared by Senator McCormick, Republican, Illinois, for introduction at the coming session of congress.

Senator McCormick is now en route to Europe and the principal provisions of his bill were outlined in a statement issued today from his office. The statement said that while the bill would be introduced on the opening day of the next session, action on it probably would be deferred until after the inauguration of President-elect Harding. The statement added that the Illinois senator, after completing the measure, discussed the proposed changes with Mr. Harding, "who expressed great interest in the bill."

Department of Public Works.

The proposed department of public works under the bill would include all important engineering and building services of the government. The department of public welfare as outlined in the bill would include various welfare agencies of the government, such as the woman's bureau now in the department of labor, the pension bureau now in the department of the interior, the public health service, the bureau of war risk insurance and the vocational training board.

The department of commerce would be enlarged so as to increase its usefulness to business.

Creation of an office in the state department to have jurisdiction over insular affairs and territories such as Alaska would be provided for.

Would Abolish Comptroller.

The alien property custodian's office and the division of the secret service would be placed under the department of justice. The office of the comptroller of currency would be abolished and its function transferred to the Federal reserve board.

The McCormick measure also would abolish the board of mediation and conciliation and transfer its functions to the department of labor and abolishes the council of national defense and discontinue its functions.

The measure further transfers to the department of commerce the weather bureau, patent office, coast guard, lake survey office, hydrographic office, naval observatory and inland and coastwise waterways service.

CANAL VISIT OF HARDING NEARS END

President-Elect Devotes Last Day of Stay at Ancon to Golf.

Makes Address at Banquet With Panama's President Present.

Ancon, C. Z., Nov. 26.—(By the Associated Press.)—Senator Harding devoted today, the last day of his short visit at the Pacific terminus of the Panama canal to recreation, for the most part, although he had several more talks with canal zone officials.

The president-elect rose early for a game of golf and later took a motorboat ride. Late this afternoon he will leave for Cristobal, where on Sunday he will go on board his ship to return to the United States, sailing for Norfolk. His return to Cristobal will complete a three-day visit here, in which sight-seeing was combined with a practical study of problems which will confront him after he becomes chief executive of the United States.

Not the least of these problems are the relations of the new administration with the republic of Panama, with the president of which he exchanged assurances of good will at the banquet given in his honor by President Porras last night.

The question of a proper military force for the canal zone also has engaged his attention and he will be particularly interested in plans of the war department to increase that force to a full division. Senator Harding today had luncheon with Brig. Gen. Kennedy, commander of troops in the canal zone, and had a long talk with that officer during his motor ride he inspected the forts off the Pacific end of the great waterway.

Creates Favorable Impression.

Senator Harding's address at last night's banquet created a most favorable impression, judging from comments after it was completed.

"The cordiality of your greetings and the fine spirit of your good wishes stir me deeply," he said facing President Porras. "It is a fine thing for one republic to be so reassured of the abiding confidence and friendship of a sister republic. I am wholly conscious I am here as a private citizen, though I am not permitted to forget, however much I may wish it, that I am to come to a great responsibility at a no very distant day. Is it for that you honor me as you do? Believing that is the reason I cannot believe it unbecoming to accept, because more cordial relations between peoples, and riveted ties of friendship among nations is the call of the great heart of the human mind.

Most Attractive Land.

"Moreover, though being on this hurried trip mainly for recreation, I would be insensible to the obligations of citizenship if I were indifferent to the great sponsorship of my country. This is a most attractive land, and I would be deaf to the call of duty as a public servant in the senate if I did not seek a fuller understanding of the developing obligations of our civilization as

NEW PROCESS FOR PHOSPHORIC ACID

Washington, Nov. 26.—Discovery of a process for extracting phosphoric acid from rock by the heat method, which experts predicted would mean revolutionary changes in the fertilizer industry, was announced by the department of agriculture. The process has been worked out on approximately a commercial basis at the government experiment plant at Arlington, Va.

Experiments have shown that phosphoric acid can be freed from rock by the use of fuel oil much more cheaply than by older methods, the announcement said. The experiments tend to show that acid can be produced at about 15 per cent of the actual value of the product while the cheapest previous production cost was placed at about 22 per cent.

BIG CALIBER GUNS NEEDED

Nothing Less Than Sixteen-Inch for Coast Defense, Says Report.

Washington, Nov. 26.—Adequate defense of naval bases calls for the installation of no major caliber armament of less than sixteen-inch guns, Maj. Gen. Lansing H. Beach, chief of engineers, declares in his annual report, made public today. The armament must possess power and range sufficient to oppose successfully any which can be brought against it by a hostile navy, the report asserts, and should be placed on fixed mounts.

Existing armaments should not be removed Gen. Beach says, as it has an important function in constituting interior and secondary lines of defense, especially against armored raiding vessels or first line ships able to pass the outer main line of fortification.

Construction of a comprehensive system of interior roads and waterways, especially along the frontiers, is of great necessity as a measure of defense, the report said. A deep waterway between Chesapeake bay and Delaware bay, thence to New York harbor and Long Island sound, the report declared, would "provide a means of defense of immense value."

The report contains recommendations for a ten-year program of road construction in Alaska as outlined by the board of road commissioners for Alaska. Building of an additional 700 miles of new road at a cost of $10,000 a mile is proposed.

Three classes of roads are contemplated: arterial or feeder highways; development roads, the location of which has not been determined and the present road and trail system which would be continued.

IDENTIFIED AS THE BANDITS WHO ROBBED SUPERIOR BANK

CHARLES STEWART.

JAMES McCORMICK, alias J. J. Bohmer.

HERBERT RYAN, alias James Daley.

Superior police hope to have three of the men who took part in the Superior State bank robbery on Nov. 16 behind the bars of the Douglas county jail by Monday next week. The sheriff, accompanied by two undersheriffs, is now on his way to Nebraska to get the signature of the governor of that state to extradition papers.

The three men who have been identified by the employes of the Superior bank as the robbers are Charles Stewart, J. J. Bohmer, whose right name is said to be James McCormick, alias James Irish, alias John Devitt, and Herbert Ryan, whose right name is James Daley, alias Joe Kinsella, alias Frank Swanson, alias Chi Tommie. The latter two have prison records, Daley having served time in Stillwater, Waupun, Wis., and Leavenworth, Kan., and McCormick having served time in the Oregon penitentiary and the Ramsey county workfarm, as well as at Red Wing, Minn., when a boy.

THREE KILLED NEAR RED LAKE FALLS

Red Lake Falls, Minn., Nov. 26.—(Special to The Herald.)—Peter Bolstad of Polk county and an unidentified companion were instantly killed by Great Northern passenger train No. 135 at Delmorem crossing, eight miles south of this city at 10 o'clock this morning. An unidentified companion died in the baggage car en route to this city, while a fourth, still living, was taken to the hospital at Thief River Falls.

The four men were riding in a Ford with the top up and curtains on and did not hear the whistle of the train. The dead men were badly mangled. The bodies were viewed by Dr. I. Leinx, deputy coroner, and taken to the city morgue.

Men Identified.

Crookston, Minn., Nov. 26.—Three men were killed and one seriously injured today when a Great Northern train struck the automobile in which they were riding eleven miles from Crookston. The dead: A. G. Gjesdahl, Crookston, 68; Peter Bolstad, Cooperstown, N. D., 45; and W. Riel, Oklee, Minn., 35. C. E. Gjesdahl, 22, is in a hospital at Thief River Falls, Minn.

The train which struck the men was bound from Crookston to Roseau, Minn.

$6,515,537.53 EXPENDED ON LOCAL HARBOR

Balance of $67,295.47 Available for Further Improvements.

Existing Project Authorized by Congress Is 95 Per Cent Completed.

(From The Herald Washington Bereau.)

Washington, Nov. 26—Six and one-half million dollars have been spent by the United States government on the Duluth and Superior harbor, according to the army engineer's annual report, which was made public here today. This covers work in former years as well as the last.

During the fiscal year, which ended July 1 last, $272,057.44 was spent on new work and $31,561.25 on maintenance, a total during the twelve months of $303,618.69. The engineer's report that there is a balance still available for improvements of that harbor of $67,295.47, which it is proposed to spend as follows: New work, $21,808.61, and maintenance, $45,486.86.

Total Expenditures.

In discussing the total expenditures from the time congress voted to improve the harbor down to the present, the chief of engineers reports: "The expenditure under the existing project was $5,505,609.11 for new work and $1,009,928.42 for maintenance, a total of $6,515,537.53."

This report will be sent to congress on Dec. 6, when it reconvenes.

"The effect of the work done," says the report on the Duluth harbor, "has been to facilitate navigation by means of deeper and wider channels, with commodious anchorage and turning basins and safe entrances to the harbor, as well as to give refuge to vessels seeking shelter from storms. Through these improvements, which permit the use of larger vessels, water rates have been reduced and railroad rates have also been materially reduced.

Depth of Twenty Feet.

"The controlling depth in this harbor and up the St. Louis river to a point opposite the southerly end of Big island is twenty feet at low water, as shown by surveys completed in February, 1920. There is some shoaling along the side of channels and basins. The head of navigation for small craft, rafts and logging is at Fond du Lac, on the St. Louis river.

"The Duluth canal piers, the warehouse and buildings at the United States vessel yard and the engineers' office building in Duluth Canal park are all in good condition.

"The landing pier at the United States vessel yard, which was decayed, was repaired during the fiscal year. The movement of the piers at Superior entry has been materially reduced by removing some of the sand back filling. These piers need riprap in places where riprap has settled or sand scoured away. Otherwise the piers are in good condition.

"Slight damage was done to the south rubble mound during the spring of 1919. This damage has been repaired.

"The shore line at the inner end of the north breakwater, which was

CHICAGO SALOON MEN RESTRAINED

Chicago, Nov. 26.—Federal Judge Kenesaw M. Landis issued restraining orders against seventy-two saloon keepers today to prevent their violating the prohibition law.

Attorney General Edward J. Brundage of Illinois, who filed suit against the saloon men Wednesday, had asked that their places be closed.

BIG HAY AND GRAIN SHOW

Hundreds of Farmers Are Measuring Skill for the Premier Honors.

Chicago, Nov. 26.—The International hay and grain show will open here tomorrow with hundreds of farmers in the United States and Canada measuring skill for premier honors.

The United States department of agriculture, state agricultural colleges, state farm bureaus, corn and seed growers associations and Canadian dominion and provincial organizations have sent big exhibits. As a further incentive to crop improvement, which is the object of the show, the Chicago board of trade will give $10,000 in cash prizes for best samples of hay and grain.

"The show will go far toward encouraging better agricultural and better country life," said Prof. G. I. Christie of Purdue university, who for several months has been directing the preliminary work. "For many years growers have felt the need of an international show where best grains and forage crops might be compared.

Many Premiums Offered.

"A thousand ten-ear samples of corn will form a part of the exhibit. Premiums will be offered for single and ten-ear samples each of white and yellow corn; for exhibits of wheat, oats, barley, rye, soybeans, cowpeas and field peas and for samples of seed and hay, including red alsike and sweet clover, alfalfa and timothy."

The number of exhibits is expected to exceed 3,000. The exhibit of the United States department of agriculture occupies 3,000 square feet of floor space. The show, which is in conjunction with the International livestock exposition will continue a week.

States sending especially large exhibits, include Michigan, Missouri, Kentucky, Wisconsin, Iowa, the Dakotas, Nebraska, Kansas, Minnesota, Montana and Ohio. Louisiana is sending the chief exhibits of her state fair for the purpose of showing progress being made in the growing of rice, sugar cane and cotton.

ARREST HEAD OF SINN FEIN

Arthur Griffith and Others Taken in Charge by Dublin Police.

Dublin, Nov. 26.—(By the Associated Press.)—Arthur Griffith, founder of the Sinn Fein organization, Prof. John MacNeill, Sinn Fein member of parliament for Londonderry city, and the National University of Ireland, together with a number of others, including Prof. MacNeill's son, were arrested today by the auxiliary police.

The Irish office, in stating this noon that Arthur Griffith has been arrested in Dublin at 2 o'clock this morning, said no formal charge had yet been preferred against him. He was taken away in a lorry to a destination not made public.

Mr. Griffith was to have addressed a meeting of the Irish Self-Determination league at Manchester next Sunday.

In the absence in America of Eamonn De Valera, president of the Irish republic, Arthur Griffith has been probably the most active spokesman in Ireland for the cause of Irish freedom. Last night in an interview he charged the policy of reprisals in Ireland was determined upon by England more than a year ago and inaugurated last March with the assassination of Lord Mayor MacCurtain of Cork.

Everybody in Ireland deplored the bloodshed, Mr. Griffith said, "but England started it, and she could get it stopped in twenty-four hours is she so wished." He disclaimed any responsibility for the operations of the "murder gang," the existence of which was charged by Sir Hamar Greenwood, chief secretary for Ireland, in a recent speech.

CO-OPERATION BY FARMERS

Business of $600,000,000 Transacted by National Farmers' Union.

Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 26.—Co-operative agencies, selling and purchasing, together with commercial enterprises conducted by the National Farmers' union, an organization of 900,000 members, did an aggregate business of more than $600,000,000 in the last twelve months according to reports submitted at the annual union convention here several days ago.

Strung across more than twenty states, the business activities of the union have become most important factors in the farming industry and the agency feature presents the only working co-operative marketing plan today, according to officials.

The agencies are maintained primarily to bring to the members the highest market prices for what they produce and to offer them commodities at the lowest prices.

Selling and Buying Agencies.

Under the plan the farmer-member ships his produce or livestock to the nearest selling agency. There it is taken in charge by men who have his interests at heart and not sold until the highest price has been commanded. For the purchase of commodities he needs, the member turns to the purchasing agency, whether he wants calico, two by fours or a steam tractor. He finds them offered, officials say, at prices considerably below those he would have to pay ordinarily. This is possible, they explain, from the fact that the agency is able to get better prices because it purchases in carload lots and the profit of the middle man is eliminated.

As in the case of the agencies, the business enterprises of the union are conducted by men drawn from the organization's membership. In Kansas where that feature has been given special attention more than 700 elevators, stores, mills, lumber yards, etc., are in operation.

The operating expenses of the selling and purchasing agencies, officials say, come from money deducted when sales are made for members and from margins realized from sales of commodities to the members. In both cases, they say, the sum realized from the individual is normal. If there is a surplus at the end of the year the money is prorated back among the members.

MASON IS ON STAND IN HIS OWN BEHALF

Claims Alibi; That He Was Working When Alleged Rape Occurred.

Denies Infectious Disease Testimony; Case to Jury Soon.

Max Mason, negro on trial in district court for the alleged rape of an 18-year-old white girl on the West end circus grounds June 14 last, claimed an alibi when he took the stand as a witness in his own defense today.

Mason testified that he did not see the girl that night and was hard at work packing up the empty seats at the show between 9 and 10 o'clock when the assault is alleged to have been made.

The defendant asserted that he was employed by the circus in a number of different capacities that evening. He had finished "spotting" the wagons, he said, about 8:30 o'clock and from then on until 10 o'clock he was busy carrying board seats to the wagons.

Had No Disease.

Mason testified also concerning his arrest at Virginia, interviews which he had with the county attorney after his arrest, and about the testimony which he gave before the grand jury which indicted him. He denied that he was afflicted with any infectious disease and disputed the testimony of Dr. M. A. Nickelson, the physician who examined at the jail, on this point. He testified that he had at first refused to be examined, but that a trusty had suggested that if he did not submit to the examination, the jailer would put

Long Inspection of Jewelry.

One of the men came into the store shortly before 10 o'clock and asked to see unset diamonds. Mr. Henricksen waited on the man and brought out a bag of diamonds, which were displayed to the robber at a table near the front window. It was a few minutes later when the second man entered and engaged E. J. Bloomstrom, watchmaker, in showing him a line of fine watches. This man stood at the counter fully fifteen minutes before the robbery. The men were waiting for John D. Steusholt and Bert Skogen, two other clerks, to get out of the way. The former went to the rear while Skogen

HUNTER'S PARK STORE ROBBED

Safe Opened Expertly and $110 Cash Taken; No Clew.

The Hunter's Park Mercantile company was burglarized at an early hour this morning, the safe being robbed of $100 in cash and checks of a face value of several hundred more, and the cash register tapped for $10 additional. The police have no trace of the robbers.

The police are of the opinion that the work was that of professionals. The knob of the safe had been knocked off and a wire used to drop the tumblers. It was then easy to get to the cash drawer. In rifling the cash register the top had been lifted up and evidence found showed that one of the robbers had placed his finger on the register bell when the drawer was opened in order that the tingle of the bell would not be heard.

The burglary was discovered this morning when one of the clerks opened the place up for the day. It was then found where entry had been made through the rear entrance. The police were at once notified and detectives sent out to investigate. So far no clews have been found that would lead to the arrest of the men who did the job.

WHEAT DROPS BELOW $1.50 PER BUSHEL

Chicago, Nov. 26.—Values in the wheat market shrank today below $1.50 a bushel. It was the first time since peace conditions had been restored that the $1.50 level was passed on the big downward slide of prices which has been in progress of late.

Before the momentum of rushes to sell wheat today met with any decided check the market collapsed to $1.47 for March delivery, a fall of 8 cents a bushel as compared with Wednesday's finish. An unusual absence of buying power was apparent, but finally European interests were reported as making purchases of cash wheat for trans-Atlantic shipment.

New reasons given for downturns in the wheat market aside from world economic causes were the numerous agricultural bank failures in North Dakota and weakness in foreign exchange, together with a fresh break in the prices of cotton. A house that generally represents a leading New York trader in cotton was on the selling side today in the wheat market.

O'DONNELL DIES FOLLOWING CRASH

Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 26.—Eddie O'Donnell, racing driver injured yesterday at Beverly Hills speedway, died this morning without regaining consciousness.

The body of Gaston Chevrolet, who died in the crash in which O'Donnell was injured, will be taken to Indianapolis for burial. Mrs. Chevrolet will leave Sunday with her husband's body according to present arrangements.

No funeral arrangements for Lyall Jolls, the mechanician who was riding with O'Donnell, have been made today. Jolls was engaged to marry Mrs. May A. Esch of St. Paul, who witnessed the accident. His home was in St. Paul, where he left relatives. Speedway officials said today it was probable his body would be sent there after Mrs. Esch had recovered sufficiently from the shock to be consulted. She was prostrated last night.

LONDON TIMES PAYS TRIBUTE TO SIMS

London, Nov. 26.—The Times in an editorial today pays high tribute to the co-operation of the United States navy with the British navy in the World war, and especially to Rear Admiral William S. Sims, commander of the American naval forces in the war zone, which the newspaper says it would have been indiscreet to pay "during the controversies" of the election period.

"The American sailor who is the symbol to us all of that wonderful time of common effort and of common victory, is Admiral Sims," says the Times.

CHANGES IN DEPARTMENTS

Proposed in Bill to Be Introduced by Senator McCormick.

Washington, Nov. 26.—Abolition of the department of interior, creation of two new departments—one to be known as the department of public works and the other as the department of public welfare—and general reorganization of other governmental departments is proposed in a bill prepared by Senator McCormick, Republican, Illinois, for introduction at the coming session of congress.

Senator McCormick is now en route to Europe and the principal provisions of his bill were outlined in a statement issued today from his office. The statement said that while the bill would be introduced on the opening day of the next session, action on it probably would be deferred until after the inauguration of President-elect Harding. The statement added that the Illinois senator, after completing the measure, discussed the proposed changes with Mr. Harding, "who expressed great interest in the bill."

Department of Public Works.

The proposed department of public works under the bill would include all important engineering and building services of the government. The department of public welfare as outlined in the bill would include various welfare agencies of the government such as the woman's bureau now in the department of labor, the pension bureau now in the department of the interior, the public health service, the bureau of war risk insurance and the vocational training board.

The department of commerce would be enlarged so as to increase its usefulness to business.

Creation of an office in the state department to have jurisdiction over insular affairs and territories such as Alaska would be provided for.

Would Abolish Comptroller.

The alien property custodian's office and the division of the secret service would be placed under the department of justice. The office of the comptroller of currency would be abolished and its function transferred to the Federal reserve board.

The McCormick measure also would abolish the board of mediation and conciliation and transfer its functions to the department of labor and abolishes the council of national defense and discontinue its functions.

The measure further transfers to the department of commerce the weather bureau, patent office, coast guard, lake survey office, hydrographic office, naval observatory and inland and coastwise waterways service.

BENEFICIARIES OF AMERICAN CHARITY DRIVEN TO SONG

New York, Nov. 26.—American relief administration charity has driven the Austrian beneficiaries to song in order to express their gratitude. At the "Kinder Dankfest," held at Klagenfurt, the capital of Carinthia, a Thanksgiving festival celebrating the first year's work of the child feeding stations maintained by the relief administration in that city, the following hymn of Thanksgiving was sung:

"We thank you, noble minded, you helper in all need!
Who gave to our children, your bread, your food and heed.
Yet not by empty shimmer, by splendor and by gold,
By blissful children's bright eyes deep thanks to you be told.

"A dreadful war, the children's fright, it was the saddest plight.
Therefore help us along, as distress will last long.
Yet not by empty shimmer, by splendor and by gold,
By loving mothers' happy hearts to you deep thanks be told."

The hymn was dedicated by the composer of the words and music, Wilhelm Pawlik, to the American Relief Administration European Children's fund, and was issued in sheet music form with a gaily waving American flag in full color printed on the cover. The composer directs that the song be sung "with energy and resoluteness."

The American Relief Administration, of which Herbert Hoover is the chairman, supplied free meals to 3,000,000 undernourished and destitute children in Central and Eastern Europe last winter and is planning to continue the work through the coming winter. The present program calls for the feeding of some 2,500,000 children, improved food conditions having permitted the withdrawal of the American relief workers from some of the countries.

HONEY PRODUCERS TO DISCUSS TARIFF

Watertown, Wis., Nov. 26.—A conference of leading honey producers of the Americas has been called at Chicago the first week in December, where President E. Guy Le Stourgeon, San Antonio, plans to have outlined the immediate activities of the American Honey Producers' league. Representatives of the Canadian, Mexican and South American honey producers have been invited to the sessions.

A tariff on honey importations plans to inform honey shippers of ready markets here and abroad, national and local legislation favoring the industry, educational work in schools and in homes will be discussed. Leading authorities, who have been invited to assist in the work are: Frank Rauchfuss, Denver; F. B. Paddock, Ames; George H. Rea, Ithaca; E. S. Miller, Valparaiso; Ernest Root, Medina, Ohio; Kennith Hawkins, Watertown, Wis., Dr. E. F. Phillips, Washington, D. C.; Colin Campbell, Grand Rapids; J. J. Wilder, Waycross, Ga.; Clifford Muth, Cincinnati; C. M. Bentley, Knoxville, and L. C. Dadant Keokuk. Apiary inspectors of the Middle Western states will convene in Chicago at the same time as will the Chicago-Northwestern Beekeepers' association.

Obregon Ready for Inauguration.

Mexico City, Nov. 26.—Gen. Alvaro Obregon, president-elect of the Mexican republic, who has been away recuperating from an indisposition, arrived here yesterday with his family for the inauguration ceremonies. He is much improved in health.

NEWFOUNDLAND ROADS GET GOVERNMENT AID

St. Johns, Nfld., Nov. 20.—(By the Associated Press.)—The Newfoundland railway lines, a narrow gauge system of 960 miles owned by the Reid-Newfoundland Co., has been forced to call upon the colonial government for aid in readjustment, and its administration and operation have been placed under the control of a joint commission of seven. The government has a majority of the members of this body.

The commission also has taken over along with the railway lines the whole system of coastwise water connections along the Newfoundland coast which heretofore have been operated jointly by the government and the Reid-Newfoundland company. Thus the commission is administrating virtually all the transportation facilities of Newfoundland, for both passengers and freight.

A sum of $1,000,000 in colonial funds has been allocated to the commission to enable it to begin its task of working out the salvation of the railway system. The commission is expected to recommend to the next session of the legislature a permanent plan for operation either by the government, by private interests or jointly.

These steps were made necessary because the railway lines which before the war suffered an average loss of $100,000 a year, in the last five years have been compelled to provide for large increases and expenses, notably for coal and wages. As one of its first problems, the railway commission is faced with a demand for further wage increases ranging from 20 to 30 per cent.

Four Killed in Train Wreck.

Toronto, Nov. 25.—Four persons were killed and a number injured tonight by the derailment near Toronto of six cars of the Grand Trunk railway train which left this city for Montreal. A freight train plunged into the wreckage.

Aitkin Church Men's Club.

Aitkin, Minn., Nov. 26.—(Special to The Herald.)—A men's club has been organized in the Methodist church with these officers. President, F. H. Osterhout; secretary, Louis Hallum; treasurer, Howard Cluff. Meetings will be held every month.

IF YOUR EARS RING WITH HEAD NOISES

If you have roaring, buzzing noises in your ears, are getting hard of hearing and fear Catarrhal Deafness, go to your druggist and get 1 ounce of Parmint (double strength), and add to it ¼ pint of hot water and a little granulated sugar. Take 1 tablespoonful four times a day.

This will often bring quick relief from the distressing head noises. Clogged nostrils should open, breathing become easy and the mucus stop dropping into the throat. It is easy to prepare, costs little and is pleasant to take. Anyone who has Catarrhal trouble of the ears, is hard of hearing or has head noises should give this prescription a trial.

GOOD EVENING! We expect partly cloudy weather tomorrow, with moderate temperature.

PRESIDENT AS MEDIATOR

League Asks Wilson to Act Between Turks and Armenians.

Geneva, Nov. 26.—(By the Associated Press.)—Serbia, Roumania and Greece yesterday formally notified the assembly of the League of Nations that they are opposed to the admission of Bulgaria into the league.

The council of the league yesterday cabled President Wilson at the same time as messages of the same purport were sent to the various powers, asking whether he will accept the role of mediator between Mustapha Kemal Pasha, the Turkish Nationalist leader, and the Armenians.

The text of the message follows:

"The assembly of the League of Nations passed on Nov. 22 a resolution couched in the following terms: 'The assembly, anxious to co-operate with the council in order to put an end within the shortest time possible to the horrors of the Armenian tragedy, has requested the council to arrive at an understanding with the governments with the view of entrusting a power with the task of taking necessary measures to stop hostilities between the Kemalists and the Armenians.'

"The council of the league has, after consideration, decided to transmit this resolution to the governments of all states members of the league and also to the government of the United States. The object is to find a power which will use its good offices to put an end as speedily as possible to the present terrible tragedy.

Not for Mandate.

"The proposal does not involve a repetition of the invitation to accept a mandate for Armenia. The council does not wish to suggest an assumption of duties which might be unwelcomed but has felt bound to offer to the United States the opportunity of undertaking this humanitarian task since the fate of Armenia always has been of special interest to the American people and the president of the United States has already agreed to delimit the boundaries of that country. As the matter is of great urgency, the council ventures to ask for a reply with the shortest possible delay."

No meeting of the assembly was held yesterday in order to give members full time for committee work.

After the membership committee had decided to make all the new Russian states wait for admission, and the amendment and disarmament committees had expressed themselves in favor of delay, the committee on finances and economics decided it would not act at present on the suggestion of the Brussels financial congress that a committee of financiers be chosen to lay plans for an international credit institution.

Another Conference.

If the assembly approves the committee's decision, another international financial conference will be held next year before anything is done on the suggestions made at the Brussels conference. This is understood to be the plan advocated by the British.

Austria is the only former state which is likely to be admitted to the league without serious opposition. The majority of members of the subcommittee dealing with the applications of Austria, Bulgaria, Albania and Lichtenstein, presided over by Lord Robert Cecil, are said to favor the admission of Bulgaria, but the Roumanians and Jugo-Slavs have declared they will fight against it, asserting that the entrance of Bulgaria into the league now would create a grave complication. This has been interpreted by some of the delegates as a menace that they will quit the league if outvoted.

The Montenegrin government is industriously circularizing the delegations and preserves in support of its application for admission to the league, of which neither the council nor the committee on new members have thus far taken notice, Montenegro being considered a part of the Serbian-Croatian-Slovene state.

SPRACKLIN CASE OVER UNTIL DEC. 2

Windsor, Ont., Nov. 26.—Preliminary examination of J. O. L. Spracklin, former license inspector, to determine whether he is to be tried on a charge of "killing and slaying" Beverley Trumble, Sandwich innkeeper, was put over yesterday until Dec. 2. His bond was increased to $20,000, which was furnished by the minister and his congregation.

Appointment of a nonresident lawyer to conduct the prosecution has been asked by Mrs. Beverley Trumble, who asserts an impartial trial otherwise is impossible in any of the border cities.

FLAG CAUSES SMALL RIOT

Irish Object to Flying of Union Jack at New York Club.

New York, Nov. 26.—The usual quiet observance of Thanksgiving day here was violently interrupted shortly after noon yesterday when crowds which had attended a high requiem mass in memory of Terence MacSwiney, former lord mayor of Cork, rioted at the sight of a British flag decorating the facade of the Union club across Fifth avenue from St. Patrick's cathedral.

After a fight participated in by hundreds of Irish sympathizers, in the course of which plate glass windows of the club were shattered by missles hurled by members of the mob, order was restored when a cordon of 200 police established itself around the beleaguered building.

The Union Jack, which was the cause of the assault, though taken down at the first demand of the crowds and subsequently replaced, still was draped over the sidewalk with the emblems of France and the United States when the fracas ended.

When the clamor of the first onrush was at its height the Rt. Rev. Michael J. Lavelle, rector of St. Patrick's, clad in his ministerial robes, rushed out of the church and pleaded in vain with the leaders to quell the disturbance.

Dozen Injured.

After mounted and motorcycle police had dispersed the assaulting forces, a survey of the field of battle revealed casualties including a dozen or more slightly injured who had been struck by flying brickbats. All windows on the lower floor of the club had been smashed.

Before the beginning of the MacSwiney mass, the attendance which taxed the utmost capacity of the great cathedral, a delegation of Irish requested that the British flag be removed. The club superintendent complied, but later, on instructions from club officials, the flag was replaced.

When the service was over the flag again caught the attention of belligerent members of the congregation who were angered at the reappearance of the emblem. The stones and bricks were secured from a nearby building under construction and the attacks began. A riot call at first brought only fifty police, all on foot. These fought desperately, using their night sticks freely, but were powerless against the heavy odds.

Drive Back Attackers.

Only after the arrival of reinforcements of three times the original number, did the officers succeed in driving back the attackers.

Four arrests on charges of malicious mischief were made. The MacSwiney memorial service was attended by many prominent Irish here, including Eamonn De Valera, "president of the Irish republic," who occupied a place in the front pew.

Monsignor Lavelle paid a tribute to the former mayor of Cork, who died after a hunger strike in Brixton prison, London, calling him "a man whose high record proclaims him just, whose deeds make him a hero among the fellows and whose name will live in the memory of the world."

At the outset of the trouble, club members said later, a crowd of thirty men and two women pushed aside the doorman and entered the club. Telfair Mentin, a lecturer on flags, and several other members met the visitors.

"We'll give you five minutes to take the English flag in," one of them said, according to Mr. Mentin.

Attempts to reason with the invaders were unsuccessful and Mr. Mentin declared the crowd attacked him and the other club members, inflicting several minor cuts and injuries on Mr. Mentin.

FORMER DULUTHIAN WOUNDED BY HUNTER

Ashland, Wis., Nov. 26.—(Special to The Herald.)—Targer Egdahl of Cornucopia, Wis., was shot and seriously wounded by an unknown hunter in the woods between Cornucopia and Iron River yesterday morning.

The wounded man lay on the ground until he was picked up by hunters and taken to Iron River and from thence he was rushed to an Ashland hospital, where an operation was performed. He was shot in the hip, the bullet entering his body. The hunter who fired the shot disappeared in the forest and was not identified.

Egdahl formerly lived in Duluth and later in Iron River, where his father ran saloons.

FAVORS STATE LOANS TO WISCONSIN FARMERS

Madison, Wis., Nov. 26.—Loans for farmers by means of state aid, will be the subject of legislature to be fostered by Senator W. A. Titus of Fond du Lac, he has announced. This extension of credit would be of particular interest to settlers on the cutover lands of Northern Wisconsin.

"I believe that some of the best land in the world can be brought under cultivation in the cutover sections of Northern Wisconsin, if financial encouragement could be given by the state to settlers who show energy and ability," Senator Titus said.

"This would not only mean increased food production, but that land that is now a slow seller at $10 or $15 an acre might in the course of a few years be worth $100 an acre. It would mean a decided benefit in the way of assessed valuations and more tax money."

Senator Titus says that there are a number of agricultural bills in which he is interested, one of which will be to protect the farmers from exploitation at the hands of speculators. Radicalism, he states, can best be combatted by removing the cause.

Sore Throat

Coughs, Colds, Croup, Catarrh

Relieved in Two Minutes.

Is your throat sore?
Breathe Hyomei.
Have you catarrh?
Breathe Hyomei.
Have you a cough?
Breathe Hyomei.
Have you a cold?
Breathe Hyomei.

Hyomei is the treatment for nose, throat and lung trouble. It does not contain cocaine, morphine or other dangerous drugs and does away with stomach dosing. Just breathe it through the little black pocket inhaler that comes with each outfit.

A complete outfit costs but little at Abbett's drug store, 219 West Superior street, or any reliable druggist, and Hyomei is guaranteed to banish catarrh, croup, coughs, colds, sore throat and bronchitis or money back. A Hyomei inhaler lasts a lifetime and extra bottles of Hyomei can be obtained from druggists for a few cents.

MI-O-NA

Coats Heretofore Selling From 79.50 to 95.00

—50 modes: Coats and Coat-wraps. Of Silvertip Bolivia, of Chinchilla, of Chamoistyn, of Goldtone, and Bolivia. Huge, splendid collars of French Seal, Australian Opossum, of Raccoon, and of Nutria. In blue and jade, and all the browns autumn had in her dye-vat. Novelty linings. Lines and lines of pretty stitching. Everything big but the price.

at 15.00

Skirts Heretofore Selling From 18.50 to $29.50

—Fifteen dollars may have bought such skirts some time ago, but we forget when. Pleated knife or box, or knife and box. And without any pleats at all. Sometimes plaids are pleated in every pleasing shade of brown. Or blocky checks have no pleats to keep in order. Those dashing black and white stripe effects have a host of friends. You wear them with anything.

at 89.50

Coats Herefore Selling From 115.00 to 150.00

—Coats and wraps of Chamoistyn, Silvertip Bolivia, Orlando Cloth and Bolivia. Coats with those big wrappy, luxurious shawl collars of Moleskin, Raccoon, Opossum and Nutria. Some even go so far as fur cuffs. Colors of course include many shades of brown, Pekin blue, navy blue and juniper. Lines and lines of stitching and cape and blouse backs are impressive.

BETWEEN SIPS
Marian Lee

EVER get stage-struck? Then you know just how I feel at this very minute. For all the world like years ago when everybody in the county had come for miles to hear little me get right up between the organ and the pulpit to say "Christmas Candle shining bright." But after getting down on my knees, as it were, and begging the Advertising Manager to give me just one wee column in which to talk to folks right from the shoulder, there's nothing to do but swallow my heart and say my name is Marian Lee, and I'm the Personal Shopper.

Water Waves

SPEAKING of stage fright—you don't know how it affects your hair! The other day I got sort of tired of having my hair stand on end with fright—or else fall damply down across my patient eyes, so I went down to the Beauty Parlors and had a Water Wave. They assured me it would "last"—and I'm sure mine will—it's very firmly waved. Just like Lake Superior is sometimes. Only the result is different.

Come to The Beauty Parlors tomorrow and have one. It's the famous Nestle Permanent Wave that's steamed in in a way that positively won't hurt your hair.

A Vamp

ESCAPED from The Garrick the other day, and glided most sinuously onto the Second Floor, leaving the elevator girl quite paralyzed. Being a woman of courage, I sidled up quite close to her, as she absorbedly gazed on our Evening Frocks in the Dress Section. I was positively sure she would choose a stunning green velvet gown, a perfect siren of a gown. But would you believe it! She picked out the most angelic, baby-faced, little Eva of a gown we had in stock. It was of soft blue satin, tulle-draped, with halos of silver embroidery all over it. Priced 79.50

"Oh, Dear"

SAID Little Mrs. Perkins, who lives in our apartment: "I wish to goodness the neighbors weren't so fussy. I never seem to want to play the piano until after dinner at night—and those crabby Joneses have such a sensitive baby—I declare I think that child must have an ear trumpet!"

Polly Perkins should have a Brunswick Phonograph and some Brunswick and Emerson Records, though to be sure, the Brunswick plays any record.

The Jones Baby

WAS gurgling an infantile "kick" the other day. It kept spilling orange juice all over its white dress. Finally I discovered there was method in this "spill"—it was going to have a nice, fresh dress on or bust—that was all there was to it! Baby Hangers, .39.

By the way, you should see our Art Department—and if you do, don't forget to look up the little Colonial Lady that manages to be a lady and a lamp at the same time. You can make one yourself. The frame is priced 2.50, and all it needs to make it into "a light that shines" is a bit of silk and gold lace.

Yes, Indeed!

SUPERIOR STREET doesn't look the same today. Wednesday folks were hustling, and hopping along with bundles. Big bundles with yellow feet sticking out—today there is nothing left but "B-O-N-E-S!" And unless Mother is taken out to dinner tomorrow night, she'll probably give you nothing but turkey soup—and it'll serve you right.

UNITED STATES CLAIMS RIGHTS UNDER TREATY

Tells Great Britain It Does Not Propose to Be Excluded.

Has Special Reference to Great Petroleum Fields of Mesopotamia.

Washington, Nov. 26.—(By the Associated Press.)—The American government has informed Great Britain, politely, but firmly, that it does not propose to be excluded from participation in the rights and privileges secured under mandates provided in the treaties of peace. Furthermore, it expects to be heard regarding the terms of those mandates before they are put into force.

The position of the United States is set forth in a note by Secretary Colby to Earl Curzon, the British secretary of state for foreign affairs, and the specific question discussed is that of the Mesopotamia petroleum fields. Mr. Colby's note is dated Nov. 20, and was made public yesterday following its delivery to the British foreign office early this week. It is in reply to a British note of last Aug. 9, which has never been made public, and which deals with the application of the principles of equality of treatment to the territories of the Near East to be placed under British mandate.

The American note takes issue with what is described as the British position that mandate agreements and treaties are to be considered only by states that are members of the League of Nations. It states that the United States, as a participant in the World war, "and a contributor to its successful issue, cannot consider any of the associated powers, the smallest not less than itself, debarred from discussion of any of its consequence, or from participation in the rights and privileges secured under the mandates provided in the treaties of peace."

Accepts Statement.

Mr. Colby says in his note that the American government accepts the statement of the British government that it has refrained from exploiting the petroleum resources of the mandated territories in question, "and welcomes your pledges" that it is far from the intention of Great Britain to "establish any kind of monopoly or preferred proposition in its own interest."

"I need hardly refer again," Mr. Colby continues, "to the fact that the government of the United States has consistently urged that it is of the utmost importance to the future peace of the world that alien territory transferred as a result of the war with the Central powers should be held and administered in such a way as to assure equal treatment to the commerce and to the citizens of all nations. Indeed, it was in reliance upon an understanding to this effect, and expressly in contemplation thereof, that the United States was persuaded that the acquisition under mandate of certain enemy territory by the victorious powers would be consistent with the best interests of the world.

To Secure Equality.

"It is assumed accordingly that your statements with reference to Mandate A (not described) together with the statement that the draft mandates for Mesopotamia and Palestine have been prepared with a view to secure equality of treatment for the commerce and citizens of all states which are members of the League of Nations do not indicate a supposition on your part that the United States can be excluded from the benefits of the principle of equality of treatment."

Referring to the statement by the British government that the draft mandates for Mesopotamia and Palestine which have been prepared will, when approved by the interested Allied powers, be communicated to the council of the League of Nations, the American secretary of state says "the United States is, undoubtedly, one of the powers directly interested in the terms of the mandates, and I, therefore, request that the draft mandates be communicated to this government for its consideration before their submission to the council of the league."

Mr. Colby goes on to say that "it would seem essential that suitable publicity should be given to the drafts of mandates which it is the intention to submit to the council, in order that the fullest opportunity may be afforded to consider their terms in relation to the obligations assumed by the mandatory power and the respective interests of all governments, which are, or deem themselves, concerned or affected."

Interested Public Opinion.

"The fact cannot be ignored," Mr. Colby continues, "that the reported sources of Mesopotamia have interested public opinion of the United States, Great Britain and other countries as a potential factor in the economic situation.

"Because of that fact they become an outstanding illustration of the kind of economic question with reference to which the mandate principle was especially designed, and, indeed, a peculiarly critical test of the good faith of the nations which have given their adherence to the principle. This principle was accepted in the hope of obviating in the future those international differences that grow out of a desire for the exclusive control of the resources and markets of annexed territories."

Mr. Colby then frankly states that the American government finds difficulty in reconciling the special arrangement set forth in the so-called San Remo petroleum agreement between Great Britain and France, with the British government's statement that the resources of Mesopotamia and freedom of action in regard thereto will be secured to the future Arab state, as yet unorganized.

"Furthermore," he says, "it is difficult to harmonize that special arrangement with your statement that concessionary claims relating to those resources still remain in their pre-war position, and have yet to receive, with the establishment of the Arab state, the equitable consideration promised by his majesty's government.

Based on Principle.

"This government has noted in this connection a public statement of his majesty's minister in charge of petroleum affairs, to the effect that the San Remo agreement was based on the principle that the concessions granted by the former Turkish government must be honored. It would be reluctant to assume that his majesty's government has already undertaken to pass judgment upon the validity of concessionary claims in the regions concerned, and to concede validity to certain of those claims which cover, apparently, the entire Mesopotamia area. Indeed, this government understands your note to deny having taken and to deny the intention to take any such ex-parte and premature action.

"In this connection I might observe that such information as this government has received indicates that, prior to the war, the Turkish petroleum company, to make specific reference, possessed in Mesoptamia, no rights to petroleum concessions or to the exploitation of oil, and in view of your assurance that it is not the intention of the mandatory power to establish on its own behalf any kind of monopoly, I am at a loss to understand how to construe the provision of the San Remo agreement that any private petroleum company which may develop Mesopotamia oil fields shall be under permanent British control.' "

Has Only One-Twelfth.

Referring to "some allusions" made in the original British note to American supremacy in the petroleum industry, Mr. Colby says that to correct a misapprehension, "which your note reflects," he will state that "the United States possesses only one-twelfth, approximately, of the petroleum resources of the world," and "that the oil resources of no other nation have been so largely drawn upon for foreign needs."

"But it is not these aspects of oil production and supply, insofar as they are of domestic interest to the United States with which I am concerned in this discussion," says Secretary Colby in conclusion.

"I have alluded to them in order to correct confusing inferences liable to arise from certain departures, which I believe I discern in your lordship's communication, from the underlying principles of a mandate as evolved and sought to be applied by the allied and associated powers to the territiries, brought under their temporary dominion by the joint struggle and common victory.

"This dominion will be wholly misconceived, not to say abused, if there is even the slightest deviation from the spirit and exclusive purpose of a trusteeship as strict as it is comprehensive."

MANY DISABLED SOLDIERS STUDY AT UNIVERSITY FARM

About 250 disabled soldiers have registered this year at University farm. Forty-five are in the "vestibule school," forty-five in the college of agriculture and about 160 in the school. Twenty-five thousand dollars are paid out every month by the government to these soldier students at the farm, under act of congress, increasing the allowance for subsistence of each individual from $80 a month to $100 a month.

The "vestibule school" is the direct sequel to a contract recently entered into between the university board of regents and Federal government. The essence of the contract is expressed in the sentence "to take any number of any grade at any time." Heretofore there has seemed to be no place in the schools of agriculture for men of elementary training who must have prevocational instruction before they are qualified to receive scientific training intelligently. "The vestibule school" has been organized, then, for men of this class. At University farm most members of the class are reviewing elementary studies rather than taking them up for the first time. A few men of foreign tongue are backward from the standpoint of English.

The plan for grade work at the University Farm School of Agriculture calls for the employment of two teachers, one for the grades and one for agriculture. The board of regents at its session Wednesday voted to employ J. O. Christianson, a student of the university, for grade teacher, and J. B. Taylor, a graduate of the River Falls, Wis., normal school for teacher of agriculture. Marc C. Leager, an alumnus of the university, is the Federal coordinator at University farm. It is his duty to aid in correlating the instruction and to see that the men are correctly classified so that their rapid advancement will be assured.

ITASCA COUNTY SELLS $250,000 ROAD BONDS

Grand Rapids, Minn., Nov. 26.—Itasca county road work on Babcock routes will get an early start as the county board has just sold bonds to the amount of $250,000, the funds received to be applied toward the work of construction of the important highways named in this county as under the Good Roads amendment. This issue of a quarter of a million in bonds is a part of the $2,000,000 issue that the voters of the county authorized by a 12-1 vote a year ago last August.

The bonds were sold to Kalman, Matteson & Woods and the Mechanics Trust & Savings bank of St. Paul. The bond house and the bank joined in making the purchase. The bonds were sold for a premium of $2,955, to be paid the county, and at a rate of 5¾ per cent interest. Adding the premium to the money received for the sale of the bonds brings the interest rate down to practically 5½ per cent. No bonus was paid on the sale. The sale is considered a very advantageous one for the county by financial men everywhere. Five firms competed in the bids on the bonds.

DECLARES LUMBER PRICES AT BOTTOM

Minneapolis, Minn., Nov. 26.—Lumber mills in the Far West have practically ceased operations and some companies have even called their logging crews out of the woods as a result of the decreased demand for lumber, D. D. Conn, traffic representative of the Shevlin-Carpenter-Clark company, said. Mr. Conn has just completed a trip to Western lumber centers and back. Pointing out that No. 1 common dimension fir lumber has fallen from a high point in March of $41 at the mill to $18.50 at present, with some sales made under that figure, Mr. Conn declared that lumber is at the bottom prices.

"If people who plan to build next spring expect prices on lumber lower than they can get now, they are mistaken," he said. "To arrive at the Minneapolis wholesale price $17.60 per 1,000 feet must be added for freight. This was $13 before the freight rate increase."

TWENTY HURT IN TRAIN COLLISION

Bellefontaine, Ohio, Nov. 25.—Twenty persons were injured at West Liberty, near here, late yesterday when Big Four passenger train No. 10, Cincinnati to Detroit, ran into an open switch and crashed into a freight train standing on a sidetrack.

Two of the injured are probably fatally hurt. The express car and combination baggage car and smoker of the passenger train were turned over.

STATE SUPREME COURT DECISIONS

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 26.—(Special to The Herald.)—The following decisions were announced by the Minnesota supreme court today:

HENNEPIN COUNTY.

Slander Verdict Upheld.

Elmer G. McCusky, respondent, vs. William Kuhlman, appellant—

Plaintiff had a verdict, and defendant appeals from the order denying a new trial.

The cause of action is slander, defendant being charged with having stated in the hearing of third parties that plaintiff was a thief, and it could be proven. On conflicting evidence the jury found for plaintiff. This court has no right to say that defendant's witnesses were more deserving of credence than plaintiff's.

The motion for a new trial was also based on the ground of excessive damages given under the influence of passion or prejudice. The damages appear large, but not so large that the inference must necessarily be that passion or prejudice moved the jury. Aside from the amount of the verdict there is nothing in the record suggestive of anything improper working to the prejudice of defendant. The words found to have been uttered were actionable per se; they charged plaintiff with the commission of a crime. The verdict was for $1,009.50. Plaintiff was a young mechanic who had started a garage business in Minneapolis, and the accusation was made in relation to an automobile radiator which defendant claimed plaintiff had stolen. There was some evidence from which the jury could find actual malice so as to justify adding punitive to the general damages.

The only other assignment of error is "third. Because of errors of law at the trial." This is insufficient; but we have nevertheless examined that part of the charge which is in the brief discussed as being erroneous and to which counsel evidently directed the assignment. When the part criticised is read in connection with what precedes we see nothing of which defendant could justly complain. No uncertainty or ambiguity in the charge was suggested when given nor does the brief point out wherein the defect is claimed to exist.

Affirmed. PER CURIAM.

HENNEPIN COUNTY.

Right of Cancellation.

Herman Mikolas, applicant, vs. Val Blatz Brewing company, respondent—

1. Plaintiff sold his business to McBride, taking notes for installments of the purchase price. As part of the same transaction, plaintiff leased to defendant, for a long term, the premises where the business was conducted. The lease was terminable by defendant in event McBride defaulted in his payments but was to become absolute on all payments being made. McBride becoming embarrassed, plaintiff agreed to accept the notes of McBride for an amount less than the amount due, a third party assuming part of the obligation. It was agreed that the new notes should stand substituted for the old, and be secured in the same manner by the lease, and that plaintiff should hold the same rights in event of default as under the old agreement. Defendant was not a party to this agreement but assented to it. Held, defendant had the same right of cancellation, for default by McBride, after the new agreement as before.

2. The giving of notes for an antecedent debt, with the added signature of a new party, is not absolute payment unless the parties so agree. The court made no finding on this subject. There was evidence from which the court might find that the original debt was not wholly paid. In the absence of a finding, this court cannot assume that the original debt was wholly paid.

3. It was not necessary that defendant be a party to the new agreement between plaintiff and McBride. If it assented to it, the new notes became substituted for the old, for all purposes.

4. The statute of frauds has no application to this case.

Affirmed. HALLAM, J.

RAMSEY COUNTY.

Conduct Affirmed Lease.

Michael J. O'Neil, respondent, vs. Watson P. Davidson, appellant—

The refusal to transfer the case to the court calendar prejudiced no rights of defendant.

The evidence conclusively established that defendant, after learning of the deceit of which he complains, remained in possession of the leased premises and paid several installments of rent. Such conduct affirms the lease, and equity will not decree a rescission.

The rule of damages stated in Dettel vs. Rosenberg, 144 Minn. 166, is adhered to, namely: that where a lessee has been induced to execute a lease through misrepresentation and deceit of the lessor, the lessee may not after he has full knowledge of the fraud remain in possession and recover damages arising through the fraud practiced during the unexpired part of the term. He may recover all damages sustained up to the discovery of the fraud.

Affirmed. HOLT, J.

RAMSEY COUNTY.

Juvenile Court Reversed.

State of Minnesota, ex rel., Blanche Mattes and James W. Mattes, petitioners, vs. the Juvenile Court of Ramsey county and G. N. Orr, designed judge thereof, respondents—

1. The intent and purpose of section 1, chapter 397, laws of 1917, read in connection with the last clause of section 11, construed and held, to exclude from the operation of that chapter, as a dependent, a child having a parent able to provide for its proper support and who does not consent to separation from it, whether such child be illegitimate or legitimate.

2. In proceedings to commit an illegitimate child to the care of the state board of control, under the provisions of chapter 397, laws of 1917, the consent of the mother is essential, in the absence of a showing that the commitment is needful in order to prevent serious detriment to the child.

3. Testimony considered and held, not sufficient to warrant the commitment of an illegitimate child to the care of the state board of control.

4. Where an illegitimate child is in lawful custody of a person other than its parent, by virtue of an order of the district court in habeas corpus proceedings, a juvenile court has no power to interfere with the custody of such child.

5. The provisions of chapter 397, laws of 1917, considered and held, not to be objectionable as class legislation.

The order is annulled.

QUINN, J.

RAMSEY COUNTY.

Malpractice Verdict Affirmed.

Kate Borland Hays, respondent, vs. Harry F. Lufkin, appellant—

In this, a malpractice case, the evidence stated in the opinion was sufficient to support a verdict for $4,500 charging a physician with negligence in administering the X-ray treatment to a patient suffering from eczema.

Affirmed. LEES, C.

RICE COUNTY.

Boundary Line Defined.

James Lawler, respondent, vs. Counties of Rice and Goodhue, et. al., appellants—

1. The corners and boundary lines established by the government survey of the public lands are where they were actually marked on the ground by the government surveyors, and the point where a section post or quarter-section post was placed on the ground, if satisfactorily established, is controlling and conclusive as to the location of the corners marked by it although such location may not accord with the courses and distances shown on the plat and field notes.

2. The evidence sustains the finding of the trial court that the quarter-section post in controversy was placed by the government surveyors at the point claimed by plaintiff.

Affirmed. TAYLOR, C.

McLEOD COUNTY.

No Reversible Error.

James A. Cafferty, respondent, vs. Max Klatt, appellant—

1. Evidence in an action to rescind an executory contract for the sale of personal property, considered and held sufficient to justify the submission of the question of fraud to the jury, and to support the verdict.

2. The bargain constituted an executory contract for the sale of personal property of a particular quality. Under such a contract, when possession is tendered, the purchaser may refuse to accept, if it be not substantially as represented in the contract, and recover the money paid.

3. We find no reversible error in the instructions nor in the rulings upon the admission of testimony.

Affirmed. QUINN, J.

WILL URGE PAYMENT OF CLOQUET BONUSES

Cloquet, Minn., Nov. 26.—(Special to The Herald.)—Attorney G. V. Barron left Wednesday night for St. Paul to represent the interests of the ex-service men of Cloquet before the state bonus board. A number of bonus claims for which the Cloquet Lumber company and the Northwest Paper company purchased bonds have not yet been paid. Included in these are a number of approved claims and many unapproved claims, the greater number of which Cloquet men believe are being held up on mere technicalities. Mr. Barron has been given full authority to use "any and all necessary measures" to see that Cloquet doughboys receive their money in time for Christmas.

Attorney Barron will also represent the American Legion before the attorney general to argue for a rehearing in the case of spuce production men, whose claims were allowed in the minimum of $50. Spruce men from Cloquet served about eleven months and put in claims averaging $165. These were cut down to a minimum by the bonus board for the reason that the spruce men drew extra pay for part of their service. Mr. Barron will argue that under the terms of the bonus law the only factor that enters into the case is whether or not the men were in the "military service" during the time for which they claimed bonus. All spruce men contend they were subject to military control and discipline and were required to drill frequently. They received honorable discharges for the entire period of service. They were required to purchase their clothing out of their extra allowance and contend that the board has erred in reducing their claims to the minimum.

GYPSY GIRL IS NOW HELD TO CIRCUIT COURT

Marinette, Wis., Nov. 26—Maggie Stevenson, 22 years old, a gypsy girl who attempted a daylight robbery on Tuesday at the Farmers' Savings & Trust bank, was held for the circuit court in $1,200 bond, by Municipal Judge Bernardy.

Male members of the gypsy tribe arrived from Chicago and put up a cash bail, securing her release.

It was discovered later that the girl got away from the bank with $310 in $20 bills, which was recovered later from her person at the police station.

WILL REMOVE CAR SHORTAGE

New Eastern Grain Elevators to Benefit Northwest Producers.

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 26.—The 5,000,000-bushel grain elevator under construction at Philadelphia, and the proposed erection of a 20,000,000-bushel capacity elevator at New York, will materially benefit farmers and other grain men of the Northwest in removing the car shortage menace, caused by a congestion at the tide water terminals, to O. P. B. Jacobson, railroad and warehouse commissioner, who has just returned from an Eastern trip.

For many years, Mr. Jacobson explained, the Northwest has been greatly hampered in moving grain, flour and other grain products through outlets upon the Atlantic seaboard. The completion of these two enormous elevators, according to the commissioner, will stop this blockading of grain and ohter shipments.

The action taken at New York and Philadelphia and the movement for similar action at other ports to enlarge the facilities for storing and handling grain and flour may be attributed directly to the persistent agitation of the Minnesota railroad and warehouse commission, backed by the Minnesota legislature, the farmers of Minnesota and the grain interests generally, Mr. Jacobson said.

Capacity Inadequate.

The railroad and warehouse commission for years had contended that the principal ports on the Atlnatic coast from Portland, Me., to Norfolk, Va., with a total elevator capacity of only 21,000,000 bushels, less than half that of either Chicago or Minneapolis, were in no position to hande the grain and flour from the West during periods of maximum freight movements.

The fact, Mr. Jacobson said, was brought to the attention of the public in 1916, when the "car famine" was most acute and eventually paralyzed the entire transportation system of the country. An investigation by the commission was made at that time, and was found that thousands of freight cars loaded with grain had been held for months in the railway yards of New York and Philadelphia. However, the grain could not be unloaded, because of the lack of storage facilities, and as a consequence the railway yards became congested with freight cars which stopped transportation in the West, where elevators were filled to the bursting point.

Would End Car Famine.

The result of this investigation was reported to the National Association of Railway and Utilities Commissioners by Mr. Jacobson, who argued that if the grain cars could be unloaded promptly on arrival at tidewater and returned at once for transportation purposes instead of being held for months at a time for storage facilities, there would be little or no fear of car famine.

Mr. Jacobson at that time urged that the city or state of New York should take the initiative in the matter of providing storage facilities for this surplus grain and flour, but this suggestion was pronounced as "socialistic" by Commissioner J. O. Carr of New York. Nevertheless, the national association memorialized congress either to provide the necessary facilities at the port terminals or to compel the railways to do so. At the request of the Minnesota commission, Senator Knute Nelson and Congressman Sydney Anderson introduced in congress identical bills designed to provide such facilities.

TUSKEGEE APPEALS FOR CHRISTMAS GIFTS

Tuskegee, Okla., Nov. 26.—Principal Moton of Tuskegee Normal and Industrial institute has issued the following appeal for Christmas gifts:

"For many years it has been the custom of philanthropic friends of the institute, at this time of the year, to send for distribution among our poorer children in the rural districts of the South, new or old clothing, books, pictures, cards, etc. These gifts have always brought untold comfort and happiness and Christmas cheer to hundreds of these people who might otherwise have had little to remind them of the Christmas season.

"Tuskegee institute will be glad this year, as in past years, to serve as the distributing center of any such gifts as its friends may be willing to send. Through our many offshoot schools, located in many parts of the South, we are able to know and reach and help the really needy and deserving of these many communities, as well as to help the most worthy and unfortunate of our own student body and of our immediate locality.

"The inability of the farmers of the South to realize on their cotton crops because of the high cost of production as against the comparatively low market value of the staple is having its effect on the home life of the poorer people, and we are all the more anxious to be able to supplement what little they can help themselves during this crisis.

"Some friends have seen fit to send checks to be used for the same purpose. Any amount will help. Kindly address parcels or letters to Robert R. Moton, principal, Tuskegee institute, Alabama."

To "Youth-ify" Gray, Streaked Hair

Ask anybody to guess how old you are, and notice how their first appraising glance is directed at your hair.

To be answered "You can't be more than thirty; I can tell by your hair," must give to any woman who is really forty or more a sense of pride and satisfaction.

But to become prematurely gray at 30 or 40, to look ten years older than you actually are—that is indeed a bitter experience. However, any woman can, with a bottle of Brownatone, restore to gray, faded and streaked hair all its maiden beauty and the identical color it had in girlhood, whether light golden, medium, dark brown or black. Brownatone is instant in results and absolutely harmless.

At all druggists 50c and $1.50; two colors: "Light to Medium Brown" and "Dark Brown to Black."

Special Free Trial Offer.

For a free trial package of Brownatone, send to The Kenton Pharmacal Co., 537 Coppin Bldg., Covington, Ky., inclosing 11 cents to pay postage, packing and war tax. Tear this out.

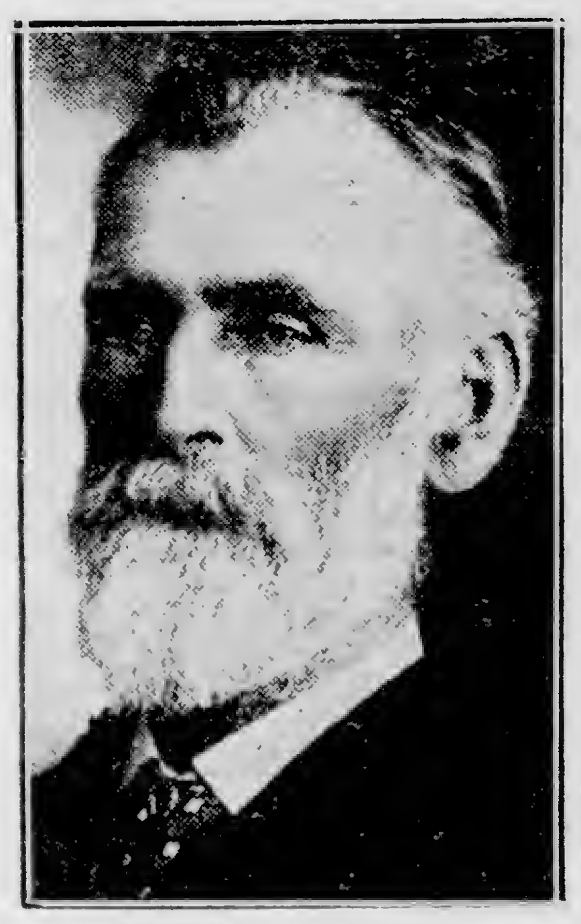
"TAPS" FOR VETERAN OF THE CIVIL WAR



EDWARD L. PUGH.

Edward L. Pugh, aged 77, a veteran of the Civil war and former commander of Alonzo Palmer post, G. A. R., of Superior, died at 1 o'clock this morning at his home near Altoona, Iowa. A message announcing the death of Mr. Pugh was received by his son, E. R. Pugh, and grandson, Maj Warren E. Pugh, chief of police of this city.

Mr. Pugh was well known at the Head of the Lakes, having resided here almost thirty years. He came to Superior in 1890 as agent of the Chicago-Northwestern coal dock. He served for many years with the Superior health department as quarantine officer. He was one of the leading members of the Cumming Avenue Methodist church of Superior for many years.

Nine years ago he moved to Duluth, purchasing a small farm on the Jean Duluth road. His farm was swept by the forest fires of Oct. 12, 1918, and he lost everything. He then moved to Altoona, Iowa.

Mr. Pugh served for thirty-six months as a private in Company E, Fourteenth Pennsylvania cavalry, during the Civil war. He was then captured by the Confederates, who held him prisoner until the end of the war. He is survived by his widow, one son, Edward R. Pugh, 1430 East First street, and two grandchildren, Miss Olive N. Pugh and Chief of Police Pugh of Duluth.

Either the son or grandson will leave this afternoon for Altoona. It is not definitely known as yet whether the body will be brought here for burial.

ALL-DAY PROGRAM AT "Y" ON THANKSGIVING

Many Features Given to Big Crowds: Week-End Program Arranged.

The boys' department, Y. M. C. A., was a mecca all day yesterday for hundreds of boys who visited the club and enjoyed the varied program. The opening event was the short Thanksgiving service at which the boys were reminded of some of the things that they as boys ought to be thankful for, and all agreed that the wonderful boys' building was something that every fellow was thankful for.

The treasure hunt was the next event, the prize was a box of candy and to get this the boys had to follow routes that were posted in different parts of the city within a radius of five blocks of the boys' building. The honor of being the best sleuth went to Clifford Mork. The afternoon program opened with a championship game tournament. Emmett O'Neal won the championship for pocket pool, Rupert Gairepy for checkers; Ray Chin, late of China, for ping pong, and Paul Kelley for shuffle board. Each champion was awarded a box of candy. At 4:30 p. m. a snappy game of basket ball was played, the boys' department defeating the Greenfield Midgets of Superior, both teams put up a fine game and played to a big gallery. This was the first basket ball game of the season and formally opened the basket ball season at the club. A four-lap relay race between the same teams resulted in a victory for the boys' department. The splendid running of Ray Chin, who was a member of the Y. M. C. A. in China and holds a record there, was commented on by all who saw him run.

Fun in the swimming pool followed diving for pennies and for goldfish. The fish were caught by Arthur England, Charles Leech, Dan McMahon and Wallace Steele. The boys took the fish home with them. Dinner was served at 6:15 o'clock. This was followed by a volley ball game and then the vaudeville show, which was free to all members. Wilbur Hadden opened the program with some magic. Arnold Putnam, David Burrasa, John Scheleunus, Arthur Abbott and Louis Gomberg gave some songs and musical numbers. Mr. Peterson and Wilmer Haenke closed the program with illuminated club swinging. Another swim closed the day's entertainment, and even at that time boys were loath to leave the club and stayed until the last light was turned out.

Today there is open house again, but only the special event will be featured. That is a trip to the Patrick woolen mills. The boys left at 2 o'clock.

Saturday at 10:30 there will be a moving picture show, "Daddy Long Legs," and at 2 o'clock there will be another hike out to the West Duluth Y. M. C. A. The boys are all keeping track of their miles for the 500 club. Sunday the usual meetings will be held to which all boys are invited whether members of the club or not. Boys 12 to 15 years will meet at 3 o'clock and boys 15 to 19 years at 4 o'clock. Julius Nolte, a former cabinet officer, will be the speaker at the older boys' meeting.
